39TH CONGRESS,
2D SESSION.

H. R. 1226.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

FEBRUARY 27, 1867.

Read twice and referred to the Committee on Pensions.

AN ACT

For the relief of Captain William McKean.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place the name of William McKean, late captain company "I," ninety-second regiment New York volunteers, on the pension list, and pay or cause to be paid to him the same pension allowed by the general pension laws to persons having lost the sight of both eyes in the military service of the United States. The pension awarded by this act to be paid under the restrictions and limitations imposed by the pension laws.

Passed the House of Representatives February 26, 1867.

Attest: EDWARD McPHERSON, Clerk.
