

One Hundred Fourth Congress of the United States of America

AT THE FIRST SESSION

Begun and held at the City of Washington on Wednesday, the fourth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and ninety-five

Concurrent Resolution

Whereas United States diplomatic and economic security interests in East Asia have caused the United States to maintain a policy of recognizing the People's Republic of China while maintaining solidarity with the democratic aspirations of the people of Taiwan; Whereas the Republic of China on Taiwan (known as Taiwan) is the United States sixth largest trading partner and an economic powerhouse buying more than twice as much annually from the United States as do the 1,200,000,000 Chinese of the People's Republic of China; Whereas the American people are eager for expanded trade opportunities with Taiwan, the possessor of the world's second largest foreign exchange reserves; Whereas the United States interests are served by supporting democracy and human rights abroad; Whereas Taiwan is a model emerging democracy, with a free press, free elections, stable democratic institutions, and human rights protections; Whereas vigorously contested elections conducted on Taiwan in December 1994 were extraordinarily free and fair; Whereas United States interests are best served by policies that treat Taiwan's leaders with respect and dignity; Whereas President Lee Teng-hui of Taiwan, a Ph.D. graduate of Cornell University, has been invited to pay a private visit to his alma mater and to attend the annual USA-ROC Economic Council Conference in Anchorage, Alaska; Whereas there are no legitimate grounds for excluding President Lee Teng-hui from paying private visits; Whereas the Senate of the United States voted several times in 1994 to welcome President Lee to visit the United States; and Whereas Public Law 103-416 provides that the President of Taiwan shall be welcome in the United States at any time to discuss a host of important bilateral issues: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate concurring), That it is the sense of the Congress that the President should promptly indicate that the United States will welcome a
