

good name and his reputation to be cleared. I would think that he would want us to bring this 100-page document to this House, let us read it, and if he has done nothing wrong, we will be done with it, and the 1st of November he can go back to his district and say, folks, I have been persecuted, they have investigated me, and they have found nothing wrong. I stand before you here in Georgia as a pure Speaker. I have done nothing wrong. I want you to vote for me because I have been doing the things you want me to do.

But there is going to be a cloud over this, because it is not going to go away. There is a 100-page document that languishes in the Ethics Committee. We have paid $500,000 of taxpayers' money, and it needs to be released and clear the air on this issue.

SCANDALS IN CLINTON ADMINISTRATION

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. COOLEY). Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from California [Mr. DORNAN] is recognized for 60 minutes as the designee of the majority leader.

Mr. DORNAN. Mr. Speaker, before I begin my special order, which is on the multiple and expanding scandals of this administration, I yield to the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. WELDON], my wing man who sits in the senior position to my left on the Committee on National Security, for a few more thoughts upon the constitutional crisis we are working our way through this very day, where Mr. Clinton has frozen out 100 elected Senators and 434, with Bill Emerson in heaven, elected Representatives. I yield to the distinguished gentleman from Pennsylvania.

Mr. WELDON of Pennsylvania. I thank my friend and colleague for yielding. I want to start off by just making one statement at the beginning here because, Mr. Speaker, while we cannot directly speak to those people who may be watching this at home, I can speak to you, Mr. Speaker. I can repeat what is, in fact, the case.

As you know, I objected from a parliamentary standpoint to our colleagues who for the past hour or so have been raising questions about the ethics case of Speaker GINGRICH. The reason I raise those, as you pointed out, Mr. Speaker, is we are not allowed to discuss an open ethics case in this body until it is concluded.

The problem is that they can keep speaking. I have to sit here and every minute raise the objection again, and you would warn them, and that would just go back and forth all night. So we just sit down and let them speak.

But I just want, Mr. Speaker, to remind everyone, including our colleagues, that we could have sat here and we could have discussed the ethics case against the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. BONIOR], which to my understanding is still pending before the Ethics Committee, or perhaps to my understanding there was an ethics case, maybe it has been resolved, against the gentleman from Missouri [Mr. GEPHARDT]. But we did not choose to do that because we play by the rules and we know that, in fact, as a Member of this institution, any matter currently pending before the Ethics Committee is not to be discussed because the Ethics Committee is totally bipartisan, equal numbers of Democrats and Republicans, and until it is ultimately resolved and brought to a recommendation of this body, we are not supposed to respond.

So we could have done the same thing. We could have got up here and laid out all the facts on the Bonior allegations and all the facts about the Gephardt allegations, but we did not choose to do that. We choose to just let them vent their frustrations, if you will, because of their concern of Speaker GINGRICH's impact on revolutionizing this country.

So if, Mr. Speaker, there are those who think that we were not prepared to respond, that is why, because we, in fact, are abiding by the rules of the House. Just to further respond and thank my good friend and colleague who has been a leader in this body, I want to commend him for today passing one of the most historic and most important bills that this institution will pass in this session, and that is how POW Accountability Act, which the gentleman from California [Mr. DORNAN] has worked on diligently for how many years?

Mr. DORNAN. Obviously, I thank the gentleman for bringing it up.

Mr. WELDON of Pennsylvania. How many years have you worked on this issue?

Mr. DORNAN. I started, believe it or not, when I was 19 years old, when I joined the Air Force. And while I was waiting to go to pilot training in July 1953, I had just turned 20 by then, I joined when I was 19 in October 1952. I served basic, waiting at Williams Air Force Base to go. And an Army psychiatrist who had interviewed all the men coming back from Korea, the first waves who had been brainwashed, tortured is the proper word, and broken, and given confessions, 21 were still sitting in China, young high school drop-out enlisted kids. One committed suicide. All 20 saw the error of their ways, came home, our country forgave them.

But I started then. But legislatively I have spent 31 years, since my best friend David Hurdlica was shot down. His wife Carol testified yesterday, my wife's best friend. We were neighbors, bridge partners. I checked him out in the F-100 HUN, the Super Sabre. For 31 years my interest has been intense.

If I may say so, I won the Mendel Rivers award by testifying in that committee room today. I thought about it and thought, well, do not mention it. That was the summer of 1971. PETE PETERSON, who was sitting in the room, was still in prison, and I was testifying, do not end Vietnam the way we ended Korea. And we did. More controversy, more conspiracy theories, more men left behind, certainly in Laos for sure. And as I said today in our Committee on National Security room, with all those battle streamers on our 4 services' flags, including the Coast Guard, our 5 services' flags, we left hundreds behind in Korea, so I thank the gentleman. It was H.R. 4000.

Now comes the tricky part. That is, we have 2 weeks, maybe 3 if we do not get out on Friday the 27th, to find a vehicle, an appropriations continuing resolution, which was used as a vehicle to destroy my proper and fair HIV public law, signed the same day as all this POW-MIA protective laws. Clinton signed it February 10.

Why we are stripping it out of law, because of one friend of ours who wants to put all of Vietnam behind us, normalize relations, trade, most-favored-nation status, forget the wounds of war, everybody is full of baloney, there are no traces of people left behind, when this good friend knows absolutely zilch about Laos or Cambodia and did not have the full picture on Vietnam.

A hero, an 8-victory jet ace, severely tortured, Robbie Reiser, came home with the same opinions: We are all home. On the tap code we learned about everybody here. And he reversed himself and said, "I don't know anything about Laos and Cambodia," and now I have no proof that there was not a second prison system, small, hidden, underground, shipping people to the Soviet Union as they shipped people from Korea to the Soviet Union, for sure.

Mr. WELDON of Pennsylvania. Your bill today, if I am not mistaken, passed with a unanimous vote. As you very eloquently put it, you were the author and the prime mover of this, but you had strong support from your ranking member, OWEN PICKETT, and you also did your legislation in total consult with, as you said, one of our most respected former POW's, PETE PETERSON.

Mr. DORNAN. And with SAM JOHNSON.

Mr. WELDON of Pennsylvania. And with SAM JOHNSON from this body, another POW. And you are to be commended for that because you have righted a terrible wrong in letting those families know that we are going to continue to persevere to force a full accounting and to force a full assessment and to have a process in place to make sure that what happened in Korea and what happened in Vietnam never happens again in this country. I commend you for that action. I wanted to mention that today. I know that is not the subject of your special order but so that all of those troops and all of those families across the country know that it was Chairman BOB DORNAN who has been diligent and tireless in this effort to make sure that they are not forgotten.

Just before I let you complete your special order on what I think is an outrageous topic but one that needs to be aired, I just want to say that I hope you will join me in requesting answers from this administration on what our plans are in the Middle East, what our game plan is, what our strategy is. Are we, in fact, letting Saddam suck us into a tar pit where we are going to lose additional lives, where we are not going to have a clear way to get out? Why are we not getting the kind of support from our allies? Why is the President not consulting with the leadership of this body, both Republicans and Democrats, because it is not an urgent situation. He could have called them today. He could have come back from his campaigning. We are talking about kids' lives. Kids' lives are more important than campaigning out in California. If he is going to deploy them, he has a responsibility to let the intelligence leadership know, the leadership from both parties' standpoint, and the various committees, because we are the ones who have to answer when we go back home to our constituents, who have kids in the service, what is going on. I can tell you, I am frustrated. I go home, last weekend, I do not know what is happening, as a senior member of the security committee, I have no idea what is going on with this President and that is outrageous.

