The Senate was not in session today. Its next meeting will be held on Monday, October 2, 2000, at 12 noon.

House of Representatives

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 2000

DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC,
September 29, 2000.

I hereby appoint the Honorable MAC THORNBERRY to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

J. DENNIS HASTERT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer:

God of truth, You are our salvation. Ready us in our defense whenever we are called to account for placing all our trust in You. Our defense will be modest and all our ways clothed with reverence if we keep our conscience clear.

By Your spirit, You will so guide the conduct of this Nation that those who malign us will themselves be put to shame. For we place our trust in You, O Lord.

Since it is better to suffer for doing good than to suffer for doing evil, if it be Your holy will, give us the power to embrace sacrificial suffering, now and forever. Amen.

SEC. 135. (a) FINDINGS.—The Senate makes the following findings—

(1) in 1990, pursuant to the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (ISDEAA), 25 U.S.C. 450 et seq., a class action lawsuit was filed by Indian tribal contractors and tribal consortia against the United States, the Secretary of the Interior and others seeking money damages, injunctive relief, and declaratory relief for alleged violations of the ISDEAA (Ramah Navajo Chapter v. Lujan, 112 F.3d 1455 (10th Cir. 1997));

(2) the parties negotiated a partial settlement of the claim totaling $76,200,000, plus applicable interest, which was approved by the court on May 14, 1999;

(3) the partial settlement was paid by the United States in September 1999, in the amount of $82,000,000;

(4) the Judgment Fund was established to pay for legal judgments awarded to plaintiffs who have filed suit against the United States;

(5) the Contract Disputes Act of 1978 requires that the Judgment Fund be reimbursed by the responsible agency following the payment of an award from the Fund; and

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) repayment of the Judgment Fund for the partial settlement in Ramah from the accounts of the Bureau of Indian Affairs and Indian Health Service would significantly reduce funds appropriated to benefit tribes and individual Native Americans; and

(2) the Secretary of the Interior should work with the Director of the Office of Management and Budget to secure funding for repayment of the judgment in Ramah within the budgets of the agencies that did not pay indirect costs to plaintiffs during the period 1988 to 1993 or paid indirect costs at less than rates provided under the Indian Self-Determination Act during such period.

(2) each of the two branches of that road, as described in paragraph (1).

(c) LEGAL DESCRIPTION OF EXCLUDED AREA.—The exact acreage and legal description of the area to be excluded from the wilderness area pursuant to subsection (a) shall be determined by a survey satisfactory to the Secretary. In connection with the main stem of the roadway described in subsection (b)(1), the Secretary shall exclude, at a minimum, all lands within 30 feet of the center line of the roadway.

SEC. 324. None of the funds in this Act may be used for planning, design or construction of improvements to Pennsylvania Avenue in front of the White House without the advance approval of the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

Program accomplishments shall be based on volume sold. Should Region 10 sell, in fiscal year 2001, the annual average portion of the decadal allowable sale quantity called for in the current Tongass Land Management Plan in sales which are not deficit when appraised under the transaction evidence appraisal system using domestic Alaska values for western red cedar, all of the western red cedar timber from those sales which is surplus to the needs of domestic processors in Alaska, shall be made available to domestic processors in the contiguous 48 United States at prevailing domestic prices. The percentage shall be calculated by Region 10 on a rolling basis as each sale is sold (for purposes of this amendment, a ''rolling basis'' shall mean that the determination of how much western red cedar is eligible for sale to various markets shall be made at the time each sale is awarded). Western red cedar shall be deemed ''surplus to the needs of domestic processors in Alaska'' when the timber sale holder has presented to the Forest Service documentation of the inability to sell western red cedar logs from a given sale to domestic Alaska processors at price equal to or greater than the log selling value stated in the contract. All additional western red cedar volume not sold to Alaska or contiguous 48 United States domestic processors may be exported to foreign markets at the election of the timber sale holder. SEC. 606. APPRAISALS.

(a) REQUIREMENTS FOR CONDUCTING APPRAISALS.—In implementing and conducting an appraisal process for determining cabin user fees, the Secretary shall—

(1) complete an inventory of improvements that were paid for by—

(A) the agency;

(B) third parties; or

(C) cabin owners (or predecessors of cabin owners);

during the completion of which the Secretary shall presume that a cabin owner, or a predecessor of the owner, has paid for the capital costs of any utility, access, or facility serving the lot being appraised, unless the Forest Service produces evidence that the agency or a third party has paid for the capital costs;

(2) establish an appraisal process to determine the market value of the fee simple estate of a typical lot or lots considered to be in a natural, native state, subject to subsection (b)(4)(A);

(b) SPECIFIC APPRAISAL GUIDELINES.—In the development of specific appraisal guidelines in accordance with subsection (a)(3), the instructions to an appraiser shall require, at a minimum, the following:

(1) APPRAISAL OF A TYPICAL LOT.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—In conducting an appraisal under this section, the appraiser—

(i) shall not appraise each individual lot;

(ii) shall appraise a typical lot or lots, selected by the cabin owners and the agency in a manner consistent with the policy of the program; and

(iii) shall be provided, and give appropriate consideration to, any information contained in the inventory of improvements relating to the lot being appraised.

(B) ESTIMATE OF MARKET VALUE OF TYPICAL LOT.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—The appraiser shall estimate the market value of a typical lot in accordance with this title.

(ii) EQUIVALENCE TO LEGALLY SUBDIVIDED LOT.—In selecting a comparable sale under this title, the appraiser shall recognize that the typical lot will not usually be equivalent to a legally subdivided lot.

(2) EXCEPTION FOR CERTAIN SALES OF LAND.—In conducting an appraisal under this title, the appraiser—

(A) shall not select sales of comparable land that are sales of land within developed urban areas; and

(B) should not, in most circumstances, select a sale of comparable land that includes land that is encumbered by a conservation or recreational easement that is held by a government or institution, except land that is limited to use as a site for 1 home.

(3) ADJUSTMENTS FOR TYPICAL VALUE INFLUENCES.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The appraiser shall consider, and adjust as appropriate, the price of sales of comparable land for all typical value influences described in subparagraph (B).

(B) VALUE INFLUENCES.—The typical value influences referred to in subparagraph (A) include—

(i) differences in the locations of the parcels;

(ii) accessibility, including limitations on access attributable to—

(I) weather;

(iii) THIRD PARTIES.—Utilities, access, or facilities serving a lot that are provided by a third party shall not be included as a feature of the lot being appraised unless, in accordance with subsection (a)(1), the agency determines that the capital costs have not been or are not being paid by the cabin owner (or a predecessor of the cabin owner).

(iv) WITHDRAWAL OF UTILITY OR ACCESS BY AGENCY.—If, during the term of an authorization, the agency or an act of God creates a substantial and materially adverse change in—

(I) the provision or maintenance of any utility or access; or

(II) a qualitative feature of the lot or immediate surroundings;

the cabin owner shall have the right to request, and, at the discretion of the Secretary, obtain a new determination of the base cabin user fee at the expense of the agency.

(B) ADJUSTMENT FOR EXCLUSION.—In a case in which any comparable sale includes utilities, access, or facilities that are to be excluded in the appraisal of the subject lot, the price of the comparable sale shall be adjusted, as appropriate.

(C) ADJUSTMENT PROCESS.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—The appraiser shall consider and adjust, as appropriate, the price of each sale of a comparable parcel for all nonnatural features referred to in subparagraph (A)(ii) that—

(I)(aa) are present at, or add value to, the comparable parcel; but

(bb) are not present at the lot being appraised; or

(II) are not included in the appraisal as described in subparagraph (A).

(ii) ADJUSTMENTS.—

(I) IN GENERAL.—In a case in which the price of a parcel sold is to be adjusted in accordance with subparagraph (B), the adjustment may be based on an analysis of market or cost information or both.

(II) COST INFORMATION.—If cost information is used as the basis of an adjustment under subclause (I), the cost information shall be supported by direct market evidence.

(iii) ANALYSIS OF COST INFORMATION.—An analysis of cost information under clause (ii)(I) should include allowances, as appropriate, if the allowances are consistent with—

(I) the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice in effect on the date of the analysis; and

(II) the Uniform Appraisal Standards for Federal Land Acquisition.

(D) REAPPRAISAL FOR AND RECALCULATION OF BASE CABIN USER FEE.—Periodically, but not less often than once every 10 years, the Secretary shall recalculate the base cabin user fee (including conducting any reappraisal required to recalculate the base cabin user fee).

SEC. 607. CABIN USER FEES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall establish the cabin user fee as the amount that is equal to 5 percent of the market value of the lot, as determined in accordance with section 606, reflecting an adjustment to the typical market rate of return due to restrictions imposed by the permit, including—

(1) the limited term of the authorization;

(2) the absence of significant property rights normally attached to fee simple ownership; and

(3) the public right of access to, and use of, any open portion of the lot on which the cabin or other enclosed improvements are not located.

(c) ANNUAL CABIN USER FEE IN THE EVENT OF DETERMINATION NOT TO REISSUE AUTHORIZATION.—If the Secretary determines that an authorization should not be reissued at the end of a term, the Secretary shall—

(1) establish as the new base cabin user fee for the remaining term of the authorization the amount charged as the cabin user fee in the year that was 10 years before the year in which the authorization expires; and

(2) calculate the current cabin user fee for each of the remaining 9 years of the term of the authorization by multiplying—

(A) 1/10 of the new base cabin user fee; by

(B) the number of years remaining in the term of the authorization after the year for which the cabin user fee is being calculated.

(d) ANNUAL CABIN USER FEE IN EVENT OF CHANGED CONDITIONS.—If a review of a decision to convert a lot to an alternative public use indicates that the continuation of the authorization for use and occupancy of the cabin by the cabin owner is warranted, and the decision is subsequently reversed, the Secretary may require the cabin owner to pay any portion of annual cabin user fees that were forgone as a result of the expectation of termination of use and occupancy of the cabin by the cabin owner.

(e) TERMINATION OF FEE OBLIGATION IN LOSS RESULTING FROM ACTS OF GOD OR CATASTROPHIC EVENTS.—On a determination by the agency that, because of an act of God or a catastrophic event, a lot cannot be safely occupied and the authorization for the lot should accordingly be terminated, the fee obligation of the cabin owner shall terminate effective on the date of the occurrence of the act or event.

SEC. 608. ANNUAL ADJUSTMENT OF CABIN USER FEE.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall adjust the cabin user fee annually, using a rolling 5-year average of a published price index in accordance with subsection (b) or (c) that reports changes in rural or similar land values in the State, county, or market area in which the lot is located.

(b) INITIAL INDEX.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—For the period of 10 years beginning on the date of enactment of this title, the Secretary shall use changes in agricultural land prices in the appropriate State or county, as reported in the Index of Agricultural Land Prices published by the Department of Agriculture, to determine the annual adjustment to the cabin user fee in accordance with subsections (a) and (d).

(2) STATEWIDE CHANGES.—In determining the annual adjustment to the cabin user fee for an authorization located in a county in which agricultural land prices are influenced by the value influences described in section 606(b)(3), the Secretary shall use average statewide changes in the State in which the lot is located.

(c) NEW INDEX.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 10 years after the date of enactment of this title, the Secretary may select and use an index other than the method of adjustment of a cabin user fee described in subsection (b)(2) to adjust a cabin user fee if the Secretary determines that a different index better reflects change in the value of a lot over time.

(2) SELECTION PROCESS.—Before selecting a new index, the Secretary shall—

(A) solicit and consider comments from the public; and

(B) not later than 60 days before the date on which the Secretary makes a final index selection, submit any proposed selection of a new index to—

(i) the Committee on Resources of the House of Representatives; and

(ii) the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry of the Senate.

(d) LIMITATION.—In calculating an annual adjustment to the base cabin user fee as determined by the initial index described in section (b), the Secretary shall—

(1) limit any annual fee adjustment to an amount that is not more than 5 percent per year when the change in agricultural land values exceeds 5 percent in any 1 year; and

(2) apply the amount of any adjustment that exceeds 5 percent to the annual fee payment for the next year in which the change in the index factor is less than 5 percent.

SEC. 609. PAYMENT OF CABIN USER FEES.

(a) DUE DATE FOR PAYMENT OF FEES.—A cabin user fee shall be prepaid annually by the cabin owner.

(b) PAYMENT OF EQUAL OR LESSER FEE.—If, in accordance with section 607, the Secretary determines that the amount of a new base cabin user fee is equal to or less than the amount of the current base cabin user fee, the Secretary shall require payment of the new base cabin user fee by the cabin owner in accordance with subsection (a).

(c) PAYMENT OF GREATER FEE.—If, in accordance with section 607, the Secretary determines that the amount of a new base cabin user fee is greater than the amount of the current base cabin user fee, the Secretary shall—

(1) require full payment of the new base cabin user fee in the first year following completion of the fee determination procedure if the increase in the amount of the new base cabin user fee is not more than 100 percent of the current base cabin user fee; or

(2) phase in the increase over the current base cabin user fee in approximately equal increments over 3 years if the increase in the amount of the new base cabin user fee is more than 100 percent of the current base cabin user fee.

SEC. 610. RIGHT OF SECOND APPRAISAL.

(a) RIGHT OF SECOND APPRAISAL.—On receipt of notice from the Secretary of the determination of a new base cabin user fee, the cabin owner—

(1) not later than 60 days after the date on which the notice is received, may notify the Secretary of the intent of the cabin owner to obtain a second appraisal; and

(2) may obtain, within 1 year following the date of receipt of the notice under this subsection, at the expense of the cabin owner, a second appraisal of the typical lot on which the initial appraisal was conducted.

(b) CONDUCT OF SECOND APPRAISAL.—In conducting a second appraisal, the appraiser selected by the cabin owner shall—

(c) REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION OF BASE CABIN USER FEE.—A cabin owner shall submit to the Secretary any request for reconsideration of the base cabin user fee, based on the results of the second appraisal, not later than 60 days after the receipt of the report for the second appraisal.

(d) RECONSIDERATION OF BASE CABIN USER FEE.—On receipt of a request from the cabin owner under subsection (c) for reconsideration of a base cabin user fee, not later than 60 days after the date of receipt of the request, the Secretary shall—

(2) review the results and commentary from the second appraisal;

(3) determine a new base cabin user fee in an amount that is—

(A) equal to the base cabin user fee determined by the initial or the second appraisal; or

JOINT EXPLANATORY STATEMENT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

The managers on the part of the House and the Senate at the conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendment of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 4578), making appropriations for the Department of the Interior and Related Agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2001, and for other purposes, submit the following joint statement to the House and the Senate in explanation of the effect of the action agreed upon by the managers and recommended in the accompanying conference report.

The conference agreement on H.R. 4578 incorporates some of the provisions of both the House and the Senate versions of the bill. Report language and allocations set forth in either House Report 106–646 or Senate Report 106–312 that are not changed by the conference are approved by the committee of conference. The statement of the managers, while repeating some report language for emphasis, does not negate the language referenced above unless expressly provided herein.

TITLE I—DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT

MANAGEMENT OF LANDS AND RESOURCES

The conference agreement provides $709,733,000 for management of lands and resources instead of $670,571,000 as proposed by the House and $689,133,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Increases above the House for land resources include $1,500,000 for noxious weeds, $500,000 for the national laboratory grazing study, $500,000 for Montana State University weed program, $750,000 for Idaho weed control, $50,000 for petroglyphs protection and $4,000,000 for the horse and burro program.

Increases above the House for wildlife and fisheries include $900,000 for Yukon River salmon and $500,000 for the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation.

Increases above the House for threatened and endangered species include $2,000,000 for the sagebrush and prairie grasslands.

Increases above the House for recreation management include $1,000,000 for Missouri River activities associated with the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial celebration, $500,000 for the Missouri River undaunted stewardship program and $8,000,000 for public land treasures.

The managers have provided an additional $8,000,000 for public land treasures under recreation resources management, of which $5,000,000 is for National conservation areas and $3,000,000 is for National historic trails and scenic rivers. These funds should be allocated to the appropriate activities and subactivities as proposed in the Bureau's budget request.

Increases above the House for energy and minerals include $1,000,000 for the minerals at risk program, $700,000 for the development of a mining claim information system in Alaska, and $500,000 for a coalbed methane EIS in Montana.

Increases above the House for realty and ownership management include $847,000 for uncontrollable costs, $145,000 for rights of way backlog, $650,000 for the Montana cadastral project, $300,000 for the Utah geographic reference project, and $2,400,000 for Alaska conveyance.

Increases above the House for resources protection and maintenance include $130,000 for additional personnel, $10,000,000 for updating land management plans, and a $750,000 addition to the base program.

Increases above the House level for transportation and facilities maintenance include an increase of $1,540,000 for deferred maintenance.

Increases above the House level for mining law administration include $799,000 for uncontrollable costs and $163,000 for program delivery.

The managers have provided a total increase of $19,000,000 for land use planning. At the request of the Bureau, the managers have agreed to place the entire amount in the land use planning subactivity instead of distributing these funds across numerous subactivities as was presented in the budget request. This should allow for a simpler accounting, fund distribution, and management of these funds within the Bureau. However, the managers expect the Bureau to inform the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations prior to making any significant changes from the land use priorities presented in the budget request. It is expected that these funds will be allocated primarily to those plans at greatest risk of legal challenge.

Instead of $500,000 within available funds for the Montana Bureau of Mines and Geology, Montana Tech University to perform an assessment of coal bed methane (CBM) development on water resources in the Powder River Basin as proposed by the Senate, the managers have included an additional $500,000 to prepare an EIS for future CBM and conventional oil and gas development in the Montana portion of the Powder River Basin. The managers expect that this EIS will address the impacts of CBM development on water resources in the Basin and that the agency will contract with entities such as Montana Tech University who have existing agreements with the agency for work of this nature.

The managers have provided $500,000 for the Undaunted Stewardship program, which will allow for local input and participation in grants to protect historic sites along the Lewis and Clark Trail. This program is designed to provide educational courses, develop best management practices, and establish conservation easements. This program is to be cooperatively administered by the Bureau and Montana State University.

The managers have provided an additional $9,000,000 for the implementation of the Bureau's new horse and burro strategy to achieve appropriate management levels of wild horse and burro populations on all herd management areas by 2005. This is the first time the Bureau has developed a scientific strategy with detailed program cost analysis based on extensive use of a wild horse and burro population model. This population model has been validated by the university community and the Biological Resources Division of the U.S. Geological Survey. The Managers direct that as part of the Bureau's annual budget request to the Congress, the Bureau provide an annual report on its progress towards achieving appropriate management levels.

The managers have clarified language contained in House report 106–646 dealing with wilderness reinventory efforts by the Bureau. The House language was meant to apply only to the State of Utah where the Bureau has already completed its wilderness reinventory. The managers urge the Bureau to brief the Congress, as appropriate, prior to commencing any new large-scale wilderness inventory in Utah.

The managers are pleased with the work the land managing agencies are doing in the area of bat conservation. The managers understand that the North American Strategic Plan for Bat Conservation is on the verge of completion. The managers recommend that the land management agencies cooperatively review this plan and are encouraged to develop implementation strategies when it is finalized. In addition, the agencies should continue to develop and implement cooperative cost-sharing bat conservation efforts with the States, Mexico and Canada, as well as non-governmental partners. Lastly, the agencies are encouraged to fund jointly a Federal bat coordinator position to help oversee the vast array of Federal and non-Federal bat conservation projects.

The managers encourage the Bureau to work with the Waste Management Education and Research Consortium (WERC) at New Mexico State University in addressing the problem of abandoned mine sites in the western United States. WERC can assist the Bureau by helping to establish a science-based inventory of abandoned mine sites and recommend priorities for remediation.

The managers encourage the BLM to conduct a full investigation, including review of documents and evidence provided by the Voisin family to determine if the government transferred the ownership of Last Island, Louisiana while the property was owned by ancestors of the Voisin family. Should the BLM determine that the property was transferred inappropriately, the report shall include recommendations for the resolution of this issue.

WILDLAND FIRE MANAGEMENT

The conference agreement provides $625,513,000 for wildland fire management instead of $292,197,000 as proposed by the House and $292,679,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Changes to the House included increases of $132,834,000 for preparedness and $482,000 for an Alaska rural fire suppression program. The managers have also included a contingent emergency appropriation of $200,000,000 as an emergency contingency reserve to ensure adequate funding is available to fund critical fire programs in fiscal year 2001.

The managers recognize that the severity of the 2000 fire season is attributable to a variety of factors including unusual weather conditions and accumulated wildland fuels that overwhelmed available Federal agency resources. To prepare better for fires in 2001 and beyond, the managers propose significant improvements to preparedness, fuels treatments, and other aspects of fire management. For the Department of the Interior, the managers provide a total of $979,253,000 in both emergency and non-emergency funds for: the Department's revised calculation for normal year readiness and certain one-time improvements to preparedness capability; a greatly expanded fuels treatment program that places primary emphasis on community protection; stabilization and rehabilitation of burned areas; and community assistance programs that may be used to develop local capability and homeowner education. The following discussion includes instructions pertaining to both the title I wildfire funds as well as title IV wildfire funds.

The managers have provided $625,513,000 in Title I for wildland fire management, of which $315,406,000 in non-emergency funds for preparedness, an increase of $133,316,000 over the budget request. The conference agreement includes a $200,000,000 emergency contingency reserve, to ensure that adequate funds are immediately available to fund these critical programs in FY 2001. The managers have included in title IV for wildland fire management an emergency appropriation of $353,740,000 which includes $116,611,000 for wildfire suppression, $142,129,000 for hazardous fuels, $85,000,000 for emergency stabilization and rehabilitation, and $10,000,000 for a new rural fire assistance program. The managers strongly believe that this FY 2001 funding will only be of value in increasing the Nation's firefighting capability and ability to protect communities if it is sustained in future years.

The managers direct the Departments of the Interior and Agriculture to continue to work together to formulate complementary budget requests that reflect the same principles and budget organization. In addition, the managers expect the agencies to seek the advice of governors and local and tribal government representatives in setting priorities for fuels treatments, burned area rehabilitation, and public outreach and education.

WILDLAND FIRE PREPAREDNESS

For wildland fire preparedness, the managers provide $315,406,000 as a non-emergency appropriation in title I, $132,834,000 above the Senate, including: $254,838,000 for readiness and program management, $8,000,000 for fire sciences, $30,000,000 for deferred maintenance and capital improvement, $22,086,000 for one-time capital investments, and $482,000 for a rural Alaska fire suppression program.

The managers understand that the increased scope and intensity of the 1999 and 2000 fire seasons, as well as the increased frequency and severity of fires over the preceding decade, have led Federal fire managers to reassess the assumptions underlying an average fire season. Based on actual experience, especially over the past two years, Federal fire managers have concluded that the variables used to determine the optimal level of preparedness need to be revised. Numerous variables, including changing assumptions about fire personnel, deployment strategies and other factors affecting cost calculations underlie the recommendations in the agencies' recent report to the President. For example, the duration of the average fire season has steadily increased—by two to three months—over the past several years. The expanded fire season increases the duration of the season for which fire employees are paid and results in increased personnel costs.

The managers support the conclusions of wildfire managers that initial attack capability should be increased to address the number and severity of wildfires that have burned the landscape over the past few years. To address this revised assumption, the managers support full funding for: eight new hotshot crews that will be used for both initial attack on small fires and extended attack on larger fires; twenty new smokejumpers that serve as the primary initial attack force in remote areas; and additional air resources.

Recent experience dictates the need to increase staffing for engines from the current level of five days a week to seven days a week to combat the increasingly volatile fire season. Fire managers have also concluded that more of the firefighting workforce should be permanent seasonal, an employment status that entitles workers to benefits not earned by temporary employees. The managers support the recommendation to convert more than 1,000 positions to permanent seasonal status, as a retention incentive to ensure that a sustained cadre of professional firefighters is available when needed. This increase in overall readiness costs should prove beneficial in the long run to the government's ability to address fire readiness, overall program management, and reduce overall costs by putting out wildfires when they are small.

It is the managers' understanding that readiness and program management cost calculations have increased due to changes in resource objectives such as protection of newly discovered cultural artifacts and new land ownership patterns. In recent years costs associated with human settlement into the urban-wildland interface have risen faster than models could accurately describe and are underrepresented in average cost calculations. The managers also understand that additional wildfire management personnel will require additional equipment and appropriate work environments, and that work conditions must emphasize firefighter and public safety. Therefore, the managers have included within the preparedness activity sufficient resources to provide the equipment, office, and storage space necessary to provide safe and efficient operations. Additional funds provided under this appropriation for facilities are to be used to fund the highest priority health and safety needs, as identified in the Department's five-year plan for deferred maintenance and capital improvements.

The managers support an acceleration of research activities and expanded emphasis for the Joint Fire Science Program and have provided an additional $4,000,000 respectively to the Departments of the Interior and Agriculture to support the recommendations regarding scientific support for fuels treatments and other science needs beyond hazardous fuels. These funds are in addition to the $4,000,000 provided for each agency as part of the Administration's original budget request. Additional funds should be used for such efforts as increased rapid response projects to ensure necessary resources are available for testing and evaluation of post-fire rehabilitation, assessment of post-fire and fire behavior effects, use of aircraft-based remote sensing operations, implementation of protocols for evaluating post-fire stabilization and rehabilitation, and the development of effective means for collecting and disseminating information about treatment techniques. The managers expect the increased funds to be made available to the Joint Fire Science activities of the Departments for the direct benefit of fire management programs, including burned area rehabilitation.

One means of directly benefiting wildfire management programs is to address locally and regionally important science and technology needs associated with wildfire management and suppression, fuels management, and post-fire rehabilitation without requiring national-level requests for proposals. Thus, the managers expect the Joint Fire Sciences Governing Board to make a significant portion of the increased funds directly available to the fire management programs of the Agriculture and Interior Departments to fund projects that directly address locally and regionally important science and technology needs associated with fire management and suppression, fuels management, and post-fire rehabilitation. The managers further expect the Departments to ensure that these programs are implemented within existing structures without new program management or other overhead activities that might reduce the direct benefit of funds provided.

The January 1998 Joint Fire Science Plan developed by the two Departments and submitted to the Congress included provisions for a Stakeholder Advisory Group of technical experts from land management organizations, private industry, academia, other Federal agencies, and the public to formulate recommendations for program priorities and advise the Joint Fire Science Program Governing Board. This Group is to be established under the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act. The managers are concerned that nearly three years have passed without establishment of this group. The managers direct the Secretaries to establish the group by December 31, 2000.

WILDLAND FIRE OPERATIONS

For wildland fire operations, the managers provide $468,847,000 of which $353,740,000 is funded in title IV as an emergency appropriation. This funding level includes $153,447,000 to cover costs of the ten-year average of suppression, $195,400,000 for hazardous fuels reduction, and $85,000,000 for rehabilitation of burned areas.

The managers encourage continued emphasis on safety as a priority in the suppression program. Funding provided under this appropriation is expected to provide for the most efficient and safe strategy for the protection of life, property, and resources. Funding is included to cover the projected 10–year average of suppression expenditures for the Department.

The managers have provided $195,000,000 for hazardous fuels management activities. These funds are to support activities on Federal lands and adjacent non-Federal lands, which reduce the risks and consequences of wildfire, both in and around communities and in wildland areas. Treatment methods include application of prescribed fire, mechanical removal, mulching, and application of chemicals. In many areas a combination of these methods will be necessary over a period of several years to reduce risks and to maintain healthy and viable forests and rangelands. The increased funding included in this appropriation will expand the existing fuels management program to reduce risks to communities and risks to natural resources in high-risk areas. As proposed by the Senate, the managers have included $120,300,000 for the Department of the Interior to accelerate treatments, planning efforts, and collaborative projects with non-Federal partners in the wildland-urban interface. This funding is provided as part of the Department's ongoing fuels treatment program, but must be dedicated to projects within the urban-wildland interface.

The managers understand that fuels treatment accomplishments have been constrained by a lack of funding to conduct planning, assessments, clearances, consultation, and environmental analyses necessary for the land management and regulatory agencies to ensure that fuels treatments are accomplished quickly and in an environmentally sound manner. The managers agree that additional funding should be made available from this appropriation to conduct such assessments and clearances, in the interests of expediting fuels treatments in an environmentally sound manner. Funds may be used directly by the Bureau of Land Management, or on a reimbursable basis with National Park Service, Fish and Wildlife Service, Bureau of Indian Affairs, or National Marine Fisheries Service, to provide for appropriate planning and clearances. Funding will also be available for supporting community-based efforts to address defensible space and fuels management issues and to support outreach and education efforts associated with fuels management and risk reduction activities. In conducting treatments, local contract personnel are to be used wherever possible. The managers expect the Department to show planned and actual funding and accomplishments for fuels management activities in future budget requests to Congress. The managers understand that actual amounts may differ from planned levels and agree that the agencies have the ability to fund additional projects and amounts based on actual needs.

Within the amounts provided for wildland-urban treatments, $8,800,000 is to be made available to the Ecological Restoration Institute (ERI) of Northern Arizona University, through a cooperative agreement with the Bureau of Land Management, to support new and existing ecologically-based forest restoration activities in ponderosa pine forests. The managers' goal is to develop a scientifically based model that will promote restoration of the ecological health of forests in the southwest, while reducing the threat of wildfire to forest communities. Under this agreement, the managers expect that ERI will: (1) research, develop, monitor, and conduct fuels treatments in partnership with all Federal, Tribal, State, and private landowners to demonstrate the feasibility of restoration-based fuels treatments on a community-level; (2) conduct an adaptive ecosystem analysis of ponderosa pine and related forests as a prototype for larger ecosystem analyses, and to fill the gap between project or district/forest level analyses and regional analyses to support future operational scale treatments; (3) develop options and recommendations for developing markets for by-products of fuels treatment activities; (4) hold community workshops to design suitable treatments, training and information transfer to land managers, and information development and transfer to inform the public and land managers about ecologically-based treatments. Recognizing the importance of cooperative agreements, the managers request that the Bureau place a priority on timely negotiation and implementation of this agreement to ensure the prompt availability of funding pursuant to it, and that the Bureau conduct negotiations at the national level. The agreement shall not include funding for facilities or capital equipment like buildings and vehicles.

Included within the amounts for wildland fire operations is increased funding for burned area rehabilitation to address short term and long-term detrimental consequences of wildfires. The managers note that wildland fires burning under the right conditions, are beneficial and even essential to the health of forests and rangelands. However, some severe wildfires can trigger a wide array of detrimental impacts, ranging from short term floods, debris flow, and loss of water quality to longer term invasion by non-native species and loss of productivity of the land. The increased funding for burned area rehabilitation is designed to prevent further degradation of resources following wildland fire through (1) short-term stabilization activities to protect life and property, protect municipal watersheds, and prevent unacceptable degradation of critical natural and cultural resources, and (2) longer-term rehabilitation activities to repair and improve lands unlikely to recover naturally from severe fire damage. The managers direct the agencies to develop a long-term program to manage and supply native plant materials for use in various Federal land management restoration and rehabilitation needs. The managers recommend that the interagency native plant conservation initiative lead this effort.

It is essential to monitor over the long-term various wildfire operations and rehabilitation activities and use this evaluation to alter future activities where indicated. The managers expect that funding for burned area rehabilitation will be available from this appropriation for only a limited period of time, after which ongoing site maintenance must be funded from the land management bureaus' appropriate operating accounts. In conducting stabilization and rehabilitation treatments, local contract personnel should be used wherever possible. The managers expect the Department to show planned and actual funding and accomplishments for stabilization and rehabilitation activities in future budget requests to Congress. The managers understand that actual amounts may differ from planned levels, and agree that the agencies have the ability to fund additional projects and amounts based on actual needs.

The managers direct the Departments of the Interior and Agriculture to report to the Appropriations Committees, by December 1, 2000, on criteria for rehabilitation projects to be funded from this appropriation.

Rural fire assistance

For rural fire assistance, the managers provide $10,000,000 for the Department of the Interior in a pilot effort to enhance the fire protection capability of rural fire districts. Training, equipment purchase, and prevention activities are to be conducted on a cost-shared basis. The managers recognize that safe and effective protection in the urban-wildland interface demands close coordination between local, State, Tribal, and Federal firefighting resources. When large Interior landholdings are present, the managers support an expanded relationship between the Interior Department and other governments for purposes of developing local fire prevention capability on a cost-shared basis.

CENTRAL HAZARDOUS MATERIALS FUND

The conference agreement provides $10,000,000 for the central hazardous materials fund as proposed by the House and Senate.

The conference agreement provides $16,860,000 for construction instead of $5,300,000 as proposed by the House and $15,360,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The managers have included $2,000,000 for acquisition of the Potrero Creek property in Southern California. These funds may not be expended until the BLM has completed an appraisal using accepted and standard government land appraisal techniques. The managers direct the BLM to begin work on the appraisal within 30 days of enactment of this Act.

The conference agreement provides an indefinite appropriation for range improvements of not less than $10,000,000 as proposed by the House and Senate.

SERVICE CHARGES, DEPOSITS, AND FORFEITURES

The conference agreement provides an indefinite appropriation for service charges, deposits, and forfeitures which is estimated to be $7,500,000 as proposed by the House and Senate.

MISCELLANEOUS TRUST FUNDS

The conference agreement provides an indefinite appropriation of $7,700,000 for miscellaneous trust funds as proposed by the House and Senate.

UNITED STATES FISH AND WILDIFE SERVICE

RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

The conference agreement provides $776,595,000 for resource management instead of $731,400,000 as proposed by the House and $763,442,000 as proposed by the Senate. The numerical changes described below are to the House recommended level.

In the endangered species listing program, there is a decrease of $40,000 for the borderlands program. In consultation, there are increases of $18,000 for forest planning, $2,000 for Everglades, $1,500,000 for cold water fish in Montana and Idaho, $270,000 for the California/Nevada desert resource initiative, $1,000,000 for Central Valley and Southern California habitat conservation planning, $500,000 for bighorn sheep conservation in Nevada and a general increase of $1,000,000 for other consultations.

Increases in the recovery program include $5,000,000 for matching grants for Pacific salmon conservation and restoration in Washington, $100,000 for the Citizens' Management Committee as defined by alternative one of the final EIS for grizzly bear recovery in the Bitterroot ecosystem, $288,000 for wolf recovery in Idaho, $100,000 for wolf monitoring by the Nez Perce tribe, $600,000 for eider research at the Alaska SeaLife Center, $600,000 for Lahontan cutthroat trout restoration and $500,000 for the black capped vireo in Texas. Decreases in the recovery program include $498,000 for the Bruneau Hot Springs snail and $398,000 for the Prebles meadow jumping mouse.

In habitat conservation, increases include $1,400,000 for Washington salmon enhancement, $4,000 for bull trout recovery in Washington, $500,000 for private lands conservation efforts in Hawaii, $50,000 for rehabilitation of the White River in Indiana in response to a recent fish kill, $252,000 in project planning for the Middle Rio Grande Bosque program and $350,000 for Long Live the Kings and Hood Canal Salmon Enhancement Group.

In the environmental contaminants program, there is an increase of $400,000 for baseline data on subsistence foods in Alaska.

Changes in refuge operations and maintenance include a general increase of $314,000 for refuge operations and a decrease of $445,000 for the borderlands program.

In migratory bird management, increases include $575,000 to reduce sea bird by-catch in Alaska, $2,050,000 for joint ventures, subject to the distribution described below, and a general increase of $1,000,000.

Law enforcement operations increases include $7,000,000 to fill vacancies and to train and equip new personnel and $360,000 for staffing and operations associated with the new port of entry designation in Anchorage, Alaska.

Increases in hatchery operations and maintenance include $5,000,000 for the Washington Hatchery Improvement Project, $184,000 for marking of hatchery salmon in Washington and $400,000 for the hatchery restoration/recovery program proposed in the budget request. In fish and wildlife management, there are increases of $8,000 for whirling disease research to be distributed as proposed by the Senate, $50,000 for the Regional Mark Processing Center, $11,051,000 for the Alaska subsistence program, $750,000 for the Klamath River flow study, $500,000 for Trinity River restoration, $200,000 for Yukon River fisheries management studies and $100,000 for Yukon River Salmon Treaty education efforts.

The $5,000,000 proposed by the Senate as an emergency appropriation for Atlantic salmon restoration is addressed in the emergency title of the conference agreement.

In general administration, increases include $100,000 in international affairs for the tundra to tropics program, $500,000 for the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation and $2,000,000 for Pingree Forest non-development easements in Maine to be handled through the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement earmarks $1,000,000 for the Youth Conservation Corps as proposed by the House instead of $2,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The earmark for endangered species listing programs is $6,355,000 as proposed by the Senate rather than $6,395,000 as proposed by the House. The Senate proposal to provide $5,000,000 in emergency funding for Atlantic salmon restoration in Maine has been modified to require a cost share and included in the emergency appropriations title.

The managers agree to the following:

1. The increase provided in consultation for cold water fish in Montana and Idaho are for preparation and implementation of plans, programs, or agreements identified by the States of Idaho and Montana that will address habitat for freshwater aquatic species on non-Federal lands. These funds will supplement funds that have already been allocated by the States and will only be expended for landowners that are voluntarily enrolled in such plans, programs, or agreements. The amount provided is to be split equally between Montana and Idaho.

2. While there is no specific earmark for the Prebles meadow jumping mouse in the recovery program, the managers expect the Service to continue work in this area.

3. The increase proposed by the Senate in habitat conservation for an Alaska Village Initiative for a commercial management program is not included in this account but is addressed under the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

4. While there is no specific increase for alien species control in the refuge operations and maintenance account, the Service is encouraged to place a priority on these activities in the refuge operating needs system.

5. The Service, within its fixed cost increases should ensure that a base increase is provided to cover the recently hired maintenance worker at the Ohio River Islands NWR, WV. The cost for fiscal year 2001 is estimated to be $45,000. The Service should ensure that the annualized costs for new personnel are adequately reflected in its fixed cost increase budget estimates each year.

6. Any future funding for the Klamath River flow study and the Trinity River restoration study will only be considered after the Administration has clearly identified the full estimated costs for these programs and the appropriate amounts to be budgeted by the various agencies involved for each year. The fiscal year 2002 budget justification should include an interagency crosscut table for each of these programs.

7. The managers have not agreed to the Senate language requiring ''conclusive evidence'' that the recovery zone can support grizzly bears prior to their relocation in Idaho and Montana. The managers, however, agree that no funds appropriated in this Act should be spent on the physical relocation of grizzly bears into the Selway-Bitterroot Ecosystem in Idaho and Montana prior to the completion of a peer review of the habitat study, and a conclusion based upon the best available scientific data that the recovery zone can adequately support the proposed grizzly population.

8. The managers have not agreed to the Senate language requiring that wolves that stray into Oregon be removed. The managers, however, expect the Service to learn from the mistakes made in the New Mexico wolf introduction program and to coordinate extensively with the public at every stage of the wolf reintroduction and recovery program. The protocols to be followed should be developed in close consultation with the public.

9. The managers are concerned by the Service's failure to conduct population estimation, population reassessment, and desert tortoise monitoring as described in the 1994 Desert Tortoise Recovery Plan. The managers expect the Service to undertake such work in fiscal year 2001. The methodology to be used in conducting the monitoring should be designed to permit correlation with the data gathered between 1980 and 2000.

10. General increases have been provided for refuge operations and maintenance. These increases should be distributed in accordance with the priorities set forth in the refuge operating needs system and the maintenance management system.

11. The increase provided in the environmental contaminants program is to develop baseline data on contaminants identified by the Arctic Council as threats in wildlife that are subsistence foods in Alaska. The funding also may be used to sample, in partnership with scientists employed by local governments, wildlife remains found in sudden, unexpected die-offs.

12. The projects proposed by the Senate for the Canaan Valley NWR, WV, and the Kealia Pond NWR, HI are addressed in the construction account.

13. The Service should follow the direction in the Senate report with respect to the release of prokelisia to control Spartina grass in conjunction with mowing and spraying.

14. The September 1, 2000 reprogramming request submitted by the Service to address administrative cost realignments, rental cost increases and increased administrative costs is approved. The Service should ensure that all necessary base adjustments are made in the 2002 budget within the fixed cost category to reflect correctly these ''uncontrollable'' costs.

15. The managers have recently become aware of a General Accounting Office review of procedures in the Carlsbad, CA, ecological services office. In particular, the managers are concerned by reports from GAO that automated systems are inadequate. The fiscal year 2002 budget request should address this problem.

Joint Ventures.—Funds for joint venture programs are to be distributed in fiscal year 2001 as shown in the following table. In addition, the managers expect the Service to phase in additional funding over the next three years to achieve the levels specified in the table for fiscal year 2004. To the extent that the funding specified for 2004 is insufficient, the managers do not object to a proposal for higher funding levels for joint ventures. The Service is urged to re-evaluate all their ''optimal'' funding calculations and, in particular, the sea duck joint venture calculation and report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations if any of those amounts should be raised. The managers note that the joint venture programs have leveraged a small amount of Federal funding many times over to accomplish much needed habitat improvements throughout the country.

2. The Downeast Heritage Center, ME, project proposed by the Senate is addressed in the National Park Service.

3. The administrative wing at the John Heinz NWR, PA, will eliminate the need for rent associated with temporary office space. The managers note that the John Heinz refuge has done an admirable job in raising private funds for visitors' center construction.

4. The Service should pursue cost-sharing opportunities for the Kealia Pond NWR, HI, water control structure project.

5. The total cost for the Kodiak NWR, AK, Administrative and Visitors' Center should not exceed $10 million of which the Fish and Wildlife Service maximum share is $7 million and the cost share is $3 million.

6. The funding provided for a fourth dormitory at the National Conservation Training Center, WV, will complete the dormitory project and fully fund the connection of the facility to the city water supply.

7. Funds for the Noxubee NWR, MS, Administrative and Visitors' Center will complete the Fish and Wildlife Service commitment to the project.

8. The Service should, as soon as possible, notify the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations, of the total estimated cost for the Pittsford NFH, VT, hatchery rehabilitation project.

9. Funds for the Silvio O. Conte NWR, VT, Education Center will complete the Fish and Wildlife Service commitment to the project. Any additional funding requirements should be accommodated with non-Department of the Interior funds.

10. No funds are included for the Waccamaw NWR, SC, Visitors' Center. This refuge has not yet been opened. The managers urge the Service to include this project, as appropriate, in their priority system for future consideration.

11. Funds for the White River NWR, AR, Administrative and Visitors' Center, in combination with previously appropriated funds, will complete the Fish and Wildlife Service commitment to the project. The remaining $600,000 required for the visitors' center portion of the project should be accommodated with non-Department of Interior funds.

12. Funds for the holding and propagation facility at the White Sulphur Springs NFH, WV, will complete the project.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement includes bill language directing the release of previously appropriated funds for exhibits at the Ding Darling NWR, FL.

COOPERATIVE ENDANGERED SPECIES CONSERVATION FUND

The conference agreement provides $26,925,000 for the cooperative endangered species conservation fund as proposed by the Senate instead of $23,000,000 as proposed by the House. The increase above the House is for habitat conservation planning land acquisition.

NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE FUND

The conference agreement provides $11,439,000 for the National wildlife refuge fund instead of $10,439,000 as proposed by the House and $10,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers urge the Service to request increased funds for this account in future budget requests commensurate with increases in land acquisition.

NORTH AMERICAN WETLANDS CONSERVATION FUND

The conference agreement provides $20,000,000 for the North American wetlands conservation fund instead of $15,499,000 as proposed by the House and $16,500,000 as proposed by the Senate. Within this amount, $19,200,000 is for wetlands conservation and $800,000 is for administration.

WILDLIFE CONSERVATION AND APPRECIATION FUND

The conference agreement provides $797,000 for the wildlife conservation and appreciation fund as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

MULTINATIONAL SPECIES CONSERVATION FUND

The conference agreement provides $2,500,000 for the multinational species conservation fund as proposed by the Senate instead of $2,391,000 as proposed by the House.

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

OPERATION OF THE NATIONAL PARK SYSTEM

The conference agreement provides $1,389,144,000 for the operation of the National park system instead of $1,426,476,000 as proposed by the House and $1,367,554,000 as proposed by the Senate (excluding U.S. Park Police funding, which is included in a new appropriations account). The agreement provides $283,465,000 for Resource Stewardship instead of $275,124,000 as proposed by the House and $279,375,000 as proposed by the Senate. Changes to the House level include $900,000 for Learning Centers, $1,107,000 for native and exotic species management, $1,034,000 for Alaska subsistence fisheries, $1,750,000 for vegetation mapping, $825,000 for water resources restoration and protection, $1,275,000 for water quality monitoring, $500,000 for the Everglades Task Force, $250,000 for museum management, $400,000 for Vanishing Treasures and $300,000 for the ongoing Civil War Soldiers and Sailors Partnership. These funds are not intended to be used to initiate any portion of the proposed digitization initiative in the budget.

The conference agreement provides $279,871,000 for Visitor Services as proposed by the Senate. Changes to the House level include $1,000,000 for the 2001 Presidential Inaugural and $235,000 for Regional office park support.

The conference agreement provides $78,048,000 for the U.S. Park Police in a new appropriations account that follows this account.

The conference agreement provides $469,703,000 for maintenance instead of $446,661,000 as proposed by the House and $449,203,000 as proposed by the Senate. Increases to the House level include $20,000,000 for additional maintenance and operational needs of the Service. Following enactment of the Bill, the National Park Service should make the necessary adjustments to align these additional funds for the purposes approved by the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations with the proper budget subactivity. Two specific needs provided for in this increase are $975,000 for the 9 National Trails and a $2,300,000 base increase for Harpers Ferry Design Center.

In addition, the managers have provided increases of $42,000 for regional office park support, $2,000,000 for facility management software and $1,000,000 for condition assessments. The conference agreement does not include the general increase for maintenance as proposed by the House. Although the managers have provided funds for the maintenance management system and building condition assessments, the managers remain concerned that the improvements provided by these efforts will take too long to implement and may still not fully document the complete maintenance backlog of the Service, as required by the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations and by statute, within the next few years. Therefore, by April 2001, a report is to be provided to the Committees that describes how and when the Service will provide a park by park comprehensive listing, with cost estimates, of deferred maintenance affecting all facilities in the National Park Service, including buildings, historic structures, roads, trails, utility systems, campgrounds, picnic areas and all other items requiring maintenance and repair. The Service should also address the issue raised by the Committees concerning why large parks cannot conduct their own condition assessment internally and without additional funds.

Within in the amounts provided for repair and rehabilitation, the managers earmark the following projects: $350,000 to repair the lighthouse at Fire Island NS (this amount is not intended to initiate planning for a new visitor center), $75,000 to repair the Ocean Beach Pavilion at Fire Island, NS, $309,000 for repairs of the Bachlott House and $100,000 for the Alberty House which are both located at Cumberland Island NS, and $500,000 for maintenance projects at the Ozark National Scenic Riverways Park.

The conference agreement provides $259,178,000 for Park Support instead of $254,628,000 as proposed by the House and $262,178,000 as proposed by the Senate. Changes to the House level include $500,000 for regional office park support, $750,000 for mid-level management intake training program, $100,000 for Wild and Scenic Rivers (existing partnership rivers), $200,000 for a wilderness study at Apostle Islands NL and $3,000,000 for the Challenge cost share program for activities related to the anniversary of the Lewis and Clark expedition. The amount provided for Lewis and Clark related activities are for the purposes described in the Senate report, but include $2,000,000 for a major national traveling exhibition that will include more than 200 Lewis and Clark original artifacts, artworks and manuscripts. This funding must be matched by private sources.

The conference agreement provides $96,927,000 for External Administrative Costs as proposed by the Senate. Changes to the House include $2,000,000 for GSA rental space needs. The conference agreement does not include the $66,500,000 general increase proposed by the House.

Through a combination of appropriated funds, recreational fee demonstration project revenues, partnerships, and other sources, the National Park system has unprecedented levels of funding available to it to address critical resource protection and visitor service requirements. The managers emphasize the importance of applying prudent and sound financial management practices to ensure the integrity of these funding sources, particularly with regard to tracking for accountability purposes. Consistent with Comptroller General opinions, appropriations are not to be augmented with other funding sources. Projects that are identified to be completed for an identified amount of funding, regardless of fund source, are to be completed as proposed. Any additional resources to be applied to a project constitute a reprogramming and are subject to the established guidelines. The managers are particularly concerned about construction projects for which bids come in above estimates, and the proposed solution is to defer exhibits and to fund the remaining elements at a later date using a different fund source, such as fees. This is not an appropriate use of the fee program.

The managers direct that the National Park Service make sufficient funds available to assure that signs marking the Lewis and Clark route in the State of North Dakota are adequate to meet National Park Service standards.

The managers support the decision of the Ozark National Scenic Riverways to retain the carpentry and maintenance positions. The managers recognize the urgent needs at ONSR for key carpentry and maintenance personnel who have specialized skills in properly maintaining park facilities. The managers expect that these positions will be retained at ONSR.

The managers are aware of a recommendation by the National Park Service's National Leadership Council to consolidate funding for all aspects of the ongoing intake program into a centralized program. Currently, the salary costs are paid by the parks, regions, and program offices participating in the program. The managers have no objection to the internal reprogramming necessary (not to exceed $1,106,000) to allow for centralized funding for this important program. This approach results in no net change in costs and should allow for greater participation in the program by more parks throughout the system.

The managers are aware that the EPA, through cooperative agreements with the National Park Service, has maintained a long-term environmental and air quality monitoring site in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park through the demonstration intensive site project and sites in wilderness areas of the Nantahala National Forest and Pisgah National Forest. The managers are concerned, however, by reports that the EPA may be considering terminating funding support for these monitoring sites. Because of the wealth of information provided to Federal, State and local stakeholders by the sites, the managers expect the EPA to continue its monitoring partnerships with the Great Smoky Mountains NP and both national forests. The managers are also aware of the vital role played by the Southern Appalachian Mountains Initiative (SAMI), through the EPA, in studying the effects of air pollutants on the Great Smoky Mountains NP and nearby forests.

The managers wish to reiterate the concern expressed by the Senate with respect to the lack of adequate ambulance service at the Hawaii Volcanoes National Park Systems. The managers therefore direct that, within the amounts provided for operation of the National Park System, the Service shall provide the necessary funds, not to exceed $350,000, for the Federal share of the cooperative effort to provide emergency medical services in the Hawaii Volcanoes National Park. This support should be in addition to the Park's base operating funds.

The managers are aware that legislation currently under consideration would authorize the inclusion of the Wills House within Gettysburg National Military Park. Should such legislation be enacted, the managers encourage the Service to initiate rehabilitation of the House within available repair and rehabilitation funds.

The managers expect that funding for the First Ladies National Historic Site will be included in the fiscal year 2002 Park Service request and in all future budget requests.

UNITED STATES PARK POLICE

The conference agreement provides $78,048,000 for the United States Park Police as a new appropriations account instead of $75,641,000 as proposed by the House and $76,441,000 as proposed by the Senate under the operation of the National park system account.

The increases to the budget request are associated only with the Washington Monument and several other nationally recognized park sites in Washington, D.C. and in certain cases represent one time only costs. The increases include $235,000 for design costs associated with a visitor screening facility and x-ray machine at the Washington Monument, $275,000 for design of a parkwide key system, $997,000 to design and install closed circuit television and alarm systems at five specific monuments and $100,000 for planning for a parkwide communication system. Plans for any of these items that require additional appropriations should be carefully reviewed by the leadership of the National Park Service as well as the Development Advisory Board to ensure that the scope and costs are carefully and frugally estimated. The managers have also included $800,000 for the 2001 Presidential Inaugural.

The managers note that funds available for U.S. Park Police (USPP) operations have grown at a rate well above nearly every account in the Interior appropriations bill. Since fiscal year 1987, the USPP operating account has increased nearly 80 percent above inflation. By comparison, over the same period, the operating accounts for several large national parks grew by lesser amounts. The entire operation of the national park system account grew by 50 percent during this period, while accommodating the requirements of 43 new park areas. Despite the growth during this period, the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations have continued to receive requests for items that have been funded in prior years, such as anti- and counter-terrorism, drug enforcement, recruit classes, and equipment replacement. The recommendations which follow are intended to improve accountability and oversight of the USPP budget.

To strengthen fund controls that apply to the USPP, the managers have established a separate appropriation account for USPP activities. The only extent to which USPP will be able to draw on the operation of the national park system account is limited to the funds contained in that appropriation account for ongoing USPP activities at the Statue of Liberty and Gateway National Recreation Area and the purposes identified below. Bill language is included in the Operations account. The establishment of this separate appropriations account, to be managed as discussed below, will preclude funds from being transferred from the USPP to other park purposes, and vice versa.

This account covers the operational costs of the United States Park Police, including those costs for uniformed and civilian staff assigned to the USPP, supplies, materials, utilities, equipment, and pension costs for retired officers. The USPP may receive additional funds on a reimbursable basis from non-NPS entities. No other funds are to be used to augment the USPP operational budget.

As stated above, the funding recommended for this appropriation activity in fiscal year 2001 is $78,048,000, which represents the budget request and additional funds to cover the four specific items detailed above. The only other funds which may be allocated to the park police are for those USPP costs assumed in the ONPS budget as continuing in the park bases of the Statue of Liberty and Gateway National Recreation Area, to respond to approved emergency law and order incidents and to maintain and repair USPP administrative facilities. When the Director has determined the appropriate amounts of the funding of these two units that should be devoted to USPP purposes, and the level of service that the USPP must continue to provide with those resources, the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations should be informed. In developing the fiscal year 2002 budget, the Service should make the necessary adjustments to show these funding increments entirely in the USPP appropriation account.

The managers are concerned about the ongoing reports of financial shortfalls and funding discrepancies involving the USPP budget. The managers expect the USPP to prepare a detailed financial plan on the proposed use of the fiscal year 2001 funds appropriated in the separate account as well as to be made available from ONPS, within 30 days of enactment of this Act. The financial plan should include information such as existing and planned staffing levels, pay and benefits, overtime pay, recruitment classes, planned expenditures for equipment, and complete object class data for each USPP program. Once the financial plan has been reviewed and approved by the regional director for the National Capital Region, the National Park Service's comptroller, and the National Academy of Public Administration, it is to be followed.

The budget function for the USPP is to be carefully controlled by the regional director's office. Any proposed deviation from the financial plan must be approved in advance by the regional director, and if it constitutes a reprogramming pursuant to the reprogramming guidelines, must come before the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations for approval. The USPP is directed to manage its expenditures using the same financial management system as the rest of the National Park Service, and should cease use of other systems immediately. The managers expect the USPP to engage in the same budget formulation, execution, and reporting practices as the rest of the Service.

With regard to recruitment classes, the funding level recommended by the managers continues the $2,361,000 provided in fiscal year 2000 for the conduct of two recruit classes (each with a class size of 24 recruits). These funds cover salary costs for the 48 recruits as well as their training costs, travel, lodging, initial uniform, equipment, applicant physicals, and background checks. At the end of training, these recruits will fill existing funded vacancies. It is the managers' expectation that two recruit classes will be conducted in fiscal year 2001. This assumption should be reflected in the financial plan; any proposed reallocation of funds from recruit classes to other operating expenses is considered a reprogramming and must be approved by the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

In addition to the financial controls imposed above, the managers also expect the USPP to identify the necessary funds to pay for an independent review of the structure and financial plan of the USPP. This funding should be reflected in the financial plan. The managers direct the National Park Service to contract with the National Academy of Public Administration for this assessment within 30 days of enactment of this Act. The assessment should include: (1) an evaluation of the mission and goals of the USPP in accordance with statutory and regulatory requirements, (2) an assessment of the USPP mission vis-a-vis other Federal agencies and law enforcement entities, including a review of the extent to which the USPP is involved in supporting law enforcement functions which go beyond the mission of the National Park Service, including estimated costs associated with these activities, (3) an evaluation of current and future staffing requirements to meet mission and goals, and an examination of the methodology used by the USPP to determine staffing needs, and (4) an analysis of the spending patterns of the USPP over the last three fiscal years, with particular regard to the extent to which actual expenditures tracked against approved financial plans, the adequacy of budget projections for items such as overtime and special deployments versus actual expenses, the extent to which the USPP assessed the costs of new activities before committing personnel, a review of the operating costs for the helicopters for NPS purposes versus other jurisdictions, and an assessment of the expenditures for equipment replacement against an identified plan.

NATIONAL RECREATION AND PRESERVATION

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The conference agreement provides $58,359,000 for National recreation and preservation instead of $47,956,000 as proposed by the House and $61,249,000 as proposed by the Senate (excluding urban parks funding, which is included in a separate appropriations account). The agreement provides $542,000 for recreation programs as proposed by the House and Senate. The agreement provides $10,805,000 for natural programs instead of $11,205,000 proposed by the House and $10,505,000 as proposed by the Senate. This includes increases of $300,000 for the Rivers and Trails program and $300,000 for hydro relicensing. While the managers have not earmarked the River and Trails program, consideration should be given to groups involved in hiking and biking trails in southeastern Michigan and the Service is encouraged to work cooperatively with groups in this area.

The conference agreement includes $20,753,000 for cultural programs instead of $19,853,000 as proposed by the House and $20,253,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers are aware of efforts to commemorate and interpret underground railroad sites in Wilmington, Delaware, and the surrounding area, and encourage the National Park Service to provide technical assistance and such other support for these efforts as is consistent with the National Underground Railroad Network to Freedom Act and other appropriate Service programs.

The conference agreement includes $10,307,000 for Heritage Partnership Programs instead of $9,420,000 as proposed by the House and $9,787,000 as proposed by the Senate. Funds are to be distributed as follows:

The managers have reallocated the technical assistance funds requested in the budget to the individual heritage areas, which are in a better position to decide their needs. These funds are for technical assistance to local governments and partner organizations to help implement locally supported projects consistent with the overall plans for these designated areas. These funds may be used to contract for government or private sector services to respond to local requests for assistance. Within the total provided, the managers have included $17,000 for fixed costs and $100,000 for administrative overhead.

The managers direct that implementation funds for the Hudson River Valley National Heritage Area are contingent upon National Park Service approval of the management and interpretive plans that are currently being developed.

The conference agreement provides $12,296,000 for Statutory or Contractual Aid instead of $3,280,000 as proposed by the House and $16,506,000 as proposed by the Senate. The funds are to be distributed as follows:

The managers have provided $2,300,000 for the Chesapeake Bay Gateway program. Within this amount is $800,000 for grants and technical assistance and $1,500,000 for the purchase of the Holly Farm Beach property requested in the President's budget. The acquisition dollars are subject to at least an equal match by State or private funds. Should the $1,500,000 not be expended for the purchase of the Holly Farm Beach property, the Service should submit a reprogramming for other needs within the National Park Service. These funds will not be made available in addition to the $800,000 provided for the base program. The managers have not provided $2,000,000 for the Urban Parks Program in the account as proposed by the House and Senate. A total of $10 million is provided in a separate account.

The managers have included language in the bill providing for the transfer to this account of $1,595,000 previously appropriated for the acquisition of Ferry Farm, George Washington's Boyhood Home. Since an easement on this property has been acquired at the appraised fair market value, these funds are not required for further acquisition. The transferred funds are to be provided as a grant to the George Washington's Fredericksburg Foundation for the conduct of archaeological investigations at the site, research into the life of George Washington's family at Ferry Farm, development of interactive education programs, development of visitor programs, and other activities that complement the National Park Service's programs and mission in the Fredericksburg area.

URBAN PARK AND RECREATION FUND

The conference agreement provides $10,000,000 for the urban park and recreation fund instead of the $2,000,000 proposed by the House and Senate as part of the National recreation and preservation account.

The conference agreement provides $79,347,000 for the historic preservation fund instead of $41,347,000 as proposed by the House and $44,347,000 as proposed by the Senate. Changes to the House level include $3,000,000 for State Historic Preservation Offices as proposed by the Senate.

The managers have also provided $35,000,000 for Save America's Treasures. These funds are subject to a fifty percent cost share, and no single project may receive more than one grant from this program. The funds are to be distributed as follows:

The managers have provided $1,500,000 to complete the Federal investment at Fort Stanwix NM in New York.

The managers expect the Service to provide the necessary funds, within the amounts provided for Equipment Replacement, to replace the landing craft at Cumberland Island NS and replace the airplane at Glen Canyon National Recreation Area.

Within the amounts provided for special resource studies are funds to initiate a Lincoln Highway Study ($300,000), to initiate a study to define the cultural significance and value to the Nation of the Congaree Creek site in Lexington County, SC, as part of the Congaree National Swamp Monument, and a study for a national heritage area in the Upper Housatonic Valley in Northwest Connecticut. These three studies are subject to separate authorizations.

The managers support continuation of research activities initiated as part of the Women's Rights (NHP) trail study and direct the Service to continue this effort throughout fiscal year 2001. It is the managers' understanding that prior to any discussions about implementation of the plan, this project must be authorized by the appropriate House and Senate legislative committees.

The managers are aware that the Service is in the process of drafting a new management plan for the Niobrara National Scenic River. The managers firmly believe that this plan should embody a strong and central role for a local management council as envisioned in the Niobrara Scenic River Designation Act of 1991, and as recommended by the Niobrara Scenic River Advisory Commission established pursuant to the Act. The Council should be a full partner with the National Park Service in managing the Niobrara National Scenic River, and this relationship should be reflected in the General Management Plan.

The managers are aware of a proposal by the National Park Service regarding the use of $2.6 million in unobligated funds remaining for the visitor transportation system at Grand Canyon National Park. Approximately $7.4 million was appropriated in recent years for improvements to the existing visitor transportation system at Grand Canyon. The funds were provided to meet equipment needs to expand the loop system available to South Rim visitors; to retrofit buses to natural gas; to purchase both electric and natural gas buses; and to conduct planning associated with the proposed new visitor transit system from outside the park. The managers have no objections to the use of the balance of the funds to purchase new bus trailer units as well as to install a permanent natural gas fueling station.

The managers are aware of serious information technology requirements facing the Service, and urge the Service to prioritize the necessary investments in order to foster improved management of information and business practices across the Service. Towards that end, the managers have no objection to the recommendation of the National Leadership Council that the IT equipment replacement funds appropriated herein ($1,985,000) be used to address information infrastructure costs associated with the new network design. In addition, $2,700,000 of the $20,000,000 added by the managers in the ONPS account for maintenance should be used for this purpose. Improvements to the NPS bandwidth capability should improve the ability of parks, however remote, to use systems such as the Project Management Information System, ParkNet, the Operations Formulation System, the Interior Department Electronic Acquisition System, and the Project Management Development System.

As part of the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) directed in last year's conference agreement, the managers urge the City of Port Angeles and the Park Service to agree on the water supply facilities necessary to mitigate the impact of Elwha River dam removal. If the City and Park Service cannot agree on the type and scope of new water supply facilities by March 1, 2001 (or within a reasonable time prior to designing the facilities), the managers direct that the water supply facilities included in the MOU minimally meet the water quality standards mandated by, and be acceptable to, the Washington State Department of Health.

LAND AND WATER CONSERVATION FUND

(RESCISSION)

The conference agreement rescinds the contract authority provided for fiscal year 2001 by 16 U.S.C. 460l–10a as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

The conference agreement provides $110,540,000 for land acquisition and State assistance instead of $104,000,000 as proposed by the House and $87,140,000 as proposed by the Senate. Funds should be distributed as follows:

The managers have not included additional funds for acquisition at Big Cypress National Preserve, Florida due to a prior year unobligated balance of $11,000,000. The managers understand that these funds cannot be obligated in fiscal year 2001 due to a lack of willing sellers.

The conference agreement provides $1,300,000 for the Black Canyon of the Gunnison National Park and for the Curecanti National Recreation Area, located in Colorado. The managers direct the Service to use the funds to complete the acquisition project in the Black Canyon of the Gunnison NP and to purchase the Fitti parcel in the Curecanti NRA.

The $1.2 million identified for the purchase of a portion of the Ovoka Farm for inclusion within the Appalachian National Scenic Trail shall not be expended until an agreement with the United States is signed for the purchase of four tracts containing 75.14 acres within the current boundary of the Appalachian NST and owned by Phillip S. Thomas. The price to be paid by the National Park Service for these tracts and for the portion of Ovoka farm shall not exceed the approved appraised value as established by the National Park Service. The acquisition of these tracts and a portion of Ovoka Farm shall be subject only to restrictions the Park Service finds acceptable.

The $2 million identified for the purchase of Cat Island, MS, is subject to authorization.

The $1,000,000 included for the Shenandoah Valley Battlefields National Historic District is contingent upon the final approval by the Secretary of the Interior of the Commission plan and the establishment of the management entity to manage and administer the district as authorized by Public Law 104–333. The funds are to be used only for land acquisitions as authorized in Public Law 104–333.

The $1,100,000 included for the Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore are for the following parcels: #34–127 (160 acres), and #34–169 (31 acres). Seven acres of parcel #34–169 as negotiated are to remain with the current owner.

In fiscal year 2000, Congress provided $1,500,000 for land acquisition at the Hawaii Volcanoes National Park. The managers are aware that the negotiations have stalled with the seller of the Great Crack property, which was the Service's intended purchase with these funds. The managers are also aware of the Park's long standing interest in acquiring the Kahuku Ranch, which is contiguous to the Park and that the owners of the Kahuku Ranch have offered the ranch for sale. The managers, therefore, direct that the $1,500,000 provided in fiscal year 2000 be used toward the purchase of the Kahuku Ranch for an addition to Hawaii Volcanoes National Park. The current authorizing language, however, puts a restriction on lands added to ''round out'' the park. The restriction only allows these additions to the Park through donation of land or purchase with donated funds. As such, the above direction is subject to the removal of this restriction from the authorizing language. The managers further direct the Service to conduct a full review and public scoping process with respect to adding Kahuku Ranch to Hawaii Volcanoes National Park prior to expending any of these funds for purchase of the Kahuku property.

The managers have provided $1.5 million for the intended purchase of patented mining claims in Wrangell-St. Elias National Park by the National Park Service. The managers note that the Director of the National Park Service recently announced that an appraisal on certain patented claims will commence in October, 2000. It is the express intent of the managers that the National Park Service works with the holders of mining claims in Wrangell-St. Elias National Park in order to reach a purchase price that is objectively fair and equitable, both to the citizens of the United States and to the affected claim owners. To that end, and in order to facilitate the acquisition process, the managers instruct the National Park Service to consult with claim owners to attempt to select property appraisers who will be mutually agreeable. Upon completion of any appraisal in anticipation of the acquisition of the mining claims in Wrangell-St. Elias National Park, the National Park Service is further instructed to negotiate with the claim owners in a good faith effort to arrive at a price for the purchase of the claims that is acceptable to all parties.

Language is included in the bill which allows $50,000,000, in unexpended Everglades land acquisition funds appropriated in fiscal years 1994 and 2000, to be used for the implementation of the Modified Water Deliveries project, including implementation of the Recommended Plan for the 8.5 square mile area component of the project. The managers also agree to the Department's proposal to redirect $3,796,000 in unexpended land acquisition funds appropriated originally for the construction of the Modified Water Deliveries project, but later transferred for land acquisition projects pursuant to discretionary authority granted to the Secretary in Public Law 103–219, for the Modified Water Deliveries Project. The Modified Water Deliveries Project provides a base upon which further hydrologic improvements for the park will be made in the form of the proper quantity, quality, timing, and distribution of water to the park as anticipated under the Comprehensive Everglades Restoration Plan.

Language is also included in the bill, as proposed by the Senate which prohibits Stateside land and water funds from being used to establish a reserve or contingency fund.

UNITED STATES GEOLOGICAL SURVEY

SURVEYS, INVESTIGATIONS, AND RESEARCH

The conference agreement provides $862,046,000 for surveys, investigations, and research instead of $816,676,000 as proposed by the House and $848,396,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Changes to the House funding level for the national mapping program include increases of $2,096,000 for uncontrollable costs, $500,000 for the national atlas, and $3,400,000 for Landsat operations, and a decrease of $100,000 for hyperspectral remote sensing.

Increases above the House for geologic hazards, resources and processes include $4,296,000 for uncontrollable costs, $1,000,000 for earthquake hazards, $250,000 for the Hawaiian volcano program, $1,525,000 for minerals at risk, $475,000 for Yukon Flats geology surveys, $1,200,000 for the Nevada gold study, $500,000 for geologic mapping, and $300,000 for Lake Mead/Mojave research.

Changes to the House level for water resources include increases of $5,292,000 for uncontrollable costs, $1,370,000 for real time hazards, $300,000 for the Lake Champlain toxic study, $450,000 for Hawaiian water monitoring, $2,000,000 for the ground water program, and $300,000 for the Southern Maryland aquifer study, and a decrease of $500,000 from the Molokai well project.

Increases above the House for biological research include $3,177,000 for uncontrollable costs, $400,000 for the cooperative research units, $180,000 for a Yukon River chum salmon study, $8,000,000 for science center funding, $500,000 for ballast water research, $500,000 for sea otter research for the Fish and Wildlife Service, $4,000,000 for the National Biological Information Infrastructure and $750,000 for the continuation of the Mark Twain National Forest mining study to be accomplished in cooperation with the water resources division and the Forest Service.

The managers recognize the importance of the National Biological Information Infrastructure (NBII), which can provide valuable information to assist private and governmental entities in developing cost-effective responses to problems of environmental pollution, natural disasters, and many other issues. Therefore, the managers have provided $4,000,000 to create NBII ''nodes'' to work in conjunction with private and public partners to provide increased access to and organization of information to address these and other challenges. These funds are to be used to create a nationwide network covering the following regions: Pacific Basin, Hawaii, $350,000; Southwest, Texas, $1,000,000; Southern Appalachian, Tennessee, $1,000,000; Pacific Northwest, Washington, $200,000; Central Region, Ohio, $250,000; North American Avian Conservation, Maryland, $200,000; Network Standards and Technology, Colorado, $250,000; Fisheries Node, Virginia and Pennsylvania, $400,000; California/Southwest Ecosystems Node, California, $200,000; Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem Node, Montana, $150,000.

Increases above the House for science support include $1,791,000 for uncontrollable costs. Increases above the House for facilities include $1,418,000 for uncontrollable costs.

The managers have provided $500,000 to the Western Fisheries Research Center to conduct a pilot project on the pre- and post-treatment of ballast water for biological activity. The center should develop a protocol for the sampling/monitoring of discharge of exchanged ballast water; develop an attainable standard for treated ballast water that can be effectively monitored; evaluate the treatment effectiveness; and develop and publish a report of the project results.

The managers have included an additional $500,000 for the continued development of the National Geologic Map Data Base as authorized by the National Geologic Mapping Act. With the development of the prototype data base, the managers expect the Survey to work with State geological surveys in converting maps to digital format.

The managers direct that within available funds, the Leetown Science Center should begin to conduct drug efficiency research. In addition, of the $920,000 earmarked in Senate report 106–312 for the Leetown Science Center, $300,000 is for engineering and design and $620,000 is for the repair and rehabilitation of heating, ventilation, and air conditioning and other activities outlined in the budget request.

Within the funds provided for the Biological Research Division, the managers have earmarked $3,400,000 for mission-critical science support for the Fish and Wildlife Service (FWS). The managers reiterate that these funds are for research needs solely identified by FWS and, as such, are provided to establish a parallel program similar to the Natural Resources Preservation program in the National Park Service.

The managers support the expansion of the Gateway to the Earth program to other organizations across the country as provided in House report 106–646. Further, the managers encourage the Ohio View consortium to provide leadership and expertise to the new program participants.

The managers have maintained funding for light distancing and ranging (LIDAR) technology to assist with recovery of Chinook Salmon and Summer Chum Salmon under the Endangered Species Act. These funds should be used in Mason County, WA, to contract for the continued mapping of drainage systems and stream systems, and to identify potentially unstable slopes.

