A BILL

To amend the Small Business Act to extend the pilot Small Business Technology Transfer program, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1   SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2       This Act may be cited as the “Pilot Small Business 3   Technology Transfer Program Extension Act of 1996”.

4   SEC. 2. PROGRAM EXTENSION.

5       *Section 9(n) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C.
6   638(n)) is amended—*

7               (1) in paragraph (1)—

8                   (A) by striking “in fiscal year 1994, 1995, 9   or 1996,”;

10                  (B) by striking “and” at the end of sub-11   paragraph (B);

12                  *(C) by striking the comma at the end of 13   subparagraph (C) and inserting “; and”; and 14                  *(D) by inserting after subparagraph (C) the 15   following new subparagraph:

16                  “(D) not less than 0.25 percent of such 17   budget in fiscal year 1997 and each succeeding 18   fiscal year,”; and

19                  (2) by adding at the end the following new para-20   graph:

21                  “(4) PROGRAM EXPIRATION.—Authorization to 22   carry out the STTR program pursuant to this sub-23   section (and subsections (o) and (p) of this section) 24   shall expire on September 30, 2000.”.

1     SEC. 3. ASSESSMENT BY THE COMPTROLLER GENERAL.

2         (a) ASSESSMENT REQUIRED.—The Comptroller Gen-
3     eral of the United States shall conduct an assessment of the 4     ongoing implementation of the Small Business Innovation
5     Research (SBIR) program and the pilot Small Business
6     Technology Transfer (STTR) program. The assessment
7     shall address the following issues with respect to each pro-
8     gram:

9             (1) The extent of competition and the quality of 10     proposals submitted for the award of SBIR and 11     STTR agreements, and the quality of subsequent per- 12     formance by the recipients of such awards.

13             (2) Whether any adverse effects on the research 14     or research and development programs of any spon-
15     soring agency are attributable to the agency's partici-
16     pation in the SBIR program or the pilot STTR pro-
17     gram.

18             (3) Whether any awards by a sponsoring agency
19     in each fiscal year represent the applicable percent- 20     ages of such agency's extramural budget, identifying 21     any systemic management weaknesses contributing to 22     such limitation on implementation.

23             (4) Any management techniques initiated by 24     sponsoring agencies that attempt to minimize delays
25     between the successful completion of a Phase I agree- 26     ment and the award (and commencement of perform-

1       ance) under a Phase II agreement or ameliorate the 2       adverse effects of such delays.

3           (5) The implementation of Phase III by partici-4       pating agencies, including awards in support of 5       Phase III and other techniques adopted by the agen-6       cies to foster commercialization.

7           *(6) The extent to which small business partici-
8       pants in each program, especially recipients of STTR 9       awards, utilize the results of research undertaken for 10      Federal agencies by universities, federally funded re-11      search and development centers, and other research 12      institutions, and the extent to which the results were 13      subsequently developed by such small firms to meet 14      the needs of Federal, State, and local government or 15      advanced to use in the commercial marketplace.*

16           *(7) Whether the required and structured collabora-
17      tion between a small business and a research insti-18      tution under the pilot STTR program is necessary in 19      light of the experiences with voluntary collaborations 20      under the SBIR program.*

21           (8) Any duplication between the SBIR program 22      and the pilot STTR program.

23           *(9) The extent to which each agency participat-
24      ing in the SBIR program has complied with the pol-25      icy directives to enhance outreach efforts to increase*

1       the participation of socially and economically dis-
2       advantaged small business concerns and women-
3       owned small business concerns issued under section 4       (9)(j)(2)(F) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C.
5       638(j)(2)(F)) and the extent to which each agency
6       participating in the STTR program has made out- 7       reach efforts to increase the participation of such con-
8       cerns in the agency's STTR program.

9           (10) Any other relevant information as deter-
10       mined by the Comptroller General.

