H. CON. RES. 120

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Supporting the independence and sovereignty of Ukraine and the progress of its political and economic reforms.

104TH CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. CON. RES. 120

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Whereas August 24, 1996, marks the fifth anniversary of the independence of Ukraine;

Whereas the independent State of Ukraine is a member State of the United Nations and the United Nations has established in Ukraine an office to assist Ukraine in building relations with the international community and in coordinating international assistance for Ukraine;

Whereas the independent State of Ukraine is a member State of the Council of Europe, the Organization on Security and Cooperation in Europe, the Central European Initiative, and the North Atlantic Cooperation Council of the North Atlantic Alliance, is a participant in the Partnership for Peace program of the North Atlantic Alliance, and has entered into a Partnership and Cooperation Agreement with the European Union;

Whereas the United States recognized Ukraine as an independent State on December 25, 1991;

Whereas Ukraine is a major European nation, having the second largest territory and sixth largest population of all the States of Europe;

Whereas Ukraine has an important geopolitical and economic role to play within Central and Eastern Europe and a strong, stable, and secure Ukraine serves the interests of peace and stability in all of Europe, which is also an important national security interest of the United States;

Whereas Ukraine conducted its first presidential and parliamentary elections as an independent State in 1994, carrying such elections out in a free and fair manner and moving further away from the former communist model of one-party, centralized, totalitarian rule;

Whereas Ukraine's presidential elections of July 1994 resulted in the first peaceful transfer of executive power in any of the independent States of the former Soviet Union;

Whereas on June 28, 1996, the Parliament of Ukraine adopted a new constitution for Ukraine;

Whereas Ukraine's economic and social stability depend on its ability to build a stable market-based economy and a legal system based on the rule of law, attract foreign investment, improve tax and revenue collection, and build its export sectors;

Whereas Ukraine was the first of the independent states of the former Soviet Union to have appointed a civilian to the office of Minister of Defense, an historic precedent in support of civilian control and oversight of the armed forces of Ukraine;

Whereas Ukraine is pursuing political and economic reforms intended to ensure its future strength, stability, and security and to ensure that it will assume its rightful place among the international community of democratic States and in European and trans-Atlantic institutions;

Whereas through the agreement by the Government of Ukraine to the establishment of a mission from the Organization on Security and Cooperation in Europe in the region of Crimea, Ukraine has shown its interest in avoiding the use of force in resolving ethnic and regional disputes within Ukraine;

Whereas all nuclear weapons were removed from Ukraine by June 1, 1996, and Ukraine has taken very positive steps in supporting efforts to stem proliferation of nuclear weapons by ratifying the START-I Treaty on nuclear disarmament and the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons;

Whereas in December 1994, the Presidents of the United States and the Russian Federation and the Prime Minister of Great Britain signed a Memorandum on National Security Assurances for Ukraine as depository States under the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons;

Whereas the Secretary of Defense of the United States and the Minister of Defense of Ukraine signed a Memorandum of Understanding on cooperation in the field of defense and military relations on July 27, 1993;

Whereas Ukraine has sought to promote constructive cooperation with its neighbors through humanitarian assistance and through mediation of disputes;

Whereas Ukraine has provided Ukrainian troops as part of the international peacekeeping force meant to prevent the spread of conflict in the states of the former Yugoslavia; and

Whereas Ukraine has acted in defense of its sovereignty and that of other newly independent states by opposing the emergence of any political or military organization which has the potential to promote the reintegration of the states of the former Soviet Union: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
 2 concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that—

3 (1) Ukraine has made significant progress in 4 political reform in its first 5 years of independence
 5 and that it is to be congratulated for the successful
 6 conduct of free and fair elections for the presidency
 7 and parliament and for the adoption of a new con-
 8 stitution;

9 (2) the territorial integrity of Ukraine in its ex-
 10 isting borders is an important element of European 11 peace and stability;

1 (3) the President and Parliament of Ukraine
2 should focus their efforts on passing legislation
3 needed to implement the new democratic constitu-
4 tion;

5 (4) the Government of Ukraine should continue 6 its efforts to ensure the rights of all citizens of 7 Ukraine regardless of their ethnic or religious back-
8 ground;

9 (5) the Government of Ukraine should make its 10 first priority the dismantling of the remaining social-11 ist sectors of its economy, particularly by speedily
12 privatizing medium and large state-owned enter-13 prises, privatizing state and collective farms and 14 ending their monopolistic control of the agro-indus-
15 trial sector, and fostering a competitive market-
16 based energy sector;

17 (6) the Government of Ukraine should make 18 the necessary institutional and legal reforms to cre-
19 ate a stable tax regime, foster market-based com-20 petition, protect the right to private property, and 21 make other changes that build a positive climate for 22 foreign investment;

23 (7) the Government of Ukraine should make it 24 a priority to build the institutional capacity and

1 legal framework needed to fight crime and corrup-
2 tion effectively in a democratic environment;

3 (8) the Government of Ukraine should continue
4 its cooperative efforts with the “G-7” group of 5 States to safely and expeditiously shut down the nu-
6 clear reactors at Chernobyl, Ukraine;

7 (9) the President of the United States should 8 support continued United States assistance to 9 Ukraine for its political and economic reforms, for 10 efforts associated with the safe and secure dis-11 mantlement of its weapons of mass destruction, and 12 for the increased safety of operation of its civilian 13 nuclear reactors, and assistance for the establish-14 ment of rule of law, for criminal justice and law en-
15 forcement training, and for the promotion of trade
16 and investment, and in this regard United States as-17 sistance to the Ukraine should leverage private-sec-
18 tor involvement as much as possible;

19 (10) the President of the United States should
20 urge that the Government of the Russian Federa-21 tion, in line with the assurances for the security of 22 Ukraine made by the President of the Russian Fed-23 eration in the January 1994 Trilateral Statement on 24 Nuclear Disarmament in Ukraine, offer Ukraine its 25 promised highest possible cooperation, fully and fi-

1 nally recognizing Ukraine's sovereignty and terri-
2 torial integrity and refraining from any economic co-
3 ercion of Ukraine;

4 (11) the Government of Ukraine should con-
5 tinue to act in defense of its sovereignty and that of 6 the other independent states of the former Soviet 7 Union by opposing the emergence of any political or 8 military organization which would have the potential 9 to promote the reintegration of the states of the 10 former Soviet Union;

11 (12) the President of the United States should 12 ensure that Ukraine's national security interests are 13 fully considered in any review of European security
14 arrangements and understandings;

15 (13) the President of the United States should 16 support continued United States security assistance
17 for Ukraine, including assistance for training of 18 military officers, military exercises as part of the 19 North Atlantic Alliance's Partnership for Peace pro-
20 gram, and appropriate military equipment to assist 21 Ukraine in maintaining its defensive capabilities as 22 it reduces its military force levels;

23 (14) the President of the United States should 24 ensure the United States Government's continued ef-
25 forts to assist Ukraine in its accession to the World

1 Trade Organization; and should ensure, in particu-
2 lar, that the potential for aerospace and space co-
3 operation and commerce between the United States
4 and Ukraine is fully and appropriately exploited; and 5 (15) as a leader of the democratic nations of 6 the world, the United States should continue to sup-
7 port the people of Ukraine in their struggle to bring 8 peace, prosperity, and democracy to Ukraine and to 9 the other independent states of the former Soviet 10 Union.

Passed the House of Representatives September 4, 1996.