The managers commend the progress the Survey has made to date in increasing the use of private sector services in the conduct of its work, as well as developing ongoing dialogue with the private sector. The managers continue to encourage that, where appropriate, the Survey make use of private sector services in all areas including scientific research, technical support, and administrative activities, to achieve an appropriate balance to best meet the mission of the Survey.

The managers endorse the concept that the Department of the Interior, as primary steward of the Nation's public lands, is the appropriate agency to manage the Landsat program in partnership with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. As such the managers have provided an additional $3,400,000 for Landsat 7 operations.

With respect to USGS at-cost pricing of Landsat 7 products, as called for by the Land Remote Sensing Policy Act of 1992, the managers realize that this creates a perception of competition with private sector operators of remote-sensing satellites. Therefore, the managers are pleased to learn that the Survey has taken steps at the highest levels to improve communication with the private sector and to work toward mutually beneficial partnerships wherever feasible. The managers urge the Survey to increase and sustain such efforts.

MINERALS MANAGEMENT SERVICE

ROYALTY AND OFFSHORE MINERALS MANAGEMENT

The conference agreement provides $133,410,000 for royalty and offshore minerals management instead of $127,200,000 as proposed by the House and $134,010,000 as proposed by the Senate. The total amount available for this account is $240,820,000, which includes $107,410,000 in offsetting receipts, which offset partially the 2001 funding requirements for the royalty and offshore minerals management program.

Changes to the House include an increase of $6,620,000 for uncontrollable costs. In addition, the managers have agreed to an increase in offsetting receipts of $410,000 as proposed by the Senate.

The managers have modified language proposed by the House for the continuation of the royalty-in-kind pilot programs. The modification allows the Service to pay transportation not only to wholesale market centers but also to upstream pooling points.

The managers have again provided $1,400,000 to the Offshore Technology Research Center (OTRC) for research in support of the Bureau's offshore minerals program. The managers expect the full amount to be spent on the OTRC in College Station, TX. The managers note that this research effort is to be a cooperative one in which OTRC and MMS work together to develop projects that meet the Bureau's critical research needs, and the new technical, safety, and environmental challenges the nation faces as offshore drilling moves into deeper water. As such, OTRC is expected to work closely with MMS to develop an appropriate list of projects that meet the Bureau's critical research needs.

Within the funds provided for royalty and offshore minerals management, the managers have included $600,000 for the Center for Marine Resources and Environmental Technology.

OIL SPILL RESEARCH

The conference agreement provides $6,118,000 for oil spill research as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

OFFICE OF SURFACE MINING RECLAMATION AND ENFORCEMENT

REGULATION AND TECHNOLOGY

The conference agreement provides $100,801,000 for regulation and technology as proposed by the Senate instead of $97,478,000 as proposed by the House. Funding for the activities should follow the Senate recommendation. An additional $275,000 is estimated to be available for use from performance bond forfeitures.

ABANDONED MINE RECLAMATION FUND

The conference agreement provides $202,438,000 for the abandoned mine reclamation fund instead of $197,873,000 as proposed by the House and $201,438,000 as proposed by the Senate. Funding for technology development, financial management and executive direction should follow the Senate recommended levels. The managers have also included the Senate recommended funding level for the Appalachian Clean Streams Initiative which increases the cap to $10,000,000. The managers have also included the Senate proposed bill language for minimum program States and bill language included in previous years dealing with certain aspects of the State of Maryland program. The conference agreement does not provide the Senate recommended funding in this appropriation for a reforestation demonstration in Kentucky although funding for this activity is included in the Forest Service, State and Private forestry appropriation. The managers have also provided separate funding for the House recommended program on priority abandoned mine reclamation and acid mine remediation in the anthracite region of Pennsylvania in the Title I general provisions.

BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

OPERATION OF INDIAN PROGRAMS

The conference agreement provides $1,741,212,000 for the operation of Indian programs instead of $1,657,446,000 as proposed by the House and $1,704,620,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Increases above the House for tribal priority allocations include $11,175,000 for uncontrollable costs, $5,000,000 for the Indian self determination fund, $11,000,000 for the housing improvement program $1,600,000 for general trust revenues, $2,571,000 for real estate services, and $1,089,000 for real estate appraisals.

Increases above the House for other recurring programs include $10,910,000 for uncontrollable costs, $3,575,000 for the FACE program, $2,925,000 for the model, therapeutic residential $1,000,000 for administrative cost grants, $500,000 for Alaska subsistence, $176,000 for the Reindeer Herders Association, and $1,891,000 for the tribally controlled community colleges.

Increases above the above the House for non recurring programs include $555,000 for uncontrollable costs, $2,300,000 for real estates services, $1,000,000 for a distance learning, telemedicine, fiber optic pilot program in Montana, $146,000 for Alaska legal services, $200,000 for forest inventory for the Uintah and Ouray tribes, and $300,000 for a tribal guiding program in Alaska.

Increases above the House for central office operations include $727,000 for uncontrollable costs and $500,000 for trust services.

Increases above the House for regional office operations include $899,000 for uncontrollable costs $1,400,000 for general trust services, $2,500,000 for real estate services, $1,040,000 for land title records, $1,000,000 for land record improvements, and $500,000 for general trust services.

Increases above the House for special programs and pooled overhead include $7,637,000 for uncontrollable costs, $9,000,000 for the law enforcement initiative, and $650,000 for the Crownpoint Institute.

The managers continue to support the Tribally Controlled Community Colleges (TCCC) and the technical schools of United Tribes Technical College (UTTC) and the Crownpoint Institute of Technology (CIT). To understand better how the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations can further assist the TCCCs and technical schools, the managers direct the TCCCs, UTTC, and CIT to provide a report that describes the programs and services of each institution. The report will also include all sources of funding that support each institution's operations and facilities, and the amount of funding by source for the school's most recent fiscal year, the past fiscal year, and any proposed program expansion or changes in operations for the budget year. This report should be submitted to the Bureau of Indian Affairs by December 31st each year. The Bureau is directed to provide a consolidated summary of the reports in conjunction with its annual budget submission to the Congress.

The managers have provided $1,000,000 for the distance learning project on the Crow, Fort Peck, and Northern Cheyenne reservations. These funds are for a fiber optic system to benefit these communities in a broad array of areas from health care to education and will eventually provide many new opportunities for reservation residents. The Rocky Mountain Technology Foundation will oversee the expenditure of these funds and is expected to provide a cost share to the project using in-kind or monetary donations from private and public sources. The Foundation is directed to provide an annual report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations through the Bureau of Indian Affairs. The report will describe the complete proposal for this Distance Learning Project, its relationship to other similar projects, and what has been accomplished to date with these funds.

The managers have been informed that severe seepage may occur when the Shoshone and Arapaho tribes complete the first fill protocols on the reservation's newly renovated Washaki Dam next spring. The managers direct the Bureau to assess the condition of the dam by February 1, 2001, and determine whether funds are needed to pro-actively address the situation. If it is determined that funds are needed, the Bureau should submit a reprogramming request if funds are available.

A number of concerns have been raised concerning whether tribes have been complying with the Single Audit Act. To address this potentially serious issue, the managers direct the Department to report back to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations detailing to what extent tribes in the lower 48 States, as well as those tribes in Alaska, have been in compliance with the requirements of this Act. If it is found that the tribes are not conforming with these audit requirements, the Secretary shall provide recommendations to the Committees that could be put in place to ensure that tribes comply with the Single Audit Act.

The managers have restored funding for the housing improvement program as proposed by the Senate. The managers direct the Bureau to maintain the current distribution of funds between repair and rehabilitation and construction of new housing stock.

CONSTRUCTION

The conference agreement provides $357,404,000 for construction instead of $184,404,000 as proposed by the House and $341,004,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Increases above the House for education construction include $395,000 for uncontrollable costs, $79,690,000 for replacement school construction, $7,000,000 for a new tribal school construction demonstration program as discussed below, $5,000,000 for advance planning and design, $593,000 for employee housing, and $80,109,000 for facilities improvement and repair.

Changes to the House for public safety and justice include an increase of $4,000 for uncontrollable costs.

Changes to the House for resources management include an increase of $72,000 for uncontrollable costs.

Changes to the House for general administration include an increase of $137,000 for uncontrollable costs.

The Administration's request for replacement school construction assumed full funding for all school replacement construction projects in the budget year based on guidance from the Office of Management and Budget. The managers note that the Lummi Tribal school was short funded by $8,400,000 in the President's budget. The managers have corrected this error. The conference agreement provides full funding for the next six schools on the BIA priority list.

As mentioned above, the managers provide an additional $7,000,000 to establish a new tribal school construction demonstration program. This new program will allow tribes to cost share 50 percent of the cost for replacement schools. Under this new demonstration program the Secretary is directed to give priority consideration to those tribes that are on the BIA priority list for construction of a replacement school.

INDIAN LAND AND WATER CLAIM SETTLEMENTS AND MISCELLANEOUS PAYMENTS TO INDIANS

The conference agreement provides $37,526,000 for Indian land and water claim settlements and miscellaneous payments to Indians instead of $34,026,000 as proposed by the House and $35,276,000 as proposed by the Senate.

Increases above the House include $1,250,000 for Aleutian Pribilof church repairs, which completes this program as authorized, $50,000 for Walker River (Weber Dam), $200,000 for Pyramid Lake and $2,000,000 for the Great Lakes Fishing Settlement.

The managers understand that an agreement has finally been reached between the tribes, the State of Michigan and the Federal government in United States v. Michigan, Case No. 2:73 CV 26. Pursuant to the consent agreement entered by the Court in this case, the managers provide $2,000,000 as part of the Federal government's obligation. The managers direct the Bureau to include the Great Lakes Fisheries settlement agreement in its fiscal year 2002 budget request. The managers intend to address the remaining Federal government obligations under the consent agreement in the fiscal year 2002 appropriation.

INDIAN GUARANTEED LOAN PROGRAM ACCOUNT

The conference agreement provides $4,988,000 for the Indian guaranteed loan program account as proposed by the Senate instead of $4,985,000 as proposed by the House.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

The managers have agreed to a technical change in language relating to charter schools as proposed by the Senate.

DEPARTMENTAL OFFICES

INSULAR AFFAIRS

ASSISTANCE TO TERRITORIES

The conference agreement provides $75,471,000 for assistance to territories, instead of $69,471,000 proposed by the House and $68,471,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers have agreed to follow the funding levels proposed by the House for the activities except additional funds which have been provided for compact input in the technical assistance activity. The managers have also included bill language recommended by the House directing a $300,000 payment to the Virgin Islands for disaster assistance loans and $700,000 for the Prior Service Benefits Fund. The managers direct that funding for the Close-Up Foundation activities should be maintained at least at the fiscal year 1999 level. The managers have added compact impact assistance funding of $5,000,000 for Guam and $1,000,000 for the Commonwealth of the Northern Marian Islands.

In fiscal year 1999, language was included in the conference agreement concerning the withholding of American Samoa construction funds in the amount of $2,000,000. These funds were to be withheld until issues associated with unpaid island medical bills were resolved. The managers understand that the American Samoa government has taken significant steps to address this problem and, therefore, direct the Department to release these funds.

COMPACT OF FREE ASSOCIATION

The conference agreement provides $20,745,000 for the Compact of Free Association as proposed by the House instead of $20,545,000 as proposed by the Senate.

DEPARTMENTAL MANAGEMENT

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $64,319,000 for salaries and expenses for departmental management, instead of $62,406,000 as proposed by the House and $64,019,000 as proposed by the Senate. Funds should be distributed as follows:

Departmental direction	$12,241,000
Management and coordination	23,798,000
Hearings and appeals	8,288,000
Central services	19,104,000
Bureau of Mines workers compensation/unemployment	888,000
Total	$64,319,000

Language is included in the bill directing that funds be provided to Alaska Pacific University for development of an ANILCA training curriculum as described in section 347 of the Senate bill. Within the total for Departmental direction, $300,000 is included to implement this provision.

One of the highest priorities of the Department and the managers has been reducing the backlog of maintenance needs in the Department. Congress and the Department have worked together to institute an aggressive Safe Visits to Public Lands Initiative and thereby improve management and accountability for the Department's infrastructure, and focus maintenance and construction funding on the highest priority health and safety and resource protection needs.

The managers are pleased that the National Park Service has made progress in developing a comprehensive maintenance management system that will provide consistent and reliable maintenance information tools for local staff to carry out day-to-day maintenance of public assets efficiently as well as to provide information to managers and Congress. To that end, the managers have provided the requested funds to continue this initiative.

In addition, the Secretary is directed to work with the Bureau of Land Management, the U.S. Geological Survey, and the Fish and Wildlife Service to evaluate the adoption and implementation of the core system used by NPS. The Managers believe that it is critical that the Department coordinate the development and use of consistent facilities management and condition assessment systems Department-wide.

OFFICE OF THE SOLICITOR

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $40,196,000 for salaries and expenses of the Office of the Solicitor as proposed by the House instead of $39,206,000 as proposed by the Senate. Funds should be distributed as follows:

Legal services	$33,630,000
General administration	6,566,000
Total	40,196,000

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $27,846,000 for salaries and expenses of the Office of Inspector General as proposed by the Senate instead of $26,086,000 as proposed by the House. Funds should be distributed as follows:

Audit	$15,809,000
Investigations	5,566,000
Administration	6,471,000
Total	27,846,000

OFFICE OF SPECIAL TRUSTEE FOR AMERICAN INDIANS

FEDERAL TRUST PROGRAMS

The conference agreement provides $82,628,000 for Federal trust programs as proposed by the Senate instead of $82,428,000 as proposed by the House.

The managers have provided $27,600,000 in emergency appropriations (in title V) to address trust fund reform issues that could not be anticipated prior to the submission of the fiscal year 2001 budget request. These funds will: support work to address the breaches of trust identified in the recent District Court decision; allow the government to begin preparation for the second trial relating to an accounting for Individual Indian Money Accounts (IIM); and address critical trust fund reform shortfalls.

The Department of the Interior has announced its intention to explore the use of sampling as the best, most cost effective approach to provide an accounting for IIM beneficiaries. While the Indian Trust Fund Reform Act contemplated that such an accounting would sometime occur, the managers have been concerned for years about the potential cost and effectiveness of any approach that might be used. After investing $20 million over five years in a tribal account reconciliation process, there has been no resolution of issues surrounding tribal accounts. The cost of a similar accounting for the approximately three hundred thousand IIM account holders could conceivably cost hundreds of millions of dollars.

Therefore while approving the request to begin an IIM sampling approach, the managers direct the Department to develop a detailed plan for the sampling methodology it adopts, its costs and benefits, and the degree of confidence that can be placed on the likely results. This plan must be provided to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations prior to commencing a full sampling project. Finally, the determination of the use of funds for sampling or any other approach for reconciling a historical IIM accounting must be done within the limits of funds made available by the Congress for such purposes.

Ultimately, the managers believe that resolution of the long standing issues of the performance of the Department of the Interior's management of Indian trusts is best worked out through a negotiation and settlement process, and not by spending millions of dollars for accountants to reconcile relatively small sums of funds over decades. If the sampling approach provides a reasonable basis for settlement of these claims or can provide a basis for a greater level of confidence on the part of beneficiaries about the past, this investment will be useful. Given the tremendous needs in Indian country for public services from education to health care, the managers will be extremely judicious in allocating funds for an historical accounting or sampling study.

INDIAN LAND CONSOLIDATION

The conference agreement provides $9,000,000 for Indian land consolidation programs instead of $5,000,000 as proposed by the House and $10,000,000 as proposed by the Senate.

NATURAL RESOURCE DAMAGE ASSESSMENT AND RESTORATION

NATURAL RESOURCE DAMAGE ASSESSMENT FUND

The conference agreement provides $5,403,000 for the natural resource damage assessment fund as proposed by the Senate instead of $5,374,000 as proposed by the House.

GENERAL PROVISIONS, DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

The conference agreement includes sections 101 through 112 and section 117 which were identical in both the House and the Senate bills. These sections continue provisions carried in past years.

Section 113 retains the text of section 113 as proposed by the House which makes permanent a provision permitting the retention of rebates from credit card services for deposit to the Department Working Capital Fund. Section 113 proposed by the Senate continued the provision carried last year providing the exemption for one year.

Section 114 modifies the text of section 114 as proposed by both the House and the Senate to make a technical correction for funds transfer authority.

Section 115 retains the text of section 115 as proposed by the House which makes permanent a provision permitting the retention of proceeds from agreements and leases at Fort Baker, Golden Gate National Recreation Area. Section 115 proposed by the Senate continued the provision carried last year providing the exemption for one year.

Section 116 retains the language included in last year's Interior Appropriations Act regarding grazing permit extensions as proposed by the Senate. The House had identical language with the exception of the use of the word ''may'' in the House bill versus ''shall'' in the Senate bill.

Section 118 retains the text of section 118 as proposed by the House which permits the redistribution of Tribal Priority Allocation and tribal base funds to alleviate funding inequities. The Senate had no similar provision.

Section 119 retains the text of section 119 as proposed by the House which requires a written certification of consistency from the Corps of Engineers prior to establishment of a Kankakee National Wildlife Refuge in Indiana and Illinois. This language is identical to that included in last year's Interior Appropriations Act. The Senate language on this issue required submission of a plan consistent with an April 16, 1999 partnership agreement between the Service and the Corps prior to refuge establishment.

Section 120 retains the text of section 120 as proposed by the House which renames the Great Marsh Trail at the Mason Neck National Wildlife Refuge in Virginia the ''Joseph V. Gartlan, Jr. Great Marsh Trail.'' The Senate had no similar provision.

Section 121 retains the text of section 121 as proposed by the House and section 124 as proposed by the Senate which continues a provision carried last year requiring the allocation of Bureau of Indian Affairs postsecondary schools funds consistent with unmet needs.

Section 122 modifies the text of section 118 as proposed by the Senate which prohibits distribution of Tribal Priority Allocation (TPA) funds to tribes in the State of Alaska with memberships of less than 25 individuals living in the village and provides for the redistribution of funds that would have been provided to such tribes. The modification adds the requirement that at least 25 members reside in the service area of any tribe which remains eligible to receive TPA funding directly.

Section 123 retains the text of section 120 as proposed by the Senate which continues a provision carried last year protecting lands at Huron Cemetery in Kansas for religious and cultural uses and as a burial ground. The House had no similar provision.

Section 124 retains the text of section 121 as proposed by the Senate which continues a provision carried last year prohibiting the use of funds to transfer land into trust status for the Shoalwater Bay Indian Tribe in Clark County, Washington, until the tribe and the county reach agreement on development issues. The House had no similar provision.

Section 125 retains the text of section 122 as proposed by the Senate, which continues a provision from last year's Interior Appropriations Act with regard to two provisions in Secretarial Order 3206 regarding Indian tribes and the Endangered Species Act. The House had no similar provision.

Section 126 retains the text of section 123 as proposed by the Senate which continues a provision carried last year prohibiting studies or implementation of a plan to drain Lake Powell in Arizona and Utah. The House had no similar provision.

Section 127 retains the text of section 126 as proposed by the Senate which permits the Secretary of the Interior to retain and use land and other forms of reimbursement associated with the previously authorized conveyance of the Twin Cities Research Center for the benefit of the National Wildlife Refuge System in Minnesota. The House had no similar provision. This is a repetition of language included in last year's Interior Appropriations Act.

Section 128 retains the text of section 127 as proposed by the Senate which protects historic rights associated with pre-ANILCA entry permits. The House had no similar provision.

Section 129 retains the text of section 128 as proposed by the Senate which designates Anchorage, Alaska, as a port of entry for purposes of the Endangered Species Act. The House had no similar provision. Funding for operation of this port of entry is included under the Fish and Wildlife Service resource management account.

Section 130 retains the text of section 129 as proposed by the Senate which adjusts the boundaries of Sitka National Historic Park in Alaska. The House had no similar provision.

Section 131 makes technical changes to language proposed by the Senate in section 130 regarding the treatment of proceeds from certain lease sales in the National Petroleum Reserve-Alaska. The House had no similar provision.

Section 132 retains the text of section 131 as proposed by the Senate which conveys land in Alaska to Harvey R. Redmond. The House had no similar provision.

Section 133 modifies the text of section 132 as proposed by the Senate, which clarifies the terms and conditions of a land conveyance to Nye County, Nevada, which was authorized in the FY 2000 Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations Act. This section allows the County, notwithstanding any provision of the Recreation and Public Purposes Act, to lease the land to a non-profit organization, so that the organization could then construct, own, and operate the Nevada Science and Technology Center. The County would retain title to the conveyed lands and the organization would own the facilities, but could only build facilities for public, non-commercial purposes. In effect, the lands would still be used for a public function, consistent with the purposes of the Recreation and Public Purposes Act, but the County would be contracting this function out to the non-profit organization.

Section 134 modifies the text of section 133 as proposed by the Senate which requires a land exchange regarding the Mississippi River Wildlife and Fish Refuge. The House had no similar provision. The modification extends the time period by 60 days and specifies that the area in question is a 150 foot wide strip.

Section 135 retains the text of section 134 as proposed by the Senate which expresses the sense of the Senate regarding repayment of Indian judgment claims. The House had no similar provision.

Section 136 provides authority for the Fish and Wildlife Service to charge fees including, as appropriate, fees to foreign countries for forensics services provided by the National Fish and Wildlife Forensics Laboratory in Oregon. These fees are to be retained for operational expenses of the lab.

Section 137 adjusts the boundaries of the Argus Wilderness Area in California.

Section 138 authorizes a land exchange in Washington between the Fish and Wildlife Service and the Othello Housing Authority.

Section 139 continues a provision carried last year providing contract authority regarding transportation at Zion National Park in Utah.

Section 140 authorizes the National Park Service to enter into a cooperative agreement with the Golden Gate National Parks Association to provide fee-based education, interpretive and visitor service functions within the Crissy Field and Fort Point areas of the Presidio.

Section 141 names the visitor's center and administrative building at the Chincoteague National Wildlife Refuge in Virginia the ''Herbert H. Bateman Educational and Administrative Center''.

Section 142 allows the Bureau of Land Management to retain revenues derived from the sale of surplus seedlings.

Section 143 makes a technical change to P.L. 105–83 to allow the completion of construction of the Cibecue Community School in Arizona.

Section 144 clarifies title conveyances of land transfers related to abandoned railroad rights-of-way in Valley City, ND.

Section 145 authorizes the establishment of the First Ladies National Historic Site in Canton, Ohio, to provide unique opportunities for education and study into the impact of first ladies on our nation's history.

Section 146 authorizes the establishment of an interpretive center in Springfield, Illinois, to preserve and make available to the public materials related to the life of President Abraham Lincoln.

Section 147 authorizes the Palace of the Governors in New Mexico.

Section 148 authorizes the Southwestern Pennsylvania Heritage Preservation Commission, which provides the region with the ability to tell its nationally significant stories to a broad audience.

Section 149 renames the Cuyahoga Valley National Recreation Area in Ohio the Cuyahoga Valley National Park.

Section 150 authorizes the establishment of the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center in Cincinnati, Ohio, that will house an interpretive center, museum, educational and research facilities all dedicated to communicating the importance of the quest for human freedom which provided the foundation of the Underground Railroad.

Section 151 provides for priority abandoned mine reclamation and acid mine remediation activities. Funding of $12,000,000 is provided to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for its large backlog in the anthracite region. Projects should use the standard cost-sharing mechanisms of the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977, as amended. These funds are derived from the portion of AML fees allocated to the RAMP program and will not affect other normal State allocations for abandoned mine reclamation. The provision also provides $600,000 to continue a priority demonstration project in Pennsylvania to determine the efficacy of improving water quality by removing metals from waters polluted by acid mine drainage.

Section 152 provides for the use of previously appropriated funds for the Nisqually Indian Tribe to acquire land for the Nisqually NWR, WA, and to manage those lands for refuge purposes.

Section 153 establishes a cost-shared tribal school construction program. This item is discussed in more detail under the Bureau of Indian Affairs construction account.

Section 154 permits the sale of improvements and equipment at the White River Oil Shale Mine in Utah, and the retention and use of those funds by the Bureau of Land Management and the General Services Administration.

Section 155 names the Blue Ridge Parkway headquarters building the ''Gary E. Everhardt Headquarters Building''.

Section 156 allows the Bureau of Land Management to promulgate new hardrock mining regulations that are not inconsistent with the National Research Council Report entitled ''Hardrock Mining on Federal Lands.'' This provision reinstates a requirement that was included in Public Law 106–113. In that Act, Congress authorized changes to the hardrock mining regulations that are ''not inconsistent with'' the Report. The statutory requirement was based on a consensus reached among Committee Members and the Administration. On December 8, 1999, the Interior Solicitor wrote an opinion concluding that this requirement applies only to a few lines of the Report, and that it imposes no significant restrictions on the Bureau's rulemaking authority. The Committee does not agree with the solicitor's opinion, and does not intend the language in this section to constitute any ratification of or agreement with that opinion.

Section 157 authorizes the Wheeling National Heritage Area in West Virginia.

The conference agreement does not include language proposed by the House in section 122 regarding National Park Service construction in Florida and in section 123 regarding limitations in Title III general provisions, and by the Senate in section 125 regarding Caspian Tern nesting at Rice Island. The managers however, note that they agree with the House and Senate report language regarding Caspian terns.

TITLE II—RELATED AGENCIES

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

FOREST SERVICE

FOREST AND RANGELAND RESEARCH

The conference agreement provides $229,616,000 for forest and rangeland research instead of $224,966,000 as proposed by the House or $221,966,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers have agreed to the Senate proposal to direct $1,400,000 to the Northeast ecosystem research cooperative program and $250,000 to the University of Washington silviculture effort at the Olympic Natural Resource Center. The managers have also agreed with Senate direction concerning funding levels for the wood utilization laboratory in Sitka, AK, and for operations of the Forest Research Laboratories located in Princeton, Parsons, and Morgantown, WV, and funds for the CROP study on the Colville National Forest, WA. The managers have provided funding for the U.S. Geological Survey to study hydrological and biological impacts of lead and zinc mining on the Mark Twain National Forest, MO, rather than the Forest Service as was proposed by the Senate. The managers have not agreed to the Senate proposals to reduce funding for fixed costs or for a general program reduction. The managers have included $3,000,000 in funding for small diameter tree and low-value resource research. The managers would support the Forest Service looking for other additional funding for this latter effort. The managers have not agreed to the Senate proposal to increase funding in this account for the Forest Inventory and Analysis program; however the managers have agreed to the House proposal to provide $5,000,000 in new funding for this program within the State and private forestry program. The managers expect that given the additional money provided in the State and private forestry account on a matching basis the research program will attempt to adjust, to the extent practicable, its funding allocations to address the needs of States which are unable to meet this matching requirement. The managers direct the Forest Service to provide total operational funding of $750,000 to the Rapid City, SD, lab; the funds and the funding increase above the fiscal year 2000 level should come out of the national allocation and should be used to hire a range scientist to work on invasive plants and other range ecology and management issues. The conference agreement does not include a special allocation recommended by the Senate for small diameter research at the Princeton, WV, lab nor are new funds provided for the Northern Forest Research Cooperative, although the managers would support both of these efforts if additional funding became available. The managers direct the Forest Service to provide $502,000 in appropriated funds for the Wind River canopy crane, WA.

STATE AND PRIVATE FORESTRY

The conference agreement provides $250,955,000 for State and private forestry instead of $197,337,000 as proposed by the House and $226,266,000 as proposed by the Senate. These funds include $12,500,000 as contingent emergency funds for priority pest management on Federal, State and private lands. These funds were not included in the House or Senate bills, nor in the Administration request. These funds should assist efforts to combat a variety of pests, including southern pine beetle, gypsy moth, bark beetle, Douglas-fir tussock moth, and several fungal pests.

The agreement provides non-emergency funding of $41,383,000 for Federal lands forest health management and $22,561,000 for cooperative lands forest health management. The managers have agreed to the House proposal on Asian long-horn beetle work in urban areas and the Senate proposal for the Vermont forest cooperative. The managers direct the Forest Service to keep the insect and disease maps up-to-date and publicly available, such as on the agency web-site, and submit them to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations annually.

The conference agreement includes $25,000,000 for State fire assistance as recommended by the House. Additional priority emergency funds for State and volunteer assistance are included in title IV. The managers have agreed to redirect the Senate proposal for Kenai Peninsula Borough, AK, assistance to the emergency wildfire management provisions included in title IV. The managers have not included the Senate proposal for a special allocation for Kentucky though the additional funds provided in title IV may assist these needs. The conference agreement includes $5,000,000 for volunteer fire assistance as recommended by both the House and the Senate; this is more than double the administration request. The managers do not agree to the Senate report language concerning volunteer fire assistance allocations and fuel loads.

The conference agreement includes $32,854,000 for forest stewardship instead of $31,454,000 as proposed by the House and $30,454,000 as proposed by the Senate. This funding includes the House proposed funding for the New York City watershed and the Senate proposed funding for Utah technical education and State of Washington stewardship activities. The managers have also added an additional $750,000 for an update of the cooperative study on the New York-New Jersey highlands area.

The conference agreement includes $30,000,000 for the forest legacy program as proposed by the Senate instead of $10,000,000 proposed by the House. The managers agree to the Senate proposal of directing $1,400,000 to the Ossippee Mountain conservation, easement NH, and also to direct no less than $2,000,000 to the Great Mountain, CT, easement, and no less than $2,000,000 for the West Branch, ME, project. The managers also acknowledge the importance of forest protection in South Carolina and encourage the Forest Service to work with the appropriate State agencies to ensure continuation of these much needed protections.

The conference agreement includes $31,721,000 for the urban and community forestry program instead of $31,521,000 proposed by the House and $31,021,000 proposed by the Senate. The managers agree to the House proposal for the NE Pennsylvania forestry program and the Senate proposal for the Chicago, IL, wilderness program. In addition, the managers agree to provide $500,000 for cooperative activities in Forest Park in St. Louis, MO, and to a general reduction below the House proposed level of $1,000,000. The managers do not agree to the Senate direction concerning the funding allocation process or State funding limits for the urban and community forestry program. The managers have modified bill language proposed by the House concerning the urban resources partnership. The conference agreement maintains a one-year moratorium on funding this program, but the managers encourage funding of inner-city activities through the normal urban and forestry competitive grants program. The managers await communication from the Inspector General's office regarding any progress in this area and hope that the Forest Service can rectify the many concerns published by the Inspector General.

The conference agreement includes the following distribution of funds for the economic action programs:

The conference agreement provides $250,000 in a direct lump sum payment for the United Fisherman of Alaska to implement an educational program to deal with subsistence management and other fisheries issues; these funds may not be used for any lobbying activities affecting Federal or State regulations or legislation. While the managers have fully funded the base operating budget for the Wood Education and Resource Center, the managers encourage the Center's efforts to generate income and hope that such income can be used to offset operating expenses in the near future. The managers have also included $5,000,000 to assist a land transfer for Kake, AK; these funds are contingent upon an authorization bill being enacted. The conference agreement also includes $2,000,000 to cost-share kiln-drying facilities in southeast and south-central Alaska. The managers expect that the funds provided for reforestation on abandoned mine lands in Kentucky are to be matched with funds provided in this bill to the Department of Energy for carbon sequestration research, as well as other non-federal funds.

The conference agreement includes $9,600,000 for Pacific Northwest Assistance instead of $6,822,000 proposed by the House and $9,880,000 proposed by the Senate. This funding includes Senate-proposed allocations of $900,000 for the University of Washington and Washington State University extension forestry effort and $1,878,000 for Columbia River Gorge economic development in the States of Washington and Oregon. The agreement does not include funding proposed by the Senate concerning payments for counties in the Columbia River Gorge because the managers understand that there are significant unobligated balances available for this purpose which are more than enough to meet the needs for this fiscal year. The managers expect to be informed if additional funds are necessary.

The conference agreement includes $5,000,000 for forest resource information and analysis as proposed by the House; the Senate had no similar provision. This funding should aid the forest inventory and analysis program as directed by the House by enhancing cooperation with the States. The conference agreement also includes $5,000,000 for the International program as proposed by the Senate instead of $4,500,000 proposed by the House.

NATIONAL FOREST SYSTEM

The conference agreement provides $1,280,693,000 for the National forest system instead of $1,207,545,000 as proposed by the House and $1,232,814,000 as proposed by the Senate. Funds should be distributed as follows:

Land Management Planning	$68,907,000
Inventory and Monitoring	163,852,000
Vegetation & watershed management	182,034,000
Wildlife & Fish habitat Management	129,028,000
Recreation, Heritage & wilderness	230,270,000
Forest Products	255,844,000
Grazing Management	33,856,000
Landownership Management	86,609,000
Minerals and Geology Management	47,945,000
Law Enforcement Operations	74,358,000
Quincy Library Group, CA	2,000,000
Valles Caldera, NM operations	990,000
Tongass timber pipeline, AK	5,000,000
Total	1,280,693,000

The managers have modified language contained in the Senate report regarding limiting the size of the land management planning and inventory and monitoring expenditures in the Washington Office as well as language specific to the Natural Resource Information System. The managers concur that funds used for National Commitments and other headquarters expenditures are excessive. The managers expect priority for funding allocations in these budget line items to emphasize field efforts to revise, maintain, and amend forest plans and for conducting appropriate inventory and monitoring activities at the field level in order to assure multiple use management on national forest lands. Technology investments that support these activities should be pursued over a timeframe that minimizes impacts on accomplishing field level work. The managers note the potential benefits of the Natural Resource Information system and encourage its continued development and implementation. The managers expect a thorough agency review to assure this system is consistent with strategic objectives. This review should assess the effectiveness of implementation that results in efficient management of information through the use of standardized methods of collecting and using data to evaluate natural resource conditions on National Forest System lands.

The conference agreement includes the following congressional priorities in the vegetation and watershed management activity: $300,000 for the CROP project on the Colville NF, WA; $1,000,000 for acid mine clean-up on the Wayne NF, OH; $360,000 for the Rubio Canyon waterline analysis on the Angeles NF, CA; $1,500,000 increase for aquatic restoration in Washington and Oregon; $1,250,000 increase for Lake Tahoe watershed protection; and $300,000 for invasive weed programs on the Okanogan NF and other eastern Washington national forests with no more than five percent of these funds to be assessed as indirect costs. The wildlife and fisheries habitat funding includes $200,000 proposed by the Senate for the Batten Kill River, VT, project; the Alaska State payment proposed by the Senate is not funded and the funding for the Little Applegate project, OR is included in the State and private forestry account. The recreation, heritage and wilderness activity includes: $700,000 for operations of the Continental Divide trail; $100,000 for the Monongahela Institute effort at Seneca Rocks, WV; $120,000 for the Monongahela NF, Cheat Mountain assessment, WV; $100,000 for cooperative recreational site planning on the Wayne NF, OH; $100,000 for cooperative efforts regarding radios for use at Tuckerman's Ravine on the White Mountain NF, NH; and $68,000 for the Talimena scenic byway which the Senate had included in the vegetation management activity. The managers direct the Forest Service to conduct a feasibility study on constructing a recreational lake on the Bienville NF in Smith County, MS. The managers agree to the House report direction concerning national scenic and historic trails and Region 5 grazing monitoring. The managers do not agree to the Senate report direction concerning allocation of funds for the Washington office and national commitments in the inventory and monitoring activity or the land management planning activity. The forest products activity includes $700,000 proposed by the Senate for the State of Alaska to monitor log transfer facilities as well as the $790,000 proposed by the Senate for forestry treatments on the Apache-Sitgreaves NF, AZ. The House proposal for $250,000 for a Pacific Crest trail lands team is funded. The managers have added $500,000 to the law enforcement activity for the special needs caused by methamphetamine dumps and $500,000 for special needs on the Pisgah and Nantahala NFs. The conference agreement also includes additional funds for Senate proposals of $2,000,000 for the Quincy Library Group project, CA, $5,000,000 for Tongass NF, AK, timber pipeline, and $990,000 for Valles Caldera, NM, management.

The managers have provided $255,844,000, an increase of $10,700,000 above the House and $10,000,000 above the Senate for the forest products activity. The total funds provided for the timber sales program in combination with the increase provided for engineering support within the capital improvement and maintenance appropriation should be more than sufficient to attain the 3.6 billion board foot offer level using the agency's own unit cost estimates. Accordingly, the managers urge the agency to offer no less than 3.6 billion board feet for sale in fiscal year 2001. The conference agreement does not include bill language proposed by the Senate concerning mandatory reprogramming of funds to attain the Congressionally directed sale offer level.

The managers have included an additional $500,000 in the minerals and geology management activity to support necessary administrative duties related to the Kensington Mine in southeast Alaska, including completion of a supplemental environmental impact statement.

The managers are generally pleased with the Land Between the Lakes National Recreation Area management transition from the Tennessee Valley Authority to the Forest Service. The managers direct the administration to use the environmental education trust fund established in the authorization of this area strictly for the authorized purposes and not for general operations of the NRA.

WILDLAND FIRE MANAGEMENT

The conference agreement provides $1,265,129,000 for wildland fire management instead of $618,343,000 as proposed by the House and $767,629,000 as proposed by the Senate. The managers note that this funding total includes $426,000,000 in contingent emergency appropriations which will repay previously advanced sums as well as establish an available contingency fund for future emergencies. This emergency contingency funding includes the $150,000,000 in the Senate passed bill as well as $276,000,000 recommended in the Administration's wildfire report. The managers have also addressed other priority wildfire needs in title IV where an additional $619,274,000 for the Forest Service is provided for a variety of emergency needs. The managers have not included additional funds above the request for acquisition of a high band radio system at the Monogahela NF, WV, as proposed by the Senate because funds for this project were included in the request.

The following discussion includes instructions pertaining both to the title II funds as well the Title IV funds provided for the Forest Service.

The managers recognize that the severity of the 2000 fire season is attributable to a combination of unusual weather conditions and accumulated wildland fuels that overwhelmed available Federal agency resources. To prepare better for fires in 2001 and beyond, the managers propose significant improvements to preparedness, fuels treatments, and other aspects of fire management. The managers expect the agencies to work closely with States and local communities to maximize benefits to the environment and to local communities.

The conference agreement has responded to special needs and the Administration's recent wildfire report with additional funding here and in title IV for additional emergency funds. The conference agreement includes funding for all of the Administration's supplemental request as well as strategic enhancements for certain priority activities. Overall, for the Forest Service, the managers provide $1,884,403,000 to fund: repayment of previously advanced funds, additional wildfire suppression activities; the agency's revised calculation for normal year readiness; certain one-time improvements to preparedness capability; an expanded fuels treatment program that places primary emphasis on community protection; stabilization, rehabilitation, and restoration of burned areas; assistance to State and local governments for enhanced protection of communities; control and eradication of invasive species; development of new technologies and businesses to economically harvest small diameter forest products; and community assistance programs that may be used to develop local capability and homeowner education. The managers have funded $1,045,274,000 as ''emergency'', including $426,000,000 in title II to ensure that adequate funds are immediately available if needed to fund suppression activities in fiscal year 2001, and to repay funds borrowed from agency trust funds during the fiscal year 2000 season. The remaining $619,274,000 in emergency funding is included in title IV for a variety of items needed to protect lands and communities.

The managers strongly believe this FY 2001 funding will only be of value in increasing the Nation's firefighting capability and ability to protect communities if it is sustained in future years. Accordingly, the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations expect that the fiscal year 2002 budget request will continue initiatives begun under this appropriation that ensure a significant commitment to these programs. The managers also direct the Departments of the Interior and Agriculture to continue to work together to formulate complementary budget requests that reflect the same principles and budget organization. In addition, the managers expect the agencies to seek the advice of governors, and local and tribal government representatives in setting priorities for fuels treatments, burned area rehabilitation, and public outreach and education.

FIRE PREPAREDNESS

For fire preparedness, the managers provide $612,490,000, $208,147,000 above the initial request and $204,147,000 above the House passed level. This funding includes $574,890,000 to enhance wildfire readiness by attaining a most efficient level of 100 percent, $4,000,000 for joint fire sciences, $12,000,000 for the development of new systems and technology, and $17,000,000 to restructure the agency workforce to respond better to future fire preparedness, operations, and suppression needs. In addition, $600,000 is provided for cooperative research and technology development between Federal fire research and fire management agencies and the University of Montana National Center for Landscape Fire Analysis. These activities should be funded through normal Joint Fire Science Program peer review procedures and focus on developing remote sensing and other landscape scale applications for fire management in areas of fuel mapping, fire and smoke monitoring, and fire modeling and prediction in order to support and enhance existing efforts in these areas by the Forest Service, Department of the Interior, National Aeronautics and Space Administration, universities, and other agency researchers and collaborators.

The managers understand that the increased scope and intensity of the 1999 and 2000 fire seasons, as well as the increased frequency and severity of fires over the preceding decade, have led Federal fire managers to reassess the assumptions underlying an average fire season. Variables, addressed in the Administration's Report on Managing Impacts of Wildfires on Communities and the Environment, including changing assumptions about fire personnel, deployment strategies, duration of the average fire season, needs for new technologies for rapid response, coordinated response needs with State and local agencies, and other factors, will require a major adjustment in funding strategies for the preparedness program. The managers expect future budget requests for this line item will reflect this new level of agency preparedness.

The managers concur that initial attack capability should be increased to address the number and severity of fires that have burned the landscape over the past few years and have included full funding for approximately: 2,800 additional firefighters, 412 engines, and other resources necessary to achieve a 100 percent most efficient level.

Within the funds provided is $17,000,000 to facilitate restructuring of the agency's firefighting workforce. The managers concur with recommendations for conversion of temporary seasonal employees to permanent seasonal status in order to encourage workforce retention. The managers expect the Departments to devote resources necessary to increase staffing for engines from the current level of five days a week to seven days a week to combat increasingly volatile fire seasons. Additionally the managers support agency plans to increase potentially permanent staffing by approximately 500 to respond to projected retirements and other changes in the workforce.

The managers support an acceleration of research activities and expanded emphasis for the Joint Fire Science Program and have provided an additional $4,000,000, respectively, to the Departments of the Interior and Agriculture to support the recommendations regarding scientific support for fuels treatments and other programs contained in the report to the President. These funds are in addition to the $4,000,000 provided for each agency as part of the Administration's original budget request. The funds provided are to be used for such efforts as increased rapid response projects to assure necessary resources are available for testing and evaluation of post-fire rehabilitation, assessment of post-fire and fire behavior effects, use of aircraft-based remote sensing operations, implementation of protocols for evaluating post-fire stabilization and rehabilitation, and the development of effective means for collecting and disseminating information about treatment techniques. The managers expect the increased funds to be made available to the Joint Fire Science activities of the Departments for the direct benefit of fire management programs, including burned area rehabilitation.

The managers expect the Joint Fire Sciences Governing Board to make a significant portion of the increased funds directly available to the fire management programs of the Agriculture and Interior Departments to fund projects that directly address locally and regionally important science and technology needs associated with fire management and suppression, fuels management, and post-fire rehabilitation. The managers further expect the Departments to assure that these programs are implemented within existing structures with a minimum of new program management or other overhead activities that might reduce the direct benefit of funds provided. The January 1998 Joint Fire Science Plan developed by the two Departments and submitted to the Congress included provisions for a Stakeholder Advisory Group of technical experts from land management organizations, private industry, academia, other Federal agencies, and the public to formulate recommendations for program priorities and advise the Joint Fire Science Program Governing Board. This Group is to be established under the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act. The managers are concerned that nearly three years have passed without establishment of this group. The managers direct the Secretaries to establish the group by December 31, 2000.

In addition to funds provided for the Joint Fire Sciences Program, $12,000,000 is provided for development of systems to support financial and logistic support to fire operations and technologies to support such activities as fire management planning, additional research for measurement, technology transfer, and remote sensing, and funds for improving and validating models for fire weather, fire hazard, behavior, emissions and smoke dispersion.

Fire operations

The conference agreement provides $226,639,000 for fire operations in the normal title II non-emergency program, which is $16,639,000 above the House passed level and $10,610,000 above the original Administration request. This funding includes $141,029,000 for wildfire suppression activities and $85,610,000 for the non-emergency hazardous fuels program. The conference agreement provides for the following Congressional priorities within the hazardous fuels program: $263,000 for Apache-Sitgreaves NF, AZ, urban interface; $1,000,000 for the Quincy Library Group project, CA; $6,947,000 for windstorm damage in Minnesota; $1,500,000 for the Lake Tahoe basin; and $2,400,000 for work on the Giant Sequoia National Monument and Sequoia National Forests. The managers have also provided $426,000,000 in title II as an emergency contingent appropriation for future emergency fire suppression needs and for repayment of funds borrowed from agency trust funds in fiscal year 2000.

The conference agreement also provides $619,274,000 in emergency funds for wildfire operations in title IV for a variety of needs including: $179,000,000 in additional funds to cover annual suppression costs based on the ten-year average; $120,000,000 in additional funds for hazardous fuels reduction; $142,000,000 for rehabilitation and restoration of burned areas; $16,000,000 to support wildfire related research and development; $44,000,000 for immediate reconstruction of severely deficient wildfire facilities; $50,494,000 for State fire assistance to support State and local fire readiness and fuel treatment activities; $8,280,000 in additional funds for priority volunteer fire assistance; $12,000,000 in additional funds for forest health treatments to help control and eradicate invasive species; $12,500,000 in additional funds for priority projects and incentives for economic use of small diameter forest products; and $35,000,000 for community and private land fire assistance.

The funding included in title IV, fire operations for hazardous fuels management activities is $25,000,000 above the level included in the Administration's wildfire report; the total includes $11,500,000 for analysis, monitoring and planning activities. The managers direct that the increased funding provided be dedicated to projects within the wildland-urban interface on Federal lands or adjacent non-Federal lands. These funds are to support activities necessary to reduce the risks and consequences of wildfire, both in and around communities and in wildland areas. Treatment methods include application of prescribed fire, mechanical removal, mulching, and application of chemicals. In many areas a combination of these methods will be necessary over a period of several years to reduce risks and to maintain healthy and viable forests and rangelands. The increased funding included in this appropriation will expand the existing fuels management program to reduce risks to communities and natural resources in high-risk areas. The managers understand that fuels treatment accomplishments have been constrained by lack of funding to conduct planning, assessments, clearances, consultation, and environmental analyses necessary for the land management and regulatory agencies to ensure that fuels treatments are accomplished quickly and in an environmentally sound manner. In conducting treatments, local contract personnel are to be used wherever possible. The managers expect the agency to show planned and actual funding and accomplishments for fuels management activities in future budget requests to Congress. The managers understand that actual amounts may differ from planned levels. The managers expect the agencies to work closely with States and local communities in implementing this program in an effective and efficient manner.

The managers intend that $15 million of the additional funding provided for fuels reduction in title IV be used to carry out and implement the Quincy Library Group plan. This will be in addition to other funding appropriated in title II.

The managers have included $142,000,000 within wildfire operations for rehabilitation and restoration; this is $97,000,000 above the total in the Administration's wildfire report. These funds are needed for priority burned area rehabilitation and restoration to address short term and longer term detrimental consequences of wildfires. The managers are disturbed that the Administration failed to propose sufficient funding for this activity in view of the catastrophic damage which occurred in burned areas. Accordingly, a total of $142,000,000 for restoration activities is provided. The managers note that wildland fires burning at the right times and places, and under the right burning conditions, are beneficial or even essential to the health of forests and rangelands. However, some severe wildfires can trigger a wide array of detrimental impacts, ranging from short-term floods, debris flow, and loss of water quality to longer-term invasion by non-native species and loss of productivity of the land. The increased funding for burned area rehabilitation and restoration is designed to prevent further degradation of resources following wildland fire through (1) short-term stabilization and rehabilitation activities to protect life and property, protect municipal watersheds, and prevent unacceptable degradation of critical natural and cultural resources, and (2) longer-term restoration activities to repair and improve lands unlikely to recover naturally from severe fire damage. The managers direct the agencies to develop a long-term program to manage and supply native plant materials for use in various Federal land management restoration and rehabilitation needs. The managers recommend that the interagency native plant conservation initiative lead this effort.

Long-term monitoring of treatment effectiveness and dissemination of results are essential components of successful restoration in order to develop better treatment plans for future fires. Longer-term projects may include replacement and repair of facilities or reforestation activities if such facilities or reforestation is part of a previously approved land management plan. The managers expect that funding for these activities will be available from this appropriation only concurrent with this emergency situation and in the future will be requested within the agency's existing budget structure. In conducting rehabilitation and restoration activities, local contract personnel should be used wherever possible. The managers expect the agency to show planned and actual funding and accomplishments for stabilization and rehabilitation activities in future budget requests to Congress. The managers understand that actual amounts may differ from planned levels, and agree that the agencies have the ability to fund additional projects and amounts based on actual needs. The managers direct the Departments of the Interior and Agriculture to report to the House and Senate Appropriations Committees, by December 1, 2000, on criteria for restoration projects to be funded from this appropriation.

The managers have provided funds for emergency reconstruction and maintenance of the agency's rapidly deteriorating fire facilities. The managers note that the Administration failed to request adequate funding to support these critical infrastructure needs. Accordingly, the managers have included on a one-time basis, $44,000,000 for this purpose. Included in the amount is $12,000,000 for reconstruction and repair of air tanker bases and $32,000,000 for reconstruction and repair of additional fire related facilities. The managers direct that the fiscal year 2002 budget justification contain an exhibit which shows project specific information on the accomplishments with these funds. The managers have provided funding for these activities from this appropriation only concurrent with this emergency situation. In the future the managers expect the agency to request such funds within the agency's existing budget structure.

Within the title IV funding for fire operations, the managers have included $16,000,000 to support basic and applied wildfire related research and development. Funding is provided for such activities as developing new strategies to reduce fuels in wildland urban interface areas, improve capability to monitor, predict, prevent and decrease invasive species in burned areas, study impacts of alternative fire regimes and management activities, and study the interactions between fire, land management treatments and other disturbances. The managers have provided funding for these activities from this appropriation only concurrent with this emergency situation. In the future the managers expect the agency to request such funds within the agency's existing budget structure.

The managers have provided $118,274,000 within title IV for emergency activities consistent with the authorizations the agency has to support State and private forestry programs. The managers have provided funding for these activities from this appropriation only concurrent with this emergency situation and in the future expect the agency to request such funds within the agency's existing budget structure.

The managers concur that effective management of fire related issues in the wildland urban interface requires strong commitment and resources from State, tribal, and local governments. Fire readiness capability must be on an equal par between State, local and Federal organizations, including availability of resources, adequacy of planning, and commitment to training. Of the amount provided for State and private related activities, $50,494,000 is designated for State fire assistance, including support for the FIREWISE program and the use of cost share incentives. The managers expect cost sharing incentives to use one-to-one cost sharing, not three-to-one Federal to State as recommended by the Administration. Of the State fire assistance funding, $7,500,000 is a direct lump sum payment to the Kenai Peninsula Borough to complete the activities outlined in the spruce bark beetle task force action plan. Ten percent of these funds shall be made available to the Cook Inlet Tribal Council for reforestation on Native inholdings and Federal lands identified by the task force. In order to improve the ability of rural volunteer fire fighting departments to respond to wildfire, the managers have provided $8,280,000 within funds designated for State and private type activities to improve the capability and readiness of these critical front line firefighting resources. The managers note that this funding, coupled with the $5,000,000 provided for volunteer fire assistance in title II, equals the Administration's request for these activities.

The managers have included $59,500,000 in title IV within funds provided for other State and private type activities; this includes $12,000,000 for the management and control of invasive species in cooperation with State and tribal governments; $12,500,000 to provide technical and financial assistance through the development and expansion of markets for traditionally underutilized wood products to enhance utilization of materials removed during hazardous fuels management activities; and $35,000,000 for community and private land fire assistance.

The community and private land fire assistance funds are provided because the managers recognize the serious impacts of wildfires on State and private lands. These funds are additional funds beyond the Administration's request for programs which assist State and private groups in addressing damage caused by fire. This additional $35,000,000 for community and private land fire assistance should be allocated primarily to Western States such as Montana and Idaho which have had the most severe fire damage. The managers are particularly concerned that many miles of fencing in Montana were burned and the Departments of Agriculture and of the Interior have generally only reimbursed persons who have constructed these fences the depreciated value, even though authority exists to provide replacement value. The managers direct that up to $9,000,000 be made available to reimburse affected parties at replacement value. The managers expect that the allocation of some of these funds for longer term restoration of facilities such as roads and trails should take into account the severe impacts of fire in particular States such as Idaho and Montana which sustained serious damage to miles of roads and trails and other similar facilities.

Furthermore, the managers are especially concerned about the potential impacts of invasive species and insects on Federal, State, and private lands that have been severely burned. The managers understand that in some States suffering the most severe fire damage, such as Montana, that the spread of pine beetle infestations has increased as much as threefold. With the funds provided for cooperative forestry health management the managers encourage the agency to work through the use of cooperative agreements with State and private groups which can enhance accomplishments on the ground in the efforts to combat the spread of invasive species and insect and disease problems. In Western States severely impacted by fire such as Idaho and Montana, the managers are particularly concerned that highly rural, dispersed populations may lack adequately equipped volunteer fire departments and State firefighting resources which may have contributed to the severity of fires and resulting damage. Accordingly, the managers direct the agency to consider these factors in making allocations to the States for State fire assistance and for volunteer fire assistance.

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT AND MAINTENANCE

The conference agreement provides $468,568,000 for capital improvement and maintenance instead of $434,466,000 as proposed by the House and $448,312,000 as proposed by the Senate. The conference agreement provides for the following distribution of funds:

The conference agreement does not include funding proposed by the Senate for snow removal and repairs on the Beartooth Highway near Yellowstone National Park; existing funding is not rescinded as was proposed by the Senate. The managers expect the Forest Service to follow Senate directions concerning the roads program. The managers emphasize the need for a cost-share for the Grey Towers, PA, funding; the Forest Service is encouraged to work with Tulare County, CA, on plans for recreational facilities. The conference agreement includes $2,000,000 for the Forest Service to develop a campground in the Middle Fork Snoqualmie Valley in the Mt. Baker-Snoqualmie National Forest, WA. The managers expect that the preliminary planning, environmental and ecological analysis necessary to design and locate the campground will occur in conjunction with the reconstruction of King County's Lake Dorothy Highway and Forest Service Road 56. The managers understand that the new road will terminate at mile post 12 at the Taylor River Bridge and an existing trailhead parking lot. The managers expect that the campground will be located adjacent to these existing facilities.

LAND ACQUISITION

The conference agreement provides $102,205,000 for land acquisition instead of $52,000,000 as proposed by the House and $76,320,000 as proposed by the Senate. Funds should be distributed as follows:

The managers have provided $2,000,000 to purchase non-development scenic easements in Pingree Forest, ME, in cooperation with the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation under the resource management account in the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

The managers are concerned with the urban lot purchase program at the Lake Tahoe Basin Management Unit. The role of the Forest Service in acquiring, administering and maintaining the urban lots appears inappropriate and often ineffective. Considering the mission of the Forest Service and limited operating funds, opportunities should be explored to transfer the urban lots currently administered by the Forest Service to State and local governments for their management and protection.

None of the funding provided for Federal land acquisition shall be used to acquire additional lots. Acquisition of larger resource lands adjacent to National Forest System land to protect watershed values and provide recreation opportunities should be the focus of the Forest Service land acquisition program at Lake Tahoe.

The managers direct the Forest Service to provide a report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations by April 30, 2001. The report should provide a detailed view of past Federal and State acquisitions at the Lake Tahoe Basin Management Unit, the costs and challenges of managing these fragmented properties, and legislative options for the Federal government to turn over this program to State and local authorities.

The managers note that the conference agreement has provided substantial resources in other activities to help protect Lake Tahoe. This funding includes $2,000,000 for cooperative erosion grants in State and private forestry, $1,250,000 for the NFS vegetation and watershed activity to enhance restoration of sensitive watersheds, $1,500,000 in capital improvement and maintenance to help fix the ailing road system, and $1,500,000 in wildfire management funding to enhance forest health by reducing hazardous fuel.

The Forest Service should acquire land in Spearfish Canyon, SD, but it should have flexibility and responsibility to make selections that would provide the highest and best beneficial public use for the expenditure.

The managers have not provided specific funding in land acquisition for the Craig, AK, and Kake, AK, projects as was proposed by the Senate. Funding for the Kake, AK, land transfer is included in State and private forestry, contingent upon authorization, and funding for Craig, AK, is provided in the southeast Alaska economic disaster fund. Bill language and funding for the Umpqua land exchange project is included in title III.

ACQUISITION OF LANDS FOR NATIONAL FORESTS SPECIAL ACTS

The conference agreement provides $1,069,000 for the acquisition of lands for national forests special acts, an increase of $1,000 above the House and the Senate proposals.

ACQUISITION OF LANDS TO COMPLETE LAND EXCHANGES

The conference agreement provides an indefinite appropriation estimated to be $234,000 for the acquisition of lands to complete land exchanges as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

RANGE BETTERMENT FUND

The conference agreement provides an indefinite appropriation estimated to be $3,300,000 for the range betterment fund as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

GIFTS, DONATIONS AND BEQUESTS FOR FOREST AND RANGELAND RESEARCH

The conference agreement provides $92,000 for gifts, donations and bequests for forest and rangeland research as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

MANAGEMENT OF NATIONAL FOREST LANDS FOR SUBSISTENCE USES

The conference agreement provides $5,500,000 for management of national forest system lands for subsistence uses in Alaska as proposed by the Senate. No funding was proposed by the House. The managers do not agree to the Senate proposal to transfer a portion of these funds to the State of Alaska for this program. Funds are provided in State and private forestry for educational efforts of the United Fishermen proposed by the Senate.

SOUTHEAST ALASKA ECONOMIC DISASTER FUND

The conference agreement provides $5,000,000 for the Southeast Alaska Economic Disaster fund; this was not included in the Senate or House proposals. These funds should be used for Craig, AK, to assist with economic development.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS, FOREST SERVICE

The managers have included bill language proposed by the Senate concerning the National Forest Foundation and the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation. The conference agreement includes: the Senate proposal to increase the limit on funding advances for law enforcement emergencies; the House language providing certain contracting procedures during the transition phase at the Land Between the Lakes NRA; the Senate proposal to reimburse a former employee for certain expenses; the Senate proposal to allow certain activities on the Green Mountain National Forest, VT, concerning the sale of excess buildings; and technical changes to language concerning definitions of indirect costs. The Forest Service is encouraged to give priority to projects for the Alaska jobs-in-the-woods program that enhance the southeast Alaska economy, such as the Southeast Alaska Intertie.

The managers are concerned about reports that certain Forest Service officials have spent large sums when purchasing new vehicles to get them painted to the agency standard green color. The managers expect the agency to acquire its vehicles in the most cost effective manner possible. The managers direct the agency to change its policy to prevent such expensive purchases. The managers have not included section 501 of the House passed bill which legislatively required all vehicles purchased to be white. With the exception of specific vehicles, such as are used for law enforcement and fire prevention, where a specific color is an essential element of agency recognition and public safety, the managers expect vehicle paint standards to emphasize economical acquisitions.

The managers remain extremely concerned about the size of the headquarters office and emphasize the need to get funding to field units. The managers expect full adherence, as was directed by both the House and the Senate, to the National Academy of Public Administration report dealing with staffing size limits for the Chief Financial Officer. If the workload proves too pressing for the existing staff, the managers encourage the use of contractors to accomplish short term efforts. The Congress has provided substantial resources and many technical reforms, such as the major simplification of the budget structure in this Act, which aid the financial management reform effort. The managers expect to continue to receive regular updates on progress in agency accountability and financial management.

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

The managers encourage the Department to work with State and Federal environmental and energy organizations to integrate energy and environmental policies, programs and regulations. In particular strategies should be developed to reduce multiple pollutants, improve energy efficiency and enhance reliability. The Department should work with the Environmental Protection Agency, the Environmental Council of the States, The State and Territorial Air Pollution Prevention Administrators/Association of Local Air Pollution Control Officials, The National Association of State Energy Officials and the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commissioners. This effort should be directed at avoiding contradictory programs, duplicative activities and related problems.

CLEAN COAL TECHNOLOGY

(DEFERRAL)

The conference agreement provides for the deferral of $67,000,000 in previously appropriated funds for the clean coal technology program as proposed by the Senate instead of a deferral of $89,000,000 as proposed by the House. The managers also have agreed, under the fossil energy research and development account, to transfer $95,000,000 in previously appropriated clean coal technology funding to the fossil energy research and development account for a power plant improvement initiative. This initiative is particularly timely, given the current electricity shortages in certain parts of the country and the changing make-up of the industry as electric power deregulation is implemented.

The managers agree that a report required by the Senate dealing with a potential new round of clean coal technology projects is not necessary. This issue should be addressed in the context of the power plant improvement initiative funded under the fossil energy research and development account.

FOSSIL ENERGY RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

(INCLUDING TRANSFERS OF FUNDS)

The conference agreement provides a total of $540,653,000 for fossil energy research and development instead of $365,439,000 as proposed by the House and $401,338,000 as proposed by the Senate. Of the amount provided, $433,653,000 is new budget authority, $95,000,000 is derived by transfer from previously appropriated funds from the clean coal technology account for a power plant improvement initiative and $12,000,000 is derived by transfer from the SPR petroleum account in the Strategic Petroleum Reserve. The numerical changes described below are to the House recommended level.

In central, systems increases include $1,000,000 for the international clean energy initiative, $1,000,000 for a study of the use of clean coal alternatives for replacement of the Capitol power plant and $2,000,000 for electro-catalytic oxidation technology.

In the indirect fired cycle program there is a decrease of $1,000,000. In the turbine program there is an increase of $3,000,000 for ramgen technology. In the fuel cell program a one-time increase of $2,000,000 is provided for a demonstration of solid oxide technology in Nuiqsut, Alaska, and there is an increase of $8,000,000 for the solid state energy conversion alliance. In the innovative concepts program there is a decrease of $1,500,000, which leaves an increase above fiscal year 2000 of $2,000,000 for multi-layer ceramic technology. In the transportation fuels and chemicals program there is an increase of $500,000 for the international clean energy initiative.

In advanced fuels research there are increases of $839,000 for hydrogen enabling science, $1,000,000 for advanced concepts/Vision 21 and $1,000,000 for advanced separation technology and decreases of $650,000 for molecular modeling and catalyst development and $489,000 for C–1 chemistry. In the technology crosscut program there is an increase of $30,000 for the National Energy Technology Laboratory center of excellence for computational energy science.

In natural gas programs there is an increase of $7,000,000 for the methane hydrates program.

For oil exploration and production research there is an increase of $1,000,000 for sonication technology for oil recovery and a decrease of $500,000 for analysis and planning. For emerging processing technology applications there is an increase of $2,600,000 for biodesulfurization of diesel fuel. There is also a decrease of $12,000,000, which reflects the use of previously appropriated Strategic Petroleum Reserve funds from the SPR petroleum account.

In other programs there is an increase of $700,000 for cooperative research and development; $951,000 for headquarters program direction fixed costs; $3,833,000 for fixed costs at energy technology centers, including $1,933,000 for salaries and benefits and $1,900,000 for contractor services; $1,900,000 for general plant projects, of which $1,300,000 is for National Energy Technology Center renovation projects; and $45,000,000, which reverses a general reduction adopted in House floor action.

The managers agree to the following:

1. The materials research program under the central systems activity should focus on hazardous air pollutants in general and mercury in particular.

2. Future funding for the Capitol power plant is the responsibility of the Architect of the Capitol and the $1,000,000 provided for a study of clean coal alternatives completes the funding commitment through Interior and Related Agencies appropriations.

3. Emphasis in the indirect fired cycle program should be placed on co-production, novel hybrid cycles and systems integration to complement the Vision 21 program. In fiscal year 2001 the program should move towards hybrid gasification/combustion technology.

4. The Department should continue and expand the advanced separation technology initiative in its fiscal year 2002 and later budget requests.

5. Within the methane hydrates program, the Department is strongly encouraged to consider the expertise of the Gulf of Mexico Hydrate Research Consortium, as well as the expertise of the Center for Marine Resources and Environmental Technology in gas hydrate research related to geohazard and sea floor stability in the Gulf of Mexico.

6. The ultra clean fuels initiative should not exclude coal-based fuels.

7. The report required by the House dealing with financial incentives for reducing emissions from existing coal-fired plants is not necessary. This issue should be addressed in the context of the power plant improvement initiative.

8. Research on the biodesulfurization of gasoline should be continued within this account and coordinated with programs in this area in the petroleum industries of the future program in the energy conservation account.

Power plant improvement initiative.—In the coming years, the surge in U.S. demand for electric power shows no signs of abating. Yet, in many regions, our expanding 21st century economy is being powered by an out-of-date and undersized electric power system. The result has been an increasing frequency of power supply disruptions and sharp increases in the electric bills of many Americans. For the sick and the elderly, access to reliable electricity can be a matter of life and death. Without reliable and affordable electric power, commercial and industrial businesses can grind to a halt. We risk short-circuiting the continued expansion of digital commerce and e-business that are integral to economic prosperity.

More than half of our nation's electricity is currently supplied by coal, and for decades into the future, plentiful American coal will continue to provide low cost and reliable electricity. Coal-fired electric power is fundamental to the U.S. economy and domestic energy security. As the U.S. electric industry transitions to a new and competitive business structure, the demands on the existing fleet of coal-based electric generating facilities are changing. Power plants must operate in a fashion that reduces environmental impacts, achieves greater efficiency in operation, reduces carbon dioxide and other emissions, remains cost-competitive, and responds quickly to changing customer demand. By achieving greater efficiency, these generating plants will be capable of supplying more electricity, which is needed in today's economy and for the future.

The managers have agreed to fund a power plant improvement initiative that will demonstrate advanced coal-based technologies applicable to existing and new power plants including co-production plants, for example, plants that produce heat, electric power and liquid fuels, and new technologies such as the introduction of coal fines into fuel streams at power plants. The managers expect that there will be at least a 50 percent industry cost share for each of these projects and that the program will focus on technology that can be commercialized over the next few years. Such demonstrations must advance the efficiency, environmental controls and cost-competitiveness of coal-fired capacity well beyond that which is in operation now or has been demonstrated to date.

The managers have included bill language that provides for a request for proposals 120 days after enactment of this Act. The Department should circulate a draft for comment and receive input from outside groups and industry before issuing the final request for proposals. The language provides for obligation of funds after September 30, 2001, and incorporates the governing provisions of previous demonstration programs for the expenditure of funds, including repayment of government contributions that are to be retained for future demonstration projects.

The managers expect the Department of Energy to use the draft solicitation and public review process to specify the criteria for the technical and financial evaluation of projects. The criteria should include as a minimum: (1) the approximate size of a commercial scale project to ensure a commercially viable demonstration and, if intended for existing facilities, applicability to a large portion of existing capacity and (2) the increase in performance factors, such as efficiency, cost-competitiveness, and/or emissions removal required for both existing and new facilities.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement includes language, as proposed by the Senate, transferring $12,000,000 from the SPR petroleum account to offset partially fossil energy research and development funding requirements for fiscal year 2001. Language also is included transferring $95,000,000 from the clean coal technology account for a power plant improvement initiative. The conference agreement also includes Senate proposed language permitting the use of up to 4 percent of National Energy Technology Center program direction funds to support other Department of Energy activities. Language also is included under title III—General Provisions requiring the National Energy Technology Laboratory to establish an advisory group under the same terms and conditions as such groups at other National Laboratories.

ALTERNATIVE FUELS PRODUCTION

(RESCISSION)

The conference agreement provides for the rescission of $1,000,000 in unobligated balances from the alternative fuels production account as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

NAVAL PETROLEUM AND OIL SHALE RESERVES

The conference agreement provides $1,600,000 in new funding for the Naval petroleum and oil shale reserves for an advanced oil recovery program at Naval Petroleum Reserve Number 3. No funds are provided, as proposed by both the House and the Senate, for ongoing operations at the Reserves because unobligated balances from previous fiscal years should be sufficient to continue necessary operations in fiscal year 2001. The $7,000,000 rescission proposed by the Senate is not agreed to. The $1,600,000 is for engineering studies to determine project scope, cost, revenue projections and a timetable for demonstration of technology that has the potential to increase significantly oil production at NPR–3, extend the life of the field and increase revenues to the Federal government. If the results of the engineering studies are acceptable to the Department, it may enter into an agreement with a non-Federal entity to develop a cost shared demonstration project for below-the-reservoir production at NPR–3.

ELK HILLS SCHOOL LANDS FUND

The conference agreement provides $36,000,000 for the third payment from the Elk Hills school lands fund as proposed by both the House and the Senate. The managers have agreed to delay this payment until October 1, 2001, and expect the payment to be made on that date or as soon thereafter as possible.

ENERGY CONSERVATION

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The conference agreement includes $816,940,000 for energy conservation instead of $649,672,000 as proposed by the House and $763,937,000 as proposed by the Senate, including $2,000,000 to be derived by transfer from the biomass energy development account. The numerical changes described below are to the House recommended level.

In technology roadmaps and competitive research and development for buildings there is an increase of $762,000 for roadmaps and a decrease of $500,000 for competitive R&D. Increases in residential buildings integration include $750,000 for Building America and $100,000 for residential building codes. In commercial buildings integration there are increases of $600,000 for research and development and $100,000 for commercial building energy codes.

In equipment, materials and tools there are increases of $300,000 for lighting research and development to increase the base budget for the hybrid lighting partnership, $1,645,000 for residential absorption heat pumps, $3,000,000 for desiccants and chillers, $1,000,000 for refrigeration, $1,950,000 for cogeneration/fuel cells, $500,000 for appliances and emerging technology research and development, $500,000 for windows research and $1,000,000 for lighting and appliance standards.

There are also increases of $13,000,000 for the weatherization assistance program and $1,000,000 for the State energy conservation program.

In the Federal energy management program increases include $1,000,000 for program activities and $300,000 for program direction. The managers expect the Department to incorporate the use of distributed generation into the Federal energy management program. Onsite power options should be considered for all Federal facility power needs based on a balance between economic and environmental considerations. Distributed generation technologies can provide improved reliability, quality of power, total cost of ownership, environmental benefits and remote power needed to achieve Federal missions. The Department of Energy should set the example immediately in its own facilities and report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations within 90 days of enactment of this Act with a plan for doing so at DOE sites in fiscal year 2001 and throughout the Federal government in fiscal year 2001 and beyond.

For industries of the future (specific) programs increases include $178,000 for aluminum, $30,000 for glass, $250,000 for mining, $2,000,000 for agriculture and $1,800,000 for supporting industries. In industries of the future (crosscutting) there are increases of $450,000 for inventions and innovations and $3,000,000 for distributed generation and a decrease of $450,000 for the National Competitiveness through Energy, Environment and Economics grants program. In management and planning for industry sector programs there is an increase of $590,000 for fixed costs in program direction and a decrease of $390,000 in evaluation and planning.

In transportation hybrid systems increases include $4,000,000 for high power energy storage and $4,000,000 for heavy vehicle propulsion. For fuel cell programs there are increases of $1,600,000 for systems work and $4,500,000 for fuel processor/storage work. In the advanced combustion engine program increases include $3,000,000 for combustion and after treatment, $1,000,000 for heavy truck engine research, and $1,000,000 for health impacts of fuels. Other vehicle technology research and development increases include $1,500,000 for cooperative automotive research for advanced technologies, $500,000 for heavy vehicles/truck safety and $1,000,000 for a cost shared program on engine boosting technology for light trucks and sport utility vehicles.

In fuels utilization there are increases of $500,000 for petroleum based fuels and, in the alternative fuels program, $500,000 for medium trucks, $500,000 for heavy trucks and $500,000 for environmental impacts. There is also a decrease of $1,000,000 for health impacts of fuels because this program has been funded in the vehicle technology/advanced combustion engine activity.

