

an annual governmentwide paperwork reduction goal of 5 percent.

It reauthorizes the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs [OIRA], within the Office of Management and Budget [OMB], which implements the act and requires each Federal agency to thoroughly review proposed paperwork requirements to make sure they are truly needed and have a practical utility. It also enhances public participation in reviewing paperwork requirements.

The bill clarifies that the act applies to all Government-sponsored paperwork, eliminating any confusion over the coverage of so-called third party burdens—those imposed by one private party on another due to a Federal regulation—caused by the U.S. Supreme Court's 1989 decision in Dole versus United Steelworkers of America. This decision created a loophole for agencies to avoid public comment and OMB review. Florida Gov. Lawton Chiles, who authorized the Paperwork Reduction Act when he was in the Senate, filed an amicus brief with the Supreme Court arguing that no such exemption for third party paperwork burdens where intended when the act was created. Unfortunately, the Court held that the plain meaning of the statute could not support such a finding.

Finally, I am pleased that the Governmental Affairs Committee accepted an amendment I offered in committee to make changes to the information technology provisions of the bill and allow the opportunity for information technology reform later this Congress. This is an important issue that warrants separate legislative consideration. In closing, I want to commend Senators ROTH, GLENN, and NUNN for their work in this area. The bill enjoys broad bipartisan support and I hope my colleagues will move expeditiously to vote on final passage.

RECESS UNTIL 2:15 P.M.

Mr. GREGG. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate now stand in recess until 2:15.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 12:23 p.m., recessed until 2:15 p.m.; whereupon, the Senate reassembled when called to order by the Presiding Officer (Mr. ABRAHAM).

“(IV) a description of the likely respondents and proposed frequency of response to the collection of information;

“(V) an estimate of the burden that shall result from the collection of information; and

“(VI) notice that comments may be submitted to the agency and Director;

“(2) the Director has approved the proposed collection of information or approval has been inferred, under the provisions of this section; and

“(3) the agency has obtained from the Director a control number to be displayed upon the collection of information.

“(b) The Director shall provide at least 30 days for public comment prior to making a decision under subsection (c), (d), or (h), except as provided under subsection (j).

“(c)(1) For any proposed collection of information not contained in a proposed rule, the Director shall notify the agency involved of the decision to approve or disapprove the proposed collection of information.

“(2) The Director shall provide the notification under paragraph (1), within 60 days after receipt or publication of the notice under subsection (a)(1)(D), whichever is later.

“(3) If the Director does not notify the agency of a denial or approval within the 60-day period described under paragraph (2)—

“(A) the approval may be inferred;

“(B) a control number shall be assigned without further delay; and “(C) the agency may collect the information for not more than 2 years.

“(d)(1) For any proposed collection of information contained in a proposed rule—

“(A) as soon as practicable, but no later than the date of publication of a notice of proposed rulemaking in the Federal Register, each agency shall forward to the Director a copy of any proposed rule which contains a collection of information and any information requested by the Director necessary to make the determination required under this subsection; and

“(B) within 60 days after the notice of proposed rulemaking is published in the Federal Register, the Director may file public comments pursuant to the standards set forth in section 3508 on the collection of information contained in the proposed rule;

“(2) When a final rule is published in the Federal Register, the agency shall explain—

“(A) how any collection of information contained in the final rule responds to the comments, if any, filed by the Director or the public; or “(B) the reasons such comments were rejected.

“(3) If the Director has received notice and failed to comment on an agency rule within 60 days after the notice of proposed rulemaking, the Director may not disapprove any collection of information specifically contained in an agency rule.

“(4) No provision in this section shall be construed to prevent the Director, in the Director's discretion—

“(A) from disapproving any collection of information which was not specifically required by an agency rule;

“(B) from disapproving any collection of information contained in an agency rule, if the agency failed to comply with the requirements of paragraph (1) of this subsection;

“(C) from disapproving any collection of information contained in a final agency rule, if the Director finds within 60 days after the publication of the final rule that the agency's response to the Director's comments filed under paragraph (2) of this subsection was unreasonable; or

“(D) from disapproving any collection of information contained in a final rule, if—

“(i) the Director determines that the agency has substantially modified in the final rule the collection of information contained in the proposed rule; and

“(ii) the agency has not given the Director the information required under paragraph (1) with respect to the modified collection of information, at least 60 days before the issuance of the final rule.

