23d CONGRESS,
2d SESSION.

H. R. 671.

JANUARY 22, 1835.

Read twice, and committed to a Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union.

Mr. INGE, from the Committee on the Public Lands, reported the following bill:

A BILL

To authorize the settlement of claims of deputy surveyors for surveying Spanish land claims in Florida.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the deputy surveyors in the Territory of Florida, who have been engaged in the surveys of Spanish confirmed grants, in said Territory, shall be, and they are hereby, authorized to demand and receive, in all cases where the sum now allowed by law is insufficient to pay expenses, their actual expenses incurred in making said surveys, to be ascertained by proof, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury; which said sums shall be allowed and paid out of appropriations made for the surveys of public and private lands.