Other changes in transportation programs include increases of $2,900,000 in materials technology for heavy vehicle high strength weight reduction, $2,300,000 for the clean cities program in technology deployment and $126,500,000, which reverses the House floor action that eliminated funding for the Partnership for a New Generation of Vehicles program.

There is also a decrease of $21,500,000, which reverses a general increase adopted in House floor action. That increase has been spread across various programs.

Finally, in policy and management there are increases of $225,000 for the working capital fund and $278,000 for the Golden, CO, field office and a decrease of $1,000,000 for the one-time cost associated with the National Academy of Sciences study funded in last year's Act.

The managers agree to the following:

1. The recently approved reorganization to separate distributed generation functions into a new office should be appropriately shown in future budget requests as should the realignment of management support services.

2. The Department should evaluate ambient temperature cure glass technology for air conditioning, which has the potential to reduce energy use for air conditioning, and incorporate that technology, as appropriate, in the Federal Energy Management Program.

3. Given the increases provided in the conference agreement, projects at the Northwest Alliance for Transportation Technologies should be funded at substantially higher levels than previous years.

4. Work with and at the National Transportation Research Center should also be continued and expanded.

5. The report required by the House dealing with engine boosting technology is not necessary. This issue should be addressed in the new program on this subject which is funded in the vehicle technology research and development activity.

6. With respect to the House direction on Postal Service vehicles, no funds should be used for electric vehicle purchases. Such purchases are the responsibility of the Postal Service and the cooperating States.

7. The managers are aware of recent technological advances that may increase opportunities for the application of homogenous charge combustion ignition technologies in mobile systems. This technology has the potential to reduce dramatically NO_X and particulate emissions. The managers direct the Office of Energy Efficiency to submit a report that outlines recent developments in this technology, describes related research being performed with Federal support, and discusses potential future directions for research and development. This report should be submitted by April 1, 2001. The managers further urge the Department to work with the National Research Council to address the potential of homogenous charge combustion ignition technology in its next annual review of the PNGV program.

8. Research on the biodesulfurization of gasoline should be continued in the petroleum industries of the future program and coordinated with programs in this area in Fossil Energy.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement earmarks a total of $191,000,000 for energy conservation programs of which $153,000,000 is earmarked for weatherization assistance grants and $38,000,000 is earmarked for State energy conservation grants. The conference agreement modifies language proposed by the Senate permitting the waiver of cost sharing for weatherization assistance grants. Such waivers can be granted no more than twice. The modification specifies that such waivers can be granted for no more than 50 percent of the required cost share. In addition, the cost-sharing requirement for direct grants for weatherization assistance to Indian tribes is permanently waived.

ECONOMIC REGULATION

The conference agreement provides $2,000,000 for economic regulation as proposed by the Senate instead of $1,992,000 as proposed by the House.

STRATEGIC PETROLEUM RESERVE

(INCLUDING TRANSFER OF FUNDS)

The conference agreement provides a total of $165,000,000 for the strategic petroleum reserve, including the transfer of $4,000,000 from the SPR petroleum account. The increase above the House is $8,000,000 for the maintenance of a Northeast Home Heating Oil Reserve. The House did not include the transfer from the SPR petroleum account. The Senate proposed a transfer of $3,000,000 from the SPR petroleum account and a $1,000,000 transfer from the Naval petroleum and oil shale reserves account to pay for the Northeast Home Heating Oil Reserve.

ENERGY INFORMATION ADMINISTRATION

The conference agreement provides $75,675,000 for the Energy Information Administration instead of $70,368,000 as proposed by the House and $74,000,000 as proposed by the Senate. The increase above the House level includes $4,632,000 to continue core programs and $675,000 for petroleum data improvements, of which $150,000 is for an outlet level sampling frame for gasoline and diesel fuels, $125,000 is to expand the current gasoline sample to allow the weekly publication of gasoline prices for key States and cities, $100,000 is to upgrade the weekly petroleum information system to improve the reliability and accuracy of the data and $300,000 is to institute a biweekly survey of companies during the heating season to monitor interruptible natural gas contracts.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

INDIAN HEALTH SERVICE

INDIAN HEALTH SERVICES

The conference agreement provides $2,240,658,000 for Indian health services instead of $2,106,178,000 as proposed by the House and $2,184,421,000 as proposed by the Senate. The numerical changes described below are to the House recommended level.

In hospital and clinic programs there are increases of $32,106,000 for pay costs, $8,100,000 for staffing of new facilities, $30,000,000 for the Indian health care improvement fund, $225,000 for the Shoalwater

Bay infant mortality prevention program, $500,000 for technology improvements and AIDS research at epidemiology centers, $5,000,000 for loan repayment with emphasis on critical shortage specialties such as pharmacists, dentists and podiatrists, $220,000 for the pharmacy residents program, $1,000,000 for emergency medical services, $1,000,000 to hire podiatrists and $3,000,000 for technology upgrades.

For dental health programs, increases include $2,365,000 for pay costs, $792,000 for staffing of new facilities and $8,000,000 for increased dental services. Increases in mental health programs include $1,488,000 for pay costs and $384,000 for staffing of new facilities. There is an increase of $3,717,000 for pay costs associated with alcohol and substance abuse programs and a program increase of $40,000,000 for contract health services. Increases of $1,099,000 for pay costs and $643,000 for staffing of new facilities are provided for public health nursing.

Health education programs are increased by $326,000 for pay costs and $134,000 for staffing of new facilities. The community health representative program is increased by $1,787,000 for pay costs. Increases for the Alaska immunization program include $70,000 for pay costs and $2,000 for additional immunizations.

Increases for urban health programs include $1,096,000 for pay costs and $1,000,000 to incorporate the Southwest Indian Polytechnic Institute dental program into the urban Indian health program in the Albuquerque, NM, area. The urban program for that area is funded pursuant to title V of the Indian Health Care Improvement Act and run by First Nations Community HealthSources. With these additional funds, dental services will be available for the large urban Indian population in the Albuquerque, NM, area.

Other pay cost increases include $62,000 for Indian health professions, $2,075,000 for direct operations and $294,000 for self-governance. Contract support costs increases include up to $10,000,000 for new and expanded contracts and $10,000,000 for existing contracts.

Finally, there are decreases of $10,005,000 for staffing of new facilities because these costs have been spread among the appropriate accounts and $22,000,000, which was a general increase in House floor action that has been spread among various accounts in the conference agreement.

The managers agree to the following:

1. The Service needs to do a better job of estimating costs, including the distribution of pay cost increases. These numbers should not be a ''moving target'' that changes substantially and continuously after the budget submission as was the case this year.

2. The Service should distribute the Indian health care improvement fund in accordance with the level of need methodology to ensure that the most underfunded tribes are funded at more equitable levels. There should be no set-aside of a portion of these funds to be distributed under an alternative methodology. The managers recognize that the LNF methodology may need some improvements and the Service should continue to make the necessary refinements.

3. The Service should report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations prior to finalizing any policy on the distribution of the Indian health care improvement fund for fiscal year 2001. The managers urge the Service to establish a minimum level of funds to be provided to individual service units. The Service also should provide a report on how the fiscal year 2000 funds were used to improve services to Indians and Alaska Natives.

4. Despite the reprimand in the House report, the Service has still not provided the required plan of action to augment and strengthen its podiatric care program. Because of the pressing need in this area, the managers have taken actions in this conference report to address the problem. The report is still required as requested last year, and the managers expect that the directed consultation with outside groups will be fully and clearly explained in that report.

5. The Service should accept the offer from the American Podiatric Medical Association to assist in the recruitment and screening of candidates to fill podiatry positions in the Service. The APMA deserves credit for pursuing much needed improvements in the podiatry programs at IHS and has an excellent record with respect to prevention of diabetic amputations. The Service should consult with APMA on both the use of the $1,000,000 increase provided to hire additional podiatrists and the use of the loan repayment program for podiatrists.

6. The Senate-required report on the proposed distribution of the general funding increase is not necessary because the increase has been distributed across the various programs in the conference agreement.

7. The Senate requirement to investigate possible inequities in funding allocations applies not only to the Ponca and the Salish and Kootenai tribes but to all tribes. The House has received several complaints from Oklahoma tribes. This investigation should be done in the context of the Indian Health Care Improvement Fund and the level of need methodology and does not require a separate report.

8. Within the funding provided for contract health services, the Indian Health Service should allocate an increase to the Ketchikan Indian Corporation's (KIC) recurring budget for hospital-related services for patients of KIC and the Organized Village of Saxman (OVS) to help implement the agreement reached by the Indian Health Service, KIC, OVS and the Southeast Alaska Regional Health Corporation on September 12, 2000. The additional funding will enable KIC to purchase additional related services at the local Ketchikan General Hospital. The managers remain concerned that the viability of Alaska Native regional entities must be preserved. The accommodation by the managers of the September 12, 2000 agreement in no way is intended to imply that similar requests for similar arrangements will be encouraged or supported elsewhere in Alaska.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement does not include language proposed by the Senate preventing contract health payments in excess of Medicare and Medicaid rates. The Secretary of Health and Human Services has authority to address this issue through the regulatory process. The conference agreement does not include language proposed by the Senate giving tribes access to prime vendor rates that are available to the Service. This authority was enacted earlier this year. Language is included raising the amount for the Catastrophic Health Emergency Fund from $12,000,000 to $15,000,000 and raising the cap for the loan repayment program from $17,000,000 to $22,000,000.

The conference agreement includes language proposed by the Senate providing up to $10,000,000 for contract support costs associated with new and expanded self-determination contracts and self-governance compacts. The managers note that, unlike the Bureau of Indian Affairs, that funds all contract support cost requirements at the same rate, the Service has a varying scale. The managers urge the Office of Management and Budget to work with the BIA and the IHS to address discrepancies between the two bureaus with respect to the calculation and distribution of contract support costs. At present, the IHS pays many more categories of costs than does BIA, and the rate of contract support cost payments relative to the level of need is higher in IHS than in BIA. These discrepancies should be addressed, and the managers suggest that the Office of Management and Budget is the appropriate organization to do so.

INDIAN HEALTH FACILITIES

The conference agreement provides $363,904,000 for Indian health facilities instead of $336,423,000 as proposed by the House and $349,350,000 as proposed by the Senate. The numerical changes described below are to the House recommended level.

In maintenance and improvement, increases include $2,000,000 to address the maintenance backlog and $1,000,000 for the Northwest Portland area AMEX program with the understanding that AMEX includes cost sharing in excess of 50 percent and there will be no increase for base funding requirements for these projects. Increases for sanitation facilities include $206,000 for pay costs and a program increase of $1,500,000.

For hospital and clinic construction, there are increases of $118,000 for the Parker, AZ, clinic, $5,000,000 for small ambulatory facilities with the understanding that there will be no additional operating funds associated with these projects, $5,000,000 for staff quarters in Bethel, AK, $5,000,000 for joint ventures and $2,000,000 for Hopi, AZ, staff quarters.

For facilities and environmental health support, increases include $3,657,000 for pay costs and $1,665,000 for staffing of new facilities. There is also an increase of $2,000,000 for equipment to raise the total annual funding available for equipment at tribally built facilities from $3 million to $5 million and a decrease of $1,665,000 for staffing of new facilities because this amount has been included in the facilities and environmental health support activity.

The managers agree to the following:

1. The Service is urged to package together several staff quarters projects whenever possible to attract more bidders for construction projects and to lower costs. The various projects on the priority list for Navajo and other tribes in the area should be reviewed as potential candidates for packaging as should staff quarters projects in other areas where such projects can be combined to attract additional interest and achieve savings.

2. For the joint venture program, up to 3 projects may be funded, at least 2 of which are replacement facilities.

3. Any funds not needed for completion of individual construction projects should be reported to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations as soon as identified. These funds should subsequently be used to offset requirements for other projects on the priority list. To the extent that such funds become available in fiscal year 2001, they may be used for clinic design for the next three facilities on the outpatient priority list.

Bill Language.—The conference agreement includes language, as proposed by the Senate, directing funds to the Yukon-Kuskokwim Health Corporation for construction of the Bethel, AK, staff quarters and earmarking $5,000,000 for the joint venture program with specific instructions on program implementation. The House had no similar provisions. Language also is included increasing the earmark for funds to be provided to the Hopi Tribe from $240,000 to $2,240,000 to reduce the debt incurred by the Tribe in providing staff quarters associated with the new Hopi Health Center. Language also is included permitting the use of contracts for small ambulatory facilities.

OTHER RELATED AGENCIES

OFFICE OF NAVAJO AND HOPI INDIAN RELOCATION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $15,000,000 for salaries and expenses of the Office of Navajo and Hopi Indian Relocation as proposed by the Senate instead of $8,000,000 as proposed by the House.

INSTITUTE OF AMERICAN INDIAN AND ALASKA NATIVE CULTURE AND ARTS DEVELOPMENT

PAYMENT TO THE INSTITUTE

The conference agreement provides $4,125,000 for payment to the institute as proposed by the Senate instead of zero funding as proposed by the House.

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $387,755,000 for salaries and expenses of the Smithsonian Institution as proposed by the Senate instead of $375,230,000 as proposed by the House.

REPAIR, RESTORATION AND ALTERATION OF FACILITIES

The conference agreement provides $57,600,000 for repair, restoration and alteration of facilities as proposed by the Senate instead of $47,900,000 as proposed by the House. Of this amount, $50,000,000 is provided to address repair and rehabilitation work required throughout the Smithsonian complex and $7,600,000 is provided for similar activities at the National Zoo. In addition, the managers instruct the Zoo to dedicate the remainder of funds previously designated for an aquatics exhibit to higher priority safety and security work referred to in the fiscal year 2001 budget estimate.

In 1995, the Smithsonian's Commission on the Future issued a report indicating that an amount of $50,000,000 annually, applied to repair and renovation work over the next decade, would eliminate the Institution's $500,000,000 maintenance backlog. In the five fiscal years following the issuance of that report, Congress appropriated approximately $200,000,000 for repair and rehabilitation.

In recent months, as Smithsonian officials have brought renewed attention to the poor physical condition of their buildings, the managers have been concerned by statements that still point to a $500,000,000 maintenance backlog despite an increased appropriation. Further, the agency has now pointed to the need for a funding level in the neighborhood of $100 million annually—approximately twice the current amount—although the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations have received no additional documentation to substantiate this request. The managers do not doubt that there is a considerable maintenance backlog at the Smithsonian and have made a significant effort to assist the Institution in this area. However, the apparent lack of progress, the large unobligated carryover balances in past years, a commitment of funds to projects of lower priority, the absense of a detailed plan for implementation of a coordinated maintenance program and grossly underestimated projects such as the Patent Office Building, which has tripled in cost, all are issues that should be explained prior to any substantial increase in funding.

In light of the above, the managers direct the Smithsonian to contract with the National Academy of Public Administration (NAPA) in order to provide the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations with a better understanding of the expenditure of Federal funds to date, the strides that have been made since 1996 and the task that lies ahead. In addition, the Academy is directed to review carefully any future plan submitted by the Smithsonian to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations for additional dollars for critical maintenance backlog. This should be done on a building-by-building basis for the needed facilities improvements during the next eight to ten years. Any planned expenditures for building maintenance in conjunction with the National Museum of the American Indian, the Patent Office Building and the extension of the Air and Space Museum should also be reviewed by the Academy.

CONSTRUCTION

The conference agreement provides $9,500,000 for construction instead of $4,500,000 as proposed by the Senate and no funding as proposed by the House. Within the amount recommended, $4,500,000 is provided for construction of the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory's facility at Hilo, Hawaii and $5,000,000 is provided for construction of an American Agriculture exhibit at the National Zoo. This exhibit has been in the planning stages for several years. The Hilo funds are subject to authorization.

NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $64,781,000 for salaries and expenses of the National Gallery of Art as proposed by the Senate instead of $61,279,000 as proposed by the House. The managers agree that the government-wide reduction in fiscal year 2000 should be spread appropriately across the various Gallery programs in future budget submissions.

REPAIR, RESTORATION AND RENOVATION OF BUILDINGS

The conference agreement provides $10,871,000 for repair, restoration and renovation of buildings as proposed by the Senate instead of $8,903,000 as proposed by the House.

The conference agreement provides $24,907,000 for grants and administration of the Office of Museum Services as proposed by the Senate instead of $24,307,000 as proposed by the House.

CHALLENGE AMERICA ARTS FUND CHALLENGE AMERICA GRANTS

The conference agreement includes $7,000,000 for the Challenge America Arts Fund, a new account, to provide additional funding for arts education and outreach activities for rural and underserved areas. These funds should be used for matching grants that expand service to more of the Nation and enhance arts education and community activities. This account will be administered by the National Endowment for the Arts following all previous authorized requirements including prohibitions on obscenity and restrictions on grants to individuals, subgrants and grants for seasonal support. The managers direct the NEA to provide a detailed report to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations describing the use of these funds.

The managers note that in recent years the Congress has instituted several reforms concerning arts funding for obscene materials. The managers emphasize that the reforms to the NEA established by Congress are retained in title III of the bill. In addition to underscoring the need to serve rural and underserved communities, these reforms include restrictions on grants to individuals, subgrants and grants for seasonal support; a cap on the funds provided to any one State in a given year; an emphasis on grants that encourage public knowledge, education, understanding and appreciation of the arts; the appointment of six Members of Congress to the National Council on the Arts; and a provision allowing the NEA to solicit and invest private funds for arts support.

COMMISSION OF FINE ARTS

SALARIES AND EXPENSES

The conference agreement provides $1,078,000 for salaries and expenses of the Commission of Fine Arts as proposed by the Senate instead of $1,021,000 as proposed by the House.

PRESIDIO TRUST

PRESIDIO TRUST FUND

The conference agreement provides $33,400,000 for the Presidio Trust Fund as proposed by both the House and the Senate.

TITLE III—GENERAL PROVISIONS

The conference agreement includes sections 301 through 306 that were identical in both the House and the Senate bills. These sections continue provisions carried in past years.

The conference agreement does not include language proposed by the House in section 307 concerning compliance with ''Buy American'' procedures. This provision was made permanent in the fiscal year 2000 Interior Appropriations Act.

The conference agreement includes sections 307 through 310, 314, 316 through 319, 321 through 327, and 329 as proposed by the Senate. Identical language was proposed by the House in sections 308 through 311, 315, 317 through 320, 322 through 328, and 330. These sections continue provisions carried in past years.

Section 311 retains the text of section 312 as proposed by the House, which continues the mining patent moratorium provision carried last year. The text of section 311 as proposed by the Senate differed only in the use of capitalization.

Section 312 retains the text of section 313 as proposed by the House which continues a provision carried last year limiting BIA and IHS liability for prior year contract support costs through 2000. Section 312 proposed by the Senate continued this provision through 2001.

Section 313 modifies the text of section 313 as proposed by the Senate and section 314 as proposed by the House which continues a provision carried last year concerning the Jobs-in-the-Woods program. The modified text encourages the agencies to consider various factors when awarding contracts.

Section 315 retains the text of section 316 as proposed by the House, which makes permanent a provision exempting the Presidio Trust from State and local taxes and assessments. Section 315 proposed by the Senate continued the provision for one year.

Section 320 establishes an advisory commission to provide recommendations concerning payments to counties having Federal forest lands. This section was in neither the House or Senate passed bills. The commission will have 18 months after enactment to provide to the Congress recommendations concerning long-term funding for forest counties and other matters. The commission will terminate three years after enactment.

Section 328 retains the text of section 328 as proposed by the Senate, which continues a provision carried last year regulating the export of Western red cedar from National Forest System lands in Alaska. The text of section 329 as proposed by the House differed only in the numbering convention used.

Section 330 modifies the text of section 332 as proposed by the House which allows the Forest Service and the Bureau of Land Management to pilot test the ''Service First'' initiative. The Senate had no similar provision. The managers are encouraged by these interdepartmental efforts and expect that this provision will assist the expansion of these efforts in many more areas of the agencies involved. The managers have clarified the language proposed by the House to make it clear that this authority may be used agency-wide.

Section 331 retains the text of section 333 as proposed by the House establishing a four-year program between the Forest Service and the State of Colorado for cooperative watershed protection and restoration. The Senate had no similar provision. The managers will watch the implementation of this program carefully to determine if this authority provides enhanced coordination and cooperation between Federal and State interests. A cooperative effort will greatly enhance efforts to reduce fuel loadings and provide greater safety to communities in the wildland urban interface.

Section 332 modifies the text of section 334 as proposed by the House addressing the Interior Columbia Basin Ecosystem Management Project. The managers instruct the agencies to review the environmental analyses and documents regarding the Interior Columbia Basin Ecosystem Management Project and bring this analysis and documentation into full conformance with the requirements of the National Environmental Policy Act requirements when new information or conditions arise, including procedures when there are significant new circumstances or information relevant to environmental concerns and bearing on the proposed action or its impacts. Such analysis and documentation should include the summer 2000 wildfires and the President's initiative for managing the impact of wildfires on communities and the environment. None of the funds appropriated or otherwise made available by this Act may be used to issue a record of decision for the Interior Columbia Basin Ecosystem Management Plan until this analysis is completed and included in a report submitted to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations.

Section 333 retains the text of section 330 as proposed by the Senate allowing the Forest Service, in consultation with the Department of Labor, to modify concession contracts for campgrounds. The House had no similar provision.

Section 334 retains the text of section 331 as proposed by the Senate prohibiting the Forest Service from using the recreation fee demonstration program to supplant existing recreation concessions.

Section 335 retains the text of section 332 as proposed by the Senate raising the reporting threshold for energy savings performance contracts through the Department of Energy's Federal Energy Management Program. The House had no similar provision.

Section 336 retains the text of section 334 as proposed by the Senate extending the Recreation Fee Demonstration Program for one additional year. The managers are greatly encouraged by the progress being made in this effort and expect the four land management agencies to continue emphasis on this program. The House had no similar provision.

Section 337 retains the text of section 335 as proposed by the Senate which continues a provision carried last year limiting mining and prospecting on the Mark Twain National Forest in Missouri. The House had no similar provision.

Section 338 retains the text of section 336 as proposed by the Senate authorizing the Forest Service to enter into additional stewardship contracts in Regions 1 and 6. The House had no similar provision.

Section 339 retains the text of section 337 as proposed by the Senate which limits cost recovery for special use permits issued by the Bureau of Land Management and the Forest Service. The House had no similar provision.

Section 340 modifies the text of section 339 as proposed by the Senate prohibiting fee increases for fiberoptic cable rights-of-way. The House had no similar provision. The managers are concerned that the Forest Service needs to work closely with the Department of the Interior to establish common practices concerning the determination of rental fees for fiberoptic cable rights-of-way uses on Federal lands. The conference agreement stops the Forest Service from implementing rental fee direction in a letter issued on May 2, 2000, which, in some cases, resulted in large increases in rental fees by using a case-by-case appraisal process. The conference agreement prevents the issuance of a final rule during fiscal year 2001 although the managers expect the Secretaries to continue their work on a common, updated rental fee schedule and procedure. The managers encourage the two departments to issue common regulations using the accepted rule-making process. This will ensure full opportunity for public comment and allow time for appropriate Congressional attention to this important issue.

Section 341 includes the text of section 340 as proposed by the Senate limiting competition for fire and fuel treatment and watershed restoration contracts in California. The House had no similar provision.

Section 344 retains the text of section 345 as proposed by the Senate, which makes available $4 million in prior year funding for the National Energy Technology Laboratory. The House had no similar provision.

Section 345 modifies the text of section 348 as proposed by the Senate prohibiting the closure of backcountry landing strips. The House had no similar provision. The managers have modified the Senate proposed language so that public notice and consent of the Federal Aviation Administration, in consultation with appropriate State and Federal aviation officials, is made before permanently closing aircraft landing strips. Landing strips, which are deemed hazardous for use by general aviation, may be closed temporarily until repairs are made; landing strips which are known to contribute to illegal activities may be closed temporarily as deemed necessary to support law enforcement efforts; landing strips damaging soil and water resources or impeding agency compliance with existing laws and/or regulations may be closed following appropriate public notice, consultation and consent. Short-term closures are not affected by this provision.

Section 346 amends the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area Act (CRGNSA) to expedite the acquisition of critical lands within the NSA. The purpose of this section is to address the land appraisal assumptions utilized by the Forest Service to acquire land within the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area. Among other things, Public Law 99–663 authorized the Forest Service to acquire land within the CRGNSA for the fair market value of the land as determined by an appraisal. In the CRGNSA, the application of zoning to the determination of value has led to local anomalies in the Federal appraisal process.

The practical effect of this section is that privately-held property in the CRGNSA offered for Federal acquisition after March 31, 2001, will be appraised taking into account all zoning and other land use restrictions in the affected States and counties. For lands offered for sale to the Forest Service on or before March 31, 2001, fair market value will be appraised as set out in section 9(e)(2) by not considering the impacts on value of zoning enacted pursuant to Public Law 99–663. This will take into account land use restrictions that would be in effect but for the passage of the scenic area act, including but not limited to land use restrictions resulting from the Washington State Growth Management Act or Oregon statewide land use program.

The language used in this section is prospective only and intended to address explicitly the question of appraisal procedures to be used for future CRGNSA land acquisitions by the Forest Service in a way that provides an administrative framework for important land acquisitions to occur. Given the managers' intent, this language should not be construed to apply generally to Federal land acquisitions elsewhere in the Nation, nor change the intent and interpretation of the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Land Acquisition Policies Act of 1970 (Public Law 91–646).

The section also modifies the application of section 8(o) of Public Law 99–663 which provides, in part, for landowners to offer their land for purchase by the Forest Service and the nonapplicability of certain zoning restrictions if the land is not purchased after three years. As modified by this section, persons who own land as of September 1, 2000, may offer to sell their land to the Forest Service by March 31, 2001, and still be afforded the rights under section 8(o). The Secretary should continue the practice to treat all landowners' written offers to sell as bona fide and, therefore, as efforts to initiate the three-year period for Forest Service acquisition unless a landowner refuses to cooperate with the Forest Service. Examples of refusing to cooperate would be withholding permission for Forest Service staff to access the offered property or rejecting a purchase for fair market value. Another example would be an attempt by a landowner to revoke a previously provided written offer to initiate the three-year section 8(o) process.

Nothing in this section is intended to modify the basic structure or operation of the land use regime established with the 1986 enactment of Public Law 99–663, nor is anything intended to affect any exposure of the Federal, State or local governments to claims arising under the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution for the taking of private property for public purposes. The managers believe that the Gorge Commission and the Secretary should exercise their administrative authorities in a manner which reduces the possibility of taking claims including modifications of the management plan if necessary.

Subsection (c) of this section provides for the Forest Service to provide notice to the communities and landowners of the amendments to the CRGNSA Act contained in this section. Specifically, the Forest Service will contact private landowners in the Special Management Areas by first-class mail based on ownership records provided by the counties located in the CRGNSA. The counties are urged to provide such records to the Forest Service as soon as possible. Such cooperation will provide private landowners the opportunity to consider the acquisition opportunities made available by these amendments. The mailing by the Forest Service to those landowners listed by the counties will provide constructive notice to landowners, but the Forest Service is not required to provide proof of receipt by addressee.

The managers expect a considerable, but temporary, increase in the workload of the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area office of the Forest Service as a result of this amendment. The managers expect the Secretary to dedicate the requisite level of resources to this office to process section 8(o) offers. Further, the managers understand the Secretary has adequate appropriated funds to clear the current backlog of properties ready for acquisition in FY 2001. The managers are aware, however, that the demand for appropriations for acquisitions may increase on a temporary basis over the next three years to respond to offers made under the auspices of this section.

Section 347 authorizes a land exchange, which conveys Forest Service property in Kern County in California in exchange for county lands suitable for inclusion in the Sequoia National Forest.

Section 348 requires the Department of Energy to establish an advisory committee for the National Energy Technology Laboratory under the same terms and conditions as such groups at other National laboratories.

Section 349 provides the framework for the development of an Environmental Impact Statement and Habitat Conservation Plan for the Umpqua Land Exchange Project, comprising 675,000 acres in the Coast Range-Umpqua Basin in Douglas County, Oregon. The project will be managed by the Voluntary Land Exchanges Foundation in cooperation with the Bureau of Land Management. The conference agreement provides $4,300,000 for the development of the EIS and HCP, and the managers expect the private landowners to bear their full cost of any future supplemental EIS.

Section 350 provides authority for contract health services funding increases in the Indian Health Service for the Ketchikan Indian Corporation and the Organized Village of Saxman in Alaska.

Section 351 permits the sale of the Forest Service Boise, ID, laboratory site, occupied by the Rocky Mountain Research Station, and the use of the proceeds to purchase interests in a multi-agency facility at the University of Idaho.

The conference agreement does not include language proposed by the House in section 331 prohibiting new or expanded Indian self-determination contracts or self-governance compacts, nor does it include section 335 as proposed by the House concerning national monuments (superseded by House section 123). The Senate had no similar provisions.

The conference agreement does not include language proposed by the Senate in section 320 restricting National Forest planning, in section 333 rescinding funding for the Beartooth Highway in Montana, in section 338 exempting residents in the White Mountain National Forest in New Hampshire from the recreation fee demonstration program, in section 341 concerning the White River National Forest in Colorado, in section 342 concerning roadless area in the White Mountain National Forest in New Hampshire, in section 343 concerning the release of funds appropriated in fiscal year 1999 for the Department of Energy, in section 344 concerning funding for tribally controlled community colleges, in section 346 concerning Indian gaming procedures, in section 347 concerning providing a grant to Alaska Pacific University, and in section 349 prohibiting the use of certain pesticides by the Department of the Interior. The House had no similar provisions.

The conference agreement does not include language proposed by the House in section 501 regarding the color of Forest Service vehicles, in section 502 concerning the Federal wildland fire policy and controlled burns, and in section 503 concerning national monuments. The Senate had no similar provisions. The painting issue is addressed in detail under the Forest Service Administrative Provisions heading. The wildland fire policy is discussed in detail, along with other urgent hazardous fuels management issues, in title IV.

The managers have included detailed instructions for the allocations and activities for these funds within the statement of the managers text for wildland fire management accounts for the Department of the Interior and the Forest Service. The managers encourage the Secretaries to recognize the need to maximize the use of streamlined administrative procedures and systems in recognition of the exigent circumstances, and direct the Departments to ensure that all procedures available on a government-wide basis for acquisition and employment in emergency situations are utilized to assure prompt action without burden of additional, unnecessary internal requirements.

The managers responded to the emergency situation using the best available data. The managers recognize that additional fire, State and community assistance may still be needed. The managers direct the Secretaries to work with Governors of the affected States to submit a report summarizing additional needs, if warranted. The Secretaries should also work with the Governors on a long-term strategy to deal with the wildland fire and hazardous fuels situation, as well as needs for habitat restoration and rehabilitation in the Nation. The managers expect that a collaborative structure, with the States and local governments as full partners, will be the most efficient and effective way of implementing a long term program.

The managers are very concerned that the agencies need to work closely with the affected States, including Governors, county officials and other citizens. Successful implementation of this program will require close collaboration among citizens and governments at all levels. The managers direct the Secretaries to engage Governors in a collaborative structure to cooperatively develop a coordinated, National ten-year comprehensive strategy with the States as full partners in the planning, decision making, and implementation of the plan. Key decisions should be made at local levels.

The managers have agreed to modified language from the Senate bill relating to hazardous fuels reduction in the urban wildland interface. This provision has been altered to make clear that the contracting authorities provided to the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Agriculture are those associated with hazardous fuels reduction activities. Other significant modifications have also been made. Waivers from government procurement and contracting laws provided in paragraph (1) which were permanent in the Senate proposal are now available only until the sums for hazardous fuels reduction in this title have been obligated. The managers expect that, in expending these funds, the Secretaries shall recognize the needs in certain States that have been most impacted by fires, such as those states in Regions 1, 3, and 4 of the Forest Service.

The purpose of paragraph (1) is to provide the Secretaries with the flexibility to provide employment and training opportunities to people in rural communities. The managers direct the Secretaries to give preference to local workers and youth groups such as the Youth Conservation Corps, in developing projects under this section to the maximum extent feasible consistent with funding limitations. The provisions of this section are not intended to expand the number of stewardship contracts authorized by section 347 of the FY 1999 Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, (Public Law 105–277, section 347).

Consistent with paragraph (3) and accompanying Senate instruction, the managers direct the Secretary of Agriculture, within 60 days after enactment of this Act, to publish in the Federal Register the Forest Service's cohesive strategy for protecting fire-adapted ecosystems and an explanation of any differences between the strategy and other related ongoing policymaking activities including: revising regulations for the national forest system transportation policy; roadless area protection; the Interior Columbia Basin Draft Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement; and the Sierra Nevada Framework/Sierra Nevada Forest Plan Draft Environmental Impact Statement. The Secretary shall also provide 30 days for public comment on the cohesive strategy and accompanying explanation. The managers expect that, as appropriate, input received will be considered in other appropriate ongoing policymaking activities in the related rulemakings listed in this section.

The managers expect the Secretaries to report jointly to Congress, by May 1, 2001, with recommendations for additional funding needs; an inventory of communities at risk that require hazardous fuel reduction treatments; and additional authorities needed, if any, to increase the amount of fuel reduction treatments in high fire risk urban wildland interface areas.

Paragraph (4) modifies language in the original Senate bill concerning publication of the Forest Service's Cohesive Strategy for Protecting People and Sustaining Resources in Fire-Adapted Ecosystems, and explaining any differences between this strategy and certain rulemaking and planning efforts of the agency. The language as modified by the conference agreement provides that documentation required by section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act which accompanies the rulemakings and planning activities identified in paragraph (4) must contain an analysis of any differences between the Cohesive Strategy and the policies and rulemaking listed in this paragraph.

Paragraph (5) has been added to the original Senate proposal. It requires the Secretaries of Commerce, the Interior and Agriculture and the Chairman of the Council on Environmental Quality, to evaluate the need for revised or expected environmental compliance procedures. These officials must then report to Congress within 60 days of enactment to apprise the Congress of their decision whether to develop any expedited procedures, or to adapt or recommend any other measures. Paragraph (5) also provides discretionary authority for priority to be given to consultations or conferencing under the Endangered Species Act for hazardous fuels reduction projects. The managers emphasize that nothing in paragraph (5) is intended to override any existing environmental laws.

The managers are also especially concerned that the agencies perform. Accordingly, the managers provide the following instructions to facilitate effective and efficient use of these resources. The managers direct that not more than 20 percent of the total funds appropriated by this section may be spent on indirect costs as defined in this Act for the Forest Service and in Department of the Interior directives. Furthermore, the managers direct that all funds appropriated in this section are to be used only for the purposes outlined in the detailed discussions included in the title I and title II wildland fire management accounts. None of these funds may be diverted to other uses, including but not limited to, roadless area policy formulation, national monument designation, or other agency rulemakings not directly related to the purposes for which these funds are appropriated. The managers encourage the Secretaries to use all expedited NEPA procedures allowed under current law or regulation in order to ensure that projects funded by these appropriations are completed in the most timely fashion possible. The managers expect that as much of this work as possible will be completed with the use of local contractors. The managers also stress that they expect the normal, every-day programs of these agencies will also be implemented.

Accountability.—In order to ensure accountability for the funds appropriated under this title, the managers require that the Secretary of the Interior and Agriculture provide the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations and the Resources Committee of the House and the Energy and Natural Resources Committee in the Senate, within 90 days of enactment, a financial plan and an action plan as follows:

Financial Plan.—Not more than 90 days from the enactment of this act, the Secretaries shall deliver a financial plan showing how they intend to spend all of the funds included under this title. It is essential that the Congress and the public be informed and consulted as implementation proceeds. None of the funds should be retained by either Secretary's office. The Financial Plan shall include the following information separately for each Program Component described in the above table as follows:

Total funds allocated to each Agency within each Department;

Within each Agency, total funds retained by the National or Headquarters Office and total funds to be used to repay accounts used to cover suppression costs during the 2000 fire season, by account;

Within each Agency, total funds allocated to each administrative level of each Agency. For the Forest Service, this will include allocations to each region, national forest, research station, area, and State. For the Interior Department, this will include each Regional and State Office.

Action Plan.—Within ninety days of enactment, the Secretaries shall deliver an action plan describing in detail the work proposed to be accomplished with each of the various funding allocations described in the table. This Action Plan will include at a minimum the following items:

Preparedness.—Estimates of the number of personnel to be hired; description of any equipment to be purchased or leased; description of services to be contracted; descriptions of research projects funded, by research work unit.

Operations/Fuels Management.—Estimated number of acres to be treated, by treatment type (prescribed fire alone, mechanical treatment alone, mechanical plus fire, and other); and which portions of those treatments are considered to be in the wildland urban interface.

Operations/Burned Area Rehabilitation.—Estimated number of acres previously burned to be treated, by type of treatment; and which portions of those treatments are considered to be in the wildland urban interface.

State and Volunteer Assistance (FS only).—Estimated acres to be treated on State and private lands, by State. The Secretaries should acquire these data from the affected States.

Rural Fire Assistance (DOI only).—Estimated number of rural fire communities assisted and the distribution of funds by State.

Forest Health Management (FS only).—Estimated number of acres which will be treated to manage and control invasive species and which portions of those treatments are considered to be in the wildland urban interface.

Economic Action Program (FS only).—A summary of anticipated projects by State.

In addition, the managers direct the Secretaries to provide a performance report not more than 90 days following the end of the fiscal year covered by this appropriation for all activities covered by this title. The performance report shall include:

An updated financial report following the same format as the financial plan described above showing final expenditures for each item included in the original financial plan, plus any additional expenditures for items not included in the financial plan, by the same administrative and program component categories.

2. An updated action report following the same format as the action plan described above showing final accomplishments for each item included in the original financial plan, with maps for each national forest and for each State showing where hazardous fuel treatments were accomplished, plus any additional accomplishments for items not included in the action plan, by the same administrative and program component categories.

TITLE V—EMERGENCY SUPPLEMENTAL APPROPRIATIONS

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT

MANAGEMENT OF LANDS AND RESOURCES

The conference agreement provides $17,172,000 for management of lands and resources, of which $15,687,000 is to address the consequences of the 1999 fire season on the lands managed by the Bureau. These funds are provided to restore damaged biotic resources and infrastructure to prevent a decline in fish and wildlife habitat. Accordingly, the managers provide these funds for restoration activities, including but not limited to, fence replacement, wild horse removal, tree and shrub seedling purchase and planting, and cheatgrass control. The managers also recognize the severity of the grasshopper and Mormon cricket infestation on lands managed by the Bureau and have provided $1,485,000 to address this problem. The managers expect coordination with State, local and other Federal entities in addressing these efforts.

UNITED STATES FISH AND WILDLIFE SERVICE

RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

The conference agreement provides $6,500,000 for resource management, of which $1,500,000 are to be expended for the preparation and implementation of plans, programs, or agreements identified by the State of Idaho that will address habitat for freshwater aquatic species on non-Federal lands in the State. These funds will supplement funds that have already been allocated by the State and will only be expended for landowners that are voluntarily enrolled in such plans, programs, or agreements. The remaining $5,000,000 is for the conservation and restoration of Atlantic salmon in the Gulf of Maine.

The condition of the Atlantic salmon population is at a critical point, and the decision regarding the listing of the Atlantic salmon under the Endangered Species Act appears imminent. Therefore, the funds are needed to assist in the prevention of the listing of the Atlantic salmon. The funds will support efforts to acquire lands and conservation easements to benefit Atlantic salmon, to address adverse effects on salmon habitat, and to develop and phase in enhanced aquaculture cages to minimize escape of salmon. The funds provided for the Atlantic Salmon Commission for salmon restoration and conservation will support the installation and upgrading of weirs and fish collection facilities, the conduct of risk assessments, fish marking, salmon genetics studies and testing, and the development of enhanced aquaculture cages. Funds are also provided for the National Academy of Sciences study on Atlantic salmon. Funds administered by the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation are subject to cost sharing.

CONSTRUCTION

The conference agreement provides $8,500,000 for construction to repair Service facilities damaged by hurricanes and winter storms. The managers understand that these funds will used for repairs to Service property in the States of Maryland, New Jersey, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Virginia, and Washington.

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE

CONSTRUCTION

The conference agreement provides $5,300,000 for construction to repair or replace visitor facilities, equipment, roads and trails, visitor facilities, and cultural sites and artifacts at national park units damaged by hurricanes, tropical storms, ice storms, lightning, and floods.

UNITED STATES GEOLOGICAL SURVEY

SURVEYS, INVESTIGATIONS, AND RESEARCH

The conference agreement provides $2,700,000 for surveys, investigations, and research, to repair or replace stream monitoring equipment and facilities damaged by storms, floods, and hurricanes. Within this amount, the managers have provided $900,000 to repair the storm damaged roof at the EROS Data Center. The managers understand that the remaining funds will be used for repairs in Alaska, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Kansas, Maryland-Delaware-Washington, D.C., Massachusetts-Rhode Island, Nevada, New Hampshire-Vermont, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, and Virginia.

BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS

OPERATION OF INDIAN PROGRAMS

The conference agreement provides $1,200,000 for the operation of Indian programs to repair portions of the Yakama Nation's Signal Peak Road. The Yakama Nation shall provide $645,750 towards completion of road repairs, of which $100,000 have already been spent by the tribe. These funds are necessary to repair portions of the road that were significantly damaged in the past year due to a massive increase in traffic resulting from efforts to combat a spruce budworm infestation and to salvage timber in the infested area.

OFFICE OF SPECIAL TRUSTEE FOR AMERICAN INDIANS

FEDERAL TRUST PROGRAMS

The conference agreement provides $27,600,000 for Federal trust programs to address trust fund reform efforts that were unanticipated prior to the submission of the Administration's budget request. Of this amount, $2,900,000 is provided to address breaches of trust, $10,000,000 is to begin the process of providing an accounting of Individual Indian Money accounts, $4,000,000 is provided for trial preparation, and $10,700,000 is provided for trust fund reform program shortfalls.

RELATED AGENCY

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

FOREST SERVICE

STATE AND PRIVATE FORESTRY

The conference agreement provides $11,294,000 for State and private forestry for emergency needs of the Alaska Railroad caused by avalanches in the Chugach National Forest. The managers are aware that at least 19 avalanches occurred in the national forest and other public lands which caused train derailments resulting in a serious oil spill and the death of an Alaska Railroad employee. The President declared the area a disaster on February 17, 2000, pursuant to the Stafford Act, but no funds are available under that declaration to clean up the oil spill to prevent contamination of the Susitna River watershed. Of these funds, $2,000,000 is directed to the Forest Service, State and private forestry, to establish an avalanche prevention program in the Chugach National Forest and nearby public lands.

NATIONAL FOREST SYSTEM

The conference agreement provides $7,249,000 to the National forest system for damage caused by severe windstorms in the States of Minnesota and Wisconsin. The fallen timber caused by these storms in the National forests has caused serious environmental and other damage which must be addressed as soon as possible.

TITLE VI

USER FEES UNDER FOREST SYSTEM RECREATION RESIDENCE PROGRAM

The conference agreement includes the ''Cabin User Fee Fairness Act of 2000''.

TITLE VII

TREATMENT OF CERTAIN FUNDS FOR MINER BENEFITS

Title VII provides for transfers of certain interest earned by the Abandoned Mine Reclamation Fund to the United Mine Workers of America Combined Benefit Fund for the purpose of supplementing the amount of interest transferred under existing law in such amounts as the trustees of the Combined Benefit Fund estimate are necessary to pay the amount of any deficit in net assets in the Combined Fund through August 31, 2001. The managers note that the transfers may take place at any time between October 1, 2000 and August 31, 2001. The provision also provides for two other relatively minor transfers of interest to the Combined Benefit Fund for the purpose of making certain refunds.

As a general manager, the managers note that it has been the practice for the amount of the annual interest transfers under current law to be based on a calculation which multiplies the number of unassigned beneficiaries by that year's per beneficiary premium rate established by the Social Security Administration (SSA) with adjustments made later (normally two years after the initial transfer) to reflect the Combined Benefit Fund's actual expenditures for unassigned beneficiaries. This practice has an adverse effect on the Combined Benefit Fund's cash flow and is contributing to its financial difficulties. Further, there is no basis in the Coal Industry Retiree Health Benefit Act of 1992 for the annual transfer to be based on the SSA established beneficiary premium rate. The managers believe that the interest transfer at the beginning of each fiscal year should be based on the Combined Benefit Fund trustee's estimate of the year's expenditures for unassigned beneficiaries which may be adjusted to the actual amount of those expenditures at a later time if the initial transfer provides to be either too high or too low. This approach is completely consistent with the underlying statutory provision found in section 402(h) of the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977 which provides that the amount of interest transferred ''shall not exceed the amount of expenditures that the trustees of the Combined Fund estimate will be debited against the unassigned beneficiaries premium account. * * *'' [emphasis added].

The managers are extremely frustrated that the issue of the long term solvency of the Combined Benefit Fund has not been addressed by the Committees of jurisdiction over the past year as the managers had requested in the fiscal year 2000 conference report (106–479). The managers reiterate that it is not the responsibility of the Committees on Appropriations to provide health care benefits to the retired mine workers, their spouses and dependents through an annual transfer of interest from the Abandoned Mine Reclamation Fund. The managers are providing this funding to the Combined Benefit Fund with the full expectation that this is the final time the Interior will provide funds to the Combined Benefit Fund. The managers strongly urge all of the parties associated with the Combined Benefit Fund, including the so-called ''super reach back'' companies, the ''reach back'' companies, the United Mine Workers of America and the Bituminous Coal Operators Association to work together to rectify this situation.

The managers note that the Office of Surface Mining estimates that over $3 billion worth of priorities one and two reclamation program needs remain in the inventory of abandoned mined land problems nationwide. The Abandoned Mine Reclamation Fund should be conserved, to the extent possible, in order to fund these necessary projects as well as other authorized uses of interest earned by this fund.

TITLE VIII

LAND CONSERVATION, PRESERVATION AND INFRASTRUCTURE IMPROVEMENT

The conference agreement inserts a new title to the bill creating a six-year Land Conservation, Preservation and Infrastructure Improvement program within the Federal budget and provides increased funding for the first year of this program, fiscal year 2001. This action recognizes land conservation and related activities as critical National priorities and provides a mechanism to guarantee significantly increased funding for critical land acquisition and other land protection programs. The program is not mandatory and does not guarantee annual appropriations. The House and Senate Committees on Appropriations have discretion in the amounts to be appropriated each year, subject to certain maximum amounts as described herein. The program is authorized for a period of six years. Extension beyond six years is a decision that is left to future Congresses.

The new program created by this title, in addition to augmenting funding for land conservation and preservation tools, also recognizes the need to address critical maintenance problems on our Federal lands and permits the use of a portion of fiscal year 2001 funding and future years' funding for the most critical problems in our parks, refuges, forests and other public lands. Likewise, a portion of funding for payments in lieu of taxes are permitted and these funds are in addition to base funding under the Bureau of Land Management in title I.

The managers believe that, when acquiring new lands, the Federal government has a responsibility to provide funding for the maintenance of those lands and for payments in lieu of taxes to the local communities where those lands are located. The funds for maintenance and payments in lieu of taxes, provided by the Land Conservation, Preservation and Infrastructure Improvement program are in addition to baseline funding for maintenance and payments in lieu of taxes provided in the operational accounts of the land management agencies funded in this Act.

Part A: Fiscal year 2001 funding.—The conference agreement provides for total maximum funding of $1,600,000,000 for the first year of the six-year Land Conservation, Preservation and Infrastructure Improvement program. It includes appropriations totaling $1,200,000,000 for fiscal year 2001 for programs in the Departments of the Interior and Agriculture. The $1,200,000,000 is approximately triple the historic funding for such activities. This includes $686,000,000 for activities in this title to augment the $514,000,000 for such activities provided in other titles of the Interior bill.

The remaining $400,000,000, which is authorized herein, is for programs under the jurisdiction of the Commerce-Justice-State Appropriations Subcommittee, including the Pacific Coastal Salmon Recovery program, and will be considered in that bill.

The specific amounts provided for the Departments of the Interior and Agriculture for these programs in fiscal year 2001 are as follows:

Program category	This title	Other titles	Total this bill
Federal and State LWCF programs	$229 million	$311 million	$540 million.
State and other conservation programs	$218 million	$82 million	$300 million.
Urban & historic preservation programs	$39 million	$121 million	$160 million.
Additional funding for maintenance	$150 million	NA	+$150 million.
Additional funding for payments in lieu of taxes	$50 million	NA	+$50 million.
Coastal programs (NOAA)	NA	NA	Commerce/State/Justice bill.
Total	$686 million	$514 million	$1.2 billion.

The distribution of the funds for fiscal year 2001 among the land management agencies and the U.S. Geological Survey is specified in the bill. The managers have not, however, mandated a distribution of individual land acquisition projects or Forest Service Forest legacy funds. These decisions are left to the Committees on Appropriations in consultation with the land management agencies. The final distribution will be based on programmatic needs and will be determined by the Committees during fiscal year 2001.

In making funding distributions for maintenance projects, the managers expect the agencies to address critical maintenance backlogs. These additional funds are for repair and rehabilitation of existing facilities or roads and may not be used for new and expanded facilities or roads.

The managers expect the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to develop a cost-shared, competitively-awarded, project-based program for the use of State wildlife grant funding and to present their proposal to the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations for review and approval prior to the use of any funds for these grants. The funds should not be distributed on a formula basis and every effort should be made to leverage Federal funding to the maximum extent possible. The managers point to the joint venture program as a good model to pursue.

The managers expect the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to work with the States to develop wildlife conservation plans. The managers do not object to the use of a portion of the funds provided for State wildlife grants for such required plans, subject to cost sharing by the States. Each State plan should meet requirements that are eastblished by the Service. Each plan should provide for the conservation of the State's full array of wildlife and their habitats, with emphasis placed on those species conservation efforts that are most underfunded and have the greatest conservation need. The Service shall not provide a grant to any State unless the State has, or commits to develop by a mutually agreed date certain, the required plan.

The specific amounts for programs within each category for the Departments of the Interior and Agriculture are shown in the following table:

Part B: Land Conservation, Preservation and Infrastructure Improvement Trust Fund.—Part

B of this title establishes the Land Conservation, Preservation and Infrastructure Improvement program budget mechanism which provides a six-year funding priority within the Federal budget for land conservation activities by setting aside funds each year over and above the amounts available under Congressional Budget Resolutions for all other discretionary activities of the government. The amounts for each year are as follows:

Fiscal year:
2001	$1,600,000,000
2002	1,760,000,000
2003	1,920,000,000
2004	2,080,000,000
2006	2,400,000,000

These amounts are set aside and automatically available under the Budget Resolution each year for Land Conservation, Preservation and Infrastructure Improvement programs but are subject to annual appropriations. The exact amount and the distribution among programs will be set in annual appropriation bills based on need and program performance. The language provides a ''fencing'' mechanism, however, so that funds are only available for the specific set of budget activities and accounts listed in the Land Conservation, Preservation and Infrastructure Improvement program. The text of the language in Part B follows the model established in 1995 for the Violent Crime Trust Fund.

There are six identified program categories for each year. Each category has an identified ''fenced cap'' for each fiscal year. The amount of each cap does not assure appropriations for that amount but does assure that funds from within one category are not shifted to another category. The caps by category are shown in the following table:

Program category	Fenced cap
Federal and State LWCF	$540,000,000
State and other conservation programs	300,000,000
Urban and historic preservation programs	160,000,000
Additional funding for maintenance	150,000,000
Additional funding for payments in lieu of taxes	50,000,000
Coastal programs (Department of Commerce/NOAA	400,000,000
Total	1,600,000,000

Any funds not appropriated within the caps will be available in the next fiscal year for appropriation for activities within the same program category. In addition, each year, the total amount available for appropriation is increased by $160,000,000 for the Land Conservation, Preservation and Infrastructure Improvement Program. That increase is not subject to the ''fenced caps'', but is available for the eligible programs herein, in addition to the capped amounts. The House and Senate Committees on Appropriations have the discretion to determine the extent to which these funds will be appropriated. The additional, ''unfenced'' amount available will be $160,000,000 in fiscal year 2002, $320,000,000 in fiscal year 2003, $480,000,000 in fiscal year 2004, $640,000,000 in fiscal year 2005 and $800,000,000 in fiscal year 2006.

Eligible programs include:

Federal land acquisition
State land and water conservation grants
Urban Park and Recreation Recovery Program
Backlog maintenance (land management agencies)
Payments in Lieu of Taxes

PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 106th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

Vol. 146 WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2000 No. 118

Senate

(Legislative day of Friday, September 22, 2000)

The Senate met at 9:30 a.m. on the expiration of the recess, and was called to order by the President pro tempore (Mr. THURMOND).

PRAYER

The guest Chaplain, Dr. Karl Kenneth Stegall, First United Methodist Church, Montgomery, AL, offered the following prayer:

Let us bow in prayer:

Almighty God, Judge of all nations, we offer You today our heartfelt thanks for the good land which we have inherited. We praise You for all of the noble souls who in their own day and generation did give themselves to the call of liberty and freedom, counting their own lives not dear, but giving all devotion to establish a land in the fear of the Lord.

More especially today, we thank You for the Members of this United States Senate. Enlarge their vision, increase their wisdom, purify their motives. We would not ask You to bless what they do, but we would rather ask that they shall do what You can bless.

May they see that in all they do they are acting in Your stead for the well-being of all of the citizens of this great Nation. May they have a lively sense of serving under Your divine providence and a holy remembrance that where there is no vision, Your people perish.

Let them always remember that they serve a public trust far beyond personal gain or glory, and may they always acknowledge their dependence upon You. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The Honorable SAM BROWNBACK, a Senator from the State of Kansas, led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

RECOGNITION OF THE ACTING MAJORITY LEADER

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. BROWNBACK). The acting majority leader is recognized.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, it is my privilege to yield to the distinguished Senator from Alabama, so he might introduce for the RECORD, comments concerning our visiting Chaplain.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Alabama.

THE GUEST CHAPLAIN, DR. KARL KENNETH STEGALL

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, it has been an honor to be with Dr. Karl Stegall this morning and to be blessed by his prayer. He is pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Montgomery, AL. First Methodist is one of the great Methodist churches in Alabama, and, in fact, of all of Methodism. It has had two of its pastors become United Methodist bishops. Indeed, Karl himself was endorsed by the 600 pastors and 600 laity of the Alabama-West Florida Conference for the Episcopality several years ago.

Karl grew up in rural Alabama, not too far from where I did. It is considered to be a poor county, and a poor area, but not poor in things that matter. He even came over to Camden once and won the beef competition with the FFA.

But he has not forgotten his heritage. He has served in his career at First United Methodist Andalusia, First Bonifay, Whitfield Memorial, and was district superintendent. For the last 18 years, he has been pastor of First Methodist.

It has been a heavenly match. That great gothic church, with its soaring ceiling and buttresses and superb choir, has blossomed under his leadership. Attendance has grown. Young people are everywhere. The church has expanded and grown in so many different ways to bless the community. He served as a leader on the Board of Global Ministries of the United Methodist Church and always fought aggressively to ensure that every dollar contributed, as I have heard him say, from the small, individual church men and women, was spent wisely and effectively.

He is loved by all, but he has courage and is willing to speak forcefully. He recently delivered a sermon when Alabama was considering whether or not to adopt a lottery. He questioned the wisdom of having the State encourage people to invest their money in random chances to be rich. That sermon was received very well, passed all over the State, and the State eventually rejected that choice.

His wife, Brenda, and he have been partners throughout their ministry, and they have two daughters. He is a beloved minister by his congregation, by his fellow ministers, and respected by all in the community.

He is a Christian clergyman of the finest kind. While he would have been successful in any profession, he chose to give his life to the greatest profession.

By his fine prayer today, we are blessed. By his life and ministry, the people of his church have been blessed. And by his presence today he serves as a recognition of the constant and superb service delivered by tens of thousands of ministers throughout this Nation who daily enrich the lives of their parishioners; who serve them in times of illness and sickness; who minister to them in times of emotional stress, divorce, and all kinds of family challenges; who celebrate with them marriages and births. Those thousands and thousands of ministers who do that daily are not run by the Federal Government. They are not paid by this Government, but they are there, serving their faith and their Lord.

So we are, indeed, delighted to have with us today one of our finest Christian ministers in the State of Alabama, Dr. Karl Stegall.

I thank the Chair.

SCHEDULE

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, I wish to make this statement for the leader. Today, the Senate will immediately begin consideration of H. J. Res 109, the continuing resolution. Under the previous agreement, there will be up to 7 hours for debate with a vote scheduled to occur after the use of the time or after the yielding back of the time. After the adoption of the continuing resolution, the Senate will proceed to a cloture vote in regard to the H–1B visa bill. Therefore, Senators can expect at least two votes during this afternoon's session of the Senate.

As a reminder, tomorrow evening is the beginning of Rosh Hashanah. Therefore, the Senate will complete its business today and will not reconvene until Monday, October 2, in observance of this religious holiday.

RESERVATION OF LEADER TIME

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the leadership time is reserved.

MAKING CONTINUING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 2001

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order the Senate now proceed to the consideration of H.J. Res. 109, which the clerk will report.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A joint resolution (H.J. Res. 109) making continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 2001, and for other purposes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the joint resolution is advanced to third reading.

The joint resolution (H. J. Res. 109) was ordered to a third reading and was read the third time.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. There will now be up to 7 hours for final debate, with 6 hours under the control of the Senator from West Virginia, Mr. BYRD, and 1 hour under the control of the Senator from Alaska, Mr. STEVENS.

The Senator from Alaska.

Mr. STEVENS. As an opening statement on this continuing resolution that is now before the Senate, I want to state that this is a simple 6-day continuing resolution. This bill will fund ongoing Federal programs at the same rate and under the same conditions as currently applied to each agency of our Federal Government.

The continuing resolution now pending before the Senate is in the same form as those passed in previous years to bridge Federal spending until the full year's appropriations acts are completed. This committee has made good progress this week in advancing work on the fiscal year 2001 bills. The energy and water bill was filed last night and should be taken up in the House later today. Work is nearly completed on the Interior appropriations bill, and the conference on the Transportation bill will meet later today. I want to assure all of our colleagues of our determination to complete the work of the Appropriations Committee within the next week, to meet the target adjournment date of Friday, October 6.

Hopefully, this will be the only CR needed for the remainder of the consideration of the appropriations bills for the fiscal year 2001.

A second continuing resolution may, however, be needed to ensure the President has the required period that the Constitution gives him to review the bills that are passed by the House and Senate as conference reports once they are presented to the President.

Mr. President, we are in a difficult situation this year because we are adjourning this evening and will not be here through the full period of September. We will miss 2 days of the time we would otherwise have to complete our work. Therefore, it is necessary that the Senate approve this continuing resolution.

I urge the Senate to do so and we will strive to complete our work within the next week.

Mr. President, I reserve the remainder of my time.

Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, in order that I do not lose the time allotted to me, 1 hour, I ask unanimous consent that the time of the quorum call not be charged against either side.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. STEVENS. I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. BUNNING). Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, what is the item before the Senate, the question?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. H.J. Res. 109. The Senator from West Virginia controls 6 hours and the Senator from Alaska 1 hour.

Mr. BYRD. I thank the Chair.

Has any time been charged against——

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Alaska has used 3 minutes. There has been no time charged against the Senator from West Virginia.

Mr. BYRD. I thank the Chair.

Mr. President, to begin with, I should say that I intend to support the short-term continuing resolution. I think it is very important that we do so. But I have reserved this time for the purpose of expressing concerns about what is happening to the Senate and, in particular, what is happening to the appropriations process. Several of my colleagues will join me as we move through the morning and the afternoon. I shall do so without, of course, pointing my finger of criticism at any Senator, naming any Senator. I merely want to talk about what is happening to our Senate, its rules, its processes. And I intend to abide by the rules concerning debate. I say that at the start.

Mr. President, section 7, article I, of the U.S. Constitution, states: ''All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives; but the Senate may propose or concur with amendments as on other bills.''

Let me quote again the last portion of section 7, article I: ''but the Senate may propose or concur with amendments as on other bills,'' meaning the Senate may propose or concur with amendments on any bill, whether it is a revenue bill or otherwise. When I say ''bills,'' I include, of course, resolutions.

Thus, Mr. President, the organic law of our Republic assures Senators—all Senators; Republicans and Democrats—the right to offer amendments, not only to bills for raising revenue, but also ''other bills.''

The requirement that revenue bills shall originate in the House of Representatives grew out of the Great Compromise, which was entered into on July 16, 1787. It was this Great Compromise that provided for equality of the States in the Upper House, with each State, large or small, having two votes. And, but for which, the Constitutional Convention would have ended in failure, and instead of a United States of America, which we have today, we would have had, in all likelihood, a ''Balkanized States of America'' from sea to shining sea—from the Atlantic to the Pacific—from the Canadian border to the Gulf of Mexico. The small States at the Constitutional Convention were adamant in their demands for equal status with the large States in the Upper House, regardless of size or population, so that the small State of Rhode Island, for example, had an equal vote in the Senate with the large State of New York which was larger and with a greater population. All States are equal in this body.

When the large States yielded to the small States in this regard, the way was open and paved for eventual success in the attainment of the Constitution which was then sent to the States for ratification. As a part of that compromise, the large States demanded that revenue bills originate in the House of Representatives.

Thus, the freedom to offer amendments in the Senate is assured by the Constitution of the United States. And what about the freedom to speak? What about the freedom to debate? Is that assured in the Senate? Yes. Section 6 of article I of the United States Constitution states:

And for any speech or debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other place.

So I cannot be questioned in any other place. James Madison, who was a Member of the other body could not be questioned in any other place. No Senator could be questioned in any other place. But what about the freedom to debate at length; in other words, what about a filibuster? Is there any limitation on debate in the Senate today? No, except when cloture is invoked, or when there are time limitations set by unanimous consent of all Senators.

Debate could be limited under rule 10 of the 1778 rules of the Continental Congress, by the adoption of the previous question. Likewise, when the Senate adopted its 1789 rules under the new Constitution, debate could be limited by invoking the previous question. However, in its first revision of the Senate rules in 1806, the Senate dropped the motion for the previous question. As a matter of fact, Aaron Burr, when he left the Vice Presidency in 1805, recommended that the previous question be dropped. Until 1917, when the first cloture rule was adopted, there was no limitation on debate in the Senate, unlike the House of Representatives, where the previous question can still be moved even today.

As we all know, of course, 60 votes are required in the Senate to invoke cloture and thus limit debate. The previous question not being included in the Senate rules, just what is the ''previous question''? Thomas Jefferson in his ''Manual'' explains it as follows: ''When any question is before the House, any member may move a previous question, 'Whether that question (called the main question) shall now be put?' If it pass in the affirmative, then the main question is to be put immediately, and no man may speak anything further to it, either to add or alter . . . if the nays prevail, the main question shall not then be put.''

Hence, the use of the motion to put the previous question is an effective way to end debate and vote immediately on the main question.

As the distinguished Presiding Officer knows—the Chair being occupied at the moment by the distinguished Senator from Kentucky, Mr. BUNNING—in the other body, the previous question can be used to end debate, if a majority of the Members there so desire. But that is not so in the Senate. It was so until 1806, but no more in the Senate.

Of the various legislative branches throughout the world today, only 60 are bicameral in nature, and of these 60 bicameral legislatures around the world, only the Upper Houses of the U.S. and Italy are not subordinated to the Lower House. Senators should understand what a privilege it is to serve in the U.S. Senate. The U.S. Senate is the premiere Upper Chamber in the world, two of the main reasons being that in the U.S. Senate there exists the right of unlimited debate and the right to offer amendments.

Another singular feature of the U.S. Senate is in the fact that it is the forum of the States. It is not just a forum; it is the forum of the States. The Senate, therefore, represents the ''Federal'' concept, while the House of Representatives, being based on population, represents the ''national'' concept in our constitutional system. In the very beginning, the Senate was seen as the bulwark of the State governments against despotic presidential power; it was the special defender of State sovereignty. It was meant to be and exists today as the special defender of State sovereignty. The Senate was also seen as a check against the ''radical'' tendencies which the House of Representatives might display.

I have been a Member of this body now for 42 years, and the longer I serve, the more convinced I am of the efficacy of the Senate rules as protectors of the Senate's right to unlimited debate and the Senate's right to amend. The Senate is not a second House of Representatives, nor is it an adjunct to the House of Representatives. It is a far different body from the House of Representatives. And it is a far different body by virtue of the Constitution and by virtue of Senate rules and precedents. The Constitution and the Senate rules have made the Senate a far different body from the House of Representatives.

Thomas Jefferson, in his Manual of Parliamentary Practice, emphasized the importance of adhering to the rules:

Mr. Onslow, the ablest among the Speakers of the House of Commons, used to say, ''It was a maxim he had often heard when he was a young man, from old and experienced Members, that nothing tended more to throw power into the hands of the Administration, and those who acted with a majority of the House of Commons, than a neglect of, or departure from, the rules of proceedings; that these forms, as instituted by our ancestors, operated as a check and control on the actions of the majority, and that they were, in many instances, a shelter and protection to the minority, against the attempts of power.'' So far, the maxim is certainly true—and is founded in good sense, as it is always in the power of the majority, by their number, to stop any improper measure proposed on the part of their opponents—

Continued Mr. Onslow, speaking of the British House of Commons—

the only weapons by which the minority can defend themselves against similar attempts from those in power are the forms and rules of proceeding which have been adopted as they were found necessary, from time to time, and become the law of the House—

He was talking about the law of the House of Commons—

by a strict adherence to which the weaker party—

Meaning the minority—

can only be protected from those irregularities and abuses which these forms were intended to check, and which the wantonness of power is but too often apt to suggest to large and successful majorities.

Now there you have it from the mother country, from the House of Commons. So when we speak of rules, Mr. Onslow laid it out very clearly as to the supreme importance of the rules as protectors of a minority.

Jefferson went on to say:

And whether these forms be in all cases the most rational or not is really not of so great importance. It is much more material that there should be a rule to go by than what that rule is; that there may be a uniformity of proceeding in business not subject to the caprice of the Speaker—

Jefferson is talking about the Speaker of the House of Commons, and he is also referring to the Speaker in the House of Representatives.

—or capriciousness of the members.

Once more, this is Jefferson talking:

It is much more material that there should be a rule to go by than what that rule is; that there may be a uniformity of proceeding in business not subject to the caprice of the Speaker or capriciousness of the members. It is very material that order, decency, and regularity be preserved in a dignified public body.

Nothing could be more true than Jefferson's observations which I have read in part.

Now, Mr. President, my own experience with the Senate rules compels me to appreciate the wisdom that Vice President Adlai Stevenson expressed in his farewell address to the Senate on March 3, 1897. I believe his observation is as fitting today as it was at the end of the 19th century. Let me say that again. I believe his observation is as fitting today, as we close the 20th century, as it was at the end of the 19th century. Here is what he said:

It must not be forgotten that the rules governing this body—

are founded deep in human experience; that they are the result of centuries of tireless effort in legislative halls, to conserve, to render stable and secure, the rights and liberties which have been achieved by conflict. By its rules, the Senate wisely fixes the limits to its own power. Of those who clamor against the Senate, and its methods of procedure, it may be truly said: ''They know not what they do.'' In this Chamber alone are preserved without restraint—

This is Adlai Stevenson talking here—

two essentials of wise legislation and of good government: the right of amendment and of debate. Great evils often result from hasty legislation; rarely from the delay which follows full discussion and deliberation. In my humble judgment, the historic Senate—preserving the unrestricted right of amendment and of debate, maintaining intact the time-honored parliamentary methods and amenities which unfailingly secure action after deliberation—possesses in our scheme of government a value which cannot be measured by words.

How true. I hope that Senators will read again these words that were spoken by our ancestors concerning the importance of the rules and precedents, the importance of amendments, the right to amend, and the importance of the freedom to debate at length. I hope Senators will read this.

We all know that the Senate is unique in its sharing of power with the President in the making of treaties, and in its confirmation powers with respect to nominations, as well as in its judicial function as the sole trier of impeachments brought by the House of Representatives. The Senate is also unique in the quality that exists between and among states of unequal territorial size and population. But we must not forget that the right of extended, and even unlimited debate, together with the unfettered right to offer amendments, are the main cornerstones of the Senate's uniqueness. The right of extended debate is also a primary reason that the United States Senate is the most powerful Upper Chamber in the world today.

The occasional abuse of this right has a painful side effect, but it never has been—I am talking about the right to debate at length; I am talking about filibusters, if you please —never will be fatal to the overall public good in the long run.

The word ''filibuster'' has an unfortunate connotation. But there have been many useful filibusters during the existence of this Republic. I have engaged in some of them. There has not been a real, honest to goodness old-type filibuster in this Senate in years and years.

Without the right of unlimited debate, of course, there would be no filibusters, but there would also be no Senate, as we know it. The good outweighs the bad. Filibusters have proved to be a necessary evil, which must be tolerated lest the Senate lose its special strength and become a mere appendage of the House of Representatives. If this should happen, which God avert, the American Senate would cease to be ''that remarkable body'' about which William Ewart Gladstone spoke—''the most remarkable of all the inventions of modern politics.''

Without the potential for filibusters, that power to check a Senate majority or an imperial presidency would be destroyed.

The right of unlimited debate is a power too sacred to be trifled with. Our English forebears knew it. They had been taught by sad experience the need for freedom of debate in their House of Commons. So they provided for freedom of debate in the English Bill of Rights in 1689. And our Bill of Rights, in many ways, has its roots deep in English parliamentary history. As Lyndon Baines Johnson said on March 9, 1949: ''. . . If I should have the opportunity to send into the countries behind the iron curtain one freedom and only one, I know what my choice would be. . . . I would send to those nations the right of unlimited debate in their legislative chambers. . . . If we now, in haste and irritation, shut off this freedom, we shall be cutting off the most vital safeguard which minorities possess against the tyranny of momentary majorities.''

I served with Lyndon Johnson in this Senate when he was the majority leader. We had some real filibusters in those days. I sat in that chair up there 22 hours on one occasion—22 hours in one sitting—almost a day and a night. So Lyndon Johnson was one who could speak with authority based on experience in that regard.

Arguments against filibusters have largely centered around the principle that the majority should rule in a democratic society. The very existence of the Senate, however, embodies an equally valid tenet in American democracy: the principle that minorities have rights.

I am not here today to advocate filibusters. I am talking about the freedom of debate—unlimited debate, if necessary.

Furthermore, a majority of Senators, at a given time and on a particular issue, may not truly represent majority sentiment in the country. Senators from a few of the more populous states may, in fact, represent a majority in the nation while numbering a minority of votes in the Senate, where all the states are equal. Additionally, a minority opinion in the country may become the majority view, once the people are more fully informed about an issue through lengthy debate and scrutiny. A minority today may become the majority tomorrow.

Take the Civil Rights Act of 1964, for example. From the day that Senator Mike Mansfield, then the majority leader, submitted the motion to proceed to the civil rights bill to the day that the final vote was cast on that bill, 103 calendar days had passed—103 days on one bill, the Civil Rights Act of 1964. That is almost as many days on one bill in 1964 as the Senate has been in session this whole year to date.

Mr. President, the Framers of the Constitution thought of the Senate as the safeguard against hasty and unwise action by the House of Representatives in response to temporary whims and storms of passion that may sweep over the land. Delay, deliberation, and debate—though time consuming—may avoid mistakes that would be regretted in the long run.

The Senate is the only forum in the government where the perfection of laws may be unhurried and where controversial decisions may be hammered out on the anvil of lengthy debate. The liberties of a free people will always be safe where a forum exists in which open and unlimited debate is allowed. It is not just for the convenience of Senators that there be a forum in which free and unlimited debate can be had. More importantly, the liberties of a free people will always be safe where a forum exists in which open and unlimited debate is allowed. That forum is here in this Chamber.

