IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 7, 1994

Mr. SPRATT introduced the following bill; which was referred jointly to the Committees on Government Operations and Rules

A BILL

To provide a mechanism for dedicating spending cuts in discretionary spending programs to deficit reduction.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. ADJUSTMENTS OF DISCRETIONARY SPENDING

4 LIMITS.

5 (a) ADJUSTMENTS.—The Director shall reduce the 6 discretionary spending limit for new budget authority for 7 a fiscal year set forth in section 601(a)(2) of the Congres-
8 sional Budget Act of 1974, as adjusted in strict conform-
9 ance with section 251 of the Balanced Budget and Emer-
10 gency Deficit Control Act of 1985, by the net aggregate

1 amount for that fiscal year in all deficit reduction line
2 items set forth in each appropriation bill or rescission bill.
3 The Director shall reduce the adjusted discretionary
4 spending limit for outlays for that fiscal year and each
5 outyear as set forth in such section 601(a)(2) as a result 6 of the reduction of such budget authority, based upon the 7 spendout rates applicable to the discretionary spending
8 programs to which the deficit reduction line items apply.
9 Reductions (if any) shall occur on the day that each such 10 appropriation bill is enacted into law. For purposes of the 11 Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 12 1985, amounts in deficit reduction line items and outlay
13 reductions associated with them shall be taken into ac-
14 count only to make the adjustments specified in this sub-15 section. For purposes of the Congressional Budget Act of 16 1974, amounts in deficit reduction line items and outlay
17 reductions associated with them shall be considered budg-
18 et authority and outlays. For all other purposes, including 19 subchapter I of chapter 15 of title 31, United States Code
20 (popularly known as the Anti-Deficiency Act), the amount 21 in deficit reduction line items shall not be considered to 22 provide authority to enter into obligations. Whenever the 23 Director makes any adjustment required by this sub-24 section, he shall notify the House of Representatives, the

1 Senate, and the President on the day such adjustment is 2 made.
