Dear Jim:

I very much enjoyed visiting with you yesterday and I appreciate your taking time out of your busy schedule to meet with me and June.

You had asked how we could measure the success of this project and I have listed several significant measures below:

1. The number of workshop sites across the country and the number of participants who attend. I have enclosed one of our national workshop site directories for your review.
2. The amount of media generated by each show. There were favorable reports in several major publications regarding the May 19th show including USA Today, The Washington Post and The Wall Street Journal.
3. The prestige of the individuals who participate and endorse American Citizens' Television including Pete du Pont, Detroit City Councilman Keith Butler, Congressmen Duncan Hunter, Andy Ireland, Fred Grandy and others. Governor of Maine Jock McKernan, President Bush and Vice President Quayle all participated in the May 19th show.
4. The number of allies who support us such as the Heritage Foundation, Free Congress, Citizens for a Sound Economy, the National Chamber of Commerce, National Vietnam Veterans Coalition, The Family Channel and Citizens Against Government Waste.
5. This is the ultimate and most effective use of technology to build a grass roots movement and in many ways will not be measureable except by watching the next two elections.

Jim, as is the case with the start-up phase of many operations, ACTV is in urgent need of special funding help to get it through its infancy. There is an immediate need for $100,000 to $200,000 to complete our fall programming and allow us to plan for next year.

I, of course, want to wish you the best of luck with your sales job. We're obviously very hopeful and are keeping our fingers crossed.

Again, thank you for meeting with us. Newt and Bo are deeply committed to this project and would be extremely pleased to have your support as well. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Jeff Eisenach

Dear Jim,

I enjoyed talking with you and appreciate your continued interest in everything that Newt and I are doing.

I understand your frustration. It can be difficult to measure the results of something like ACTV, but I think there are some objective criteria that we can use.

Since May 19th there have been nearly 1,000 ACTV workshops held across the country. Many activists are working on their third workshop for September 29th.

In addition to the workshops, we have more than 100 activists working to become ACTV affiliate producers. These people are enrolling in local cable classes now so that they can produce local programs in the fall.

Perhaps the greatest indicator of success is the talk of other national conservative groups on how they can copy what ACTV is doing. Clearly, what we are doing has captured the imagination of the grassroots political movement.

I appreciate that your talking to Roy and deciding what you will want to do. I hope it will not come to a choice between GOPAC and A.C.T.V. I strongly urge you to continue your strong support for GOPAC. That is the fundamental thing that we will need to do to control the U.S. Congress in 1992.

If you feel that you are in a position to do more, and especially if you would like to do it in a tax deductible way, I think A.C.T.V. is a good opportunity.

Please call me if at any time I can answer any questions or can be of help in any way.

Sincerely,

Dear Jim:

I very much enjoyed visiting with you Tuesday and I appreciate your taking time out of your busy schedule to meet with June and me. Of course, we are deeply grateful for your willingness to consider near term funding for ACTV.

I also wanted to respond to two specific topics that you raised.

First, your suggestion about the need to identify quantitative measures of success is well taken and I have given it some thought. Below I have gone over some of the measures of success we have used in the past.

We had a number of workshop sites across the country and several thousand participants who attended those workshops. I have enclosed one of our national workshop site directories for your review.

The media generated by each show is a great indicator. There were favorable reports in several major publications regarding the May 19th show including USA Today, The New York Times, The Washington Post and The Wall Street Journal.

We had the support of prestigious people across America including Pete du Pont, Detroit City Councilman Keith Butler, Congressmen Duncan Hunter, Andy Ireland, Fred Grandy and others. Governor of Maine Jock McKernan, President Bush and Vice President Quayle all participated in the May 19th show.

We have strong allies who support us such as the Heritage Foundation, Free Congress, Citizens for a Sound Economy, the National Chamber of Commerce, National Vietnam Veterans Coalition, The Family Channel and Citizens Against Government Waste.

Exhibit 25

GOPAC3 0515

As we move forward we will continue to rely on these measures of success and will work to develop new ones. I would very much appreciate any of your thoughts on which specific measures would be most useful.

Secondly, we're very interested in your suggestion about using your production facilities and I'll be discussing this with our producer as we begin planning for next year. I'll let you know what we've determined as soon as possible.

Again, thank you for meeting with us. Newt and Bo are deeply committed to this project and would be extremely pleased to have your support as well. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey A. Eisenach

MEMORANDUM

TO: Newt Gingrich

DATE: August 13, 1990

SUBJECT: Tentative decisions made at the North Pole
Basin planning meetings.