The most important argument supporting extended debate in the Senate, and even the right to filibuster, is the system of checks and balances. The Senate operates as the balance wheel in that system, because it provides the greatest check of all against an all-powerful executive through the privilege that Senators have to discuss without hindrance what they please for as long as they please. Senators ought to reflect on these things. There is nothing like history and the experience of history that can teach the lessons that we can learn from the past. A minority can often use publicity to focus popular opinion upon matters that can embarrass the majority and the executive.

Mr. President, we have reviewed briefly these facts about the U.S. Senate: (1) That it is a legislative body in which the smaller states, like the State of West Virginia, like the State of Kentucky, like the State of Rhode Island, the State of Wyoming, the State of Montana, regardless of territory or the size of population, are equal to the larger states in the union, with each state having two votes; (2) that it is a forum of the states and, from the beginning, was representative of the sovereignty of the individual states within the federal system; (3) that aside from its uniqueness with respect to treaties, nominations, and impeachment trials, the Senate is unique among the Upper Chambers of the world in that it is a forum in which amendments can be offered to bills and resolutions passed by the Lower House, and in which its members have a right to unlimited debate. The Senate has, therefore, been referred to as the greatest deliberative body in the world. Because of its members' rights to amend and to debate without limitation as to time, Woodrow Wilson referred to the Senate as the greatest Upper Chamber that exists. Because of its unique powers, the record is replete throughout the history of this republic with instances in which the Senate has demonstrated the wisdom of the Framers in making it the main balance wheel in our Constitutional system of separation of powers and checks and balances. It is a chamber in which bad legislation has been relegated to the dust bin, good legislation has originated, and the people of the country have been informed of the facts concerning the great issues of the day. Woodrow Wilson, himself, stated that the informing function of the legislative branch was as important if not more so than its legislative function.

It has checked the impulsiveness, at times, of the other body, and it has also been a check against an overweening executive. In the course of the 212 years since its beginning in March 1789, the Senate has, by and large, fulfilled the expectations of its Framers and proved itself to be the brightest spark of genius that emanated from the anvil of debate and controversy at the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia during that hot summer of 1787. However, over the last few years, however, I have viewed with increasing concern that the Senate is no longer fulfilling, as it once did, its raison d'etre, or purpose for being.

More and more, the offering of amendments in the Senate is being discouraged and debate is being stifled. I can say that because I've been here. Quite often, when bills or resolutions are called up for debate, the cloture motion is immediately laid down in an effort to speed the action on the measure and preclude non germane amendments. Mike Mansfield, when he was leader, seldom did that. During the years that I was leader, I very seldom did that. The Republican leaders Baker and Dole seldom did that.

Following my tenure as majority leader, that has been done increasingly. I am not attempting to say that Mike Mansfield or I were great leaders at all; I am not attempting to do that. But I am saying that through Johnson's tenure, for the most part, through Mansfield's tenure, through my tenure as majority leader and through the tenures of Howard Baker and Bob Dole, the Senate adhered to its rules and precedents; seldom did it do otherwise.

Moreover, the parliamentary amendment tree is frequently filled as a way of precluding the minority from calling up amendments. I filled the parliamentary tree on a very few occasions. I, again, have to call attention to my own tenure as majority leader because through the tenures of Johnson and leaders before Johnson on both sides of the aisle, the rules of the Senate were virtually considered sacred.

The minority is also frequently pressured to keep the number of amendments to a minimum or else the particular bill will not even be called up—or, if it is pending, the bill will be taken down unless amendments are kept to a minimum. That is happening in this Senate.

Unlike the House of Representatives, there is no Rules Committee in the Senate that serves as a traffic cop over the legislation and that determines whether or not there will be any amendments and, if so, how many amendments will be allowed and who will call up such amendments. On occasion, the House Rules Committee will determine perhaps that one amendment will be called up by Mr. So-and-So. But not so with the Senate. We don't have a Rules Committee that serves as a traffic cop.

Could there be a desire on the part of the Senate majority leadership to make the Senate operate as a second House of Representatives? Of the 100 Senators who constitute this body today, 45, at my last count, came from the House of Representatives—45 out of 100. At no time in my almost 42 years in the Senate have I ever entertained the notion that the Senate ought to be run like the House of Representatives, where amendments and unlimited debate are often looked upon as alien to the legislative process. What is the hurry? What is the hurry? There is ample time for the offering of amendments and for debating them at length, if the Senate will only put its shoulder to the wheel and work.

We still have 7 days, just as there were in the beginning of creation. The calendar doesn't go that far back, but we still have 7 days a week. And we still have 24 hours a day, as was the case in Caesar's time. And the edict of God, as he drove Adam and Eve from the garden and laid down the law that by the sweat of his brow man would eat bread—that edict is still the case. We still have to eat bread and we still are supposed to earn our living through the sweat of our brow. Nothing has changed.

We have plenty of time. And we get paid. I am one who gets paid for my work in the Senate. I don't like Sunday sessions, but we have had a few over the years. I am against Sunday sessions. But I am not against working on Saturdays. During that civil rights debate, which I was talking about a while ago, there were six Saturdays in which the Senate was in session. It is not an unheard of thing.

It is far more important for the Senate to engage in thorough debate and for Senators to have the opportunity to call up amendments than it is for the Senate to have many of the Mondays and Fridays left unused insofar as real floor action is concerned.

Mr. REID. Will the Senator yield for a question?

Mr. BYRD. Yes, I will very shortly.

It is far more important for the Senate to engage in thorough debate, and for Senators to have the opportunity to call up amendments, than it is for the Senate to be out of session on Mondays and Fridays. It seems to me that we should be more busily engaged in doing the people's business.

Instead, it seems to me—and, of course, I am not infallible in my judgments—it seems to me that the Senate is more concerned about relieving Senators who are up for reelection—and I am one of them this year—relieving Senators who are up for reelection from the inconvenience of staying on the job and working early and late, than in fulfilling our responsibilities to our constituents. Some might conclude that it is more important for Senators to have Mondays and Fridays in which to raise money for a reelection campaign than it is for us to give to our constituents a full day's work for a full day's pay.

Now I am glad to yield to my friend.

Mr. REID. I say to my friend from West Virginia in the form of a question—the segue is better now than when I asked the first question because what I want to say to the Senator from West Virginia is, I haven't been here nearly as long as you have been here, but I have seen, in the 18 years I have been here, how things have changed. Why have they changed? Because of the unbelievable drive to raise money. Everybody has to raise money. On Mondays, on Tuesdays, on Wednesdays, on Thursdays, on Fridays, on Saturdays, and, I am sorry to say, on Sundays. I say to my friend from West Virginia, don't you think that is the biggest problem around here, the tremendous, overpowering demand for money because of television?

In the form of a dual question: Don't you think, if we did nothing else but eliminate corporate money, which the Congress in the early part of last century, or by the Senator's reasoning this century, early 19——

Mr. BYRD. Not by the Senator's reasoning, but because it is the 20th century still, until midnight December 31 this year. Regardless of what the media says, regardless of what the politicians say, this year is still in the 20th century.

Mr. REID. I say to my friend in the form of a question: In the early part of this century, Congress had the good sense to outlaw, in Federal elections, corporate money. Of course, the Supreme Court changed that a few years ago. I ask the Senator, wouldn't we be well served if we eliminated, among other things, corporate money in campaigns on the Federal level in any form or fashion?

Mr. BYRD. There is no question about that, if one looks at the facts carefully. Having been majority leader and having been minority leader, I can testify as to the pressures that are brought on the majority and minority leaders by Senators who have to get out and run across this country, holding out a tin cup as it were, saying: Give me, give me, give me money.

I have had to do that. In 1982, I had an incumbent in the other body from West Virginia who ran against me. I had to go all over this country. I had to go to California. I had to go to New York. I had to go to Alabama. I had to go to Texas. I was all over the country. But I didn't go during the Senate workdays, and in those days, the Senate worked. I had to go on Sundays, for the most part.

(Mr. ALLARD assumed the Chair.)

Mr. REID. One last question?

Mr. BYRD. Yes.

Mr. REID. Wouldn't the Senator acknowledge things are much worse today than they were in 1982?

Mr. BYRD. They are much worse, and they are growing worse and worse and worse every day and every election. It is a disgrace and it is demeaning. The most demeaning thing that I have had to do in my political career is to ask people for money.

When I was majority leader in the 100th Congress, former Senator David Boren of Oklahoma and I introduced legislation to reform the campaign financing system.

I am not one of the ''come lately boys'' in this regard. I, as majority leader then, and former Senator David Boren introduced that legislation. The other side of the aisle—I do not like to point to the other side of the aisle as so many Senators today, unfortunately, like to do—but the other side of the aisle—namely, the Republicans in the Senate in that instance—voted consistently eight times against cloture motions that I offered to bring the debate to a close. There were four or five Republicans who did break from the otherwise solid bloc and voted with the Democrats on that occasion to break the filibuster against the campaign financing bill.

Go back to the RECORD. Read it. Senators might do well to go back to the RECORD and see who those Senators were who broke from the Republican bloc. A handful broke from the Republican bloc and voted to end the filibuster against that campaign financing bill. Eight times I offered cloture motions. No other majority leader has ever offered eight cloture motions on the same legislation in one Congress. And eight times I was defeated in my efforts to invoke cloture.

Chapter 22, Verse 28 of the Book of Proverbs—we are talking about Solomon's sayings now for the most part—admonishes us: ''Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set.'' We seem to be doing just the opposite. The Founding Fathers' grant to us of the right to amend and the right to unlimited debate has been, I believe, shifted off course, to the point that these two well-advised attributes of power are being voided, and for what reason? Could it be that the Senate Republican leadership fails to appreciate and fully understand the Senate, fails to understand American Constitutionalism, and fails to understand the purposes which the constitutional framers had in mind when they created the Senate. Or might we suppose that the senatorial powers that be are simply determined to be a Committee of Rules unto themselves and are determined to try to remold the Senate into a second House of Representatives? The fact cannot be ignored that 45 of the 100 Members of today's Senate came here from the House of Representatives. A political observer might also be surprised to find that 59 of today's 100 Senators came to the Senate subsequent to my final stint as majority leader.

Noble are the words of Cicero when he tells us that ''It is the first and fundamental law of history that it neither dare to say anything that is false or fear to say anything that is true, nor give any just suspicion of favor or disaffection.''

I believe that no less a high standard must be invoked when considering the Senate of today and comparing it with the Senate of the past. Having spent more than half of my life in the Senate, I would consider myself derelict in my duty toward the Senate if I did not express my concerns over what I see happening to the Senate.

Who suffers, whose rights are denied, whose interests are untended when a Senate minority is denied the right to amend and when a Senate minority is denied the right and opportunity to fully debate the issues that confront the Nation? Is it the individual Senators themselves? Is it I? Do I suffer? No. It is their constituents, it is my constituents who are being denied these opportunities and these rights. It is not Senator so-and-so who, in the final analysis, is being denied the full freedom of speech on this Senate floor or who is being shut out from offering an amendment—it is Senator so-and-so's constituents, the people who sent him or her to the Senate.

If the Senate is intended to be a check against the impulsiveness and passions of the other body, is not the ability of the Senate to be such a check reduced in direct proportion to the denial to its Members of the opportunity to amend House measures?

In accordance with the Constitution, revenue bills must originate in the House of Representatives and, by custom, most appropriations bills likewise originate in the House, but under the guarantees of the Constitution, as those guarantees flowed from the Great Compromise of July 16, 1787, the Senate has the right to amend those revenue and appropriations bills.

But if the opportunity for Senators to amend is reduced, or even denied, as is sometimes being done, the Senate as an equal body to that of the House of Representatives is being put to a disadvantage. The House can open the door to legislation on an appropriations bill, but if the Senate, if the 100 Senators are denied the opportunity to offer amendments, or are limited in the number of amendments which Senators may offer, the Senate is thereby denied the opportunity to go through that door with amendments of its own, through the door that the other body has opened, and is denied the potential for the achievement of truly good legislation in the final result, and that opportunity is accordingly lessened and the likelihood of legislative errors in the final product is increased.

If the Senate is a forum of the States, in which the small States are equal to the large States, and if this ability of the small States to acquire equilibrium with the large States serves as an offset to the House of Representatives where the votes of the States are in proportion to population sizes, then when the Senate is denied the opportunity to work its will by the avoidance of votes on amendments, are the small States not the greater losers? My State, for one. The Senator from Alaska's State is one.

If the framers saw the Senate as a powerful check against an overreaching executive at the other end of Pennsylvania Avenue, when free and unlimited debate is bridled and the right of Senators to offer amendments is hindered or denied, is not the Senate's power to check an overreaching President accordingly whittled down, especially in instances where such a check is most needed?

I am gravely concerned that, if the practices of the recent past as they relate to enactment of massive, monstrous, omnibus appropriations bills are not reversed, Senators will be reduced to nothing more than legislative automatons. Senators will have given away their sole authority to debate and amend spending bills and other legislation. Much of that authority will have been handed over, by invitation of Congress itself, to the Chief Executive.

The distinguished chairman of the Appropriations Committee, and I, and other chairmen of appropriations subcommittees in this Senate are experiencing this right now.

Only yesterday, in a conference on the Interior Appropriation bill, I called attention to the fact that when I came to Congress 48 years ago, the Members of the House and Senate in that day would have stood in utter astonishment, to see in that conference, on an appropriations bill, the agents of the President of the United States sitting there arguing with Senators and House Members and advancing the wishes of a President.

There they sat in the House-Senate conference. And they tell the conferees what the President will or will not accept in the bill. If this is in the bill, he will veto it. If this is not in the bill, he will veto it, they say.

So, appropriators of the House and the Senate, get ready. You have company. There are other appropriators in this Government other than the elected Members of the House and Senate. There are administration ex officio members of the Appropriations conference—believe it or not—who sit like Banquo's ghost at the table when the appropriations are being administered out. What a sad—what a sad—thing to behold.

I said that in the meeting yesterday, as I have said it before in meetings. And I don't mean it to insult or to derogate the agents of the President. They are doing their job, and they are very capable people. I have to apologize to them when I say that. They are there through no fault of their own.

And why are they there? The fault lies here. Because we dither and dither almost a full year through. We put off action on appropriations bills until the very last, when we are up against the prospect of adjournment sine die, when our backs are to the wall, and then the President of the United States has the upper hand. His threats of veto make us scatter and run. The result is that all of these bills—or many of them—are crammed into one giant monstrous measure, and that measure comes back to this House without Senators having an opportunity to amend it because it is a conference report. It is not amendable —not amendable. So it is our fault. It really is. And it has been happening in these recent years. So much of that authority will have been handed over, by invitation of Congress itself, in essence, to the Executive.

For fiscal year 1999 an omnibus package was all wrapped together—Senators will remember this—an omnibus package was all wrapped together and run off on copy machines—it totaled some 3,980 pages—and was presented to the House and Senate in the form of an unamendable conference report. Members were told to take it or leave it. If you do not take this agreement, we will have to stay here and start this process over. We will have to call Members back to Washington from the campaign trail, back to Washington from town meetings, and back to Washington from fundraisers. Senator, the gun is at your head, and it is loaded. You do not know what is in this package, Senator 3,980 pages put together by running the pages—3,980 pages—through copy machines.

Not a single Senator, not one knew what was in that conference report, the details of it. No one Senator under God's heaven knew, really, everything that he was voting on. You do not know what is in this package, we are essentially told, but you either vote for it or we will stay here and start all over again. And in the final analysis, we will come up with about the same package.

We know that these legislative provisions made up more than half of the total 3,980 pages. So what we did there, as we did in fiscal year 1997 and as we did again in fiscal year 2000 was put together several appropriations bills into an unamendable conference report, and Members were forced to vote on what was essentially a pig in a poke without knowing the details.

Do the people of this country know that? Do they know this? Do they know what is happening?

In 1932, in the midst of the Great Depression, a reporter from the Saturday Evening Post asked John Maynard Keynes, the great British economist, if he knew of anything that had ever occurred like that depression. Keynes answered: Yes, and it was called the Dark Ages, and it lasted 400 years.

Well, I can say, as one who lived through that depression in a coal mining town in southern West Virginia and was brought up in the home of a coal miner, I can say that we are now entering the ''Dark Ages'' of the United States Senate.

Now, when Keynes referred to the Dark Ages being equal to the depression or vice versa and I refer to the Dark Ages of the Senate, this is calamity howling on a cosmic scale perhaps, but on one point, the resemblence seems valid, that being, the people never fully understood and don't fully understand today the forces that brought these things into being.

If the people knew that we had a 3,980-page conference report in which we, their elected representatives, didn't know what was in it, they would rise up and say: What in the world is going on here? It is our money that Senators are spending. You are blindfolded and you have wax in your ears. You don't even know what is in that bill.

Is this the way we want the House and the Senate to operate? Is this what Senators had in mind when they ran for the United States Senate? If we continue this process, Senators will not be needed here at all. Oh, you can come to the Senate floor once in a while to make a speech or to introduce a bill or to vote on some matter, but at the end of the session, when the rubber hits the road and we get down to what is and what is not going to be enacted in all areas—appropriations, legislation, and tax measures—most Senators won't be needed. Most of us will not be in the room with the President's men. We won't be in the room.

I have seen times when the minority, Democrats in the House and Senate, were not in the room. Who was in the room? The Republican majority, the Speaker of the House and the majority leader of the Senate. They were in the room. Who else? Who was there to represent us Democrats? Who was there? The executive branch was there, its agents. We were left out. The Democratic Members of the House and Senate, not one, not one sat in that conference. I wasn't in it. I was the ranking member of the Senate Appropriations Committee.

So most of us will not be in the room when the decisions are made. The President's agents will be there. They will carry great weight on all matters because we have to get the President's signature. Having squandered the whole year in meaningless posturing and bickering back and forth, we will have no alternative, none, but to buckle under to a President's every demand. And when that hideous process is mercifully finished, we will then call you, Senator, and let you know that we are now ready to vote on a massive conference report, up or down, without any amendments in order. Take it or leave it, Senator. Take it or leave it, Senator DASCHLE. You are the minority leader. You will be left out. Take it or leave it; here is the conference report.

We are in danger of becoming an oligarchy disguised as a Republic. You may well spend all of your time campaigning or speechmaking or doing constituent services back home, you will have very little to say on legislation or appropriations or tax matters.

There is sufficient blame to go around for this total collapse of the appropriations process. Our side feels muzzled. The majority leader has a very difficult job. I know. I have been in his shoes. He has to do the best he can to meet the demands of all Senators.

Part of the solution has to be a greater willingness to work together on both sides of the aisle to ensure that ample opportunities are provided, early in the session, outside of the appropriations process to debate policy differences. We simply must force ourselves to work harder, beginning earlier in the session, to ensure that we do not continue to abuse the Constitution, abuse the Senate, and ultimately abuse the American people by following the procedure that has resulted in these omnibus packages in 3 of the last 4 years, and which, I fear, is about to be resorted to again this year.

I do see some rays of hope because we have awakened the leadership. I must say, after our squawking and screaming and kicking, the administration this year is insisting that Democrats sit at the table when the crumbs are being parceled out. They insisted because the minority leader has insisted on it and because other voices in the Senate have been complaining.

Cicero said: ''There is no fortress so strong that money cannot take it.'' The power of the purse is the most precious power that we have. It was given to the two Houses by the Constitution, the bedrock of our Government. It was put here—not down at the other end of Pennsylvania Avenue.

I have tried to do my part to help Senators understand our constitutional role. We are the people's elected representatives and they have entrusted us with their vote; those people out there who are watching through the cameras have entrusted us with their vote. That trust must not be treated lightly. This is especially true when it comes to matters that involve appropriations. We are spending their money.

Each of you who is watching through that electronic medium, we are spending your money.

We are stewards of the people's hard-earned tax dollars. They expect, and they ought to demand, that we spend those dollars wisely, and that we scrutinize what we fund and why we fund it.

The Senate is the upper House of a separate branch of Government, with institutional safeguards that protect the people's liberties.

Which party commands the White House at a given time should make no difference as to how we conduct our duties. We are here to work with, but also to act as a check on the occupant of the White House, regardless of who that occupant is. And we are here to reflect the people's will. We are not performing the watchdog function when we invite the White House—literally invite the White House—behind closed doors and play five-card draw with the people's tax dollars.

Mr. President, I fear for the future of this Senate. I think the people are very disenchanted with Congress and with politics in general. They are catching on to our partisan bickering and they don't like what they hear and see.

The people are hungry for leadership. They ask us for solutions to their problems. They expect us to protect their interests and to watch over their hard-earned tax dollars. They entrust us with their franchise and they ask that we ponder issues and debate issues and use their proxy wisely. They ask that we protect their freedoms by holding fast to our institutional and constitutional responsibilities.

Too often, we lose sight of the fact that partisan politics is not the purpose for which the people send us here. We square off like punch-drunk gladiators and preen and polish our media-slick messages in search of the holy grail of power or a headline. I am a politician; I can say that. We fail to educate the people and ourselves on issues of paramount and far-reaching importance for this generation and for the next generation. It is a shame and it is a waste because there is much talent in this Chamber, and there is much mischanneled energy. This Senate could be what the framers intended, but it would take a new commitment by each of us to our duties and to our oaths of office. And it would take a massive turning away from the petty little power wars so diligently waged each week and each month in these Halls.

Our extreme tunnel vision has been duly noted by the American people, I assure Senators. The American people are a tolerant lot, but their patience is beginning to fray.

And when their disappointment turns to dismay, and finally to disgust, we will have no one to blame but ourselves.

Mr. President, I have more to say, but I see other Senators. If they wish to speak on this subject, I will be glad to yield them time. Does the distinguished Senator from California wish to speak?

Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, I would really appreciate the opportunity to comment on some of the Senator's points and then make a couple other points. As I understand it, the Senator controls the time; is that correct?

Mr. BYRD. I control the time from the beginning, 6 hours.

Mrs. BOXER. May I respectfully request about 20 minutes of that time?

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I gladly yield 20 minutes to the very distinguished Senator from California, Mrs. BOXER.

Mrs. BOXER. I thank the Senator from West Virginia, who is, I have to say, the most respected Senator in this Chamber. When he speaks, I do think that both sides listen. I believe that his remarks today are not partisan at all. I think that he has been critical of both sides and he has been critical of the administration.

I want to pick up on some of Senator BYRD's remarks. I had the honor of serving on the Appropriations Committee for a period of time. Senator FEINSTEIN now holds that seat, and who knows, maybe some day I will be able to reclaim it. California is such a large State that I think there is a real understanding on my side of the aisle that one of us should be sitting on that committee.

In that situation you have a much greater chance to speak for your State, and to talk about the priorities of your State.

Right now my dear friend, Senator FEINSTEIN, is recuperating from a terrible fall and a terrible injury to her leg. I want to say to Senator FEINSTEIN—if you are watching, because I know you are in the hospital—we are thinking of you and we wish you well. I will do everything I can to speak for both of us when it comes to the issues that face our State.

But, in particular because of her injury, I think at the moment I am on that list. The Senator could add us on that list of the 23 ''have nots,'' although we are praying that Senator FEINSTEIN will be back next week in time to be there. But even if she is back, the fact is, when that private session is called to look at this big omnibus bill—the Senator from West Virginia has described it—very few will be in that room. I compliment the administration for insisting that the Democratic leadership be in that room.

I had the honor to serve in the House for 10 years of my life. It was a great experience for me. I know many others, including the Senator from West Virginia, had that privilege. But I ran for the Senate in a very risky political move—no one thought I would ever make it here—because I wanted the chance to do more. I wanted the chance to operate under the Senate rules and to offer any amendments that I wanted to at any time.

Now I find with this particular leadership that I am precluded from doing that. I am precluded from fighting for my State. When I hear that bills were going straight to the conference and bypassing the Senate and the ability of the Senator from Iowa to offer an amendment—even though he serves on that committee, there is still time even when you are on the committee. You wait until you get to the floor to offer the amendment. We all know that is the way it goes because sometimes you can't win in the committee but you have a chance to make your case on the floor with unlimited debate and an opportunity to show your charts and make your point.

I find myself here in a circumstance where I, in behalf of the people of California, basically have no say on these bills.

As Senator BYRD rightly points out, I think anyone in this Senate Chamber who says they know what is in a huge omnibus package with 3,000 pages, not to mention report language and colloquy, is simply dreaming because we know there is just so much we are capable of. When you do one appropriations bill at a time, you can concentrate on that and read that bill. You can be briefed on that bill. If you want to offer an amendment, you can do so. You can make your case for your State.

There is one issue on which the Senator from West Virginia and I do not agree. I respect his view so much. But I come on a different side. I think it is so important that we should be allowed to raise other important issues that we believe this Senate ought to vote on, even if it voted on it before. I say to my friend that some of these issues are so important. Now that we are in the middle of a Presidential election, they are being raised by both Governor Bush and Vice President GORE, and we ought to have another chance to vote on them.

Mr. HARKIN. Mr. President, if I might ask the Senator to yield on that point.

Mrs. BOXER. I would be happy to yield.

Mr. HARKIN. I agree with the Senator. I want to say a few more things on my own time about Senator BYRD's presentation this morning, but I also want to respond to the point that my friend from California is making about being able to offer amendments to the appropriations bills that come up.

I ask the Senator from California: I do not know if we agree on this, but I think if we had more of an opportunity to act as a Senate, to bring legislation out and to be able to consider bills that we might be interested in, that we wouldn't have to do them on appropriations bills. But because we are prevented from doing so, many times it is only the appropriations bills where we can offer them.

I ask the Senator from California if she would maybe—I see her nodding her head—agree with that decision; if we had that opportunity to act as a Senate and to bring authorizing bills out here to be able to offer those amendments, then we wouldn't have to do that on appropriations bills.

Mrs. BOXER. I agree with my friend. I sit on some authorizing committees, such as the Environment and Public Works Committee. There are so many good bills that we could bring forward, but the leadership does not want to do that. Frankly, I think it is because they would rather not run this place like the Senate. They want to run it like the House with strict controls where the Rules Committee decides what can happen.

Frankly, I have to think that there are some amendments on which they don't want to vote. I think we are then forced in the circumstance that my friend from West Virginia—my hero, if I might say, in this Senate—believes is inappropriate. But we are in a circumstance where we are committed, for example, to vote on a prescription drug benefit for Medicare. We are so committed to making sure that class sizes could be reduced by putting 100,000 new teachers in, and we don't get the education authorizing bill. We only get the appropriations bill.

It forces us—I agree with my friend—to be in the situation that is not good for the Senate. As my friend said, it is the ''Dark Ages of the Senate.'' Those are powerful words. This is a man who thinks about that. When he says we are in the ''Dark Ages,'' I think we have to listen. We are in the Dark Ages because we don't want to debate authorizing bills. We are forced to try to offer amendments on appropriations bills, which delays the situation, which makes leadership say they are not going to bring the bill forward, and which makes them send them straight to conference to avoid the chance for amendments. The vicious circle continues.

I think I am not being a Senator. We never know how long we are going to be in this Chamber. In many ways, it is up to our electorate. In many ways, it is up to God to give us good health to be here and do this. It is up to our families to see how long they can take it. So we want to have a chance to legislate.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, if the distinguished Senator from California will yield.

Mrs. BOXER. I yield to my friend.

Mr. BYRD. I want to clarify one thing.

The distinguished Senator from California earlier, I think, indicated that she and I were in disagreement on this. We are not. In the Senate, there is no rule of germaneness except when cloture is invoked and except when rule XVI is invoked. But a rule XVI invocation can be waived only by a majority vote—not a two-thirds vote but by a majority. We have done that many times.

When a Senator has raised the question of germaneness, I have from time to time voted with that question to make that germane. She and I really are not in disagreement. She has well stated, and so has the distinguished Senator from Iowa, the reasons why so many Senators are forced to offer legislative amendments on appropriations bills. It is because the legislative measures are not brought up in the Senate. So they have to resort to the only vehicle that is in front of them, that being an appropriations bill.

Look at this calendar. This calendar is filled with bills, many of them which have never gone to the committee. Many of them have been put directly on the calendar through rule XIV, and they have never been before a committee. They went before a committee in the House, come from the House, and are put directly on the Senate calendar, or bills are offered by Senators, brought up, and through rule XIV are placed on the calendar.

I counted the number of items on this calendar the other day that have been placed directly on the calendar for one reason or the other, one being rule XIV. I counted the number. I don't remember what it was. There are quite a wide number of amendments that are on the calendar that have never seen or experienced any debate in a Senate committee. We have 71 pages making up this calendar. Senators who want to offer amendments have to understand, there is nothing but appropriations bills to which to offer amendments.

Mrs. BOXER. I am absolutely delighted we are on the same side on this point. The frustration level of Senators, as my friend Senator HARKIN pointed out in his very to-the-point-question, is that we have no other option but to turn to these priorities that our people are asking Members to take care of, and try to offer these amendments. Then we have a majority that doesn't want them.

I yield to my friend.

Mr. HARKIN. I thank the Senator for yielding.

I want to point out to the Senator from West Virginia, regarding the Elementary and Secondary Education Act reauthorization, this is the first time since it was enacted in 1965 we have not reauthorized it. Why? There is no reason we cannot debate the Elementary and Secondary Education Act before we adjourn.

I am certain reasonable minds on both sides would agree to time limits. No one wants to filibuster the bill. Offer the amendments. But the way things are today, if someone has ideas on what we want to do on education in this country, they are precluded from doing so. It is still stuck on the calendar, for the first time since 1965. S. 2, the No. 2 bill of this Congress, and it is still on the calendar. We haven't had a chance to act.

I say to my friend from California, the Senator from West Virginia referred to returning back to the Dark Ages. I was thinking about that when the Senator was speaking. Someone remarked to me that: All this talk about rules and procedure is gobbledygook. Who cares? That is inside ball game stuff around here, and it doesn't really matter on the outside.

I know it sounds like inside ball game stuff when we talk about rules and procedures, rule XVI and things such as this. The Senator mentioned the Dark Ages; I got to thinking about the Dark Ages. That is an appropriate allegory because the reason they were the Dark Ages is that we didn't have rules, we didn't have laws, it was uncivilized. In order for us to be civilized, we said there are certain rules by which we should live.

We have these rules in the Senate so that we don't live in the Dark Ages. They have a lot to do with people's lives outside of the beltway of this city. I think the Senator's mentioning of the Dark Ages is very appropriate. That is what we are returning to. We are returning to a rule-less kind of Senate where whoever is in charge calls the shots. That is what the Dark Ages was about: Whoever had the power ran everything. It was a lawless society. Through the years we developed our rules.

There is a reason the Senate is the way it is. Read the Senator's ''History of the Senate.'' There is a reason the Founding Fathers set up the Senate the way it is. It is to allow some of the smaller States and others to have their say and to have their equal representation so they aren't bound up by the rules of the House of Representatives.

Mr. BYRD. Would the distinguished Senator from California yield me time to respond to the distinguished Senator from Iowa?

Mrs. BOXER. I am happy to yield to the Senator.

Mr. BYRD. I yield an additional 15 minutes overall to the Senator from California.

Mr. President, the Senator from Iowa said something here which is a truism—among other things—that there are many who look upon the rules and the precedence of the Senate as gobbledygook, as inside baseball.

Now I daresay those same narrow-minded, uninformed people, whoever they are, would say the very same about this Constitution of the United States or this Declaration of Independence, both of which are in this little book which I hold in my hand. They would say the same thing about the Constitution of the United States, and those rules of the Senate are there by virtue of this Constitution. I urge them to read the Constitution again.

I also urge them to read what Thomas Jefferson said, what Vice President Adlai Stevenson said, what Lyndon Johnson said, and what other great leaders who are now in the past said about the right to amend and the right to debate.

I will say what Adlai Stevenson said: They know not what they do.

I thank the Senator.

Mr. HARKIN. I thank the Senator from West Virginia.

Sometimes—I am not mentioning any names—sometimes we talk with colleagues about the rules. There is kind of a smirk: Oh, yes, we have business to do around here. And there is sort of—I detected it lately—there is sort of: ''Well, the rules are the rules, but if we have the votes, we don't care.''

That is a terrible attitude. As the Senator from West Virginia said, it really returns us to the Dark Ages when we were a lawless, ruleless society.

Mrs. BOXER. I ask my friend to stay on his feet because I want to continue this discussion.

When I was a child, I learned how a bill becomes a law. We always had that book in school, how a bill becomes a law. A bill starts out; someone authors it on one side, the Senate; someone authors it in the House. If it is a money bill, it has to go through the House first. And then each House, the House and the Senate, will act on the bill. If there are differences, it will go to conference. Those differences are worked out. If they are worked out—either body will vote on them—it goes to the President; he says yea or nay. If he issues a veto, two-thirds to override; if he signs it, it is a law. We learned this.

I say to my friend, it almost seems to me that what is happening is unconstitutional. I do not have a law degree. But we don't see these bills coming through the Senate for Senators to comment on. Sometimes we get a bill through here and it is not controversial. We will agree to a 2-, 3-, 5-minute time agreement. But at least we have a chance to look at it. That is our job. If we don't look at it and it does some harm to our people, that is our fault.

But if bills never come here and if they are sent directly into a conference committee and bypass the Senate, this says something is very wrong, that we are not doing what we are supposed to do according to the Constitution. I honestly wonder whether there couldn't be some kind of lawsuit by some citizen out there who looks at this and says: The way the Senate is operating, I have no voice in this because my Senator is bypassed. As Senator BYRD shows in his chart, 23 States are not on appropriations. They don't even have a chance to utter a word in the committee.

I was wondering, not being a lawyer, as the Senator is a lawyer, whether there isn't some kind of lawsuit waiting to happen. This isn't the way a bill is to become a law.

I think this could be considered taxation without representation. For some of these cases, some colleagues could say to their people: I didn't know; I didn't have a chance; I could only vote no or aye at the end; I voted aye because there were so many good things in the omnibus bill; but there were 23 bad things, but I had to keep the Government going.

I think we are treading on some dangerous ground.

I am happy to yield if my friend has a comment.

Mr. BYRD. Is the Senator asking a question?

Mrs. BOXER. I would love to have my friend comment on this.

Mr. BYRD. I agree, in large measure, with everything the distinguished Senator is saying. I seriously doubt that a lawsuit—I seriously doubt if that would hold up. But anyhow, it is a good thought.

Mrs. BOXER. Yes. When I go home to meet my constituency, they, as taxpayers, will say to me: Senator, what did you think about page 1030 in that omnibus bill? Did you actually get a chance to vote on it? I will say: In the big sense, I guess you could say I had to vote. It was all in one package. But I had no choice. I wanted to keep the Government going.

When I raised that issue, it was not for the technical response, but I am just suggesting to my friend that it is in many ways taxation without representation. In any event, if it does not rise to that level, it is close to that level.

I wonder if my friend from Iowa has a comment, or my friend from West Virginia.

Mr. HARKIN. I was trying to say—I will yield in just a second more—I think what is happening is that the foundation on which this Senate has been based is beginning to crumble. It is not all gone yet. But I was thinking, the Senate is like a foundation. If you pull one brick out, OK; it still holds. You pull another brick out—the foundation is still strong.

What is happening, I believe, and I say this in all candor, the majority side, for the last several years, has been pulling some bricks out of the foundation. They pulled one out and no one complained. They pulled another one out and nothing happened. What concerns me is that one feeds on another. So if we take back the majority, do we then say we will take out another brick? And then another brick? And then it bounces to the other side? Pretty soon the foundation crumbles and nobody can point to that first brick and when it was pulled out.

That is what I see, a kind of insidious pulling out of the bricks of the foundation of the Senate. Yet since things do happen, at the end of the year there is this big omnibus that is put together and people say: There you go, no big deal. But I predict pretty soon the foundation is going to start crumbling if we don't stop pulling out the bricks.

Mrs. BOXER. I agree with my friend. It is pretty distressing to see this happen to the Senate.

Senator BYRD said the other day that many of us in this Chamber don't know how the Senate is supposed to work because when we got here, those bricks had started to be pulled out of that foundation. I long for the days when I can tell my grandchildren or great grandchildren that I had a chance to serve in the greatest deliberative body of the land, and that even on a matter that perhaps only one or two Senators cared about, we had the unfettered right to express ourselves on behalf of the people we represent.

As I stand here, I represent, with Senator FEINSTEIN, almost 34 million people. Imagine that, 34 million people. They have so many concerns, whether it is the cost of prescription drugs, that I know my friend from Iowa just made a brilliant speech on yesterday—and I hope he will continue that today—whether it is just the normal appropriations process under which they are able to meet their needs, the highways, the public buildings, all the things they need to keep going; making sure we have the water and the power to keep this incredible State going. We would be the eighth largest nation in the world. We count on the Senate to be able to address our needs.

I am so grateful to the Senator from West Virginia for making this point because I think the people need to pay attention. As my friend from Iowa has said, it may sound as if it is about rules and things that do not impact them. But it impacts them mightily because when I am muzzled by virtue of the fact we don't get a chance to offer amendments—not that my voice is going to always carry the day, but at least their voice will be heard.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, will the distinguished Senator from California yield briefly?

Mrs. BOXER. I am happy to yield.

Mr. BYRD. On what the distinguished Senator is saying, the difference between a lynching and a fair trial is process.

Mr. President, I have to be away from the Senate for about an hour and a half. I have to meet with my wife of 63 years, so I must leave the floor.

I ask unanimous consent that no time be charged against my time, time that is under my control, unless that time is being used on the subject that is before the Senate. In other words, if no Senator is on the floor to speak on this subject, and he or she wishes to speak on some other subject, that he can get time but that it not be charged against the time on this matter.

There are several Senators who wish to speak on this. But for the moment, I am going to take the liberty of yielding control of time—oh, the minority whip is here; he will take care of that matter. He will be in control of time. I make that request.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. As a Member of the Senate from the State of Colorado, I must object until I fully understand the implications of that request and have had a chance to check with leadership.

Objection is heard.

Mr. BYRD. OK. That is a reasonable request.

I hope in the meantime, the distinguished Senator from Nevada, who is the distinguished minority whip, will be on the floor. I hope he will, and he will see to it that Senators will be recognized on time that was in the order for my control, if they are going to be recognized, and they not be recognized on that time unless they are speaking on this subject.

Mr. REID. If the Senator will yield?

Mr. BYRD. Yes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. REID. I spoke to the Senator from West Virginia yesterday. We have worked today to fill the time, talking about some of the things that would work better in this body about which the Senator has spoken already. Senator HARKIN is going to speak, and Senator BOXER. We have Senator KENNEDY coming here at noon. We have Senator MOYNIHAN coming at 12:30. Senator CONRAD is coming. We have a list of speakers and we will work very hard to fulfill the promise to the Senator from West Virginia.

The last thing I say to the Senator from West Virginia, we were here except we were working on the Interior conference.

Mrs. BOXER. Mr. President, do I have some time remaining on my time?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator has 5 minutes remaining.

Mrs. BOXER. What I would like to suggest to my assistant leader is, after I finish my 5 minutes, during which I would like to continue engaging in a little colloquy with my friend from Iowa, that he be recognized for 30 minutes. Is that acceptable to my friend?

Mr. REID. The problem is we have gotten a little out of whack here this morning. I appreciate the patience of my friend from Iowa.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mrs. BOXER. Could I have 5 minutes then?

Mr. REID. What we will try to do is have Senator KENNEDY start a little later. He may be a little late anyway. Maybe you will not get your full half hour, but that will be known when the Senator from California gets finished. Then we go to Senator HARKIN, Senator KENNEDY, and Senator MOYNIHAN.

Mrs. BOXER. I ask unanimous consent, when I complete, Senator HARKIN have the floor up to 30 minutes, and if he has to be interrupted by Senator KENNEDY, he will end his remarks.

Mr. REID. I think what we will do is have the Senator recognized for 10 minutes and if he needs more time he can ask for it.

Mrs. BOXER. That will be my unanimous consent request.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mrs. BOXER. In this remaining 5 minutes, I wanted to ask my friend from Iowa if he will stay on the floor because Senator KENNEDY, who is our leader on education issues, as we know, in terms of his position on ESEA, said it looks as though if we don't reauthorize the Elementary and Secondary Education Act when the funding expires, which is this year—which is this year—it will be the first time since the 1960s, since 1965, that this bill will not have been reauthorized.

What I want to ask my friend—I know he is going to take his time to talk about prescription drugs, and I am going to stay here for that. It seems to me, with both Presidential candidates out there talking about education, and with huge differences in the two positions; where you have George Bush supporting a voucher system to pull money out of the public schools into the private schools, and you have AL GORE saying he wants to do twice as much for education; in terms of budget authority, where you have Vice President GORE supporting putting 100,000 new teachers in the classroom and George Bush opposing it; where you have our Vice President supporting school construction, and these are all initiatives that emanated from this side of the aisle with opposition on the other side. A fair debate. Whether or not we want to continue in the tradition of President Eisenhower, a Republican President who said, yes, the Federal Government should step in when there is a void, and that is why he signed the National Defense Education Act saying way back in the fifties—the happy days when I was growing up—that if you do not have an educated workforce, you can have the most powerful military in the world and it will not matter. AL GORE wants to follow in that tradition, but we have the opposition saying the Federal Government should not have anything to do with it, block grant it, and who knows what will happen.

Does my friend agree with me—I know he agrees with me; I would like him to talk about this—why is it so crucial we bring this education bill to the floor—and do it soon—and we allow this Senate to work its will on the issues that all of America cares about, whatever side one is on. Does he not agree this is a stunning departure from tradition and history since 1965? We sit here and there is nobody on the other side. We have the time to talk when we could be acting on the ESEA.

Mr. HARKIN. I thank the Senator for pointing this out. It is true, it is the first time since 1965 we have not reauthorized the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. What the Federal Government has done since the adoption of that bill, since 1965, as the Senator knows, is we have filled in the gaps.

Obviously, education still remains a local and State obligation, as we want it to be, but we recognized there were certain gaps. For example, disadvantaged students: We came up with the title I program to provide needed funds to States to help educate disadvantaged children in disadvantaged areas. I do not think there is a Governor anywhere in this country who does not like title I, or educators. Since we set up title I, it has done great things for our kids. That is at stake here. Without reauthorization, we cannot give guidance and funds to title I.

The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act: for kids with disabilities, is another example of what will slip through the cracks in terms of bringing us into the new century and addressing the new problems in education.

Teacher training is a very vital component of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act to provide guidance and, yes, support for teacher training, for example, in new technologies, such as closing the digital divide. This is all part of that. This will all fall through the cracks.

Because of the intransigence of the Republican majority in the Senate—we will fund it; I am sure we will get the appropriations bill through; we will fund it—we will not address the new problems in education which we need to address. We will still be answering the problems of 8 years ago and 10 years ago rather than addressing new problems.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The time of the Senator from California has expired. The Senator from Iowa now controls the time.

Mr. HARKIN. Mr. President, I will be glad to continue the colloquy with the Senator. I yield to the Senator from California.

Mrs. BOXER. I will be brief. My friend makes such an important point. In this fast moving, global economy we are in, everyone admits education is the key. If all we can do is fund old programs—by the way, they are good; we are not going to walk away from them—but if we cannot address the new challenges—and my friend mentions specifically the digital divide. Senator MIKULSKI and I have been working on a very good bill. We let thousands and thousands of foreign workers in here when we still have a 4-percent unemployment rate—by the way, the best in generations, but we do have people who need jobs—we do not have a shortage of workers, as Senator MIKULSKI says, we have a shortage of skills.

My friend is so right to point out that when we do not authorize bills and we cannot look at the new solutions and the new challenges, we might as well be living in the last century.

I thank my friend for yielding me additional time. I look forward to his presentation on Medicare. I will sit here and listen to his wisdom on that and maybe he can answer a question or two as he goes about his presentation. I thank my friend.

Mr. HARKIN. Mr. President, I respond in kind by thanking the Senator from California for pointing out again what is at stake because we are not allowed to offer our amendments. The Senator from California has done a great service not only to the Senate, but to the country, in pointing out why so many people are disenfranchised in this country because they do not have a voice with which to speak here if we are blocked from offering our amendments. I thank the Senator from California for pointing that out.

I want to talk about another issue we are, again, blocked from addressing in the Senate, and that is the issue of prescription drugs for the elderly. Of all the issues out there that cry out for solutions and intervention, this has to be No. 1 on our plate. Anyone who has gone to their State and talked with the elderly who are on Social Security, who are on Medicare, has heard heartrending story after heartrending story about how much our seniors are paying out of pocket for prescription drugs.

Vice President GORE was in my home State of Iowa yesterday. There is a story that was running on the news programs and in the newspapers this morning about a 79-year-old woman. I do not know her. I have never met her, to the best of my knowledge. Winifred Skinner, 79 years old, from, I believe, the small town of Altoona—but I cannot be certain about that—who showed up at a meeting with Vice President GORE and talked about how she goes along the streets and the roadways picking up aluminum cans because she can get payment for them. I think it is a nickel a can, if I am not mistaken. She collects these to make some money to help pay for her prescription drugs.

This is a real person. It is not a phony person. This is a real person with real problems, and she needs some help. We have tried time and again to bring this legislation to the Senate floor to openly debate it. If other people have other ideas, let's debate them, have the votes, and let's see what the Senate's position will be, but we are precluded from doing so.

Now we have an ad campaign put on by the Republican candidate for President, Gov. George Bush. This TV ad campaign is being waged across the country to deceive and frighten seniors about the Medicare prescription drug benefit proposed by Senate Democrats and Vice President AL GORE. I thought I would take a few minutes today, as I will do every day we are in session, to set the record straight.

First, we have to examine Bush's ''Immediate Helping Hand.'' That is what he calls it, ''Immediate Helping Hand.'' Quite simply, it is not immediate and, secondly, it does not help.

Is it immediate? No. The Bush proposal for prescription drugs for the elderly requires all 50 States to pass some enabling or modifying legislation. Only 16 States right now have any drug benefit for seniors. Many State legislatures do not meet but every 2 years, so we might have a 2-year lapse or 3-year or 4-year lapse in the Bush proposal.

How do we know this? Our most recent experience is with the CHIP program, the State Children's Health Insurance Program. We passed it in 1997. It took Governor Bush's home state of Texas over 2 years to implement the CHIP program.

In addition, the States have said they do not want this block grant program. This is what the National Governors' Association said, Republicans and Democrats, by the way:

> If Congress decides to expand prescription drug coverage to seniors, it should not shift that responsibility or its costs to the states. . . .''

But that is exactly what the Bush 4-year program does.

Again, keep in mind, the Bush proposal on prescription drugs is a two-phased program. In the first 4 years, he delegates it to the States. As I pointed out, States do not even want to do it.

Secondly, many legislatures do not meet for 2 years.

Thirdly, talk about a ''helping hand,'' who gets helped under the Bush program? If your income is more than $14,600 a year, you are out—$14,600 a year, and you are out.

What does that mean? It means many of the seniors will not qualify. The Bush plan will only cover 625,000 seniors, less than 5 percent of those who need help.

Again, under the Vice President's proposal—and what we are supporting—all you need is a Medicare card. If you have a Medicare card, you can voluntarily sign up for a drug benefit, your doctor prescribes the drugs. You go to the pharmacy and you get your drugs. That is the end of it. That is all you have to show.

If you are under the Bush program, you are going to have to take your income tax return down, plus probably other paperwork to show your assets, to show that you have income of less than $14,600.

Mrs. BOXER. Would my friend yield on this point for a question?

Mr. HARKIN. Yes.

Mrs. BOXER. Because I think this is a stunning point that you have made and are amplifying on today. Out of the 34 million senior citizens in this country who are covered under Medicare—not to mention the 5 million disabled; let's throw that out for a moment because they would qualify for the Gore plan; let's just focus on the 34 million—how many seniors are you saying, if everything went right in their States and they were able to get the enabling legislation—they went to the welfare office, they got the stamp of approval—if it all went right, how many seniors are you estimating would be covered under the Bush plan?

Mr. HARKIN. According to a recent study, if the experience of state pharmacy assistance programs is any guide, of the 34 million, about 625,000—less than 5 percent of those eligible—would sign up for a low-income drug plan.

Mrs. BOXER. Less than 700,000 people.

Mr. HARKIN. That is right.

Mrs. BOXER. Under the first 4 years of the Bush plan, out of the 34 million seniors, this new benefit would go to less than 700,000 people. And those people have to go through the welfare offices. If there is no other reason to oppose it, there it is. It is a sham. It does not do much for hardly anybody.

Mr. HARKIN. That is true.

I thank the Senator from California for amplifying on that. Because Governor Bush's program is not Medicare; it is welfare. What seniors want is they want Medicare, they do not want welfare.

Look at the States. To sign up for Medicare, seniors fill out long, complex applications in 26 States. They must meet an extensive asset and income test in 41 States. And they have to sign up in the welfare office in 34 States. Maybe that is why only 55 percent of eligible seniors sign up for Medicaid compared to 98 percent who sign up for Medicare.

That is what the Bush proposal would do: Send seniors to the local welfare office. Take your income tax returns down, take down other paperwork, fill it out, show them what your income and assets are, and then maybe—maybe—you will qualify.

As I have said repeatedly, the seniors of this country want Medicare, they do not want welfare. The Bush plan would put them on welfare. Then, after the 4 years—the first 4 years of the Bush block grant—then what does his proposal do? His proposal turns it over to the HMOs. So it gets even worse.

The long-term plan under Governor Bush is tied to privatizing Medicare, a move that would raise premiums and force seniors to join HMOs. Under the Bush drug plan, there would be radical changes in Medicare—radical changes. You would not recognize it today.

Premiums for regular Medicare would increase 25 to 47 percent in the first year alone. Why is that? Why do we say that? Because once you turn it over to the HMOs and the insurance companies—which is what the Bush plan does—after the first 4 years, it shifts to universal coverage, but turns it over to the insurance companies.

Obviously, the insurance companies are going to do what we call cherry pick. They are going to pick the healthiest seniors and give them a really good deal to join their insurance program. Who does that leave in Medicare? The oldest and the sickest. And to cover the Medicare costs, under legislation we have that exists, their premiums will go up 25 to 47 percent in the first year alone. That is shocking.

But we have to understand that what the Bush proposal is for Medicare is the fulfillment of Newt Gingrich's dream to let Medicare ''wither on the vine.'' Governor Bush supported that concept when Mr. Gingrich was Speaker of the House. Governor Bush's proposal fulfills Newt Gingrich's dream because by turning it over to the insurance companies, by privatizing Medicare, it would ''wither on the vine.''

Governor Bush would leave seniors who need drug coverage at the mercy of HMOs. Listen. Under the Bush proposal, who would decide what the premiums are going to be? HMOs. Who would decide copayments? HMOs. Who would decide any deductibles? HMOs. Who would even decide the drugs that you can get? It would be the HMOs—not your doctor, not your pharmacist.

Lastly, as someone who represents a rural State and who still lives in a town of 150 people, the Bush plan would leave rural Americans out in the cold. Thirty percent of our seniors live in areas with no HMOs.

In Iowa, we have no Medicare HMOs. Listen to this. Only eight Iowa seniors, who happen to live near Sioux Falls, SD, belong to a Medicare HMO with a prescription drug benefit. Yet in Iowa, we have the highest proportion of the elderly over the age of 80 anywhere in the Nation. And only eight—count them—elderly, who happen to live near Sioux Falls, SD, belong to a Medicare HMO that has a prescription drug benefit.

Also, HMOs are dropping like flies out of rural areas. Almost a million Medicare beneficiaries lost their HMO coverage this year alone, mostly in rural areas.

So, again, our seniors want Medicare. They do not want welfare. The Bush plan turns it over to the States for the first 4 years. Take your income tax returns down, show how poor you are, maybe you will get help.

The Bush plan for prescription drugs says, if you are rich, you are fine. If you are real poor, you are OK. But if you are in the middle class, you are going to pay for it both ways.

Lastly, we have to talk about priorities. The Bush priority is $1.6 trillion in tax breaks, almost 50 percent of which goes to the top 1 percent of the wealthiest people in this country. For prescription drugs for the elderly, he is proposing $158 billion over the next 10 years. There you go. Those are the priorities right there.

So every day we are in session, I will take the floor to point out the fallacies in Governor Bush's proposal for prescription drugs for the elderly, how it will put elderly first on the welfare rolls—they will have to be eligible for welfare—and then take their income tax returns down; and how, secondly, it will turn it over to the private insurance companies, and it will destroy Medicare as we know it.

Mrs. BOXER. Will my friend yield?

Mr. HARKIN. I will say one more time, what the seniors of this country want is they want Medicare; they do not want welfare.

Mrs. BOXER. Will my friend yield for a question?

I think the chart that you have behind you is crucial for people to look at.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Iowa has used 15 minutes.

Mr. HARKIN. May I have 5 more minutes?

Mr. REID. I say to my friend from Iowa, of course you can have 5 more minutes. We have Senator LANDRIEU here to speak. And I would say, before yielding that time to my friend from Iowa, you have painted the picture so well that Senator BYRD started today. Because if we had the proper process around here, we would have been debating these issues a long time ago.

Mr. HARKIN. Exactly.

Mr. REID. So I yield 5 minutes to the Senator from Iowa. Following that, I yield 5 minutes to the Senator from Louisiana, Ms. LANDRIEU.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. FITZGERALD). Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. HARKIN. I yield to the Senator from California.

Mrs. BOXER. I thank my friends, and I thank the Senator from Louisiana for her patience. This is an important point that she made to me yesterday and to a number of my colleagues.

I think the chart that is behind the Senator from Iowa tells a story all America has to see. This tax cut is so enormous, with such enormous tax breaks for those at the top—for example, those over $350,000 will get back $50,000 a year compared to those at $30,000 who will get back a few hundred dollars—that it is impossible for Governor Bush to do anything real for the American people that the American people want.

I asked myself, why would it be that his prescription drug policy would only cover 5 percent of the seniors who need it. The easy answer: Even if he wanted to do more—and let's say he does; I will give him that break—he can't do more, because when you look at what he wants to do for the military and what he says he wants to do for education, and it goes on, it does not add up. So what happens to Governor Bush is that he has to take tiny little baby steps for things he thinks are important because he doesn't have the resources because he is committed to this enormous tax break, instead of doing what AL GORE has done, which is to say: Yes, we will give tax breaks, but we will give them to the middle class. We will do it for people who need to send their kids to college by helping them with their tuition. We will do it for people who need health care by making that deductible. We will do it for the people who are working hard every day, struggling and fighting to make ends meet.

The last point I will make to my friend is a comment by the president of the Health Insurance Association of America, who said:

> Private drug-insurance policies are doomed from the start.

That is the Bush plan.

> The idea sounds good but it cannot succeed in the real world. I don't know of an insurance company that would offer a drug-only policy like that or even consider it.

This isn't TOM HARKIN talking or HARRY REID talking or MARY LANDRIEU or BARBARA BOXER or ZELL MILLER. This is the head of the Insurance Association of America.

I say to my friend, in closing the extra time he has, the chart behind him tells the story, and this quote tells the story. It is truly, unfortunately, a sham prescription drug plan.

Mr. HARKIN. I thank the Senator from California. She is absolutely right. Forty-three percent of these tax breaks go to the top 1 percent, who have an average income of over $915,000 a year. This is where Governor Bush's tax breaks go. Yet Winifred Skinner—age 69, in my home State of Iowa—has to go around the streets and the roads and pick up aluminum cans so she can pay for her prescription drugs. I think that says it all.

I thank the Senator from California. I thank the Senator for yielding me the time and yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Louisiana is recognized.

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, I join my colleague from California and my colleague from Iowa in their remarks and thank our colleague from Iowa for spending the time to point out the important differences in the approaches as we get closer to this election. It is something the American people in our democracy will ultimately decide. I thank him.

I also point out to my colleague from California that not only would we not be able to afford the right kind of prescription drug plan for America because of the huge tax cut proposal that the Governor of Texas has proposed, we would not be able to give the military the added investments that it may or may not need. We may be debating that, but the generals appeared yesterday to describe how they needed some increase in investments in the military in certain ways and we need to modernize and streamline and save money where we can. But there are clearly some areas where we will not even be able to do that, if the proposed tax cut plan is in effect. We won't be able to provide the kind of Medicare coverage we need, and we will not be able to strengthen our military in the ways that we perhaps need to as we restructure and reshape.

Mr. President, our senior Senator from West Virginia has made a very important point. He has urged all of us in this Chamber to pay attention to a very important concept in our Constitution that is in the process of being violated. This affects Louisiana and States such as ours. Twenty-three are listed on this chart, as the Senator pointed out.

No one brings a deeper understanding of the constitutional prerogatives and responsibilities of this body than does Senator BYRD, our esteemed colleague from West Virginia. I also know that he is intimately familiar with the writings of John Jay in one of the most cherished pieces of prose regarding our democracy, the Federalist Papers. In Federalist No. 64, he writes:

> As all the States are equally represented in the Senate, and by men the most able and most willing to promote the interests of their constituents, they will all have an equal degree of influence in that body, especially while they continue to be careful in appointing proper persons, and to insist on their punctual attendance.

Although I agree with this, I don't know if our Founding Fathers ever thought there would be a day where there were women in the Senate, but obviously this quote would apply so that men and women in the Senate would have equal opportunity to represent their States.

When we follow these rules, as we can see, our Founding Fathers intended this body to represent the great States of our Union equally. Sadly, after years of hearing of the importance of federalism, the Senate is proceeding down a course that makes a mockery of this ideal.

I represent one of the 20 States without a member on the Appropriations Committee in either Chamber. Currently there is no one from Louisiana on the Appropriations Committee in the House or in the Senate. The only protection a State such as mine—one of the earliest additions to the Union, I might add—has is the power and process of this Chamber. That power and that process is being jeopardized.

When the Senate leadership attempts to short-circuit that process, they trample on the rights of States and undermine our very constitutional structure.

This Senator will be asked to vote, I am certain, on an enormous bill that I could not possibly have read, that has never passed out of this body, and which I will have no opportunity to amend.

Let me say it again. The people in Louisiana, and these 23 States on this chart, will have no opportunity to amend this final bill that is going to be before us shortly. Our rules were written to give life to the intentions of our Founding Fathers that we have the opportunity to deliberate and amend any measure offered in this body. When we follow those rules, all States are truly equal—the most populous and prosperous, as well as the smallest and most in need. That is what our Constitution contemplated, but that is not what we are living out today.

A measure very important to my State, as many of you know, is the Conservation and Reinvestment Act. I am concerned by virtue of the process we are following that this critical legislation, despite the support of 63 Senators, will not be debated on the Senate floor. That potential reality is unfair to Louisiana; it is unjust to the 4.5 million people who live in my State. It is certainly not what John Jay, one of our founders, had in mind 200 years ago.

I think it is important to warn my colleagues now that this Senator intends to defend her State's place in this body. I thank my friend from West Virginia. I salute him for his ongoing leadership in this cause, and I look forward to helping him return this body to its appropriate place in the constitutional order. So whether we are debating Medicare or our military or the environment and the Conservation and Reinvestment Act, I hope that the people of my State can truly be represented in that process. That is why they elected me and I plan to defend that right.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, Senator BYRD has asked that I allocate the time that is remaining under the original time given him under the unanimous consent agreement.

The Democratic leader will be out in a few minutes to take half an hour. When he completes his statement, Senator KENNEDY will follow for half an hour. When he completes his statement at about 1:30, Senator CONRAD will be here to speak for half an hour. Following that, Senator DORGAN will be here for half an hour. Following that, Senator JOHNSON will be here to speak for 10 minutes. Senator DURBIN will come at approximately 2:40 to speak for about a half hour. Senator KOHL will speak around 3 or 3:10. At that time, most of the time will be gone. Senator BYRD will have the remaining time.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Democratic Leader is recognized.

Mr. DASCHLE. Mr. President, I compliment the Senator from California and the Senator from Iowa for their extraordinary colloquy this afternoon on prescription drugs. There is so much confusion, unfortunately, on the issue, largely generated intentionally by the other side, hoping to confuse people, obfuscate the question, and confuse the issue. The Senators from California and Iowa have, with great clarity, redefined it and redescribed it. I hope my colleagues, if they did not have the chance to hear them, will read it in the RECORD tomorrow. It was really an extraordinary contribution. I am grateful to them.

Also, I am grateful to the distinguished senior Senator from West Virginia for allocating this time. I think it is very important that we have an opportunity to talk about how it is that we got here. I want to devote my comments to the question of how we got here, and I will talk about two things.

First, I want to talk about how we got here in the larger context of Senate rules and Senate procedure and the practice of the majority under the rules and Senate procedure. And then I want to talk a little bit about the schedule itself and how it is we got here, with only two days remaining in the fiscal year, and so much work still incomplete.

I think it is very important for us to understand that, procedurally, we have seen the disintegration of this institution in so many ways. I have come to the floor on other occasions to talk about this disintegration. I think this is important for newer Senators to understand. I see the extraordinarily able new Member from Georgia, a Senator who has just joined us, Mr. MILLER. I worry about the Senator ''Millers'' and about the Senator ''Fitzgeralds,'' our current Presiding Officer. I worry about those who may not have understood what the Senate institution looked like as an institution years ago.

The controversy that we are facing is not about procedural niceties. The right to debate and the right to amend are fundamental rights to every Senator as he or she joins us in this Chamber. Without those features, those abilities, we diminish substantially the nature of the office of Senator, the institution of the Senate, and indeed the reason why Senators come here in the first place.

Obviously, we are here to debate the great issues of the day. But how does one do it if we are relegated to press conferences or other forums that force us to talk about those matters off the floor? This Chamber has been called the most deliberative body in the world. Yet I worry about how little we have actually deliberated this year. And because we have not deliberated, the Senate as an institution has suffered.

Unfortunately, over the last few years, I believe the Senate has changed dramatically. We have been denied the opportunity to offer amendments, as we are right now on the pending legislation, the so-called H–1B bill. In the entire 106th Congress, we have had only a handful of opportunities where Senators were given their prerogative, given their fundamental right as a Senator, to do what they came here to do: to represent their constituents through active participant in the legislative process here on the floor of the United States Senate.

There has been an extraordinary abuse of cloture. Over one-fourth of all the cloture votes in history—over 25 percent—have been cast since 1995.

Twenty-five percent of all the cloture votes in history have been cast in the last four years. That is one figure I hope people will remember.

The other one which I think is critical is that we have had more cloture votes in 1999 than any other year in history. We broke a record there as well.

Under the majority leader's approach, we have also had the most first-day cloture filings ever. We have never had this many cloture filings on the first day.

This is a motion to invoke cloture. This is what it says. They are all the same. It is a stock statement.

> We the undersigned Senators, in accordance with the provisions of rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate, do hereby move to bring to a close debate on the pending amendment—in this case the marriage tax penalty bill.

The key phrase is the one we have outlined in yellow: ''To bring to a close debate.''

I ask anybody who is even a casual observer of debate: How can you close debate before it has even started? But that is what we are doing. A bill is filed. Amendments are filed to the bill in order to close the parliamentary tree. That denies us the opportunity to offer amendments. Then cloture is filed so we can bring to a closure debate that hasn't even begun.

We have done that more in 1999—of course we don't know about 2000 yet—than in any other year in our history. Of all the cloture votes together, over all of these years, 25 percent of them were in just the last 4.

Under previous leaders, we filed cloture, of course. There were some great debates about many issues in the past that went on for days and weeks and even months. People would be here 24 hours a day. The debates would go on, and a majority leader would be compelled to file cloture to bring the debate to a close. Why? Because they had been debating it. That is what they were supposed to do. That is why cloture is supposed to be filed. Yet now we find ourselves voting on cloture before we have had even the first hour or the first 5 minutes of debate.

We are also rewriting the rules on amendments themselves. Recently, we outlawed nongermane sense-of-the-Senate amendments to appropriations bills. We can't do that anymore.

The number of amendments have also been grossly restricted. I have never seen, as I have this year, the overly restrictive way with which we have approached virtually every single bill.

Take the Elementary and Secondary Education Act, the bill we took up earlier this year. An average of 39 amendments have been offered to ESEA reauthorization bill over the last 25 years—39 amendments. Yet this year, only four Democratic amendments to the ESEA bill were permitted before the bill was pulled. That's right: historically, there were an average of 39 amendments to ESEA bills. This year, Democrats offered four amendments, and the bill was gone. We are told we don't have time to complete the bill. We are told the Democrats shouldn't even think about offering all of these amendments. We are told that bills should be passed with no amendments at all, or if we must offer amendments, they must meet the strict definition of ''relevant'' used by the parliamentarian.

The interesting thing is, nonrelevant amendments have been considered OK for the Republican Party in the past. I have a chart that shows some of the examples of non-relevant amendments offered when the Republicans were in the minority, and even in some cases when they were in the majority.

We had a juvenile justice bill that came up in 1999. The majority leader saw fit to offer a ''prayer at school memorial services'' amendment to a juvenile justice bill. That was OK.

We had a Commerce-Justice appropriations bill 2 years ago. It was OK to offer a sense-of-the-Senate resolution on Social Security at that time.

We had a supplemental appropriations bill. This was when the Republicans were in the minority, and the Senator from Delaware, now chairman of the Finance Committee, Senator ROTH, certainly didn't see anything wrong with offering a tax cut amendment to that bill. Evidently, that was OK, too.

Yet now Republicans are saying: Democrats don't have a right to offer nonrelevant amendments, nongermane amendments. We can, but you can't.

I don't understand that logic. I don't understand how in 1993 when they were in the minority the senior Senator from North Carolina saw fit to offer a patent for the Daughters of the Confederacy amendment to the community service bill.

I don't see how we could have a Lithuanian independence amendment to the Clean Air Act. I want clean air in Lithuania, but I have to tell you this had nothing to do with clean air in Lithuania. This wasn't relevant. This wasn't germane.

There is a double standard here. I hope people understand our frustration as they watch the action and hear the words.

We have also trivialized Senate-House conferences over the last several years. The scope of the conference rule was repealed. Now conference reports can include anything and everything—even measures that were never included in either House.

That is all part of what got us to the problem we are in now with appropriations. All of this, I might say, goes back to the concern the senior Senator from West Virginia shared as he talked about the procedures and the breakdown of the institution. When we repeal the scope of conference rule that said things had to be in either the House or Senate bill before they could be considered in conference, when we repealed that, we opened up, as our Senator from New Mexico likes to call it, a ''box of Pandoras''—a real box of Pandoras.

We now have sham conferences. It is almost like a huge U-Haul truck is pulled right up to the front door. We just lob everything in there and drive it on down to the White House. Nobody knows what is in that big box of Pandoras. It is put into that truck, hauled down to the White House, the President signs it, and it becomes law.

It is getting worse and worse. Now we find our Republican colleagues want to take what happened in a subcommittee, where maybe a handful of people know anything about it, bypass this Chamber entirely, go into a conference, load up that truck, and take it down to the White House. That is why we said no last week. That is why we said you can't marry these bills that have had no consideration on the Senate floor—sham conferences.

I know why we are doing this. In fact, our colleagues on the other side have been very candid about it, both privately and publicly. They have said: We don't want to have to vote on these tough issues. We have a lot of vulnerable incumbents. We are not going to allow these amendments if they are going to be problematic.

I am sorry if someone is inconvenienced. We have had to do that for years. Casting votes is what being a Senator is all about. If you oppose a measure, then table an amendment, offer a second degree, offer an alternative.

There has to be a way of doing it other than gagging this institution. Forcing cloture votes against imagined filibusters in order to cast blame just doesn't work.

There are those on the other side who have said we shouldn't have to spend more than a couple of days on any one of these bills. We should be able to get these things done within 24 to 48 hours. Why should they take so long? My answer is because this is the Senate. I will get into days in just a minute. We have the days.

We have ways with which to ensure we can have a good debate. We can work Mondays and Fridays. We can work after 6. We could do a lot of things to ensure that the days are there. Some of the very finest pieces of legislation ever to pass the Congress took more than a couple of days. Bills sometimes take longer. They are complicated.

The majority keeps asking for cooperation. But I think what they truly mean is capitulation.

All Senators should be free to debate an amendment. We shouldn't have to face these artificial relevancy requirements. Important bills should have their time on the floor. We ought to have good, rigorous debates. We ought to be able to offer amendments. Let's agree to disagree and let's vote and move on. We did that in 1994 with a piece of legislation from which we still benefit today.

Every crime statistic is down in America today, every single one. Do you know why that is? That is in part because we passed the COPS Program, the community police program. That is because we have provided resources to police officers in ways they didn't have earlier in the decade. Another reason is that we passed an awfully good crime bill in 1994, the last year Democrats were in the majority.

Do you know how long it took? We spent 2 weeks on that crime bill. We had 92 amendments which were proposed, 86 amendments adopted, over 20 rollcall votes. That is the way the Senate is supposed to work—a good, rigorous debate, and ultimately a product that enjoyed, in this case, broad bipartisan support. Why? Because it was a good piece of legislation. Why? Because everybody had their say. Why? Because it was probably an improved product over what it was when it was first introduced.

That ought to be the model. I don't think there was a cloture motion filed in that entire debate. We didn't fill any trees. We didn't say, we have to get this done in 2 days. We didn't say, we don't have time. We said, we are going to do it and we are going to do it right. And we did it right. And 6 years later, we still benefit.

We are prepared to work with our colleagues on the other side. We only hope they share the deeply held view about commitment to the institution, about commitment to the rights of each Senator, about an understanding of the responsibility for the legacy of this institution for future Senators and for all of this country as we consider the fragile nature of democracy itself.

I said there were two items. The first was procedural; the second is schedule. The majority later said last year:

> We were out of town two months and our approval rating went up 11 points. I think I've got this thing figured out.

They are sure acting as if they have it figured out. If they were motivated to be out, so their points went up, they have shown it by the schedule.

This is the schedule for the year. All those red days are days we are not in session. All the blue days are the days we are in session. Look at all those red days. Yet we are told: We don't have time. We don't have time to take up appropriations bills. We don't have time to take up amendments. We don't have time to take up a legislative agenda.

We don't have time? Maybe it is because there is a little more red than there ought to be. The number of days we are scheduled to be in session in the year 2000 is shown: 115. That is the number of days in session in the year 2000. Keep in mind, there are 365 days in the year, yet all we could find time for were 115 out of that 365. As it happens, this is the shortest session of the Senate in half a century—since 1956. In fact, this year's schedule is only two days longer that the infamous do-nothing Congress of 1948.

The number of days with no votes in the year 2000, out of that 115: 34. We will be in session for 115 days in session out of 365 days, but we have lopped off a third of those days. On 34 of the 115 days, we have had no votes at all.

But there is no time.

The number of days on Mondays with votes in the year is shown. Out of all the Mondays in this year, we have only had three where we have had votes—three Mondays.

On how many Fridays of this year 2000 did we have votes? Six. We did a little bit better on Fridays than Mondays. Three Mondays with votes; six Fridays with votes.

Mondays with votes in September? There it is: One.

No time for appropriations bills. No time for all of the issues Democrats wanted to take up. Yet on only 1 Monday in the month of September did we have votes.

On Fridays in September, we didn't do quite as well. I don't know how we explain no votes on Fridays in September when we have all this work, knowing we will bump up against the end of the fiscal year at the end of this month. Imagine not having votes on Mondays or Fridays, knowing we have 11 appropriations bills that are yet to be completed.

Appropriations bills completed to date? Only two. We are dealing here with numbers most people understand: 1's and 2's.

We have done a little calculating because now we are getting into more advanced arithmetic. I said we have been using 1's and 2's and 0's. We used our calculator to decide how long it would take at this rate to complete the work on the remaining 11 appropriations bills, and now we are into triple digits: 572 days to complete work on the 11 appropriations bills on this schedule.

