H. R. 598

To guarantee the ability of licensed pharmacists to conduct the practice of pharmacy compounding and to ensure their right to the necessary supply of bulk drug products, subject to applicable State and Federal laws.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 20, 1995

Mr. BREWSTER (for himself, Mr. DELAY, and Mr. FIELDS of Texas) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Commerce

A BILL

To guarantee the ability of licensed pharmacists to conduct the practice of pharmacy compounding and to ensure their right to the necessary supply of bulk drug products, subject to applicable State and Federal laws.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Pharmacy
5 Compounding Preservation Act of 1994.”

1 SEC. 2. APPLICATIONS OF STATE AND FEDERAL LAW TO
2 THE PRACTICE OF PHARMACY
3 COMPOUNDING.

4 Amend section 210(gg) of the Food, Drug and Cos-
5 metic Act, 21 U.S.C. 321(gg): “Notwithstanding any
6 other provision of law, the provisions of this Act do not
7 apply to licensed retail pharmacies that compound drugs
8 in conformance with applicable local laws regulating the 9 practice of pharmacy and medicine. The provisions of this
10 Act do not apply to bulk drug products that are intended
11 to be used by pharmacies for compounding, except to the
12 extent that such provisions relate directly to the purity
13 and quality of such bulk drug products.”.
