28th CONGRESS,
2d SESSION.

H. R. 582.

[Report No. 95.]

FEBRUARY 4, 1845.

Read, and committed to the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union.

Mr. FISH, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported the following bill:

A BILL

Providing for the erection of a building on Governor's island, in the harbor of New York.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Quartermaster General, in the purchase of materials for a building to be erected on Governor's island, in the harbor of New York, of adequate dimensions to receive the assembled garrison, and to accommodate the schools provided for by the regulations of the army; together with a suitable room for the collection and preservation of a post library.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said building shall be constructed according to plans and specifications to be approved by the Quartermaster General; and that the labor of erecting the said building shall be performed by the men of the garrison, so that no part of the sum hereby appropriated shall be applied otherwise than for the purchase of materials for the said building.
