

jointly prepared by BXA and the National Security Agency. The study provides an in-depth evaluation of the international market, reviews the availability of foreign encryption software, and assesses the impact that U.S. export controls for encryption have had on the competitiveness of the software industry. The study found that the U.S. software industry still dominates world markets, but the existence of strong export controls, both in the United States and other major countries, is slowing the growth of the international market.

E. EXPORT ENFORCEMENT

Over the last 6 months, the Department of Commerce continued its vigorous enforcement of the EAR through educational outreach, license application screening, spot checks, investigations, and enforcement actions. In the last 6 months, these efforts resulted in civil penalties, denials of export privileges, criminal fines, and imprisonment. Total penalties imposed from August 10, 1995, through February 15, 1996, amounted to $3,226,750 in export control and antiboycott compliance cases, including criminal fines totaling $255,000; in addition, 14 parties were denied export privileges.

Two Companies and an Individual Penalized Total of $1.45 Million for Alleged Antiboycott Violations. On August 29, 1995, Assistant Secretary for Export Enforcement John Despres signed an order imposing civil penalties totaling $1,446,400 on Parbel of Florida, Inc., formerly known as Helena Rubenstein, Inc., and Cosmair, Inc., both subsidiaries of L'Oreal, S.A., the French cosmetic company, and on Bruce L. Mishkin, an employee of Cosmair, Inc., for 291 alleged violations of the antiboycott provisions of the EAA and EAR.

The Department of Commerce alleged that, in 1989, in response to a request from L'Oreal, S.A., Helena Rubenstein, Inc., and Bruce L. Mishkin each furnished or agreed to furnish 144 items of information about Helena Rubenstein, Inc.'s business relationships with or in Israel. The Department further alleged that Cosmair, Inc., did not prevent Mr. Mishkin from furnishing information about Helena Rubenstein, Inc.'s business relationships with or in Israel. The Department alleged that, in so doing, Cosmair, Inc., violated the EAR by permitting the doing of an act prohibited by the EAR.

The companies and Mishkin each agreed to pay the civil penalties in separate but related settlements, which combined, constitute one of the largest for the Office of Antiboycott Compliance (OAC). Under the terms of the Consent Agreements, Parbel paid $1,387,000, Mr. Mishkin paid $50,400, and Cosmair paid $9,000 to settle the allegations.

California Man Penalized for Alleged Export Control Violations Involving Shotguns to Namibia and South Africa. On November 28, 1995, Assistant Secretary for Export Enforcement John Despres imposed a 15-year denial of export privileges and a $60,000 civil penalty on James L. Stephens, president and co-owner of Weisser's Sporting Goods, National City, California, for the alleged illegal export of certain U.S.-origin shotguns to Namibia and South Africa.

The Department alleged that, between 1990 and 1992, Stephens conspired with overseas parties to export and, on two separate occasions, actually exported, U.S.-origin shotguns with barrel lengths 18 inches and over to Namibia and South Africa without applying for and obtaining from the Department the validated export licenses he knew or had reason to know were required under the EAA and EAR. In addition, the Department alleged that, in furtherance of the conspiracy, and in connection with each of these exports, Stephens made false or misleading representations of material fact to a U.S. agency in connection with the preparation, submission, or use of export control documents.

In a separate matter, Weisser's Sporting Goods plead guilty on November 20, 1995, in the Southern District of California, to one criminal count of violating U.S. export control laws in connection with the export of shotguns to South Africa. Sentencing for the criminal violation took place on January 16, 1996. Weisser's Sporting Goods was fined $30,000 and placed on 3 years' probation.

Illinois Company and its French Subsidiary Penalized $550,000 for Alleged Antiboycott Violations. On November 29, 1995, Assistant Secretary for Export Enforcement John Despres signed an order imposing civil penalties totaling $550,000 on Sundstrand Corporation ("Sundstrand") and its wholly owned subsidiary, Sundstrand International, S.A. Zone Industrielle de Dijon-Sud ("Sundstrand Dijon"), for alleged violations of the antiboycott provisions of the EAA and the EAR.

