JOINT RESOLUTION

To designate the week beginning October 25, 1993, as “National Child Safety Awareness Week”.

Whereas there is a need to promote awareness of all aspects of child safety in government, education, business, law enforcement, and private sectors within each community of the United States;

Whereas a combined effort and national awareness will help to eliminate or discourage possibly harmful or criminal actions against children;

Whereas statistics suggest an increase in incidents involving missing and exploited children during the week preceding a holiday season; and

Whereas the children of the United States are our greatest resource and warrant the protection necessary to ensure their healthy and happy lives: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That the week of October 25, 1993, through October 31,
4 1993, is designated as “National Child Safety Awareness
5 Week”. The President is authorized and requested to issue 6 a proclamation calling upon the people of the United 7 States to observe the week with appropriate programs,
8 ceremonies, and activities.
