To secure the Federal voting rights of persons who have fully served their sentences, including parole and probation, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

May 25, 2000

Mr. REID introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

- To secure the Federal voting rights of persons who have fully served their sentences, including parole and probation, and for other purposes.
  - 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
  - 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the "Civic Participation Act5 of 2000".

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-8 ings:

9 (1) The right to vote is the most basic constitu-10 tive act of citizenship and regaining the right to vote reintegrates offenders into free society. The right to vote may not be abridged or denied by the United States or by any State on account of race, color, gender, or previous condition of servitude. Basic constitutional principles of fairness and equal protection require an equal opportunity for United States citizens to vote in Federal elections.

8 (2) Congress has ultimate supervisory power
9 over Federal elections, an authority that has repeat10 edly been upheld by the Supreme Court.

11 (3) Although State laws determine the quali-12 fications for voting in Federal elections, Congress 13 must ensure that those laws are in accordance with 14 Constitution. Currently, the those laws vary 15 throughout the Nation, resulting in discrepancies re-16 garding which citizens may vote in Federal elections.

17 (4) An estimated 3,900,000 individuals in the 18 United States, or 1 in 50 adults, currently cannot 19 vote as a result of a felony conviction. Women rep20 resent about 500,000 of those 3,900,000.

21 (5) State disenfranchisement laws dispropor-22 tionately impact ethnic minorities.

(6) Fourteen States disenfranchise ex-offenders who have fully served their sentences, regardless of the nature or seriousness of the offense.

(7) In those States that disenfranchise ex-of fenders who have fully served their sentences, the right to vote can be regained in theory, but in prac tice this possibility is often illusory.

5 (8) In 8 States, a pardon or order from the 6 Governor is required for an ex-offender to regain the 7 right to vote. In 2 States, ex-offenders must obtain 8 action by the parole or pardon board to regain that 9 right.

(9) Offenders convicted of a Federal offense often have additional barriers to regaining voting rights. In at least 16 States, Federal ex-offenders cannot use the State procedure for restoring their voting rights. The only method provided by Federal law for restoring voting rights to ex-offenders is a Presidential pardon.

17 (10) Few persons who seek to have their right
18 to vote restored have the financial and political re19 sources needed to succeed.

(11) Thirteen percent of the African-American adult male population, or 1,400,000 African-American men, are disenfranchised. Given current rates of incarceration, 3 in 10 African-American men in the next generation will be disenfranchised at some point during their lifetimes. Hispanic citizens are also disproportionately disenfranchised, since those citizens are disproportionately represented in the criminal justice system.

4 (12) The discrepancies described in this sub5 section should be addressed by Congress, in the 6 name of fundamental fairness and equal protection.
7 (b) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this Act is to restore 8 fairness in the Federal election process by ensuring that 9 ex-offenders who have fully served their sentences are not 10 denied the right to vote.

and remedies established by this Act shall be in addition