I would have liked to have talked to you in person about our North Pole Basin meetings before sending this memo, but since you are going to be planning for 1992 this week, I think it is essential for me to get this information to you as quickly as possible. I would appreciate it if you would go over the material in this memo before you get involved in your 1992 planning session in Georgia.

The first part of the discussion was mechanical. It was agreed that there are three broad things that GOPAC does:

1. Traditional GOPAC.
2. Newt support.
3. Projects such as ACTV, AOW and focus groups.

It was unanimously felt that the regular funding for GOPAC, to include Charter and direct mail, should be spent for Traditional GOPAC and Newt support, and that all projects in the future should meet the test of the marketplace. That is, if they are not funded up front, we don't do them. The feeling was that this would take away from the concerns that many people have had about GOPAC sending mixed messages. Charter members would know what their money is being given for; those who give to projects would know what their money is being given for.

As an aside, it was also felt that no individual should be allowed to give to projects unless the first $10,000 of that gift went as a Charter membership. For example, if a person was interested in a project of GOPAC and wanted to give $100,000 to it, the first $10,000 would be Charter and the next $90,000 would go to the project. This would not apply to corporations or foundations, although for corporations we would encourage the first $10,000 to be given as a Charter membership.

Everyone felt that 1992 was the best chance that we will have in our lifetime to make the kind of bold changes that we all saw as necessary. Here is our plan for 1992, either done by GOPAC or by others, with GOPAC's encouragement:

1. 100-Day Agenda

It was strongly felt that we had to develop an agenda worth voting for. I think Dan Meyer is working on this now through ranking Members. We also know that Heritage, Cato, and others have pretty well developed things along this line. Our thought was for COS or GOPAC or someone to sponsor a meeting in Washington with all of the players such as Hudson, Cato, AEI, Heritage, Hoover Institute, as well as political consultants and Members of Congress who share our vision to discuss, in a conference for a day or two, what the 100-Day Agenda should be. Then the sponsor, with a few research and writing assistants would put together a document that, hopefully, would be approved by the vast majority of the participants as the agenda that candidates could support for the first 100 days in 1993 (because of 501(c)(3) participation, we might have to make it less Republican). We would give it a name (for now "100-Day Agenda") and would ask all candidates running in 1992 to sign off for supporting all or essentially all of the program. The conference should be held in Washington, no later than January 1991.

2. Recruiting Quality Candidates.

GOPAC (or some other entity) would make a real run at recruiting quality candidates. We would start by contacting our 6,000 on the farm team as well as any others that the RNC or NRCC might have. We would ask them to sign up to support the 100-Day Agenda and to consider running for Congress. We would use Tom Morgan, Mark Colucci and others to develop a number of candidates that would seem good. We would also try our best at determining who the ideal person or persons would be in each of our targeted 200 Congressional districts.

When we had a list of those we would like to recruit, we would send distinguished people such as Congressmen, former Congressmen, Governors, etc., to do the recruiting. We would have demographic and opposition research (hopefully done by the NRCC) to use as persuasion for those being recruited. We would have funds available to pay for travel expenses for those who do the recruiting. The idea would be to see that no later than June 1991 we had at least one good candidate committed to run and also committed to the 100-Day Agenda in every one of our 200 targeted districts.

3. National Media Campaign

GOPAC would be the catalyst to set up a non-GOPAC independent expenditure group prepared to conduct a national media campaign for the three or four most significant items of the 100-Day Agenda and to publicize a list of candidates who are supporters of the 100-Day Agenda.

The idea is to be prepared with an independent expenditure group ready to go immediately after the Republican Convention and hopefully raise the $30,000,000 it would cost to set the stage for a national campaign which spelled out the importance of making a change and the importance of voting for those who support the 100-Day Agenda.

All of this, as a 1992 project, would have to stand the test of the marketplace and be funded as a project before GOPAC would spend money on it.

The idea was that Eddie Mahe would do some planning together with input from all of us at the North Pole. I think Terry Kohler would fund the small amount of planning money required. Then we would have a meeting, probably on November 13, the day after the Charter meeting, of those Charter members who might be interested in putting this together. At that time Eddie Mahe would have a plan for us which we could then approve in more detail to include costs and time lines.

Dear Randy,

It was good talking with you today. I hope Newt's review of the proposal we discussed will be helpful in making a decision.

