“(A) $508,437,000 is authorized for national missile defense;”

KYL (AND REID) AMENDMENT NO.
4049

Mr. KYL (for himself and Mr. REID) proposed an amendment to the bill, S. 1745, supra; as follows:

At the end of subtitle F of title X add the following:

SEC. . UNDERGROUND NUCLEAR TESTING CONSTRAINTS.

(a) AUTHORITY.—Subject to subsection (b), effective on October 1, 1996, the United States may conduct tests of nuclear weapons involving underground nuclear detonations in a fiscal year if—

(1) the Senate has not provided advice and consent to the ratification of a multilateral comprehensive nuclear test ban treaty;

(2) the President has submitted under subsection (b) an annual report covering that fiscal year (as the first of the fiscal years covered by that report);

(3) 90 days have elapsed after the submittal of that report; and

(4) Congress has not agreed to a joint resolution described in subsection (d) within that 90-day period.

(b) REPORT.—Not later than March 1 of each year, the President shall submit to the Committees on Armed Services and on Appropriations of the Senate and the Committees on National Security and on Appropriations of the House of Representatives, in classified and unclassified forms, a report containing the following matters:

(1) The status on achieving a multilateral comprehensive nuclear test ban treaty, unless the Senate has already provided its advice and consent to the ratification of such a treaty.

(2) An assessment of the then current and projected safety and reliability of each type of nuclear warhead that is to be maintained in the active and inactive nuclear stockpiles of the United States during the four successive fiscal years following the fiscal year in which the report is submitted.

(3) A description of the number and types of nuclear warheads that are to be removed from the active and inactive stockpiles during those four fiscal years, together with a discussion of the dismantlement of nuclear weapons that is planned or projected to be carried out during such fiscal years.

(4) A description of the number and type of tests involving underground nuclear detonations that are planned to be carried out during those four fiscal years, if any, and a discussion of the justification for such tests.

(c) TESTING BY UNITED KINGDOM.—Subject to the same conditions as are set forth in paragraphs (1) through (4) of subsection (a) for testing by the United States, the President may authorize the United Kingdom to conduct in the United States one or more tests of a nuclear weapon within a period covered by an annual report if the President determines that is in the national interest of the United States to do so.

(d) JOINT RESOLUTION OF DISAPPROVAL.—For the purposes of subsection (a)(4), "joint resolution" means only a joint resolution introduced after the date on which the committees referred to in subsection (b) receive the report required by that subsection the matter after the resolving clause of which is as follows: "Congress disapproves the report of the President on nuclear weapons testing, transmitted on pursuant to section of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 1997." (the first blank being filled in which the date of the report).

(e) IMPLEMENTATION OF TEST BAN TREATY.—If, with the advice and consent of the Senate to ratification of a comprehensive nuclear test ban treaty, the United States enters into such a treaty, the United States may not conduct tests of nuclear weapons involving underground nuclear detonations that exceed yield limits imposed by the treaty unless the President, in consultation with Congress, withdraws the United States from the treaty in the supreme national interest.

(f) REPORT OF THE SUPERSEDED LAW.—Section 507 of Public law 102-377 (106 Stat. 1343; 42 U.S.C. 2121 note) is repealed.