I thank my colleague and friend for yielding. I wish him well in his deliberations this evening as he does a service for this country with his report.

Mr. DORNAN. Stay in the well just one more second in this colloquy. Let us make a pact now as colleagues, because you are the leader on defending the American homeland from one or several or any number of missile attacks, nonpareil, as the French would say, without parallel, on both sides of the aisle, you are the leader. Let us make a pact that if, God willing and the wisdom of the voters sustaining us in our chairmanships on the election, which is 56 days away tomorrow, if we come back, whether it is President Dole—please, Lord—or President Clinton, that we will do a special order, if the first ceremonial day is too much family and friends or if Mr. NEWT, our still Speaker and wants a day of action, on the next day, we will do back-to-back special orders. One on the 105th Congress' responsibility to not only have theater missile defense for our men and women in the field and our allies but that we will get to the job of defending the homeland of this country, even the big cities on the coasts, like Los Angeles and New York City where I was born. I will help you with that.

Then you help me with a special order. We will crank in our professor, STEVEHORN, get a moderate Republican voice, and start to talk about Lou Fisher, the professor and scholar, senior scholar at the Library of Congress, about the constitutional authority, the responsibility of this House, to decide when American men and women go and die in the alleys of Mogadishu, Somalia; or Haiti or Bosnia or in the skies over Iraq. God forbid if they get their hands on some female fighter pilot in this conflict. We have got to resolve that, because even if it is President Dole, although Bob did not want troops to go into Bosnia, he said to me, backed up by our colleague Vin Webber, who I served 10 great years with here, that Clinton had the right to put them in there without the authority of Congress, a Desert Storm type debate which I am going to open with because all the people objecting to what you were saying today all voted against, some of them voted against the sanctions, at least my pal ELIOT ENGEL voted for the sanctions, all the rest voted against the sanctions, let alone taking hostile, aggressive, offensive combat action. We are going to have to discuss these authorities, because Senator Dole, then the leader, said, "Well, I don't want them there in Bosnia but he's got the right to send them there."

Thomas Jefferson, our third President, the one Kennedy said that when he had about 15 Nobel, Pulitzer Prize winners, "This is the most intellect in the WhiteHouse except for when Thomas Jefferson dined alone." If Jefferson was that smart, we should listen to him when he said, I have no authority as President, talking about Barbary pirates, it is in the MarineHymn, shores of Tripoli, I have no authority as President under the Constitution to do anything except respond to direct attack defensively, is what he meant, I cannot send offensive action anywhere unless Congress orders me to. And we ordered his predecessor Adams, we ordered him, we ordered his successor James Madison, Monroe, 10 times this House said, "go get them," referring to the pirates and brigands and cutthroats interrupting commerce in the Mediterranean.

Now we have had a 6th Fleet there since World War II and we have got a 7th Fleet in the Pacific and it is still this Congress and you and I as chairmen, you as chairman of Readiness and Defense, DUNCAN HUNTER of Acquisition/Procurement, HERB BATEMAN of Virginia on Readiness, HEFLEY to my right on Installations and me on Military Personnel, how we pay them, how we clothe them, how we feed them, the quality of life, the recruitment problem, the retention, the hollowing out problem, all of FLOYD SPENCE, our great chairman, his five marshals—you can think of us as sphere marshals or western marshals—we are his gunsels in this House and likewise five marshals under STROM THURMOND in the Senate to decide when our men and women—our kids as you call them—go into combat. So we will do those 2-hour special orders and we will set the tone and resolve in the 105th Congress no matter which one of the Presidents prevail, Lord knows, it may be President Perot with his excellent Vice Presidential choice, we will make that vow to do that the first or second day we are sworn in.

Mr. WELDON of Pennsylvania. I accept the gentleman's challenge. I will be happy to do those special orders with him. As the gentleman has pointed out, I hope it is under a Dole administration but we will do it under any administration, God willing, we come back. One quick final statement, Mr. DORNAN, and I know you will agree with me. Why do we raise this issue as we are about to adjourn today for the weekend, and why would the Democrats characterize this as politics? It is not politics. In fact, what is our greatest concern, in the 4 years that I have served here under a Clinton administration, I think back to that outrageous moment when we were called down to the basement of this building for a briefing—and the gentleman was there—by Warren Christopher and Les Aspin, giving us a summary of what was occurring in Somalia. And there were a number of Senators, I think there were over 300 of us all total in this one room and they said to us, asking us a question. "What do we do next?" They had no clear policy. And we had just lost 19 brave young Americans. When we finally got to the answers of why we lost those 19 brave young Americans, we were told that the commanding officer in Somalia had requested additional backup about a month before for his troops. He said he could not handle the situation. He was denied that request. And when Les Aspin was asked why he was denied that request, his answer was that he though there was not the appropriate political climate in this city to support the backup support for those troops.

Mr. Speaker, that is the only time in the 10 years I have been here that I have ever heard that we imposed a political decision on how to support and deploy American troops. It may have happened before I got here, whether it was Vietnam or Lebanon or whatever, but it is the only time in the 10 years that I have been here that a political decision dealt with by this administration caused indirectly or directly the loss of 19 young American lives.

Mr. Speaker, we could not even go into Mogadishu and pull those bodies out when they were being massacred. The reason why we are raising this issue today is we are not going to let this President repeat what happened in Somalia. We are going to demand that this Congress play its rightful role under the Constitution, under the War Powers Act, in having consultations on what our plans are, to make sure we are giving adequate backup.

If this President thinks we should take some action, maybe it is to go in and get Saddam. Then he needs to sell that plan to the American people and the Congress, and not allow this to go day by day, step by step, into a bigger and bigger conflict, and then all of a sudden next week we are into a wholesale war and the Members of Congress all of a sudden stand up and say, hey, what happened here. How did we get in this mess.

We are saying up front now we are putting the administration on notice that we want to know the justification under the U.N. resolutions. We want to know we were in compliance with the War Powers Act. We want to know what the ultimate game plan here is. Is it just a short-sighted, 1-day plan? Or in fact is there a long-term scheme to go in and do something else besides enforce the U.N. resolutions that were passed when President Bush was in office?

I thank my colleague and friend for yielding and wish him well in his special order.

Mr. DORNAN. I thank the very, very distinguished gentleman from the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

What Mr. WELDON brought up that happened in the national security room today, the reason we got a unanimous vote and six Democratic Members on the spot joined my bill, H.R. 4000, as cosponsors, was I opened by reading a letter, a speech, that I have been trying to get my hands on for years that Henry Cabot Lodge, then the permanent U.S. representative with ambassadorial title to the United Nations, delivered in New York on December 4, 1954. I had just had my last flight in a F-80 or T-33 jet in pilot training, then ahead of time had to wait a long, agonizing week's period to get my wings on February 7.

