

104TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 37

Concerning the 28th anniversary of the reunification of Jerusalem.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 9, 1995

Mr. SCHUMER submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Concerning the 28th anniversary of the reunification of Jerusalem.

Whereas for 3000 years Jerusalem has been the focal point of Jewish religious devotion;

Whereas Jerusalem is also considered a holy city by the members of other religious faiths;

Whereas the once thriving Jewish majority of the historic Old City of Jerusalem was driven out by force during the 1948 Arab-Israeli War;

Whereas from 1948 to 1967 Jerusalem was a divided city and Israeli citizens of all faiths as well as Jewish citizens of all states were denied access to holy sites in the area controlled by Jordan;

Whereas in 1967 Jerusalem was reunited during the conflict known as the Six Day War;

Whereas since 1967 Jerusalem has been a united city administered by Israel and persons of all religious faiths have been guaranteed full access to holy sites within the city;

Whereas this year marks the 28th year that Jerusalem has been administered as a unified city in which the rights of all faiths have been respected and protected;

Whereas in 1990 the United States Senate and House of Representatives overwhelmingly adopted Senate Concurrent Resolution 106 and House Concurrent Resolution 290 declaring that Jerusalem, the capital of Israel, “must remain an undivided city”;

Whereas subsequent statements by the Government of the United States, including support for United Nations Security Council Resolutions 681 and 726, have raised understandable concern in Israel that Jerusalem might one day be redivided and access to religious sites in Jerusalem denied to Israeli citizens of all faiths and Jewish citizens of other states; and

Whereas such concerns inhibit and complicate the search for a lasting peace in the region: Now, therefore, be it
