

106TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

S. CON. RES. 113

Expressing the sense of the Congress in recognition of the 10th anniversary of the free and fair elections in Burma and the urgent need to improve the democratic and human rights of the people of Burma.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MAY 16, 2000

Mr. MOYNIHAN (for himself, Mr. McCONNELL, Mr. LOTT, Mrs. BOXER, Mr. FEINGOLD, Mr. ASHCROFT, Mrs. FEINSTEIN, Mr. HELMS, Mr. LUGAR, Mr. DURBIN, Mr. KENNEDY, Mr. LEAHY, Mr. WELLSTONE, and Mr. SARBANES) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Congress in recognition of the 10th anniversary of the free and fair elections in Burma and the urgent need to improve the democratic and human rights of the people of Burma.

Whereas in 1988 thousands of Burmese citizens called for a democratic change in Burma and participated in peaceful demonstrations to achieve this result;

Whereas these demonstrations were brutally repressed by the Burmese military, resulting in the loss of hundreds of lives;

Whereas, despite continued repression, the Burmese people turned out in record numbers to vote in elections deemed free and fair by international observers;

Whereas on May 27, 1990, the National League for Democracy (NLD) led by Daw Aung San Suu Kyi won more than 60 percent of the popular vote and 80 percent of the parliamentary seats in the elections;

Whereas the Burmese military rejected the results of the elections, placed Daw Aung San Suu Kyi and hundreds of members of the NLD under arrest, pressured members of the NLD to resign, and severely restricted freedom of assembly, speech, and the press;

Whereas 48,000,000 people in Burma continue to suffer gross violations of human rights, including the right to democracy, and economic deprivation under a military regime known as the State Peace and Development Council (SPDC);

Whereas on September 16, 1998, the members of the NLD and other political parties who won the 1990 elections joined together to form the Committee Representing the People's Parliament (CRPP) as an interim mechanism to address human rights, economic and other conditions, and provide representation of the political views and voice of Members of Parliament elected to but denied office in 1990;

Whereas the United Nations General Assembly and Commission on Human Rights have condemned in nine consecutive resolutions the persecution of religious and ethnic minorities and the political opposition, and SPDC's record of forced labor, exploitation, and sexual violence against women;

Whereas the United States and the European Union Council of Foreign Ministers have similarly condemned conditions in Burma and officially imposed travel restrictions and other sanctions against the SPDC;

Whereas in May 1999, the International Labor Organization (ILO) condemned the SPDC for inflicting forced labor on the people and has banned the SPDC from participating in any ILO meetings;

Whereas the 1999 Department of State Country Reports on Human Rights Practices for Burma identifies more than 1,300 people who continue to suffer inhumane detention conditions as political prisoners in Burma;

Whereas the Department of State International Narcotics Control Report for 2000 determines that Burma is the second largest world-wide source of illicit opium and heroin and that there are continuing, reliable reports that Burmese officials are “involved in the drug business or are paid to allow the drug business to be conducted by others”, conditions which pose a direct threat to United States national security interests; and

Whereas, despite these massive violations of human rights and civil liberties and chronic economic deprivation, Daw Aung San Suu Kyi and members of the NLD have continued to call for a peaceful political dialogue with the SPDC to achieve a democratic transition: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives

2 concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that—

3 (1) United States policy should strongly sup-

4 port the restoration of democracy in Burma, includ-

1 ing implementation of the results of the free and fair
2 elections of 1990;

3 (2) United States policy should continue to call
4 upon the military regime in Burma known as the
5 State Peace and Development Council (SPDC)—

6 (A) to guarantee freedom of assembly,
7 freedom of movement, freedom of speech, and
8 freedom of the press for all Burmese citizens;

9 (B) to immediately accept a political dia-
10 logue with Daw Aung San Suu Kyi, the Na-
11 tional League for Democracy (NLD), and eth-
12 nic leaders to advance peace and reconciliation
13 in Burma;

14 (C) to immediately and unconditionally re-
15 lease all detained Members elected to the 1990
16 parliament and other political prisoners; and

17 (D) to promptly and fully uphold the terms
18 and conditions of all human rights and related
19 resolutions passed by the United Nations Gen-
20 eral Assembly, the Commission on Human
21 Rights, the International Labor Organization,
22 and the European Union; and

23 (3) United States policy should sustain current
24 economic and political sanctions against Burma as
25 the appropriate means—

1 (A) to secure the restoration of democracy,
2 human rights, and civil liberties in Burma; and

3 (B) to support United States national se-
4 curity counternarcotics interests.