“(5) This subsection shall apply only when an agency publishes a notice of proposed rulemaking and requests public comments.

“(6) The decision by the Director to approve or not act upon a collection of information contained in an agency rule shall not be subject to judicial review.

“(e)(1) Any decision by the Director under subsection (c), (d), (h), or (j) to disapprove a collection of information, or to instruct the agency to make substantive or material change to a collection of information, shall be publicly available and include an explanation of the reasons for such decision.

“(2) Any written communication between the Office of the Director, the Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, or any employee of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs and an agency or person not employed by the Federal Government concerning a proposed collection of information shall be made available to the public.

“(3) This subsection shall not require the disclosure of—

“(A) any information which is protected at all times by procedures established for information which has been specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order or an Act of Congress to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy; or

“(B) any communication relating to a collection of information which has not been approved under this chapter, the disclosure of which could lead to retaliation or discrimination against the communicator.

“(f)(1) An independent regulatory agency which is administered by 2 or more members of a commission, board, or similar body, may by majority vote void—

“(A) any disapproval by the Director, in whole or in part, of a proposed collection of information of that agency; or “(B) an exercise of authority under subsection (d) of section 3507 concerning that agency.

“(2) The agency shall certify each vote to void such disapproval or exercise to the Director, and explain the reasons for such vote. The Director shall without further delay assign a control number to such collection of information, and such vote to void the disapproval or exercise shall be valid for a period of 3 years.

“(g) The Director may not approve a collection of information for a period in excess of 3 years.

“(h)(1) If an agency decides to seek extension of the Director's approval granted for a currently approved collection of information, the agency shall—

“(A) conduct the review established under section 3506(c), including the seeking of comment from the public on the continued need for, and burden imposed by the collection of information; and

“(B) after having made a reasonable effort to seek public comment, but no later than 60 days before the expiration date of the control number assigned by the Director for the currently approved collection of information, submit the collection of information for review and approval under this section, which shall include an explanation of how the agency has used the information that it has collected.

“(2) If under the provisions of this section, the Director disapproves a collection of information contained in an existing rule, or recommends or instructs the agency to make a substantive or material change to a collection of information contained in an existing rule, the Director shall—

“(A) publish an explanation thereof in the Federal Register; and

“(B) instruct the agency to undertake a rulemaking within a reasonable time limited to consideration of changes to the collection of information contained in the rule and thereafter to submit the collection of information for approval or disapproval under this chapter.

“(3) An agency may not make a substantive or material modification to a collection of information after such collection has been approved by the Director, unless the modification has been submitted to the Director for review and approval under this chapter.

“(i)(1) If the Director finds that a senior official of an agency designated under section 3506(a) is sufficiently independent of program responsibility to evaluate fairly whether proposed collections of information should be approved and has sufficient resources to carry out this responsibility effectively, the Director may, by rule in accordance with the notice and comment provisions of chapter 5 of title 5, United States Code, delegate to such official the authority to approve proposed collections of information in specific program areas, for specific purposes, or for all agency purposes.

“(2) A delegation by the Director under this section shall not preclude the Director from reviewing individual collections of information if the Director determines that circumstances warrant such a review. The Director shall retain authority to revoke such delegations, both in general and with regard to any specific matter. In acting for the Director, any official to whom approval authority has been delegated under this section shall comply fully with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Director.

“(j)(1) The agency head may request the Director to authorize a collection of information, if an agency head determines that—

“(A) a collection of information—

“(i) is needed prior to the expiration of time periods established under this chapter; and

“(ii) is essential to the mission of the agency; and

“(B) the agency cannot reasonably comply with the provisions of this chapter because—

“(i) public harm is reasonably likely to result if normal clearance procedures are followed;

“(ii) an unanticipated event has occurred; or

“(iii) the use of normal clearance procedures is reasonably likely to prevent or disrupt the collection of information or is reasonably likely to cause a statutory or court ordered deadline to be missed.

“(2) The Director shall approve or disapprove any such authorization request within the time requested by the agency head and, if approved, shall assign the collection of information a control number. Any collection of information conducted under this subsection may be conducted without compliance with the provisions of this chapter for a maximum of 90 days after the date on which the Director received the request to authorize such collection.

“§3508. Determination of necessity for information; hearing

“Before approving a proposed collection of information, the Director shall determine whether the collection of information by the agency is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information shall have practical utility. Before making a determination the Director may give the agency and other interested persons an opportunity to be heard or to submit statements in writing. To the extent that the Director determines that the collection of information by an agency is unnecessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, for any reason, the agency may not engage in the collection of information.