That was a Republican House then, Republican Senate. It was Eisenhower's second year. We had just lost the House in an election, just less than a month before. Henry Cabot Lodge got up and said these words. I think this is why it carried. DUNCAN HUNTER asked for a recorded vote anyway, and I think this is why it carried unanimously. To keep until public law everything I fought for for 20 years here, in generalities, and specifically for the last 3 years, dotting the law, signed by Clinton February 10 of this year, 1996. And it was stripped out at 11:52 at night without a phone call to me to join the conference and fight for it.

Here is what Ambassador Lodge said to the United Nations: Mr. President, referring to whoever was in the chair at the United Nations Building at the East River, it is an immemorial principle of human decency that a family looks after its own members. A nation must also look after its own if it is to continue to be a nation. And the United Nations must show an equal interest in these men who by their personal effort sought to repel an aggression which this United Nations itself was opposing.

We did 98 percent of the fighting. You know that because you were on active duty then, Mr. Speaker, pro tempore.

The thing that sustains the man in uniform, and now we would have to say woman in uniform, when he is so far from home, is the thought that he is being supported by those for whom he is fighting. We in the United Nations, of course by extension, America, cannot let these men down. They are United Nations men. They were sent to Korea in response to a request from the United Nations. Well, Harry Truman may have gotten ahead of the proposition there, but our troops were being overrun, the Tropic Lightning Division out of Hawaii and the 24th Division, rather, were being overrun, hundreds of men being taken prisoner in June and July of 1950.

I had just graduated from high school. I could not believe what I was reading and seeing on the news in that we had just won the Second World War 5 short years before against Tojo and Mussolini and Adolph Hitler and Stalin. We had found out they kept killing and held back United States prisoners, those with the misfortune to have a Ukrainian, Russian, or any type of Slavic or Polish last name.

Henry Cabot Lodge continues,

For these reasons, the United States believes that the proposed item before the UN agenda, placed on the agenda, that the United Nations should act promptly and with determination to bring about the release of the 11 airmen and all other captured military personnel of the United Nations command who are still detained.

We got back in June 1955 an F-84 Thunderjet fighter and 3 F-86 Saber Jet pilots, and 11 of the 13 crew-members of Jack Arnold's B-29 shot down over North Korea, dropping leaflets, but the whole crew was taken around the Korean Gulf and taken to China, all the way to Beijing. They kept the two radio men and executed them, or they are rotting as men in their late sixties and seventies today in China, they kept back the two radar men who could pinpoint they were over North Korea, not invading China, which had invaded North Korea to support the Communist cause that they had instigated in that whole terrible war, that caused millions of Koreans to die. They held back 40,000 ROK forces, Republic of Korea forces, and 10,000 may be alive today still in North Korea.

Mr. Lodge says the Soviet representative, Jacob A. Mallek, by the way, talks about confessions which had been obtained from American personnel, and that, let me say, is no new story here. Last year we demonstrated the way in which false confessions were extracted from U.N. military personnel, what can only be described as torture.

I skip forward.

We produced last year films showing some of the young Americans making these confessions from the Communist film that they took, and then showing the same man getting off the boat in San Francisco saying he had been tortured into making these so-called confessions.

He uses the term "brainwashing," which was a fairly new term then.

Then he goes on with letters I have gotten hold of, to write on December 7 to the Secretary General, Dag Hammarskjöld. Since it took me so long to get these records, and so that other people will not have that same problem, I will place Henry Cabot Lodge's remarks and letters, starting from these U.N. documents, in today's RECORD, on the 12th of September, 1996.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I am entering that period that 4 years ago started a series of discussions by me on the House floor, that then Governor and candidate Bill Clinton was not being candid with the American people on all the scandals that were swirling around him, scandals of a personal character nature, scandals which have come to be called Whitewater, that was broken way back in March 8, 1992, by no less a journal than America's wealthiest paper, the New York Times, and all of the other financial chicanery in a one-party city, putting a cloud over a whole great State that is as good as any other State. But Little Rock was a cesspool of intrigue because of one party rule ever since the tragic War Between the States, the Civil War.

I was joined on the second or third night by DUNCAN HUNTER, and then the next night by 7-year POW combat air combat veteran of both Korea and Vietnam, SAM JOHNSON, who spent as long in solitary confinement in his 7-year captivity in Hanoi, spent half of that, longer than World War II's total course for the United States of America, he spent in solitary confinement for being what they called "uneducable," a hard head, a resistor, what I call being a patriot, living up to the code of conduct.

Then we were joined by the only aerial ace from World War I, there were no aces before World War I, or World War II or Korea, the only ace to ever serve in this House or the other Chamber, DUKE CUNNINGHAM.

After awhile I referred to us as Tiger Flight, using SAM JOHNSON's call sign in Vietnam, which amazingly he also used in Korea, Tiger Flight. Tiger Flight went right down to the wire into October, trying to get at the truth about Mr. Clinton's political career.

Since then, the news media is always intrigued with this, Secret Service agents have told me that they have been in the Roosevelt Room when my name has come up. My pal that I served with here for years, Norm Pannetta, has gotten a little rough in his language, and the President goes into one of his volcanic eruptions, Mr. Clinton does, when he hears my name.

I had a newspaper guy from the Orange County Register call and ask me to give him the names of the Secret Service agents. One stopped me at a church in Virginia and one stopped me at a church in the DC area, to ask for an autographed picture no less. No, I am not going to give the names. Then they called the Secret Service and said, "Which of your agents have been talking to Congressman BOB DORNAN saying unkind things about Mr. Clinton?"

Where do we get these reporters? I mean, is this child's play or what? I am ready to polygraph, but they will have to torture and brainwash me to have me end the careers of Secret Service people. I mean, it is all in this book, Unlimited Access.

The President is protected to some extent, Mr. Clinton, by rule 18. Just in the last year and 10 months I was against including my friend AL GORE or Mr. Clinton in on rule 18. But Hillary Clinton is not protected.

In here, it has her using the F word. This is Unlimited Access by Gary Aldrich. Since I last brought up this book on the floor, I spent some time with him in San Diego, and he is an honorable quarter century retired FBI agent.

She tells the Secret Service, "Stay the F away from me."

"Ma'am, we can't protect you from this distance."

"I don't give a blank what you do. Get your blank-ing self out of my sight and get the blank over her."

This is a man who passed all the security checks of the Nation, that Mr. Clinton could not pass, because of what Mr. Clinton did at Oxford, in a foreign country, his resisting the draft, avoiding the draft, and then dodging the draft with an induction date notice July 28, 1969, he never could get a security clearance unless he got elected to the House or the Senate or the presidency. That is the only way he could ever get a top secret clearance.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. COOLEY of Oregon). The Chair would remind all Members that it is not in order to refer to the President in personal offensive terms.

Mr. DORNAN. Would the Chair tell me if it is the words "draft dodger" that the Parliamentarian objects to? I thought we worked that out. "Dodging the draft" are simple English language words.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman should refrain from using pejorative labels.

Mr. DORNAN. Right. "Draft dodger" is certainly a pejorative label. If I moved it around and used gerunds and verbs and said "dodging the draft," that is what he did.

