1 CHAPTER 2—SPECIAL CLASSIFICATION
2 RELATING TO PRODUCT DEVELOP-
3 MENT AND TESTING

4 SEC. 1411. SHORT TITLE.

5 This chapter may be cited as the “Product Develop-6 ment and Testing Act of 2000”.

7 SEC. 1412. FINDINGS; PURPOSE.

8 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds the following:

9 (1)(A) A substantial amount of development
10 and testing occurs in the United States incident to 11 the introduction and manufacture of new products 12 for both domestic consumption and export overseas.

13 (B) Testing also occurs with respect to mer-
14 chandise that has already been introduced into com-
15 merce to insure that it continues to meet specifica-16 tions and performs as designed.

17 (2) The development and testing that occurs in 18 the United States incident to the introduction and 19 manufacture of new products, and with respect to 20 products which have already been introduced into 21 commerce, represents a significant industrial activity 22 employing highly-skilled workers in the United 23 States.

24 (3)(A) Under the current laws affecting the im-25 portation of merchandise, such as the provisions of

1 part I of title IV of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19
2 U.S.C. 1401 et seq.), goods commonly referred to as 3 “prototypes”, used for product development testing
4 and product evaluation purposes, are subject to cus-5 toms duty upon their importation into the United 6 States unless the prototypes qualify for duty-free 7 treatment under special trade programs or unless 8 the prototypes are entered under a temporary impor-
9 tation bond.

10 (B) In addition, the United States Customs
11 Service has determined that the value of prototypes
12 is to be included in the value of production articles 13 if the prototypes are the result of the same design 14 and development effort as the articles.

15 (4)(A) Assessing duty on prototypes twice, once
16 when the prototypes are imported and a second time
17 thereafter as part of the cost of imported production 18 merchandise, discourages development and testing in 19 the United States, and thus encourages development
20 and testing to occur overseas, since, in that case, 21 duty will only be assessed once, upon the importa-
22 tion of production merchandise.

23 (B) Assessing duty on these prototypes twice 24 unnecessarily inflates the cost to businesses, thus re-25 ducing their competitiveness.

1 “(i) are either in the preproduction, production, or 2 postproduction stage and are to be used exclusively 3 for development, testing, product evaluation, or qual-4 ity control purposes; and

5 “(ii) in the case of originals or models of articles that are 6 either in the production or postproduction stage, are 7 associated with a design change from current produc-
8 tion (including a refinement, advancement, improve-9 ment, development, or quality control in either the 10 product itself or the means for producing the prod-11 uct).

12 For purposes of clause (i), automobile racing shall not be 13 considered to be “development, testing, product eval-14 uation, or quality control.”

15 “(b)(i) Prototypes (as defined in paragraph (a)) may only 16 be imported in limited noncommercial quantities in ac-
17 cordance with industry practice.

18 “(ii) Prototypes (as defined in paragraph (a)), or parts 19 of prototypes, may not be sold (including sale for 20 scrap purposes) after importation into the United 21 States or be incorporated into other products.

22 “(c) Articles subject to quantitative restrictions, anti-23 dumping orders, or countervailing duty orders, may 24 not be classified as prototypes under this note. Arti-25 cles subject to licensing requirements, or which must

1 comply with laws, rules, or regulations administered
2 by agencies other than the United States Customs 3 Service before being imported, may be classified as 4 prototypes, provided that they comply with all applica-
5 ble provisions of law and otherwise meet the definition 6 of ‘prototypes’ under paragraph (a).”.

7 SEC. 1414. ENTRY PROCEDURES.

8 The Secretary of the Treasury shall establish regula-9 tions for the identification of prototypes at the time of 10 importation into the United States in accordance with the 11 provisions of this chapter and the amendments made by 12 this chapter.

13 SEC. 1415. EFFECTIVE DATE.

14 This chapter, and the amendments made by this 15 chapter, shall apply with respect to—

16 (1) an entry of a prototype under heading 17 9817.85.01, as added by section 1413(a), on or after 18 the date of the enactment of this Act; and 19 (2) an entry of a prototype (as defined in U.S.

20 Note 6(a) to subchapter XVII of chapter 98, as 21 added by section 1413(b)) under heading 22 9813.00.30 for which liquidation has not become 23 final as of the date of enactment of this Act.