“§3509. Designation of central collection agency

“The Director may designate a central collection agency to obtain information for two or more agencies if the Director determines that the needs of such agencies for information will be adequately served by a single collection agency, and such sharing of data is not inconsistent with applicable law. In such cases the Director shall prescribe (with reference to the collection of information) the duties and functions of the collection agency so designated and of the agencies for which it is to act as agent (including reimbursement for costs). While the designation is in effect, an agency covered by the designation may not obtain for itself information for the agency which is the duty of the collection agency to obtain. The Director may modify the designation from time to time as circumstances require. The authority to designate under this section is subject to the provisions of section 3507(f) of this chapter.

“§3510. Cooperation of agencies in making information available

“(a) The Director may direct an agency to make available to another agency, or an agency may make available to another agency, information obtained by a collection of information if the disclosure is not inconsistent with applicable law.

“(b)(1) If information obtained by an agency is released by that agency to another agency, all the provisions of law (including penalties which relate to the unlawful disclosure of information) apply to the officers and employees of the agency to which information is released to the same extent and in the same manner as the provisions apply to the officers and employees of the agency which originally obtained the information.

“(2) The officers and employees of the agency to which the information is released, in addition, shall be subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, relating to the unlawful disclosure of information as if the information had been collected directly by that agency.

“§3511. Establishment and operation of Government Information Locator Service

“(a) In order to assist agencies and the public in locating information and to promote information sharing and equitable access by the public, the Director shall—

“(1) cause to be established and maintained a distributed agency-based electronic Government Information Locator Service (hereafter in this section referred to as the ‘Service’), which shall identify the major information systems, holdings, and dissemination products of each agency;

“(2) require each agency to establish and maintain an agency information locator service as a component of, and to support the establishment and operation of the Service;

“(3) in cooperation with the Archivist of the United States, the Administrator of General Services, the Public Printer, and the Librarian of Congress, establish an interagency committee to advise the Secretary of Commerce on the development of technical standards for the Service to ensure compatibility, promote information sharing, and uniform access by the public;

“(4) consider public access and other user needs in the establishment and operation of the Service;

“(5) ensure the security and integrity of the Service, including measures to ensure that only information which is intended to be disclosed to the public is disclosed through the Service; and

“(6) periodically review the development and effectiveness of the Service and make recommendations for improvement, including other mechanisms for improving public access to Federal agency public information.

“(b) This section shall not apply to operational files as defined by the Central Intelligence Agency Information Act (50 U.S.C. 431 et seq.).

“§3512. Public protection

“Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no person shall be subject to any penalty for failing to maintain, provide, or disclose information to or for any agency or person if the collection of information subject to this chapter—

“(1) does not display a valid control number assigned by the Director; or

“(2) fails to state that the person who is to respond to the collection of information is not required to comply unless such collection displays a valid control number.

“§3513. Director review of agency activities; reporting; agency response

“(a) In consultation with the Administrator of General Services, the Archivist of the United States, the Director of the National Institute of Standards and Technology, and the Director of the Office of Personnel Management, the Director shall periodically review selected agency information resources management activities to ascertain the efficiency and effectiveness of such activities to improve agency performance and the accomplishment of agency missions.

“(b) Each agency having an activity reviewed under subsection (a) shall, within 60 days after receipt of a report on the review, provide a written plan to the Director describing steps (including milestones) to—

“(1) be taken to address information resources management problems identified in the report; and

“(2) improve agency performance and the accomplishment of agency missions.

“§3514. Responsiveness to Congress

“(a)(1) The Director shall—

“(A) keep the Congress and congressional committees fully and currently informed of the major activities under this chapter; and

“(B) submit a report on such activities to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives annually and at such other times as the Director determines necessary.

“(2) The Director shall include in any such report a description of the extent to which agencies have—

“(A) reduced information collection burdens on the public, including—

“(i) a summary of accomplishments and planned initiatives to reduce collection of information burdens;

“(ii) a list of all violations of this chapter and of any rules, guidelines, policies, and procedures issued pursuant to this chapter; and

“(iii) a list of any increase in the collection of information burden, including the authority for each such collection;

“(B) improved the quality and utility of statistical information;

“(C) improved public access to Government information; and “(D) improved program performance and the accomplishment of agency missions through information resources management.