I went to the Cambridge cemetery at Cambridge, England, and looked up the grave just a few days ago, to be exact, September 1, to look at the grave of Bob Holmes, the younger brother of Col. Eugene Holmes, the man who was used so shamefully to enlist Clinton in the ROTC as a student about to enter law school, 1 year of graduate school, ditching class at Oxford, 1 year out of Arkansas with a degree from Georgetown, he was put back into an ROTC class with undergraduate college students, a brand new program which he used to have the draft induction date of July 29, 1969, and this is history, Mr. Speaker, crushed, suppressed, reversed; the only time I have ever heard of that in the history of my life, unless it was a hard football injury, like a broken leg or neck injury, or a car crash that was traumatic, and even then if you can recover from your injuries and pass a minimal buck private physical to enter the army, your induction date is merely postponed for a while.

Never have I heard one politically suppressed by a Senator, Senator Fulbright, by a Governor, Winthrop Rockefeller, by the head of the draft board, being leaned on by Buick dealers related to Mr. Clinton. It is a scandal. And that, plus England, would have prevented him from ever getting a top secret clearance.

But henceforth in this special order I will refer to him as the "unmentioned one." No, that is too cute. I will just talk about the Clintons as a team and as an administration. I will use the euphemistic term, "the administration."

Now, here is a chart. Yes, it is a political chart, and it has on here someone who I will not talk about, with a wife at his side, but here are the names of people associated—how is that camera 5 doing up there? I will turn this way.

It says Whitewater's Most Wanted List. I will leave out two people and start up here. David Hale, key witness on his to jail. Jim Guy Tucker, convicted. Jim McDougal, convicted, and both of them are talking, what unkind people would say, singing to the prosecution. Susan Thomases, the enforcer.

Vince Foster, deceased, still being discussed some of the mystery surrounding whether or not his body was moved, if not deeper fears. Webster Hubbell, convicted, in prison.

Susan McDougal, in ankle chains and handcuffs, waddling off to prison as though she is a victim. All she had to do was tell the truth, and the grand jury that is empowered in Little Rock is there for over a year, and that is how long she is going to sit in prison and stop pretending to be a victim because if she wanted to say I know nothing and everybody you are questioning me about is innocent that is my belief and they were not involved, all she has to do is say that. But if she is afraid of perjuring herself to say that, then she does have information that the good citizens of Arkansas through their grand jury are allowed to hear the truth.

Neil Eggleston, bagman. William Kennedy III, resigned in disgrace. Bruce Lindsey, they claim here he is another bagman. Maggie Williams, they claim she is a perjurer, but she sure had total amnesia without brainwashing of all her memory. Bernie Nussbaum, resigned in disgrace. David Watkins, fired and now I find out—I cannot get hold of everything—that in his memo that the gentleman from California, CHRISTOPHER COX and DANA ROHRBACHER, discussed last night, which I am going to get to, Mr. Speaker, that David Watkins was brought up on sexual harassment charges as the chief administrator of the campaign of Bill Clinton in the war room at the old newspaper headquarters near the Excelsior Hotel in downtown Little Rock and that the campaign paid $37,000 of taxpayer matching funds to suppress and seal confidentially this woman working for the campaign that charged him with sexual harassment, and they listed it as a consulting fee to this woman, actually used another woman as a go-between, beard, and the FEC audit caught it. Finally they justified their huge salaries over there, and they wanted him to repay all of that and to have the campaign actually pay back in 1994, 2 years after the campaign ended, $3 to $4 million. And of course, and Americans should know this, Mr. Speaker, since the FEC is designed for deadlock, six people, 3 to 3, and they vote along political lines, they deadlocked at 3 to 3, no repayment by the Clinton campaign of $4 million. But it was so outrageous, some of these changes, that the three Democrats on the Federal Election Commission settled at about a million that they did pay back. Easy to raise money when you are an incumbent President with all that power.

That was David Watkins, he of golfing fame. He would not resign in disgrace; he was fired in disgrace. Chris Wade, a father-in-law of Web Hubbell, convicted. Mark Fabiani, they designate him as attack puppy. Harold Ickes, consiglier, good name made famous by Hollywood. Lloyd Cutler, a good man deluded and left with the broken heart, saying that he really thinks the Government has broken down.

Jack Quinn, a fixer. Louis Freeh, whom I praised on this House floor, they are not so kind to him. Craig Livingstone, well they only have "heavy" here but it is getting a lot worse than that. Patsy Thomason, drug dealer's aide, head of administration at the WhiteHouse but was Miss Fix-It, while Dan Lasater was in prison for cocaine, the man who had gotten cocaine for the President's brother. He is the next one up. David Lasater, drug dealer pardoned by Clinton, sent to a halfway house, did not serve any of his serious Federal time.

Arthur Coia, it just says "wise guy." Seth Ward also named disgrace. Beverly Bassett Schaffer, a fixer. Then it mentions a Senator. I will respect House rules and skip over him. Just said "stonewall" anyway. Then it has a couple of wanted. Then it has Tony Marseca today another fixer. Jim Blair, he of the cattle futures fame. Borrowed $1,000, rising to $100,000 in days and then cut off once the payback had taken place.

Richard Ben-Veniste, boy, it hits him hard. David Kendall, another fixer. Harry Thomason, the player who is still the impresario arranging some of the—we did it too, the extended infomercials that both parties pulled off in the month of August.

L. Jean Lewis, vindicated. That is the one good person on here. Ron Brown, still seven investigations going on with the deceased Ron Brown.

Cisneros, Espy, Betsey Wright, the bimbo fixer. That is her own title, bimbo fixer. She is sort of on the out.

Carolyn Huber, a decent woman who told the truth, how documents mysteriously appeared on coffee tables at the family level of the WhiteHouse. Mack McLarty, demoted. They needed a slicker and younger guy in there. George Stephanopoulos, attack puppy who came to the Republican Convention. The press said are you going to the Democratic Convention. I said I do not rain on their parade because Dodd and Stephanopoulos, showed up at ours to try to spin things.

Roger Altman, resigned in disgrace. Josh Steiner, who denied his own diary and left in disgrace. Jean Hanson, resigned in disgrace. Don Tyson, well, he has changed sides now. He is for Bob Dole. The chicken czar of Arkansas.

And Bob Bennett, my pall bill's Brother Bob as he calls him, who is one of the tougher hired gun consiglieres in town here.

If you go back over the Clinton record, this came in the mail, in what we call my "white mail," people who just do not send me a small donation but want to talk to me out of frustration. Mr. Speaker, they listed this: Whitewater, the Ron Brown scandal, historic world tax increases, the Vince Foster so-called suicide, the Zoe Baird scandal, Nanny-gate, the cattle futures deal, Travel-gate, the FEC election fraud that I just mentioned, General Janet Reno and Waco, not to mention other things that happened on her watch.

In Great Britain she would have honorably resigned the day after Waco, with 3 pregnant women and over 20 children and several teenagers, some of them choked to death on gas, mercifully being spared being burned to death.

Joycelyn Elders' resignation. The woman who said, "If I could wear a condom on my head as a crown, I would do it." That is how she picked up the name, the condom queen. Then she said it was a proud moniker.

Shredded evidence, disappearing documents, disappearing memories.

The Paula Jones lawsuit, which we will have to suffer through in the spring of next year whether Mr. Clinton wins or not.

Savings and loans problems. Still, that is a bipartisan scandal there, but I know where most of the votes were when my good friends on the other side were in the majority.

