

103^D CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 18

Expressing the sense of Congress that the laws that apply to the private sector and the other branches of the Federal Government should apply to Congress.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 21, 1993

Mr. GOSS (for himself, Mr. SHAYS, Mr. PETRI, Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN, Mr. SENBRENNER, Mr. SCHIFF, Mr. HEFLEY, and Mr. KLUG) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on House Administration

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of Congress that the laws that apply to the private sector and the other branches of the Federal Government should apply to Congress.

Whereas the declining credibility of Congress has affected the spirit of our Nation;

Whereas an increasing number of American people perceive Members of Congress as placing their interests before those of the Nation;

Whereas Congress has notably exempted itself from major laws governing the private sector and the other branches of the Federal Government; and

Whereas Congress might enact more workable laws if those laws also applied to Congress itself: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that Con-
3 gress is not exempt from the laws that it enacts and
4 should govern itself according to the laws that apply to 5 the private sector and the other branches of the Federal
6 Government.
