CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Condemning in the strongest possible terms the bombing in Jerusalem on September 4, 1997.

Whereas on September 4, 1997, 3 bombs exploded in Jerusalem on Ben Yehuda Street, killing at least 7 people and injuring more than 165 others;

Whereas HAMAS, a terrorist organization, has a “military wing” which has claimed responsibility for this cowardly act;

Whereas Yasser Arafat, Chairman of the Palestinian Authority, has made statements in which he said “HAMAS, even its military wing, is a patriotic movement.”;

Whereas on August 20, 1997, Chairman Arafat publicly embraced the leader of HAMAS, Abdel Aziz al-Rantisi;

Whereas Yasser Arafat has recently ordered the release of several HAMAS terrorists being held in Palestinian Authority jails, including Nabil Sharihi, who is suspected in a bombing that killed Alisa Flatow, an American citizen;

Whereas Israel has recently given Yasser Arafat a long list of suspected terrorists who are presently residing in Palestinian-controlled territory;

Whereas Yasser Arafat has made public statements in which he vowed not to “bow down” to Israeli requests that he arrests suspected terrorists;

Whereas since the beginning of the Oslo peace process, more than 100 Israelis have been killed, and hundreds more have been injured, far more than in a similar period before the peace process began; and

Whereas in violation of the Oslo Accords, the Palestinian Authority has withheld full security cooperation with the State of Israel, which may have made this attack more likely: Now, therefore, be it

1        Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives
2 concurring), That Congress—

3            (1) condemns in the strongest possible terms
4        this latest bombing and those responsible for encour-
5        aging or inciting such cowardly acts;

6            (2) expresses its deepest condolences to the
7        families of the victims of this latest bombing and ex-
8        presses its solidarity with the people of the State of 9        Israel in this tragic time;

10           (3) reaffirms that the United States should 11        fully cooperate with the State of Israel in helping to 12        stem the tide of terrorism, which has threatened the 13        Oslo peace process and the stability of this vital re-
14        gion; and

1           (4) affirms that the United States will only pro-
2           vide monetary or other assistance to the Palestinian
3           Authority once it has fulfilled its obligations under
4           the Oslo Accords, including—

5                   (A) taking affirmative steps to arrest and
6                   prosecute suspected terrorists;

7                   (B) resuming full security and intelligence
8                   cooperation with the State of Israel;

9                   (C) taking affirmative steps to confiscate
10                  all unlicensed weapons and explosives;

11                  (D) prohibiting participation in the Pal-
12                  estinian security services of individuals sus-
13                  pected of committing terrorist acts;

14                  (E) ceasing all anti-Israeli rhetoric, includ-
15                  ing statements which refer to terrorist groups
16                  as “patriotic”, statements which praise terror-
17                  ists or terrorist leaders, and statements encour-
18                  aging a “battle” or “jihad” against Israel;

19                  (F) cooperating with Israel in the transfer
20                  of suspected terrorists to Israel to stand trial;

21                  (G) ceasing the use of maps depicting
22                  “Palestine” as encompassing the entire State of 23                  Israel;

24                  (H) completing the process of amending
25                  the covenant of the Palestinian Liberation Or-

1           ganization, including the recession of those spe-
2           cific articles which call for armed struggle to
3           liberate “Palestine” or question the legitimacy
4           of Zionism or the State of Israel; and

5           (I) taking affirmative steps to ensure that
6           the size of the Palestinian police force is in ac-
7           cordance with the limits set forth in the Oslo
8           and subsequent accords.

Passed the Senate September 11, 1997.

Attest:

GARY SISCO,
Secretary.