Finally, there is one more calculation. I am sure people are trying to figure that out. If you take the 572 and project it out, I promise we will be finished by April 16 of the year 2002. That is when we finish our work on the appropriations bills using the schedule we have adopted in the year 2000: 4/16/02—April 16, 2002. So mark that in your calendars, folks. That is likely to be the year, the month, and the day that we finish our bills using the schedule we have employed this year.

Someone once said, 90 percent of success is just showing up. Maybe that is our problem. We aren't showing up. Maybe we ought to show up a little bit more. Maybe we ought to work on Mondays and Fridays. Maybe we ought to work a little bit longer after 6 o'clock. Ninety percent of success is just showing up. Maybe we can be a little more successful. When we show up, maybe we ought to remember why we are here. Maybe we ought to remember the prerogatives of every Senator. Maybe we ought to call back the golden days when Senators debated profoundly on the issues of the day.

Open this drawer: Lyndon Baines Johnson sat at this desk, Mike Mansfield sat at this desk, Joe Robinson sat at this desk, ROBERT C. BYRD sat at this desk. George Mitchell sat at this desk. I don't know how I would explain to my predecessors what has happened to the Senate this year. That is why the same ROBERT C. BYRD came to the floor this morning. Listen to ROBERT C. BYRD. Listen to George Mitchell. Go back in the RECORD and listen to Lyndon Baines Johnson, listen to Joe Robinson, and remember what Mike Mansfield said.

Let's call back the glory of this institution. Let's remember why we are here, and we can then all be proud.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Massachusetts.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, I express my appreciation for the Democratic leader's excellent statement and comment.

I was listening particularly to the wrap-up and recalling a number of the majority leaders with whom I had the good opportunity to serve bringing into real relief how at that time we did have the engagement of the issues and the resolution of questions of public policy.

That was the time-honored tradition of this body. It hails back to the time of the Constitutional Convention and our Founding Fathers and what they believed we ought to be about.

I hope his words will be taken to heart by our colleagues as welcoming into these final days of this session.

We are now in the final days of this session. This afternoon, we will mark the end of the current fiscal year by passing a bill—a continuing resolution—that acknowledges that Congress was unable to complete its work. So now we're going to put government funding on auto-pilot while our Republican friends figure out what to do.

We started this year—the first of the new millennium—with great hope. We were going to pass new laws to meet the urgent needs of families across America—to improve health care and education, and provide jobs for working families. The question is, did American taxpayers get their money's worth?

So far in this first year of the new millennium, we have enacted: 27 laws naming new federal buildings; 7 laws granting awards to individuals; 3 technical corrections to existing laws; 4 laws establishing small foreign assistance projects; 4 commemoratives, and 2 laws establishing new commissions.

We found time in our busy schedules to pass a sense of Congress resolution calling for democracy in a Latin American country. We relocated people from one South Pacific atoll to another. We encouraged the development of methane hydrate resources. We allowed the Interior Department to collect new fees for films made in our parks. We eliminated unfair practices in the boxing industry. We renamed the Washington Opera as the National Opera. We passed a new law providing assistance to neotropical migratory birds.

I have no doubt that each of these laws was necessary. But nowhere on the list did we pass the Elementary and Secondary Education Act to strengthen the nation's public schools. Nowhere on this list is the Patients' Bill of Rights. Nowhere do we find a Medicare prescription drug benefit for senior citizens. Nowhere is a long-overdue increase in the minimum wage. Nowhere does Congress strengthen our laws against hate crimes. Nowhere on the list are new gun laws to keep our schools and communities safe.

If ever a ''Do-Nothing'' label fit a Congress, it fits this ''Do-Nothing'' Republican Congress.

Our country as a whole is enjoying an unprecedented period of prosperity—the longest period of economic growth in our nation's history. But for millions of Americans, it is someone else's prosperity. Working 40 hours a week, 52 weeks a year, a person earning the minimum wage earns only $10,700 a year—$3,400 below the poverty line for a family of three.

Over the past three decades, the extraordinary benefits of our record prosperity have been flagrantly skewed in favor of the wealthiest members of society. We are pleased with the Census Bureau Report this week showing that the poverty rate dropped to its lowest level since 1979. Yet, poverty has almost doubled among full-time, year-round workers since the late 1970s—from about 1.5 million to almost 3 million by 1998, according to a June 2000 Conference Board report.

Today, the top one percent of households have more wealth than the entire bottom 95 percent combined.

Yet, despite this historic period of economic growth, minimum wage workers are not able to afford adequate housing. The National Low Income Housing Coalition recently found that the current minimum wage fails to provide the income necessary to afford a two bedroom apartment in any area of this country.

Often, workers are putting in longer hours on the job, and more family members are working. A study released by the Economic Policy Institute this month shows that in 1998, lower income families are working 379 more hours a year than they were in 1979.

The increase in working hours for African American and Hispanic families is even more dramatic. Middle-class African American families work an average of 9.4 hours more per week than their white counterparts. Hispanic families work five hours a week more than whites at every income level.

Parents are spending less and less time with their families—22 hours less a week than they did 30 years ago, according to a study last year by the Council of Economic Advisers. Serious health and safety problems result when employees are forced to work long hours. A recent front page article in the New York Times told the story of Brent Churchill, a power lineman, who died in an on-the-job accident after working two and a half days on a total of 5 hours of sleep.

There are signs that at least House Republicans are finally coming around to our way of thinking. They have offered the President a plan to raise the minimum wage. This positive development gives us real hope that we can raise the pay of the lowest paid workers before we adjourn. But we cannot misuse an increase in the minimum wage as an excuse to cut workers' overtime pay, as the GOP proposes. The overtime pay provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act have been in place for over 60 years, and they protect the rights of 73 million Americans.

Republicans also want to use any minimum wage legislation as a vehicle to repeal protections from millions of Americans who work hard as inside salespeople, funeral directors, embalmers, and computer technicians. These changes would punish these workers for advances in technology that have made businesses more efficient. They would take away basic protections from precisely those occupations where long hours are most at issue.

The Republican proposal also freezes the guaranteed cash wage for waiters and waitresses, and other tip employees. These men and women are usually among the lowest paid workers and often struggle to make ends meet.

Finally, the tax breaks in the Republican proposal are not reasonable. They total $76 billion over ten years, compared to the $21 billion tax cut that was included in the last minimum wage law that was enacted in 1996.

Congress is quick to find time to vote to increase their own salaries. The increase now pending would mean a raise of over $4,000 a year. Yet, we have not found the time to pass an increase in the minimum wage to benefit hard-working, low-income Americans at the bottom of the economic ladder. Each day we fail to act, families across the country fall farther behind. The dollar increase we propose now should have gone into effect in January 1999. Since then, minimum wage workers have lost over $3,000 due to the inaction of Congress.

The American people overwhelmingly support raising the minimum wage. They agree that work should pay, and that the men and women who work hard to earn the minimum wage should be able to afford clothing for their children and food on their tables.

Minimum wage workers should not be forced to wait any longer for the fair increase they deserve. We have bipartisan support for this increase and we are not going to go away or back down. No one who works for a living should have to live in poverty.

Mr. President, these charts depict parents working harder. This charts the hours worked by families with children in the bottom 40 percent of income. It is a comparison of the percent of increase in hours worked from 1979 to 1998. This 13.8 percent represents an average increase of 379 hours of work a year, compared to hours worked in 1979. It is just slightly less for white full-time workers. What we are finding out for Hispanics is it is 5 hours more a week than for white workers, and for African Americans it is 9 hours more. For white workers you have a 337 hour increase, and you almost double that for African American workers.

Let's see what that has meant in terms of where they rate in America in terms of the distribution of income. The bottom fifth of families have declined by 15 percent, even though they are working close to 400 hours a year longer than they were working 20 years ago. They have fallen behind, about a 15 percent decline in their living. For the middle fifth it is about a 12 percent advantage, and the top fifth, a 73 percent advantage.

If you took a chart—I will explain this on the next presentation—and divide the total workforce in fifths, from 1948 to 1975, you would find them virtually all identical. All of America moved together during those years. In the immediate period after World War II, all America moved together.

As a result of hard work and ingenuity, individuals who were successful experienced enhanced prosperity, which is fine. But all Americans who were prepared to work moved along together. Now we are seeing this extraordinary skewing at lower incomes of people working harder and harder and falling further and further behind.

This is another chart which indicates the purchasing value of the minimum wage is gradually declining. The poverty line is increasing which results in more and more American workers working harder and longer and falling into poverty, with all the implications for themselves and their families.

This next chart is extraordinary. It shows the expansion of productivity. We have heard we cannot increase the minimum wage because we have lost our edge in productivity. One can see from this chart the explosion in productivity. The blue line is a decline in real wages.

Historically, wages used to keep pace with the increase in productivity because that affects the actual cost to the employer. If the employees are going to be more productive, they ought to participate in the benefits of increasing profits and increasing productivity. But that is not happening, and it is not happening among the low-income workers.

This next chart shows the purchasing power again. In 1968, it was $7.66; it is now $5.15. Without an increase, it will fall to $4.90, the lowest in the history of the purchasing power of the minimum wage. At a time of the greatest economic prosperity of any country in the world, the income of those individuals who are working 40 hours a week, 52 weeks of the year is the lowest it has been in the history of the purchasing power of the minimum wage. That is absolutely crazy.

We have been denied an opportunity to vote on this issue. Why don't we vote on it and see how the Members feel about it? Why don't we just go ahead and take the vote? But, no, we are denied that opportunity. It is unacceptable that we are leaving here without doing so. That is one part of the unfinished business our leader, Senator DASCHLE, talked about.

The Glenn Commission Report on Math and Science Teaching released yesterday is a clear call to action to do more to put qualified math and science teachers in the Nation's classrooms.

As the commission emphasized, we need greater investments in math and science at every level. This commission is made up of distinguished educators, public officials, school administrators, school boards, local personnel, State national directors, and chaired by our good friend and colleague, Senator John Glenn, who spent such a great deal of time in service in the Senate focusing on and giving life to the issues of math and science training. He provided great leadership. We are very much in his debt for that effort. Now for the last 2 years, he has chaired a very outstanding commission, and they made their recommendations yesterday.

As the commission emphasized, we need greater investments in math and science at every level—federal, state, and local—to significantly increase the number of math and science teachers and improve the quality of their preparation.

We have made some significant progress in recent years, but we cannot afford to be complacent. In our increasingly high-tech economy, high school graduates need strong math and analytical skills in order to be competitive in the workplace. In addition, schools face record-high enrollments that will continue to rise, and they also face serious teacher shortages.

Recruiting, training, and retaining high-quality teachers, particularly math and science teachers, deserve higher priority on our education agenda in Congress. We should do all we can to see that schools have the Federal support they deserve. The need is especially urgent in schools that serve disadvantaged students.

The commission's timely report gives us new bipartisan momentum to address these fundamental issues more effectively.

The report calls for a $3.1 billion investment a year by the federal government for recruiting, mentoring, and training teachers—with most of it for professional development activities. The question is, how fast can Congress respond? Can we act this year, or will we lose another year?

I propose that in the fiscal year 2001 appropriations, we make a down payment on the Glenn Commission recommendation investing $1 billion in teacher quality programs, including Title II of the Higher Education Act, and the Eisenhower Professional Development Program, which makes math and science a priority.

Math and science appropriations is about $335 million. It is in place. It has the confidence of educators. It is focused on math and science. We can take the initiative to enhance that program, following the Glenn recommendations. We can do that as our appropriators are meeting with the administration in these last 2 weeks.

Title II of HEA is vastly underfunded this year at $98 million and the Eisenhower Program is vastly underfunded at $335 million.

By committing $1 billion now, for the coming year, we will be making a needed down payment toward meeting the Nation's teaching needs.

No classroom is any better than the teacher in it. The Glenn Commission report is our chance in Congress to tackle this head on and do what is so obviously needed to improve teacher quality across the country.

It cries out for action, and this is a priority. We should respond to it, and we can do something now. We have to provide the resources for investing in this area, I believe.

Finally, in the debate over prescription drugs, one of the most important reasons for Congress to act and act promptly has often been overlooked. The best source of comprehensive, affordable health insurance coverage for senior citizens is through employer retirement plans. In fact, the combination of Medicare and so-called employer wrap-around coverage is the gold standard for health insurance coverage for the elderly.

But private retirement coverage is in free fall, with ominous implications for all retirees. In the three year period from 1994 to 1997, the proportion of firms offering retiree health coverage dropped by 25 percent. In 1998, and 1999, another 18 percent dropped coverage.

We know one-third of the elderly have no prescription drug coverage. None. Another third have employer-based coverage.

From 1994 to 1997, it dropped 25 percent. From 1997 to 1999, it dropped another 18 percent. All the indicators are going through the bottom. We are seeing dramatic reductions in coverage. We are seeing that prescription drugs are increasingly less relevant in terms of HMOs because the HMOs have been putting in a cap of $1,000 and sometimes $500 in the last 3 years, capping the amount they will actually provide for the senior citizens. And many of them are moving out of parts of the country.

The Medigap program is prohibitively expensive. The only people who are guaranteed prescription drugs with any degree of certainty and predictability are the poorest of Americans under the Medicaid program.

We can do better. We must do better. We can do better even as we are in the last 2 weeks of this session.

A 1999 survey of large employers by the consulting firm of Hewitt Associates found that 30 percent of these firms said they would consider dropping coverage over the next 3 to 5 years. So we have a 25-percent reduction from 1994 to 1997; an 18-percent reduction from 1997 to 1999; and now the prediction of another 30 percent who are going to lose it over the period of the next 3 years.

We know what is happening. The time to act is now.

According to a new study for the Kaiser Family Foundation, a central reason for this decline is the escalating cost of prescription drugs and Medicare's failure to provide coverage. As the study found:

> Prescription drug costs are driving retiree health costs to an unprecedented extent. . . . The drug benefit has represented 40–60 percent of retiree's health costs after accounting for Medicare. Based on current cost trends, Hewitt projects drug benefits to represent as much as 80 percent of total 65+ retiree health costs in 2003.

The study estimates that President Clinton's plan could save employees as much as $15 billion annually when it is fully phased in. They conclude:

> The financial savings could . . . slow the erosion of retiree health care by lowering the costs for prescription drug benefits, which have been increasing for employers at double-digit rates and are a major source of concern.

A critical reason for this Congress to act to provide Medicare prescription drug coverage for the elderly is the worsening situation facing retirees. But the Republican majority won't act. They won't allow a vote. Just 3 days ago, they declared that Medicare prescription drug coverage is dead for this year. Their own proposals are not what senior citizens want and need.

The differences between the two parties are clear on this issue. Vice President GORE and Governor Bush have proposed two very different responses to this problem. The Gore plan provides a solid benefit under the existing Medicare program. Under the leadership of Senator GRAHAM and Senator ROBB, the Senate has already voted on a bipartisan plan that would achieve the objectives of the Gore proposal. With the support of only a few more Republicans, a real prescription benefit can pass this year, so that all our senior citizens can get the prompt help they need.

Shown on this chart are the Gore and Bush plans. You have the comparisons. The Gore plan would be implemented in 1 year. The Bush plan is 4 years, with revenue-sharing with the States or block grants to the States. We would have to appropriate the money. Then, if there is, according to Governor Bush, a significant reform of the Medicare system, within that significant reform of the Medicare system—I don't know whether he means just the privatization or not—a prescription drug program could be included. You have that versus starting in a year from now.

Secondly, with regard to the guaranteed benefits—this is a crucial difference—what does this ''Yes'' shown on the chart mean on guaranteed benefits? It means this: When a senior goes into a health delivery system needing a prescription drug, the doctor prescribes what prescription drug that senior needs, and the rest is arranged through the Medicare system in terms of the payment. But the doctor decides.

As shown over here on the chart, under the Bush proposal it is going to be the HMO. They are going to be the ones making the decision. We can't even get the HMO reform here in the Senate. Now they are suggesting that we have a whole new system of benefits that are going to go through that system, where the HMOs and bean counters, who too often put profits ahead of patients, are going to make that decision.

Under the Gore plan, there will be good coverage. It is going to be comprehensive coverage. But under the Bush plan, we don't know what the coverage is going to be because it will be decided by the HMOs. This means it will be built out of the Medicare system. And this will be some other program that may be built upon HMOs or the private sector, which have been remarkably unsuccessful in many parts of this country.

More than 930,000 people have lost Medicare HMO coverage this year alone. Rather than be expanded, the drug program has been in decline. Senior citizens need help now. AL GORE's plan provides prescription drugs under Medicare for every senior citizen in 2002. Under the Bush proposal, there will be 25 million seniors who will be excluded because they are not eligible under the parameters of the Bush proposal. This makes absolutely no sense.

Experience shows that the Bush proposal would take years to put in operation. Only 14 States have the kind of insurance plans for senior citizens in operation today. This would be all under the Bush proposal. All 50 States must pass new laws or modify legislation. Only 16 States currently have any drug insurance program. The CHIP program—the Children's Health Insurance Program—was passed in August of 1997, was available in October of 1997; and under Texas law, it took them until November 1999 to take advantage of it. It took 2 years to take advantage of it. And the money was already there. The Governors have already indicated they do not want the responsibility to develop, even with the funding, a whole new administration to be able to implement the program. So this is really a nonstarter for seniors.

It makes no sense to depend on HMOs to provide this crucial benefit. The Bush plan does not provide the stable, reliable, guaranteed coverage that should be a part of Medicare's promise to the elderly.

But there is one guarantee under the Bush plan. The benefits are guaranteed to be inadequate. The Bush program allocates almost $100 billion less to prescription drug coverage than the Gore plan. The reason for this lesser amount is obvious. The Bush approach wastes most of the surplus on new tax breaks for the wealthy, and too little is left to help senior citizens.

The nonpartisan Congressional Budget Office has estimated that under the similar Republican plan passed by the House of Representatives, benefits would be so inadequate and costs so high that less than half of the senior citizens who need the help the most—those who have no prescription drug coverage at all—will ever participate. A prescription drug benefit that leaves out half of the senior citizens who need protection the most is not a serious plan to help senior citizens.

There is still time for Congress to enact a genuine prescription drug benefit under Medicare. The administration has presented a strong proposal. Let's work together to enact it this year. It is not too late. The American people are waiting for our answer.

These are some of the issues I would hope we could still address. We ought to be able to pass the minimum wage. It is not complicated. It is not difficult. We know what is at play here.

We ought to be able to finally get prescription drug legislation. We voted on this in the Senate. A majority of the Members of the Senate actually supported a prescription drug program that would be worked through Medicare. We ought to be able to pass that in the Senate. As I mentioned, a majority of the Members already do support it. We ought to be able to get a downpayment on that legislation.

We ought to be able to deal with some of the education challenges. That is important. We ought to be able to get the Patients' Bill of Rights passed, as well as the hate crimes issues, and try to do something on the gun show loophole, and some other matters. These are public policy matters that I think the American people want us to address. They do not want us to be out here now, as we have spent the better part of this week, in quorum calls. They want action, and they want action now. We, on this side of the aisle, are prepared to provide it.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from North Dakota.

Mr. CONRAD. Mr. President, I rise today as a senior member of the Budget Committee to talk about what I see as a breakdown in the budget process in the Senate. I think every member of the Budget Committee and every Member of the Senate ought to be concerned about what has happened the last several years but even more dramatically this year, in what can only be called a virtual meltdown of the budget process.

Those who are watching may say, well, what do we care what the budget process is. We care about the budget outcome. And that is exactly right. The most important thing is the budget outcome. But many times how you start has a lot to do with how you end up, and I am afraid we have now developed a disastrous operating procedure around here.

We start out with a fiction of a budget; we end up with no accountability, no control, and chaos at the end. That is where we are today. This is chaos. Every Member of the Senate knows that is true.

We have a circumstance now where bills are passed in committee, never come to the floor of the Senate, go to a conference committee, the Democrats are locked out of the conference committee, and Senators are denied their right to offer amendments to improve legislation. That is not the way the process is supposed to work. Together we have to mend it. If we don't, we are going to have a circumstance where someday, when the Democrats are going to be back in control, we can operate this way. And if you are in the minority and you are locked out and prevented from offering amendments, your ability to represent your constituents is badly diminished.

This is not just a Democrat issue or Republican issue. This is a question of how we function in this body. It is in all of our interests to have a process where Senators' fundamental rights are protected so they can carry out their fundamental responsibilities.

When I say we are in chaos, the story in the Washington Post yesterday, front-page story, tells us that is true. Here is the story: ''Spending Floodgates Open on Hill.'' Congress is moving to approve the biggest spending increase since Republicans took control in 1995. The binge is setting off alarms among fiscal conservatives and threatens to absorb a chunk of the future surplus.

''It is just a free for all,'' said Senator MCCAIN. ''They are all equal opportunity pork-barrelers . . . This is the worst ever.''

I agree with Senator MCCAIN. This is the worst ever. We have a process that is broken. The budget resolution is being paid no attention. That was predictable because the budget resolution made no earthly sense. It wasn't real. It was a fiction. As a result, we have no control, no accountability for what follows. Everybody is on their own. Every one of these committees is on their own. They are out there dividing them up, throwing it in. We are going to have—I predict today—a stack of paper on our desks, and we are going to be told: Take it or leave it; vote for it or the Government will shut down.

That is where we are headed. It is very clear to anybody who is watching. That should not be the way we conduct the people's business.

What is especially troubling about all this is that we have made enormous progress over the last several years, enormous progress in getting our fiscal house in order. We should not put at risk that progress. We should not put at risk the prosperity that has followed getting our fiscal house in order.

I want to look at the last three administrations and their record on deficits. I think it is instructive as we go into this election season. I think it is instructive as we consider what is occurring in the Senate and the House of Representatives right now.

If we go back 20 years ago, 1981, President Reagan came in. He had the old trickle-down economics. It was a disaster in terms of deficits; the deficits skyrocketed. We went from a deficit of about $80 billion to over $200 billion and tripled the national debt during his years. Fiscally, it was a chaotic time. President Bush came in; the deficit was $153 billion. By the time he left, it was $290 billion—more than double.

That is the record. It is in the books. I know it makes tough reading for some of our friends on the other side, but that is their record on the fiscal health of this country. The fact is, they had a policy of deficits and debt, and those deficits and debt threatened the fundamental economic security of the country.

In 1993, we had a new administration. This is their record—not a question; these are the facts. I remember President Reagan used to say facts are stubborn things. He was absolutely right about that. Facts are stubborn things.

In 1993, the deficit was $255 billion. We passed a 5-year plan to reduce the budget deficit and to get it under control. Our friends on the other side said that if we passed that plan, it would crater the economy. That is what they said at the time. They said it wouldn't reduce the deficit. They said it would increase it. They said it wouldn't reduce interest rates; that it would increase them. They said it wouldn't reduce inflation; that it would increase inflation.

We can go back now and check the record. They were wrong on each and every count—not just a little bit wrong, completely wrong. Look at the record.

Every year of that 5-year plan, the deficit went down and went down dramatically, until we got to the fifth year of the plan and we were headed toward surplus. That is the record. We can look back and see who is right and who is wrong. It is just as clear as it can be.

The question is, Are we going to put all of this at risk? The President announced just the other day that we are going to have a $230 billion budget surplus, a $230 billion budget surplus for fiscal year 2000. Just 8 years ago, we had a $290 billion budget deficit.

The results from this fiscal policy have been very clear. Before I get to the results, let me show how it happened. How did we get into this position? We got into this position by, in 1992, passing a plan that cut spending and, yes, raised taxes on the wealthiest 1 percent—raised income taxes on the wealthiest 1 percent. The revenue line went up; the spending line came down. We balanced the budget. We created surpluses, and the economic results have been dramatic and extraordinarily positive.

We now have the longest economic expansion in our Nation's history. This was recorded on February 1, 2000, in the Washington Post, the headline, ''Expansion is Now Nation's Longest,'' 107 months of economic growth, the longest economic expansion in our Nation's history.

It is not just a record of economic expansion. It is the other positive results we obtained as well by getting our fiscal house in order: the lowest unemployment rate in 42 years; and on inflation, the lowest sustained level since 1965. We have the lowest level of sustained inflation in 35 years because we got our fiscal house in order. The welfare caseload has been cut in half; the percentage on welfare in the country is the lowest since 1967. This is the record. It is very clear. Those of us who supported welfare reform, those of us who supported the budget plan to get our fiscal house in order, those decisions have paid off for the country, and we should not put it all at risk.

Federal spending as a percentage of our national income is the lowest it has been since 1966.

Federal spending is the lowest as a percentage of our national income since 1966. These are the kinds of positive results we have developed as a result of a budget plan that added up, that made sense, that got our fiscal house in order.

Some say, gee, income taxes are the highest they have been in a generation. Not true. The reason we have expanded revenue—yes, we raised rates on the wealthiest 1 percent. That is undeniable. That is correct. That was part of the plan that got our fiscal house in order. But it is also true that we passed sweeping tax cuts, child care credit, expansion of the earned-income tax that dramatically reduced the income taxes of tens of millions of Americans.

On March 26 of this year, the Washington Post, on page 1, ran a story under this headline: ''Federal Tax Level Falls For Most; Studies Show Burden Now Less Than 10 percent'' on a significant part of the American public.

Most Americans, this year, will have to fork over less than 10 percent of their income to the Federal Government when they file Federal income taxes. The fact is, for many segments of our society, income taxes, combined with payroll taxes, have gone down. That is because of the expansion of the earned-income tax, and that is because of the child credit. In fact, if you compare the tax burden for working families—according to the Tax Foundation, this is for a family earning $68,000 in 1999—from 1975—this is both income taxes and payroll taxes—their tax burden declined from 10.4 percent to 8.9 percent.

That is not KENT CONRAD's numbers; those are the numbers from the Tax Foundation.

The Washington Post, in that same story, pointed out:

> For all but the wealthiest Americans, the Federal income tax burden has shrunk to the lowest level in 4 decades, according to a series of studies by liberal and conservative tax experts, the Clinton administration, and two arms of the Republican controlled Congress.

This is the record and these are the facts with respect to what has happened to the income tax burden. Because we have gotten our fiscal house in order, we have seen a substantial reduction in the publicly held debt. We are in a position, if we make no other changes in law, to pay off the publicly held debt of the United States by the year 2009. We all understand there are proposals for additional spending and for tax cuts that will move that back.

The fact is, if we made no changes in current law, we could pay off the publicly held debt in the country by the year 2009. In fact, we are right here on this scale. We have already started paying down the debt. In the last 3 years, we have paid down, I think, over $300 billion of publicly held debt. That is a dramatic transformation, a huge improvement.

Let me just be clear. I give most of the credit to our side of the aisle which, in 1993, passed a 5-year budget plan that did most of the heavy lifting. We didn't have a single vote from the other side of the aisle. But it is also true that in 1997 we finished the job with a bipartisan effort. I say to my colleagues on the other side of the aisle, that was good that we were able to come together in 1997 and do something together to finish the job.

Now the question is: Do we stay on this course or do we go off in some other direction and go back to what I consider the bad old days of debt, deficits, and decline? I hope not. I hope we avoid going back in the deficit ditch.

Let's look ahead. Here is what we are told now. Over the next 10 years, the projections are—remember, they are projections, and projections can change—telling us we can count on $4.6 trillion of surplus. That is extraordinary, the turnaround that has been accomplished. First of all, remember that those are projections. They have improved by a trillion dollars in the last 6 months. They could go the other way in the next 6 months. Let's remember, they are projections.

Two, let's remember the $2.4 trillion—more than half of it—is from Social Security. I think both sides have agreed that we are not going to raid Social Security—at least we agreed rhetorically we are not going to raid Social Security. Another almost $400 billion is Medicare. So you add those two together, and that is $2.8 trillion of the $4.6 trillion, Medicare and Social Security, and that leaves about $1.8 trillion of non-Social Security, non-Medicare surplus.

When I look at the budget plan of Governor Bush, it doesn't add up. It just doesn't add up. This is what concerns me about derailing the progress we have made and going back into the deficit ditch. Let me go through the math. I don't think it can be challenged.

We have the projected surplus of $4.6 trillion. The Social Security surplus is $2.4 trillion. The Medicare surplus is $400 billion. That leaves a remaining non-Social Security, non-Medicare surplus of $1.8 trillion over the next 10 years that has been projected. The Bush tax cut is—his large main proposal costs $1.3 trillion. The other tax cuts that he has endorsed in the campaign are another $300 billion. The interest cost of those tax cuts is another $300 billion. So he has completely wiped out the non-Social Security, non-Medicare surplus. It is gone, poof.

Then he has an additional problem that is very big. He has recommended Social Security privatization. The transition cost of that proposal—or proposals like that one—is about $1 trillion. Where does that come from? Where does that $1 trillion come from? Is he going to take it out of the Social Security surplus? If he does, he has violated the pledge everybody has made here not to raid the Social Security surplus because that money is needed to meet the promises that have been made to existing Social Security recipients. If he takes that $1 trillion out of there, that undermines Social Security solvency because it is a transfer of money to allow people to set up private accounts.

Now, in addition to that, he has used every penny of the non-Social Security, non-Medicare surplus for tax cuts. Where is the additional money for defense? He made a big point in this campaign that we are not at the level of readiness we should have. Where is he going to get any money to deal with that when all of his money—non-Social Security and non-Medicare surplus—goes for tax cuts? Where is he going to get the additional money for education he has called for in this campaign? It doesn't add up.

What worries me very much is that we are going to go right back into the deficit ditch we just crawled out of. What a mistake that would be; what a tragedy for this country it would be to go back to deficits and debt and ultimate economic decline. I hope very much our colleagues will avoid that mistake.

Let me just say that it isn't just the Bush plan that threatens that, in my judgment. I am also worried about those who have massive new spending ideas because this fiscal responsibility, this course that we have embarked on to get our fiscal house in order, can be threatened in several different ways. One way is this Bush plan which, to me, is a financial disaster for the country if we ever adopt it. I hope very much that we do not. That would put us right back in the deficit ditch. But another way to threaten it is out-of-control spending. When you don't have a budget process that has any discipline to it, doesn't have any reality to it, you allow this kind of spending frenzy that is now going on in the committees to emerge. There is no accountability, no plan, and there is fundamentally no discipline.

I hope some colleagues are listening. We did a little calculation about what is out there going through the committees.

The $60 billion 1-year effect they are talking about in the Washington Post is dwarfed by the 10-year effect because we are talking about a 10-year effect of $450 billion by decisions that are being made in some closed room somewhere where one-half of Congress is being excluded. That is not the way to do business.

I hope very much that people on both sides who do not want to see us return to the bad old days of deficits and debt will get together in these final hours and agree that there has to be a better way of doing our business. I know it is not going to change this year, but I hope very much that next year we get back to a budget process that has some integrity to it and some discipline to it because if we fail, I fear very much that we are going to go right back to the bad old days of deficits and debt. That would be a profound mistake for the country.

As one considers how far we have come and the dramatic improvements that we have made, they weren't easy. I know about the votes in 1993 to put in place a 5-year budget plan to get our fiscal house back in order. People lost their political careers as a result. That is not the biggest sacrifice to make. I know that. But the fact is, it was hard. It passed by a single vote in this Chamber. It passed by a single vote over in the House.

We have had such incredible prosperity in part because of the result of those decisions that created the framework so that the American people's hard work, ingenuity, and creativity could lead this economic resurgence. But we see other people who are hardworking and creative living in a failed system. We see it in Russia. We see it in other parts of the world. The fact is that we have a system that works because the monetary and fiscal policy of the United States over the last 8 years has been a good one, has been a sound one, and has been an effective one. But it can all be lost. It can be jeopardized. We can go right back very easily to deficits and debt. All we have to do is pass massive tax cuts that do not add up and pass massive new spending plans in concert with those tax cuts, and we will be right back to deficits, debt, and ultimate economic decline.

This is a matter of choices. It is a matter of choices for those of us who serve in Congress. It is a matter of choices for the American people as they go to the polls. I trust the wisdom of the American people. I trust the wisdom of my colleagues in Congress. I think when people have both sides of the story, they make pretty good judgments. Part of our responsibility is to make certain that people get both sides of the story.

I think I have made the point that Governor Bush has most of his priority placed on tax cuts. That really jeopardizes the fiscal discipline that we have achieved. As I look at what he has proposed, and the $2.2 trillion, which is the surplus without Social Security, and you look at his plan and the additional tax cuts and the interest lost as a result of those tax cuts, you can see not only that he is using up the entire non-Social Security, non-Medicare surplus, he is using up almost entirely the surplus not counting Social Security. That is not a balanced plan. That is a plan that has enormous risk to it.

On top of that, his tax cuts aren't fair. He gives 53 percent of the benefit to the top 35 percent of the American people. That is the analysis by the Citizens for Tax Justice. The lowest 60 percent of the income earners in America get 11 percent of the benefits.

Again, that is not just KENT CONRAD talking; that is not just Citizens for Tax Justice talking.

Senator JOHN MCCAIN in his campaign pointed out that 38 percent of Governor Bush's tax cut goes to the wealthiest 1 percent. That is Senator JOHN MCCAIN's analysis of Governor George Bush's tax plan.

What is the fairness in that? Thirty-eight percent of the benefit goes to the wealthiest 1 percent?

The Governor is fond of saying that the surpluses are not the Government's money; it is the people's money. He has that exactly right. This money is the people's money. Absolutely. The question is, what should be done with the people's money? His idea is to give 38 percent of that to the wealthiest 1 percent. What kind of a plan is that? Wouldn't it be better to take the people's money and pay off the people's debt?

That is what I believe ought to be the top priority. Let's dump this debt. Let's get rid of it once and for all, especially before the baby boomers start to retire. We have a window of opportunity that is going to last about another 12 years. This is the time to dump the debt.

I offered a budget plan to my colleagues that would use 72 percent of these surpluses for debt elimination, 12 percent for tax relief, 12 percent for high priority domestic needs such as defense and education and health care. That, to me, is a set of priorities for the American people. This plan of Governor Bush does not add up.

JOHN MCCAIN said it well in his campaign. He said: ''More importantly, there is a fundamental difference here,'' talking about the difference between himself and George Bush. ''I believe we must save Social Security. We must pay down the debt. We have to make an investment in Medicare. For us to put all of the surplus into tax cuts I think is not a conservative effort. I think it is a mistake.''

That was JOHN MCCAIN. JOHN MCCAIN had it right. There is nothing conservative about this plan that has been put forward by Mr. Bush. It is a radical plan.

On the notion that the Bush budget doesn't add up, again, it is not just my analysis. This appeared in the Wall Street Journal.

Both candidates agree they could afford to set aside Social Security revenues which account for about $2.4 trillion of the projected surplus. That leaves roughly $2.2 trillion.

Of course, they have not subtracted out the Medicare money. They go on to say: ''Mr. Bush has a larger problem. His proposals most likely wouldn't fit even under CBO's $2.2 trillion surplus'' of non-Social Security money.

They are right. It doesn't fit within the funds. That leaves an enormous vulnerability. I hope before we leave that all of us will think very seriously about what the priorities are.

When I compare GORE and Bush on the question of budgets, GORE is proposing a plan that pays off public debt by 2012. He has $3 trillion of the surplus dedicated to dumping the debt; George Bush about half as much.

These are pretty straightforward facts. The fundamental question is, what is our priority? I believe the top priority ought to be to dump this debt, to pay off this debt. In fact, the plan I have offered would devote even more of the projected surplus that Mr. GORE does to eliminating debt.

Every economist who has come before the Budget Committee and the Finance Committee has said the highest and best use of these projected surpluses is to eliminate the national debt and do it now while we have a window of opportunity before the baby boomers start to retire. I believe that. I agree with that.

I hope we establish budget plans that have that fundamental principle and put that priority where it should be—on eliminating this debt while we can, because when the baby boomers start to retire, the numbers are going to turn against us in a very, very aggressive way. This is our opportunity. I hope we take it.

I thank the Chair. I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. VOINOVICH). The Senator from North Dakota.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, I have been listening to the discussion today on the floor of the Senate about process and procedure and where we find ourselves near the end of this session. I will speak to the comments made earlier today by my colleague from West Virginia, Senator BYRD, and perhaps speak a bit about the comments made by my colleague, Senator CONRAD, especially about fiscal policy.

First, let me talk about process. As I do so, let me acknowledge that it cannot be an easy job to try to schedule and arrange and deal with the House and the Senate, and pass all the legislation, authorization and appropriations bills, that are necessary. A lot of people over many years have had the responsibility of doing that and many people aspire to that responsibility. One of the circumstances of control is that those who win the most seats in the Senate and the House then become chairmen and leaders, majority leaders, chairmen of committees; and the responsibility of having those jobs, of course, means bearing the burden of having to schedule and trying to arrange to make certain that Congress works the way it ought to work and passes the legislation on time and in regular order.

It is not an easy job. My colleague, Senator BYRD, who spoke earlier today, served as a distinguished majority leader in this Congress. He also served as chairman of the Appropriations Committee. He has had the responsibility to try to find a way to get this Senate to move and get it to move on time and discharge its duties on time. Many others have done so, as well, including the distinguished Senator, Mr. Mitchell, most recently, as well as Senator Dole, and so many others over many years, going back to Lyndon Johnson, and decades and decades before that.

In this Congress, the 106th Congress, things have changed some. What has changed, it seems to me, is we have missed most of the deadlines. There doesn't seem to be a cogent plan by which we will meet the deadlines or meet our responsibilities. I want to show some charts that describe what has happened this year. The red on this calendar shows the number of days the Senate was not in session. As shown, a fair part of January, February, and March, a fair part of a number of months of this year, were days in which we had no session in the Senate.

There is some reason for some of that. We have work periods, when Senators go back to their States and meet with their constituents. That is understandable. That has always been the case. However, there needs to be some balance with respect to the number of days we are working here and the amount of time that is available to pass legislation that must be passed.

This is the situation as we near the first of October: The Senate has been in session only 115 days this year; only 115 days have we been in session. Of those 115 days, 34 of those days included no votes at all. In most cases, not much was done, perhaps only morning business for most of the day. Of the 115 days in session, there were no votes on 34 of those days. In fact, there were only three Mondays during this entire year in which there were any votes. For practical purposes, we don't have a Monday in the Senate. On the issue of Fridays, there were only six Fridays in this year in which there were votes.

What can be concluded from this is we have a Senate that really isn't in session much on Mondays or Fridays. Then the question is, what is left? Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays—except for weeks when the Senate isn't in session at all. That is what results in 115 days in session, 34 of which there weren't any votes.

Now we come to the end of this fiscal year with a lot of legislation yet to be completed. Only 2 of the 13 appropriations bills have been signed by President Clinton. That means 11 of them are as of yet incomplete. In September, we have only had votes on one Monday. This is the period of time in which we are trying to finish everything. We have had no votes on Fridays in September. It is difficult to get all of this work done, appropriations bills and other measures that need to get passed, if we are not in session.

I mentioned before we have 2 appropriations bills that are complete; 11 of them are, as of yet, incomplete. October 1 is the date by which the President is to have signed all of the appropriations bills. It is the first day of the new fiscal year. What we have is a circumstance where most of the work that needs to be done by that moment is not completed.

I serve on the Appropriations Committee. I serve with a very distinguished chairman of that committee, Senator STEVENS. I am not coming to the floor to be critical of Senator STEVENS. I think he does an extraordinary job. I am serving on the agriculture appropriations subcommittee. The chairman of that subcommittee is Senator COCHRAN from Mississippi. I am not here to be critical of Senator COCHRAN. I think he is an extraordinary Senator. I think it is a privilege to work with Senator STEVENS and Senator COCHRAN. I think they do an extraordinary job. They are Republicans; I am a Democrat. I think they are good Senators.

I am not here to say they haven't done their work. I am saying this process, the fashion in which the House and the Senate have worked this year, has just not worked at all. It has become tangled in a morass of difficulty that has prevented Members from doing what we need to do.

We have discovered someone put bills together that in some cases have not been considered by the Senate; in other cases they have not been the subject of a conference, and marry up various pieces of legislation, bring them to the floor and say: Well, let's just have one vote on this omnibus bill that has two or three different appropriations bills in it.

That might sound efficient if you haven't done your work and you reach the end of the fiscal year, but efficiency is not what protecting the interests of all Senators or the interests of all Americans is about. The process by which we are able to debate public issues in this Senate, and by which we are able to get the best of what everyone has to offer, the best of the ideas, and the competition from debate, is a process in which we bring a piece of legislation to the floor, an appropriations bill to the floor, and say, all right, you come from different areas of the country; you come with different philosophies; you come representing different constituencies; now have at this.

This is what we have tried to do in the committee. If Members have better ideas, let's hear them. If Members have the votes to convince the majority of the Senate to support their idea, let's see. Just bring these ideas to the floor of the Senate. Have votes on them. In that manner, we develop public policy. Wide open debate is the essence of democracy. That is the way democracy works.

An old friend of mine back home used to love politics. He used to say: They don't weigh votes; they count votes.

That is the way the Senate should work: Have the debate, have the vote, count it up, and the winner wins. That becomes the process of making public policy.

We have a long and distinguished history in this body. I have learned a lot listening to Senator BYRD over the many years, talking about the history of the Senate. His history goes back to the Roman Senate and beyond. One cannot help but serve here and understand there is a tradition, a tradition that we must respect as we conduct our business on behalf of the American people. We are not here by ourselves. We are not standing just in our shoes. We are here because our constituents have said: Represent us in this democracy; go to the Senate and give it the best you have, adding your voice to the votes that come from the hills and valleys of this country, and participate in the making of public policy.

The process we are seeing now all too often prevents that from happening. I am on a subcommittee of the Appropriations Committee that I am reading about every day in the newspapers. I am a conferee, in fact. But there has been no conference.

Two days ago, I got a call from somebody saying it is going to be brought to the floor of the House and the Senate tomorrow. I said, ''What is?'' They said, ''A conference report.'' I said, ''I am a conferee and there has not been a conference. How can there be a conference report?''

But that is what is happening around here all too often. I think we need to get back on track and decide there is a process we should respect, a process that represents regular order and a process that protects the rights of all Senators to participate in the making of public policy.

What is the agenda here? Why are we so passionate about this, talking about this process? Because the process allows everyone in this Chamber to come here and witness for the public policy they want, to try to keep this country ahead.

Let me go through a list of them briefly. Some of my colleagues have done so. My colleague from North Dakota, Senator CONRAD, just talked about fiscal policy. The process, if followed the way tradition would have us follow it, would allow us, in a year such as this, to grab ahold of this fiscal policy issue and evaluate what do we do. This is a new time. We now have expected surpluses in our future. What a remarkable change from the understanding that every year we were going to have a deficit and it was going to continue to grow, to mushroom out of control. All of a sudden that is gone. We have a new reality. We have fiscal policy surpluses.

I have told audiences from time to time the two enduring truths about political existence in the last 40 years or so in our public lives, the two enduring truths that overshadowed or at least represented a foundation for all of the decisions were: No. 1, we had a cold war with the Soviet Union, and, No. 2, we had budget deficits that just kept growing. Those were the two enduring truths that had an impact on everything else we did.

Think of this: Those two truths are now gone. There is no Soviet Union. The cold war is over. And there is no budget deficit. What a remarkable change in a short period.

So my colleague came to the floor a few moments ago and talked about fiscal policy given these new truths, the fact we may have budget surpluses in the years ahead. The question then is, What do we do with them? So we need to have a debate about that. Some come to the floor of the Senate and say: We know what to do with expected surpluses. Even before the surpluses exist, let's get rid of these surpluses by providing very large tax cuts and let's make sure the largest tax cuts go to those who have the largest incomes in this country. So they come to the floor with $1 trillion, or $1.3 trillion, in tax cuts over the next 10 years. This is before we even have the surpluses. Economists who can't remember their home telephone numbers tell us they know what is going to happen 3, 5, 7 and 10 years from now.

I come down on the side on which my colleague comes down; that is, we ought to be mighty conservative and cautious about this. For the first step, maybe we ought to pay down some of the Federal debt. If you run up the debt during tough times, what greater gift could you give to America's children than to reduce the Federal debt during good times? That is step No. 1.

Step No. 2, sure, if there is room, let's provide some tax cuts in a way that invests in opportunities for America's families, working families. Would it not be a nice thing for those people who are reaching up and struggling to afford to be able to send their kids to college to say: The cost of sending your kids to college you can deduct on your income tax; you can deduct the cost of tuition. What a good investment that would be, and what a nice way to have a tax cut in a way that incentivizes families to send their child to school: Reduce the debt, provide some tax cuts in ways that say to working families, we are going to try to help you.

Then make some other investments. It is not a circumstance that everything that goes out of here is spent. Some of it is invested. Our future, 10 years, 20, 40, 60 years from now, is going to depend on what we invest in that future today. I mentioned education, but there are more issues than just education.

The question of fiscal policy—what do we do, and how do we do it—is a very important question. The way we get to that and have the votes on it and have an expression of what we want to do, what the American people want to do, is have all the ideas here and vote on them. That is awfully inconvenient for some because we have to cast all these votes and some people want to just vote on the things they want and prevent the things other people want. It is inconvenient. That is democracy. Sure, it is inconvenient to give the other person their opportunity to bring their ideas to the floor of the Senate, but that is democracy. Democracy is not always convenient. It is not always efficient. It is so far above any other form of government known to mankind we can hardly describe the difference, but it may be inconvenient.

The issue that has been raised today about process is to say that inconvenience is actually designed into this system, to make sure we do not move rapidly, we do not move with haste, to ensure we do not move riding on a wave of passion that will require us or persuade us to do things we will later regret. That is the way the Senate was developed. Nobody ever suggested the way the Senate was going to react to things, or the way the Senate was going to discuss public policy, was going to be efficient. In fact, those framers, Madison, Mason, Franklin, and so many others—Thomas Jefferson, who contributed from abroad when he was serving this country—did not want a system that created a Senate that was efficient so, in an afternoon, you could grab a big public policy and decide you would each get 10 minutes, have a little vote on a couple of amendments, and that was it because we needed it to be convenient for us.

No, they created a far different system. This body has been known from time to time as the body in which the great debates of democracy take place. But I fear that is changing because some, I think, do not understand the value of debate. Debate is never a waste of time. Debate is always a contributor to knowledge. Debate, from the best to the least of those who come to public service, contributes in some way to the whole of democracy.

I have been to the floor of the Senate many times talking about another issue on the agenda. I just talked about fiscal policy. There are other things I want to get done. One area where my colleague and I may disagree from time to time—some say you should not be repetitious in trying to push your agenda. In some cases I think repetition is necessary. For example, minimum wage. We have a lot of families out there who are working at the bottom of the economic ladder. In fact, a report came out 2 days ago that said we have 3 million people working 40 hours a week who are living in poverty in this country. There are 3 million workers working 40 hours a week, full time, living in poverty. Do you know why? Because they are working right at the bottom of the economic ladder.

Who is out there in the hallways, clogging the hallways of the U.S. Capitol, saying: Do you know what my business is on Thursday here in the U.S. Capitol? I am here on behalf of the low-income folks. I am here on behalf of the voiceless, those not too involved in politics because they are struggling just to work, to make the minimum wage, trying to get home and feed their kids. The hallways are not flooded with people representing those folks. These hallways are crowded with people representing the privileged, people representing the largest corporations in America, people representing those who have done very well in this country, at the upper income scales. They have great representation.

Good for them. Everybody deserves that in a democracy. But my point is, when it comes time to debate public policy on a range of issues and it comes time to discuss the minimum wage, who stands for those families? The people who work the night shift, the people who work the night shift in the hospital for minimum wages, who are moving the bed pans around and changing the beds and helping people up and out and walking around—who is here speaking for them? The people who are working in the convenience stores at 2 a.m. for a minimum wage, who are trying to raise a family and do not have the skills to get a better job and are trapped in one of these cycles of poverty—who is here speaking for them?

The hallways are not crowded, in this Capitol Building, with people paid to represent those at the bottom of the economic ladder. I think from time to time it is important, even if rebuffed once, twice, or six times in a year, to say increasing the minimum wage for those who are struggling at the bottom of the economic ladder is important; if we do not get it the first time, we have a vote the second time; if we don't get it the second time, we have a vote the third time.

Yes, that is inconvenient, too, but it seems to me the rules of this system also allow for those who are passionately interested in pushing for those who do not have much voice in this political system.

Patients' Bill of Rights is another issue that gets caught in this process. Speaking of process, the Patients' Bill of Rights is the most remarkable piece of legislation. If I can for a moment describe the Patients' Bill of Rights as an issue and describe it through the experiences of people who have been gripped in the vice of a system that does not work for them, a woman who is hiking in the Shenandoah Mountains falls off a 40- or 50-foot cliff, breaks multiple bones, and falls into a coma. She is taken to a hospital in an ambulance, lying on a gurney in a coma with very severe injuries. She miraculously recovers, only to find that her HMO and managed care organization sends her a bill saying: We are not going to cover your emergency room treatment because you did not get prior approval for emergency room treatment.

This is a woman hauled into the emergency room in a coma suffering serious injuries from a massive fall and told: You did not get prior approval for emergency room treatment.

Or little Ethan Bedrick; Ethan Bedrick is a young boy. This is a picture of young Ethan. He was told he had a 50-percent chance of walking by age 5. He was born with pretty severe disabilities from cerebral palsy. He had a 50-percent chance of walking by age 5. He needed rehabilitative therapy, and his managed care organization said having a 50-percent chance of walking by age 5 is ''insignificant'' and, therefore, we deny coverage for the therapy.

Think of that. It is insignificant for a young boy to have a 50-percent chance of being able to walk and, therefore, the managed care organization says: We deny coverage.

Is there a Patients' Bill of Rights that ought to provide rights to Ethan Bedrick, provide rights to the woman who falls off a cliff and is hauled into a hospital unconscious? Or, if I may take one more moment to describe the woman who testified at a hearing Senator HARRY REID and I had in the State of Nevada, a mother who stood up and told us that her son was dead, 16 years old; he had leukemia.

At the moment when he needed the treatment that would give him a chance to survive this leukemia, the HMO said no. Only later—much later—did they finally say yes, and it was too late; he was too weak. She held up his colored picture at this hearing and, through tears, she told us about her son. Her son, Chris Roe, died October 12, 1999, on his 16th birthday. I will never forget the moment when his mother, Susan, held up a picture and said: My son looked up at me from his bed and said: Mom, how can they do this to a kid like me?

He was denied the treatment that would have given him the opportunity—not a guarantee, but the opportunity—to deal with his cancer, and he died.

This young boy was told to fight his cancer and then fight his insurance company at the same time; take on both folks: You go ahead wage this cancer fight, but then you are going to have to fight us to get coverage for the things you need that might give you a chance at life.

The question is: Mom, how can they do this to a 16-year-old kid like me? And his mother, through tears, held up this colored picture of this young, 16-year-old boy and asked: How could they have done this?

Should Congress pass a Patients' Bill of Rights? What about the process there? The House of Representatives passed a bipartisan Patients' Bill of Rights, a real one, and sent it to conference. This Senate has a right to do this. They passed what I call a ''patients' bill of goods,'' an empty vessel, and sent it to conference so the Senate could say: We passed a Patients' Bill of Rights. But we did not.

A Republican Member of Congress, Dr. NORWOOD, and a Republican Member of Congress, Dr. GANSKE—do not take it from me; take it from them—said the Senate took a pass on this issue. They passed an empty vessel. What the Senate did is a step backward, not forwards.

Should we have the opportunity in this process in the Senate to have another vote on this? Things have changed. The last time we voted on this, we came up one vote short. This time, it will be a tie vote, based on what we know to have happened in the interim. With a tie vote, the Vice President will cast a vote to break the tie, and this Senate will send to conference a Patients' Bill of Rights that is a real Patients' Bill of Rights.

It says you have a right to know all of your medical treatment options, not just the cheapest. You have a right to emergency room care. You have a right, if you are being treated for breast cancer, to take your oncologist with you. If your spouse's employer changes health care providers, you can continue with that same cancer specialist who has been working with you 5 or 7 years. You have that right.

Should we be able to have another vote on that in the next day or 2 days or 2 weeks? The answer is yes, absolutely yes, because it is important to young Ethan, it is important to the memory of Chris, and it is important to all the others out there who are being told: You fight your disease and, by the way, fight your insurance company as well because some of these managed care organizations are much more interested in profit than in your health.

I hasten to say, not all. There are some terrific insurance companies and some terrific HMOs, and they do a great job, but there are some around this country that are doing to patients what I just described, saying to people like young Ethan that the potential to walk is insignificant at 50 percent. We should change that.

Do I have passion for these issues? You are darn right. I was elected to the Senate and I came here because I wanted to do good things for this country. I want this country to be a better place in which to live, whether it is health care, a Patients' Bill of Rights, adding a prescription drug benefit to the Medicare program, eliminating the barriers that prohibit the reimportation of prescription drugs from other countries so our people can access less expensive prescription drugs, or gripping the education issues in this country the way we know we should—reducing class size, renovating and repairing crumbling schools.

I came here because I wanted to do these things. I do not want people to prevent us from having the votes on them. I have spoken so often about going into the school with Rosy Two Bears, a little third grader, that I know people are just flat tired of it, but I could care less.

She walks into a school classroom that none of us would want our kids to walk into. It is a public school. Part of it is 90 years old; part of it is condemned. It has one water fountain and two toilets in this little school. They cannot connect to the Internet. They do not have good recreational facilities, and little Rosy Two Bears looks up at me and says: Mr. Senator, will you build us a new school?

I cannot do that because I do not have the money, but this Senate can. This Senate can say to Rosy and all the others who are walking through a classroom door in this country: We want you to walk through a door of which you are proud. It does not matter where you are, who you are, if you are a first grader, a third grader, or a twelfth grader. We want that schoolroom to be a schoolroom of which you are proud; we want you to be the best you can be. We want every young child to rise to the level of their God-given talents in every corner of America.

That ought to persuade us that the process by which we consider legislation in this Congress gives us full opportunity to take a look at that fiscal policy and say: If we are collecting more than we need, we can give a little back, pay down the debt, and let's also, in addition to giving a little back and paying down the debt, invest in better schools for our kids. Let's take the best ideas everybody has in this Chamber and have a good debate about that.

That is part of the passion with which most of us came to this body. We came here to get things done, and we are so frustrated by a process that seems to say: If it is our idea, we are going to vote on it. If it is your idea, somehow we are going to put it in a box someplace.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator has spoken for 30 minutes.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, I ask for 30 additional seconds.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I have 38 minutes, do I not, remaining?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator has that much time and more.

Mr. BYRD. I thank the Chair.

I yield—how many minutes does the Senator wish?

Mr. DORGAN. Just 2 is fine.

Mr. BYRD. The Senator asked for 2 minutes. I will give him 4.

Mr. President, let me say to the Senator, the Patients' Bill of Rights, absolutely, if there is an opportunity to pass that, if it takes twice, if it takes three times, if it takes six times, fine, I am for it.

Minimum wage: I am one who used to work at less—less—than the minimum wage by far. If we pass it, yes. So we are not in disagreement on that.

I think the Senator referenced, a little earlier, two times when I have felt that we are calling up an amendment just as a political amendment and doing it over and over and over again. That is different from what he is speaking of. I am not for that. I am not for taking the time on an amendment which has no opportunity, no future, no possibility of passing.

But in these cases, it is obvious. And the way he has described these has produced such a vivid picture of need that I am very supportive of trying again. There are reasons why one might try again and win. And the Senator has just stated it with reference to the Patients' Bill of Rights.

So I congratulate this Senator, who does so much for the Senate, who has so much to offer, who has such great talents, and who does not hide those talents in a napkin but produces fivefold or tenfold. I congratulate him and salute him. I thank him for what he has said on the Senate floor today.

So I have yielded him 4 minutes. And I have taken how much?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Two and a half minutes.

Mr. BYRD. I yield the Senator 4 minutes still. That still leaves me, I understand, 30 minutes or more.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator is correct.

Mr. BYRD. I thank the Chair.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, the Senator from West Virginia is very generous. Let me conclude by saying something I think is important. I came to the floor because the Senator from West Virginia is someone for whom I have great respect. He was talking about the process, the method by which the Senate is supposed to work. He has been here much longer than I have. He knows the history of the Senate far better than I do. I have great respect for that.

He did not come to the floor—I listened carefully to his discussion this morning—and I did not come to the floor to be critical of others. It is a tough job running this Senate. I certainly did not come to the floor to say that the distinguished chairman of the Appropriations Committee has not done his job. I happen to think Senator STEVENS is an outstanding Senator, Senator COCHRAN, and so many others with whom I have served. So I do not come here with the purpose of casting aspersions.

But I just come to the floor because I fear that what is preventing us from getting to where I want the Senate to get to, and that is to have a full debate, and good, strong open votes on the issues I care passionately about. We are thwarted from doing that. In fact, we have had bills brought to the floor of the Senate and had cloture motions to shut off debate before the debate began, cloture motions to shut off amendments before the first amendment was offered. That thwarts this process. Back home they would say that is throwing a wrench in the crank case. That just shuts it all down. It is not the way it ought to work.

I think it is a privilege every day to come to work here. I grew up in a town of 300 people, had a high school class of 9, and never in my life thought I would meet another Senator, I suppose, let alone serve in the Senate. I think it is a privilege every day to come here.

But the reason I think it is a privilege is because I bring, as most of my colleagues do, an agenda of passion to make changes that I think will improve this country. I might be wrong in some of it. Maybe so. But I want my day. If I can persuade enough Members of this Senate to vote on the things I care about, then if I win, I win. If I don't, maybe I learned something from the debate. I am willing to lose. But I am not willing to lose the opportunity to have a full debate and a vote on the things that I and the constituents I represent in North Dakota care deeply about. That is the point. I am not willing to lose that opportunity. The process in this Senate increasingly begins to shut those opportunities down.

The Senator from West Virginia came the Senate to say, let's not do that. Let's not do it for Republicans or Democrats. Let's not do it out of concern for this Senate, its proud history and its future. Let's not do that. Let's get back to the way we are supposed to debate public policy in this Chamber.

I commend the Senator from West Virginia and my colleague, the Senator from Nevada, and others, who have spoken today. I hope we can all work together and get the best of what each can bring to this Chamber in the debate about public policy.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

Mr. REID addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, in the unanimous consent agreement that is now before the body, Senator JOHNSON is to be recognized for 10 minutes, then Senator DURBIN for 30 minutes. I ask unanimous consent that following that, Senator CLELAND be recognized for up to 15 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senator from South Dakota.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. President, I thank the Senator from Nevada. I must say, I commend my colleague from West Virginia, Senator BYRD, for his suggestion that some of us come to the floor today to talk a little bit about the process.

Some people would say it is a procedural issue. It is far more profound than simply a procedural issue in the context of the way we have handled legislation on the Senate floor this year. The process that has been applied not only does, I believe, great damage to this institution, but, in the end, it has great consequence to the substance of our legislative priorities and certainly of the budget for our Nation.

Two out of the 13 appropriations bills that are required to run the Federal Government have been passed. Eleven remain incomplete. October 1 is the beginning of the Federal fiscal year, and yet we have made little progress on the Federal budget. We have a CR, continuing resolution, that will take us to October 6. But, clearly, we are in a state of chaos right now relative to the completion of our work in the Senate.

This year has been the shortest legislative session in the Senate since the ''do-nothing'' Congress that President Truman campaigned against. As my colleague from North Dakota alluded to, during the entire course of this year, we have been in session and have had votes in all of 3 weeks out of the year. How many of our constituents can imagine employment or service of any kind that would involve 3 full weeks out of the year? Of those 115 days we have been in session, roughly 30 percent of them have involved no votes whatever. No progress has been made relative to the completion of the people's agenda.

Now we find, I think most profoundly objectionable of all, an appropriations process where appropriations bills which deal with the Federal budget but, more importantly, deal with where our priorities are as a people—whether we are going to invest more money in education, in health care, in Medicare, in the environment, in our national defense, towards debt reduction—these are all the issues that need to be resolved in the context of the appropriations debate. Yet we find now that these bills move in an unprecedented fashion from an appropriations committee directly to conference, with no consideration on the Senate floor whatever.

It has never been done this way, this kind of legislative bypass of the legislative process, in the Senate.

Fully half of the Senators in this body, 25 States, have no representation on the Appropriations Committee. Certainly that is the case for my home State of South Dakota. Those States have no input, no opportunity to speak for their constituents about the nature of these appropriations bills and the kind of priority they apply to our Nation's needs. These bills then go to conference. What is worse, all too often then the conference committees in turn have not met, but only the majority party members agree then to send the bill back to the floor in a conference report, which is unamendable. So we have not even the distilling of thought through the conference committee process.

This is a terrible process, one that brings a significantly demeaning quality to the thoughtfulness that ought to be going into these fundamental questions.

Eight years after President Clinton was elected to office, having inherited $300 billion a year in red ink, we find ourselves now running budget surpluses. In fact, the White House and the congressional budget experts project budget surpluses in excess of $4 trillion over the coming 10 years. We ought to be cautious about those projections. They are only projections. Most of the money would materialize only in the outer years. Even so, that is a remarkable turnaround. It creates for us a once-in-a-lifetime, a once-in-multiple-generations opportunity to focus on what kind of society America will be for years to come.

If we take the surplus and then set aside the trust fund dollars—Social Security and the other trust funds as well—it is projected that we will have a budget surplus of around $1.2 trillion over the coming 10 years. Unfortunately, our colleagues in the House and the Senate, over my objections and over the objections of Senator DASCHLE and most Members on our side, have passed tax cuts that would cost $1.7 trillion over 10 years, when we have only $1.2 trillion to spend before we even get to issues about whether we are going to do anything to improve the quality of education, Medicare, health care, debt reduction, veterans programs, agriculture, the environment, and whatever other needs our Nation might have.

Wisely, the President has vetoed the two most expensive tax bills. We can bring them up again in a bipartisan fashion and in a more thoughtful manner. We can address those issues as well as questions of paying down the debt, questions of education and health care, rebuilding our schools, technology that we need, and the strength of our national defense.

We cannot bring these issues up and consider them in a thoughtful, deliberative fashion if these issues bypass the Senate floor. That is what the process now entails. This a perversion of our democracy. This is not what the founders of our Republic designed. It does grave injustice not only to this institution but to the needs of every citizen of this Nation.

I applaud the work of Senator BYRD, who is an extraordinary scholar, who has a great understanding of the traditions of this body, and who understands our democracy as well as anyone who has served in this body. I appreciate his suggestion that we come to the floor and talk about how our democracy is being demeaned by this process, that, in fact, the kinds of thoughtful, deliberative priority-making decisions all of our people ought to be engaged in are being denied as these bills go directly from the Budget and Appropriations Committees, with no opportunity for amendment, no opportunity for discussion, into conference committees, which are then unamendable. We wind up with the chaos that we have today, with only 2 of the 13 appropriations bills having been passed, as we near October 1, the beginning of the Federal fiscal year, and we find ourselves in a state of legislative chaos as we end this month of September.

The people of this country deserve better. We need to work in a bipartisan fashion to bring these bills up in an orderly way and to allow amendments and debate, as was designed for this institution. To see that lost is something in which we can take no pride. It is a shameful circumstance in which we find ourselves in this body, that this would ever have occurred in our democracy. It has never happened before to this scope.

It is my hope we learn some painful lessons from the experiences we are having this year. The issues before us are too profound. They are too significant relative to whether we will at last use some resources to pay down the debt, keep the cost of money down, and sustain a strong economy, while at the same time reserving some financial resources to rebuild schools, to do what we need to do to live up to our commitments to veterans, to have a strong national security, to improve our environment, to strengthen Medicare, and to do something about prescription drugs. These are the issues we are being denied an opportunity to debate, to vote on, and to arrive at the kind of political compromises necessary for all of our needs and all of our priorities and all of our points of view to be truly represented in this country. Hopefully, these are lessons that are painfully learned, lessons that will never have to be repeated in future years.

This is a sad day to look back at the lack of progress that has been made in this 2nd session of the 106th Congress. This Senate has been denied its ability to truly do its work. The people of America, not the Senators, are the great losers by the process that has been applied to the appropriations process and the legislative process in general this year.

I will do all I can to work in a bipartisan fashion to never allow this kind of process to occur again. The people of our Nation deserve far better. If we are going to play the leading role in the world, both economically and in terms of security, we need an institution that works better than that.

I yield the floor.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I have spoken to the Senator from Illinois and the Senator from Georgia. They both agreed to limit their time by 5 minutes. Senator CLELAND will take 10 minutes and Senator DURBIN 25 minutes. I ask unanimous consent that the present order be amended to that effect.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senator from Illinois.

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, it is my understanding that my friend and colleague from Georgia, Senator CLELAND, has permission to speak for 10 minutes under our agreement and that I have 25 minutes. Since Senator CLELAND is now on the floor, I ask unanimous consent he be allowed to speak before me and that I follow him with my 25 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The Senator from Georgia.

Mr. CLELAND. Mr. President, I thank the distinguished Senator from Illinois for yielding to me for the purpose of discussing the ambiguous situation in which we find ourselves in terms of the budget process and the appropriations process.

I thank the distinguished senior Senator from West Virginia, Mr. BYRD, for his continuing efforts to remind Members of this Chamber of our responsibilities to this institution but, more importantly, responsibilities to the American people.

Today Senator BYRD is causing us to step back and reflect on what we are now doing with respect to the appropriations process. It brings back a comment I like from Winston Churchill: How do you know where you are going unless you know where you have been?

Senator BYRD reminds us where we have been in the appropriations process, our history, our tradition, and the rules of the Senate. He is very fearful of where we are going in that process, and so am I.

As a Senator now for 3½ years, I am certainly not nearly as well versed as Senator BYRD in the history or the precedents of the Senate. I would like to add that I believe all other Senators, of whatever level of experience and of both parties, acknowledge his leadership in this respect. Nonetheless, from what I have read and heard in this debate, in the first budget and appropriations cycle of the 21st century, the Senate has moved in a new and deeply troubling direction.

I am certainly aware that on occasion the Senate has been compelled by necessity to resort to bypassing the regular process of committee action for consideration and amendment, conference action, and then final approval, final passage, of individual authorization and appropriations measures.

Indeed, I voted for the massive omnibus measure with which we concluded the 1998 session. That single bill totaled a whopping $487 billion and funded 8 out of the 13 regular appropriations bills. I think Senator BYRD himself said on that occasion, ''God only knows what's in it.'' Most of us didn't.

However, even on that occasion, the Senate actually took up separately and passed 10 of the 13 bills and considered 1 other bill—namely, Interior appropriations—while only 2 appropriations measures, the Labor-HHS-Education bill and the relatively small District of Columbia bill, were acted on in conference without any previous Senate floor action.

By contrast, this year the number of appropriations measures which are apparently headed for conference action without affording the full Senate an opportunity to work its will has grown to three: Commerce-Justice-State, Treasury-Postal, and VA–HUD. Not only is this trend disturbing, but apparently a determination was made fairly early on that these measures would somehow not require regular floor consideration.

I have heard many theories as to why this will be so, including fears of hard votes, difficult votes, or of obstructionist tactics. But I have yet to learn of any real justification or defense of the notion that the Senate has discretion as to whether or not it will consider appropriations bills—the means through which we are supposed to discharge perhaps the ultimate congressional authority under the Constitution, the power of the purse.

If we in the Senate are not authorized or able to have an impact on appropriations bills, we have what the American Revolution ostensibly was all about: taxation without representation.

I have the great privilege of representing the 7.5 million people in the State of Georgia, the 10th most populous State in America. Georgia hasn't had a representative on the Senate Appropriations Committee since 1992. And while the 28 members of that committee, representing 27 States, with Washington being fortunate to have 2 seats, do a good job of considering national needs and local interests, they cannot be expected to know the priorities and interests of the people of Georgia.

As the Senate was envisioned by the founders and as it has operated throughout our history, the absence of State representation on the Appropriations Committee was not an insurmountable burden. Nonappropriators could expect to have the opportunity to represent their constituents' interests when the 13 appropriations bills came to the Senate floor were open to debate and amendment. Indeed, in my first 3 years in the Senate, I often had recourse to offering floor amendments or entering into colloquies on behalf of Georgia—Georgia priorities and Georgia people. But with the apparent move to routinely bypassing the floor, what am I or, more importantly, my constituents to do?

In looking at the fiscal year 2001 bills, which apparently will not come to the Senate floor in amendable form, the potential adverse impact on my State is clear. For example, the Commerce bill funds key Georgia law enforcement efforts, including the Georgia Crime Lab and technology enhancement for local law enforcement agencies, such as the Macon Police Department. The Treasury bill contains the budget for the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center in Glynn County, GA. And the Veterans' Administration appropriations measure covers the national veterans cemetery for north Georgia that I got authorized last year. For all of these and more, the Georgia Senators will now apparently have no direct role.

This is not the way it should be, under the Constitution, or the way we ought to act under the traditions of the Senate. More and more of the most important decisions affecting our constituents and their communities are being moved off the floor of the Senate and into closed-door deliberations involving a small number of negotiators where the people of my State are left out and where my only choice as their representative is a single take-it-or-leave-it vote on a massive and unfathomable package. This is taxation without representation.

Mr. President, I understand that in an election year—especially this one—it is always a challenge to have the Senate get its business done on time. But when ''business as usual'' starts becoming a process where the Senate routinely doesn't get to work its will, something fundamental has been lost. Then, we had better worry not just about the interests and constituents of today, but the precedents and legacies we are leaving for future Senates and future generations of Americans.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Illinois is recognized.

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, it is my understanding that under the agreement I have 25 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. That is correct.

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, I thank my colleague from Georgia, MAX CLELAND, my usual seatmate. I moved over here since he was speaking. I thank him for his presentation. He is one of the hardest working Members of the Senate. I echo his words. We both find ourselves, as do all Members of the Senate, in a real predicament. We have only passed three of the appropriations. Two of the bills have been signed into law, and now we are going to send three of the appropriation bills, as I understand it, into a conference committee without any consideration on the floor of the Senate.

This is not unprecedented. It has happened, but very rarely. What troubles me is it is becoming a rather common practice. When the President gives a State of the Union Address at the beginning of the year, he spells out to Congress his hopes for what we can achieve. Many of these hopes are never achieved. That is the plight of a President—relying on a Congress which has its own will and agenda. But the one thing the President is certain will be achieved is that, at the end of the congressional process, the spending bills necessary to keep the Government in business will be passed—13 bills.

If Congress did nothing else, it would have to pass the spending bills. Otherwise, agencies of Government would close down and important functions of Government would not be served. So the President, after giving all of his ideas in the State of the Union, steps back and watches Congress, which starts by the passage of a budget resolution and considers 13 different bills, funding all of the agencies of the Federal Government.

Sadly, over the last several years we have seen this whole process disintegrate to the point where, at the end of the session—and we are nearly there now as we come to the floor today on September 28; our new fiscal year begins October 1. Sadly, each and every year we end the session without doing our work. We end up with all of these spending bills which involve literally billions of dollars and many different functions of the Federal Government that have never been worked through the system. There are authorizing committees and appropriating committees, and they have the right names on the door. But when it comes to the bottom line, they don't, in fact, do their business and bring a bill out of the committee to the floor for consideration.

When we are studying civics and political science, one of the first books we run across is a pamphlet entitled ''How Laws Are Made.'' We teach our children and students across America, and around the world, for that matter, that there is a process in the Congress. The process involves committee consideration, floor consideration on both sides of the Rotunda, and if there are differences, a conference committee, which results in a compromise which is sent to the President for signature. It is very simple and American.

Unfortunately, it is also very unusual around this Congress, and now we are seeing more and more bills coming out of the committee, bypassing the Senate Chamber, and heading straight to a conference committee, which means that billions of dollars' worth of spending is never subject to debate or amendment. That means that Senators who don't serve on an appropriations subcommittee or the full Committee of Appropriations never get a chance to even speak on a bill, let alone change it.

