Subtitle A—Revision of Procedures for Removal of Aliens

SEC. 300. OVERVIEW OF CHANGES IN REMOVAL PROCEDURES.

This subtitle amends the provisions of the Immigration and Nationality Act relating to procedures for inspection, exclusion, and deportation of aliens so as to provide for the following:

(1) EXPEDITED REMOVAL FOR UNDOCUMENTED ALIENS.—Aliens arriving without valid documents are subject to an expedited removal process, without an evidentiary hearing and subject to strictly limited judicial review.

(2) NO REWARD FOR ILLEGAL ENTRANTS OR VISA OVERSTAYERS.—No alien will gain immigration benefits by entering illegally or overstaying the period of authorized admission. Such aliens will not be eligible for most discretionary immigration benefits, such as suspension of removal and work authorization.

(3) STRicter STANDARDS TO ASSURE DETENTION OF ALIENS.—There are more stringent standards for the release of aliens (particularly aliens convicted of aggravated felonies) during and after removal proceedings.

(4) Simplified, Single Removal Proceeding (In Place of Separate Exclusion and Deportation Proceedings).—The procedures for exclusion and deportation are consolidated into a simpler, single procedure for removal of inadmissible and deportable aliens.
(5) Streamlined Judicial Review.—Judicial review is streamlined through removing a layer of review in exclusion cases, shortening the time period to file for review, and permitting the removal of inadmissible aliens pending the review.

(6) Increased Penalties to Assure Removal and Prevent Further Reentry.—Aliens who are ordered removed are subject to civil money penalties for failure to depart on time and if they seek reentry they are subject to immediate removal under the prior order.

(7) Protection of Applicants for Asylum.—Throughout the process, the procedures protect those aliens who present credible claims for asylum by giving them an opportunity for a full hearing on their claims.

(8) Reorganization.—The provisions of the Act are reorganized to provide a more logical progression from arrival and inspection through proceedings and removal.
SEC. 301. TREATING PERSONS PRESENT IN THE UNITED STATES WITHOUT AUTHORIZATION AS NOT ADMITTED.

ordered, if such evidence is material and was not available and would not have been discovered or presented at the previous proceeding.

(iii) Failure to appear.—A motion to reopen may be filed within 180 days after the date of the final order of removal if the order has been entered pursuant to subsection (b)(5) due to the alien’s failure to appear for proceedings under this section and the alien establishes that the alien’s failure to appear was because of exceptional circumstances beyond the control of the alien or because the alien did not receive the notice required under section 239(a)(2).

‘‘Sec. 242. (a) Applicable Provisions.—
(1) GENERAL ORDERS OF REMOVAL.—Judicial review of a final order of removal (other than an order of removal without a hearing pursuant to section 235(b)(1)) is governed only by chapter 158 of title 28 of the United States Code, except as provided in subsection (b) and except that the court may not order the taking of additional evidence under section 2347(c) of such title.

(2) LIMITATIONS ON REVIEW RELATING TO SECTION 235(b)(1).—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no court shall have jurisdiction to review—

(A) except as provided in subsection (f), any individual determination or to entertain any other cause or claim arising from or relating to the implementation or operation of an order of removal pursuant to section 235(b)(1),

(B) a decision by the Attorney General to invoke the provisions of such section,

(C) the application of such section to individual aliens, including the determination made under section 235(b)(1)(B), and

(D) procedures and policies adopted by the Attorney General to implement the provisions of section 235(b)(1).
Title III, Subtitle A

“(3) Treatment of Certain Decisions.— No alien shall have a right to appeal from a decision of an immigration judge which is based solely on a certification described in section 240(a)(1)(B).

“(b) Requirements for Orders of Removal.—

With respect to review of an order of removal under subsection (a)(1), the following requirements apply:

“(1) Deadline.— The petition for review must be filed not later than 30 days after the date of the final order of removal.

“(2) Venue and Forms.— The petition for review shall be filed with the court of appeals for the judicial circuit in which the immigration judge completed the proceedings. The record and briefs do not have to be printed. The court of appeals shall review the proceeding on a typewritten record and on typewritten briefs.

“(3) Service.—

“(A) In General.— The respondent is the Attorney General. The petition shall be served on the Attorney General and on the officer or employee of the Service in charge of the Service district in which the initial proceedings under section 240 were conducted.

“(B) Stay of Order.—
“(i) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in clause (ii), service of the petition on the officer or employee stays the removal of an alien pending the court’s decision on the petition, unless the court orders otherwise.

“(ii) EXCEPTION.—If the alien has been convicted of an aggravated felony, or the alien has been ordered removed pursuant to a finding that the alien is inadmissible under section 212, service of the petition does not stay the removal unless the court orders otherwise.