I've enclosed, as promised, a package on the "Change Congress NOW!" project GOPAC has underway. As we discussed, we would love to have you as a GOPAC Charter Member. As you know, the Charter Program involves a $10,000 commitment, towards which we are able to accept either personal or corporate funds.

With respect to foundation funds, it is of course not appropriate for GOPAC to accept 501(c)3 money. However, Bo Callaway does have a foundation, the Abraham Lincoln Opportunity Foundation (ALOF), which owes GOPAC a substantial sum of money. You might consider a contribution to ALOF, which would enable it to pay down its GOPAC debt, and thus be of enormous help in our efforts to change the Congress in 1992.

I've asked Bo Callaway to give you a call next week, and hope you'll consider getting involved in what we believe is the best opportunity to change Congress we're likely to see for quite some time.

Sincerely,

R. Randolph Richardson

MEMORANDUM FOR JUNE WEISS

FROM: Jeff Eisenach

SUBJECT: Bo's Charter Dues

Bo has offered us a choice of (1) $10,000 from him or (2) $20,000 from ALOF. I indicated to him on the phone today I would tend to go for $20,000 over $10,000 -- in part, frankly, because I think we ought to go ahead and get the ALOF loan repaid and be done with it, as opposed to having it hanging around for another year.

In any event, let me know what you think on this and I'll get back to Bo.

Dear Kay:

It was a pleasure to meet with you today. I hope all went well in Oakland and that you had an enjoyable trip. I am enclosing the following items for your files:

- Copy of 1992 Form 990EZ information tax return
- Copy of letter to Internal Revenue Service re: multiple employer ID numbers
- Copies of powers of attorney related to above letter to IRS

I mailed the tax return today by certified mail, return receipt requested. The receipt should come directly to your office. So if you do not get it within the next week to 10 days, please let me know so that we can track it down. We should receive a reply to my letter to the IRS within the next six weeks. Hopefully, this will clear up all the problems you have been having with them.

Between August 21st and December 27, 1990, GOPAC loaned the ALOF $45,000 in cash to help fund ALOF programs. ALOF sent two checks to GOPAC in early 1991 for $47,000, which the accountants applied toward partial repayments of these loans and showed the remainder as program expenses in 1991. There are not, however, any receipts or invoices from GOPAC in ALOF's files which show a breakdown of the money sent to GOPAC in 1991 or in 1992. Without these invoices, or any other documentation from GOPAC as to how this money was spent in ALOF's behalf, ALOF has no proof that any of the money sent to GOPAC was used for non-partisan, non-profit programs. GOPAC needs to send ALOF a detailed accounting of how the money they received from ALOF was used.

As soon as you receive this information from GOPAC, we can amend the 1991 and 1992 returns to show that the loans have been fully repaid and adjust the 1991 expenses to actual program expenses for that year. I will be happy to talk to someone at GOPAC directly, if you feel that it would help them to understand exactly what they need to research and provide to you.

Dear Judy:

Hope all is well with you and your family.

Bo and I are in the final stages of closing out the Abraham Lincoln Opportunity Foundation, but before we can do that, our accountant needs additional information.

Between August 21 and December 27, 1990, GOPAC loaned ALOF $45,000 in cash to help fund ALOF programs. ALOF sent two checks to GOPAC in early 1991 for $47,000, which the accountants applied toward partial repayments of these loans and showed the remainder as program expenses in 1991. There are not, however, any receipts or invoices from GOPAC in ALOF's files which show a breakdown of the money sent to GOPAC in 1991 or in 1992. Without these invoices, or any other documentation from GOPAC as to how this money was spent in ALOF's behalf, ALOF has no proof that any of the money sent to GOPAC was used for non-partisan, non-profit programs. GOPAC needs to send ALOF a detailed accounting of how the money they received from ALOF was used.

As soon as we receive this information from GOPAC, we can amend the 1991 and 1992 returns to show that the loans have been fully repaid and adjust the ~~1991~~ expenses to actual program expenses for that year.

Our accountant is Toni L. Newbill at 303-456-1120, and she would be glad to talk to you if that would help. We are really trying to get this all put to bed.

Best wishes for a happy holiday season. Hope to see you next week when I'm in D.C. for NET.

Love,

MEMORANDUM FOR BO CALLAWAY AND KAY RIDDLE

FROM: Jeff Eisenach

SUBJECT: GOPAC/ACT Hours and the Future

This memo (a) reports on hours spent on GOPAC and ACT during the month of June and (b) suggests that we need to talk about a short-run problem that has developed with respect to Washington Policy Group.