11       (b) PERIOD OF ASSESSMENT.—The assessment re-
12       quired by subsection (a) shall focus on the implementation 13       of each program during the period beginning October 1, 14       1995, and ending September 30, 1999.

15       (c) REPORT.—

16           (1) SUBMISSION OF REPORT.—The Comptroller
17       General shall submit a report of the assessment re-
18       quired by subsection (a) to the Committees on Small 19       Business of the Senate and House of Representatives 20       not later than February 1, 2000.

21           (2) APPENDICES TO REPORT.—The report shall 22       include—

23           (A) an appendix summarizing the findings
24       of previous reports issued by the Comptroller

1           General with respect to the SBIR program and 2           the pilot STTR program; and

3           (B) an appendix listing reports of other as- 4           sessments of the SBIR program or the pilot
5           STTR program issued by the Small Business
6           Administration, any of the sponsoring agencies,
7           and any other entities determined by the Compt-
8           rroller General to be useful resources to the Con-
9           gress in evaluating each program for reauthor- 10          ization.

11       SEC. 4. INTERAGENCY TASK FORCE ON COMMERCIALIZA-
12       TION.

13          (a) IN GENERAL.—The Administrator of the Small 14       Business Administration shall convene and supervise an 15       interagency task force on fostering commercialization of the 16       results of projects being undertaken by small business con-
17       cerns through the SBIR program and the pilot STTR pro-
18       gram.

19          (b) DUTIES.—The interagency task force shall— 20           (1) review existing studies and analyses and con-
21           duct independent assessments, as may be appropriate, 22           regarding the obstacles faced by small business entre- 23           preneurs seeking to commercialize results of basic re-
24           search or research and development undertaken
25           through Federal funding;

1                   (2) devise recommendations to overcome (or min-2 imize the effects of) such obstacles; and

3                   (3) address other matters that the Administrator 4 determines are appropriate to ensure a comprehensive 5 analysis and the development of practical rec-6 ommendations.

7                   (c) PARTICIPATION.—

8                   (1) TASK FORCE MEMBERSHIP.—The interagency 9 task shall include participation by representatives 10 of—

11                   (A) the Office of the Chief Counsel for Advo-
12 cacy of the Small Business Administration;

13                   (B) the 5 Executive agencies having the 14 greatest dollar value of awards under the SBIR 15 program in fiscal year 1995;

16                   (C) the Executive agencies participating in 17 the pilot STTR program in fiscal year 1995;

18                   (D) the Office of Science and Technology 19 Policy, Executive Office of the President; and 20                   (E) any other Executive agencies invited by 21 the Administrator.

22                   (2) PUBLIC PARTICIPATION.—In undertaking its 23 assessments and fashioning its recommendations, the 24 interagency task force shall provide opportunities for 25 consultation with representatives of—

- 1                   (A) small businesses and other entities that 2                   have participated in the SBIR program or the 3                   pilot STTR program;

5                   ness concerns;
- 6                   (C) organizations representing venture cap-7                   ital sources, especially those focusing on the 8                   needs of small high-technology entrepreneurs; 9                   and
- 10                  (D) any other public or private entities that 11                  the Administrator determines are appropriate.

12                 (d) SCHEDULE.—

13                 (1) NOTICE AND INITIAL CALL FOR PUBLIC PAR-
14                 TICIPATION.—Not earlier than May 1, 1997, the Ad-15                 ministrator shall publish in the Federal Register (and 16                 through other means likely to result in broad dissemi-17                 nation) a notice, which at a minimum, announces the 18                 existence of the interagency task force, identifies the 19                 members of task force, summarizes purposes and ob-20                 jectives of the task force, requests suggestions and rec-21                 ommendations from the public regarding the work of 22                 the task force, providing at least 180 days to make a 23                 submission in response to such notice, and announces 24                 any schedule of meetings of the task force or other 25                 public meetings.

1                             (2) ONGOING PUBLIC PARTICIPATION.—In con-
2                             ducting its assessments and fashioning its rec-
