^{106TH CONGRESS} ^{2D SESSION} S. CON. RES. 142

Relating to the reestablishment of representative government in Afghanistan.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

OCTOBER 5 (legislative day, SEPTEMBER 22), 2000

Mr. BROWNBACK (for himself and Mr. TORRICELLI) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Relating to the reestablishment of representative government in Afghanistan.

- Whereas Afghanistan has existed as a sovereign nation since 1747, maintaining its independence, neutrality, and dignity;
- Whereas Afghanistan had maintained its own decisionmaking through a traditional process called a "Loya Jirgah", or Grand Assembly, by selecting, respecting, and following the decisions of their leaders;
- Whereas recently warlords, factional leaders, and foreign regimes have laid siege to Afghanistan, leaving the landscape littered with landmines, making the most fundamental activities dangerous;

- Whereas in recent years, and especially since the Taliban came to power in 1996, Afghanistan has become a haven for terrorist activity, has produced most of the world's opium supply, and has become infamous for its human rights abuses, particularly abuses against women and children;
- Whereas the former King of Afghanistan, Mohammed Zahir Shah, ruled the country peacefully for 40 years, and after years in exile retains his popularity and support; and
- Whereas former King Mohammed Zahir Shah plans to convene an emergency "Loya Jirgah" to reestablish a stable government, with no desire to regain power or reestablish a monarchy, and the Department of State supports such ongoing efforts: Now, therefore, be it
- Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That the United States—
- 3 (1) supports democratic efforts undertaken in 4 Afghanistan that respect the human and political 5 rights of the people of all ethnic and religious groups 6 in that country, including the efforts to reestablish 7 a "Loya Jirgah" process that would lead to the peo-8 ple of Afghanistan determining their own destiny 9 through a democratic process involving free and fair 10 elections; and
- (2) supports the continuing efforts of former King Mohammed Zahir Shah and other responsible parties searching for peace to convene an emergency
 "Loya Jirgah"—

1	(A) to reestablish a representative govern-
2	ment in Afghanistan that respects the rights of
3	the people of all ethnic and religious groups, in-
4	cluding the right of the people to govern their
5	own affairs through inclusive institution build-
6	ing and a democratic process;
7	(B) to bring freedom, peace, and stability
8	to Afghanistan; and
9	(C) to end terrorist activities, drug produc-
10	tion, and human rights abuses in Afghanistan.
