Ms. PRYCE, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H. Res. 189]

The Committee on Rules, having had under consideration House Resolution 189, by a nonrecord vote, report the same to the House with the recommendation that the resolution be adopted.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF RESOLUTION

The resolution provides for the further consideration of H.R. 1977, the Interior Appropriations Bill for Fiscal Year 1996, under a rule limiting the further consideration of amendments to the bill. The rule provides for the further consideration of the bill for amendment without intervening motion except: (1) amendments printed in the Congressional Record prior to July 14, 1995; (2) motions that the Committee rise if offered by the Majority Leader or his designee; and (3) motions that the Committee rise and report with adopted amendments as a preferential motion pursuant to clause 2(d) of rule XXI.

The rule provides that printed amendments may be offered only by the Members who caused them to be printed, are considered as read, are debatable for 10 minutes each divided between the proponent and an opponent, and are not subject to amendment or to a demand for a division of the question.

The rule authorizes the chairman of the Committee of the Whole to postpone any request for a recorded vote on an amendment to a later time and to reduce to five minutes the time for a vote on any amendment in a series of amendments after the vote on the first such amendment of not less than 15 minutes.
