37TH CONGRESS,
3D SESSION.

H. R. 682.

[Report No. 9.]

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

JANUARY 16, 1863.

Read twice, committed to a Committee of the Whole House, made the order of the day for to-morrow, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. NOELL, from the Committee of Claims, reported the following bill:

A BILL

For the relief of Frederick A. Holden and others.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there be allowed and paid to the several persons hereinafter named, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, on account of rents and damages in consequence of the occupation and use of their property by the United States troops in Western Virginia, the following sums, that is to say: to Frederick A. Holden four thousand five hundred and eighty-seven dollars; to Eli Thayer eight thousand five hundred and twenty-five dollars; to Hannah Buxton four hundred and eighty-one dollars; to Hiram Bloss one hundred and five dollars, and to D. W. Frisby one hundred and fifty dollars.
