

103^D CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. J. RES. 149

Designating July 4, 1993, through July 10, 1993, as “Buy American Week”.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 11, 1993

Mr. GOODLING (for himself and Mr. TRAFICANT) introduced the following joint resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service

JOINT RESOLUTION

Designating July 4, 1993, through July 10, 1993, as “Buy American Week”.

Whereas July 4, 1776, marks the birth of the United States as an independent country, and July 4, 1993, should mark the beginning of a week celebrating the rebirth of American-made products and services;

Whereas the American entrepreneurial spirit, free enterprise, open competition, and ingenuity have made the United States a global leader in the advancement of technology;

Whereas American workers produce some of the highest quality products and provide some of the highest quality services in the world, and these American-made products are in such high demand that other countries go to extraordinary lengths to emulate them;

Whereas American businesses should rediscover the value of American-made products by investment in American businesses, services, and opportunities, in order to bring about new growth in jobs for American workers; and

Whereas American consumers should help to celebrate the quality of products and services provided by American businesses by purchasing genuine “Made in the USA” products during the week beginning July 4, 1993: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That July 4, 1993, through July 10, 1993, is designated
4 as “Buy American Week”. The President is authorized
5 and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the 6 people of the United States to observe the day with appro-
7 priate ceremonies and activities.
