A BILL

To amend section 8(a) of the National Labor Relations Act.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2       This Act may be cited as the “Truth in Employment
3 Act of 1999”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5       Congress finds that:

6           (1) An atmosphere of trust and civility in labor-
7 management relationships is essential to a produc-
8 tive workplace and a healthy economy.

9           (2) The tactic of using professional union orga-
10 nizers and agents to infiltrate a targeted employer’s
11 workplace, a practice commonly referred to as “salt-12 ing” has evolved into an aggressive form of harass-
13 ment not contemplated when the National Labor Re-14 lations Act was enacted and threatens the balance of 15 rights which is fundamental to our system of collec-
16 tive bargaining.

17           (3) Increasingly, union organizers are seeking 18 employment with nonunion employers not because of 19 a desire to work for such employers but primarily to 20 organize the employees of such employers or to in-21 flict economic harm specifically designed to put non-22 union competitors out of business, or to do both.

23           (4) While no employer may discriminate against 24 employees based upon the views of employees con-
25 cerning collective bargaining, an employer should 26 have the right to expect job applicants to be pri-

1       marily interested in utilizing the skills of the appli-
2       cants to further the goals of the business of the em-
3       ployer.

4   SEC. 3. PURPOSES.

5       The purposes of this title are—

6           (1) to preserve the balance of rights between 7       employers, employees, and labor organizations which 8       is fundamental to our system of collective bar-9       gaining;

10          (2) to preserve the rights of workers to orga-
11       nize, or otherwise engage in concerted activities pro-
12       tected under the National Labor Relations Act; and

13          (3) to alleviate pressure on employers to hire 14       individuals who seek or gain employment in order to 15       disrupt the workplace of the employer or otherwise
16       inflict economic harm designed to put the employer
17       out of business.

18   SEC. 4. PROTECTION OF EMPLOYER RIGHTS.

19       Section 8(a) of the National Labor Relations Act (29 20   U.S.C. 158(a)) is amended by adding after and below 21   paragraph (5) the following:

22   “Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as requir-
23   ing an employer to employ any person who is not a bona 24   fide employee applicant, in that such person seeks or has 25   sought employment with the employer with the primary

1 purpose of furthering another employment or agency sta-
2 tus: Provided, That this sentence shall not affect the rights
3 and responsibilities under this Act of any employee who 4 is or was a bona fide employee applicant, including the 5 right to self-organization, to form, join, or assist labor or-
6 ganizations, to bargain collectively through representatives 7 of their own choosing, and to engage in other concerted 8 activities for the purpose of collective bargaining or other 9 mutual aid or protection.”.
