A BILL

- To continue the current prohibition of military cooperation with the armed forces of the Republic of Indonesia until the President determines and certifies to the Congress that certain conditions are being met.
  - 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
  - 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the "East Timor Repatri3 ation and Security Act of 2000".

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 The Congress finds the following:

6 (1) More than 100,000 East Timorese refugees 7 remain in West Timor, where they fled or were fore-8 ibly driven by militia and members of the armed 9 forces of the Republic of Indonesia following the 10 United Nations sponsored popular consultation of 11 August 30, 1999, in which 78.5 percent of East Timor's population voted for independence from In-12 13 donesia.

14 (2) Most of the East Timorese refugees in West
15 Timor would like to return to East Timor but have 16 been prevented from doing so by militia forces oper17 ating with the cooperation of Indonesian army ele18 ments.

19 (3) Hundreds of the refugees in West Timor
20 have died from preventable illnesses while many 21 thousands continue to live in a state of danger, un22 certainty and severe threats, including that of forced 23 resettlement to other areas of Indonesia.

24 (4) Elements of the Indonesian army have at25 tempted to infiltrate armed militia members into

	U
1	East Timor, and reportedly have planned a militia
2	invasion of East Timor.
3	(5) Border attacks by militia groups remain a
4	threat to peace and stability in the region and to
5	international peacekeeping forces.
6	(6) Much of East Timor's infrastructure was
7	destroyed in the violence of 1999 and remains to be
8	rebuilt.
9	(7) An estimated 200,000 of East Timor's
10	original estimated population of 700,000 perished
11	from the effects of Indonesia's occupation of East
12	Timor before the violence of 1999.
13	(8) Many East Timorese were killed in violence
14	perpetrated by Indonesian army elements and militia
15	in 1999.
16	(9) The prospects for justice for the victims of
17	the violence in East Timor remain unclear.
18	(10) An estimated 80 percent of East Timor's
19	population remains unemployed and East Timor's
20	Nobel Prize winning Catholic Bishop, Carlos
21	Ximenes Belo, has made a plea on their behalf.
22	(11) United States funds have been provided to
23	help rebuild East Timor.
24	(12) Communications and logistical units of the
25	United States Armed Forces have formed part of the international peacekeeping forces that entered

 East Timor in 1999.

3 (13) Following historic elections in October
4 1999, Indonesia's first democratically elected Presi5 dent, Abdurrahman Wahid, has pledged reform and 6 accountability within the Indonesian government and 7 military.

8 (14) The Government of Indonesia, led by 9 President Abdurrahman Wahid and Vice President 10 Megawati Sukarnoputri, has made good faith commitments to end Indonesian military support for mi-11 litias and to establish a fair and transparent mecha-12 13 nism to bring to justice the perpetrators of gross 14 human rights violations in East Timor and elsewhere, but efforts of the elected leadership of Indo-15 16 nesia have been resisted, and in some cases actively 17 disobeyed, by elements in the military and in the bu-18 reaucracy.

19 SEC. 3. SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.

20 It is the sense of the Congress that the United States
21 Government should utilize all diplomatic and economic
22 means to press for—

23 (1) the safe repatriation to East Timor of all
24 East Timorese in West Timor and elsewhere who 25 wish to return to East Timor;

1	(2) an end to border incidents and infiltration
2	of militias and an end to any other violent actions
3	by militias and the armed forces of the Republic of
4	Indonesia against the people or territory of East
5	Timor;
6	(3) processes and prosecutions leading to jus-
7	tice for the victims of the violence in East Timor;
8	(4) rapid reconstruction of East Timor, includ-
9	ing maximum consultation with and inclusion of
10	local personnel; and
11	(5) a significant increase in employment for
12	East Timorese in all internationally-sponsored recon-
13	struction and United Nations efforts relating to
15	struction and childe reactions chores relating to
14	East Timor.

The Congress recognizes and salutes those members of the United States Armed Forces who have assisted the international peacekeeping operation in East Timor. SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE. This Act may be cited as the "East Timor Repatri- ation and Security Act of 2000".

1	(1) Widespread violence and destruction were
2	carried out in East Timor both before the August 30,
3	1999 United Nations referendum and thereafter.
4	(2) In the latest of numerous attacks on aid
5	workers in West Timor, 3 workers of the United Na-
6	tions High Commission for Refugees, including an
7	American citizen, Carlos Caceres, were murdered on
8	September 6, 2000 in Atambua, West Timor by a mi-
9	litia mob while Indonesian armed forces and police
10	stood by.
11	(3) Indonesian armed forces have failed to ensure
12	the security of foreign aid workers and have allowed
13	militias to terrorize refugee camps in West Timor.
14	(4) Indonesian armed forces have trained and
15	organized the militias.
16	(5) An estimated 125,000 East Timorese remain
17	in refugee camps in West Timor.
18	(6) After the September 6, 2000 attack, all
19	UNHCR staff and other international aid workers
20	were evacuated from West Timor, leaving remaining
21	East Timorese refugees at the mercy of the militias.
22	(7) Militia groups have returned to West Timor
23	with the collusion of Indonesian armed forces.

(8) Militia attacks have claimed the lives of two
 United Nations peace keepers, from Nepal and New Zealand, during border operations.

4 (9) Jafar Siddiq Hamzah, a leading human
5 rights lawyer from Aceh, Indonesia, and a permanent
6 resident of New York, was found murdered on Sep7 tember 3, 2000.

8 SEC. 3. SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.

9 It is the sense of the Congress that the United States
10 Government should utilize all diplomatic and economic
11 means to press for—

(1) the safe repatriation to East Timor of all
East Timorese in West Timor and elsewhere who wish to return to East Timor;

(2) an end to border incidents and infiltration
of militias and an end to any other violent actions
by militias and the armed forces of the Republic of

(4) rapid reconstruction of East Timor, including maximum consultation with and inclusion of local personnel; and

(5) a significant increase in employment for
 East Timorese in all internationally-sponsored recon struction and United Nations efforts relating to East
 Timor.

5 SEC. 4. PROHIBITION ON MILITARY COOPERATION WITH 6 AND ASSISTANCE TO THE ARMED FORCES OF 7 INDONESIA.

8 (a) PROHIBITION.—Notwithstanding any other provi-9 sion of law (other than section 589 of the Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appro-10 priations Act, 2000), United States military cooperation 11 with, and military assistance for, the armed forces of the 12 13 Republic of Indonesia suspended by the President pursuant to the directive of the President issued on September 9, 14 15 1999, may not be resumed until the President determines and certifies to the appropriate congressional committees 16 that the Government of Indonesia and the Indonesian 17 Armed Forces are— 18

(1) taking effective measures to bring to justice
members of the armed forces and militia groups against whom there is credible evidence of human rights violations;

(2) taking effective measures to being to justice
