MARCH 7, 1995.—Referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed

Mr. LINDER, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany H. Res. 108]

The Committee on Rules, having had under consideration House Resolution 108, by a voice vote, report the same to the House with the recommendation that the resolution be adopted.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS OF RESOLUTION

The resolution provides for the consideration of H.R. 956, the “Common Sense Legal Standards Reform Act of 1995.” The rule provides for two hours of general debate divided equally between the chairmen and ranking minority members of the Judiciary and Commerce Committees.

The rule provides that after general debate, the Committee shall rise without motion, and that no further consideration of the bill will be in order except by order of the House. This means that a second rule will be necessary to consider the bill for amendment.