The beauty of this institution, the most important deliberative body in our Nation, is that we are supposed to represent the people and speak to the issues involved in the bills and then come to some conclusion on their behalf. That is what representative government is about. It is what democracy is about. Yet we have been thwarted time and time again.

This time around, we find that only 10 of the bills have seen floor action. The Commerce-Justice-State bill, the Treasury bill, general government bill, and the VA–HUD bill are all moving directly from committee to conference. If this process continues, we will see this year what we have seen in previous years: a bill that comes at the end of the session, called an omnibus bill, that tries to capture all of the unfinished business and a lot of other items that are extraneous and put them in one package. And then, as my friend Senator BYRD from West Virginia can attest, we are handed a bill literally thousands of pages long and told to read it, vote, and go home. A lot of us wonder if we are meeting our constitutional responsibility in so doing.

I asked the staff if they kept one of those bills from previous years so I could show it during the course of this debate, but one wasn't readily available. These bills, as Senator BYRD can tell you, are sometimes 2,000 pages long, and we are asked to look at them and evaluate them. That is hard to do under the best of circumstances and impossible to achieve when we have very little time to do it. The best I could find was the Yellow Pages of the District of Columbia. It is not a good rendition because it is only 1,400 pages long. There is about another 600 pages we can expect to receive in the omnibus bill handed to us at the end of the session. We will be told: ''Take it or leave it. Don't you want to go home and campaign?''

I think that is an abrogation of our constitutional responsibility.

I believe that most of us—even those of us on the Appropriations Committee—believe we are duty bound to come before this Senate to address the issues contained in these appropriations bills, to debate them, as we are elected to do, to reach an agreement, hopefully on a bipartisan basis, and pass the bill on to the House for its consideration and to a conference committee.

There was a mayor of New York City named Fiorello La Guardia—a famous mayor—who, when there was a newspaper strike in his town, went on the radio and read the cartoons and the comics to the kids so they wouldn't miss them. But he said what I think is appropriate here: There is no Democratic or Republican way of cleaning the streets.

What he was saying, I believe, is that in many of the functions of government, we really do not need partisanship. In fact, there shouldn't be partisanship.

In this situation, Senator BYRD spoke eloquently today about the traditions of the Senate—the idea of federalism, and the respect for small States and large States alike.

The fact is that this Chamber, unlike the one across the Rotunda, in which I was proud to serve for 14 years, gives every State an equal voice. But that is a fiction if in fact the legislation never comes to the floor so that Senators from every State can use their voice and express their point of view.

That, sadly, is what has been happening time and time again. Their appropriations work may be the most important part of our responsibility in Congress.

A few years go when Congress reached a terrible impasse, we actually closed down several agencies of Government for an extended period of time. There were some critics, radio commentators and the like, who said: Well, if they close down the Government, no one will ever notice.

They were wrong because, frankly, our phones were ringing off the hook. I can recall people calling my offices from Chicago and Springfield, IL, saying: How are we supposed to get our visas and passports to go overseas? How can we get these Federal agencies to respond? The Department of Agriculture was closed and the farmers needed to contact people about important decisions they had to make. In fact, closing down the Government is noticed, and people should take notice not only because important responsibilities of government are not being met but because Congress has not met its responsibility to make certain that we pass the appropriations bills that lead to the continuation of government responsibilities.

The people across America who elect us get up and go to work every morning knowing that if they stayed home and didn't do their job they wouldn't get paid. If they didn't get paid, they couldn't feed their families. We have to do our job. We have no less of a responsibility as Senators to stay here and work as long as it takes to accomplish these things.

The interesting thing, as you reflect on this session of Congress, is how little time we have spent in Washington on the Senate floor doing the people's business. This will be the shortest session of Congress we have had since 1956. Out of 108 days of session so far, we have had 34 days without a vote. If we continue at the current pace, it will take us nearly 2 full years to complete the remaining appropriations bills. That is a sad commentary.

Most of us who are elected to serve come to work and try to do our best. But if you look at this past year, you will find that we are only going to be in session 2 days longer than a Congress which was dubbed the ''Do-Nothing Congress'' back in the late 1940s. I think that is a sad commentary on our inability to face our responsibility.

Why do we find ourselves in this position? I think there are two major reasons. One is we are dealing with spending caps. These are limitations on spending which have been enacted into law which are there to make certain we don't fall back into red ink and into deficits. These spending caps are strings on the Federal Government's spending in appropriations bills. Some of them are reasonable and some of them are easy to live with. Some of them are very difficult to live with. Those of us on appropriations committees know that. As a member of the Budget Committee, I can attest to it as well.

The budget resolution, the architecture for all of our spending at the Federal level, was enacted by Congress—not by the President. He has no voice in that process. It was enacted by Congress. We try to live within the spending caps. Then we start to try to put together appropriations bills and quickly learn that in some areas there is just not enough money. Neither party wants to be blamed for breaking the spending caps early in the process.

We created unconscionable situations in previous years. One of the most important appropriations bills—the one for Labor, Health and Human Services and Education—was literally ravaged of its money. That money was taken and used in other appropriations bills. It was saved for the very last thing to be done. Knowing of its popularity across the country, many people on Capitol Hill felt that if we were going to bust the caps, we would do it for education, health care, and labor. It happened.

This year, as I understand, VA–HUD is one of those bills. What is more important than our obligation to our veterans? Men and women who served this country with dignity and honor were promised health care and veterans' programs. They rely on us to come up with the appropriations for that purpose and then find there is nothing in the appropriations bill to meet those needs.

Housing and urban development, an important appropriations bill that provides housing for literally millions of families across America, is similarly situated. We have ravaged the VA–HUD bill this year in an effort to try to make up for all of the other spending shortfalls in the other bills.

Everything stacks up as we come near the end of the year. Unlike many previous years, we haven't routed these bills through the Senate floor. So we have never been able to debate what the level of spending on the Senate floor should be for the Veterans' Administration, for the Treasury Department, and for a lot of agencies such as the Department of Justice and the State Department. That puts us at a disadvantage and creates the blockade that we find ourselves in today.

There are amendments as well in some of these bills that are extremely controversial because most of the authorizing committees do not come up with their authorizing bills. Many Members of the Senate have said: I have good legislation. I have a good idea. I will put it on the spending bill. I know they have to pass the spending bill ultimately, so we will do that.

That introduces controversy in some of these spending bills, and as a result, we find ourselves bypassing the Senate floor in an effort to avoid a controversial vote.

I am forever reminded of a quote from the late Congressman from Oklahoma, Mike Synar, who was chiding his fellow Members of the House of Representatives because they did not want to cast controversial votes. The late Congressman Mike Synar used to say, ''If you do not want to fight fires, do not be a firefighter.'' If you do not want to cast controversial votes, don't run for Congress. That is what this job is all about. You cast your votes for the people you represent with your conscience, and you go home and explain it. That is what democracies are all about.

Many of these appropriations bills have been kept away from the floor of the Senate so Members of the Senate who are up for reelection don't have to cast controversial votes. That has a lot to do with the mess we are in today.

Sadly, we have found that as to a lot of these amendments—some related to gun safety, for example, and some related to the treatment of gunmakers and how they can bid on contracts with the Government—because they were introduced in the appropriations bill, the bill was circumvented from the floor. They never got to the floor for fear Members would have to vote on them, and didn't want to face the music with the people who don't want gun control and with the National Rifle Association. They do not want to face reality. The reality is we have a responsibility to consider and vote on this important legislation.

Some have said we don't have time to do all of that. I have been here all week. I think we have been casting a grand total of about one vote a day. I think we are up to a little more than that.

There have been days in the House and Senate where we have cast dozens of votes. We can do that. We can limit debate, cast the votes, and get on with our business.

This week we have been consumed with the H–1B visa bill, a bill which would allow an increase in the number of temporary visas so people with technical skills can come into the United States. We spent a whole week on it.

We are going to go home in a few hours having achieved virtually nothing this week, except for the passage of this short-term spending bill that is pending at the moment. We will delay for another week the business of the Senate.

One has to wonder what will happen in the meantime. I think the President is right to insist that Congress stay and do its job. Some people have said: Why not leave the leaders of Congress here in Washington and let the Members go home and campaign? Let the leaders haggle back and forth as to what the spending bills should contain. I oppose that. I oppose it because I believe we all have a responsibility to stay and meet our obligation to the people of this country and to consider these spending bills. A few years ago, in major sports, there was a decision made about the same time, in basketball. I can recall that in high school when your team would get ahead, you would freeze the ball; you would try to run the clock. Players would dribble around and not get the ball in the hands of the opposition and hope the clock ran out. That used to happen at all levels of basketball. Finally, people said, that is a waste of time. People came to see folks playing basketball, not wasting time dribbling. So they put shot clocks in and said after every few seconds, if you don't take a shot, you lose the ball.

They did the same thing in football. They said we will basically speed this game up, too; we will make you play the game rather than delay the game.

I think we ought to consider, I say to Senator BYRD, the possibility of a vote clock in the Senate that says maybe once every 12 hours while we are in session the Senate is actually going to cast a vote. I know that is radical thinking, somewhat revolutionary. But if we had a vote clock, we wouldn't be dribbling away all of these opportunities to pass important spending bills. We wouldn't be running away from the agenda that most families think are important for them and the future of our country.

Look at all of the things we have failed to do this year. This is a Congress of missed opportunities and unfinished business. It is hard to believe we have been here for 115 days and have so little to show for it. When the people across America, and certainly those I represent in Illinois, talk to me about their priorities and things they really care about, it has little or nothing to do with our agenda on the floor of the Senate. They want to know what Congress is going to do about health care. They have kids who don't have health insurance. They themselves may not have health insurance. They wonder what we will do about a prescription drug benefit. We had a lot of speeches on it. We just don't seem to have reached the point where we can pass a bill into law. Sadly, that says this institution is not producing as people expect Congress to produce.

With a vote clock running on the Senate floor and Members having to cast a vote at least once every 12 hours while in session, maybe we will address these things. Maybe people won't be so fearful of the prospect of actually casting a vote on the floor of the Senate.

Patients' Bill of Rights is another example. People in my home State of Illinois and my hometown of Springfield come to me and tell me horror stories about the insurance companies and the problems they are having with medical care for their families; serious situations where doctors are prescribing certain medications, surgeries, certain hospitalizations, and there will be some person working for an insurance company 100 miles away or more denying coverage, time and time again, saying: You cannot expect to have that sort of treatment even if your doctor wants it.

Many of us believe there should be a Patients' Bill of Rights which defines the rights of all Americans and their families when it comes to health insurance. I believe and I bet most people do, as well. Doctors and medical professionals should make these judgments, not people who are guided by some bottom line of profit and loss but people who are guided by the bottom line of helping people to maintain their health.

We can't pass a Patients' Bill of Rights. The insurance companies, which are making a lot of money today off of these families, just don't want Congress to enact that law. So they have stopped us from passing meaningful legislation.

Another thing we want to do is if the insurance company makes the wrong decision, and you are hurt by it, or some member of your family dies as a result of it, you have a right to sue them for their negligence. Every person, every family, every business in America is subject to a lawsuit, litigation, being held accountable in court for their negligence and wrongdoing—except health insurance companies. We have decided health insurance companies, unlike any other business in America, will not be held accountable for their wrongdoing.

With impunity, they make decisions denying coverage. I think that is wrong. I think they should be held to the same standard every other business in America is held to; that is, if they do something to hurt a person because of their negligence or intentional wrongdoing, they should be held accountable. That is part of our law, the ones that we support on this side of the aisle.

One can imagine that the health insurance companies hate that idea just as the devil hates holy water. They don't want to see that sort of thing ever happen. So they have stopped us from passing the bill. It is another thing we have failed to do in this Congress—a Patients' Bill of Rights.

On prescription drug benefits, to think that we would finally take Medicare, created in 1965, and modernize it so that the elderly and disabled would have access to affordable prescription drugs is not radical thinking. I daresay in every corner of my State, whether a person is liberal, conservative, or independent, they understand this one. People, through no fault of their own, find they need medications that they cannot afford. So they make hard choices. Sometimes they don't take the pill and sometimes they bust them in half, and sometimes they can afford them at a cost of the necessities of life. Shouldn't we change that? Shouldn't we come to an agreement to create a universal, voluntary, prescription drug plan under Medicare? But unless something revolutionary occurs in the next few days, we are going to leave Washington without even addressing the prescription drug issue under Medicare.

Another question is a minimum wage increase. It has been over 2 years now we have held people at $5.15 an hour. Somewhere between 10 and 12 million workers in America are stuck at $5.15 an hour. In my home State of Illinois, over 400,000 people got up this morning and went to work for $5.15 an hour. Quickly calculate that in your mind, and ask yourself, could you survive on $11,000 or $12,000 a year? I know I couldn't. I certainly couldn't do it if I were a single parent trying to raise a child. And the substantial number of these minimum wage workers are in that predicament. They are women who were once on welfare and now trying to get back to work. They are stuck at $5.15 an hour.

We used to increase that on a regular basis. We said, of course, the cost of living went up; the minimum wage ought to go up, too. Then it became partisan about 15 years ago, and ever since we have had the fight, year in and year out. We may leave this year without ever addressing an increase in minimum wage for 12 million people across America in these important jobs—not just maintaining our restaurants and hotels but also maintaining our day-care centers and our nursing homes. These important people who cannot afford the high-paid lobbyists that roam the Halls of Congress are going to find that this Congress was totally unresponsive to their needs.

Issues go on and on, things that this Congress could have addressed and didn't address. Sadly enough, we are not only failing to address the important issues, we are not doing our basic business. We are not passing the spending bills that we are supposed to pass. As Senator BYRD said earlier, we are derelict in our responsibilities under the Constitution. We have failed to respond to the American people when they have asked us to do our job and do our duty.

I hope that before we leave in this session of Congress, we will resolve to never find ourselves in this predicament again; that we are never going to find ourselves having missed so many opportunities that the people of this country have to wonder why we have not accepted our responsibility in a more forthcoming way.

I don't know if next year I will be making the proposal on the Senate floor. I have to talk to Senator BYRD. It is kind of a radical idea of installing a vote clock that will run and force a vote every 12 hours around here so we can get something done. But it worked for the National Football League. It worked for the National Basketball Association.

And Senator BYRD, I know you can't find it in that Constitution in your pocket, but maybe that is what it will take to finally get this Senate to get down to work on the business about which people really care.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. L. CHAFEE). Senator from West Virginia.

Mr. BYRD. How much time remains?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator has 39 minutes.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, let me comment on a couple of things that the distinguished Senator from Illinois just said.

The Senator from Illinois served in the other body and he served on the Appropriations Committee. He comes to this body bringing great talent, one of the most talented Members that I have ever seen in this body. He brings great talent to this chamber. He can speak on any subject. He is similar to Mr. DORGAN, and can speak on any subject at the drop of a hat. He is very articulate, he is smart, and I am proud to have him as a fellow Member.

Now, he mentioned a change that was made in basketball. I wish that they would make another change in basketball. When I talk about ''basketball'' that is a subject concerning which I know almost nothing. But I have watched a few basketball games. I can remember how they played them when I was in high school, which was a long time ago. But it really irritates me to see basketball players run down the court with that ball and jump up and hang on the hoop and just drop the ball through the basket. If I were 7 feet tall, I could drop the ball through the basket, even at age 83. If I were that tall, and I did not have to shoot from the floor to make that basket, I could do it, too. I wonder why they don't get back to the old way of requiring players to shoot from the floor. In the days when I was in high school, players had to shoot from the floor. They weren't 7-feet tall. A 6 foot 2 center in my high school was a tall boy.

But, anyhow, so much for basketball.

The distinguished Senator has talked about how we have plenty of time to do our work. The first year I came to the House of Representatives, in 1953, we adjourned sine die on August 3; 2 years later, we adjourned sine die on August 2; the next year, we adjourned sine die on July 27. We did our work. We did not have the breaks we have now. Easter? We might have been out Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. We didn't have the breaks then, but we passed the appropriations bills.

We didn't do any short-circuiting, and the Appropriations Committees of both Houses acted on a much higher percentage of the total moneys that were spent by the Federal Government. I think there was a time when the Appropriations Committees passed on 90 percent of the moneys that the Federal Government spent. Today, we probably act on less than a third of the total moneys spent. So don't tell me that we can't get this work done. We used to do it. We can do it again.

Now while I am talking about the Senator from Illinois being a new Member—relatively new in this body—he comes well equipped to this body. I have been calling attention to the fact that 59 percent—59 Senators—have come to the Senate since I walked away from the majority leader's job. I mentioned Lyndon Johnson as a majority leader; I mentioned Mike Mansfield as a majority leader; I mentioned ROBERT C. BYRD as a majority leader. I should not overlook the stellar performances of Howard Baker, a Republican majority leader; or Robert Dole, a Republican majority leader. We hewed the line when it came to the Senate rules and precedents. They honored those rules and precedents. We didn't have any shortcutting, any short-circuiting of appropriations bills, like going direct to conference and avoiding action on this floor. I want to mention those two Republican leaders because they were also in my time.

Mr. President, 27 of the 50 States are especially fortunate this year. They have Senators on the Senate Appropriations Committee. These lucky 27 states, containing a total estimated 147,644,636 individuals as of July 1999, account for over half of our population of 272,171,813. However, 23 of these United States—and I have them listed on a chart here. I have them listed as the 25 have-nots—23 of these States are in a different situation. They have no direct representation on the Senate Appropriations Committee. Due to the rather unique situation in which we find ourselves this year, three appropriations bills—bills which fund roughly 100 agencies and departments of the Federal Government—may never be considered on the Senate floor. If that is the case, some 125 million Americans who happen to live in those 23 States will have no direct input regarding the decisions of the Senate committee that directly controls the discretionary budget of the United States. The countless decisions on funding and policies in those three bills will not have been presented on the Senate floor in a form that allows the elected Senators from those 23 States to debate and amend those 3 appropriations bills; namely, the FY2001 Commerce/Justice/State, Treasury-Postal, and VA-HUD bills.

This is not the fault of the Appropriations Committee. I cannot and I will not blame Senator STEVENS, the very capable Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, whom I know wants to shepherd each bill through his committee to the floor, and through the conference committee process in the appropriate manner. His efforts have been hamstrung because of a budget process that sets an unrealistically low level of funding, a level of funding that could not possibly address in any adequate way the demands placed upon it by the administration or by the Senate, and because the Senate has not taken up many important pieces of authorization and policy legislation this year.

I have nothing but praise for Senator TED STEVENS. I have seen many chairmen of the Appropriations Committee of the Senate. I have been on that Senate Appropriations Committee 42 years—longer, now, than any other Senator in history on that Appropriations Committee. I have seen many chairmen. I have never seen one better than Senator TED STEVENS.

Additionally, cloture has been filed too quickly on many bills, in order to further limit amendment opportunities. Appropriations bills have, as a result, become an even stronger magnet for controversial amendments than usual. That always complicates the process. Further, the administration has not waited until the Senate has finished its business before issuing veiled or blatant veto threats in an attempt to influence the appropriations process. So, I am very sympathetic to the situation in which my good friend, Senator STEVENS, now finds himself.

Whatever the reasons, however, these 23 have-not states will be deprived of their right to debate and amend these bills through their elected Senators if we wrap these remaining bills into House/Senate conference reports without first taking them up on the Senate floor. They will get only a yea or nay vote on an entire appropriations conference report. There will be no chance to debate or amend the contents of those bills. The 15 million people in Florida—up or down votes, with no amendments. The 11 million people in Ohio—up or down votes on conference reports, with no amendments. The 479,000 people in Wyoming—up or down votes is all they will get, with no amendments. The same goes for the residents of Virginia, Georgia, Louisiana, Michigan, Oklahoma, Minnesota, Nebraska, and Maine.

Those citizens should also be upset. So should the residents of Connecticut, Delaware, Indiana, Kansas, Massachusetts, North Carolina, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Dakota, and Tennessee. Those folks will have no input into hundreds of thousands of spending decisions. They will summarily be told to take that conference report without any amendments; take it; vote up or down, take it or leave it.

I heard a Member of this Senate yesterday—I believe it was yesterday—decry the President's threat to veto an appropriations bill if something called the Latino and Immigrant Fairness Act was not passed. That Senator said yesterday that a President who would make such threats was acting like a king. I agree. That threat was outrageous. If that threat was made, it was outrageous. It should not have been made. Further, I agree with that Senator's feeling about the piece of legislation which caused the White House threat. I voted against suspending the rule that would have made it possible to consider it. But when it comes to this President, or any President, Democrat or Republican acting like a king, let me say that we in this body are the ultimate check on that assumption of the scepter and crown that all Presidents would like to make.

When we in the Congress invite the President's men to sit at the table—essentially that is what we do when we delay these appropriations bills until the very last and have to act upon them with our backs to the wall and facing an almost immediate sine die adjournment, we in effect invite the administration's people to sit at the table and be part of the decisions involving the power over the purse; yes, that power which is constitutionally reserved for the House and the Senate. When we do that and then deny the full Senate the right to debate and amend those spending bills, we are aiding and abetting that kingly demeanor.

When we hand over a seat at the table to the White House and lock out the full Senate, not just these 23 States, but lock out the full Senate on spending bills, we are, in truth, giving a President much more power than the framers ever intended.

We are charged in this body with staying the hand of an overreaching Executive. Instead, it sometimes seems as if we are polishing the chrome on the royal chariot and stacking it full of congressional prerogatives for a fast trip to the other end of Pennsylvania Avenue.

This year, one appropriations bill providing funding for the Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State has been in limbo—limbo. I believe that Dante referred to limbo as the first circle of hell. Anyhow, this bill has been in limbo for more than 2 months in order to avoid controversial subjects coming up for debate and amendment. So that bill has been a sort of Wen Ho Lee of the Appropriations Committee. It has been in isolation—incommunicado, stowed away in limbo, out of sight, out of mind. But there it is on the calendar. It has been there for weeks. Controversial? Yes. Some amendments might be offered. But why not? That is the process. We should call it up and have those amendments and have a vote on them. Let's vote on them.

I have cast 15,876 votes in 42 years in this Senate. That is an attendance record of 98.7 percent. That may sound like bragging, but Dizzy Dean said it was all right to brag if you have done it. So I have a 98.7 percent voting attendance. I have never dodged a controversial vote, and I am still here and running again. And if it is the Good Lord's will and the will of the people of West Virginia, I will be around here when the new Congress begins.

I have cast controversial votes. What is wrong with that? That is why we come here.

Two other appropriations bills—DC and VA-HUD—were not even marked up by the committee until the second full week of September. There was not enough money to make the VA-HUD bill even minimally acceptable. But having been marked up and reported from the committee, was it called up on the Senate floor for consideration? No, it was not. It was just wrapped in dark glasses and a low-slung hat, surrounded with security and rushed straight into conference as if it contained secrets for the eyes of the Appropriations Committee only. The plan apparently is to insert the entire VA-HUD bill into the conference agreement on another appropriations bill without bringing it before the Senate. I still am hopeful that a way can be found to bring up that bill, as well as the Treasury Postal and Commerce Justice bills to the Senate floor.

I know that some of my colleagues may argue that every Senator has a chance to make his or her requests known to the chairman and ranking member of each appropriations subcommittee, and in that way get their issues addressed in the bill even if it does not see action on the Senate floor. I certainly know that is true. I receive thousands of requests each year to each subcommittee, as well as the requests made while those bills are in conference. However, if a Member's request is not addressed in a bill and that bill does not see debate on the floor, that Member has no opportunity to take his or her amendment to the full Senate and get a vote on it. He has no way to test the decisions of the committee to see if a majority of the full Senate will support his amendment.

Additionally, when an appropriations bill is not debated by the full Senate, Senators who are not on the committee do not have the opportunity to strip objectionable items out of the bill. They do not have the ability to seek changes, perhaps very useful changes, to provisions in the bill that might hurt their States. They do not have a voice on the many policy decisions contained in appropriations bills.

The Appropriations Committee staff is a good one. The Members and the clerks are fair, and they try to do a good job. For the most part, they succeed and succeed admirably, and I am very proud of them. But we are all human. Sometimes we do not always see the unintended consequences of this or that provision, or we simply make a drafting error that could hurt one or more States or groups of people. The fresh eyes and different perspectives of our fellow Senators who are not on the Appropriations Committee, however, have caught such errors in the past and will, I am sure, do so again. But when those Members only get to vote on a conference report that is unamendable, their judgment is eliminated. That is not a sensible way to legislate. I think it is a sloppy way to legislate. I know that my distinguished chairman, Senator STEVENS, does not want to legislate in this manner. He is not afraid of any debate or any controversial amendments. TED STEVENS is not afraid of anything on God's green Earth that I know of. He has done a yeoman's job in trying to find sufficient funding within the budget system to move his bills, and I commend him for it.

I sincerely hope that we can all come together to find a way to help my chairman. The full Senate must do its duty on appropriations bills this year. We owe that to the Nation. We owe it to this institution in which we all serve.

Mr. President, the Senate is preparing to act on a short-term continuing resolution, which will give the Senate an additional week to take up and debate appropriations bills, if we so choose. We can get a lot done in 7 days if we all put our shoulders to the wheel to heave this bulky omnibus, or these bulky minibuses, out of the mud. The Senate is surely not on a par with the Creator. We cannot pull Heaven and Earth, and all the creatures under the Sun out of the void before we rest. But with His help and His blessings, we surely can complete work on the remaining appropriations bills before we adjourn.

The Legislative Branch and Treasury/General Government appropriations conference report was defeated by the Senate on September 20. Some may have seen this as a defeat. But, in fact, that was no defeat. It was a victory for the institution of the Senate, for the Constitution and its framers, and for the Nation. I think the defeat of that conference report in large measure can be laid at the door of this strategy, which emanates from somewhere here, of avoiding floor debate on appropriations bills. I am glad that many of my colleagues objected to being asked to vote on a nondebatable conference report containing a bill—now, get this—containing a bill, in this instance the appropriations bill for the Department of the Treasury and for general Government purposes, that they have not had a chance to understand, to debate, to amend, or to influence. The Senate was designed to be a check on the House of Representatives. Moreover, the Senate was designed to even out the advantages that more populous States enjoy in the House, and to give small or rural States an even playing field in all matters, including appropriations.

This vote on the legislative branch, Treasury, and general government minibus—minibus—appropriations bill is a setback, as far as time goes, but, I still believe that we can rally, and complete our work in a manner that will allow us to leave with our heads held high, rather than with our tail between our legs. We can finish our work. The people expect it. We ought to do it.

In fact, in keeping with the rather screwball approach that we have been taking on appropriations matters this year, much of the conferencing on these bills has been taking place, even before the bills have been debated on the floor.

Surely we can build on this base, and still allow the Senate to work its will on the more contentious elements of these bills. It is our job to resolve these problems. We get paid to do it. We get paid well to do it. It may be true that we could get higher pay somewhere else—as a basketball player or as a TV anchor person or in some other job—but we get paid well for the job we do.

We are all familiar with these issues. We know the needs of our individual States. We need to have that debate about these issues, and we need to engage the brains of 100 members of this body to get the very best results. I would far rather—far rather—see this process take place, and send good bills to the President to sign or veto, than to see Senators simply abdicating our constitutional role in formulating the funding priorities for our Nation. The bad taste of recent years' goulash of appropriations, tax, and legislative vehicles all sloshed together in a single omnibus pot has not yet left my mouth. That is the easy way, but it is the wrong way. I didn't want a second or third helping, much less a fourth. It is loaded with empty calories, and full of carcinogens. Moreover, we are poisoning the institutional role of the U.S. Senate, rendering it weaker and weaker in influence and in usefulness. We are slowly eroding the Senate's ability to inform and to represent the people, and sacrificing its wisdom—the wisdom of the Senate—and its unique place in our Republic on the cold altar of ambition and expediency. All it takes is our will to see what we are doing and turn away from the course that we are on. I urge Senators to come together and do our work for our country.

I thank all Senators who have spoken on this subject today.

Mr. President, how many minutes do I have?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Twelve minutes.

Mr. BYRD. Twelve minutes?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Yes.

Mr. BYRD. I thank the Chair.

I yield the floor.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, will the revered Senator, who I like to think of as the President pro tempore, yield 5 minutes to this Senator?

Mr. BYRD. I yield 5 minutes—I yield all my remaining time to the Senator.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Sir, I would like to speak to the matter that the Senator from West Virginia has addressed from the perspective of the Finance Committee. I think the Senator will agree that most of the budget of the Federal Government goes through the Finance Committee in terms of tax provisions, Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid, the interest on the public debt, which is a very large sum, which we do not debate much because we have to pay it.

The two committees—Finance and Appropriations—were formed at about the same time in our history and have had the preeminent quality that comes with the power of the purse, that primal understanding of the founders that this is where the responsibilities of government lie—to lay and collect taxes; to do so through tariffs, to do so through direct taxation.

We had an income tax briefly in the Civil War, but there was the judgment that we ought to amend the Constitution to provide for it directly.

Sir, I came to this body 24 years ago. I have learned that, as I shall retire in January—and, God willing, I will live until then—there will only have been 120 Senators in our history who served more terms. So they claim a certain experience.

I obtained a seat on the Finance Committee with that wondrous Senator from Rhode Island. We were in the same class, Senator Chafee and Senator Danforth and I. I obtained a seat as a first-time Senator, through the instrumentality of the new majority leader. I avow that. I acknowledge it. I am proud of it. I will take that with me from the Senate as few others.

I underwent an apprenticeship at the feet, if you will, of Russell Long, the then-chairman, who, for all his capacity for merriment, was a very strict observer of the procedures of this body and the prerogatives of the Finance Committee.

We brought bills to the floor. They were debated. They were debated at times until 4 in the morning. I can remember then-Majority Leader BYRD waking me up on a couch out in the Cloakroom to say, ''Your amendment is up, PAT,'' and my coming in, finding a benumbed body. The vote was aye, nay. It wasn't clear. It was the first time and the last in my life I asked for a division. And we stood up, and you could count bodies, but you could not hear voices.

Then we would go to conference with the House side. The conferees would be appointed. Each side would have conferees, each party. They each would have a say. We would sit at a table—sometimes very long times, but in time—and we would bring back a conference report and say: Here it is. And if anyone would like to know more about it, there are seven of us in this room who did the final negotiations with the House. It is all there. It is comprehensible. And it is following the procedures of the body.

I stayed on the committee, sir. This went on under Senator Dole as chairman; Senator Bentsen as chairman. I would like to think it went on during the brief 2 years that I was chairman.

In the 6 years since that time, I have seen that procedure collapse. In our committee, we have a very fine chairman. No one holds Senator ROTH in higher regard than I do. I think my friend recognized this when he saw the two of us stand here for 3 weeks on the floor to pass the legislation which he did not approve. Senator BYRD did not approve of permanent normal trade relations, but when it was all over, he had the graciousness as ever to say he did approve of the way we went about it. Every amendment was offered. Cloture was never invoked. And in the end, we had a vote, and the Senate worked its will.

Now, in the last several days in the Finance Committee, we have been working on major legislation, legislation for rebuilding American communities, which is based on an agreement reached between the President and the Speaker of the House that this is legislation we ought to have, which is fine. The President should have every opportunity to reach some agreement with the leadership over here and say: Let us have this legislation. You send it to me; I will sign it. But you send it to me; I won't write it. I might send you a draft.

We were not even contemplating bringing the bill to the floor, passing it, going to conference. It is just assumed that can't happen. And indeed, in the end, we could not even get it out of committee. So the chairman and I will introduce a bill and a rule XIV will have it held here at the desk so it is around when those mysterious powers sit down to decide what our national budget will be.

You spoke of something difficult to speak to but necessary in this body, which is our relations with the Executive, which increasingly have found themselves not just with a place at the table, as you have so gentlemanly put it, but a commanding, decisive role in the legislative process.

Sir, I can report—and I don't have to face constituents any longer, so I might just as well—I can recall around 11 o'clock one evening on the House side in the Speaker's conference room—that particular Speaker had a glass case with the head of an enormous Tyrannosaurus rex in it, a great dinosaur—and tax matters were being taken up. There were representatives of the White House, representatives of the majority leadership in the House, the leadership in the Senate. I didn't really recognize any committee members, just leadership. And I arrived in the innocent judgment of something in which I wouldn't have a large part, but I would be expected to sign the papers, the conference papers the conferees sign, a ritual we all take great pleasure in because it means it is over.

Sir, I was asked to leave the room. I was asked to leave the room. There as a Member of the Senate minority, the ranking member of the committee, that decision was not going to have anything to do with the Finance Committee or much less the Democrats. It would be a White House and a congressional leadership meeting.

In 24 years, nothing like that had ever happened. I don't believe, sir, it ever happened. I can't imagine how we came to this. I do know how, from the point of view of our party—the calamitous elections of 1994, when we lost our majorities in both bodies.

So I would say, I do not believe in the two centuries we have been here—and we are the oldest constitutional government in history, but we have seen our constitutional procedures degrade. We have seen practices not ever before having taken place, nor contemplated. They are not the way this Republic was intended. They are subversive of the principles of our Constitution, the separation of power.

The separation of powers is the first principle of American constitutional government. We would not have a King or a King in Parliament. We would have an elected President, an elected Congress and an independent judiciary. When the White House is in the room drafting the bill that becomes the law, the separation of power has been violated in a way we should not accept.

Mr. STEVENS. Will the Senator yield for one moment?

Mr. MOYNIHAN. I yield the floor.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, I apologize.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. I yield the floor to my distinguished friend, the chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, I wish to state that if there is no objection, the vote on the continuing resolution would occur at 4:15. I ask unanimous consent that that be the order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. And that rule XII be waived.

Mr. STEVENS. Yes.

Mr. REID. Reserving the right to object, I ask permission for up to 5 minutes during that period of time.

Mr. STEVENS. I am pleased to yield to my friend 5 minutes of the time I have between now and 4:15.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, might the very distinguished and able Senator from New York have just 2 or 3 minutes to finish his statement?

Mr. STEVENS. I am pleased to yield to the Senator from New York 3 minutes.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. I thank the Senator from Alaska, my friend of all these years. Just to conclude my thought, which is that the separation of powers is what distinguishes American government. We brought it into being. It did not exist in any previous democratic regimes, the various Grecian cities, the Roman era had a legislature period. There was no executive authority. What Madison once referred to as the fugitive existence of the ancient republics was largely because they had no executive authority to carry out the decisions of the legislature. The legislature was left to be the executive as well. It didn't work.

We have worked. There are two countries on Earth, sir, that both existed in 1800 and have not had their form of government changed by violence since 1800: the United States and the United Kingdom. There are seven, sir, that both existed in 1900 and have not had their form of government changed by violence since. Many of the British dominions were not technically independent nations.

The separation of powers is the very essence of our system. We have seen it evanescing before us. I say evanescing because—the misty clouds over San Clemente, noise rising from the sea—because I was not in that room after I was asked to leave, nor was there any journalist, nor were there any of our fine stenographers. No one was there save a group of self-selected people. They weren't selected for that role. They should not have been playing it. This has gone on too long, and it ought to stop.

With that, sir, I thank my friend from Alaska and I yield the floor.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I revere the Senator from New York. He came to the Senate in 1977. He went on the committee. What he has just said astonishes me—that he was asked to leave the room in this Republic—''a republic, Madam, if you can keep it.''

Mr. MOYNIHAN. Said Benjamin Franklin, yes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I consider myself very fortunate today. Except for going to a conference here and there, and a few other things that had me go off the floor, I have had the opportunity to listen to almost everything that went on today, either from my seat in the Senate Chamber or in the Cloakroom. How fortunate I am.

The Senator from West Virginia is to be commended for initiating this debate on what American Government is all about. When the history books are written, people will review what took place during this debate, the high level of debate and the exchange between the Senator from New York and the Senator from West Virginia, both with years of wisdom, years of knowledge, and years of experience. People will look back at this consideration in the textbooks.

I stepped out to go over to the Senator's Interior Appropriations Subcommittee. The administration was there complaining about report language as to what the intent of the Congress was. It is hard for me to fathom they could do that. I don't want to embarrass anybody from the administration, but I spoke to two people from the administration. I said: What in the world are you trying to do? Are you trying to tell this subcommittee, this legislative entity, what our intent is? That is our responsibility as legislators, not this administration's responsibility. We have report language in bills so that people can look and find out what our intent is.

Mr. BYRD. So that the courts can also.

Mr. REID. The courts, or anybody else. If the administration doesn't like what we do, they can take it to court, and that report language will give that court an idea as to what we meant. I say to Senator BYRD and Senator MOYNIHAN, words cannot express how I feel.

As people have heard me say on the floor before, I am from Searchlight, NV. My father never graduated from eighth grade and my mother never graduated from high school. To be in the Senate of the United States and to work with Senator MOYNIHAN and Senator BYRD is an honor. It is beyond my ability to express enough my appreciation for this discussion that has taken place today. I hope it will create some sense in this body—maybe not for this Congress but hopefully for the next one—that we will be able to legislate as we are supposed to do it. I express my appreciation to both Senators.

Mr. BYRD. I thank the distinguished Senator.

Mr. MOYNIHAN. I thank my friend.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, how much time remains?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Alaska has 8 minutes remaining.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senator MURKOWSKI be recognized for up to 20 minutes and that Senator SESSIONS be recognized for up to 15 minutes following the two rollcalls that will soon take place.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I didn't hear that request.

Mr. STEVENS. I am going to yield back the time I had so we can vote earlier. I agreed to yield time to two colleagues, to be used after the votes take place.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. STEVENS. Mr. President, having been a Senator who served in the minority, in the majority, and then in the minority, and again in the majority, I understand the discussion that has taken place here today full well. I have been a member of the Appropriations Committee for many years—not nearly as long as the Senator from West Virginia but for a long enough time to know that the appropriations process has to fit into the calendar as adjusted by the leadership.

We have done our best to do that this year. It does inconvenience many Senators whenever the appropriations process is shortened. I believe in full and long deliberation on appropriations bills. Mainly, I believe in bringing to the floor bills that have such uniform support on both sides of the aisle that there really isn't much to debate.

I think if the Members of the Senate will go back and look at the Defense Appropriations Committee bills since I became chairman, or when Senator INOUYE became chairman, we have followed that principle. Unfortunately, issues develop that are not bipartisan on many bills and they lead to long delays. In addition, the closer we get to an election period, the longer people want to talk or offer amendments that have been voted on again and again and again.

We have had a process here of trying to accommodate the time that has been consumed on major issues, such as the Patients' Bill of Rights and the PNTR resolution dealing with China, which took a considerable time out of our legislative process. We find ourselves sometimes on Thursday with cloture motions that have to be voted on the following Monday, and then we make it Tuesday and we lose a weekend. We have adjusted to the demands of many Senators.

I believe the Senator from West Virginia would agree that we have tried very hard in the Appropriations Committee to get our work done. Most of our bills were out of committee before we left for the recess in July. As a matter of fact, we had our two major bills, from the point of view of Defense—military construction and the Department of Defense appropriations bill—approved in really record time.

Mr. REID. Will my friend yield for a brief comment?

Mr. STEVENS. Yes.

Mr. REID. I want to make sure that any comments I have made do not reflect on the Senator from Alaska. I can't imagine anyone being more involved in trying to move the legislation forward than the Senator from Alaska. So none of the blame that is to go around here goes to the Senator from Alaska, as far as I am concerned.

Mr. STEVENS. I thank the Senator. I wasn't inferring that I received any comments or concern on my activity or the committee's, per se. I believe the process of the Senate, however, is one that involves the leadership adjusting to the demands of the Senate and to the demands of the times. A political year is an extremely difficult time for the leadership. Senator BYRD had leadership in several elections, and I had the same role as the Senator from Nevada—the whip—during one critical election period during which the leader decided to be a candidate and was gone. So I was acting leader during those days. I know the strains that exist.

I want to say this. I believe that good will in the Senate now is needed to finish our job. The American people want us to do our job. Our job is to finish these 13 bills that finance the standing agencies of the Federal Government and to do so as quickly as possible. Because of the holiday that starts in a few minutes for some of our colleagues, we will not meet tomorrow, and we cannot meet Saturday. So we will come back in Monday, and that will give us another 7 days to work on our bills.

The House has now passed the energy and water bill. We will file the Transportation and Interior bills—I understand those conferences are just about finished now—on Monday. We are working toward completion by the end of this continuing resolution. But let's not fool ourselves. If we got all these bills passed by next Friday, there would still have to be a continuing resolution because the President has a constitutional period within which to review the bills. He has 10 days to review them, not counting Sunday; so we are going to be in session yet for a considerable period of time—those of us involved in appropriations.

I urge the Senate to remember that circumstances can change. We could be in the minority next year, God forbid, and the leadership on the other side could be trying to move bills. And if the minority taught us some lessons about how to delay, I think we are fast learners. We have to remember that what comes around will go around. It is comity that keeps this place moving and doing its job.

I think all of us have studied under and learned from the distinguished Senator from West Virginia. He has certainly been a mentor to people on both sides of the aisle. He has taught us everything there is to know about the rules and how to use them. He has never abused them. I don't take the criticism that he has made other than to be of a process that we now find ourselves involved in. Our job is to work our way out of this dilemma. I hope we can. I hope we can do it in good grace and satisfy the needs of our President as he finishes his term. We have been working very hard at that since we came back from the August recess.

In my judgment, from the conversations I have had with Jack Lew, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, there is a recognition of the tensions of the time and a willingness to try to accommodate the conflicting needs of the two major parties in an election year. That is what we are trying to do.

I hope we will vote to adopt this continuing resolution and that Members will enjoy the holiday that is given to us by our Jewish colleagues. We will come back Monday ready to work.

I fully intend to do everything I can to get every bill we have to the President by a week from tomorrow. That may not be possible, but that is our goal, and I expect to have the help of every Senator who wants to see us do our constitutional duty, and that is to pass these bills.

Does the Senator wish any further time?

Mr. REID. If the Senator will yield, I ask unanimous consent that following the two Republican Senators there be allowed to speak in morning business: Senator FEINGOLD for 30 minutes and Senator MIKULSKI for 35 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. STEVENS. I am compelled to object because I want to state to the Senator that I took our time and allotted it after——

Mr. REID. I said after the Republican speakers.

Mr. STEVENS. I don't know what the leader intends to do after that time. I have no indication that he wishes to object, but I don't know. In a very short time our Jewish friends must be home before sundown. I don't think there is going to be objection, but I am not at liberty to say.

Mr. REID. Senator FEINGOLD, of course, is Jewish and he would handle that on his own. Anyway, fine. I think it is sundown tomorrow, anyway.

Mr. STEVENS. I thought it was sundown tonight.

Mr. REID. No. Some people just want to leave to get ready for sundown tomorrow.

Mr. STEVENS. I don't see any reason to object.

Mr. REID. If the leader has something else he wants to do, of course that will take precedence. But before we leave tonight, they would like to have the opportunity to speak.

Mr. STEVENS. I am compelled to say this: Under the practice we have been in so far, the Senator's side of the aisle has consumed 6 hours today, and we have consumed about 40 minutes, at the most. There is a process of sort of equalizing this time. I would be pleased to take into account anyone who has to leave town, but can we do that after this time? I promise the Senator I will help work this out.

Mr. REID. We will talk after the first vote. I will renew the request after the first vote.

Mrs. MURRAY. Mr. President, I've come to the floor to join my colleagues in discussing where our annual budgeting process stands.

We are just three days away from the start of the new fiscal year, and the Senate is far behind in its work. The resulting rush is leading some to short-circuit our usual appropriations process. Like so many of my colleagues, I am dismayed that Senators are being denied the opportunity to fully consider and debate these appropriations bills.

I want to commend Senator BYRD for his comments today. Senator BYRD is once again speaking for the United States Senate. His comments are neither Republican nor Democrat. With his usual elegance and candor, Senator BYRD is championing this institution, and we should all commend him for that. The Senate that he defends so passionately is one that works for both parties; works for all Senators; and most importantly, works for the American people.

Time and again during my eight years of service in this body, I have made the walk from my office to this floor. And each time, I bring with me a certain excitement and anticipation for the great opportunity the people of Washington state have given me to represent them as we debate issues from education to foreign policy to health care.

Unfortunately, there have been very few opportunities to come to this floor and engage in meaningful debate. Too often, the majority has sought to either stifle or deny debate on the issues Americans care about. On the rare occasions when we have had debates, they have not resulted in meaningful legislation that has a chance of being signed into law.

For example, the Senate spent several weeks debating the Elementary and Secondary Education act. We debated the issues, and we cast tough votes on the ESEA bill. But, for some reason, the bill was shelved by the majority. Now it looks certain to die as the Congress tries to adjourn quickly in this election year.

As we watch the clock tick toward the end of the fiscal year this weekend, only two of the 13 appropriations bills have been signed into law. We now find ourselves in an unnecessary impasse. The breakdown in this year's appropriations process did not happen overnight. It is not merely the result of election eve politicking, or jockeying for position between the Executive and Legislative branches, although there are plenty of both going on.

No, the breakdown of the fiscal year 2001 appropriations process can be traced back to the opening days of this session of Congress in January. Back then, the House and Senate leadership promptly fell into disarray over the handling of the President's request for a supplemental spending bill. You may recall that the President requested $5 billion in supplemental fiscal year 2000 funding. The House subsequently passed a $12.8 billion supplemental funding bill—more than twice what the President had requested. The Senate Appropriations Committee, at the behest of the Senate Majority Leader, shelved plans to draw up a separate supplemental funding bill. Instead, the Senate attached a total of $8.6 billion in supplemental funding onto three regular appropriations bills—Military Construction, Foreign Operations, and Agriculture appropriations. The Majority Leader's plan was to have all three bills enacted into law by the Fourth of July holiday. Needless to say, things did not quite go as planned.

Despite weeks of congressional wrangling, the three bills in the Senate could not be reconciled with the one bill in the House. Finally—in desperation—the House and Senate ended up jamming $11.2 billion in supplemental funding into the conference on the FY 2001 Military Construction Appropriations Bill. Much of that funding had never seen the light of day in either the House or Senate. The conference report was approved on June 30, and became the first of the FY 2001 appropriations bill signed into law. With the exception of the swift and relatively smooth passage of the Defense Appropriations Bill a month later, the FY 2001 appropriations process has gone from bad to worse. We now find ourselves in the intolerable position of having 11 of the 13 appropriations bills still pending—with two days to go before the end of the fiscal year, and no clear game plan in sight. The House has passed all of the regular appropriations bills. And the Senate Appropriations Committee—on which I serve—has reported all 13 regular appropriations bills. But only 10 of these 13 bills have been passed by the Senate. Once again, desperation is setting in. The focus is shifting from the flow of open debate on the Senate floor to the closed doors of the conference committees.

Just last week, the Senate leadership attempted to attach the Treasury and General Government Appropriations bill—which the Senate has never considered—to the Legislative Branch conference report, and pass them as a package deal. The Senate was wise to reject that approach. The Senate should have an opportunity to fully consider these three significant appropriations bills. To abandon the reasoned debate this chamber is known for would represent a full surrender by this body of our responsibilities to the American people.

Mr. President, there are many pressing issues from programs for veterans healthcare and the courts to the National Weather Service. We should be able to debate these funding plans and then vote for or against them. Mr. President, it doesn't have to be this way. The Senate still has time to take up the remaining appropriations bills, debate them, amend them, and send them to the President. They may be contentious. But that is precisely why they must be aired in the light of day before the entire Senate and not swept into law under the cover of an unrelated appropriations conference report.

If the Senate acts promptly, the conferees will have ample time to complete their work, and report back to the full House and Senate. As a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, I am acutely aware of our responsibilities to the people of this nation when it comes to appropriating taxpayers' dollars. I take that responsibility very seriously. The people have a right to know what Congress is doing with their money. And members of Congress have a responsibility to appropriate money wisely.

We cannot do our jobs or meet our responsibilities, if we delegate our work to a handful of appropriators hammering out a conference agreement, or to a closed circle of congressional leaders and White House officials huddling over a conference table.

Mr. President, we are poised to pass a Continuing Resolution that will keep the government operating through October 6. I believe that if we could put aside political posturing, partisan bickering, and retaliatory tactics for just one week, just one week, we could complete work on the appropriations bills, in an orderly and responsible fashion, and close out this Congress. We may not have accomplished all that we would have wished to accomplish. But I am confident that continued bickering over the appropriations process in the waning days of the 106th Congress will not improve the climate for any other legislation to move forward.

Mr. President, the American people deserve more than this mess from their elected leaders. I know the Senate can do better. In the days ahead, I urge my colleagues to work with our leaders and with the leadership of the Appropriations Committee, to tackle the remaining appropriations bills and conference reports, to debate, to vote, and to complete the work that we have been charged to do.

Though time is running out, it is not too late to make these spending decisions in the most responsible way, and that is what I am calling on my colleagues to do.

Mr. STEVENS. I think the time has come for us to ask that this resolution be presented to the Senate for a vote. I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

OIL CRISIS

Mr. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, I have had a series of discussions with my colleagues on the energy crisis in this country.

I think it is fair to make a broad statement relative to the crisis. The crisis is real. We have seen it in our gasoline prices. We saw it last week when oil hit an all-time high of $37 a barrel—the highest in 10 years. And now we are busy blaming each other for the crisis.

I think it is fair to say that our friends across the aisle have taken credit for the economy because it occurred during the last 7 years. I also think it is fair that our colleagues take credit for the energy crisis that has occurred because they have been here for the last 7 years.

I have talked about the Strategic Petroleum Reserve, what I consider the insignificance of the drawdown, and the signal that it sends to OPEC that, indeed, we are vulnerable at 58-percent dependence on imported oil. That sends a message that we are willing to go into our savings account.

What did we get out of that? We got about a 3- to 4-day supply of heating oil. That is all. We use about a million barrels of heating oil a day during the winter. That has to be taken out of the Strategic Petroleum Reserve in crude form—30 million barrels—and transferred to the refineries which are already operating at capacity because we haven't had any new refineries built in this country in the last 15 to 20 years.

This is not the answer.

I am going to talk a little bit about one of the answers that should be considered by this body and has been considered before. In fact, in 1995, the issue of opening up that small area of the Coastal Plain, known as ANWR, came before this body. We supported it. The President vetoed it. If we had taken the action to override that veto of the President, or if the President had supported us, we would know what is in this small area of the Coastal Plain. When I say ''small area,'' I implore my colleagues to reflect on the realities.

Here is Alaska—one-fifth the size of the United States. If you overlay Alaska on the map of the United States, it runs from Canada to Mexico, and Florida to California. The Aleutian Islands go thousands of miles further. There is a very small area near the Canadian border. When I say ''small,'' I mean small in relationship to Alaska with 365 million acres.

But here we have ANWR in a little different proportion. This is where I would implore Members to understand realities. This is 19 million acres. This is the size of the State of South Carolina.

A few of the experts around here have never been there and are never going to go there in spite of our efforts to get them to go up and take a look.

Congress took responsible action. In this area, they created a refuge of 9 million acres in permanent status. They made another withdrawal—only they put it in a wilderness in permanent status with 78.5 million acres, leaving what three called the 1002 area, which is 1½ million acres.

That is this Coastal Plain. That is what we are talking about.

This general area up here—Kaktovik—is a little Eskimo village in the middle of ANWR.

They say this is the ''Serengeti.'' There is a village in it. There are radar sites in it. To suggest it has never been touched is misleading.

Think for a moment. Much has been made of the crude oil prices dropping $2 a barrel when the President tapped the Strategic Petroleum Reserve and released 30 million barrels of oil.

While I believe the price drop will only be temporary, I ask my fellow Senators what the price of crude oil would be today if the President had not vetoed opening up ANWR 6 years ago. It would have been at least $10 less because we would have had another million-barrel-a-day supply on hand.

What would prices be if OPEC and the world knew that potentially 1 to 2 million barrels a day of new oil was coming out of the ANWR Coastal Plain, and not only for 3 or 4 or 15 days, but for decades?

Let me try to belie the myth of what is in ANWR in relationship to Prudhoe Bay. This area of Prudhoe Bay has been supplying this Nation with nearly 25 percent of its crude oil for almost two decades—2½ decades.

We built an 800-mile pipeline with the capacity of over 2 million barrels. Today, that pipeline is flowing at 1 million barrels with the decline of Prudhoe Bay.

You might not like oil fields but Prudhoe Bay is the finest oil field in the world, bar none. I defy anybody to go up there and compare it with other oil fields. The environmental sensitivity is unique because we have to live by rules and regulations.

The point I want to make is when Prudhoe Bay was developed and this pipeline was built at a cost of roughly $6.5 billion to nearly $7 billion, the estimate of what we would get out of the oil field was 9 billion barrels.

Here we are 23 or 24 years later, and we have gotten over 12 billion barrels. It is still pumping at better than 1 million barrels a day.

The estimates up here range from a low of 5.7 billion to a high of 16 billion barrels—16 billion barrels. What does that equate to? It is kind of in the eye of the beholder. Some say it would be a 200-day supply—a 200-day supply of America's oil needs. They are basing their estimates on old data of 3.2 billion barrels in ANWR, ignoring the most recent estimates by the U.S. Geological Survey that there is a 5 percent chance of 16 billion barrels—that is at the high end with a mean estimate of 10.3 billion barrels. That is the average. For the sake of conversation, we might as well say a 10.3 billion barrel average.

Under this argument, Prudhoe Bay, the largest oil field in the United States, has only a 600-day supply. That is assuming all oil stops flowing from all other places, and we have no other source of oil other than Alaska. So those arguments don't hold water.

But the Wilderness Society and the Sierra Club say it is only a 200-day supply. It is only this, or it is only that; and using that logic, the SPR is only a 15-day supply, in theory.

Let's make sure we keep this discussion where it belongs.

To give you some idea, in this 1002 area, in comparison to an eastern seaboard State, let's take the State of Vermont, and say that there are absolutely no other sources for oil in the entire Coastal Plain. If this 1002 area was designated to fulfill Vermont's needs, that 200-day supply is enough to heat homes and run equipment all over Vermont for the next 197 years. So don't tell me that is insignificant. For New Hampshire, for example, it would be 107 years.

The U.S. Geological Survey says that it would replace all of our imports from Saudi Arabia for 11 years.

If it contains the maximum estimate of recoverable oil, it would replace all of our imports from Saudi Arabia for 30 years.

If the Arctic Coastal Plain could produce just 600,000 barrels a day, the most conservative estimate—more likely it would produce 2 million barrels a day—the area would be among the top 13 countries in the world; just this area in terms of crude oil production.

At 2 million barrels a day, the Coastal Plain of ANWR itself would be among the top eight oil-producing nations in the world. I am sick and tired of hearing irresponsible statements from the environmental groups that are lying to the American people.

We had a little discussion the other day on the floor. One of my colleagues from Illinois said he ran into a CEO of a major oil company of Chicago—he didn't identify who he was—and asked him how important ANWR was to the future of the petroleum industry. The man from the company said from his point of view it was nonsense, there are plenty of sources of oil in the United States that are not environmentally dangerous.

Where? Where? We can't drill off the Pacific coast. We can't drill off the Atlantic coast. We can't drill offshore. We can only drill down in the gulf, and now the Vice President wants to cancel leases down there.

He further said he believes, and the man from Illinois agreed, we don't have to turn to a wildlife refuge to start drilling oil in the Arctic nor do we have to drill offshore.

If we are not going to drill offshore, where are we going to drill? They won't let drilling occur in the Overthrust Belt. Mr. President, 64 percent has been ruled out—Wyoming, Colorado, Montana—to any exploration.

The idea that these people don't identify where we are going to drill, but are just opposed to it, is absolutely irresponsible. As a consequence of not knowing whether we have this oil or not, we are not doing a responsible thing in addressing whether we can count on this as another Strategic Petroleum Reserve.

I have a presentation that I hope will catch some of the attention of Members because there is an old saying from some of the environmental groups: For Heaven's sake, there is 95 percent of the coastal plain that is already open for oil and gas development.

Here is a picture of the coastal plain. It is important that the public understand this: 95 percent is not open. Here is Canada. Here is the ANWR area, 19 million acres, the coastal plain. This area is not open. It is open in this general area. Then we have the National Petroleum Reserve. This area is closed —this little bit of white area. From Barrow to Point Hope is closed. I repeat, 95 percent isn't open.

The Administration prides itself on saying we have been responsible in opening up areas of the National Petroleum Reserve, which is an old naval petroleum reserve. A reserve is there for an emergency. We don't know what is there. The areas that the oil company wanted to go in and bid Federal leases, the Department of Interior wouldn't make available. They made a few, it is a promising start, but let's open up a petroleum reserve and find out whether we have the petroleum there. They won't do that. They won't support us in opening up ANWR.

Only 14 percent of Alaska's coastal lands are open to oil and gas exploration. Those are facts. I defy the environmental community, the Sierra Club, or the Wilderness Society to counter those statements. The breakdown: Prudhoe region, 14 percent; ANWR coastal plain, 11 percent; ANWR wilderness, 5 percent; naval petroleum, 52 percent; and Western North Slope, State, native private land, 18 percent. Ninety-five percent is not open.

I am looking at ''The Scoop on Oil,'' Community News Line, Scripps News Service, written obviously by the environmental community. It says ''And yet oil spills in Prudhoe Bay average 500 a year.''

They don't amount to 500 spills a year. They amount to 17,000 spills a year—I see that has the attention of the Presiding Officer—because in Prudhoe Bay they don't mention they have to report all spills of any nonnaturally occurring substance, whether a spill of fresh water, a half cup of lubricating oil, or a more significant spill. The vast majority of spills at Prudhoe Bay have been fresh and salt water use in conditioning on the ice roads and pads—not of chemicals or oil.

In 1993, the worst year in the past decade for spills at Prudhoe Bay, there were 160 reported spills involving nearly 60,000 gallons of material but only 2 spills involving oil. Those are the facts. And all 10 gallons went into secondary containment structures and were easily cleaned.

Prudhoe Bay is the cleanest industrial zone in America. America should understand this. What the environmental community has done is found a cause, a cause for membership dollars. Our energy policy today in this country is directed not by our energy needs but by the direction of the environmental community. They accept no responsibility for the pickle we are in with this energy crisis. This administration has not fostered any domestic exploration program of any magnitude in this country, as I have indicated, whether it be the Overthrust Belt or elsewhere. They have limited excess activity to the Gulf of Mexico. They have prohibited exploration in the high Arctic, as I have indicated.

They have moved off oil and said: No more nuclear; we won't address nuclear waste. My good friend from Nevada and I have had spirited debate, but we are not expanding nuclear energy because we cannot address what to do with the waste. Twenty percent of our power comes from nuclear. We have not built a new coal-fired plant since the mid-1990s. You cannot get a permit. We are talking of taking down hydro dams because of the environmentalists, but there is a tradeoff, as the occupant of the Chair from Oregon knows—putting the traffic off the barges on to the highways. There is a tradeoff.

If we take no hydro, no coal, no nuclear, no more imports of oil, where does it go? It goes to natural gas. What about natural gas, the cleanest fuel? Ten months ago, it was $2.16 per 1,000 cubic feet; deliveries in November of $5.42—more than double. Where are we going for energy? We are going to natural gas. That is the next train wreck coming in this country. It will be severe. Fifty percent of the homes in this country heat by natural gas—56 million homes. Heating bills are going to be 40-percent higher in the Midwest this winter. We have a different problem on the east coast where we don't have natural gas. The train wreck is coming.

When I hear these ludicrous statements, this thing is garbage, it is totally inaccurate. It says:

> The oil industry's definition of ''environmentally sensitive'' also differs quite radically from yours and mine. How can thousands of caribou, polar grizzly bear, eagles, birds and other species who survive in what has been dubbed ''America's Serengeti''. . . .

If you haven't been up there, this coastal plain is pretty much the same all over. It is beautiful, it is unique. But it has some activity with the villages and the radar sites, and you wouldn't know where you were along this coastal plain because it is all the same.

They talk about dozens of oil fields. They say the road and pipelines would stop the movement of wildlife from one part of the habitat to another, toxic waste would leak. Let me show something about the wildlife up here: This is Prudhoe Bay, and this is the wildlife. These are not stuffed dummies, these are live caribou. They are wandering around because nobody is shooting them. Nobody is running them down with snow machines. This is Prudhoe Bay. We can do this in other areas of Alaska.

According to the Wilderness Society, rivers, streambeds, key habitat for wildlife, will be stripped by millions of tons of gravel roads. Let me show a little bit about the technology today because it is different. America should wake up and recognize this. This is a drill pad in the Arctic today. There are no gravel roads. We have ice and snow 9 months of the year. This is an ice road. That is the well.

Let me show the same place in the summertime, during the short summer, which is 2½ months or thereabouts. This is after moving the rig. There is the Christmas tree; there is the tundra. Do you see any marks? Do you see any gravel roads? Do you see pipelines? No, we have the technology, we can do it right. We could if the environmental community would meet its responsibilities. As we look for sources of energy, particularly oil, do we want to get it from the rain forests of Colombia where nobody gives a rat's concern about the environment? They just want the oil and to get it at any price, lay a pipeline anywhere.

Do you want to do it right here at home? I think it is time to come to grips with these folks and ask them to stand behind their assertions. They talk about millions of piles of gravel. We don't have to do that anymore. They are talking about the living quarters of thousands of workers and air pollution and death for the stunning animals. They talk about the polar bear. The polar bear don't den on land, they den on the ice.

I could go right down the list and state what is wrong with this thing. It is irresponsible. They finish by saying it is a 90-day supply of oil. That is just not accurate. It is not factual. The reality is, if given the opportunity, we can turn this country around, keep these jobs home.

I am going to tell you, one of the problems, of course, is with our refining capacity because we are going to have to increase that. The assertion is that some of these refineries were closed prior to the Clinton-Gore administration. That is fine. But what have we done to increase the refining capacity? Refining capacity has increased by less than 1 percent while demand has increased 14 percent in this country. What are the causes of price hikes? Let's go to EPA. We have nine geographical regions in this country that require reformulated gas. I am not going to question the merits of that, but I can tell you the same gas in Springfield, IL, can't be used in Chicago. It costs more. Is it necessary? I don't know, but it costs more because you have to batch it.

We have talked about President Clinton's veto of ANWR 6 years ago, and what it would do. We are addressing the national security of this country as we look at depleting our Strategic Petroleum Reserve. It amazes me that nobody is upset about our increased dependence on oil from Iraq, 750,000 barrels a day. Saddam Hussein finishes every speech: ''Death to Israel.'' If there was ever a threat to Israel's national security, it is Saddam Hussein. He is developing a missile capability, biological capability—what is it for? Well, it is not for good things.

As a consequence of that, we are seeing our Nation's increased reliance on crude oil and refined product, increased vulnerability to supply interruptions, and we are pulling down our reserves, and the administration says it is doing something about it. But I would like to know what. It vetoed ANWR, the opening of ANWR. It says we will get a little bit out of SPR. It says we have a problem here, we have a problem there.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The time of the Senator has expired.

Mr. MURKOWSKI. I ask unanimous consent for another 5 minutes.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, here are the Iraqi oil exports into the United States. They have gone up. Let me show some more charts because pictures are worth a thousand words. People say we have to concern ourselves with the issue of the porcupine caribou herd. This is ANWR, Canada. This is the Demster Highway. These are oil wells drilled in Canada. These in the light color were drilled. They didn't find any oil, but this is the route of the caribou. They have gone through this area. They cross the Demster Highway with no problem at all. The caribou calve—where do they calve? Sometimes they calve in ANWR, sometimes they do not. We are not going to have any oil development in the summertime in the calving area.

This is what it is like over in Iraq. This is what it was like during the Persian Gulf war. There we are trying to clean up the mess caused by Saddam Hussein. That is the guy we are helping to support today, now with biological capabilities.

There are a couple of more points I wish to make. Talk about compatibility, here is something I think is fairly compatible. This shows a couple of guys out for a walk—3 bears. Why are they walking on the pipeline? The pipeline is warm. This is in the Prudhoe Bay oil field. Nobody is shooting those guys. They are happy. They walk over.

I can remember 15 years ago when they said: You build that pipeline and you are going to cut the State in half. The caribou, the moose will never go over from the other side. It just did not happen. It will not happen because these guys are compatible with the environment, as long as you don't harm them, chase them, run them down and so forth.

We have a lot of things going here, given the opportunity. If these Members would go back, if you will, to your environmental critics and say: What do you suggest? Can American technology overcome, if you will, our environmental obligation? Can we open up this area safely? Do we have the science and technology? There is nothing to suggest that we do not have that capability.

This is where we are getting our oil from now, with no environmental conscience about how they are getting it out of the ground. That is irresponsible on their part.

I am going to leave you with one thought. Here are the people with whom I am concerned. Those are the people who live in my State. This is in a small village. These are the kids walking down the street. It is snowing, it is cold, it is tough. It is a tough environment.

One of my friends, Oliver Leavitt, spoke about life in Barrow. That is at the top of the world, right up here. You can't go any further north or you fall off the top. He said I could come to the DIA school to keep warm because the first thing I did every morning was go out on the beach and pick up the driftwood. Of course, there are no trees. The driftwood has to come down the river.

Jacob Adams said:

I love life in the Arctic but it's harsh, expensive, and for many, short. My people want decent homes, electricity and education. We do not want to be undisturbed. Undisturbed means abandoned. It means sod huts and deprivation.

The native people of the Coastal Plain are asking for the same right of the Audubon Society of Louisiana, the same right this administration itself is supporting in the Russian Arctic Circle, and the same right the Gwich'ins had in 1984 when they offered to lease their lands.

The oil companies should have bought it. There just wasn't any oil there.

I recognize the public policy debate about this issue is complex and will involve issues at the heart of the extreme environmental agenda which is driving our energy policy. It certainly is not relieving it.

At the same time, I think the issue can be framed simply as: Is it better to give the Inupiat people, the people of the Arctic, this right?

These people live up here. This is an Eskimo village. There is the village. Do you want to give them the right, while promoting a strong domestic energy policy that safeguards our environment and our national security, rather than rely on the likes of Saddam Hussein to supply the energy?

The answer in my mind is clear, as well as in the minds of the Alaskans.

ORDER OF PROCEDURE

Mr. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, if I may, I have been asked to announce speeches and I have just concluded one. On behalf of the leader, I ask unanimous consent, following the remarks of the majority leader, Senator FEINGOLD be recognized for up to 25 minutes as in morning business, to be followed by Senator SESSIONS, under the previous order, to be followed by Senator GRAHAM for up to 20 minutes in morning business.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent Senator FEINGOLD be allowed to continue until the Senator arrives on the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

H–1B VISAS

Mr. FEINGOLD. Mr. President, the Senate has just concluded its fourth vote in favor of the bill expanding H–1B visas that America grants each year to people from other countries to work in certain specialty occupations. I supported the bill on each of these votes.

But I rise today to express how strongly I oppose the manner in which the majority leader has sought to constrain this debate. I oppose the way in which the majority leader sought, on that bill, as with so many others, to prevent Senators from offering amendments. And I oppose the majority leader's effort to stifle debate by repeatedly filing cloture on the bill.

Through his extreme use of cloture and of filling the amendment tree, I'm afraid the majority leader has reduced the Senate to a shadow of its proper self. And the result has been a Senate whose legislative accomplishments are as insubstantial as a shadow. This body cannot long exist as merely a shadow Senate.

Yesterday, as he brushed aside calls that the Senate vote on minimum wage or a patient's bill of rights, the majority leader complained that the Senate had already voted on those matters. But the Senate has, as yet, failed to enact those matters, and the people who sent us here have a right to hold Senators accountable.

And what's more, by blocking amendments, the majority leader has also blocked Senate consideration and votes on a number of issues that have been the subject of no votes in the Senate this year. Let me take a few moments to address two of them, the reform of soft money in political campaigns, and the indefensible practice of racial profiling.

Let me begin my discussion of these two items that the Senate was not allowed to take up—campaign finance and racial profiling—by discussing how those matters relate to what the Senate did take up—the H–1B visa bill.

The proponents of the H–1B bill characterize it as a necessity for our high tech future. It is both more and less than that.

But in a sense, the high-tech industry is certainly a large part of the reason why the Senate considered H–1B legislation these past two weeks. I would assert, that there is a high degree of correlation between the items that come up on the floor of the United States Senate and the items advocated by the moneyed interests that make large contributions to political campaigns.

American Business for Legal Immigration, a coalition which formed to fight for an increase in H–1B visas, offers a glimpse of the financial might behind proponents of H–1Bs. As I've said, I am not opposed to raising the level of H–1B visas. But I do think it's appropriate, from time to time, when the weight of campaign contributions appears to warp the legislative process, to Call the Bankroll to highlight what wealthy interests seeking to influence this debate have given to parties and candidates.

ABLI is chock full of big political donors, Mr. President, and not just from one industry, but from several different industries that have an interest in bringing more high-tech workers into the U.S. I'll just give my colleagues a quick sampling of ABLI's membership and what they have given so far in this election cycle. All the donors I'm about to mention are companies that rank among the top employers of H–1B workers in the U.S., according to the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

These figures are through at least the first 15 months of the election cycle, and in some cases include contributions given more recently in the cycle:

Price Waterhouse Coopers, the accounting and consulting firm, has given more than $297,000 in soft money to the parties and more than $606,000 in PAC money candidates so far in this election cycle.

Telecommunications giant Motorola and its executives have given more than $70,000 in soft money and more than $177,000 in PAC money during the period.

And of course ABLI is comprised of giants in the software industry, who have also joined in the political money game.

The software company Oracle and its executives have given more than $536,000 in soft money during the period, and its PAC has given $45,000 to federal candidates.

Executives of Cisco Systems have given more than $372,000 in soft money since the beginning of this election cycle.

And Microsoft gave very generously during the period, with more than $1.7 million in soft money and more than half a million in PAC money.

But I should also point out, Mr. President, that the lobbying on this issue is hardly one sided.

Many unions are lobbying against it, including the Communication Workers of America, which gave $1.9 million in soft money during the period, including two donations of a quarter of a million dollars last year. And CWA's PAC gave more than $960,000 to candidates during the period.

The lobbying group Federation for American Immigration Reform, or ''FAIR,'' has lobbied furiously against this bill with a print, radio and television campaign, which has cost somewhere between $500,000 and $1 million, according to an estimate in Roll Call.

This is standard procedure these days for wealthy interests—you have to pay to play on the field of politics. You have got to pony up for quarter-million dollar soft money contributions and half-million dollar issue ad campaigns, and anyone who cannot afford the price of admission is going to be left out in the cold.

Thus, I believe that campaign finance is very much tied up in why the Senate considered the H–1B bill these past two weeks. I believe that campaign finance is very much tied up in why the Senate considered the H–1B bill under the tortured circumstances that it did. This is just another reason why I believe that this Senate must consider and vote on amendments that deal with campaign finance reform.

The momentum is building on campaign finance reform. In recent days, more and more candidates have offered to swear off soft money and have called for commitments from their opponents to do without soft money in their campaigns. More and more candidates are coming to the realization that taking soft money is a political liability. The days of soft money are numbered, and this shadow Senate cannot long hide from the political reality.

Beyond that subject, there are other important subjects that the majority leader is blocking with his heavy-handed tactics. The Senate may just have considered a bill dealing with immigrants, but the Senate has thus far failed to consider a discussion of a particular injustice that could well affect their lives, as well.

The INS's May report showed that most of those for whom they approved H–1B visas during the period for which data were available came here from countries of the developing world. As a large number of those receiving H–1B visas are people of color, many could become subject to the indefensible practice of racial profiling.

If this Senate can find the time to consider H–1B legislation, I believe that it should also find the time to consider an amendment that addresses the issue of racial profiling.

Let me begin my discussion of racial profiling by acknowledging the leadership of Congressman JOHN CONYERS and our friend in this body, Senator FRANK LAUTENBERG, the principal authors of the legislation to address this very real problem.

