RECOGNITION OF GLENN T. CARBERRY, NORWICH CITIZEN OF THE YEAR

Mr. DODD. Mr. President, I rise to extend my warm congratulations to attorney Glenn T. Carberry, of Norwich, CT, who was recently named Citizen of the Year by the Eastern Connecticut Chamber of Commerce.

A long-time community and political activist in Norwich, Glenn has served as vice chairman and economic development chairman of the chamber, fundraising chairman of the American Cancer Society, and director of the Norwich Lion's Club. Glenn, managing partner of the New London law firm Tobin, Levin, Carberry & O'Malley, has also served on numerous civic committees and boards, including the Mohegan Park Advisory Committee, the Eastern Connecticut Housing Opportunities Commission, and the United Community Services Commission.

The best example of Glenn's commitment to the community was his leadership of a successful community-wide effort to bring the minor league Albany Yankees to Norwich. As an avid baseball fan, Glenn studied the history of minor league baseball and envisioned enormous potential for a new Connecticut team. For months, he worked tirelessly to turn his dream into reality. Securing permits and garnering financial support from State and community leaders, Glenn was the key to the project's success. The team, now known as the Norwich Navigators, will officially open its first season in Connecticut on April 17 at the Thomas Dodd Memorial Stadium.

As a result of Glenn's efforts, thousands of families will have the opportunity to see the Norwich Navigators in action. In addition to its entertainment value, the Navigators and the team's new stadium have already had a tremendous and long-lasting impact on the regional economy. Hundreds of construction jobs have been filled, and hundreds more service-related positions will be created in the coming months. Eastern Connecticut also expects the tourism industry and local small businesses to expand and prosper because of the team.

In keeping with the tradition of the Eastern Connecticut Chamber of Commerce, Glenn has wholeheartedly championed the economic interests of eastern Connecticut. Through his advocacy of economic growth and commerce, he has provided a wonderful example of citizenship and community responsibility. He is a tremendous asset to Norwich and the entire State of Connecticut. Without question, Glenn Carberry is the Citizen of the Year.

I ask unanimous consent that an editorial from the New London Day on Glenn Carberry be printed at this point in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the editorial was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

GLENN CARBERRY'S TALENTS—THIS NORWICH ATTORNEY HAS DEVELOPED A CLEAR VISION OF HOW SOCIAL, ECONOMIC PROGRESS DEPEND ON REGIONAL COOPERATION

The Eastern Connecticut Chamber of Commerce recognized a real go-getter in choosing attorney Glenn Carberry as citizen of the year. The award speaks most directly to his championing the successful effort to attract the Norwich Navigators' Yankee baseball team, but Mr. Carberry deserves the award for more important reasons.

He has committed his considerable talents as a lawyer, politician and economic-development specialist to shape a regional sense of community.

He understood early on what others only recently have learned and what still others have yet to understand; that economic development is regional. More than that point, however, Mr. Carberry knows that the benefits of an orderly society that prospers and offers opportunity to a broad range of citizens happen only when people understate their differences and recognize their similarities.

Mr. Carberry, who ran unsuccessfully for Congress in the 2nd District, has served as an adviser to the Rowland campaign and administration, on the Otis Library Board, in efforts to provide housing through several agencies, and as an active member of the chamber in Norwich.

The Eastern Connecticut Chamber will honor him at a dinner April 7 at the Ramada Hotel in Norwich. Perhaps the most fitting tribute to this impressive young man, however, would be continued efforts to form a regional organization that merges the Eastern Chamber with the Southeastern Connecticut Chamber of Commerce in New London.

Such a chamber would exemplify the progressive thinking and regional outlook that has made Mr. Carberry a leader for progress in this area.

CONGRATULATING RICO TYLER AND CYNTHIA HILL-LAWSON

Mr. FORD. Mr. President, I am pleased to have this opportunity today to recognize Rico Tyler and Cynthia Hill-Lawson, two secondary school teachers from the Commonwealth of Kentucky who were recently presented with Presidential Awards for Excellence in Science and Mathematics Teaching.

As you may know, the Presidential Awards for Excellence in Science and Mathematics Teaching Program was established over a decade ago to recognize and reward outstanding teachers and to encourage high-quality educators to enter and remain in the teaching field. Both Rico, in his work with the astronomy program at Franklin-Simpson High School, and Cynthia, who teaches math at Beaumont Middle School in Lexington, have demonstrated that they are committed to providing a quality education to their students. I am very proud of them—as I am sure their friends, colleagues and family are—for they represent the triumphs in our educational system that often go unheralded.

Again, Mr. President, I congratulate Rico and Cynthia for this tremendous achievement and wish them many more years of success in the classroom.

CONCLUSION OF MORNING BUSINESS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Morning business is closed.

REGULATORY TRANSITION ACT

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will now proceed to the consideration of S. 219, the Regulatory Transition Act of 1995, which the clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (S. 219) to ensure economy and efficiency of Federal Government operations by establishing a moratorium on regulatory rulemaking actions, and for other purposes.

The Senate proceeded to consider the bill which had been reported from the Committee on Governmental Affairs, with an amendment to strike all after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Regulatory Transition Act of 1995".

SEC. 2. FINDING.

The Congress finds that effective steps for improving the efficiency and proper management of Government operations will be promoted if a moratorium on certain significant regulatory actions is imposed and an inventory of such actions is conducted.

SEC. 3. MORATORIUM ON REGULATIONS.

(a) MORATORIUM.—During the moratorium period, a Federal agency may not take any significant regulatory action, unless permitted under section 5. Beginning 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the effectiveness of any significant regulatory action taken during the moratorium period but before the date of the enactment shall be suspended until the end of the moratorium, unless an exception is provided under section 5.

(b) INVENTORY OF RULEMAKING.—Not later than 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act, and on a monthly basis thereafter, the Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs within the Office of Management and Budget shall conduct an inventory and publish in the Federal Register a list of all significant regulatory actions covered by subsection (a), identifying those which have been granted an exception as provided under section 5.

SEC. 4. SPECIAL RULE ON STATUTORY, REGULATORY AND JUDICIAL DEADLINES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Any deadline for, relating to, or involving any action dependent upon, any significant regulatory action prohibited or suspended under section 3 is extended for 5 months or until the date occurring 5 months after the end of the moratorium period, whichever is later.

(b) DEADLINE DEFINED.—The term "deadline" means any date certain for fulfilling any obligation or exercising any authority established by or under any Federal statute or regulation, or by or under any court order implementing any Federal statute or regulation.

(c) IDENTIFICATION OF POSTPONED DEADLINES.—Not later than 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs within the Office of Management and
