No. 61

FEBRUARY 4, 1809.

Read the first and second time, and committed to a committee of the whole House, on Monday next.

A Bill,

For the relief of John N. Stout.

Sec. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the proper accounting officers of the treasury be, and they are hereby authorized and directed to settle the account of John N. Stout, keeper of the jail of Fleming county, in the state of Kentucky, and allow him the legal fees for maintaining George Barnaby, while in his custody, as a prisoner committed to the jail of said county by virtue of an execution issued from the court of the United States for the district of Kentucky, and that they pay the sum which may be found due to the said John N. Stout, out of any monies in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.
