25th CONGRESS,
3d SESSION.

H. R. 1093.

FEBRUARY 1, 1839.

Introduced, on leave, by Mr. JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, and committed to a Committee of the Whole House.

SAME DAY.

Reported from Committee of the Whole without amendment, and ordered to be engrossed for to-morrow.

A BILL

For the relief of the heirs of Crocker Sampson, deceased.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War cause to be issued a duplicate of warrant number one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, issued to Crocker Sampson, a lieutenant in the Massachusetts line of the army of the Revolution, for two hundred acres of land: Provided, That nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to affect the interest of any bona-fide assignee of said original warrant, if the same shall be still in existence; in which event, the duplicate hereby authorized shall be null and void.