Sundstrand is a Rockford, Illinois-based manufacturer and exporter of aerospace and industrial equipment. Sundstrand Dijon is a repair and testing facility for Sundstrand equipment located in Dijon, France. While neither admitting nor denying the alleged violations, Sundstrand agreed to pay a $350,000 civil penalty to settle allegations that, on 175 occasions between October 1988 and June 1993, it failed to report to the Department its receipt of boycott-related requests from the United Arab Emirates (UAE). Sundstrand Dijon agreed to pay a $200,000 civil penalty to settle allegations that, on 100 occasions during the same period, it failed to report to the Department its receipt of boycott-related requests from UAE, Bahrain, and Yemen.

Swiss and U.S. Companies Denied Export Privileges and Corporate Officers Fined for Illegal Exports. On January 11, 1996, Assistant Secretary for Export Enforcement John Despres denied the export privileges of Lasarray Corporation of Irvine, California, and Lasarray, S.A., of Switzerland. The period of the denial is 2 years. Additionally, Ernst Uhlmann, a Swiss businessman who owned Lasarray, received a civil penalty of $50,000 (with $25,000 suspended); Eugene T. Fitzgibbons, the former president of Lasarray Corporation, received a civil penalty of $20,000 (with $10,000 suspended); and Edwin Barrowcliff, a former vice president of Lasarray Corporation, received a civil penalty of $20,000, all of which is suspended. The Department alleged that, between 1990 and 1991, Lasarray unlawfully exported base wafer integrated circuits to Switzerland without the required validated export license.

Civil Penalty of $400,000, Imposed on Illinois Company for Alleged Export Control Violations. On January 31, 1996, the Assistant Secretary for Export Enforcement John Despres signed an order imposing a $400,000 civil penalty on U.S. Robotics Access Corp. of Skokie, Illinois, for 123 alleged violations of the EAA and Regulations. The Department of Commerce alleged that, on 41 separate occasions between June 1990 and June 1992, U.S. Robotics exported U.S.-origin, high-speed computer modems from the United States to South Africa, Liechtenstein, Czechoslovakia, New Zealand, and Singapore, without obtaining from the Department the required validated licenses. In connection with each of these exports, the Department also alleged that the company falsely represented on air waybills and Shipper's Export Declarations that the modems qualified for export under general license when, in fact, a validated license was required. To settle the allegations, U.S. Robotics will pay $300,000 of the $400,000 penalty the Department imposed. Payment of the remaining $100,000 is suspended for 1 year and will be waived if, during the 1-year period of suspension, U.S. Robotics does not violate the Act, Regulations, or any conditions of the Department's order.

Civil and Criminal Penalties Imposed on Oregon Company. On February 12, 1996, Assistant Secretary for Export Enforcement John Despres imposed a civil penalty of $40,000 ($20,000 suspended for 1 year) on Patrick Lumber, of Portland, Oregon, for allegedly violating the embargo on exports to Libya. On the same day, Patrick Lumber was sentenced to pay a criminal fine of $225,000 by the United States District Court in Portland, Oregon, following the company's guilty plea to a two-count indictment charging it with violating the IEEPA. The United States charged that, in 1993, Patrick Lumber exported two shipments of yellow pine wood worth over $800,000 from the United States to Libya in violation of the IEEPA.

Under Secretary Affirms ALJ Decision and Order Imposing $10,000 Civil Penalty on Florida Freight Forwarder for Antiboycott Violations. On October 30, 1995, the Under Secretary for Export Administration affirmed the May 1, 1995, decision of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) that Stair Cargo Services, Inc., of Miami, Florida, a subsidiary of Intertrans Corporation of Dallas, Texas, committed two violations of the antiboycott provisions of the Act and Regulations. The ALJ found that, in 1988, a Stair Cargo branch office in Inglewood, California, complied with a boycott-related request from Kuwait to provide the name of a supplier of goods and services for clearance by Kuwaiti boycott authorities, thereby furnishing information about that firm's business relationships with persons known or believed to be blacklisted. The ALJ also found that Stair Cargo failed to report to the Department its receipt of the boycott-related request, as required by the Regulations. The ALJ imposed a civil penalty of $10,000 for these violations.

5. The expenses incurred by the Federal Government in the 6-month period from August 19, 1995, to February 19, 1996, that are directly attributable to the exercise of authorities conferred by the declaration of a national emergency with respect to export controls were largely centered in the Department of Commerce, Bureau of Export Administration. Expenditures by the Department of Commerce are anticipated to be $18 million, most of which represents program operating costs, wage and salary costs for Federal personnel, and overhead expenses.