The problem is this: Millions of African Americans, Hispanic Americans, immigrants, and other Americans of racial or ethnic minority backgrounds who drive on our Nation's streets and highways are subject to being stopped for no apparent reason other than the color of their skin.

This practice, known as racial profiling, targets drivers for heightened scrutiny or harassment because of the color of their skin. Some call it ''DWB,'' ''Driving While Black,'' or ''Driving While Brown.'' Of course, not all or even most law enforcement officers engage in this terrible practice. The vast majority of our men and women in blue are honorable people who fulfill their duties without engaging in racial profiling, but the experience of many Americans of color has demonstrated that the practice is very real.

There are some law enforcement agencies or officers in our country who have decided that if you are a person of color, you are more likely to be trafficking drugs or engaged in other illegal activities than a white person, despite statistical evidence to the contrary. In a May 1999 report, the American Civil Liberties Union reported that along I–95 in Maryland, while only roughly 17 percent of the total drivers and traffic violators were African American, an astonishing 73 percent of the drivers searched were African American. The legislation that Senator LAUTENBERG and I have sponsored would allow us to get an even better picture.

In America, all should have the right to travel from place to place free of this unjustified government harassment. None should have to endure this incredibly humiliating experience—and sometimes even a physically threatening one—on the roadsides or in the backseat of police cruisers.

This practice also damages the trust between law enforcement and the community. Where can people of color turn for help when they believe that the men and women in uniform cannot be trusted? As one Hispanic-American testified earlier this year in Glencoe, IL, after his family experienced racial profiling, ''Who is there left to protect us? The police just violated us.''

Racial profiling chips away at the important trust that law enforcement agencies take great pains to develop with the community. When that trust is broken, it can lead to an escalation of tensions between the police and the community. It can lead to detrimental effects on our criminal justice system—like jury nullification and the failure to convict criminals at all—because some in the communities no longer believes the police officer on the witness stand. Racial profiling is bad policing, and it has a ripple effect whose consequences are only beginning to be felt.

In just the last year and a half, since we introduced the traffic stops statistics study bill, we have already seen increased awareness of this problem in the law enforcement community, and an increased willingness to address it. A growing number of police departments are beginning to collect traffic stops data voluntarily. Over 100 law enforcement agencies nationwide—including State police agencies like the Michigan State Police—have now decided to collect data voluntarily. Eleven State legislatures have passed data collection bills in the last year or so. This is tremendous progress from where we were when the bill was introduced. I applaud those states and I applaud law enforcement agencies that are collecting data on their own.

But these State and local efforts underscore the need for a Federal role in collecting and analyzing traffic stops data to give Congress and the public a national picture of the extent of the racial profiling problem and lay the groundwork for national solutions to end this horrendous practice. While we can applaud individual states and law enforcement agencies for taking action, combating racial discrimination is one area where a Federal role is essential. Our citizens have a right to expect us to act.

I am pleased to have joined my distinguished colleague from New Jersey, Senator LAUTENBERG, in introducing S. 821, a companion bill to the bill introduced in the House by Representatives JOHN CONYERS and ROBERT MENENDEZ. The bill would require the Attorney General to conduct an initial analysis of existing data on racial profiling and then design a study to gather data from a nationwide sampling of jurisdictions.

This is a straightforward bill that requires only that the Attorney General conduct a study. It doesn't tell police officers how to do their jobs. And it doesn't mandate data collection by police departments. The Attorney General's sampling study would be based on data collected from police departments that voluntarily agree to participate in the Justice Department study.

I cannot emphasize enough that this traffic stops study bill is a truly modest proposal. Some would even say it's a conservative proposal. The American people have become so much more aware of the issue over the last year, and so many law enforcement agencies and State governments have expressed interest in addressing the issue, that many people are now saying that a study bill does not go far enough. They argue that we have enough data; we know racial profiling exists; we do not need to study it more; let's just end it. I understand this sentiment. This is a modest, reasonable proposal that, I hope, will lay the groundwork for developing ways to end racial profiling once and for all.

Only last month, the son of the great civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr. led a march on the Lincoln Memorial to commemorate his father's legacy. His father inspired a nation 37 years ago when he said, in words that echoed throughout the world and have been etched in history, that he had a dream that one day racial justice would flow like a mighty river. Sadly, our Nation has not fulfilled that dream. As Martin Luther King III noted, racial profiling continues to harm Americans and erodes the important trust that should exist between law enforcement and the people they serve and protect.

President Clinton has endorsed S. 821, and last June he directed federal law enforcement agencies to begin collecting and reporting data on the race, ethnicity and gender of the people they stop and search at our Nation's borders and airports. A coalition of civil rights and law enforcement organizations—including the ACLU, the NAACP, the National Council of La Raza, and the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives—also support this legislation. I am pleased that 20 Senators have joined to cosponsor the bill, and I am hopeful that if allowed to come to a vote, my amendment would enjoy broad support. The House of Representatives passed a similar bill by voice vote in the 105th Congress, and this March, the House Judiciary Committee passed the bill again. It's time we passed it in the Senate, too.

Racial profiling and soft money campaign finance reform are issues that deserve consideration in the Senate. Regrettably, the procedures that the majority leader employed to consider the H–1B bill and too many other bills have so far blocked their consideration. Before this Senate adjourns sine die, I hope that we will have an opportunity to address these, and many other issues that demand attention. If it fails to, this Senate's mark in history will be no more permanent than a shadow.

Mr. President, I yield the floor.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. BENNETT). Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, the junior Senator from Alabama is on the floor. I want to express publicly my appreciation. We had a Senator over here who had some time problems. He graciously allowed him to go first, for which I am very grateful, something he did not have to do. He did it because he is a southern gentleman. I appreciate it very much.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

MEASURE READ THE FIRST TIME—S.J. RES. 54

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I understand that S.J. Res. 54, introduced earlier today by Senator KENNEDY and others, is at the desk. I ask for its first reading.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the bill for the first time.

The assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

A joint resolution (S.J. Res. 54) expressing the sense of Congress with respect to the peace process in Northern Ireland.

Mr. REID. I now ask for its second reading and object to my own request.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

Mr. LOTT addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT AGREEMENT—S. 2045

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, with regard to the H–1B legislation, I now ask unanimous consent that notwithstanding rule XXII, following the previously ordered morning business speeches, the Senate resume consideration of S. 2045, the H–1B bill, and the following pending amendment Nos. 4214, 4216, and 4217, be withdrawn and the motion to recommit be withdrawn in order to offer a managers' amendment containing cleared amendments limited to 5 minutes equally divided in the usual form.

I further ask consent that following the adoption of the managers' amendment, no further amendments be in order, and amendment No. 4177, as amended, be agreed to, the committee substitute, as amended, be agreed to, the bill be advanced to third reading, and final passage occur at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, without any intervening action or motion or debate, and that paragraph 4 of rule XII be waived. I further ask consent that the time between 9:30 and 10 a.m. on Tuesday be equally divided between the two managers for closing remarks.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. LOTT. Let my just say, Mr. President, we have one additional part of this H–1B request we hope to be able to clear momentarily. But the interested parties are reviewing the language of the substitute. When we get that reviewed, then we will ask consent that the bill be laid aside until 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday and that the Senate proceed to the visa waiver bill. But we will clarify that in just one moment.

UNANIMOUS CONSENT AGREEMENT—ENERGY/WATER APPROPRIATIONS CONFERENCE REPORT

Mr. LOTT. Now, with regard to the energy and water appropriations conference report, I ask unanimous consent that notwithstanding rule XXII, following H–1B consideration, the Senate proceed to the energy and water appropriations conference report and that the report be considered as having been read and considered under the following agreement: 1 hour equally divided between the chairman and the ranking member of the Appropriations subcommittee, 20 minutes equally divided between the chairman and ranking member of the full committee, and 10 minutes under the control of Senator MCCAIN.

I further ask consent that following the use or yielding back of time, the vote occur on adoption of the conference report immediately, without any intervening action or debate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. REID addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. REID. Because of the lateness of the day, I ask unanimous consent that any time I have be returned to the Chair. I will submit a written statement setting forth my views on the bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOMENICI addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New Mexico.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. Majority Leader, might I ask a question? Did you get some time for the Senator from New Mexico?

Mr. LOTT. We do have time equally divided between the chairman, the Senator from New Mexico, and the ranking member.

Mr. DOMENICI. I will yield back my time to the Chair. I have a statement I will submit shortly.

Mr. LOTT. All right. We still have 10 minutes under the control of Senator MCCAIN. We will call and see if he wants to take advantage of that.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. LOTT. We will come back to that later.

UNANIMOUS-CONSENT REQUEST—H.R. 4986

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, with regard to H.R. 4986, I ask unanimous consent that notwithstanding rule XXII, the Senate now turn to the consideration of Calendar No. 817, which is H.R. 4986, relating to foreign sales corporations, and following the reporting of the bill by the clerk, the committee amendments be agreed to, with no other amendments or motions in order, and the bill be immediately advanced to third reading and passage occur, all without any intervening action or debate.

I further ask consent that the Senate then insist on its amendment, request a conference with the House, and the Chair be authorized to appoint conferees on the part of the Senate, which will be Senators ROTH, LOTT, and MOYNIHAN.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. REID. Mr. President, reserving the right to object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Nevada.

Mr. REID. I know everyone has worked hard on this. We do have a number of Senators who want to offer amendments. Until we get that worked out, I object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Without objection——

Mr. LOTT. No. He did object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

Mr. LOTT. Let me just say, Mr. President, that I did ask for consent on this bill out of the Finance Committee dealing with foreign sales corporations. And, of course, this is the result of WTO decisions, trying to get the U.S. laws to comply with that decision.

We did clear it on this side. I understand there are some Senators on the Democratic side who wish to offer amendments. A lot of the amendments on the list I saw were the usual suspects that have now been offered that do not relate to the bill. I understand that has to be worked out. Senator REID and others will be trying to clear up those objections based on those amendments.

But I do want to say, if there is any germane or relevant amendment to this bill, certainly we will work to make sure that will be included in the agreement.

Failing that, this is something we need to do, and I hope we can get it cleared up in the next few days.

UNANIMOUS-CONSENT REQUEST—S. 2015

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, with regard to the Stem Cell Research Act of 2000, Senator SPECTER has been very energetic in pursuing the opportunity to offer this legislation.

As I had agreed earlier, I now ask unanimous consent that notwithstanding rule XXII, the HELP Committee be discharged from further consideration of S. 2015, and the Senate proceed to its immediate consideration under the following terms: 3 hours on the bill to be equally divided in the usual form; that there be up to one relevant amendment in order for each leader, that they be offered in the first degree, limited to 1 hour equally divided and not subject to any second-degree amendments; that no motions to commit or recommit be in order.

I further ask unanimous consent that following the conclusion or use of the debate time and the disposition of the above-described amendments, the bill be advanced to third reading and a vote occur on passage of the bill, as amended, if amended, all without any intervening action or debate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. REID. Reserving the right to object, Mr. President, I have a number of questions under my reservation. First of all, we were of the understanding that this unanimous consent that was proposed had not been cleared on the majority leader's side earlier today.

Mr. LOTT. There very well could be objections on this side, too.

Mr. BROWNBACK. I will object to this proposal.

Mr. LOTT. I think there are objections on both sides to this, but I made a commitment to do everything I could to try to get this issue to be considered by the full Senate. Senator SPECTER feels very strongly about it, is committed to it, and has been reasonable in waiting for an opportunity to offer it. I know there are objections to it on both sides, and there is no question that there is objection on this side. I felt constrained to make this effort. It is a serious effort.

Mr. REID. If I may say to the leader, Senator SPECTER has spoken to me. I know how intensely he feels about the issue. I said the same thing to him that the leader has said, that I would do everything I could to get this worked out. Whoever is not allowing it to be cleared, it is not being cleared now.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. BROWNBACK. I object.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

Mr. LOTT. I yield the floor, Mr. President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senator from Alabama is recognized.

JAMES MADISON COMMEMORATION COMMISSION ACT

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, March 16, 2001, will mark the 250th anniversary of the birth of James Madison, who clearly earned the title: Father of our Constitution.

This great American devoted his life to the service of his country and his fellow man, and that service played an essential role in creating and protecting the constitutional liberty that we enjoy today.

Accordingly, I intend to offer the bipartisan James Madison Commemoration Commission Act to celebrate the life and contributions of this small man who was a giant of liberty.

James Madison was born on March 16, 1751 in Port Conway, VA. He was raised at Montpelier, his family's estate in Orange County, VA. He attended the College of New Jersey, now known as Princeton University, where he excelled academically and graduated in 1771. Shortly after his graduation, Madison embarked on a legal career. In 1774, at the age of 23, Madison entered political life. He was first elected to the Orange County Committee of Safety. Following that, he was elected as delegate to the Constitutional Convention of Virginia in 1776. He next served as a member of the Continental Congress from 1780 to 1783. This provided him marvelous insight into the nature of our early American government and ideals.

After America won its freedom at Yorktown, the country looked to strengthen the government that had proven too helpless under the Articles of Confederation. A Constitutional Convention was called in Philadelphia. It was here that Madison was to play the most important role of his life, dwarfing, in my view, his subsequent excellent service to his country.

From 1784 to 1786, Madison was a member of the Constitutional Convention. He served as a primary draftsman of the Constitution. Thomas Jefferson, who was in France at the time, and who did not participate in the Constitutional Convention, did suggest a number of books that would aid the young draftsman in preparing for his historic task. With these books and others, Madison engaged in an extensive study of the ancient governments of Greece and Rome and of the more modern governments of Italy and England, among others. No one came to Philadelphia so intentionally, practically, and historically prepared to create a new government.

Madison posed his task as follows:

> If men were angels, no government would be necessary. If angels were to govern men, neither external nor internal controls on government would be necessary. In framing a government which is to be administered by men over men, the great difficulty lies in this: you must first enable the government to control the governed; and in the next place, oblige it to control itself.

This he wrote in Federalist No. 51.

At the convention, delegates made impassioned arguments regarding the relative powers of big States, small States, Northern States, Southern States, and there were those who feared that a strong national government might dominate all States. In month after month of untiring argument, careful persuasion, and creative compromise, Madison reached answers upon which the delegates could agree. There would be a Federal Government of separated and enumerated powers. Large States would have their votes based on population in the House of Representatives. Small States would have equal, two-vote, representation in this body, the Senate.

Further, the powers of the Federal Government would be limited to enumerated objects in order to protect all the States from Federal overreaching. Madison described the Federal Republic, states and federal governments, that the Constitution envisioned as follows:

> In the compound republic of America, the power surrendered by the people is first divided between two distinct governments, and then the portion allotted to each subdivided among distinct and separate departments. Hence a double security arises to the rights of the people. The different governments will control each other, at the same time that each will be controlled by itself.

He was writing that in Federalist No. 51.

In addition to playing a leading role in framing this new government, Madison also made detailed notes on the proceedings of the Constitutional Convention. Madison's notes on the Constitutional Convention have proven the most extensive and accurate account of how our Founding Fathers framed the greatest form of government in the history of mankind.

Once the Constitutional Convention reached an agreement, the States had to ratify the Constitution and make it binding fundamental law. Madison contributed to that fight for ratification in three ways. It was a critical, tough fight.

First, he joined with Alexander Hamilton and John Jay in drafting the Federalist Papers which were circulated among New York newspapers under the pseudonym Publius.

These papers contained perhaps the most vivid and profound pages of practical political philosophy ever produced. They answered with force and eloquence the arguments of the anti-federalists and helped sway public opinion toward ratification.

Second, Madison fought in the Virginia ratification convention for the adoption of the Constitution.

It was critical that Virginia ratify the Constitution. Joining with John Marshall, the future great Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Madison argued against the fiery orator, Patrick Henry. Henry, who argued so forcefully for declaring independence from Great Britain, charged that the new Constitution would vest too much power in the Federal Government. Madison countered that the powers of the Federal Government would be limited to enumerated objects and subject to the control of people.

Third, Madison helped to develop the Bill of Rights which limited the power of the Federal Government further and ensured the power of the states and the liberty of the people. He was a critical drafter in the development of the Bill of Rights.

Madison's herculean efforts, along with the efforts of others, resulted in the ratification of the Constitution with a Bill of Rights. This constitutional government enabled a fledgling democracy to grow into the most powerful force for liberty the world has ever known. He was the right man at the right time.

Notwithstanding Madison's intellectual prowess and the thoughtful, reflective approach he brought to problem-solving, humility was the hallmark of this man. In later years, when he was referred to as the Father of the Constitution, Madison modestly protested that the document was not ''the offspring of a single brain'' but ''the work of many heads and many hands.'' It was true, but it was done under his nurturing care.

After Madison's service at the Constitutional Convention, he served in the U.S. House of Representatives for four terms. When Thomas Jefferson was elected President in 1801, he selected Madison to serve as his Secretary of State.

At the conclusion of Jefferson's administration, the American people twice elected James Madison President of the United States. As President, he watched over the very government he played such a crucial role in creating. And his steady leadership in the War of 1812 against Great Britain helped guide America to victory.

While these accomplishments are remarkable indeed, the really remarkable thing is the enduring nature of Madison's imprint on American history. Amended only 17 times after its ratification with the Bill of Rights, the Constitution that Madison drafted still provides the same basic structure upon which our government operates today and that we comply with every day in this body.

The Supreme Court still quotes the Federalist Papers that Madison drafted. And Madison's concept of federalism is the subject of renewed debate in the Supreme Court and Congress at this time.

The Constitution that Madison drafted, and his writings that have guided generations of Americans in interpreting that Constitution, are still the envy of the world. Madison's wisdom and foresight have been proven by the indisputable success of the American constitutional experiment. Indeed, while we are a young country, this nation has the oldest continuous written Constitution in the world. It is a beacon and example for others. Many try and are not able to make it work, but they have modeled their constitutions so often after ours.

Why has it worked? Because Madison understood that the law must be suited to the people it is intended to govern. In Federalist No. 51, Madison stated:

What is government itself but the greatest of all reflections on human nature?

And a constitution that protects liberty is suited to a people who love liberty to the extent that they are willing to fight and die for it.

So, Mr. President, it is with great pride that I join with other Senators on both sides of the aisle, including Senators BYRD, THURMOND, MOYNIHAN, WARNER, and ROBB, to offer at the appropriate time, this bill establishing the James Madison Commemoration Commission. The Commission will celebrate the 250th anniversary of James Madison's birth on March 16, 2001.

The commission will consist of 19 members: The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Majority and Minority Leaders of the Senate, the Speaker and Minority Leader of the House, the Chairmen and Ranking Members of the Senate and House Judiciary Committees, two Members of the Senate selected by the Majority Leader, two Members of the Senate selected by the Minority Leader, two Members of the House of Representatives selected by the Speaker, two Members of the House of Representatives selected by the Minority Leader of the House, and two members of the Executive Branch selected by the President. A person not able to serve may designate a substitute. Members will be chosen based on their position at the end of the 106th Congress and will continue to serve until the expiration of the Commission.

The bill will also create an Advisory Committee with 14 members, including: the Archivist of the United States, the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institute, the Executive Director of Montpelier, the President of James Madison University, the Director of the James Madison Center, the President of the James Madison Memorial Fellowship Foundation, 2 persons who are not Members of Congress selected by the majority leader of the Senate, with expertise on the legal and historical significance of James Madison, 2 persons who are not Members of Congress, selected by the minority leader of the Senate, 2 persons who are not Members of Congress, selected by the Speaker of the House, and 2 persons who are not Members of Congress, selected by the minority leader of the House.

With the aid of the Advisory Committee, the Commission will:

1. Publish a collection of Madison's most important writings and tributes to Madison;

2. Coordinate and plan a symposium to provide a better understanding of Madison's contributions to American political culture;

3. Recognize other events celebrating Madison's life and contributions;

4. Accept essay papers from students on Madison's life and contributions and award certificates as appropriate; and

5. Bestow honorary memberships on the Commission and the Advisory Committee.

The bill authorizes $250,000 for the Commission. This will be used for the expenses of publishing the book and hosting a symposium.

The Commission will expire after its work is done in 2001.

Mr. President, I believe this work is truly important to our country. I ask all my colleagues—and we have had a growing number of individuals who have joined as co-sponsors of this bill—to join in this effort to commemorate the Father of our Constitution and perhaps the greatest practical political scientist who ever lived, James Madison.

I yield the floor.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, I am pleased to gain Senator SESSIONS as a cosponsor of the James Madison Commemoration Commission Act. It is appropriate that we honor James Madison for his exemplary contributions to our country.

The Commission will build on the success of the James Madison Fellowship Foundation, which Senator HATCH and I cochair. We are very proud of the work of the Madison Fellows. They are among the most accomplished, talented, and dedicated educators in the Nation. They are committed to educating children across the country about the value of learning, the importance of the Constitution, and the significance of public service.

I hope that this new Commission honoring James Madison will breathe new life into the Constitution for people across the country.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Pennsylvania is recognized.

STEM CELL LEGISLATION

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, I was not on the floor a few moments ago when the distinguished majority leader and the assistant leader for the Democrats had a colloquy when the majority leader propounded a unanimous consent request concerning legislation on stem cells. I think it useful to make a brief comment or two and then to have, if I might, a brief discussion with the majority leader about what will happen on the future of the bill.

The stem cell legislation in question would eliminate the prohibition now in effect which limits the use of Federal funds, principally from the National Institutes of Health, from paying for extracting stem cells from embryos. Once the stem cells have been extracted from embryos, then Federal funds may be used on their research, and private funds—if I might have the attention of the majority leader for a moment while we discuss the stem cell issue, as to what is going to happen next. Without describing the legislation—which I can in a minute—I ask the distinguished majority leader what he anticipates in the future.

When this issue to eliminate the limitation on funding was stricken from the appropriations bill last year, it was done so after I consulted with the majority leader because concluding it would have resulted in a filibuster and tied up that appropriations bill. The majority leader made a commitment, which he has fulfilled today, to bring the bill to the floor.

It had been my hope that we would have had the bill on the floor at an earlier time, but I fully understand the complexities of the schedule; and once we had reached September, the only way to deal with the matter was on a limited time agreement to be obtained through unanimous consent.

So it is my hope that the intent and the thrust of what was proposed—I think intended—was that that the bill would be on the calendar and considered when we reconvened, when it would not have to be subjected to a unanimous consent request, but it might have to pass a filibuster vote on a motion to proceed.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, if the Senator from Pennsylvania will yield, let me acknowledge the fact that the Senator from Pennsylvania did agree at a critical moment last year to remove this issue from the Labor-HHS-Education appropriations bill so we could complete it. It was clearly one of the difficulties we were having in wrapping up the session.

I committed at that time that we would make an effort to get it up this year and that I would do that. We probably should have made this effort earlier. I owe him an apology for not doing that. Let me say, in recent days we have tried to clear it. There is objection to it. I believed it was important that I go ahead and make that request publicly because we made that commitment to the Senator.

I know how strongly the Senator from Pennsylvania feels about this issue, and a lot of other people feel very strongly about it. I know we had some testimony on it within the last couple of weeks in the Senate. There are strong and passionate feelings about it on both sides in terms of what it can do for some health problems, and there are others who obviously think this is an improper use. I am sure it will be a good debate whenever it is debated and wherever it is debated. I will work with the Senator next year to try to get it up earlier in the session. Before I make a commitment at this time that I will file cloture, I have to make sure it will not fall through and I can keep that commitment.

But I will work with him to see that he gets a shot at it. He always has the opportunity to offer amendments on bills that come along. There is not just one way to get it done. I do believe I owe him a commitment to keep working with him. Even though I don't necessarily agree with him on the substance, I think on the procedure I have an obligation to keep a commitment to help him.

Mr. SPECTER. Mr. President, I thank the distinguished majority leader for his statement. I appreciate his last statement that he doesn't necessarily agree with me, which leaves some room that he doesn't necessarily disagree with me. I am not looking for a response at this time. Senator LOTT is well known to have an open mind on controversial issues and on matters not debated. I agree with him when he says it is subject to passionate feelings on both sides.

We had debates and witnesses. We had seven hearings on this issue. We had Senator BROWNBACK, the principal opponent of the legislation, to testify, and Congressman JAY DICKEY, the principal opponent of the legislation in the House, to testify.

The hearings have always been balanced, and we have had people who have opposed the legislation at every one of the hearings.

It is a matter which is appropriate for the Senate to consider. I appreciate what the majority leader has said about giving consideration to an early listing next year, and not making a commitment on pressing a cloture motion. I think a cloture motion could be filed by any 17 Senators. But we are not going to get involved in that at this time.

But I did want to say for the RECORD why I believe it is important that the matter be considered. And it is because stem cells have such a remarkable opportunity to cure many of the most difficult maladies and diseases which confront America and the world today. These stem cells have the potential to be placed in the human body to replace other cells.

We had testimony, for example, from Michael J. Fox, who suffers from Parkinson's. We had the experts testify that these stem cells could be enormously effective in curing Parkinson's. That is an obtainable goal perhaps in as early as 5 years.

The stem cells may also be useful on Alzheimer's disease, on strokes, on spinal cord injuries, perhaps on cancer, and perhaps on heart ailments.

There is virtually no limit to what these stem cells can do. They are a veritable fountain of youth.

I have said publicly that I understand those on the other side of the issue. It involves taking an embryo which has been created for purposes of in vitro fertilization but not used. These embryos are discarded. There are some 100,000 embryos in existence today which will not be used. So the issue is whether you simply discard these embryos which will have no further effect, or whether you use these embryos to produce stem cells which can cure many very serious maladies.

There are other alternatives such as adult stem cells. But the scientific evidence has been very compelling, in my judgment, that adult stem cells cannot do the job, but stem cells can from embryos.

There are also stem cells from fetal tissue. Those stem cells are limited, and we really need the stem cells from these embryos to provide the research opportunities to cure so many of these ailments.

This is not an issue which is going to lead to the creation of embryos for the purposes of extracting stem cells. When we have the fetal tissue discussion, many people are concerned that they will produce more abortions to have fetal tissue available. In fact, that was not the case—fetal tissue was used from abortions which would have occurred in any event.

It is not a controversial pro-life versus pro-choice issue as we have had many Senators who are strongly pro-life support stem cell research in this legislation. Senator STROM THURMOND, who is very strongly pro-life and an acknowledged very conservative Senator, testified before the subcommittee in favor of this legislation to have Federal funding for extraction of stem cells from embryos.

Senator CONNIE MACK of Florida has spoken about this bill, another pro-life Senator speaking in favor of it. Very strong statements have come from Senator GORDON SMITH, who is pro-life and very concerned about these underlying issues, as to why he feels the balance is in favor of this sort of legislation.

Since the issue was mentioned and there is not another Senator on the floor seeking recognition, I thought I would explain in abbreviated form where this legislation is pending, and why I have been pressing. It comes naturally within the subcommittee of appropriations which I chair.

The prohibition against use of Federal funds to extract stem cells from embryos was placed in a bill which came out of this subcommittee. When the prohibition was imposed, there was no one who really knew the miraculous potential of stem cells, it being a veritable fountain of youth. This only came into existence with the research disclosed in November of 1998. Since that time, our subcommittee has had seven hearings to explore the issue very fully.

It is my hope that the matter will come before the Senate early next year. I appreciate what the majority leader has had to say. We will let the Senate work its will. Let us consider it. Let us debate it. Let us analyze it and come to judgment on it, which is our role as legislators, in a way which considers all of the claims and considers all of the positions but resolves the matter so that public policy will be determined in accordance with our constitutional standards and our legislative procedures.

I thank the Chair. I yield the floor.

In the absence of any other Senator seeking recognition, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Minnesota is recognized.

MR. GRAMS. I thank the Chair.

(The remarks of Mr. GRAMS and Mr. SESSIONS pertaining to the introduction of S. 3138 are located in today's RECORD under ''Statements on Introduced Bills and Joint Resolutions.'')

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from New Mexico.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I have two unanimous consents that have been agreed to on the other side. I will make them as expeditiously as I can.

AMERICAN COMPETITIVENESS IN THE TWENTY-FIRST CENTURY ACT OF 2000—Resumed

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, on H–1B, I ask unanimous consent the Senate now resume S. 2045, the H–1B bill, and the managers' amendment be agreed to, which is at the desk, and all other provisions of the consent be in order.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The amendments (Nos. 4214, 4216 and 4217) were withdrawn.

The motion to recommit was withdrawn.

The amendment (No. 4275) was agreed to.

(The text of the amendment is printed in today's RECORD under ''Amendments Submitted.'')

The amendment (No. 4177), as amended, was agreed to.

The committee substitute, as amended, was agreed to.

The bill (S. 2045), as amended, was ordered to a third reading and was read the third time.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, let me highlight our intent about how the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) should implement this legislation with respect to physicians who seek H–1B visas. The INS currently requires that each applicant for an H–1B visa who wishes to work as a physician must have passed the three parts of the United States Medical Licensing Examination (USMLE) and, if required by the state in which he or she will be practicing, be licensed. Due to the increased number of physicians who may work in the U.S. under H–1B visas with the passage of this legislation, it is even more important that the INS confirm successful completion of all parts of the USMLE each time an individual physician applies for, or seeks renewal of, an H–1B visa.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, our Nation's economy is experiencing a time of unprecedented growth and prosperity. This strong economic growth can, in large measure, be traced to the vitality of the fast-growing high technology industry. Information technology, biotechnology and associated manufacturers have created more new jobs than any other part of the economy.

The rapid growth of the high-tech industry has made it the nation's third largest employer, with 4.8 million workers in high-tech related fields, working in jobs that pay 70 percent above average income. The Bureau of Labor Statistics projects that the number of core IT workers will grow to a remarkable 2.6 million by 2006—an increase of 1.1 million from 1996.

With such rapid change, the economy is stretched thin to support these new businesses and the growth opportunities they present. The constraint cited most often on future growth of the high-technology industry is the shortage of men and women with the skills and technical background needed for jobs in the industry. Several factors are contributing to this shortage, including an inaccurate, negative image of IT occupations as overly demanding, the under-representation of women and minorities in the IT workforce, and outdated academic curricula that often do not keep pace with industry needs.

All of us want to be responsive to the nation's need for high-tech workers. We know that unless we take steps now to address this growing workforce gap, America's technological and economic leadership will be jeopardized. The H–1B visa cap should be increased, but in a way that better addresses the fundamental needs of the economy. Raising the cap without seriously addressing our long-term labor needs would be a serious mistake.

The legislation before us today includes provisions that respond to what American workers, students and employers have been telling Congress: that any credible legislative proposal must begin with a significant expansion of career training and educational opportunities for our workers and students. Expanding the number of H–1B visas to meet short-term needs is no substitute for long-term solutions to fully develop the potential of our domestic workforce. It makes sense to ask that more of our workers be recruited and trained for these jobs.

I commend Senator LIEBERMAN, Senator CONRAD, and other colleagues for their valuable contributions to the proposed training provisions. The training provided will ensure that the H–1B program will provide our workers with the skills needed to benefit from this growing economy and to help our companies continue to grow.

A REASONABLE INCREASE IN THE H–1B VISA CAP IS JUSTIFIED, BUT IT MUST BE TEMPORARY AND SUFFICIENTLY TAILORED TO MEET EXISTING SHORT-TERM NEEDS

A temporary influx of foreign workers and students is needed in the short-term to help meet the demands by U.S. firms for high skilled workers. But we shouldn't count on foreign sources of labor as a long-term solution. It is unfair to U.S. workers, and the supply of foreign workers is limited.

It makes sense to insist that more of our domestic workers must be recruited into and placed in these jobs. Countless reports cite age and race discrimination as a major problem in the IT industry, along with the hiring of foreign workers and lay-off of domestic workers.

A Dallas Morning News article describes how Ken Schiffman of Texas received only one or two responses to his resume over a long period of time, until he deleted all direct and indirect references to his age. After that, he received 26 messages in one day. A human resource executive at a trade association confirms that this problem is a constant issue. Employers often ask the age of an applicant and reject older applicants without ever interviewing them.

John Miano, head of the American Programmer's Guild, argues that once a worker is laid off, it is very difficult to find a new job, in contrast to younger workers. Companies often unfairly view older workers as ''dirty linen.'' These and countless other experiences support the need for a more responsible approach to H–1B legislation. And similar problems face women and minorities who are under-represented in the IT workforce.

Although many new jobs are created in the IT industry each year, we also know that thousands of IT workers were laid off in 1999. For example 5,180 workers lost their jobs at Electronic Data Systems, 2,150 at Compaq, and 3,000 at NEC-Packard Bell.

We also know that some IT companies classify their workers as independent contractors or temporary workers, rather than as employees, to avoid paying them benefits. In fact, it has been said that ''if all categories of contingent workers are included—temporary, part-time, self-employed, and contract workers—almost 40% of all employment in Silicon Valley are contingent workers.'' This mis-classification scheme also contributes to numerous positions being seemingly ''unfilled,'' because official ''employees'' are not performing those functions. This practice perpetuates an artificially higher number of ''open'' positions than actually exist.

Although it makes sense to provide an increase in the H–1B cap through FY 2002, the unprecedented cap exemptions in the Hatch bill are unwarranted. Those exemptions would permit 40,000 workers above the 195,000 cap to receive an H–1B visa. The resulting figure is well above the number of visas that even the most ardent IT lobbyists claim are needed. Exempting all those with advanced credentials will result in a significant increase in the number of persons within the cap who have less specialized skills, and who are in occupations ranging from therapists to super models. This is not the direction in which the H–1B visa program should be moving. The bill should not focus solely on the number of visas available for foreign skilled workers. It should also emphasize employers' needs for as many workers with the highest professional credentials as possible, who possess specialized skills that cannot be easily and quickly reproduced domestically.

I am strongly in favor of supporting our institutions of higher education and research groups. But the two types of exemptions in the bill overlap and are unnecessarily complex. The first exemption addresses a genuine need of universities who face difficulty competing with the high tech industry for visas. But universities and research organizations would be just as easily served by reserving for them 12,000 a year within the cap.

The second exemption is for students graduating in the U.S. with any advanced degree, as long as they apply within a certain time frame. But it should not matter when they graduated or where they graduated. The exemptions will cause administrative problems that we should not impose on INS.

Instead, we should ensure that workers with an advanced degree have priority for H–1B visas within the cap, and are subject to the same requirements as all other applications. No evidence exists that proves or even implies that there is a shortage of American advanced degree holders in all subject areas. Yet the bill ignores this point and specifically permits all foreign graduates to receive a visa.

The unprecedented exemptions contained in this bill will only add to the already troublesome task faced by INS to process visas. We should not make a bad situation for U.S. students and the INS even worse by passing this bill with the current exemptions.

The exemptions in the bill and the abundance of IT workers they would create are an irresponsible approach to increasing the cap, especially given the very real existing questions about the true extent of the IT skill shortage.

As we address the needs of the IT industry, in addition to raising the H–1B visa cap, we must place laid off workers in new jobs, enforce our labor laws, and recruit and train more women, minorities, and people with disabilities, so that the current IT workforce gets the pay, benefits, working conditions and job opportunities to which they are entitled.

EXPANDING JOB TRAINING FOR U.S. WORKERS IS CRITICAL AND PROVIDES THE ONLY LONG-TERM SOLUTION TO THIS LABOR SHORTAGE

When we expanded the number of H–1B visas in 1998, we created a modest training initiative funded by a modest visa fee in recognition of the need to train and update the skills of U.S. workers. Today, as we seek to nearly double the number of high tech workers available to American businesses, we must also ensure a significant expansion of career training and educational opportunities for American workers and students.

Now more than ever, the strong employer demand for high tech foreign workers shows that there is an even greater need to train American workers and prepare U.S. students for careers in information technology. Expanding the number of H–1B visas to meet short-term needs is no substitute for long-term solutions to fully develop the potential of our domestic workforce.

The magnitude of this need for training is increasing year after year. According to the Information Technology Association of America, roughly two-thirds of unfilled jobs requiring workers with computer-related skills are for technical support staff, such as customer service and help desks, database administrators, web designers, and technical writers. According to the survey's own description of these occupational fields, these positions simply require entry-level and moderate-level skills. We clearly need to greatly accelerate training for all skill levels, not just the most advanced level.

Recent studies have also demonstrated the strong correlation between educational attainment and increases in worker productivity. A year of structured employer-directed training can also produce a substantial increase in productivity.

Congress must help fund such efforts. We cannot turn our backs on American workers and employers who need our help.

Many high-tech companies are investing significant resources in education, and to a limited extent, in training programs. In reviewing these examples, however, it is clear that the focus of their contributions is on education, not worker training.

Thie effort does not come close to meeting the nation-wide need for investment in training. Only when businesses address the shortage of highly skilled workers as a national problem with a national solution—rather than a company-by-company approach to worker training—will our workforce be able to meet the growing demand for high skills, so that our economy will continue to prosper. The federal government has an obligation to bridge the high tech skill gap which today separates millions of workers from the 21st century jobs they desire.

RAISING NECESSARY FUNDS FOR EDUCATION AND TRAINING

At a time when the IT industry is experiencing major growth and record profits, it is clear that even the smallest of businesses can afford to pay a higher fee in order to support needed investments in technology skills and education. The only effective way for Congress and industry to provide sufficient long-term solutions to the high-tech skills shortage is by increasing H–1B visa user fees. We should ensure that 55% of all revenues go to worker training and increased educational opportunities for U.S. students.

We must train at least 45,000 workers a year if we are to responsibly address the need for technological skills. Unfortunately, due to blue slip issues that would arise if the Senate were to propose an increase in H–1B fees, I will not be offering an amendment with such a provision.

However, the Senate should send to the House a request for a modest increase in the H–1B visa fees. An increase in H–1B funds collected is necessary to expand training and education programs. A modest increase in the user fee will generate approximately $280 million each year compared to current law, which raises less than one-third of this amount. Revenues can be reasonably and fairly obtained by charging $1,000 per new visa, or visa extension, or request to change employers. As in current law, employers from educational institutions and non-profit and governmental research organizations should remain exempt from all fees.

This fee is fair. Immigrant families with very modest incomes were able to pay a $1,000 fee to allow family members to obtain green cards. Certainly, high tech companies can afford to pay at least that amount during this prosperous economy.

PROVIDING STATE-OF-THE ART TRAINING FOR 46,000 U.S. WORKERS

With such a reasonable and fair fee structure, the training plan in this amendment will receive roughly $154 million to substantially expand the existing program to provide state-of-the-art high tech training for 46,000 workers a year, primarily in high tech, information technology, and biotechnology skills.

It requires the Department of Labor, in consultation with the Department of Commerce; to provide grants to local workforce investment boards in areas with substantial shortages of high tech workers. Grants would be awarded on a competitive basis for innovative high tech training proposals developed by the workforce boards collaboratively with area employers, unions, and higher education institutions.

The training proposal builds on the priorities specified in current H–1B law. It will serve those who are currently employed and are seeking to enhance their skills, as well as those who are currently unemployed.

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES FOR U.S. STUDENTS MUST BE INCREASED

As we enter the 21st century, careers increasingly require advanced degrees, especially in math, science, engineering, and computer sciences. Eight of the ten fastest growing jobs of the next decade will require college education or moderate to long-term training.

We must encourage students, including minority students, to pursue degrees in math, science, computers, and engineering. Scholarship opportunities must be expanded for talented minority and low-income students whose families cannot afford today's high college tuition costs. According to the National Action Council for Minorities in Engineering, minority retention rates tend to be higher at institutions with high average financial aid awards, and the financial aid is a significant predictor in retaining minority students.

With increased opportunities for scholarships, students completing two-year degrees will be provided with incentives to continue their education and obtain four-year degrees, and retention rates among four-year degree students will be higher.

CONCLUSION

In sum, it would be irresponsible of Congress to address the shortage of high tech workers solely by expanding the number of visas for foreign workers. Immigration is only a short-term solution to the long range, national skill shortage problem.

The U.S. is currently not providing domestic workers with enough opportunities to upgrade their skills so that they can fully participate in the new economy. They deserve these opportunities, and American business needs their talents.

I commend Senators HATCH and ABRAHAM for agreeing to include these training provisions in the bill before us today, and for committing to help bridge the high tech skills gap.

CONGRESS MUST REJECT THE VIEW THAT THE ONLY PRO-IMMIGRANT AGENDA THIS SESSION IS AN H–1B AGENDA

Finally, Congress cannot continue to ignore other equally important immigration issues which are as critical to immigrants in our workforce as H–1B visas are to the information technology industry. Unfortunately, unlike the H–1B issue, these other equally important issues have been ignored by too many members of Congress.

Last year, a broad coalition of immigrant and faith-based groups launched the ''Fix '96'' campaign to repeal the harsh and excessive provisions in the 1996 immigration and welfare laws, to restore balance and fairness to current law, and to correct government errors which prevent certain immigrants from receiving the services Congress intended.

All of the issues raised in the ''Fix '96'' campaign are still outstanding. A number of bills, including the Latino and Immigrant Fairness Act, have been introduced proposing solutions to these problems. However, the Republican leadership continues to block action on these important proposals. These issues include parity legislation for Central Americans and Haitians, restoring protections to asylum seekers, restoring due process in detention and deportation policy, restoring public benefits to legal immigrants, and restoring protections to battered immigrant women and children.

The Latino and Immigrant Fairness Act provides us with an opportunity to end a series of unjust provisions in our current immigration laws, and build on the most noble aspects of our American immigrant tradition.

It restores fairness to the immigrant community and fairness in the nation's immigration laws. It is good for families and it is good for American business.

The immigrant community—particularly the Latino community—has waited far too long for the fundamental justice that this legislation will provide. These issues are not new to Congress. The immigrants who will benefit from this legislation should have received permanent status from the INS long ago.

Few days remain in this Congress, but my Democratic colleagues and I are committed to doing all we can to see that both the Latino and Immigrant Fairness Act and the H–1B high tech visa legislation become law this year. I urge my colleagues to give equal priority to these basic immigration issues that affect so many immigrant families in our workforce. The time to act is now, and there is still ample time to act before Congress adjourns.

TRAINING AND EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, we in the Senate cannot originate a revenue measure to fund the new training and education program. But it would be a serious mistake to enact a final bill that does not call on employers to pay $1,000 per visa for the training and education necessary to improve the skills of U.S. workers and students.

Mr. ABRAHAM. I, too, am committed to seeing to it that there is funding for these programs and a $1,000 fee is appropriate and would accomplish this goal. As the Ranking Member knows, I believe that as far as the shortage of highly skilled workers is concerned, we have both a short term and long term problem, and I believe these programs are an integral part of addressing our long term problem. I very much appreciation your ongoing willingness to work on these important programs for training and educating Americans so that they will be ready to take these jobs, and the leadership you have shown on these matters. I pledge to work with you, the other Members of this body, the business community, and other affected outside interests to seek ways to help fund these programs consistent with the principle you articulated.

Mr. KENNEDY. In addition, I believe it is important to exclude from that fee any employer that is a primary or secondary education institution, an institution of higher education, as defined in the Higher Education Act of 1965, a nonprofit entity which engages in established curriculum-related clinical training of students registered at any such institution, a nonprofit research organization, or a governmental research organization.

Mr. ABRAHAM. I agree with the Ranking Member, and I support his objectives. I will work with Senator KENNEDY to ensure that these institutions are excluded from the imposition of fees.

Mr. KENNEDY. In conclusion, I would simply like to thank Senator ABRAHAM for his ongoing willingness to work on these important programs for training and educating Americans so that they will be ready to take these jobs, and the leadership he has consistently shown on these issues.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I further ask unanimous consent the Senate now lay aside S. 2045 until 9:30 a.m. on Tuesday.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. SESSIONS). Without objection, it is so ordered.

VISA WAIVER PERMANENT PROGRAM ACT

Mr. DOMENICI. I ask unanimous consent the Senate proceed to H.R. 3767, the visa waiver bill, and that the substitute amendment, on behalf of Senators ABRAHAM and KENNEDY, which is at the desk, be agreed to, no further amendments or motions be in order, the bill be advanced to third reading, and passage occur immediately following the passage vote on S. 2045.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senate proceeded to consider the bill.

Mr. ABRAHAM. Mr. President, I rise to support the passage of H.R. 3767, the Visa Waiver Permanent Program Act. This legislation, as amended, is important not only because it facilitates travel and tourism in the United States, thereby creating many American jobs, but also because it benefits American tourists who wish to travel abroad, since visa requirements are generally waived on a reciprocal basis.

The Visa Waiver Pilot Program authorizes the Attorney General to waive visa requirements for foreign nationals traveling from certain designated countries as temporary visitors for business or pleasure. Aliens from the participating countries complete an admission form prior to arrival and are admitted to stay for up to 90 days.

The criteria for being designated as a Visa Waiver country are as follows: First, the country must extend reciprocal visa-free travel for U.S. citizens. Second, they must have a nonimmigrant refusal rate for B–1/B–2 visitor visas at U.S. consulates that is low, averaging less than 2 percent the previous two full fiscal years, with the refusal rate less than 2.5 percent in either year, or less than 3 percent the previous full fiscal year. Third, the countries must have or be in the process of developing a machine-readable passport program. Finally, the Attorney General must conclude that entry into the Visa Waiver Pilot Program will not compromise U.S. law enforcement interests.

Countries are designated by the Attorney General in consultation with the Secretary of State. Nations currently designated as Visa Waiver participants are Andorra, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brunei, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Monaco, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Portugal, San Marino, Singapore, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, United Kingdom, and Uruguay. Greece has been proposed for participation in the program.

The Visa Waiver Pilot Program was established by law in 1986 and became effective in 1988, with 8 countries participating for a period of three years. The program has been considered successful and as such has been expanded to include 29 participating countries. Since 1986, Visa Waiver has been reauthorized on 6 different occasions for periods of one, two, or three years at a time.

The time has come to make the Visa Waiver Pilot Program permanent and, in the process, to strengthen further current requirements. That is the purpose of this bill, which has been amended and worked out jointly with our House counterparts, in particular House Immigration Subcommittee Chair LAMAR SMITH, who I thank for his work on this bill. This legislation is very close to S. 2376, the Travel, Tourism, and Jobs Preservation Act, which I introduced earlier this year with Senators KENNEDY, LEAHY, DEWINE, JEFFORDS, AKAKA, GRAHAM, GRAMS, MURKOWSKI, and INOUYE, all of whom I thank for their support.

The legislation we are about to pass would accomplish a number of things.

First, it would make the Visa Waiver Pilot Program permanent. This is important since no serious disagreement exists that the program should continue in place for the foreseeable future, and no significant problems have been raised with the fundamentals of how it has been operating for the past 14 years. To the contrary, failure to continue the program would cause enormous staffing problems at U.S. consulates, which would have to be suddenly increased substantially to resume issuance of visitor visas. It would also be extremely detrimental to American travelers, who would most certainly find that, given reciprocity, they now would be compelled to obtain visas to travel to Europe and elsewhere. Finally, there are costs to continuing to reauthorize the program on a short-term rather than a permanent basis, as it periodically creates considerable uncertainty in the United States and around the world about what documents travelers planning their foreign travel have to obtain.

Second, the current requirement that countries be in the process of developing a program for issuing machine-readable passports will be replaced with a stricter requirement that all countries in the program as of My 1, 2000 certify by October 1, 2001 that they will have an operational machine-readable passport program by 2003 and that new countries have a machine-readable passport program in place before becoming eligible for designation as a Visa Waiver country. The bill also establishes a deadline of October 1, 2007 by which time all travelers must have machine-readable passports to come to the United States under Visa Waiver. The judgment of everyone involved in these issues is that the technology is now sufficient that it is time for everyone to move from the concept and planning stages to the prompt implementation of these requirements.

Finally, the legislation, altered from the House-passed version, would allow for an ''emergency termination'' by the Attorney General, in consultation with the Secretary of State, of a country's Visa Waiver designation in an extreme and unusual circumstances. These circumstances are a ''war (including undeclared war, civil war, or other military activity on the territory of the program country; a severe breakdown in law and order affecting a significant portion of the program country's territory; a severe economic collapse in the program country; or any other extraordinary even in the program country that threatens the law enforcement or security interests of the United States (including the interest in enforcement of the immigration laws of the United States.)'' Considering the impact of such a termination on U.S. foreign policy interests and the conduct of the State Department itself, it is my belief that the Secretary of State would exert considerable authority in determining whether such an ''emergency termination'' was warranted.

Mr. President, I urge passage of this legislation.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, I am proud to join Senator ABRAHAM, Senator LEAHY, and others in cosponsoring the Travel, Tourism and Jobs Presentation Act. This measure will reauthorize the Visa Waiver Program and make it permanent.

This visa waiver program allows individuals from designated low risk, high volume countries to enter the United States as temporary visitors for business or pleasure without first obtaining a visa. Individuals visiting the United States under the visa waiver program must complete an admission form prior to arrival. Their visit may last only ninety days, with thirty days extensions allowed only in the case of emergency. Countries participating in the visa waiver program must meet certain requirements, such as possessing a low non-immigrant refusal rate for B–1/B–2 visas and utilizing, or currently developing, a machine readable passport program. Finally, the Attorney General must determine that each country's participation in the program will not compromise United States law.

By eliminating the visa requirement, the visa waiver program facilities international travel and increases the number of visitors for business and tourism. These effects generate economic growth and stimulate international trade and commerce. According to the INS, over 17 million visitors to the United States arrived under the visa waiver program in FY 1998. The program is strongly supported by the State Department because it reduces consular workloads, allowing the officers to shift staff and scarce resources to other pressing matters, as well as reducing costs.

Despite operating efficiently and providing enormous benefit to the United States economy and the State Department for the past eleven years, the visa waiver program remains a pilot program. This bill reauthorizes this important program and makes it permanent.

This legislation also strengthens security precautions under this program by requiring participating countries to incorporate machine readable passport programs by October 2003 and nationals from these countries to possess readable passports by 2008. In addition, the Attorney General, in consultation with the Secretary of State, must continue to evaluate the effect of a new country's inclusion in the visa waiver program on law enforcement and national security. Continuing countries in the program are evaluated every five years.

I am especially pleased that Portugal was recently added to the visa waiver program. Travel between our two countries is significantly easier because cumbersome paperwork and delays have been eliminated—obstacles that needlessly prevented Portugese families from visiting their loved ones here in the United States. Portugal's inclusion in the Program will benefit thousands of Portugese families in Massachusetts and around the nation.

Although I strongly support this important bill, I have very serious concern about the amendment that Senator HELMS has offered amending the Conyers provision of the visa waiver bill. Representative CONYER'S provision simply states that visas that are wrongfully denied based on race, sex, disability or other unlawful grounds cannot be included in computations determining a country's admission into the visa waiver program. The amendment Senator HELMS offers pertaining only to the Conyers provision. It seeks to preclude judicial review of any visa denying visas, denial of admission to the United States, the computation of visa refusal rates, or the designation or non-designation of any country.

I have reluctantly agreed to it because it is surely symbolic and will have no practical legal effect. Under current law, consular visa determinations, the denial of admission under the visa waiver program, or determinations regarding designation of a country into the visa waiver program are not subject to court review.

Nonetheless, court stripping provisions, whether symbolic or not, are anathema to our judicial system. I thought that Republicans had learned the importance of judicial review in the Elian Gonzalez case. Such provisions allow life-shattering determinations to be made at the unreviewable discretion of an administrative functionary. The most fundamental decisions are being made on the basis of a cursory review of a few pages in a file, or a perfunctory interview, without the possibility of any appeal or judicial review. This is a recipe for disastrous mistakes and abuse.

This excellent program has been a pilot program for too long. Its enormous benefits to the United States economy and the efficiency it creates for the federal government are obvious. It is time we make this light of this fact and make this important program permanent. I urge all of my colleague to support this important bill.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, this bill addresses a critically important issue: the preservation of our visa waiver program. I am a cosponsor of the Senate version of this bill, and I strongly recommend the passage of H.R. 3767.

This legislation will achieve the important goal of making our visa waiver program permanent. We have had a visa waiver pilot project for more than a decade, and it has been a tremendous success in allowing residents of some of our most important allies to travel to the United States for up to 90 days without obtaining a visa, and in allowing American citizens to travel to those countries without visas. Countries must meet a number of requirements to participate in the program, including having extraordinarily low rates of visa refusals. Of course, the visa waiver does not affect the need for international travelers to carry valid passports.

The pilot project expired on April 30, and I had sought passage of S. 2367, which is incorporated into the bill we consider today, before that expiration date. Indeed, I encouraged the discharge of this bill from the Judiciary Committee in April so that the Senate could act upon this highly time-sensitive matter. Unfortunately, this bill was instead held hostage to other issues. Fortunately, the Administration extended the program administratively until the end of May, but despite my best efforts we failed to meet that deadline as well. As a result, the program was extended until the end of June, but once again the Senate did not meet the deadline. The Administration then extended the program through July, sparing thousands of American tourists and international business travelers tremendous inconvenience and cost during the busy summer traveling season. Before the August recess, we once again failed to act on this legislation, forcing the Administration to extend it again. It is now well past time to end this charade, pass this bill, and send it back to the House for its final approval.

Rather than simply pass another extension of the pilot program, it is time to make this program permanent—it has stood the test of time for well over a decade. In order to address any security concerns about making the program permanent, the requirements placed upon participating countries have been tightened. Indeed, countries wishing to participate in the visa waiver program must meet each of the following four criteria: the participating country must allow U.S. citizens to travel without a visa; the country must have a nonimmigrant refusal rate for B–1/B–2 visitor visas at U.S. consulates that is low, averaging less than 2 percent the previous two full fiscal years, with the refusal rate less than 2.5 percent in either year, or less than 3 percent the previous full fiscal year; the country must already possess or be in the process of developing a machine-readable passport program; and, the Attorney General must conclude that entry into the Visa Waiver Pilot Program will not compromise U.S. law enforcement interests.

The visa waiver program provides substantial benefits to both the American tourism industry and to Americans traveling abroad. I urge the Senate to make it permanent.

Although I am a strong supporter of the bill, I must speak out against the amendment that has been inserted into the bill by Senator HELMS. This amendment states that under a certain paragraph of this bill, no court will have jurisdiction to review any visa refusal based on race, sex, or disability. It is my understanding that this provision has no practical effect, since affected foreign nationals would not be able to bring such a claim in an American court in the first place. Because it is effectively a dead letter, and because of the importance of the visa waiver program and other amendments to this bill, I have chosen not to assert rights and deny unanimous consent. But this provision is offensive to our legal traditions. I have consistently opposed attempts to strip courts of authority to resolve immigration matters, and I am particularly opposed to such attempts where the stripping is directed specifically toward claims asserting discrimination. Judicial review is a critical part of American law, and we should not be impinging upon it—symbolically or otherwise.

Finally, passage of this bill should not be misinterpreted as a signal that this Congress has dealt fairly or adequately with immigration issues. There is still so much to do in the little time we have left, from passing the Latino and Immigrant Fairness Act—to dealing with the aftereffects of the immigration legislation this Congress passed in 1996. In particular, I would call again for hearings on S. 1940, the Refugee Protection Act. This is a bill I introduced with Senator BROWNBACK and a number of other Senators that would undo the damage that has been done to our asylum process by the implementation of expedited removal. I believe it, like so many immigration issues that have been ignored for the last 21 months, deserves the attention of this Congress.

The amendment (No. 4276) was agreed to.

(The text of the amendment is printed in today's RECORD under ''Amendments Submitted.'')

The bill (H.R. 3767) was ordered to a third reading and was read the third time.

ENERGY AND WATER DEVELOPMENT APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2001—CONFERENCE REPORT

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I submit a report of the committee of conference on H.R. 4733 and ask for its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The report will be stated.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

The committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendment of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 4733) making appropriations for energy and water development for the fiscal year 2001, and for other purposes, having met, after full and free conference, have agreed to recommend and do recommend to their respective Houses this report, signed by a majority of the conferees.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, the Senate will proceed to the consideration of the conference report.

(The report was printed in the House proceedings of the RECORD of September 27, 2000.)

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I ask that the Senate now turn to consideration of the conference report accompanying the fiscal year 2001 Energy and Water Development Act. Earlier today, the House passed the conference report by a vote of 301 to 118, and I hope the Senate will also overwhelmingly support the conference report. I am very pleased that we are able to get this very important conference report to the floor, given the difficulties affecting more appropriations bills this time of year. Senator REID and I, along with Chairman STEVENS and Senator BYRD, have worked hard to prepare an outstanding bill that meets the needs of the country and addresses many of the Senators' top priorities.

The Senate and House full committee chairman were very supportive and have provided the additional resources at conference that were necessary to address many priority issues for Members. They have allowed the House to come up $630 million to the Senate number on the defense allocation $13.484 billion, and the Senate non-defense allocation has increased by $1.1 billion.

I would now like to highlight some of the great things we have been able to do in this bill.

The conference report provides $4.5 for Army Corps of Engineers water projects, an increase of $400 million over the Senate and $383 over the President's Request.

The increased resources have allowed us to get started on the very highest priority new starts in 2001—something we were not able to do under our original allocation.

The conference report provides $3.20 billion for DOE Science, an increase of $330 million over the Senate and $420 million over last year. We heard from many members over the last few months about providing more money for science and I am pleased we were able to heed their concerns and make significant investments in our future.

On the defense side, the conference report provides $5 billion for nuclear weapons activities, an increase of $150 million over Senate and $600 million over last year.

On clean-up, we have been able to continue to provide the environmental clean-up money that is so important to many of our members across the country. The conference report provides $6.1 billion, and increase of $390 million over last year.

We do have a few controversial provisions in this bill. The conference report includes a provision that we have carried for several years that would prohibit the use of funds to revise the Missouri River Master Manual if such would result in increased springtime flood risk on the lower Missouri River. I know the administration has threatened a veto on this issue, and I take that seriously. But, we have been unable to forge an acceptable compromise and have insisted that the provision remain in the conference report just as it passed the Senate floor. Although there are other issues the administration has raised, we have made a good faith effort to address their concerns were possible. I believe we have a good bill that the President will sign.

LABORATORY DIRECTED RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, would the distinguished chairman of the Senate Energy and Water Development Appropriations Subcommittee indulge me in a colloquy for clarification purposes on use of Laboratory Directed Research and Development by Department of Energy national laboratories?

Mr. DOMENICI. I am happy to oblige my friend from Idaho, a valuable member of the Energy and Water appropriations subcommittee.

Mr. CRAIG. When DOE's Environmental Management budget request for FY 2001 was submitted to Congress earlier this year it continued a restriction on the use of DOE environmental management funds for LDRD purposes carried over from FY 2000. The EM restriction of LDRD was subsequently rescinded by OMB later in the year at strong urging by numerous Senators including myself. Subsequently, the Senate Defense Authorization and the Senate Energy and Water Development Appropriations bills directed that DOE return LDRD to full scope, to include use of EM funds. The Senate Defense Authorization bill permits use of LDRD up to 6%; and this conference report also permits use of LDRD funds at 6%. Is this the Chairman's understanding?

Mr. DOMENICI. The gentleman from Idaho is correct.

Mr. CRAIG. As the distinguished chairman of the subcommittee knows from the Department's testimony including Secretary Richardson and Dr. Carolyn Huntoon, EM Assistant Secretary, the Administration, with significant encouragement from the Congress, is now on record in support of restoring EM programs as a funding source for LDRD in 2001.

Mr. DOMENICI. That is correct. That has been a factor in the Conference Committee's considerations.

Mr. CRAIG. Would it be fair then to assume that all 2001 laboratory planning budgets prepared while the EM restriction was in place would be impacted by removal of the LDRD restriction?

Mr. DOMENICI. That would be an accurate assumption.

Mr. CRAIG. Is it the Chairman's view that permission to derive LDRD funds from EM sources should be granted to all National laboratories under the new authority established in this bill?

Mr. DOMENICI. Yes, that is my view and the view of the Committee.

Mr. CRAIG. Does the Chairman see any circumstances to justify granting this authority to some of the laboratories but not to others?

Mr. DOMENICI. I see no conditions under which I or the Committee would support any effort by the Administration to withhhold this authority from any laboratory, including the EM lead laboratory in Idaho.

Mr. CRAIG. I thank the gentleman from New Mexico.

YELLOWSTONE ENERGY AND TRANSPORTATION STUDY

Mr. CRAPO. I would like to engage the distinguished Senator from New Mexico, Mr. Domenici, in a colloquy regarding the Greater Yellowstone-Teton energy and transportation systems study and the International Centers for Environmental Safety, ICES.

Mr. DOMENICI. I am delighted to accommodate my friend from Idaho.

Mr. CRAPO. As the chairman of the energy and water appropriations subcommittee knows, the pending conference report does not provide funds for the Yellowstone energy and transportation study. It is my understanding the Department of Energy supports this study and the Department may provide funds to support the Idaho National Engineering and Environmental Laboratory's participation in this effort. If DOE makes a decision to provide funds for this study, would the chairman support that decision?

Mr. DOMENICI. I would agree that funding for this important study would be appropriate.

Mr. CRAPO. As the senior Senator from New Mexico knows, the ICES program was formed last year through a joint statement signed by Secretary Richardson and the Minister for Atomic Energy of the Russian Federation, Yevgeny Adamov. The centers were created to provide a mechanism for technical exchange and effective collaboration between the DOE and Minatom on matters of environmental safety in both countries. The U.S. Center is managed by the Idaho National Engineering and Environmental Laboratory and Argonne National Laboratory. In Russia, the Ministry for Atomic Energy operates the Center in Moscow. Both work collaboratively to ensure overall ICES success in reducing environmental threats and costs.

Mr. DOMENICI. That is my understanding.

Mr. CRAPO. Report language in the FY2001 Senate Energy and Water Development bill supports DOE's efforts to use the experience and expertise of scientists of the former Soviet Union to address waste management and environmental remediation challenges within the DOE complex. Isn't it also true that the centers are intended to facilitate international collaboration to address environmental and nuclear safety issues important to the national security?

Mr. DOMENICI. The Senator from Idaho is correct in his understanding. I would add that committee saw fit to support the International Nuclear Safety Program at the President's requested level of funding. This includes funding for the Russian and U.S. centers.

Mr. CRAPO. I thank the Senator from New Mexico.

HOPI-WESTERN NAVAJO WATER DEVELOPMENT STUDY

Mr. KYL. Mr. President, the conference report to H.R. 4733 provides $1 million for the Bureau of Reclamation to initiate a comprehensive Hopi-Western Navajo water development study. This funding was added to the bill at my request, and I would like to take this opportunity to detail the reason why I consider this to be a very important undertaking.

Efforts have been ongoing for several years to settle the various water rights claims of the Navajo and Hopi Indian tribes and other water users in the Little Colorado River watershed of Northern Arizona. Numerous proposals have been advanced in an effort to settle these water-rights claims, including identifying alternative sources of water, means of delivery and points of usage to help provide a reliable source of good-quality water to satisfy the present and future demands of Indian communities on these reservations. Cost estimates for the various existing proposals run into the hundreds of millions of dollars, the majority of which would likely be borne by the Federal Government. This study is needed to identify the most cost-effective projects that will serve to meet these objectives.

I have asked the Bureau to hire an outside contractor to complete this study to ensure that a fresh and objective analysis of existing studies and data is conducted. In addition, using a private contractor will enable the Bureau to complete the study in a timely manner without requiring the Bureau to divert personnel needed to accomplish other vital priorities. The study should be complete and submitted to the Senate Appropriations Committee as soon as possible but no later than April 1, 2002.

I also want to assure the parties that this study is intended to be used to facilitate this settlement, and cannot be used for any other purpose in any administrative or judicial proceeding.

NIF STUDIES

Mr. HARKIN. Mr. President, I ask the distinguished chairman and ranking member to engage in a brief colloquy on the National Ignition Facility. The bill as it passed the Senate requested a study by the National Academy of Sciences of a number of issues regarding the National Ignition Facility. The current bill and conference report language require reviews of several issues, including the need for the facility, alternatives to NIF, consideration of starting with a smaller facility, and planning for the Broader stockpile stewardship program. All these elements are important, but the bill does not specify how these reviews are to be conducted.

Previous supposedly independent DOE reviews of NIF have been strongly criticized in the recent GAO report and in a recent article in the journal Nature, and have even been subject to lawsuits for violating the Federal Advisory Committee Act. I believe it is critical for the credibility of these reviews that they be conducted by an independent body, such as the National Academy of Sciences, and that they be organized as independent studies under FACA rules. This is a troubled program, and we need the very best thought of independent experts to help us get it back on track or to scale it back as needed.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I agree with my colleague and want to emphasize how important it is to Congress that these be outside, independent reviews. DOE has unfortunately lost credibility on this issue and needs to bring in outside experts to regain it. I have already conveyed my expectations on this point to Madelyn Creedon and am happy to join my colleagues in clarifying this today.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, our country has very important needs that many hope NIF can solve. The credibility of outside experts will be crucial as we consider the future of this program.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, all time is yielded back.

Mr. DOMENICI. I now ask unanimous consent the vote occur on the adoption of the conference report at 5:30 p.m. on Monday.

Mr. REID. Reserving the right to object, I say to my friend from New Mexico, I am disappointed that we are not voting on this tonight. I think it would be an opportunity to get a bill to the President's desk and speed up things around here. I think it is a shame we are waiting until 5:30 Monday night. It is going to consume too much time in the process.

I hope whoever has caused this, whoever that might be who is responsible, recognizes that they are responsible for slowing up what goes on around here. We have to move these appropriations bills. Senator DOMENICI and I and especially our staffs have worked night and day all this past week, and I literally mean night and day. We were looking forward to completing this bill tonight.

Having said that, I have no objection.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. DOMENICI. Mr. President, I yield the floor. Mr. President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. GRAMS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

MORNING BUSINESS

Mr. GRAMS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate proceed to a period for morning business, with Senators permitted to speak for up to 10 minutes each.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

U.S.-CUBA RELATIONS

Mr. ROBERTS. Mr. President, I would like to bring to the attention of the Senate a relatively new organization designed to enhance U.S.-Cuba relations. The Alliance for Responsible Cuba Policy was created in early 1998 to foster better political, economic and cultural relationships between our country and Cuba. Its board is compromised of distinguished Americans, including some of our former colleagues in the Congress.

Clearly the time has come to bring ''responsibleness'' to the debate regarding U.S.-Cuba relations.

The Alliance has briefed me and my staff regarding their first-hand experience in Cuba. I encourage them to continue their fact finding and information gathering missions to Cuba.

I ask unanimous consent to have printed in the RECORD an Activities Report of the Alliance.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

ALLIANCE FOR RESPONSIBLE CUBA POLICY ACTIVITIES REPORT—FACT-FINDING MISSION; REPUBLIC OF CUBA, JULY 10–12, 2000

This report summarizes the activities of a fact-finding mission to the Republic of Cuba conducted on July 10–12, 2000. The fact-finding mission was organized by the Alliance for Responsible Cuba Policy (the ''Alliance''), a non-partisan, non-profit organization incorporated in the District of Columbia. The delegation included former Congressman Beryl Anthony, partner, Winston & Strawn; Mr. Albert A. Fox, Jr., President of the Alliance, Mr. Paul D. Fox, Vice-President Atlantic Region, Tysons Food, Inc. and Managing Director, Tyson de Mexico; Ms. Nanette Kelly, President and Mr. John Spain, Managing Director, The Powell Group of Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Mr. Edward Rabel, former news correspondent with CBS and NBC, and currently Senior Vice President of Weber McGinn; and Gregory J. Spak, partner, White & Case LLP.

This fact-finding mission was the second such trip organized by the Alliance. The first mission occurred on September 26–29, 1999. An Activities Report related to that mission is available from the Alliance's web site at www.responsiblecubapolicy.com.

During the July 10–12, 2000 mission, the delegation met with the following persons and entities in Cuba:

Ministry of Foreign Trade

Ministry of Science, Technology, and Environment

Ministry of Agriculture

Ministry of Foreign Investment and Economic Cooperation

Mr. Ricardo Alarcon de Quesada, President of the National Assembly

Ministry of Justice

The following summarizes the discussion at each of these meetings.

MINISTRY OF FOREIGN TRADE

The delegation met with Maria de la Luz B'Hamel, Director of the North American Division of the Foreign Trade Ministry, and with Mr. Igor Montero Brito, Vice President of ALIMPORT. Ms. B'Hamel's division is responsible for international trade issues relating to the United States and Canada, and the Foreign Trade Ministry in general has jurisdiction over all foreign trade issues, including issues arising in the World Trade Organization and other international and regional trade agreements. Ms. B'Hamel noted that Cuba is a founding member of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (''GATT'') and the World Trade Organization (''WTO'').

The Foreign Trade Ministry has a practical role in foreign trade through its authority to grant licenses to Cuban enterprises engaging in international trade. Ms. B'Hamel described two important trends that have emerged since the dissolution of the Soviet Union and the resulting rupture of Cuba's traditional trading relationships:

(1) Diversification of Cuba's foreign trade. Currently, Cuba's two largest trading partners are Spain and Canada, and no more than 10–12 percent of Cuba's trade is with any one country. As part of this diversification process, Cuba has been negotiating trade agreements with its regional trading partners in order to promote Cuba as a strategic bridge to the Caribbean region.

(2) Decentralization of foreign trade issues. Ms. B'Hamel stated the Foreign Trade Ministry is deemphasizing its direct involvement in international trade transactions, and is assuming more of a trade regulation role. Companies engaged in foreign trade today in Cuba include state enterprises, private enterprises, and international joint ventures or branch offices of foreign companies. More than 250 private and state enterprises are actively engaged in foreign trade, and there are approximately 600 Cuban branch offices of foreign companies engaged in trade in Cuba.

Ms. B'Hamel explained that, since 1994, Cuba has experienced steady improvement in foreign trade and GDP growth. Her Ministry forecasts continued GDP growth, even assuming no relaxation of U.S.-imposed trade restrictions. She stated that the U.S. trade restrictions (which she called the ''blockade'') have affected Cuba, but that other trends in business and world trade were creating new opportunities for the Cuban economy.

One particularly dynamic sector of the Cuban economy is tourism, which is growing by 16–20 percent per year. These statistics do not include U.S. tourists, which Ms. B'Hamel estimates to have numbered approximately 180,000 last year. She noted that this increase in tourism will have a ripple effect on the Cuban economy and will increase the demand for food goods, and other services.

Mr. Igor Montero explained that ALIMPORT is the principal Cuban state enterprise dedicated to importing foodstuffs into Cuba and distributing imports to the public. ALIMPORT is dedicated almost exclusively to the primary foodstuffs which are considered to be staples of the Cuban diet (e.g., rice, beans, etc.). Cuba currently imports approximately $1 billion in foodstuffs annually, $650 million of which is imported through ALIMPORT. Principal food imports are wheat, soybeans, and rice.

Cuba currently is importing approximately 400,000 metric tons of rice per year, principally from China, Thailand, and Vietnam. Delivery time for rice imported from these countries is approximately 60 days, and the quality is considered only fair. Mr. Montero acknowledged that transportation costs to acquire this rice represent a significant expenditure.

Mr. Spain, whose Louisiana-based company, the Powell Group, is involved in the rice milling business, pointed out that his company used to supply rice to Cuba before the U.S. trade restrictions. While clarifying he was not in Cuba to develop business. Mr. Spain noted that his company could supply high-quality rice to Cuba with a turnaround time (from order to delivery) of approximately one week and insignificant freight costs.

MINISTRY OF SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, AND ENVIRONMENT

The delegation met with a number of representatives from this Ministry (''CITMA''), including the Minister, Dr. Rosa Elena Simeón Negrin. Dr. Simeón described the Ministry's creation in 1994 as a result of the reorganization and consolidation of other Cuban ministries. Dr. Simeón distributed to the delegation the following publications regarding the Ministry's activities (1) ''Law of the Environment''; (2) ''Cuba Foreign Investment Act of 1995''; and (3) ''National Environmental Strategy.'' These documents are available from the Alliance upon request.