“(b) The preparation of any report required by this section shall be based on performance results reported by the agencies and shall not increase the collection of information burden on persons outside the Federal Government.

“§ 3515. Administrative powers

“Upon the request of the Director, each agency (other than an independent regulatory agency) shall, to the extent practicable, make its services, personnel, and facilities available to the Director for the performance of functions under this chapter.

“§ 3516. Rules and regulations

“The Director shall promulgate rules, regulations, or procedures necessary to exercise the authority provided by this chapter.

“§ 3517. Consultation with other agencies and the public

“(a) In developing information resources management policies, plans, rules, regulations, procedures, and guidelines and in reviewing collections of information, the Director shall provide interested agencies and persons early and meaningful opportunity to comment.

“(b) Any person may request the Director to review any collection of information conducted by or for an agency to determine, if, under this chapter, a person shall maintain, provide, or disclose the information to or for the agency. Unless the request is frivolous, the Director shall, in coordination with the agency responsible for the collection of information—

“(1) respond to the request within 60 days after receiving the request, unless such period is extended by the Director to a specified date and the person making the request is given notice of such extension; and

“(2) take appropriate remedial action, if necessary.

“§ 3518. Effect on existing laws and regulations

“(a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the authority of an agency under any other law to prescribe policies, rules, regulations, and procedures for Federal information resources management activities is subject to the authority of the Director under this chapter.

“(b) Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to affect or reduce the authority of the Secretary of Commerce or the Director of the Office of Management and Budget pursuant to Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1977 (as amended) and Executive order, relating to telecommunications and information policy, procurement and management of telecommunications and information systems, spectrum use, and related matters.

“(c)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), this chapter shall not apply to the collection of information—

“(A) during the conduct of a Federal criminal investigation or prosecution, or during the disposition of a particular criminal matter;

“(B) during the conduct of—

“(i) a civil action to which the United States or any official or agency thereof is a party; or

“(ii) an administrative action or investigation involving an agency against specific individuals or entities;

“(C) by compulsory process pursuant to the Antitrust Civil Process Act and section 13 of the Federal Trade Commission Improvements Act of 1980; or “(D) during the conduct of intelligence activities as defined in section 3.4(e) of Executive Order No. 12333, issued December 4, 1981, or successor orders, or during the conduct of cryptologic activities that are communications security activities.

“(2) This chapter applies to the collection of information during the conduct of general investigations (other than information collected in an antitrust investigation to the extent provided in subparagraph (C) of paragraph (1)) undertaken with reference to a category of individuals or entities such as a class of licensees or an entire industry.

“(d) Nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted as increasing or decreasing the authority conferred by Public Law 89-306 on the Administrator of the General Services Administration, the Secretary of Commerce, or the Director of the Office of Management and Budget.

“(e) Nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted as increasing or decreasing the authority of the President, the Office of Management and Budget or the Director thereof, under the laws of the United States, with respect to the substantive policies and programs of departments, agencies and offices, including the substantive authority of any Federal agency to enforce the civil rights laws.

“§ 3519. Access to information

“Under the conditions and procedures prescribed in section 716 of title 31, the Director and personnel in the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs shall furnish such information as the Comptroller General may require for the discharge of the responsibilities of the Comptroller General. For the purpose of obtaining such information, the Comptroller General or representatives thereof shall have access to all books, documents, papers and records, regardless of form or format, of the Office.

“§ 3520. Authorization of appropriations

“(a) Subject to subsection (b), there are authorized to be appropriated to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and for no other purpose, $8,000,000 for each of the fiscal years 1996, 1997, 1998, 1999, and 2000.

“(b)(1) No funds may be appropriated pursuant to subsection (a) unless such funds are appropriated in an appropriation Act (or continuing resolution) which separately and expressly states the amount appropriated pursuant to subsection (a) of this section.

“(2) No funds are authorized to be appropriated to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, or to any other officer or administrative unit of the Office of Management and Budget, to carry out the provisions of this chapter, or to carry out any function under this chapter, for any fiscal year pursuant to any provision of law other than subsection (a) of this section.”

(i) participated in the survey during the period of the demonstration program described under subsection (c) or has participated in the survey during any of the 24 calendar quarters previous to such period; and

(ii) assets of $50,000,000 or less at the time of being selected to participate in the survey for a subsequent time.