The Hazel O'Leary fiascoes. The Michael Espy resignation. The Roger Altman resignation. The shadowy finances. The Henry Cisneros scandal. The national debt, at record high and still going up. And that is pretty much bipartisan.

And then, as my writer says, and the list goes on, and on, and on.

Here is a document, a political document. Looks like a Federal document, but it is not. I do not even know the group that sent it out, but it says

"Murder in the First Degree: Interim Report on the Death of Commerce Secretary Ron Brown and 34 Other citizens". And in the first paragraph, and I am going to check this, as the chairman of an Armed Services subcommittee and Committee on National Security, it says all 35 people were dead at the crash except for a stewardess. That is not the right title. They are sergeant attendants. Shelly Kelly, who was riding in the tail, sustained only minor cuts and bruises; that she was well enough to get out as sole survivor of the 35 on the plane; that she climbed on the helicopter itself, it says here. This goes on for 37 pages. And that she died on the helicopter mysteriously.

I flew four times with Sergeant Shelly Kelly. Her husband is an Air Force sergeant. Two children. And in the PX, where we went to get some supplies, some toiletries for a trip into Bosnia with Shelly Kelly on this very same airplane, she was in the line ahead of me. Intelligent, strikingly professional, good looking lady sergeant. And I said why are you buying those wine bottles; is my crew partying tonight? Oh, no. I always bring home two wine bottles from everywhere I go as air mobility command member, Congressman. And she said my husband does the same. He is up at Ramstein. And when I get home, we have one bottle of wine at dinner, and then we save the other one. We have quite a collection to give to our children.

Well, Shelly Kelly is in heaven now, Mr. Speaker, and her husband is left with that wine bottle collection from all around the world. These two excellent servants of the people in the Air Mobility Command. And I am going to have to find out if there is any truth that she survived that crash, less than a month after CODEL members, the gentleman from Alabama, SONNY CALAHAN, the gentleman from Arizona, BOB STUMP, myself, and four or five other Members flew four times on that aircraft, from Aviano to Zagreb to Tuzla and other flights in that area just March of this year.

Now, last night, on this floor, two Californians who had joined my district, CHRISTOPHER COX has the coastline, DANA ROHRBACHER has the coastline just north of Huntington Beach on the inland land-locked Democrat majority district by about 10 points. They had a special order because Mr. COX got hold of a memo, which I guess the dominant media culture, liberal to the core, at least in New York and Hollywood and D.C., has not really printed this full memo; that somehow or other was obtained by House committees through document searches and demands.

They have been stonewalling, most of the records that the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. CLINGER], doing a great job in his last few months serving this House, serving the people of Pennsylvania, and it is a task list and it is dated December 13, 1994.

This is the culmination of the first 2 years of the Clinton administration. It is only 35 days after the historical election of November 8, 1994, which turned this House over from Democrats, from 40 years of rule, most of it liberal leadership. And I repeat, referring to that Henry Cabot Lodge speech on the Senate floor, that was my first election. The age was 21 then. I had gotten my wings just past 21 and a half years of age, and I watched the House go the other way in my first election. Everything else in California went the other way, too. I voted absentee.

And after 40 years, we take the House and here is a memo 35 days later called task list. It sounds like the pejorative politically inspired documents, but also seeking the truth, that I just read. This is a Clinton administration document. They use the alphabet instead of numbers. So here are 26 items, and then they follow with double letters, 13 more. So here is 39 steps to Pennsylvania Avenue.

A. Foster document handling, and it assigns it to somebody named Nemetz, N-E-M-E-T-Z.

Travel office, assigned.

WhiteHouse, treasury contacts.

Obstruction of justice.

Criminal referrals, the Jay Stephens thing, RTC whistle-blower reprisals.

E. Use of WhiteHouse resources for response efforts. Give that one to Nolan, wherever he is.

Foster suicide. Nemetz again.

Epsy, ethics, expanded Smaltz inquiry in relation to: Tyson's Hatch Act.

Cisneros, Brown, Hubbell. Those are all separate items.

Ickes, union representation.

Stephanopoulos and his NationsBank problem.

State Department. The passport files.

Archives. Abuse of the personnel system.

Legal defense fund.

Health care task force.

WhiteHouse operations. Passes, drugs, helicopters. That is a reference to David Watkins again.

Residence renovations. That goes to Neuwirth.

Presidential immunity goes to Sloan.

WhiteHouse, Arkansans. That is Thomasson, Nash, Rasco.

PIC surplus. I do not even know what that is. I will find out.

Improper electioneering.

GSA. That is the Orange County guy that endorsed Clinton, Roger Johnson. His life has never been the same.

Value partners.

Presidential campaign. The FEC audit.

See, December 13, 1994. They are talking about this $37,000 payoff fund to cover up a sexual harassment case against the chief administrator of the Clinton campaign, David Watkins.

Commodities. That goes to Kendall, whoever he is.

Then they start the double A, double B numbering.

Gubernatorial campaigns. Lindsey Wright. Record keeping.

Gubernatorial something else.

Whitewater and MGSL. The Madison Guaranty Savings & Loan. That goes to Kendall.

□ 1400

Other Madison Guaranty, that cost the taxpayers $60 million, and McDougal. That went to Kendall, too. He ought to be subpoenaed before a House committee before we close here. Rose law firm, we have a statute of Mr. Rose who founded that law firm, one of Arkansas's two allowed statues in Statuary Hall here. He must be turning in his grave the last 3 years and 10 months.

Then under the same heading as the Rose law firm is HRC work for, that is the Rose firm work for Madison Guaranty Savings & Loan. The Frost case. FSLIC representation. Kendall got that. David Hale, Susan McDougal, small business, she is going to jail. David Hale is on his way. Well, he has given testimony. That went to Kendall. Tucker sits all by itself. He is going to jail. Lasater, he got a better break than Susan McDougal. He is under house arrest without an anklet. For 4 years he cannot leave his home because he does have serious health problems. What a lucky guy.

African-Americans all across the country said, let some African-American get a phony loan for $300,000, rip the taxpayer off, and they gave the case in Arkansas where a gentleman was sick and he was sent to jail anyway and he died a year later. He was in wheelchair. So they are not too happy about that. Lasater, bond deals. This is their memo, their memo. Task list, December 13, 1994. Under I, issues, it says, ah, that is item 35, Lasater, open parentheses, bond deals, cocaine; Roger Clinton, close parentheses. Next one, use of loans to achieve legislative initiatives. Talk about campaign reform. ADFA, aid to families, political favors, Larry Nichols. Larry Nichols was the original whistleblower in all of Clinton's last gubernatorial campaign. Mena Airport, CBS, ABC, NBC, and even CNN have assiduously disregarded anything to do with this infamous airport in West Arkansas near the Mississippi River, and yet they have it on a WhiteHouse memo, Mena Airport. And this one is a small "t," troopers, trooper-gate.

Because one year before, on December 20, as this member sat in for the incomparable Rush Limbaugh, the Rush man, I introduced because Rush was in the Caribbean on his well-earned first vacation in years with Ed McLaughlin, his discoverer, I got to introduce the trooper-gate mess on the Rush Limbaugh show coast to coast to a rolling audience then of 15 to 20 million people.

