JOINT RESOLUTION

Designating January 16, 1994, as “National Good Teen Day”.

Whereas Salem City Schools in Salem, Ohio, have proclaimed January 16, 1992, as “Good Teen Day”;

Whereas there are more than twenty-four million teenagers in the United States according to the 1990 Census;

Whereas our Nation’s teenagers represent an important part of our society, and the many physical and emotional changes and character-building experiences which teenagers go through are an important concern;

Whereas it is easy to stereotype teenagers as either those who have problems or those who excel;

Whereas teenagers should not simply be recognized for their intelligence, abilities, skills and talents, but rather for the good which is inherent in all human beings;

Whereas as unique individuals, teenagers are encouraged to esteem the good as well as the potential that is within each of them;

Whereas a day should be created to focus on the positive qualities in America's youth; and

Whereas teenagers are the future of this great country: Now, therefore, be it