SEC. 104. OREGON OPTION PROPOSAL.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate finds that—

(1) Federal, State and local governments are dealing with increasingly complex problems which require the delivery of many kinds of social services at all levels of government;

(2) historically, Federal programs have addressed the Nation's problems by providing categorical assistance with detailed requirements relating to the use of funds which are often delivered by State and local governments;

(3) although the current approach is one method of service delivery, a number of problems exist in the current intergovernmental structure that impede effective delivery of vital services by State and local governments;

(4) it is more important than ever to provide programs that respond flexibly to the needs of the Nation's States and communities, reduce the barriers between programs that impede Federal, State and local governments' ability to effectively deliver services, encourage the Nation's Federal, State and local governments to be innovative in creating programs that meet the unique needs of the people in their communities while continuing to address national goals, and improve the accountability of all levels of government by better measuring government performance and better meeting the needs of service recipients;

(5) the State and local governments of Oregon have begun a pilot project, called the Oregon Option, that will utilize strategic planning and performance-based management that may provide new models for intergovernmental social service delivery;

(6) the Oregon Option is a prototype of a new intergovernmental relations system, and it has the potential to completely transform the relationships among Federal, State and local governments by creating a system of intergovernmental service delivery and funding that is based on measurable performance, customer satisfaction, prevention, flexibility, and service integration; and

(7) the Oregon Option has the potential to dramatically improve the quality of Federal, State and local services to Oregonians.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that the Oregon Option project has the potential to improve intergovernmental service delivery by shifting accountability from compliance to performance results and that the Federal Government should continue in its partnership with the State and local governments of Oregon to fully implement the Oregon Option.

SEC. 105. TERMINATION OF REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.

(b) IDENTIFICATION OF WASTEFUL REPORTS.—The President shall include in the first annual budget submitted pursuant to section 1105 of title 31, United States Code, after the date of enactment of this Act a list of reports that the President has determined are unnecessary or wasteful and the reasons for such determination.

(c) LIST OF REPORTS.—The list referred to under subsection (a) includes only the annual, semiannual, or other regular periodic reports on the list prepared by the Clerk of the House of Representatives for the first session of the One Hundred Third Congress under Clause 2 of Rule III of the Rules of the House of Representatives.

Mr. NUNN. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed.

Mr. FORD. I move to lay that motion on the table.

The motion to lay on the table was agreed to.

Mr. FORD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that I be allowed to speak as in morning business.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. THOMPSON). Without objection, it is so ordered.

BALANCED BUDGET AMENDMENT

Mr. FORD. Mr. President, in the 21 years I have served in this body, I have never seen the level of partisanship that we are seeing on the balanced budget amendment. So maybe I should not have been shocked last Friday to see my colleague from Mississippi, Senator LOTT, blatantly misrepresent my words of 1994. Clearly, his only purpose was to further divide the American public and to tarnish the reputation of Senators who have only sought to pass the best amendment possible.

Senator LOTT quoted me as saying, Mr. President, and I will quote it verbatim from the RECORD; this is what Senator LOTT said I said:

I hear so much about "if 40-some-odd Governors can operate a balanced budget, why can't the Federal Government."

* * * I operated under it.

When I said "I," Mr. President, as Governor:

It worked.

* * * I think implementation of this amendment will work. I think we can make it work.

* * * I do not understand why it takes a brain surgeon to understand how you operate a budget the way the States do.

* * * this is an opportunity to pass a balanced budget amendment that will work and will give us a financially sound future, not only for ourselves but for our children and our grandchildren.

End of the quote that Senator LOTT put in the RECORD.

To that I say, Mr. President, read the full statement, and the fallacy will become clear.

I ask unanimous consent that both of my floor statements from last year be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the statements were ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

[From the Congressional Record, Feb. 25, 1994]

Mr. FORD. Mr. President, I thank the Senator from Nevada for allowing me this time.

I support a balanced budget amendment and always have. The borrow and spend policies of the past must not continue. We all know that. The ability to expand our economy and provide job opportunities for this and future generations, much less provide for a nation that can function beyond simply servicing its debt, absolutely depends upon bringing the deficit under control. I think that my friend from Illinois would agree with this sentiment and I agree in principle with his amendment. I think that the Senator has done the Nation a great service by his tireless work on behalf of this serious matter. However, there is room for improvement in most things including, the original language of Senate Joint Resolution 41.

