

One Hundred Third Congress of the United States of America

AT THE FIRST SESSION

Begun and held at the City of Washington on Tuesday, the fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-three

Concurrent Resolution

Whereas informed research on the history and operations of the United States Congress depends on full access to existing scholarly studies of its former members, as well as to their published papers and other writings; and

Whereas no recent compilation of these significant research resources presently exists: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That there shall be printed as a Senate document, the book entitled "Senators of the United States: A Historical Bibliography" prepared by the Senate Historical Office under the supervision of the Secretary of the Senate.

SEC. 2. Such document shall include illustrations, and shall be in such style, form, manner, and binding as directed by the Joint Committee on Printing after consultation with the Secretary of the Senate.
