11 the Native Corporation entered into a transaction
12 permitted under section 60(b)(5) of the Tax Reform
13 Act of 1984 and section 1804(e)(4) of the Tax Re-14 form Act of 1986 (referred to in this subsection (c) 15 as a ‘Native Corporation transaction’), income as-16 signed, transferred or otherwise made available by 17 the buyer corporation through the use of a corpora-18 tion (referred to in this subsection (c) as the ‘profit 19 subsidiary’) by reason of such transaction for a pe-20 riod in which the profit subsidiary qualified as a 21 member of the affiliated group of which the Native 22 Corporation was the common parent shall be in-23 cluded in the taxable income of the Native Corpora-
24 tion affiliated group solely for purposes of section
25 6212 of the Internal Revenue Code—

1 “(A) ELECTION.—The election under this 2 subsection (c) for the taxable year to which the 3 election relates shall be made no later than 120
4 days after the date of enactment of this amend-5 ment. The election shall be irrevocable and shall 6 be made by filing with the district director for 7 the Anchorage district office of the Internal 8 Revenue Service a written statement signed by 9 responsible officers of the Native Corporation 10 and the electing buyer corporation that—

11 “(i) identifies the Native Corporation,
12 the profit subsidiary, and the buyer cor-

14 numbers) and states their agreement to

3 credits of the Native Corporation affiliated 4 group that were used to offset the income 5 of each profit subsidiary;

6 “(iv) states the agreement of the 7 buyer corporation to consent under section
8 6501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code
9 to extend the periods of limitations for as-10 sessment and collection solely with respect 11 to the income of the profit subsidiary for 12 the affected taxable period(s) to a date not 13 less than 180 days after the date the tax 14 liability for the taxable year in which the 15 Native Corporation transaction occurred is 16 finally determined;

17 “(v) states the agreement of the Na-
18 tive Corporation to consent under section
19 6501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code

3 “(vi) the Native Corporation and the 4 buyer corporation agree that the Service is 5 authorized to make any refund of any 6 overpayment that is determined to be due, 7 jointly to the Native Corporation and the 8 electing buyer corporation.

9 If a Native Corporation has engaged in multiple 10 Native Corporation transactions, such election
11 shall be independently made by each buyer cor-
12 poration on separate written statements. A 13 buyer corporation that elects under this provi-
14 sion must so elect for all Native Corporation
15 transactions with the particular Native Cor-16 poration with whom the election is made for 17 which the statute of limitations for assessment is 18 open.

19 “(B) TAXABLE RATE.—Notwithstanding 20 section 11 of the Internal Revenue Code, any 21 income of the profit subsidiary that is subject
22 to the election provided in this subsection (c)
23 shall be taxed at the rate that such income
24 would have been taxed if it had been included 25 in the return of the buyer corporation for the 1 taxable year from which such income was as-

2 signed, transferred or otherwise made available.
3 Solely for purposes of issuing a notice under 4 section 6212 of the Internal Revenue Code to a
5 Native Corporation for a Native Corporation
6 transaction for which an election has been made 7 under this subsection (c), the tax may be com-
8 puted by applying the maximum corporate rate
9 under section 11 of the Internal Revenue Code.

10 “(2) TREATMENT OF NATIVE CORPORATION AS 11 COMMON PARENT AS SOLE AGENT.—The common
12 parent of an affiliated group which includes a Native 13 Corporation that elects under subsection (c)(1) shall 14 be the sole agent for the profit subsidiary for pur-15 poses of the Native Corporation transaction for the 16 period of affiliation.

17 “(3) COLLECTION OF TAX FROM BUYER COR-18 PORATION.—For purposes of this subsection, the 19 amount of any tax, interest, addition to tax, penalty
20 or other amount attributable to the income of the 21 profit subsidiary shall be paid by and be collectible 22 from the profit subsidiary and the buyer corporation 23 for the taxable year for which income was assigned, 24 transferred or otherwise made available by the buyer

1 corporation in connection with the Native Corpora-
2 tion transaction.

3 “(4) PAYMENT OF TAX BY NATIVE CORPORA-
4 TION.—If, after the election provided in subsection 5 (c)(1) is made, the Native Corporation pays all or 6 any part of the tax, interest, addition to tax, penalty
7 or other amount attributable to the income of the 8 profit subsidiary, such payment shall be deemed to 9 be a payment by the buyer corporation for the tax-
10 able year for which such income would otherwise 11 have been included in the buyer corporation’s return 12 if the election provided in subsection (c)(1) was not 13 made—

14 “(A) FILING OF REFUND CLAIM.—A Na-
15 tive Corporation that elects under subsection
16 (c)(1) shall be treated as the taxpayer for pur-17 poses of sections 6402 and 6511 of the Internal 18 Revenue Code with respect to all payments of 19 tax, interest, additions to tax, penalties, or 20 other amounts attributable to the income of the 21 profit subsidiary and shall be entitled to file a 22 claim for refund as the taxpayer with respect to 23 any taxes, interest, additions to tax, penalties 24 or other amounts attributable to the income of 25 the profit subsidiary.

1 “(B) FILING OF REFUND SUIT.—A Native
2 Corporation that elects under subsection (c)(1) 3 shall be treated as the taxpayer for purposes of 4 section 7422 of the Internal Revenue Code with 5 respect to all payments of tax, interest, addi-
6 tions to tax, penalties, or other amounts attrib-7 utable to the income of the profit subsidiary,
8 and as the plaintiff for purposes of section 9 1402 of title 28, United States Code, and shall 10 be entitled to file and maintain a proceeding in 11 court as the taxpayer for the recovery of such 12 amounts.