“(4) DECISION.—Except as provided in paragraph (5)(B)—

“(A) the court of appeals shall decide the petition only on the administrative record on which the order of removal is based,

“(B) the administrative findings of fact are conclusive if supported by reasonable, substantial, and probative evidence on the record considered as a whole, and

“(C) a decision that an alien is not eligible for admission to the United States is conclusive unless manifestly contrary to law.
“(5) TREATMENT OF NATIONALITY CLAIMS.—

“(A) COURT DETERMINATION IF NO ISSUE
OF FACT.—If the petitioner claims to be a national of the United States and the court of appeals finds from the pleadings and affidavits that no genuine issue of material fact about the petitioner’s nationality is presented, the court shall decide the nationality claim.

“(B) TRANSFER IF ISSUE OF FACT.—If
the petitioner claims to be a national of the United States and the court of appeals finds that a genuine issue of material fact about the petitioner’s nationality is presented, the court shall transfer the proceeding to the district court of the United States for the judicial district in which the petitioner resides for a new hearing on the nationality claim and a decision on that claim as if an action had been brought in the district court under section 2201 of title 28, United States Code.

“(C) LIMITATION ON DETERMINATION.—
The petitioner may have the nationality claim decided only as provided in this section.

“(6) CONSOLIDATION WITH REVIEW OF MO-

tioner seeks review of an order under this section, any review sought of a motion to reopen or reconsider the order shall be consolidated with the review of the order.

"(7) CHALLENGE OF VALIDITY OF ORDERS.—

"(A) IN CERTAIN CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS.—If the validity of an order of removal has not been judicially decided, a defendant in a criminal proceeding charged with violating section 243 may challenge the validity of the order in the criminal proceeding only by filing a separate motion before trial. The district court, without a jury, shall decide the motion before trial.

"(B) CLAIMS OF UNITED STATES NATIONALITY WHERE NO ISSUE OF FACT.—If the defendant claims in the motion to be a national of the United States and the district court finds that no genuine issue of material fact about the defendant’s nationality is presented, the court shall decide the motion only on the administrative record on which the removal order is based. The administrative findings of fact are conclusive if supported by reasonable, substantial, and probative evidence on the record considered as a whole.

“(C) Claims of United States nationality where issue of fact.—If the defendant claims in the motion to be a national of the United States and the district court finds that a genuine issue of material fact about the defendant’s nationality is presented, the court shall hold a new hearing on the nationality claim and decide that claim as if an action had been brought under section 2201 of title 28, United States Code.

“(D) Consequence of invalidation.—If the district court rules that the removal order is invalid, the court shall dismiss the indictment. The United States Government may appeal the dismissal to the court of appeals for the appropriate circuit within 30 days. The defendant may not file a petition for review under this section during the criminal proceeding. The defendant may have the nationality claim decided only as provided in this section.

“(8) Construction.—This subsection—

“(A) does not prevent the Attorney General, after a final order of removal has been issued, from detaining the alien under section 241(a);

“(B) does not relieve the alien from complying with section 241(a)(4) and section 243(g); and

“(C) except as provided in paragraph (3), does not require the Attorney General to defer removal of the alien.

“(c) REQUIREMENTS FOR PETITION.—A petition for review or for habeas corpus of an order of removal shall state whether a court has upheld the validity of the order, and, if so, shall state the name of the court, the date of the court’s ruling, and the kind of proceeding.

“(d) REVIEW OF FINAL ORDERS.—A court may review a final order of removal only if—

“(1) the alien has exhausted all administrative remedies available to the alien as of right, and

“(2) another court has not decided the validity of the order, unless the reviewing court finds that the petition presents grounds that could not have been presented in the prior judicial proceeding or that the remedy provided by the prior proceeding was inadequate or ineffective to test the validity of the order.
(e) Limited Review for Non-Permanent Residents Convicted of Aggravated Felonies.—

(1) In general.—A petition for review filed by an alien against whom a final order of removal has been issued under section 238 may challenge only whether—shall have jurisdiction or authority to enter declaratory, injunctive, or other equitable relief not specifically authorized in this subsection, or to certify a class under Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

“(3) LIMITATION TO HABEAS CORPUS.—Judicial review of any matter, cause, claim, or individual determination made or arising under or pertaining to section 235(b)(1) shall only be available in habeas corpus proceedings, and shall be limited to determinations of—

“(A) whether the petitioner is an alien,

“(B) whether the petitioner was ordered removed under such section, and “(C) whether the petitioner can prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the petitioner is an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence and is entitled to such further inquiry as prescribed by the Attorney General pursuant to section 235(b)(1)(C).

“(4) DECISION.—In any case where the court determines that the petitioner—

“(A) is an alien who was not ordered removed under section 235(b)(1), or “(B) has demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence that the alien is a lawful permanent resident, the court may order no remedy or relief other than to require that the petitioner be provided a hearing in accordance with section 240, or a determination in accordance with section 273(d). Any alien who is provided a hearing under section 240 pursuant to this paragraph may thereafter obtain judicial review of any resulting final order of removal pursuant to subsection (a)(1).