So it says troopers. And then, item am, No. 39 numerically, it simply says, small "w," women. Women. The unmentioned one will not be mentioned. Open parentheses, Kendall/Bennett, that has to be Bob Bennett, assigned it to him. Then it starts and he switches from a Roman numeral to an Arabic numeral 2, new category titled Preliminaries. Identify the key Republican objectives and reasons for achieving them; that is, sustain the shadow on WJC character.

Mr. Speaker, could that be WILLIAM CLINGER? Hype the HRC threat to white men, traditional women. Identify guiding principles for responses.

These are all items. Nothing to hid, stick to the facts, get it right the first time. Keep it simple, stupid. That sounds like Carville writing this memo. It goes on and on and on and on through a whole page, surrogate roles, and then it comes over to an entire, you know how the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD has tiny print, send for this CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, folks, those leaving up in the gallery, then it comes down to item 18, they keep changing, they did not Jesuit outlining skills taught to them. I wonder if Clinton got that at Georgetown. Here is No. 18 of about the fifth category, it says FEC audit, determine congressional interest. Somebody should have written "intense" next to that. This is, again, the disgraced David Watkins. Assembled binders with summary and key documents. Media let them get off on that. They would have hammered war hero George Bush or the beloved Ronald Reagan if they had him on that. Then it comes down to 21 other preinaugural items, (a), Lindsey role, Betsey Wright, role of the Bank of Cherry Valley, that is one where one of the juries that let off people on blatant evidence, but that is our jury system. Starr is looking at 1984, 1986, 1990, these are gubernatorial elections in Arkansas.

Then it comes down to 21, subcategory (b), negative associations, Jim Guy Tucker, year and a half later he is convicted, any number of felonies. David Hale, Small Business Association loan. He is talking to the prosecutors, to Kenneth Starr. Then he goes to jail. Jim McDougal, talking, Dan Lasater, dodged everything, got that house arrest and a pardon by Clinton. It says there, bond deals, cocaine, Roger Clinton. Then Mena Airport again, a line item. Then it goes on and on.

And then troopers, troopers. Identify the issue. Job for silence. And then this young guy, Buddy Young, the captain of the troopers, who literally whored out for Clinton, I deliberately use that tough word because his salary was more than doubled from $45,000 as captain of the troopers to way over $95,000 to go to Denton, Texas and take over a FEMA, a Federal Emergency Management key spot in this country with no experience whatsoever for threatening some of the troopers and actually silencing some, particularly one who had 5 children and triplets, unbelievable disgrace.

Then Mr. COX goes on, this memo is quite extraordinary. It is single spaced. Goes on for 12 pages. As I said, lists 39 scandals, most of which now, 2 years later, are at least known to American people. Yes, those that follow these important things.

My point is, as I said, last week on this, America has an IQ test that it is going to have to take on November 5. Today is the 12th. We are not in Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday. No votes Tuesday until late. That is 5 more days gone in this month. So that is 17 days. We have 13 days left in September when the next special order takes place. I hope I will be up for one. I will continue with Tiger Flight and recruit my combat tested friends, HUNTER, SAM JOHNSON.

I will be back next week with 5 more days gone, 12, that is 17, so that means 13 days in this 30-day month; 31 next, that is 44. When we come back in for legislative business, there will be 49 days left in the presidential election, 49 days before GIL GUTKNECHT rides to glory with a 60, 70 percent election up there in God's country in the northwest of our great country, middle northwest it should be called now.

Mr. Speaker, here is why this is so important to me, all these scandals. It is because we are faced with a constitutional crisis right now. Last Sunday, a few days ago I was in my district. I went to the back of the church, St. Columbans, great Irish saint that turned wild blue-faced Picts in Scotland into Christians, brought the word of Christ to Scotland with St. Kevin and St. Columba. But this is Columban.

In St. Columbans in Garden Grove, CA, at the back of the church is a plaque and it says on the plaque that these men, the following, died in the service of their country in the war in Vietnam. And it lists six names and then it says, may their souls repose in peace, or words to that effect.

I said to my wife, it is time for me to write down these names and go to the Vietnam Memorial at the kiosk, because I had done this at Cambridge, England to look at Colonel Eugene Holmes' kid brother, Bob, as I mentioned earlier who, and last week I mentioned him, who had died from his wounds at altitude, German fighter aircraft and flak tearing up the B-17, died of his wounds on the aircraft, but the aircraft made it safely back to his base and he was buried the next day on Veterans Day of 1943. The air war had been canceled over Germany because we were losing so many airplanes, 2 raids, we lost six four-engine ten- or 11-man crewed bombers over Schreinfeld and then Regensburg-Schreinfeld. So we ended the air war from October, so he must have been hit over France. We did not start up again until February. We started. We could still lose the air war. Germans had not even put their jets in the field yet. But since I have looked up and I had forgotten how easy is to get a man's date of death and birth and age, so forth, and I took down these 6 names and my Sally reminded me yesterday. So I could not get off the floor so I sent a staffer down to the Vietnamese Memorial. Within minutes he was back with their names, I mean the barest of statistics on their death.

Here they are. In my parish church, here is the names of six young Americans who died serving their country in Vietnam. I will make a point on this. J. Patrick Fitzsimmons, lance corporal Marine Corps, died a month past his 21st birthday, May 18, 1967, he was born in 1946, I guess that is the beginning of the baby boom. His dad was probably a veteran who came home from the war and count back 9 months from 1946 and that is certainly a child brought into the world at the end of our victorious allied effort of World War II. George Xavier Rocha, private first class, born February 3, 1946. He was conceived after the war in Europe ended, the very month, VE day. May of 1945. Birthday February 3, 1946. Died 21 years old, 10 and a half months, on December 18 of 1967. Bill Clinton is starting his 3 months into his senior year at Georgetown, getting ready to use graduate school to avoid his first draft notice which, by the way, was not right because graduate school deferments ended in 1967.

Then David Simmons, born in Grand Rapids but died as a citizen of Garden Grove, sergeant, Army, date of birth, August 16, 1944. Probably his dad home on leave. He died March 16, 1968, 23 years and one month to the day.

Patrick F. Scharosch, spec 4, U.S. Army, born December 18, 1945, war had been over just a few months when his mother went into labor and brought him into what looked like a very promising world, Christmas of 1945, the world at peace for the first time in six horrible bloodletting years, 55 million dead in all the extended families with broken hearts that their loved son or daughter, in the case of European Jewry, the whole extended families gone up literally in evil smoke from Hitler's crematoria. He died April 15, 1968. I know exactly where I was that day, on the way to Vietnam as a reporter.

He was 22 years, 4 months, J. Michael Foster, another marine, corporal, he was born on VE day itself, May 8, 1945. In between his mother's birth pangs, no TV in the hospital rooms then, but I am sure proud dad and brothers and sisters bringing her newspapers, the war is over in Europe. Well, it ended the day before, it ended on the sixth, Ike took the unconditional surrender, would not even show up, he so disrespected General Yodal and then declared May 8 the VE day. Some prisoners were still dying. Some people liberated in camps were still dying but at least they knew freedom, breathed free for a day or two before their emaciated bodies gave up their souls to God and in Russian camps that had been overrun, U.S. prisoners, I repeated from earlier, those with the Slavic names died in the Gulag camps over the next decade.

