Whereas the President, as Commander-in-Chief of the United States Armed Forces, has authorized and initiated the deployment of United States Armed Forces on the ground in the former Yugoslavia before obtaining congressional approval;

Whereas the Congress has grave reservations about the deployment of United States Armed Forces on the ground in the former Yugoslavia, but unequivocally supports the United States Armed Forces in their mission;

Whereas the enforcement of the peace agreement in the former Yugoslavia presents demanding challenges and poses extraordinary risks to the safety and security of the United States Armed Forces deployed there; and