“(5) Scope of inquiry.—In determining whether an alien has been ordered removed under section 235(b)(1), the court’s inquiry shall be limited to whether such an order in fact was issued and whether it relates to the petitioner. There shall be no review of whether the alien is actually inadmissible or entitled to any relief from removal.

“(g) Limit on injunctive relief.—Regardless of the nature of the action or claim or of the identity of the party or parties bringing the action, no court (other than the Supreme Court) shall have jurisdiction or authority to enjoin or restrain the operation of the provisions of chapter 4 of title II, as amended by the Immigration in the National Interest Act of 1995, other than with respect

Such a request may be made ex parte except that the judge shall inform the Department of Justice of any request for a subpoena by the alien for a witness or material if compliance with such a subpoena would reveal evidence or the

which the Department of Justice has received perpartment of Justice shall be given a reasonable op-for from funds appropriated for the enforcement of title II.

“(3) Nationwide Service.—A subpoena under this subsection may be served anywhere in the United States.

"(g) Arguments.—Following the receipt of evidence, the attorneys for the Department of Justice and for the alien shall be given fair opportunity to present argument as to whether the evidence is sufficient to justify the removal of the alien. The attorney for the Department of Justice shall open the argument. The attorney for the alien shall be permitted to reply. The attorney for the Department of Justice shall then be permitted to reply in rebuttal. The judge may allow any part of the argument that refers to evidence received in camera and ex parte to be heard in camera and ex parte.

"(h) Burden of Proof.—In the hearing the Department of Justice has the burden of showing by clear and convincing evidence that the alien is subject to removal because the alien is an alien terrorist. If the judge finds that the Department of Justice has met this burden, the judge shall order the alien removed and detained pending removal from the United States. If the alien was released pending the special removal hearing, the judge shall order the Attorney General to take the alien into custody.
Title III, Subtitle B

“(i) Written Order.—At the time of rendering a decision as to whether the alien shall be removed, the judge shall prepare a written order containing a statement of facts found and conclusions of law. “(B) to permit the alien to prepare a defense against deportation.

The Department of Justice shall cause to be delivered to the alien a copy of the summary.

“(3) Opportunity for correction and resubmittal.—If the judge does not approve the summary, the judge shall provide the Department a reasonable opportunity to correct the deficiencies identified by the court and to submit a revised summary.

“(4) Conditions for termination of proceedings if summary not approved.—

Title III, Subtitle B

“(B) FINDINGS.—The findings described in this subparagraph are, with respect to an alien, that—would likely cause serious and irreparable harm to the national security or death or serious bodily injury to any person.

“(5) CONTINUATION OF HEARING WITHOUT SUMMARY.—If a judge makes the findings described in paragraph (4)(B)— seek a review of the denial of an order sought in an application by the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit by notice of appeal which must be filed within 20 days. In such a case the entire record of the proceeding shall be transmitted to the Court of Appeals under seal and the Court of Appeals shall hear the matter ex parte. Subtitle A—Worldwide Numerical Limits

SEC. 501. WORLDWIDE NUMERICAL LIMITATION ON FAMILY-SPONSORED IMMIGRANTS.

(a) Overview.—

(1) The amendment made by subsection (b) provides for a worldwide level of family-sponsored immigrants of 330,000 less the number of spouses and children of citizens admitted in the previous year.

(2) However, there will be no limit on spouses and children of citizens nor would the number of visas available to spouses and children of lawful permanent residents go below 85,000.

(3) Any excess in family immigration above 330,000 would come from other unused visas and, if necessary, from future visa numbers.

(4) If there are any unused family visas, those visas would be added to the spouses and children of lawful permanent resident aliens.

(b) Amendment.—Subsection (c) of section 201 (8 U.S.C. 1151) is amended to read as follows:
“(c) Worldwide Level of Family-Sponsored Immigrants.—

“(1) In general.—Subject to the succeeding provisions of this subsection, the worldwide level of family-sponsored immigrants under this subsection (in this subsection referred to as the ‘worldwide family level’) for a fiscal year is 330,000.

“(2) Reduction for Spouses and Children of United States Citizens and Certain Other Family-Related Immigrants.—The worldwide family level for a fiscal year shall be reduced (but not below 85,000) by the number of aliens described in subsection (b)(2) who were issued immigrant visas or who otherwise acquired the status of aliens lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence in the previous fiscal year.

“(3) Further Reduction for Any Previous Excess Family Immigration.—

“(A) In general.—If there were excess family admissions in a particular fiscal year (as determined under subparagraph (B)) beginning with fiscal year 1997, then for the following fiscal year the worldwide family level shall be reduced (but not below 85,000) by the net num-number of excess admissions in that particular fiscal year (as defined in subparagraph (C)).