13 “(C) REFUND OF OVERPAYMENT.—In the 14 event that an overpayment is determined to be 15 due, whether by final administrative or judicial 16 decision, with respect to a Native Corporation 17 transaction (c)(1), the Native Corporation shall 18 be treated as the person who made the overpay-19 ment within the meaning of section 6402(a) of 20 the Internal Revenue Code. Notwithstanding 21 any law or rule of law, including the preceding 22 sentence, any refund of such overpayment may 23 be made jointly to the Native Corporation and 24 to the electing buyer corporation, as agreed to 25 under paragraph (A)(v) of subsection (c)(1).

1 “(5) PARTICIPATORY RIGHTS OF ELECTING 2 BUYER CORPORATION.—Any buyer corporation that 3 makes an election under subsection (c)(1) shall have 4 the right to—

5 “(A) submit a written statement and par-
6 ticipate with the Native Corporation in any ad-7 ministrative proceeding relating to any proposed 8 adjustment regarding a Native Corporation 9 transaction for which an election has been 10 made; and

11 “(B) file an amicus brief in any proceeding
12 in a Federal court or the United States Tax
13 Court that has been filed by the Native Cor-
14 poration involving a proposed adjustment re-
15 garding such a Native Corporation transaction.

16 All written notices or other reports issued by the 17 Secretary or his delegate with respect to such a Na-18 tive Corporation transaction shall be issued to the 19 Native Corporation, and it shall be the obligation of 20 the Native Corporation to provide copies thereof to 21 the electing buyer corporation. Rules similar to the 22 rules of subparagraphs (B) and (C) of paragraph (7)
23 shall apply for purposes of this paragraph.

24 “(6) FINAL DETERMINATION OF ISSUES.—

1 “(A) All issues with respect to the Native
2 Corporation transaction with respect to which 3 an election is made under subsection (c)(1), in-4 cluding the applicability of any interest, addi-5 tion to tax, penalty or other amount, shall be 6 determined by administrative or judicial deci-7 sion with respect to the consolidated return of 8 the Native Corporation affiliated group.

9 “(B) Upon such determination, any income 10 of the profit subsidiary that is not offset in the 11 Native Corporation transaction shall be re-12 ported on the buyer corporation’s return as if 13 it were originally reported thereon and subject 14 to all adjustments, including net operating loss
15 or other carrybacks, to which such income 16 would otherwise be subject.

17 “(7) NO EFFECT ON NONELECTING CORPORA-
18 TIONS.—The absence of an election by a Native Cor-
19 poration and a buyer corporation with respect to a 20 Native Corporation transaction shall not restrict the 21 authority of the Secretary of the Treasury or his 22 delegate to settle or litigate with any nonelecting 23 buyer corporation with respect to any issue relating 24 to such a transaction—

1 “(A) RIGHTS OF NATIVE CORPORATION.—
2 For any such Native Corporation transaction
3 for which no election is made under subsection 4 (c)(1), the Native Corporation shall have the 5 right to submit a written statement and partici-
6 pate with the buyer corporation in any adminis-
7 trative proceeding relating to any proposed ad-
8 justment regarding such Native Corporation 9 transaction; and to file an amicus brief in any 10 proceeding in a Federal court or the United 11 States Tax Court that has been filed by the 12 non-electing buyer corporation involving a pro-
13 posed adjustment regarding such Native Cor-
14 poration transaction.

15 “(B) EXTENSION OF STATUTE OF LIMITA-16 TIONS.—Subparagraph (A) shall not apply if 17 the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate 18 determines that an extension of the statute of 19 limitations is necessary to permit the participa-
20 tion described in subparagraph (A) and the tax-21 payer and the Secretary or his delegate have 22 not agreed to such extension.

23 “(C) FAILURES.—For purposes of the 24 1986 Code, any failure by the Secretary of the 25 Treasury or his delegate to comply with the 1 provisions of this subsection shall not affect the 2 validity of the determination of the Internal 3 Revenue Service of any adjustment of tax liabil-

4 ity of any non-electing buyer corporation.

5 “(8) EFFECTIVE DATE.—This provision shall be 6 effective for all taxable years for which the statute 7 of limitations for assessment with respect to an 8 electing Native Corporation has not expired prior to 9 the date of enactment of this Act—

10 “(A) EXTENSION OF STATUTE OF LIMITA-11 TIONS.—Any Native Corporation for which the 12 statute of limitations for assessment will expire 13 within 120 days after the date of enactment of 14 this section shall have the right upon request to 15 extend such statute of limitations pursuant to 16 section 6501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue 17 Code to a date not less than 120 days after the 18 date of enactment of this section.

19 “(B) PERIOD FOR ASSESSMENTS.—If the 20 statute of limitations for assessments with re-
21 spect to an electing Native Corporation has not 22 expired prior to the date of the enactment of 23 this Act, such period shall not expire before the 24 date 120 days after the date on which the Na-

1 tive Corporation makes the election under this 2 subsection.”.

3 (b) Section 5021 of the Technical and Miscellaneous
4 Revenue Act of 1988 (Public Law 100–647) is amended
5 by adding, after subsection (e), new subsection (f) to read 6 as follows:

7 “(f) INCREASE IN UNDERPAYMENT RATE.—For pur-8 poses of determining the amount of interest payable under 9 section 6601 of the Internal Revenue Code on a tax
10 underpayment attributable to a Native Corporation trans-
11 action for which an election has been made under sub-12 section (c) hereof, the underpayment rate otherwise appli-
13 cable under section 6621(a) (2) or (c) of the Internal Rev-
14 enue Code of 1986 shall be increased by 0.5 percentage 15 points.”.