1 CHAPTER 3—PROHIBITION ON IMPORTA-
2 TION OF PRODUCTS MADE WITH DOG
3 OR CAT FUR

4 SEC. 1421. SHORT TITLE.

5 This chapter may be cited as the “Dog and Cat Pro-6 tection Act of 2000”.

7 SEC. 1422. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

8 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-9 ings:

10 (1) An estimated 2,000,000 dogs and cats are 11 slaughtered and sold annually as part of the inter-12 national fur trade. Internationally, dog and cat fur 13 is used in a wide variety of products, including fur 14 coats and jackets, fur trimmed garments, hats, 15 gloves, decorative accessories, stuffed animals, and 16 other toys.

17 (2) The United States represents one of the 18 largest markets for the sale of fur and fur products 19 in the world. Market demand for fur products in the 20 United States has led to the introduction of dog and 21 cat fur products into United States commerce, fre-22 quently based on deceptive or fraudulent labeling of 23 the products to disguise the true origin of the fur.

24 (3) Dog and cat fur, when dyed, is not easily 25 distinguishable to persons who are not experts from

1 other furs such as fox, rabbit, coyote, wolf, and 2 mink, and synthetic materials made to resemble real 3 fur. Dog and cat fur is generally less expensive than 4 other types of fur and may be used as a substitute 5 for more expensive types of furs, which provides an 6 incentive to engage in unfair or fraudulent trade 7 practices in the importation, exportation, distribu-
8 tion, or sale of fur products, including deceptive la-9 beling and other practices designed to disguise the 10 true contents or origin of the product.

11 (4) Forensic texts have documented that dog 12 and cat fur products are being imported into the 13 United States subject to deceptive labels or other 14 practices designed to conceal the use of dog or cat 15 fur in the production of wearing apparel, toys, and 16 other products.

17 (5) Publicly available evidence reflects ongoing 18 significant use of dogs and cats bred expressly for 19 their fur by foreign fur producers for manufacture 20 into wearing apparel, toys, and other products that 21 have been introduced into United States commerce.
22 The evidence indicates that foreign fur producers
23 also rely on the use of stray dogs and cats and sto-24 len pets for the manufacture of fur products des-25 tined for the world and United States markets.

1 (6) The methods of housing, transporting, and 2 slaughtering dogs and cats for fur production are 3 generally unregulated and inhumane.

4 (7) The trade of dog and cat fur products is 5 ethically and aesthetically abhorrent to United 6 States citizens. Consumers in the United States have 7 a right to know if products offered for sale contain 8 dog or cat fur and to ensure that they are not un-9 witting participants in this gruesome trade.

10 (8) Persons who engage in the sale of dog or 11 cat fur products, including the fraudulent trade 12 practices identified above, gain an unfair competitive
13 advantage over persons who engage in legitimate 14 trade in apparel, toys, and other products, and de-15 rive an unfair benefit from consumers who buy their 16 products.

17 (9) The imposition of a ban on the sale, manu-
18 facture, offer for sale, transportation, and distribu-19 tion of dog and cat fur products, regardless of their 20 source, is consistent with the international obliga-
21 tions of the United States as it applies equally to do-
22 mestic and foreign entities. Such a ban is also con-
23 sistent with provisions of international agreements
24 to which the United States is a party that expressly 25 allow for measures designed to protect the health

1 and welfare of animals and to enjoin the use of de-2 ceptive trade practices in international or domestic 3 commerce.

4 (b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this chapter are 5 to—

6 (1) prohibit imports, exports, sale, manufacture, 7 offer for sale, transportation, and distribution in the 8 United States of dog and cat fur products, in order 9 to ensure that United States market demand does 10 not provide an incentive to slaughter dogs or cats for 11 their fur;

12 (2) require accurate labeling of fur species so 13 that consumers in the United States can make in-14 formed choices and ensure that they are not unwit-15 ting contributors to this gruesome trade; and 16 (3) ensure that the customs laws of the United 17 States are not undermined by illicit international 18 traffic in dog and cat fur products.

19 SEC. 1423. PROHIBITION ON IMPORTATION OF PRODUCTS
20 MADE WITH DOG OR CAT FUR.

21 Title III of the Tariff Act of 1930 is amended by 22 inserting after section 307 the following new section:

1 “SEC. 308. PROHIBITIONS ON IMPORTATION OF AND OTHER

5 of not more than $5,000.

6 “(2) ENFORCEMENT.—The provisions of this 7 section and any regulations issued under this section 8 shall be enforced by the Secretary. In imposing pen-9 alties under paragraph (1), the Secretary shall take 10 into account the seriousness of the violation, the cul-11 pability of the violator, and the violator’s record of 12 cooperating with the Government in disclosing the