June Hours

As we agreed, I've been keeping records of the time I've spent on GOPAC/ACT activities during the past month (i.e. from June 4 on). My general rules for recording hours were:

- o Record only hours that involved "blocks" of time (thus, these figures don't reflect a slew of 5-minute phone calls, quick memos, 10-minutes to review a letter drafted by Tom, etc.)
- o Record hours spent on "general planning" as GOPAC hours, even if ACT was discussed.
- o Record hours worked, without, in most cases, allowing for travel time, etc.
- o Record the three days spent in Atlanta as 12 hours each.
- o Make no effort to record overhead such as copying, faxing, messenger and mail, etc.

The results are reported below.

Time Period	GOPAC Hours	ACT Hours	Total Hours
6/4-6/9	11.5	17.0	28.5
6/11-6/15	19.0	2.5	21.5
6/18-6/22	6.0	6.0	12.0
6/25-6/29	38.0	7.0	45.0
TOTAL	74.5	32.5	107.0

hus, I worked 107 out of 160 (4 x 40) "regular hours" during the month of June, or almost exactly two thirds of my time, for GOPAC. Of these, two-thirds were for regular GOPAC, and one-third for ACT. (This allocation is heavily affected, it should be noted, by the decision to record all planning hours as GOPAC hours, even if ACT was discussed.) Thus, one-third of my retainer ($2,640 = $8,000/3) should be billed to ACT.

A Short-Run Problem

As you know, our agreement concerning my work with GOPAC calls for me to spend the majority of my time on GOPAC work, but also acknowledges that I have other clients that demand some of my time and, more broadly, that non-GOPAC work is a piece of what allows Washington Policy Group to stay in business.

As a practical matter, regular retainers have never made up the entire difference. Thus, I've relied, successfully, on short-run projects (e.g. the book I wrote for Hudson on the budget process) to bring everything into balance. I expect to be able to continue to do this in the future.

In the short run, however, there is a problem, which is to some extent a function of AOW. As you know, from January 1990 through May 1990, I spent virtually 100 percent of my time working on AOW. The most important implication of this is that I spent virtually no time developing new business. That lack of investment in the future is the main source of the current problem -- i.e. there is not enough in the immediate pipeline to make it all work.

There are several possible solutions, which I think we should talk about.

Even before we talk, however, let me be very open about my overall attitude. I see my relationship with GOPAC as one based on interest and commitment, much more than on time. The things I do with you and Newt are the things I have the greatest interest in and commitment to, and (by my choice) GOPAC will always get as much time as I can afford to give. As for ACT, far from being a problem in this sense, it simply heightens my interest in and commitment to spending time with GOPAC. Thus, I see our long-run historical relationship as a good model for the future, and my only question is how we can work together (synergistically!) to overcome a short-run problem with a minimum of friction.

MEMORANDUM FOR KAY RIDDLE AND MARK COLUCCI

FROM: Jeff Eisenach

SUBJECT: GOPAC/ACT Hours

This memo reports on hours spent on GOPAC and ACT during the month of July.

As we agreed, I've been keeping records of the time I've spent on GOPAC/ACT activities during the past month. As in June, my general rules for recording hours were:

- o Record only hours that involved "blocks" of time (thus, these figures don't reflect a slew of 5-minute phone calls, quick memos, 10-minutes to review a letter drafted by Tom, etc.)

- o Record hours spent on "general planning" as GOPAC hours, even if ACT was discussed.

- o Record hours worked, without, in most cases, allowing for travel time, etc. (Exceptions are for major trips -- e.g. to California -- that require me to be away from the office for entire days. These are recorded at 12 hours/day.)

- o Make no effort to record overhead such as copying, faxing, messenger and mail, etc.

The results are reported below.

Time Period	GOPAC Hours	ACT Hours	Total Hours
7/2-7/6	8.0	1.5	9.5
7/9-7/13	9.0	27.0	28.0
7/16-7/20	6.5	25.0	31.5
7/23-7/27	7.5	31.0	38.5
7/30-7/31	0.0	2.0	2.0
TOTAL	31.0	86.5	117.5

Thus, I worked 117.5 out of 160 (4 x 40) "regular hours" during the month of June, or nearly three-quarters thirds of my time, for GOPAC and ACTV. Of these, 26 percent were for regular GOPAC, and 74 percent for ACTV. Thus, 74 percent of my retainer ($5,920 = $8,000 x .74) should be billed to ACT.