Let me please give this last name, Mr. Speaker, J. Michael Foster, died March 24, 1969, 23 years, 10 months and, thank you for the courtesy of the one officer, major, Marine Corps, Robert M.

Fitzgerald, born in Yonkers, NY, date of birth, January 3, 1936, the year of my brother's birth. His death was June 1, 1970, 34 years, 5 months, the year Bill Clinton returned from his triumphal tour of Prague, Moscow, and Scandinavia.

Mr. Speaker, I include for the RECORD the following information:

[From POLI news, Sept. 10, 1996]

FROM WATERGATE TO WHITEWATER TO FILEGATE, THERE MAY NOT BE A SANTA CLAUS, BUT THERE'S DEFINITELY A LAW OF KARMA!

When Hillary Clinton and Bernie Nussbaum were manipulating the law to continue their vendetta against Nixon, which eventually brought the word 'impeachment' into everyday usage, who thought the law of Karma, AKA The Law of Return, would come into play some 25 years later? One may well wonder if HRC had been studying Eastern Philosophy instead of cranking out McGovern posters, would the WhiteHouse be the Sing-Sing-on-the-Potomac?

Let's take a brief stroll down felony lane and look at the Clintons' Legacy:

Trooper-Gate, our randy President-to-be uses state employees, State Police to be exact, to pimp for him, rating the women on a scale of one to ten, (with HRC un-listed) with basement 'soirees' as HRC slept upstairs and even an assignation at 4:45 am on the very morning he left for D.C. According to Trooper Roger Perry, Clinton offered him a federal job in return for his silence. Candy may be dandy, and liquor, quicker, but a Federal job has real appeal! Among those supposedly given jobs-for-sex: the infamous Jennifer Flowers, who replaced a black woman for an administrative post for which Ms. Flowers had no expertise. Now there's a new use for tax dollars.

Nanny-gate, with a full 27 nominees for high office disqualified for not paying Social Security taxes. Among these, Zoe Baird, who with her husband, both high-priced lawyers, failed to take a few bucks out of their annual $500,000 income to pay the green carded nanny's way.

Haircut-gate, where his royal highness Bill tied up the Los Angeles airport while he got a $250 haircut which cost the airport thousands of dollars, while delaying the busy lives of actual 'little tax-paying people.' Looking at our President's bushy hair, I think the cut was overpriced.

Travel-gate, where seven loyal WhiteHouse workers were not only fired, which the Clintons had every right to do as these people served 'at the pleasure of the President' but against all laws of the land, the First Lady and the First Bill brought in the FBI and the IRS to trash the reputations of innocents to save their own, since the 'Haircut' had previously left a bad taste in the public's mouth. Clinton so-called 'cousin' (because no one can find her lineage actually connecting her, by blood or marriage, to the family) young, blonde and inexperienced, (at least in the travel business), Catherine Cornelius was hired to run the Travel Office. Unbeknownst to them, but latter knownst to us, their stalling on document-releases in this affair, gave Rep. William Clinger the power to threaten Contempt of Congress, thereby yielding a treasure trove of documents. Among the papers, it was learned that, yet another scandal, involving the FBI and secret documents, was to be revealed.

File-gate, where, in true Clinton style a "few," then "about 300, from A to G," to the current 'over 1,000' classified personal FBI files, mostly of Republicans who had served in the Reagan and Bush administrations. Incredibly, we have learned that those in charge of this enemies list were never, themselves, able to pass a security clearance for such reasons as drug use, including, marijuana, cocaine, crack-cocaine and other 'hard drugs', theft, including thousands of dollars of lap-top computers stolen after the campaign, (with surveillance camera videos of the actual stealing!), and other past histories of the criminal kind.

Mena-gate, which is currently being worked on, Mena being an airport in Arkansas, under the direction of FOB (formerly, Friend-of-Bill, now Felon-of-Bill) Dan Lassiter, used to traffic an estimated $110 MILLION/month of cocaine into the U.S.A.

Foster-gate, in which for the first time in this century, a dead body smells up the WhiteHouse. Vince Foster, one-time 'special' friend of Hillary and family lawyer, was suspiciously found dead, jurisdiction was given to 'park police' to, contrary to all the evidence (e.g., clean, polished shoes, after a long walk through a dusty brush-filled park, unexplained carpet fibers on the dead man's clothing, blonde hair and semen stains on the underclothes, non-functioning gun found in the wrong hand, absence of bullet, spent shell, skull-fragments and other forensic evidence, fingerprint-less 'suicide note' w/o any words of love for family, torn into 27 pieces (try this at home), gravity-defying blood-stain on face, impossibly small amount of blood for a 'head shot' etc., etc.) rule 'suicide' and then the body was quickly cremated before extensive examination would be done.

Lest we forget to note the, shall we say, interesting list of Presidential appointees:

Joycelyn (the Condom Queen) Elders, who suggested prostitutes be implanted with 'Norplant' to enable them to ply their trade, wanted "safer bullets" (!?, Ed.) Most famous quote, "If I could wear a crown on my head with a condom on it, I would."

Henry Foster, who said he had performed "a few" abortions, then continued to lie to Congress as it was revealed that "a few" equaled over 700. Dr. Foster claimed those opposing his nomination were "racists."

Web Hubbel, former FOB and Hillary's Rose Law partner, actual un-appointed Attorney General, responsible for the Waco Massacre, now serving time in the penal Club Fed, who let the blame for the dead children fall on the broad shoulders of Janet Reno, Attorney General, most famous quote "My highest priority is not to convict criminals, but to protect their rights." Ms. Reno was also given 'what-for' in a Senate vote of 100-0 when she tried to overturn George Bush's position on child pornography.

Ron Brown, deceased Commerce Secretary, formerly under investigation by: Department of Justice; Special Prosecutor; FDIC; Congressional Reform and Oversight Committee; FBI; DOE; Senate Judiciary Committee; Commerce Dept.; and Inspector General. At the time of the plane crash which reportedly killed Sec'y. Brown, there were 22 Congressmen demanding Brown's removal and prosecution. Among the major scandals in which Brown was involved: Whitewater; Mena Drug smuggling; the Denver Airport mess; The Keating Five; Haitian Madame Lillian Madsen's prostitution ring; $700,000 received from Russia and deposited in a Singapore Bank to drop trade embargo with Viet Nam (which was accomplished), thereby propping up the Viet Nam Communists; Special 'favors' (tax and regulatory) breaks given by Brown to Democrat Party and Clinton Victory Fund (to re-elect Clintons) Influence Peddling by Cabinet Official $12.5K/mo. from Haitian dictator-in-Exile Duvalier; $50M sent to Viet Nam Communist gov't.; $360,000 town house for the aforementioned Mme. Madsen; illegal ChemFix Waste Mgt. account with former NYC Mayor David Dinkins, worth millions; Capitol/Pebsco illegal pension fund account with DC Mayor Marion Barry; sale of gas-turbine engine to China for use in cruise missiles; illegal Iranian Muslims weapons deal into Bosnia against US/Ally Trade Embargo, money for which came from Depts. of Commerce and Agriculture slush funds, and supplied helicopter gunships, stinger missiles, land mines, anti-aircraft guns, anti-tanks weapons, grenade launchers and over 20,000 muslim troops, including their elite Mujahedeen; illegal $500,000 cash with gov't loans money deal with Yolanda Hill to fund Democratic National Committee; illegal $6 Billion Saudi deal for military aircraft and hardware coupled with illegal $4 Billion AT&T contract, of which DNC and Bill Clinton were beneficiaries. Now here lies a busy, busy capitalist!

