114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 1927

To amend title 5, United States Code, to postpone the effective date of high-impact rules pending judicial review.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

AUGUST 4, 2015

Mr. COATS (for himself and Mr. LANKFORD) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs

---

A BILL

To amend title 5, United States Code, to postpone the effective date of high-impact rules pending judicial review.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Require Evaluation before Implementing Executive Wishlists Act of 2015" or the "REVIEW Act of 2015".

SEC. 2. RELIEF PENDING REVIEW.

Section 705 of title 5, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking ''When'' and inserting the following:

''(a) IN GENERAL.—When''; and

(2) by adding at the end the following:

''(b) HIGH-IMPACT RULES.—

''(1) DEFINITIONS.—In this subsection—

''(A) the term 'Administrator' means the Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs of the Office of Management and Budget; and

''(B) the term 'high-impact rule' means any rule that the Administrator determines may impose an annual cost on the economy of not less than $1,000,000,000.

''(2) RELIEF.—

''(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), an agency shall postpone the effective date of a high-impact rule of the agency pending judicial review.

''(B) FAILURE TO TIMELY SEEK JUDICIAL REVIEW.—Notwithstanding section 553(d), if no person seeks judicial review of a high-impact rule during the 60-day period beginning on the date on which the high-impact rule is published in the Federal Register, the high-impact rule shall take effect on the date that is 60 days after the date on which the high-impact rule is published.''.
