JOINT RESOLUTION

To authorize the President to issue a proclamation designating Sunday, August 1, 1993 as Small-Town Sunday.

Whereas small towns have made a significant contribution to American life;

Whereas small towns have been the spirit and backbone of this great Nation and have provided many common, traditional ideals and values throughout our history;

Whereas it is appropriate to recognize the importance of small towns in the development of a sense of community and to highlight the spirit of small towns;

Whereas it is vital to unify small-town residents in the process of revitalizing their own small town and reinvigorating small-town life; and

Whereas it is fitting that official recognition be given to the importance of small towns and a day set aside for activities that are most commonly associated with small towns, such as town festivals, family picnics, baseball games, et cetera: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That the President hereby is authorized and requested to
4 issue a proclamation designating Sunday, August 1, 1993
5 as Small-Town Sunday.