It is the job and the responsibility of the Congress to control the spending of our Nation. Unfortunately, we have abandoned this role, to a large degree, by running large budget deficits during normal times. By normal times I mean not during war, or recessions. This practice is not only fiscally irresponsible, but with the huge debt we are now passing along to our children, it has become morally irresponsible as well. We as a congress and, being the representatives of the people, as a nation must begin to regain control of our spending policies. We need something that forces us to do this. An amendment to the Constitution would do just that. While one law can be changed by passing another law, this legislation would make fiscal discipline mandatory.

However, the Congress must not pass the buck once again by relinquishing control of the budget all together. Congressional control must be maintained and our amendment does just that. Deficit spending by itself is not the problem. The problem is chronic deficit spending in good times not just bad ones. Furthermore, we are not borrowing at the present time to rebuild infrastructure by building roads, airports, or an information super highway. Nor have we been borrowing for the last 30 years to bring a faltering economy out of recession or prepare for war. We have had the need from time to time during that period and during these periods, borrowing represents sound fiscal policy. During times of war or economic downturn, these policies help the economy and help our Nation as a whole. But this is not what we have been doing at all. What we have been doing is borrowing to pay the interest on previous debt.

Let me put this in terms that every American can understand. When a company decides to expand or buy more efficient equipment, it generally borrows the money, knowing that this investment will more than pay for itself in the future. The profit earned is used first to pay off the loan and the extra is kept as income. The key word in all of this is invest. Investment as our President has been saying for some time is good, it provides benefits in years to come. We invest a great deal of money on the Federal level, upwards of $200 billion. This money is well spent and will pay dividends to our children and their children. When we build a highway, it increases economic efficiency and activity, real dividends that pay off in real jobs and increased incomes. Congress should not cut off its nose to spite its face. Our amendment protects this vital investment portion of spending. It keeps responsibility with the Congress and gives us the flexibility that we need during hard times and the discipline we need during the good ones to manage the budget in a responsible manner.

Let me get back to my example of a business borrowing to expand or upgrade its facilities. Bad fiscal policy is when all of the profits earned from the improvements are frittered away on other expenses, and the loan is never repaid. When this happens, the situation goes downhill fast. If the belt is not tightened and the loan is not paid off, the company, no matter what, will go bankrupt. It can borrow more money for a time but eventually it must pay off its loans or the banks will eventually turn that company down. We are a nation that is getting perilously close to that last loan. We are borrowing not to invest for growth, but instead simply and irresponsibly to pay off interest on past loans. All the while our debt continues to mount and we have nothing to show for it. This is the type of behavior that must be stopped and our amendment is the prescription for this sickness. It stops the bad borrowing but keeps the Congress in control of investing in our Nation's future.

Our Founding Fathers placed the country's purse strings under the explicit control of the Congress. Our amendment keeps the control here. The judicial branch of Government has no business deciding on what program should be cut or what revenue should be raised. That is our responsibility. Our amendment keeps that responsibility right where it belongs. I won't talk on this point too long because, I think there is complete agreement among us on this point. However, I cannot stress enough that we in the Congress must make the hard choices, and if we do not our amendment calls for an internal solution. Should this happen, this legislation calls for uniform cuts; with everyone and every program paying equally. That is fair and just and it would be a congressional action.

Let me speak on another matter of grave concern to many of our citizens. That is the sanctity of the Social Security system. Many years ago, our Nation made a pact with its people to help them in retirement, whether that be in old age or by disability. Our amendment respects that agreement, in fact it reinforces it, makes it stronger, safer and more secure. This amendment has a lot to do with responsible action and nowhere is that needed more than on dealing with Social Security. It is exempt from our amendment, thus securing and fortifying its position as a separate trust fund. Neither receipts nor outlays will be counted as part of the budget under this provision. As my friend, and colleague from North Dakota [Mr. Dorgan] has pointed out, "the Social Security system is not causing the deficit." Its revenues and surpluses should not be used to mask the deficit nor should its outlays be counted as part of expenditures. Our proposal protects the sanctity of this most vital program.

In closing, I would like to stress just how strongly I favor a balanced budget amendment, but it must be the right amendment and our amendment is it. I have supported and continue to support my colleague from Illinois in his efforts to control Federal spending, however, our proposed changes make this a more honest and more workable amendment. Surpluses in trust funds whether it be for airports, Social Security or highways, will not be used to mask the true size of the deficit. And, equally important, it will allow Congress to maintain the flexibility
