27th CONGRESS,
3d SESSION.

H. R. 806.

(Rep. No. 198.)

FEBRUARY 22, 1843.

Read three times, engrossed, and passed.

Mr. GARRETT DAVIS, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported the following bill:

A BILL

Directing the survey of the northern line of the reservation for the half-breeds of the Sac and Fox tribe of Indians, by the treaty of fourth of August, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Chief Engineer cause to be surveyed and suitably demarked the northern boundary line of the reservation for the use of the half-breeds of the Sac and Fox tribe of Indians, by the treaty of the fourth of August, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, beginning at the point which, at the date of said treaty, was known and recognised as the northwest corner of the State of Missouri, and running thence due east to the river Mississippi, the section of said line lying between that stream and the river Des Moines, being the northern boundary line of said reservation.
