H.R. 1058

OFFERED BY: Mr. MEEHAN

AMENDMENT No. 14: Page 21, beginning on line 13 strike paragraph (4) through page 22, line 23 and insert the following:

"(4) REASONABLE EXPECTATION OF INTEGRITY OF MARKET PRICE.—A plaintiff who buys or sells a security for which it is unreasonable to rely on market price to reflect all current information may not establish reliance pursuant to paragraph (2). The Commission shall, by rule, define for purposes of this paragraph markets or types of securities that are not sufficiently active and liquid to justify such reliance. The Commission shall consider the following factors in determining whether it was reasonable for a party to expect the market price of the security to reflect substantially all publicly available information regarding the issuer of the security—

"(A) whether the issuer and its securities are regularly reviewed by two or more analysts;

"(B) the weekly trading volume of any class of securities of the issuer of the security;

"(C) the existence of public reports by securities analysts concerning any class of securities of the issuer of the security;

"(D) the eligibility of the issuer of the security, under the rules and regulations of the Commission, to incorporate by reference its reports made pursuant to section 13 of this title in a registration statement filed under the Securities Act of 1933 in connection with the sale of equity securities; and

"(E) a history of immediate movement of the price of any class of securities of the issuer of the security caused by the public dissemination of information regarding unexpected corporate events or financial releases.

H.J. RES. 2,

OFFERED BY: Mr. CRANE

AMENDMENT No. 2: Strike all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years after the date of its submission for ratification:

"ARTICLE—

"SECTION 1. No person may be elected to the House of Representatives more than three times, and no person who has been a Member of the House of Representatives for one year of a term to which some other person was elected may be elected to the House