‘‘(B) DETERMINATION OF EXCESS FAMILY ADMISSIONS.—For purposes of subparagraph (A), there are excess family admissions in a fiscal year if—

‘‘(i) the number of aliens who are issued immigrant visas or who otherwise acquire the status of aliens lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence under section 203(a) or subsection (b)(2) in a fiscal year, exceeds ‘‘(ii) 330,000, less the carryforward number of excess admissions computed for the previous fiscal year (as defined in subparagraph (D)).

For purposes of this subparagraph, immigrant visa numbers issued under section 553 of the Immigration in the National Interest Act of 1995 (relating to certain transition immigrants) shall not be counted under clause (i).

‘‘(C) NET NUMBER OF EXCESS ADMISSIONS.—For purposes of subparagraph (A), the ‘‘net number of excess admissions’’ for a fiscal year is—
“(i) the excess described in subparagraph (B) for the fiscal year, reduced (but not below zero) by

““(ii) the number (if any) by which (I) the worldwide level under subsection (d) for the previous fiscal year exceeds the number of immigrants who are issued immigrant visas or who otherwise acquire the status of aliens lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence under section 203(b) in that previous fiscal year.

“(D) Carryforward number of excess admissions.—For purposes of subparagraph (B)(ii), the carryforward number of excess admissions for a particular fiscal year is the net number of excess admissions for the previous fiscal year (as defined in subparagraph (C)), reduced by the reductions effected under subparagraph (A) and paragraph (4) in visa numbers for the particular fiscal year.

“(4) Adjustment in certain employment-based visa numbers in case of remaining excess family admissions.—
“(A) In general.—If there is a remaining excess number of family admissions (as described in subparagraph (B)) in a fiscal year (beginning with fiscal year 1997) that is greater than zero, then for the following fiscal year there shall be reductions in immigrant visa numbers made available, pursuant to subsection (d) and paragraphs (3) and (4) of section 203(b), as follows:

“(i) First, adjustment of up to $\frac{1}{2}$ of numbers in investors.—First, the number of immigrant visa numbers made available under section 203(b)(4) shall be reduced by the lesser of—

“(I) the remaining excess number of family admissions (described in subparagraph (B)), or

“(II) $\frac{1}{2}$ of the maximum number of visa numbers that could (but for this paragraph) otherwise be made available under section 203(b)(4) in such following fiscal year.

“(ii) Then, adjustment of up to $\frac{1}{2}$ of numbers in professionals and skilled workers.—If the remaining excess number of family admissions is greater than the reduction in visa numbers effected under clause (i), then the number of immigrant visa numbers made available under section 203(b)(3) shall be reduced by the lesser of—

“(I) the remaining excess number of family admissions (described in subparagraph (B)) less the reduction in visa numbers effected under clause (i), or

“(B) REMAINING EXCESS NUMBER OF FAMILY ADMISSIONS DESCRIBED.—For purposes of subparagraph (A), the remaining excess number of family admissions in a fiscal year is the net number of excess admissions for the fiscal year (as defined in paragraph (3)(C)), reduced by the reduction (if any) effected under paragraph (3) in visa numbers for the succeeding fiscal year.”.

TITLE VI—RESTRICTIONS ON BENEFITS FOR ILLEGAL ALIENS

TABLE OF CONTENTS OF TITLE

Sec. 600. Statements of national policy concerning welfare and immigration.

Subtitle A—Eligibility of Illegal Aliens for Public Benefits

Part 1—Public Benefits Generally
Sec. 600. Statements of National Policy Concerning Welfare and Immigration.

The Congress makes the following statements concerning national policy with respect to welfare and immigration:

(1) Self-sufficiency has been a basic principle of United States immigration law since this country’s earliest immigration statutes.

(2) It continues to be the immigration policy of the United States that—

(A) aliens within the nation’s borders not depend on public resources to meet their needs, but rather rely on their own capabilities and the resources of their families, their sponsors, and private organizations, and

(B) the availability of public benefits not constitute an incentive for immigration to the United States.

(3) Despite the principle of self-sufficiency, aliens have been applying for and receiving public benefits from Federal, State, and local governments at increasing rates.

(4) Current eligibility rules for public assistance and unenforceable financial support agreements have proved wholly incapable of assuring that individual aliens not burden the public benefits system.

(5) It is a compelling government interest to enact new rules for eligibility and sponsorship agreements in order to assure that aliens be self-reliant in accordance with national immigration policy.

(6) It is a compelling government interest to remove the incentive for illegal immigration provided by the availability of public benefits.

(7) Where States are authorized to follow Federal eligibility rules for public assistance programs, the Congress strongly encourages the States to adopt the Federal eligibility rules.
