

103^D CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. J. RES. 126

Designating September 10, 1993, as “National POW/MIA Recognition Day” and authorizing the display of the National League of Families POW/MIA flag.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

AUGUST 6 (legislative day, JUNE 30), 1993

Mr. SMITH (for himself and Mr. DODD) introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice, considered, read the third time, and passed

JOINT RESOLUTION

Designating September 10, 1993, as “National POW/MIA Recognition Day” and authorizing the display of the National League of Families POW/MIA flag.

Whereas the United States has fought in many wars and thousands of Americans who served in those wars were captured by the enemy or listed as missing in action;

Whereas many American prisoners of war were subjected to brutal and inhumane treatment by their enemy captors in violation of international codes and customs for the treatment of prisoners of war, and many such prisoners of war died from such treatment;

Whereas many of these Americans are still listed as missing and unaccounted for, and the uncertainty surrounding their fates has caused their families to suffer tragic and continuing hardships;

Whereas, in Public Law 101–355, the Federal Government officially recognized and designated the National League of Families POW/MIA flag as the symbol of the Nation’s concern and commitment to accounting as fully as possible for Americans still prisoner, missing in action, or unaccounted for in Southeast Asia; and

Whereas the sacrifices of Americans still missing and unaccounted for from all our Nation’s wars and their families are deserving of national recognition and support for continued priority efforts to determine the fate of those missing Americans: Now, therefore, be it
