

One Hundred Third Congress of the United States of America

AT THE FIRST SESSION

Begun and held at the City of Washington on Tuesday, the fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-three

Concurrent Resolution

Whereas the United States Constitution, in Article I, section 5, provides that "Each House shall be the Judge of the Elections, Returns and Qualifications of its own Members" and that "Each House may . . . punish its Members for disorderly Behaviour, and, with the Concurrence of two thirds, expel a Member";

Whereas the Senate has sought faithfully to exercise these constitutional requirements of self-discipline through its more than two-hundred-year history;

Whereas the Senate, beginning in 1885, has periodically published compilations of its election, expulsion, and censure cases for the guidance of members and the American people; and

Whereas the most recent edition is now twenty years out of date:
Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That there shall be printed as a Senate document, the book entitled "Senate Election, Expulsion, and Censure Cases" prepared by the Senate Historical Office under the supervision of the Secretary of the Senate.

SEC. 2. Such document shall include illustrations, and shall be in such style, form, manner, and binding as directed by the Joint Committee on Printing after consultation with the Secretary of the Senate.

S. Con. Res. 6—2

SEC. 3. In addition to the usual number, there shall be printed for the use of the Senate, to be allocated as determined by the Secretary of the Senate, the lesser of—

- (1) 3,000 copies of the document; or
- (2) such number of copies of the document as does not exceed a total production and printing cost of $28,657.
