PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

This bill would direct the Attorney General to naturalize Mr. Kwak regardless of his inability to take the oath of allegiance.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR THE LEGISLATION

Chong Ho Kwak came to this country seven years ago with his wife and two sons. He is a legal permanent resident. His wife and one son are currently preparing to become U.S. citizens, and his older son became a U.S. citizen in 1997. Mr. Kwak passed his citizenship test and was approved for naturalization on January 23, 1996. He was scheduled to take the oath of allegiance on June 14, 1996.

On February 4, 1996, when Mr. Kwak and his wife were closing up their grocery store, three masked teens entered the store to rob them. Although the Kwak's gave them all the money they had, one teen shot Mr. Kwak in the head. Although in a stabilized semi-comatose state, Mr. Kwak has never regained consciousness since the shooting.

Immigration law prohibits anyone from attaining U.S. citizenship who is unable to take and understand the oath. Therefore, I.N.S. has refused to naturalize Mr. Kwak.

It is clear Mr. Kwak intended to naturalize, that it was in no way his fault that he did not complete that process, and that this is a unique situation.

H.R. 2744—A bill for the relief of Chong Ho Kwak

H.R. 2744 would grant citizenship to Chong Ho Kwak. CBO estimates that enacting this legislation would have no significant impact on the federal budget. H.R. 2744 would not affect direct spending or receipts, so pay-as-you-go procedures would not apply.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Mark Grabowicz, who can be reached at 226-2860. This estimate was approved by Paul N. Van de Water, Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
