20th CONGRESS,
2d SESSION.

H. R. 389.

JANUARY 22, 1829.

Read twice, and committed to the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union.

Mr. HAMILTON, from the Committee on Retrenchment, reported the following bill:

A BILL

To regulate the allowance of forage to officers of the Army.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That,
3 from and after the passage of this act, the officers of the Army,
4 entitled by existing laws to forage, shall be allowed, in lieu
5 thereof, the following sums respectively, viz: a Major General,
6 Brigadier General, Adjutant General, Inspector General,
7 Quartermaster General, and Commissary General of Subsist-
8 ence, each twenty dollars per month; a Colonel, sixteen dol-
9 lars per month; a Lieutenant-Colonel, Major, Quartermaster,
10 Paymaster, and Surgeon, each twelve dollars per month; and
11 every other officer entitled to forage, ten dollars per month.

1 SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all acts and
2 parts of acts, in relation to forage, now in force, be, and the 3 same are hereby, repealed.
