

H. Res. 376

In the House of Representatives, U.S.,

November 18, 1999.

Whereas approximately 80,000 infants, children, teenagers, and young adults of families living throughout the United States die each year from myriad causes;

Whereas the death of an infant, child, teenager, or young adult of a family is considered to be one of the greatest tragedies that a parent or family will ever endure during a lifetime; and

Whereas a supportive environment and empathy and understanding are considered critical factors in the healing process of a family that is coping with and recovering from the loss of a loved one: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives supports the goals and ideas of “National Children’s Memorial Day” in remembrance of the many infants, children, teenagers, and young adults of families in the United States who have died.

Attest:

Clerk.
