A BILL

To direct the American Folklife Center at the Library of Congress to establish a program to collect video and audio recordings of personal histories and testimonials of American war veterans, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Veterans’ Oral History
 5 Project Act”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; PURPOSE.

2 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds as follows:

3 (1) Military service during a time of war is the 4 highest sacrifice a citizen may make for his or her
5 country.

6 (2) 4,700,000 Americans served in World War
7 I, 16,500,000 Americans served in World War II,
8 6,800,000 Americans served in the Korean Conflict,
9 9,200,000 Americans served in the Vietnam Con-
10 flict, 3,800,000 Americans served in the Persian
11 Gulf War, and countless other Americans served in 12 military engagements overseas throughout the 20th
13 century.

14 (3) The Veterans Administration reports that 15 there are almost 19,000,000 war veterans living in 16 this Nation today.

17 (4) Today there are only approximately 3,400
18 living veterans of World War I, and of the some 19 6,000,000 veterans of World War II alive today, al-
20 most 1,500 die each day.

21 (5) Oral histories are of immeasurable value to 22 historians, researchers, authors, journalists, film
23 makers, scholars, students, and citizens of all walks
24 of life.

25 (6) War veterans possess an invaluable resource 26 in their memories of the conflicts in which they

1 served, and can provide a rich history of our Nation
2 and its people through the retelling of those memo-
3 ries, yet frequently those who served during times of 4 conflict are reticent to family and friends about their 5 experiences.

6 (7) It is in the Nation's best interest to collect
7 and catalog oral histories of American war veterans
8 so that future generations will have original sources
9 of information regarding the lives and times of those 10 who served in war and the conditions under which 11 they endured, so that Americans will always remem-
12 ber those who served in war and may learn first-
13 hand of the heroics, tediousness, horrors, and tri-
14 umphs of war.

15 (8) The Library of Congress, as the Nation's 16 oldest Federal cultural institution and largest and 17 most inclusive library in human history (with nearly 18 119,000,000 items in its multimedia collection) is an 19 appropriate repository to collect, preserve, and make 20 available to the public an archive of these oral his-21 tories. The Library's American Folklife Center has 22 expertise in the management of documentation
23 projects and experience in the development of cul-
24 tural and educational programs for the public.

1 (b) PURPOSE.—It is the purpose of this Act to create
2 a new federally sponsored, authorized, and funded pro-
3 gram that will coordinate at a national level the collection
4 of video and audio recordings of personal histories and 5 testimonials of American war veterans, and to assist and 6 encourage local efforts to preserve the memories of this 7 Nation’s war veterans so that Americans of all current and 8 future generations may hear directly from veterans and 9 better appreciate the realities of war and the sacrifices
10 made by those who served in uniform during wartime.

11 SEC. 3. ESTABLISHMENT OF PROGRAM AT AMERICAN

4 terials (such as letters and diaries) relevant to the 5 personal histories of veterans of the armed forces