MEMORANDUM FOR KAY RIDDLE AND MARK COLUCCI

FROM: Jeff Eisenach
SUBJECT: GOPAC/ACT Hours for August

This memo reports on hours spent on GOPAC and ACT during the month of August.

As we agreed, I've been keeping records of the time I've spent on GOPAC/ACT activities during the past month. As in the past, my general rules for recording hours were:

- o Record only hours that involved "blocks" of time (thus, these figures don't reflect a slew of 5-minute phone calls, quick memos, 10-minutes to review a letter drafted by Tom, etc.)

- o Make no effort to record overhead such as copying, faxing, messenger and mail, etc.

The results are reported below.

Time Period	GOPAC Hours	ACT Hours	Total Hours
8/1-8/3	1.5	6.0	7.5
8/6-8/10	1.0	6.5	7.5
8/13-8/17	34.0	4.0	38.0
8/20-8/24	16.0	6.0	22.0
TOTAL	52.5	22.5	75.0

As you know, I was on vacation the last week of August. Thus, out of 120 (3 x 40) "regular hours" during the month of August, 62.5 percent of my time was spent working for GOPAC and ACTV. Of these hours, 30 percent were for ACTV, and 70 percent for GOPAC. Thus, 30 percent of my retainer ($2,400 = $8,000 x .3) should be billed to ACT.

P.O. Box 444
Marietta, Georgia 30061

Dear Tim:

This letter confirms our conversations in recent days concerning Washington Policy Group's role in the Kennesaw State College Foundation's "Renewing American Civilization" project.

As we have discussed, Washington Policy Group (WPG) is a small (three-person) project management and consulting firm located in Washington, DC. WPG has been in existence since March 1988, during which time our clients have included several major "think tanks," political campaigns and U.S. government agencies.

Among our most significant project management undertakings was the 1990 "American Opportunities Workshop" and its successor, American Citizens' Television. Both of these projects bear significant similarities to the project you have asked us to get involved with, "Renewing American Civilization." Thus, we enter this undertaking with both enthusiasm and a full understanding of the enormity and complexity of the undertaking.

As we have discussed, you wish to engage WPG to perform a complete array of project management services in connection with "Renewing American Civilization," reporting directly to you in your role with the Kennesaw State College Foundation. These services include:

1. Overall project management, including designing systems architecture, monitoring deadlines, overseeing project staff, budget development, monitoring income and expenditures, etc. (The scope of the project is described more completely in the attached "Budget Justification" which WPG has prepared in conjunction with its work and you have approved.)
2. Specific responsibility for working directly with you and with Congressman Gingrich in the development of the substance of the class.
3. Specific responsibility for working directly with you and with Congressman Gingrich in seeking financial support for the class.

In order to permit WPG to undertake these tasks on behalf of the Kennesaw State College Foundation (the Foundation), WPG and the Foundation agree to the following:

1. WPG agrees to provide comprehensive project management services, as described above, to the Kennesaw State College Foundation's Renewing American Civilization project. In performing these services, WPG expects to devote approximately "half-time" of its three salaried employees for the period June 1 through September 30, 1993.

2. In compensation for these services, the Foundation agrees to pay WPG $35,000, payable in four equal installments on June 15, July 15, August 15 and September 15, 1993. In addition, the Foundation agrees to reimburse WPG for out-of-pocket costs incurred in connection with the project, including travel expenses, long-distance fees, out-of-house photocopying, materials, etc., provided these costs fall within the budget projections for these items in the Budget Justification.

3. This agreement terminates September 30, 1993.

4. Either party may terminate this agreement prior to September 30 upon 60 days written notice. The Foundation may terminate the agreement at any time in the event WPG personnel engage in illegal or unethical conduct having a detrimental effect upon the Foundation, its Board Members, officers or employees.

As you know, we are very excited about this project and look forward to playing a productive role in bringing it to a successful conclusion. If you have any questions about the above, please feel free to call. And, if the above accurately represents our agreement, please sign in the space provided below and return a copy of this agreement to me at the above address.

Sincerely,

 Jeffrey A. Eisenach
 President

Dear Owen,
 Thank you for the dinner group lunch.
 Your courage, your voice, your intellectual support and your financial support all play a part in making it possible for me to continue to push forward.

Renewing American civilization is really going to be amazing -
 It all started in your planning room. Thank you