Henry Cisneros, Sec'y of HUD, under investigation for lying to FBI in matter involving money and mistress.

Mike Espy, former Sec'y of Agriculture, resigned after Tyson (FOB) Food Giant 'bought influence,' with this case still active.

Ira Magaziner, Health Care Czar and Friend of Hillary, investigated for spending a bit over budget for the now infamous, socialist Health-Care Task-Force fiasco. A bit over budget, you ask? Well, for an original estimate of $300,000 to become an actual bill of over $15 Million from the taxpayers, I, for one, would like my money back. It would seem the 'Force' was 'tasked' to redistribute wealth from the tax payer to their private Swiss accounts, non? Ooh la la!

Hazel O'Leary, Energy Secretary, who has shown she can overspend with the best of 'em. Hazel took 68 of her closest friends on a Madonna-like tour, using the Hollywood and Rock stars' favorite transport jet, (complete with gold toilet fixtures and hot tubs) claiming billions of business garnered for the US, which was proven to be less than millions.

Donna Shalala HHS Sec'y and another 'special' friend of Hillary, famous for the television and radio, condom campaign, at taxpayer's expense, spending over $1 Million thus far.

9. H.J. RES. 77. USE OF FORCE AGAINST IRAQ/
PASSAGE

Passage of the joint resolution to authorize the use of military force if Iraq has not withdrawn from Kuwait and complied with U.N. Security Council resolutions by Jan. 15. The resolution authorizes the use of force and the expenditure of funds under the War Powers act and requires the president to report to Congress every 60 days on the efforts to obtain Iraqi compliance. Passed 250-183: R 164-3; D 86-179 (ND 33-147, SD 53-32); I 0-1, Jan 12, 1991. A "yea" was a vote supporting the president's position.

ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENT
SUBCOMMITTEE FIELD BRIEFING

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under the Speaker's announced policy of May 12, 1995, the gentleman from California [Mr. ROHRABACHER] is recognized for 60 minutes as the designee of the majority leader.

Mr. DORNAN. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will yield for a second.

Mr. ROHRABACHER. Yes; I would.

Mr. DORNAN. I thank my colleague for yielding.

I made reference earlier to your hard-hitting, factual, truthful special order last night with CHRIS COX, and I would like to ask unanimous consent that this not interrupt the flow of this fascinating environmental presentation, but that my question of you and my short statement hear appear at the beginning of your special order so it has a flow from special order.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

Mr. DORNAN. What I wanted to do was to point out at the end of my special order, because I got caught a little about there, that I have asked unanimous consent they duplicate it to put it in the RECORD at the end of my remarks for any Americans tracking us through the gallery of visits here, or through the electronic wizardry of C-SPAN I and II, that I am putting into the record the vote.

You were here for that great debate in January 1991, so was the Speaker pro tempore; 180 Democrats voted against doing anything about Saddam Hussein. Some of them even voted against the sanctions, like my pal, ELIOT ENGEL, although he voted for hostile action. But all the leadership: Tom Foley, who was the Speaker, Mr. BONIOR, who was in leadership then, Mr. HOYER, the entire leadership here and the entire leadership that is over there today in the Senate: Mr. DASCHLE, then the majority leader, Mr. Mitchell, they all voted against doing anything. And Admiral Crowe, who had risen to glory under Reagan and Bush, he wrote against any action, and his reward is to be the Ambassador to England in the Court of St. James.

Now we have these same people coming to the floor. The gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. MARKEY] at least had the decency to say, well, he voted no because he thought we went into week 2 early and left a few days too late, and I might agree with the analysis, but that is not a reason to vote against going in at all, because he did not know when we were going in.

Mr. ROHRABACHER. If I could reclaim my time for a moment?

Mr. DORNAN. Sure.

Mr. ROHRABACHER. Actually, it is worse than what you are presenting. The fact is that we had hundreds of thousands of Americans in the desert in a very vulnerable situation. They were in a hostile environment, even if there were no enemy troops out to kill them; and what happened, what you are talking about, the vast majority of the members of the Democratic Party who were here in this body decided and voted that they should not be permitted to conduct offensive military operations.

What, in essence, that vote was all about was saying our troops, vulnerable in the middle of a hostile desert, facing a well-armed foe would not be able to conduct offensive operations but would have to sit there and fry in the desert and take hits, but were not permitted to take offensive action.

This is Vietnam times 10, if they would have succeeded. Luckily a number, Democrats crossed over to join almost every Republican.

Mr. DORNAN. 240 to 183.

Mr. ROHRABACHER. Right. Almost every Republican voted to side with our troops.

You do not put people out in that condition unless you are willing to back them up, and the last thing you want to do is put them out in the middle of the desert as it is going into summertime and make them sit there and make them take the hits for not letting offensive military operations take place.

They voted that way, and then when Schwarzkopf came here, when he came here to give a speech to this body after the great victory that he led us to, I remember the Schwarzkopf reception because all of those who voted, not all of them, but so many of those who voted to make him a sitting duck elbowed everybody else out of the way in order to get their picture with General Schwarzkopf.

At that time, if you remember, right after we voted to give them the right to conduct offensive military operations, and it became clear that our forces were going to win a magnificent victory, the Democrats who controlled this body at the time, if you remember, BOB, called us back, immediately called us back in order to have a vote which was nothing but a face-saving vote for them at massive expense to the taxpayers to get everybody back here for just a face-saving vote for—

Mr. DORNAN. To support the men and women.

Mr. ROHRABACHER. That is right.

Mr. DORNAN. Two quick final thoughts:

You are right. Boy, was I understating it. Those of us who were raised in California and in New York, a few other big cities, find words like arrogance, gall, the effrontery of it all. They are not strong enough.

We must turn to Yiddish, one of the world's most powerfully expressive and emotional languages. The word with great accent "chutzpah" comes to mind, that they would ask us, without even being consulted, let alone a fulsome debate, as President Bush and Dick Cheney gave us, that we should sign off on some feel-good thing from the other Chamber without being consulted about the air war that may be beginning any second over there of hostilities again affronting our Constitution.

A final thought. I leave you now to go to the West Front, Ronald Reagan the first President ever sworn in out there, where bishops, cardinals of the Catholic Church, bishops of the Mormon Church, prolife ministers and pastors, great evangelical leaders and prolife rabbis are gathering to ask the U.S. Senate, six hardened hearts, to turn around and support the overwhelming majority of the House and Senate to override Clinton's veto on partial birth infanticide of 80-percent-delivered babies held in the mother's birth canal under great distress to the mother, heck with the distress on the baby, because the abortionist is about to stab it in the back of its head and remove its brains by suction. I am going out there now to that.

Mr. ROHRABACHER. Reclaiming my time, Mr. Speaker, I have always believed that there is an honest disagreement on the issue of pro-life and pro-choice and the abortion issue. I personally, until I came to the conclusion that life begins at conception, I was ambivalent about this whole issue. But once you come to a conclusion, once
