

H. Res. 258

In the House of Representatives, U.S.,

November 9, 1995.

Resolved, That upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order without intervention of any point of order to consider in the House the bill (H.R. 2586) to provide for a temporary increase in the public debt limit, and for other purposes. The following amendments shall be considered as adopted: (1) the amendment recommended by the Committee on Ways and Means now printed in the bill; and (2) the amendments specified in the report of the Committee on Rules accompanying this resolution. The previous question shall be considered as ordered on the bill, as amended, and any amendments thereto to final passage without intervening motion except: (1) one hour of debate on the bill, as amended, which shall be equally divided and controlled by the chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Ways and Means; (2) one motion to amend by the chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means or his designee, which shall be considered as read and shall be debatable for twenty minutes equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent; (3) one motion to amend by Representative Walker of Pennsylvania or his designee, which shall be in order without intervention of any point of order, shall be considered as read, and shall be debatable for forty minutes equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent; and (4) one motion to recommit, which may include instructions only if offered by the minority leader or his designee. During consideration of the bill, no question shall be subject to a demand for division of the question.

Attest:

Clerk.