Much of the discussion focused on environmental issues. Dr. Simeón noted the importance of environmental education to the Ministry's mission. She described the results of a recent survey revealing that although 73 percent of the Cuban population recognize the threat to the environment, only 30 percent believe they can improve environmental conditions through their own actions. The Ministry is attempting to increase awareness among the Cuban population of the role the individual plays in improving the environment.

Dr. Simeón also portrayed alternative fuels as an important focus of the Ministry's efforts. Approximately 5,000 facilities in the mountain areas of the country operate with solar energy, but the solar energy panels necessary to continue the development of this energy source are prohibitively expensive. Notwithstanding the cost, the Ministry is committed to solar energy.

MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE

The delegation met with Dr. Alfredo Gutierrez Yanis, Vice Minister of Agriculture, and several other officials from the Ministry. Dr. Gutierrez explained that Cuba's traditional relationship with the Soviet Union had allowed for a stable agriculture policy. Cuba exported sugar and citrus to the Soviet Union and Soviet bloc countries, and imported machinery, fertilizer, and pesticides from those countries. Ten years after the dissolution of the Soviet Union, Cuban agriculture is in the midst of a recovery program (known as the ''processo de Recuperacion en Agricultura'' or the ''Agriculture Recovery Process''). Recovery has been uneven, however, with some sectors advancing beyond pre-crisis performance levels (notably vegetable production) and others continuing to experience difficulties (poultry, livestock, and rice production).

Dr. Gutierrez offered poultry products as an example of a sector that has not recovered. Prior to 1991, the Cuban per-capita annual egg consumption was 230, nearly double the current per-capita rate. Similarly, Cuban agriculture once produced approximately 117,000 tons of chicken meat annually, but now can only produce approximately 30,000 tons. Cuba has been forced to import chicken meat, with Canada emerging as the principal supplier. Dr. Gutierrez attributed the decrease in chicken and egg production to lack of available feed. This lack of feed results from both the disruption in the traditional trading relationship with the Soviet Union, and changes in the economic restrictions imposed by the United States. During the 1980s, Cuba imported approximately 2 million tons of feed, and reported much of this was purchased from foreign subsidiaries of U.S. companies. After the enactment of the Toricelli Act, the value of this trade dropped from $400 million per year to approximately $1 million. Also, the provisions of U.S. law restricting access to U.S. ports for those vessels which have engaged in commercial activity in Cuba to obtain feed at a reasonable price.

With respect to milk, Dr. Gutierrez reported that for all practical purposes, the dairy herds ceased to produce when grain was no longer available for feeding. Many cows died of starvation and others were slaughtered while still at a productive age. The Cuban Government has since developed a breed of dairy cow that is ⅝ Holstein and ⅜ Zebu in order to facilitate milk production without excessive grain consumption, but current productivity per head has declined with these genetic changes. The Government is importing powdered milk, but not in sufficient quantities. One of the delegation members touring a neighborhood away from the tourist areas was told that the milk formula sold in state stores is supposed to be consumed exclusively by children from 3 to 7 years old.

Dr. Gutierrez also mentioned difficulties in the rice sector, in that Cuba has been forced to import most of its rice from distant sources, thereby increasing costs and lowering quality of the rice. The Ministry would like to see an increase in local rice production, and a corresponding reduction in imports to approximately 200,000 tons per year. Dr. Gutierrez feels that this would permit a per-capita rice consumption of approximately 50 kilograms.

Dr. Gurtierrez cited pork and cirrus production as two examples of a successful recovery. Cirrus production has recovered and could increase if new markets were opened for Cuban citrus goods. Israel is providing assistance to the Cuban Government on citrus production, and an Italian firm is helping with production of citrus derivation products.

Dr. Gutierrez described developments he believes will help the Cuban agricultural sector continue its post-crisis recovery. First, state farms play a less significant role in the agricultural sector, with the percentage of farm land cultivated by state farms reduced from 67 percent to approximately 33 percent. Thus, according to Dr. Gutierrez, approximately two-thirds of the land is being cultivated today by small private companies and cooperatives. When asked how the small companies and cooperatives sell their crops, he replied that it would be typical for such companies and cooperatives to contract with a Cuban state enterprise for a specific supply quantity, and that the companies and cooperatives would then be free to sell any additional production privately.

Secondly, individual farmers now operate in a relatively free market, and are permitted to farm areas of 75 hectares (approximately 200 acres). Nearly 800,000 hectares (approximately 2 million acres) are now in the hands of individual farmers. The farmers do not own the land (land ownership is reserved to the state), but they are allowed to cultivate the land and are entitled to sell the production as they wish. Many of these farmers have formed privately-operated cooperatives.

MINISTRY OF FOREIGN INVESTMENT AND ECONOMIC COOPERATION

The delegation met with Mr. Ernesto Senti Endarias, First Vice Minister of the Ministry of Foreign Investment and Economic Cooperation, and various members of his staff. According to Vice Minister Senti, the Cuban economy is in its fifth year of a gradual economic recovery, and foreign investment has played an important role in this recovery. Sales from enterprises resulting from direct foreign investment account for approximately 3–4 percent of the Cuban GDP, nearly twelve percent of all exports, and such enterprises employ approximately one percent of the labor force.

Direct foreign investment is affecting various sectors of the Cuban economy, including (1) tourism, (2) heavy industry (petroleum (especially deep-water drilling)), (3) mining, (4) light industry, (5) telecommunications, (6) energy (especially alternative sources), (7) sugar (especially derivatives from sugar production), and (8) agriculture. Only three sectors are not open to direct foreign investment health, education, and national security. Fifty-two percent of direct foreign investment is from countries in Europe, particularly Spain and France.

Vice Minister Senti believes that direct foreign investment in Cuba will continue to grow. He observed the companies investing in Cuba typically are large companies, and these companies exhibit a high level of professionalism in their business ventures, which is beneficial for Cuba. In return, Cuba offers foreign investors highly-trained workers, political stability, and a government interested in helping companies that are willing to help Cuba.

PRESIDENT RICARDO ALARCÓN DE QUESADA

The delegation met with Mr. Ricardo Alarcón de Quesada, President of the National Assembly, former foreign minister and former ambassador to the United Nations. The discussion with President Alarcón was wide-ranging, and he was forthcoming on all issues raised by the delegation. He showed particular interest in the status of the various legislative proposals in the U.S. Congress that might permit the sale of U.S. food and medicine to Cuba. When asked whether Cuba would commit to purchasing U.S. food and medicine after the legislation passed, he stated Cuba would like to do so, but ultimately it would depend on the text of the legislation and on timing. He explained they were monitoring the various versions of the legislation and that certain provisions (especially the increased restriction on travel and the limited duration of the export licenses) might make purchasing U.S. food and medicine difficult.

The Alliance then briefed President Alarcón on the upcoming visit by Senators Pat Roberts and Max Baucus. The Alliance explained the importance of these senators to any passage of legislation regarding the sale of food and medicine to Cuba. President Alarcón expressed his pleasure in visiting with the Alliance again.

MINISTRY OF JUSTICE

The delegation met with Lic Robert Díaz Sotolongo and other members of the Ministry. Mr. Díaz began the meeting by stating his satisfaction with the manner in which the United States and Cuba were able to resolve the recent controversy regarding Elián Gonzalez. He noted that this is a visible and helpful example of how the two governments and their societies can interact successfully despite differences of opinion.

Mr. Díaz then directed the discussion toward drug interdiction, another area in which he believes Cuba and the United States can increase cooperation. He noted that in the last meeting with the Alliance, the Cuban Department of Justice had asked for assistance in facilitating the placement of a U.S. Coast Guard representative to the U.S. Interest Section in Havana to help increase cooperation on drug interdiction. He thanked the Alliance for its assistance, noting with satisfaction that the U.S. Coast Guard representative had arrived in Havana. Mr. Díaz went on to describe the celebrated case of the ''Limerick,'' a Belize-flagged vessel that began to sink in Cuban waters in 1996. The cooperation of British, American, and Cuban officials led to the discovery on the vessel of six tons of cocaine believed destined for the United States. The Cuban officials turned over the drugs and the persons involved to the U.S. authorities and actively assisted in the successful prosecution of the individuals traveling to the United States to testify in the criminal trial.

OBSERVATION

All the Cuban Government officials and the Cuban people with whom we visited were friendly and answered our questions in a forthright manner. They made it clear they have no ill feeling toward the American people or the U.S. form of government. They expressed bewilderment that the U.S. maintains its economic sanctions against Cuba despite other developments, including the normalization of U.S. trade relations with China, Vietnam, and North Korea, the increasing foreign investment in Cuba by the rest of the world (especially Europe and Canada), and the overwhelming U.S. public opinion in favor of removing the sanctions.

The Alliance is grateful for the opportunity to have concluded a second successful fact-finding mission to Cuba, and intends to continue this process. The Alliance is convinced that the U.S. trade restrictions must end and that we must deal with the Cuban Government as it is, not as we wish it to be.

THE NEED TO PASS THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, I want to take a moment to once again ask the majority to immediately bring S. 2787, the Violence Against Women Act of 2000, VAWA II, to the floor for a vote.

Yesterday the President wrote to the Majority Leader urging passage of VAWA II this week. This is a top priority not only for the Administration but for the Nation. The President wrote: ''The Senate should not delay, and I urge you to pass a freestanding version of the Biden-Hatch VAWA reauthorization bill this week. The women and families whose lives have been scarred by domestic violence deserve nothing less than immediate action by the Congress.'' The President is right.

This Tuesday the House of Representatives overwhelmingly passed the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act by a vote of 415 to 3. I commend the House for finally acting on this important legislation. Many of us have been urging Senate action on legislation to reauthorize and improve the Violence Against Women Act for months. We have been stymied by the Republican leadership.

I also would like to thank my friend Senator JOE BIDEN, for his leadership on this issue. He has been a champion for victims of domestic violence for many years. He was pivotal in the enactment of the Violence Against Women Act almost a decade ago. He has been tireless in his efforts this year. It is time for the Senate to take up S. 2787, review and accept the consensus substitute and move to final passage. It could be done this week—today. Senator BIDEN has offered to proceed on a clean bill within 10 minutes and he is right.

I regret to have to remind the Senate that the authorization for the original Violence Against Women Act, VAWA, expires at the end of this week on Saturday, September 30, 2000. This is outrageous. This should be consensus legislation, bipartisan legislation. With a straight up or down vote I have no doubt that our bill will pass overwhelmingly. Playing partisan or political games with this important legislation is the wrong thing to do and this is the wrong time to be playing such games.

''Gotcha'' games have no place in this debate or with this important matter. The Violence Against Women Act II is not leverage or fodder but important legislation with 71 Senate cosponsors.

There is and has been no objection on the Democratic side of the aisle to passing VAWA II. Unfortunately, there have been efforts by the majority party to attach this uncontroversial legislation to the ''poison pill'' represented by the version of bankruptcy legislation currently being advanced by Republicans and to other matters.

I received today a letter from the Pat Ruess of the NOW Legal Defense and Education Fund that emphatically makes the point the VAWA is not ''cover'' for other legislation that hurts women. She is right. The bankruptcy bill as the Republicans have designed it is opposed by the National Partnership for Women and Families, the National Women's Law Center, the American Association of University Women and dozens of women's organization across the country. I hope that the rumors of such an effort by the Republican leadership will prove unfounded and that no such cynical pairing will be attempted. It is destined to fail and only delays and distracts the Senate from what we should be doing—passing VAWA II.

I believe the Senate can and should pass VAWA II as a clean, stand-alone bill, without further delay. That is what Senator BIDEN urged Tuesday.

According to the Bureau of Justice Statistics, almost one-third of women murdered each year are killed by a husband or boyfriend. In 1998, women experience about 900,000 violent offenses at the hands of an intimate partner. The only good news about this staggering number is that it is lower than that of previous years when the number of violent offenses was well past 1 million. I have no doubt this drop in the numbers of victims of domestic violence is due to the success of the programs of the Violence Against Women Act. We should be working to lower that number even further by reauthorizing and expanding the programs of VAWA. The country has come too far in fighting this battle against domestic violence to risk losing it because the Senate does not pass VAWA II or someone wanting to score clever, political points for short term partisan gain.

There is no reason to make this a political battle. We must act now.

I ask unanimous consent to print in the RECORD the President's letter and the September 28 letter from the NOW Legal Defense and Education Fund and a September 17, 1999 letter from the National Partnership for Women & Families, National Women's Law Center and other women's advocacy organizations.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

THE WHITE HOUSE,
Washington, DC, September 27, 2000.

Hon. TRENT LOTT,
Majority Leader, U.S. Senate,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. LEADER: I am writing to urge you to bring the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) to the Senate floor this week.

An estimated 900,000 women suffer violence at the hands of an intimate partner each year, demonstrating the urgent need for this legislation. Since VAWA was enacted, the Department of Justice and Health and Human Services have awarded approximately $1.6 billion in Federal grants to support the work of prosecutors, law enforcement officials, the courts, victim advocates, health care and social service professionals, and intervention and prevention programs in order to combat violence against women. We must reauthorize these critical programs immediately.

As you know, yesterday, the House overwhelmingly passed VAWA reauthorization by a vote of 415–3. In the Senate, VAWA has similar bipartisan support with over 70 cosponsors. If Congress does not act this week, however, VAWA's authorization will expire on September 30, 2000. The Senate should not delay, and I urge you to pass a freestanding version of the Biden-Hatch VAWA reauthorization bill this week. The women and families whose lives have been scarred by domestic violence deserve nothing less than immediate action by the Congress.

Sincerely,

BILL CLINTON.

NOW LEGAL DEFENSE AND EDUCATION FUND,
Washington, DC, September 28, 2000.

DEAR SENATOR: The Violence Against Women Act runs out in two days. The Senate must act immediately! Do not let VAWA die—pass S. 2787, the reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act. The bipartisan VAWA renewal bill, sponsored by Senators Biden and Hatch, has 71 co-sponsors and virtually no opposition. The House passed a similar bill on Tuesday, 415–3. You must demand that this bill comes to the Senate floor today, freestanding and without harmful riders.

It is unacceptable for the Senate to attach VAWA to or partner it with any bill that the President has threatened to veto. One such bill is the Bankruptcy Reform Act, a bill that threatens women's economic security by:

Making it more difficult to file bankruptcy and regain economic stability afterwards.

Pitting women and children who are trying to collect child support against powerful commercial companies trying to collect credit card and other debts.

Punishing honest low income bankruptcy filers while providing cover for individuals convicted of violating FACE (clinic violence protections).

We cannot support a bill that uses VAWA to provide cover for legislation that also hurts women. S. 2787 can be passed under Unanimous Consent today. Please just do it.

Sincerely,

PATRICIA BLAU REUSS,
Vice President, Government Relations.

NATIONAL WOMEN'S LAW CENTER,
NATIONAL PARTNERSHIP FOR WOMEN & FAMILIES,

Re: S. 625, The ''Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1999''

DEAR SENATOR: The undersigned women's and children's organizations write to urge you to oppose S. 625, the ''Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1999.''

Hundreds of thousands of women and their children are affected by the bankruptcy system each year as debtors and creditors. Indeed, women are the fastest growing group in bankruptcy. In 1999, over half a million women are expected to file for bankruptcy by themselves—more than men filing by themselves or married couples. About 200,000 of these women filers will be trying to collect child support or alimony. Another 200,000 women owed child support or alimony by men who file for bankruptcy will become bankruptcy creditors.

S. 625 puts both groups of economically vulnerable women and children at greater risk. By increasing the rights of many creditors, including credit card companies, finance companies, auto lenders and others, the bill would set up a competition for scarce resources between parents and children owed child support and commercial creditors both during and after bankruptcy. And single parents facing financial crises—often caused by divorce, nonpayment of support, loss of a job, uninsured medical expenses, or domestic violence—would find it harder to regain their economic stability through the bankruptcy process. The bill would make it harder for these parents to meet the filing requirements; harder, if they got there, to save their homes, cars, and essential household items; and harder to meet their children's needs after bankruptcy because many more debts would survive.

Contrary to the claims of some, the domestic support provisions included in the bill would not solve these problems. The provisions only relate to the collection of support during bankruptcy from a bankruptcy filer; they do nothing to alleviate the additional hardships the bill would create for the hundreds of thousands of women forced into bankruptcy themselves. And even for women who are owed support by men who file for bankruptcy, the provisions fail to ensure that support payments will come first, ahead of the increased claims of the commercial creditors. Some improvement were made in the domestic support provisions in the Judiciary Committee. However, even the revised provisions fail to solve the problems created by the rest of the bill, which gives many other creditors greater claims—both during and after bankruptcy—than they have under current law. The bill does not ensure that, in this intensified competition for the debtor's limited resources, parents and children owed support will prevail over the sophisticated collection departments of these powerful interests.

This Bankruptcy Reform Act will reduce the ability of parents to pay their most important debt—their debt to their children. It is for these reasons that we strongly oppose S. 625 and urge you to oppose it as well.

CONTINUING CLIMATE OF FEAR IN BELARUS

Mr. CAMPBELL. Mr. President, as co-chairman of the Helsinki Commission, I take this opportunity to update my colleagues on the situation in Belarus, as I have done on previous occasions.

The Belarusian parliamentary elections are scheduled for October 15, and unfortunately, they do not meet the basic commitments outlined by the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) concerning free and democratic elections. Moreover, many observers have concluded that the Belarusian government has not made real progress in fulfilling four criteria for international observation of the elections: respect for human rights and an end to the climate of fear; opposition access to the state media; a democratic electoral code; and the granting of real power to the parliament that will be chosen in these elections.

Instead, the Helsinki Commission has observed that the Lukashenka regime launched a campaign of intensified harassment in recent days directed against members of the opposition. We have received reports that just last week, Anatoly Lebedka, leader of the United Civic Party, whom many of my colleagues met when he visited the Senate last year, was roughed up by police after attending an observance marking the first anniversary of the disappearance of a leading member of the democratic opposition Viktor Gonchar and his associate, Anatoly Krasovsky. And just a few days ago, we were informed that Belarusian Popular Front leader Vintsuk Viachorka's request for air time on Belarusian television to explain why the opposition is boycotting the parliamentary elections was met with a hateful, disparaging diatribe on the main newscast ''Panorama.''

This is only the tip of the iceberg—in addition, the Helsinki Commission is receiving reports of detentions, fines and instances of beatings of opposition activists who are promoting a boycott of the elections by distributing leaflets or other literature or holding meetings with voters. In recent weeks, we have also been informed of the refusal to register many opposition candidates on dubious grounds; the seizure of over 100,000 copies of the independent trade union newspaper ''Rabochy''; forceful disruptions of public meetings with representatives of the opposition; an apparent burglary of the headquarters of the Social Democratic Party; a ban of the First Festival of Independent Press in Vitebsk, and recent ''reminder letters'' by the State Committee on Press for independent newspapers to reregister.

Mr. President, Belarusian opposition parties supporting the boycott have received permission to stage ''Freedom March III'' this Sunday, October 1. At a number of past demonstrations, police have detained, harassed and beaten participants. Those in Congress who are following developments in Belarus are hopeful that this demonstration will take place peacefully, that authorities do not limit the rights of Belarusian citizens to freedom of association and assembly, and that the Government of Belarus will refrain from acts of repression against the opposition and others who openly advocate for a boycott of these elections.

Mr. President, the Helsinki Commission continue to monitor closely the events surrounding these elections and we will keep the full Senate apprized of developments in the ongoing struggle for democracy in Belarus.

SCHOOL SHOOTINGS

Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, it is not even one month into the school year and yet school is canceled for the week at Carter C. Woodson Middle School in New Orleans, Louisiana. On Tuesday afternoon, a 13-year-old boy, who had been expelled from school for fighting, allegedly slipped another 13-year-old a .38-caliber revolver. The expelled teen was seen passing the handgun through the school fence to the other 13-year-old, who allegedly used the gun to shoot a 15-year-old schoolmate. According to witnesses, the 15-year-old then managed to get the gun from his attacker and return gunfire.

As a result of this school day skirmish, two teenagers have been hospitalized in critical condition and another teen-ager has been booked on charges of illegally carrying a gun and being a principal to attempted first-degree murder. In addition, the 600 student middle school is in a ''cooling off period,'' meaning classes are canceled for the rest of the week.

It is deeply disturbing that teenagers have such easy access to handguns. The laws in this country make it illegal for a juvenile to possess a handgun or a person to sell, deliver, or otherwise transfer a handgun to a juvenile. Yet, with so many loopholes in our firearm distribution laws, it is easy for prohibited users, such as young people, to find illegal access to thousands of guns.

Congress can close those loopholes and act to prevent tragedies like the one in New Orleans. With only one week left until the Senate's target adjournment, the time is now. We must pass sensible gun laws and reduce the threat of gun violence in our schools and communities.

VICTIMS OF GUN VIOLENCE

Mr. DURBIN. Mr. President, it has been more than a year since the Columbine tragedy, but still this Republican Congress refuses to act on sensible gun legislation.

Since Columbine, thousands of Americans have been killed by gunfire. Until we act, Democrats in the Senate will read the names of some of those who have lost their lives to gun violence in the past year, and we will continue to do so every day that the Senate is in session.

In the name of those who died, we will continue this fight. Following are the names of some of the people who were killed by gunfire one year ago today.

September 28, 1999:

Stephanie Borjon, 25, Fort Worth, TX; Fransisco Cabera, 17, Oklahoma City, OK; Everett Lee, 27, Detroit, MI; Dennis Mattei, 19, Bridgeport, CT; Ronald L. Pearson, 29, Memphis, TN; Sohan S. Rahil, 65, Bedford Heights, OH; Justin Thomas, 27, Baltimore, MD; Christopher M. Williams, 26, Memphis, TN; Douglas Younger, 43, Houston, TX; and Unidentified Male, Detroit, MI.

We cannot sit back and allow such senseless gun violence to continue. The deaths of these people are a reminder to all of us that we need to enact sensible gun legislation now.

EULOGY TO MAUREEN MANSFIELD

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, Mike Mansfield's eulogy to his wife, Maureen, this past Tuesday at her funeral was simply beauty. It was vintage Mansfield—and any other comment would mar its eloquence. On behalf of the distinguished Senator from Alaska, Mr. STEVENS, and myself, I ask unanimous consent that it be included in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the eulogy was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

EULOGY FOR MAUREEN MANSFIELD DELIVERED BY SENATOR MIKE MANSFIELD, SEPTEMBER 26, 2000

We met—She was 24 and I was 26.

She was a high school teacher; I was a miner in the Copper mines of Butte.

She was a college graduate; I had not finished the 8th grade.

She urged me to achieve a better education. I followed her advice and with her help, in every way, we succeeded.

She took me out of the mines and brought me to the surface.

1932

We were married in Missoula during the great depression.

She gave up her teaching job.

She cashed in on her insurance.

She brought what little savings she had and, she did it all for me.

1940

Maureen was very politically oriented—I was not.

She urged me to run for Congress.

We campaigned together.

We finished next to last.

The day after the election she put us on the campaign trail for the next election and we won.

1942

Maureen was largely responsible for our election to the House of Representatives.

Almost every summer she drove herself and our daughter, Anne, to Missoula—5 days and 3,000 miles.

Why? To campaign for us and in 1952

She got us elected to the U.S. Senate.

1977

We decided—after talking it over, to retire.

We did not owe anything to anybody—except the people of Montana—nor did anyone owe anything to us.

1977

President Carter asked me if we would be interested in becoming the U.S. Ambassador to Japan. Maureen thought we should accept and we did and when President Reagan called and asked us to stay, we did for almost 12 years.

1988

Around Xmas Maureen almost literally forced me to go to the Naval Hospital at Yokosuka, which sent me to the Army Hospital at Honolulu, which sent me directly to Walter Reed Army Hospital where I had heart bypass and prostate operations. Again it was Maureen.

1989

1998

Illness began to take its toll on Maureen.

On September 13, 2000, less than 2 weeks ago, we observed—silently—our 68th Wedding Anniversary.

Maureen and I owe so much to so many that I cannot name them all but my family owes special thanks to Dr. William Gilliland, and his associates, who down through the last decade did so much to alleviate Maureen's pain and suffering at Walter Reed Army Medical Hospital—one of the truly great medical centers in our country.

We also owe special thanks to Gloria Zapata, Ana Zorilla and Mathilde Kelly Boyes and Ramona the ''round the clockers'' who took such loving care of Maureen for the last two years on a 24 hour day, seven day week basis.

MAUREEN MANSFIELD

She sat in the shadow—I stood in the limelight.

She gave all of herself to me.

I failed in recognition of that fact until too late—because of my obstinacy, self centeredness and the like.

She sacrificed much almost always in my favor—I sacrificed nothing.

She literally remade me in her own mold, her own outlook, her own honest beliefs. What she was, I became. Without her—I would have been little or nothing. With her—she gave everything of herself. No sacrifice was too little to ignore nor too big to overcome.

She was responsible for my life, my education, my teaching career, our elections to the House and Senate and our selection to the Embassy to Japan.

She gave of herself that I could thrive, I could learn, I could love, I could be secure, I could be understanding.

She gave of her time to my time so that together we could achieve our goals.

I will not say goodby to Maureen, my love, but only ''so long'' because I hope the Good Lord will make it possible that we will meet at another place in another time and we will then be together again forever.

SENATE QUARTERLY MAIL COSTS

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, in accordance with section 318 of Public Law 101–520 as amended by Public Law 103–283, I am submitting the frank mail allocations made to each Senator from the appropriation for official mail expenses and a summary tabulation of Senate mass mail costs for the third quarter of FY2000 to be printed in the RECORD. The official mail allocations are for franked mail expenses only, and therefore are unrelated to the mass mail expenditure totals. The third quarter of FY2000 covers the period of April 1, 2000 through June 30, 2000. The official mail allocations are available for franked mail costs, as stipulated in Public Law 106–57, the Legislative Branch Appropriations Act of 2000.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to print the frank mail allocations in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

Senators	FY2000 official mail allocation	Senate quarterly mass mail volumes and costs for the quarter ending 06/30/00

CONSERVATION AND REINVESTMENT ACT

Ms. LANDRIEU. Mr. President, a letter from the National Governors' Association on September 27th to the majority leader of the Senate expresses the National Governors' Association's views that any final version of the Conservation and Reinvestment Act (CARA) legislation include stable funding and a strong commitment to the states by reinvesting Outer Continental Shelf (OCS) mineral revenues into assets of lasting value and sharing a meaningful portion of these revenues with states and territories. In addition, the letter points out that the essential strengths of CARA are that it assures a dependable stream of funding which enables states to implement long-term capital investments and to develop cost-effective fiscal strategies.

I ask unanimous consent to print the letter in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the letter was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

NATIONAL GOVERNORS' ASSOCIATION,
Washington, DC, September 27, 2000.

Hon. TRENT LOTT,
Senate Majority Leader, U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR SENATOR LOTT: The nation's Governors support legislation that both wisely reinvests Outer Continental Shelf (OCS) mineral revenues into assets of lasting value and shares a meaningful portion of these revenues with states and territories. We have previously endorsed H.R. 701, the Conservation and Reinvestment Act (CARA), but recognize that alternatives are being considered. We urge that any final legislation allocating OCS revenues include stable funding and a strong commitment to the states.

As new proposals are floated, we hope that you will remember the essential strengths of CARA. CARA assures a dependable stream of funding. This enables states to implement long-term capital investments and to develop cost-effective fiscal strategies. Being subjected to the annual appropriations process will not provide the stability necessary for states to take advantage of low-interest bonds, enter into voluntary conservation agreements with private landowners, and invest in long-term programs to recover declining species. A one-year appropriation to state programs simply will not address concerns.

CARA also focuses on conserving and preserving both federal and state assets. Parks, estuaries, wildlife, and historical properties are not limited to federal lands. A meaningful share of the Outer Continental Shelf revenues should be shared with the states and territories so that investments in the conservation of America can occur in a comprehensive manner. This hallmark of CARA is the investment of resources and the empowerment of states to set their own priorities, particularly as they respond to federal mandates and fulfill state environmental goals. These fundamental elements must be incorporated into any final legislation.

As you know, Representative Norman D. Dicks (D-Wash.) recently proposed a ''Lands Legacy Trust'' fund amendment to the fiscal 2001 Interior appropriations conference report. Many Governors perceive the Dicks amendment as a departure from the principles of CARA. The Dicks amendment does not guarantee an increase in net funding or guarantee full funding for conservation programs.

The reported CARA compromise reached by congressional leaders on September 26th is an approach that more closely resembles the principles of CARA. This proposal has the support of the National Governors' Association (NGA) and should be strongly considered as a viable option as negotiations proceed.

On behalf of NGA, we urge that any final legislation allocating OCS revenues address the concerns we have raised. We appreciate your efforts to conserve the nation's most valuable resources by creating a lasting and comprehensive legacy for the American people and future generations.

Sincerely,

GOVERNOR THOMAS J. WILSACK,
Chair, Committee on Natural Resources.
GOVERNOR FRANK KEATING,
Vice Chair, Committee on Natural Resources.

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

300TH ANNIVERSARY OF ST. DAVID'S CHURCH AND ST. PETER'S CHURCH

• Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize the 300th anniversary of St. David's Church in Berwyn, Pennsylvania and St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley, near Paoli, Pennsylvania. The two parishes were established in 1700 as mission churches of the historic Christ Church, Philadelphia to serve those that settled Chester County.

Philadelphia is where so many of our Founders came together to deliberate, sign the Declaration of Independence and fight in battles during the Revolutionary War. Both churches, now nationally registered landmarks, were involved in the war. St. David's parish sent forth General Anthony Wayne to fight with General Washington, and St. Peter's served as a field hospital for soldiers that were wounded.

For 300 years—longer than we have been a nation—these two churches have been vital elements of the communities in which they reside and serve. Governor Tom Ridge recently selected St. Peter's Church, a registered historical landmark, as the site for the signing of Pennsylvania's ''Growing Greener'' bill.

On October 21, 2000 these two churches will hold a combined anniversary celebration at St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley. The celebration will feature historic symposia, period food and costume, and the burial of a time capsule. This event will enable people to gain insight into the lives of our historic forebears. I commend area leaders for initiating such a celebration and look forward to the upcoming festivities.

I am therefore pleased to celebrate the 300th anniversary of St. David's Church and St. Peter's Church. To honor this event, I put forward the following proclamation:

Whereas, 300 years ago, St. David's Church and St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley were founded as missions of the historic Christ Church, Philadelphia;

Whereas, the congregations of St. David's Church and St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley played a vital role in the early growth of historic Chester County, Pennsylvania;

Whereas, St. David's Church was the home parish and eventual burial site for General Anthony Wayne, a hero of the American Revolution;

Whereas, St. David's Church and its graveyard are registered as a National Historic Landmark;

Whereas, St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley is a registered National Historic Landmark which served recently as the site selected by the Governor of Pennsylvania for the signing of the ''Growing Greener'' land conservation bill;

Whereas, St. David's Church and St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley have sent their parishioners out into the larger community as public servants throughout their history;

Whereas, St. David's Church and St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley continue to serve their communities, their State and the Nation as strong civic partners in numerous programs to provide food, shelter, clothing, education, health care, and other forms of nurture to those in need;

Now therefore be it resolved by the United States Senate That St. David's Church and St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley be officially recognized and commended on the occasion of their 300th anniversary of worship, September 2, 2000.●

IN RECOGNITION OF WILLIAM HERNANDEZ

● Mr. TORRICELLI. Mr. President, I rise to recognize William Hernandez for his efforts as president of the Hispanic State Parade of New Jersey. His work has done a great deal for Hispanic-Americans, and it is an honor to acknowledge him today.

As president of the Hispanic State Parade of New Jersey, Mr. Hernandez has been able to honor the accomplishments of many prominent Hispanic-Americans. For the last three years he has also served as the president of DesFile Hispanoacericano of New Jersey. During that time, he has worked to arrange the first international cultural and health fair, and create unity and cultural pride among Hispanic-Americans.

Mr. Hernandez is an extremely talented and energetic individual. His work on behalf of Hispanic-Americans has been truly beneficial, and I am confident he will continue to work tirelessly for all Americans of Hispanic decent as well as all of society.●

CONGRATULATING MOUNT SAINT CHARLES ACADEMY

● Mr. L. CHAFEE. Mr. President, this past weekend, Mount Saint Charles Academy of Woonsocket, Rhode Island, was honored at a ceremony recognizing it as a Blue Ribbon School. I would like to commend them on this outstanding achievement.

''Mount,'' as it is called in Rhode Island has long been recognized nationally for its elite hockey program. In fact, the Mounties hockey team is so good that they have won the last 23 Rhode Island State Championships—a record—and during that stretch they skated their way to ten straight High School National Championships.

But in Rhode Island, Mount Saint Charles is best known for its excellent academic reputation. It is great to see ''Mount'' recognized nationally for its academic excellence, not just its hockey.

The Blue Ribbon School program rewards schools that excel in all areas of academic leadership, teaching and teacher development, and school curriculum. Schools are chosen through a competitive application process that rates each school on two areas. The first category, ''Conditions of Effective Schooling,'' includes teaching environment, curriculum and instruction, parent and community support, and student environment. The second category, ''Indicators of Success,'' includes student test performance, high attendance and graduation rates, as well as postgraduate pursuits.

I am proud to see a Rhode Island school recognized nationally for setting the bar high, and I applaud the teachers, principles, and students who have worked so hard to make Mount Saint Charles a Blue Ribbon School.●

TRIBUTE TO THE TURNER HILL BAPTIST CHURCH

● Mr. CLELAND. Mr. President, it is with great personal joy and pride that I come before you today to commemorate an anniversary that is of particular importance to my family and me. One hundred years ago, on October 13, 1900, in a borrowed school building at the intersection of McDaniel and Rockland Roads, sixteen original members of the Turner Hill Baptist Church convened for the first time.

The group enjoyed being together and quickly became a strong extended family. In fact, within months of their first meeting at the Old County Line School, the members decided to cement their closeness by constructing a permanent church building of their own. On land donated by E.L. Turner and as a result of its members' ingenuity and hard work, the beginning of 1901 marked the opening of Turner Hill Baptist Church, a wooden structure heated by one wood stove and lit by kerosene lamps.

Although the congregation moved to a new brick structure in 1954, the original wooden building and the work that went into its creation continue to embody the values of all those associated with the church. Despite the absence of Turner Hill's original sixteen members at today's centennial celebration, many of their descendants are delighted to take part. By the same token, some of the original nine families, including my own, who were present as the church opened in 1901 continue to attend regular services: Turner Hill has both fifth and sixth generation members. I am also proud to be related to both the church's current youngest and oldest members. While my father, Mr. Joseph Hugh Cleland, and Aunt, Mrs. Georgia Mae Cleland Johnston, are Turner Hill's most senior members, my cousin, Miss Jessica Wages is the newest addition to the 151 member congregation.

Over the years, the church itself and the faces in the pews have changed, but one thing has remained a constant—community. My friends and family at Turner Hill have pulled together in times of crisis and joined each other in celebration throughout the years. Behind the leadership of Reverend Farrell Wilkins and with God and family at the center of their lives, the members of my church today commemorate an historic anniversary. May their next hundred years be as prosperous as their first.●

IN RECOGNITION OF FATHER ALBERT R. CUTIE

● Mr. TORRICELLI. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize Father Albert R. Cutie, to whom the 25th Hispanic-American Parade of New Jersey Annual Banquet is being dedicated. This tremendous honor is being bestowed upon an individual who is a true example of the possibilities that are available to all in our great nation.

Father Albert's parents were forced, like many others, to flee from Cuba to Spain due to the atheist-communist dictatorship that took over their homeland. Fortunately, his family was reunited a few years later in San Juan, Puerto Rico, and was able to emigrate to the United States when he was seven years old. Here he has been able to pursue a life that would not have been possible in communist Cuba.

Father Albert has always been a talented and industrious soul. From a young age, he showed vibrant entrepreneurial skills by turning his love for music into his own business. During his High School years his experience in parish youth groups and spiritual retreats began to foster his great love for the Church and its mission. Hearing his calling, Father Albert entered the Seminary in 1987 and was ordained on May 13, 1995.

Since his ordination, countless individuals have benefitted from Father Albert's love and guidance. Not only does he continue to reach out to individuals, families, the sick, and those in need, but he works diligently to give the youth of our society a better future.

We are truly fortunate to have an individual such as Father Albert as a member of our society. I am confident that our future is much brighter thanks to the efforts of Father Albert and other young Americans like him.●

RECOGNITION OF OUR LADY OF PROVIDENCE JUNIOR/SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL IN CLARKSVILLE, INDIANA, WINNER OF THE PRESTIGIOUS BLUE RIBBON SCHOOLS AWARD

● Mr. BAYH. Mr. President, I rise proudly today to congratulate Our Lady of Providence Junior/Senior High School in Clarksville, Indiana for its selection by the U.S. Secretary of Education as one of the Nation's outstanding Blue Ribbon Schools. Our Lady of Providence is one of only two Indiana schools, and of only 198 schools across the country, to be awarded this prestigious recognition.

In order to be recognized as a Blue Ribbon School, Our Lady of Providence met rigorous criteria for overall excellence. The teachers and administration officials demonstrated to the Secretary of Education the qualities necessary to prepare successfully our young people for the challenges of the new century, and proved that the students here effectively met local, state and national goals.

Hoosiers can be very proud of our Blue Ribbon schools. The students and faculty of Our Lady of Providence have shown a consistent commitment to academic excellence and community leadership. Our Lady of Providence has raised the bar for educating our children and for nurturing strong values. This Hoosier school provides a clear example as we work to improve the quality of education in Indiana and across the Nation.●

TRIBUTE TO JAN GORDON

● Mr. LEVIN. Mr. President, as the Senate nears adjournment I want to pay a special tribute to a special member of the Armed Services Committee's Minority staff. After a long and successful career in both the Executive and Legislative Branch, but mostly here in the United States Senate, Jan Gordon will be leaving our staff on November 30. Speaking not only for myself, but on behalf of the entire Committee and our staff, I can tell you that Jan will be sorely missed.

A native North Carolinian, in 1972 Jan Gordon was recruited by the Federal Bureau of Investigation to come to Washington, D.C. to work as an executive secretary in their Intelligence Division. While her heart always remained in North Carolina, her feet became firmly planted in Washington.

After four years at the FBI, Jan began her Senate career, working first on the staff of the Joint Atomic Energy Committee, and then nine and a half years for the Secretary of the Senate in the Office of National Security Information, which later became what is now the Office of Senate Security. Countless numbers of my colleagues and staff who attended classified briefings or conferences up in S–407 of the Capitol during that period have first hand knowledge of Jan Gordon's superior administrative abilities and organizational skills.

In 1987, Chairman Sam Nunn of the Armed Service Committee appointed Jan Gordon as a staff assistant, and she was charged with the very demanding task supporting the staff and work of the Strategic Subcommittee. Not surprisingly, Jan rose to the occasion. She met all of the needs of the Subcommittee, while at the same time she had sole responsibility for the processing and printing of typically 20–25 hearing transcripts per year, many of which were classified. Because her work was so excellent, Jan Gordon was the person Committee's Chief Clerk turned to when new staff assistants needed to be taught ''how to do things the right way.''

When I became Ranking Minority Member of the Committee in 1997 following Senator San Nunn's retirement from the Senate, one of the quickest and easiest decisions I made was to ask Jan to continue working for me and the rest of the Committee's Minority Members and staff. I was delighted that she accepted my offer, because Jan is a valuable and key member of the Minority Staff of the Armed Services Committee.

Jan Gordon's service on the staff of the Armed Services Committee has been remarkable. She has an uncompromising work ethic and a strong dedication to duty. Of the over 5,000 days she will have worked for the Armed Services Committee when she retires, she has only had seven sick days. Being late to work, cutting any corner for the sake of moving a project forward, or not being totally cooperative and responsive are foreign and unacceptable concepts to Jan. Her steadfast attention to detail is legendary around the Committee, as is her commitment to meeting the highest standards in everything she does.

Jan Gordon has always given completely of herself each and every day of the nearly fourteen years she has served on the staff of the Senate Armed Services Committee. When she departs the Committee staff, all of us will remember her for her professionalism, her enthusiasm, and the consistently high standard she set for herself. We are grateful for her service to the Senate and the Nation, and we wish her many years of health and happiness in the future.●

GEORGIA EARLY LEARNING INITIATIVE

● Mr. CLELAND. Mr. President, with a focus on the horizon and a knowledge of where we've been, I come before you today to laud a group that has dedicated its time and resources to Georgia's youth in attempts to secure a brighter future for us all. Throughout its existence, The Georgia Early Learning Initiative, a collaboration of business and labor leaders, health and human service providers, educators, and legislators, has sought to increase access to, and funding for, early education throughout our state.

As a reflection of today's fast-paced society, households increasingly boast two working parents who can neither afford to miss work nor pay the often exorbitant cost of childcare in our country. In fact, while only forty percent of children are cared for by a parent all day, sixty-seven percent of Georgia mothers with children under age six are in the workforce. Increasingly, many parents want to stay home, yet have no choice but to work. However, it takes a dedicated and selfless group of people to bring about results; there is no greater champion of Georgia's children and investment in the future than The Georgia Early Learning Initiative.

A child's pre-school years are more important than we have previously acknowledged. With 554,430 Georgia children currently enrolled in preschool, and the knowledge that ninety percent of human brain functions develop during the first three years of life, early learning and improved childcare are perhaps more important than ever before. It is our responsibility as a nation and leaders to support activists who are willing to fight for worthy causes, especially when those causes will benefit generations to come. We owe it to our children to provide equal access to early learning options which will place them on a secure footing and will allow them to excel in life. It is the mission of the dedicated men and women who comprise the Georgia Early Learning Initiative to increase childcare choices for parents and to extend the opportunity to succeed to all of America's children, no matter what their family's station in life. In the future, we will only be as strong as our children. As Pearl Buck said, ''If our American way of life fails the child, it fails us all.''

As I think back to where we have been and once again focus on the glorious horizon, I cannot help but feel optimistic about our future knowing that men and women like those working with the Georgia Early Learning Initiative continue to fight for a better tomorrow for all of our children.●

IN RECOGNITION OF THE HONORABLE JUDGE JULIO FUENTES

● Mr. TORRICELLI. Mr. President, I rise today to recognize one of New Jersey's extremely talented and humble public servants, the Honorable Judge Julio Fuentes. This distinguished member of my State is being honored with the dedication of the 25th Hispanic-American Parade of New Jersey Annual Banquet in his name, and it gives me great pleasure to recognize his accomplishments.

Judge Fuentes is a man of great intellect and a distinguished record of public service. He is constantly seeking to improve himself, as can be attested to by his pursuit of master's degrees in Latin American affairs and liberal arts during his time as a sitting judge. Those who have had the opportunity to work with Judge Fuentes universally praise his integrity as well as the depth and breadth of his knowledge of the law.

Through a great internal drive and determination, Judge Fuentes has risen from Newark Municipal Court Judge to his current post of judge for the 3rd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals. Judge Fuentes also has the distinction of being the first Hispanic-American to sit on this prestigious court, an honor he has truly earned.

Judge Fuentes is a good, honest, decent man. He is an exemplar of the coveted American ideal of public service. It was truly an honor to be able to recommend his nomination to President Clinton. We are truly fortunate to have someone of his immense capabilities and desire for public service sitting as a judge on the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.●

CRIMINAL JUSTICE INTEGRITY AND LAW ENFORCEMENT ASSISTANCE ACT

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, in the last decade, DNA testing has become the most reliable forensic technique for identifying criminals when biological evidence of the crime is recovered. While DNA testing is standard in pretrial investigations today, the issue of post-conviction DNA testing has emerged in recent years as the technology for testing has improved. Because biological evidence, such as semen or hair from a rape, is often preserved by authorities years after trial, it is possible to submit preserved biological evidence for DNA testing. In cases that were tried before DNA technology existed, and in which biological evidence was preserved after conviction, post-conviction testing is feasible.

While the exact number is subject to dispute, post-conviction DNA testing has exonerated prisoners who were convicted of crimes committed before DNA technology existed. In some of these cases, the post-conviction DNA testing that exonerated a wrongly convicted person led to the apprehension of the actual criminal. In response to these cases, the Senate Judiciary Committee has examined various state post-conviction DNA statutes, held a hearing on post-conviction DNA testing, and sought the expertise of federal and state prosecutors and criminal defense lawyers.

To ensure that post-conviction DNA testing is available in appropriate cases, I, along with Senators LOTT, NICKLES, MACK, MCCAIN, THURMOND, GRASSLEY, KYL, ABRAHAM, DEWINE, SESSIONS, R. SMITH, G. SMITH, COLLINS, FITZGERALD, HELMS, SANTORUM, HAGEL, SHELBY, WARNER, INHOFE, SNOWE, ALLARD, BROWNBACK, GRAMS, BENNETT, COCHRAN, T. HUTCHINSON, and FRIST are introducing the Criminal Justice Integrity and Law Enforcement Assistance Act today. This Act authorizes post-conviction DNA testing in federal cases and encourages the States, through a grant program, to authorize post-conviction DNA testing in a consistent manner in state cases. In addition, the Act provides $60 million in grants to help States reduce the backlog of DNA evidence to be analyzed and to conduct post-conviction DNA testing.

The Criminal Justice Integrity Act was based in large part on the successful post-conviction DNA testing statute in Illinois. The Illinois statute has worked particularly well, as Illinois has the most post-conviction DNA exonerations in the Nation. Like the Illinois statute, the Criminal Justice Integrity Act authorizes post-conviction DNA testing only in cases in which testing has the potential to prove the prisoner's innocence. This standard will allow testing in potentially meritorious cases without wasting scarce prosecutorial and judicial resources on frivolous cases. It is significant that the Illinois statute has worked well without overburdening the State's law enforcement or judicial systems.

Mr. President, given that post-conviction DNA testing is a complex legal issue, I would like to discuss the legal standard to obtain testing in the Illinois statute and in the Criminal Justice Integrity Act. While the Illinois statute is somewhat vague, several Illinois Court of Appeals decisions have interpreted the standard for obtaining post-conviction testing under the statute. See People v. Gholston, 697 N.E.2d 375 (1998); People v. Dunn, 713 N.E.2d 568 (1999); People v. Savory, 722 N.E.2d 220 (1999). As these decisions make clear, post-conviction testing is allowed under the Illinois statute only if the testing has ''the potential to establish the defendant's innocence.''

For example, in People v. Gholston, the defendant and five companions were convicted of raping a woman and assaulting and robbing her two male companions in 1981. In 1995, the defendant filed a motion to compel DNA testing of the victim's rape kit to prove that he did not participate in the gang rape. The trial court dismissed the motion for testing, and the appellate court affirmed.

In affirming the denial of testing, the court ruled that a ''negative DNA match would not exculpate defendant Gholston due to the multiple defendants involved, the lack of evidence regarding ejaculation by the defendant Gholston and defendant's own admission of guilt under a theory of accountability.'' Id. at 379.

In People v. Dunn, the defendant was convicted in 1979 of a rape in which there was only one attacker. The defendant petitioned for post-conviction relief, and the trial court dismissed the petition. On appeal, the court remanded the motion to determine whether post-conviction testing was appropriate under the Illinois statute.

In remanding the motion, the court distinguished the facts in Dunn from Gholston, noting that post-conviction testing was denied in Gholston because ''the test results could not have been conclusive of defendant's guilt or innocence.'' Id. at 571. Under the facts in Dunn, the court held that the decision in Gholston would not prevent post-conviction testing ''where DNA testing would be determinative'' of guilt or innocence. Id. The court remanded the motion to the trial court to determine ''whether any conclusive result is obtainable from DNA testing.'' Id.

The most extensive discussion of the standard for obtaining post-conviction testing under the Illinois statute occurred in People v. Savory. In Savory, the defendant was convicted of stabbing two people to death in 1977. In 1998, the defendant sought DNA testing of bloodstained pants that were recovered from his home. The trial court denied the motion for DNA testing, and the appeals court affirmed.

The court held that DNA testing on the bloodstained pants could not exonerate the defendant because a negative DNA match could merely indicate that the defendant did not wear those pants during the murders. At trial, Savory's father testified that the pants were his and that he, not the defendant, was responsible for the bloodstains. In addition, there was other, overwhelming evidence of the defendant's guilt.

The court in Savory noted that in Gholston, post-conviction testing was denied because ''DNA testing could not conclusively establish defendant's guilt or innocence.'' In discussing the Illinois statute, the court stated:

> Based on the plain language of [the Illinois statute] and on the interpretation of [the statute] in Gholston and Dunn, we believe that the legislature intended to provide a process of total vindication . . . [I]n using the term ''actual innocence,'' the legislature intended to limit the scope of the [Illinois statute], allowing for scientific testing only where it has the potential to exonerate a defendant. Id. at 224.

Under the facts in Savory, the court denied post-conviction testing because ''although DNA testing carries the possibility of weakening the State's original case against the defendant, it does not have the potential to prove him innocent.'' Id. at 225.

In short, post-conviction testing is allowed under the Illinois statute only where testing ''could be conclusive of the defendant's guilt or innocence''; only where ''DNA testing would be determinative''; only if ''any conclusive result is obtainable from DNA testing''; and only where post-conviction testing ''has the potential to exonerate a defendant.''

The Criminal Justice Integrity Act has a similar legal standard to obtain testing. The Act authorizes testing if the prisoner makes a ''prima facie showing'' that identity was at issue at trial and DNA testing would, assuming exculpatory results, establish actual innocence. A ''prima facie showing'' is a lenient requirement that is defined as ''simply a sufficient showing of possible merit to warrant a fuller exploration by the district court.'' See Bennett v. U.S., 119 F.3d 468 (7th Cir. 1997). Thus, under the Criminal Justice Integrity Act, post-conviction testing is ordered if the prisoner makes a ''sufficient showing of possible merit'' that identity was at issue at trial and DNA testing would, assuming exculpatory results, establish actual innocence. In other words, the Act requires a showing that post-conviction testing has the potential to prove innocence. This is consistent with—and no more difficult than—the legal standard in the Illinois statute. If post-conviction DNA testing can establish a prisoner's innocence, such a prisoner can obtain testing under the Criminal Justice Integrity Act.

If post-conviction DNA testing is performed and produces exculpatory evidence, the Criminal Justice Integrity Act allows the prisoner to move for a new trial based on newly discovered evidence, notwithstanding the time limits on such motions applicable to other forms of newly discovered evidence. In so doing, the Act relies on established judicial procedures. In addition, the Criminal Justice Integrity Act prohibits authorities from destroying biological evidence which was preserved in cases in which identity was at issue for the duration of the Act, and it authorizes the court to appoint counsel for an indigent prisoner who seeks post-conviction testing.

Mr. President, the Criminal Justice Integrity and Law Enforcement Assistance Act is the only federal post-conviction DNA legislation that is supported by the law enforcement community. The Criminal Justice Integrity Act was unanimously endorsed by the bipartisan board of the National District Attorneys Association. In addition, the International Association of Chiefs of Police, the Fraternal Order of Police, and the National Sheriffs' Association have endorsed the bill. I am proud to have the support of the law enforcement community for this important legislation.

In closing, I would like to note that advanced DNA testing improves the just and fair implementation of the death penalty. While the Criminal Justice Integrity Act applies both to non-capital and capital cases, I think the Act is especially important in death penalty cases. While reasonable people can differ about capital punishment, it is indisputable that advanced DNA testing lends support and credibility to the accuracy and integrity of capital cases. For example, earlier this year, Texas Governor George W. Bush, granted a temporary reprieve to a death row inmate, Ricky McGinn, to allow post-conviction DNA testing on evidence recovered from the victim. In 1995, McGinn was convicted of raping and murdering his 12-year-old step-daughter. McGinn's lawyers had argued that additional DNA testing could prove that McGinn did not rape the victim, and therefore, was not eligible for the death penalty.

The DNA testing was recently completed, and the test results confirmed that McGinn raped the victim, in addition to murdering her. In short, as the McGinn case demonstrates, we are in a better position than ever before to ensure that only the guilty are executed. All Americans—supporters and opponents of the death penalty alike—should recognize that DNA testing provides a powerful safeguard in capital cases. We should be thankful for this amazing technological development.

I ask unanimous consent that the endorsements of this legislation be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

GRAND LODGE,
FRATERNAL ORDER OF POLICE,
Albuquerque, NM, July 5, 2000.

Hon. ORRIN G. HATCH,
Chairman, Senate Committee on the Judiciary, U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: I am writing on behalf of the more than 290,000 members of the Fraternal Order of Police to advise you of our strong support of legislation you intend to introduce entitled the ''Criminal Justice integrity and Law Enforcement Assistance Act.''

Political opponents of the death penalty have renewed their assault wrongly citing ''mistakes'' in the justice system which leads to the execution of innocent persons. One of their ploys in their effort to suspend the practice indefinitely calls for post-conviction DNA testing, a relative new technology. We find it very sad that political considerations are intruding in such a way that real justice is thwarted, not furthered.

The FOP vehemently opposes the thinly veiled political attempts to end capital punishment, like S. 2073, offered by Ranking Member Patrick J. Leahy (D–VT). This legislation would require expensive, post conviction testing in thousands of unnecessary cases such as those in which no exculpatory evidence is likely to be found. The bill places vital law enforcement funds like the Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS), the Edward J. Byrne and DNA Identification grant programs in jeopardy by requiring all states to adopt this standard. His bill would prohibit the death penalty for Federal crimes committed in certain states and provide Federal grants to nonprofit organizations subsidizing the American Civil Liberties Union's (ACLU) representation of defendants in capital cases. In essence, Senator Leahy's bill is an effort to kill the death penalty.

The legislation which you shared with us would authorize post-conviction DNA testing for a thirty (30) month period and only in a narrow class of cases where the identity of the perpetrator was at issue during trial and, assuming exculpatory results, would establish the innocence of the defendant. The FOP strongly approves of the time limitation because the issue of post-conviction testing involves only past cases where the technology was not available. DNA testing is now standard in pretrial investigations.

Your proposed legislation would also provide $60 million to the states in an effort to reduce the nationwide backlog of unanalyzed DNA samples from convicted offenders and crime scenes. In order to qualify for these grants, states must allow post-conviction testing in a manner consistent with the procedures established by this bill.

The FOP has confidence in our nation's justice system and yet recognizes that no system is ever perfect. For this reason, we support a time-limited window for post-conviction DNA testing in those few cases where innocence might be proved.

I want to thank you for sharing this draft with us and we look forward to working with you and your staff to get this legislation enacted.

Sincerely,

GILBERT G. CALLEGOS,
National President.

NATIONAL DISTRICT
ATTORNEYS ASSOCIATION,
Alexandria, VA, August 16, 2000.

Hon. ORRIN G. HATCH,
Chairman, Committee on the Judiciary, Dirksen Senate Office Building, Washington, DC.

DEAR CHAIRMAN HATCH: The National District Attorneys Association, with over 7,000 members, represents the local prosecutors of this nation. Our members try, by far, the majority of criminal cases in this country and our expertise in prosecuting violent criminals is second to none—as is our dedication to protecting the innocent. In keeping with this charge, the Board of Directors of the National District Attorneys Association has voted, unanimously, to support the ''Criminal Justice Integrity and Law Enforcement Assistance Act,'' for which you serve as the primary sponsor.

New technologies, such as DNA testing, can assist in establishing guilt or innocence in cases when used appropriately. In the application of any new technology, post conviction testing must be reserved for those defendants who can actually benefit from the application of the advance of science and not merely raise spurious claims.

Testing DNA, or any other scientific evidence, is costly and requires trained technicians to collect the evidence, conduct analyses of the samples and provide the requisite records and testimony to the court. Advancing unfounded demands for post conviction tests would not only delay on going investigations and trials but also deny those truly deserving of a reassessment of the evidence in their case a timely review.

Adhering to these principles we believe that post conviction testing must be reserved for:

defendants who have consistently maintained their innocence—if the defendant has voluntarily confessed to the offense or has pled guilty then they should not have the requisite standing to challenge their guilt; and have contested the issue of identification at tiral—DNA testing goes to the issue of identification, nothing else; and who can make a prima facie showing that a favorable test would demonstrate their innocence.

The latter point is most crucial. In many cases an individual can be guilty of a crime, in which DNA evidence may be available, yet not have been the individual who left the evidence. For instance an individual can be convicted of rape by holding down a victim even though he never actually has intercourse or they may never have ejaculated; in a like fashion the driver of a ''get away'' car can be convicted of murder even though she never enters the convenience store.

The federal government does have a vital role to play in this effort to hasten appropriate post conviction relief in fostering the use of DNA testing but cannot, and must not, usurp state prerogatives in preserving the sanctity of their respective systems of criminal justice. If post conviction testing DNA evidence indicates potentially favorable results, the issue should be addressed, under state criminal procedures, as a timely claim of newly discovered evidence and be accorded review under normal state standards.

The legitimate role of the federal government in this effort is to encourage and assist the states in developing the means to conduct post conviction testing of scientific evidence. Given the serious, and continuing, backlog of DNA cases in particular, federal help can, and must be directed towards exponential increases in the capabilities of the state laboratory systems.

Withholding critical funding or mandating how states must use federal programs is counterproductive to the effort to obtain viable post conviction relief. Federal assistance must be devoted to permitting each state to apply resources to support and reinforce their respective systems. Moreover federal assistance must be incorporated, by the individual states, into efforts to upgrade laboratory capabilities across the board.

To be meaningful, DNA testing, and post conviction relief measures, must be truly dispositive of a defendant's guilt or innocence and not merely a pretext to stymie justice—for himself or others. The ''Criminal Justice Integrity and Law Enforcement Assistance Act'' provides for this balance of resources and we most strongly urge that it be passed by the Congress.

Sincerely,

ROBERT M.A. JOHNSON,
County Attorney, Anoka County, Minnesota, President, National District Attorneys Association.

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CHIEFS OF POLICE,
Alexandria, VA, June 21, 2000.

Hon. ORRIN HATCH,
Chairman, Committee on the Judiciary, U.S. Senate, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. CHAIRMAN: On behalf of the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), I am writing to express our strong support for the Criminal Justice Integrity and Law Enforcement Assistance Act of 2000. As you know, the IACP is world's oldest and largest association of law enforcement executives with more than 18,000 members in 100 countries.

The use of DNA evidence represents the logical next step in technological advancement of criminal investigations and is in keeping with law enforcement's obligation to use the most advanced and accurate methods of investigating crime and proving criminal activity in a court of law. The IACP strongly supports the collection and use of DNA evidence and has consistently called for legislation that would promote greater use of DNA technology and include funding to analyze both convicted offender and crime scene DNA samples. The provisions of the Criminal Justice Integrity and Law Enforcement Assistance Act advance these goals.

Currently, more than 700,000 DNA samples taken from convicted felons and recovered from crime scenes remain unanalyzed due to the limited resources of state and local law enforcement agencies. This backlog severely threatens the timeliness of quality forensic examinations that are critical to solving crimes. By authorizing $60 million to assist states in reducing the current backlog of DNA samples the Criminal Justice Integrity and Law Enforcement Assistance Act will greatly increase the ability of state and local law enforcement agencies to make efficient and effective use of DNA evidence.

In addition, by limiting post conviction DNA tests to only those cases where the results have the potential to conclusively establish an individual's innocence of the crime for which they were convicted, this act properly ensures that justice is served without burdening the court system and forensic laboratories with thousands of cases.

Thank you for your continued support of the nation's law enforcement agencies. We look forward to working with you on this issue of vital importance.

Sincerely,

MICHAEL D. ROBINSON,
President.

Mr. SMITH of Oregon. I am very pleased that the distinguished Senator from Utah has recognized the need to address the important issue of post-conviction DNA testing at the federal level and am proud to join his efforts. Senator HATCH's Criminal Justice Integrity and Law Enforcement Assistant Act is an excellent bill that has the strong support from law enforcement officials. It will provide much-needed funds for law enforcement authorities to analyze convicted offender DNA samples and DNA evidence gathered from crime scenes.

However, it has become abundantly clear over recent years that funding is not the only problem in the post-conviction DNA testing debate. In determining guilt and innocence, our criminal justice system occasionally makes mistakes. It is our responsibility to take every reasonable measure to prevent miscarriages of justice. Perhaps the gravest injustice that could occur is wrongful imprisonment of an innocent person. Ensuring that all defendants have access to competent counsel would go a long way to minimize the risk of unjust incarceration.

Some will say that there is no problem, or that it is so rare as to be negligible, or that we do not yet know the true extent of the problem and should not introduce legislation until we do. I strongly disagree. Although officers of America's courts and law enforcement work extremely hard to ensure that the true perpetrators of heinous crimes are caught and convicted, there have been errors that have sent innocent men to death row—innocent people like you and me who did not deserve to be there. While some states, like my home State of Oregon, work hard to ensure that defendants are represented by competent counsel, other states clearly do not. Without a federal standard, there is a real risk that innocent people tried in states without adequate standards for defense counsel could be unjustly incarcerated, or in rate cases, even sentenced to death. Setting federal standards for competent counsel for all defendants is a very reasonable step to make sure that our system of criminal justice operates fairly regardless of where you live.

Senator LEAHY and I have introduced the Innocence Protection Act, which would address the vital issue of competency of counsel, among other things. Although the Criminal Justice Integrity Act, as introduced, does not address the issue of competency of counsel, Senator HATCH has promised to work with me and others to consider this issue when any post-conviction DNA testing legislation is considered in the Senate. I commend Senator HATCH for his interest in this matter, and for his willingness to work with me to produce a bill that will truly make a good system even better.

Mr. HATCH. I promise the distinguished Senator from Oregon that I will take up this issue in the months ahead. The issue of competency of counsel for indigents in state capital cases is a difficult issue for several reasons. First, it is not clear that this is a nationwide problem. For example, in Utah and Oregon, there does not appear to be a problem concerning the representation of indigents in capital cases. Second, the anecdotal examples cited in the media of poor capital representation occurred many years ago. For example, the death penalty trial of Gary Graham, which has been repeatedly mentioned in the press, occurred in 1981. Third, the States that seem to have a problem in this area recently made improvements. In 1995, Texas Governor George W. Bush signed legislation that provided indigent capital defendants the right to have two attorneys represent them at trial. Just this year, Alabama passed a law that compensates lawyers who represent indigents in capital trials at $100 per hour.

In short, I would like to know more about the extent of this problem before I introduce legislation. Thankfully, the Bureau of Justice Statistics is releasing a comprehensive study of state indigent legal defense services in December. I am hopeful that this study will provide the information necessary to evaluate the extent of this problem. I look forward to working with Senator SMITH in the months ahead.

Mr. MURKOWSKI (for himself and Mr. ABRAHAM):

S. 3131. A bill to amend title XVIII of the Social Security Act to ensure that the Secretary of Health and Human Services provides appropriate guidance to physicians and other health care providers that are attempting to properly submit claims under the Medicare Program and to ensure that the Secretary targets truly fraudulent activity for enforcement of medicare billing regulations, rather than inadvertent billing errors; to the Committee on Finance.

MEDICARE BILLING AND EDUCATION ACT

Mr. MURKOWSKI. Mr. President, right now, all across America, Medicare beneficiaries are seeking medical care from a flawed health care system. Reduced benefit packages, ever escalating costs, and limited access in rural areas are just a few of the problems our system faces on a daily basis. For this reason, Congress must continue to move towards the modernization of Medicare. But as we address the needs of beneficiaries, we must not turn our back upon the very providers that seniors rely upon for their care.

These providers are the physicians, the therapists, the nurses, and the allied health professionals who deliver quality care to our needy Medicare population. They are the backbone of our complex health care network. When our nation's seniors need care, it is the provider who heals, not the health insurer—and certainly not the federal government.

But more, and more often, seniors are being told by providers that they don't accept Medicare. This is becoming even more common in rural areas, where the number of physicians and access to quality care is already severely limited. Quite simply, beneficiaries are being told that their insurance is simply not wanted. Why? Well it's not as simple as low reimbursement rates. In fact it's much more complex.

The infrastructure that manages the Medicare program, the Health Care Financing Administration and its network of contractors, have built up a system designed to block care and micro-manage independent practices. Providers simply can't afford to keep up with the seemingly endless number of complex, redundant, and unnecessary regulations. And if providers do participate? Well, a simple administrative error in submitting a claim could subject them to heavy-handed audits and the financial devastation of their practice. Should we force providers to choose between protecting their practice and caring for seniors?

I believe the answer is no. For this reason, I am introducing the ''Medicare Billing and Education Act of 2000.'' Cosponsored by Senator ABRAHAM, this legislation will restore fairness to the Medicare system. It will allow providers to practice medicine without fearing the threats, intimidation, and aggressive tactics of a faceless bureaucratic machine.

Most importantly, this bill will reform the flawed appeals process within HCFA. Currently, a provider charged with receiving an overpayment is forced to choose between three options: admit the overpayment, submit additional information to mitigate the charge, or appeal the decision. However, a provider who chooses to submit additional evidence must subject their entire practice to review and waive their appeal rights. That's right—to submit additional evidence you must waive your right to an appeal!

And what is the result of this maddening system that runs contrary to our nation's history of fair and just administrative decisions? Often, providers are intimidated into accepting the arbitrary decision of an auditor employed by a HCFA contractor. Sometimes, they are even forced to pull out of the Medicare program. In the end, our senior population suffers.

Under my bill, providers will be allowed to retain their appeal rights should they choose to first submit additional evidence to mitigate the charge. Many providers receive an overpayment as the result of a simple administrative mistake. For cases not involving fraud, a provider will be able to return that overpayment within twelve months without fear of prosecution. This is a common sense approach, and will not lead to any additional costs to the Medicare system.

To bring additional fairness to the system, my bill will prohibit the retroactive application of regulations, and allow providers to challenge the constitutionality of HCFA regulations. Further, it will prohibit the crippling recovery of overpayments during an appeal, and bar the unfair method of withholding valid future payments to recover past overpayments. These common sense measures maintain the financial viability of medical practices during the resolution of payment controversies, and restore fundamental fairness to the dispute resolution procedures existing within HCFA.

Like many of our nation's problems, the key to improvement is found in education. For this reason, I have included language that stipulates that at least ten percent of the Medicare Integrity Program funds, and two percent of carrier funds, must be devoted to provider education programs.

providers cannot be expected to comply with the endless number of Medicare regulations if they are not shown how to submit clean claims. We must ensure that providers are given the information needed to eliminate future billing errors, and improve the responsiveness of HCFA.

It is with the goal of protecting our Medicare population, and the providers who tend care, that leads me to introduce the ''Medicare Billing and Education act of 2000.'' This bill will ensure that providers are treated with the respect that they deserve, and that Medicare beneficiaries aren't told that their health insurance isn't wanted. We owe it to our nation's seniors. I urge immediate action on this worthy bill.

I ask unanimous consent that the text of my bill be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the bill was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

S. 3131

SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

Congress finds the following:

(1) Physicians, providers of services, and suppliers of medical equipment and supplies that participate in the medicare program under title XVIII of the Social Security Act must contend with over 100,000 pages of complex medicare regulations, most of which are unknowable to the average health care provider.

(2) Many physicians are choosing to discontinue participation in the medicare program to avoid becoming the target of an overzealous Government investigation regarding compliance with the extensive regulations governing the submission and payment of medicare claims.

(3) Health Care Financing Administration contractors send post-payment review letters to physicians that require the physician to submit to additional substantial Government interference with the practice of the physician in order to preserve the physician's right to due process.

(4) When a Health Care Financing Administration contractor sends a post-payment review letter to a physician, that contractor often has no telephone or face-to-face communication with the physician, provider of services, or supplier.

(5) The Health Care Financing Administration targets billing errors as though health care providers have committed fraudulent acts, but has not adequately educated physicians, providers of services, and suppliers regarding medicare billing requirements.

(6) The Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Health and Human Services found that 75 percent of surveyed physicians had never received any educational materials from a Health Care Financing Administration contractor concerning the equipment and supply ordering process.

(b) Exception to this section shall not apply to cases in which the Secretary finds evidence of fraud or similar fault on the part of such provider.

TITLE II—APPEALS PROCESS REFORMS

SEC. 201. REFORM OF POST-PAYMENT AUDIT PROCESS.

(a) COMMUNICATIONS TO PHYSICIANS.—Section 1842 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395u) is amended by adding at the end the following new subsection:

''(u)(1)(A) Except as provided in paragraph (2), in carrying out its contract under subsection (b)(3), with respect to physicians' services, the carrier shall provide for the recoupment of overpayments in the manner described in the succeeding subparagraphs if—

''(i) the carrier or a contractor under section 1893 has not requested any relevant record or file; and

''(ii) the case has not been referred to the Department of Justice or the Office of Inspector General.

''(B)(i) During the 1-year period beginning on the date on which a physician receives an overpayment, the physician may return the overpayment to the carrier making such overpayment without any penalty.

''(ii) If a physician returns an overpayment under clause (i), neither the carrier nor the contractor under section 1893 may begin an investigation or target such physician based on any claim associated with the amount the physician has repaid.

''(C) The carrier or a contractor under section 1893 may not recoup or offset payment amounts based on extrapolation (as defined in section 1861(uu)(2)) if the physician has not been the subject of a post-payment audit.

''(D) As part of any written consent settlement communication, the carrier or a contractor under section 1893 shall clearly state that the physician may submit additional information (including evidence other than medical records) to dispute the overpayment amount without waiving any administrative remedy or right to appeal the amount of the overpayment.

''(E) As part of the administrative appeals process for any amount in controversy, a physician may directly appeal any adverse determination of the carrier or a contractor under section 1893 to an administrative law judge.

''(F)(i) Each consent settlement communication from the carrier or a contractor under section 1893 shall clearly state that prepayment review (as defined in section 1861(uu)(3)) may be imposed where the physician submits an actual or projected repayment to the carrier or a contractor under section 1893. Any prepayment review shall cease if the physician demonstrates to the carrier that the physician has properly submitted clean claims (as defined in section 1816(c)(2)(B)(i)).

''(ii) Prepayment review may not be applied as a result of an action under section 201(a), 301(b), or 302.

''(2) If a carrier or a contractor under section 1893 identifies (before or during post-payment review activities) that a physician has submitted a claim with a coding, documentation, or billing inconsistency, before sending any written communication to such physician, the carrier or a contractor under section 1893 shall contact the physician by telephone or in person at the physician's place of business during regular business hours and shall—

''(i) identify the billing anomaly;

''(ii) inform the physician of how to address the anomaly; and

S. 3132. A bill to expand the boundary of the George Washington Birthplace National Monument, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources.se

GEORGE WASHINGTON BIRTHPLACE NATIONAL MONUMENT BOUNDARY ADJUSTMENT ACT OF 2000

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, the man who would later become America's first president, George Washington, was born at Popes Creek Plantation on the banks of the Potomac River in 1732. Although most Americans are familiar with his later residence at Mt. Vernon, fewer people know that George Washington's childhood was spent on this sprawling 550 acre plantation in Westmoreland County, Virginia.

The Washington family first settled at Popes Creek in 1656 when John Washington, great-grandfather of George Washington, acquired the property. Although he later moved to Mt. Vernon, most historians agree George Washington returned on a regular basis to his birthplace. Located on the property is the Washington family cemetery that is the final resting place for George Washington's father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. To this day, Washington family descendants continue to live in the area.

In 1930, Congress recognized the historic importance of this site to the nation and created the George Washington Birthplace National Monument. The park is truly a national treasure which tells of George Washington's formative years. In addition to providing an excellent example of colonial life, the park contains acres of woodlands, wetlands, and agricultural fields. I am told numerous bald-eagles now call the park home.

In this age of rapid development, it is remarkable that despite the passage of two hundred and sixty-eight years, the Popes Creek area is remarkably unchanged since the time of George Washington's birth. The 131,099 annual visitors to the park can still experience a rural, pastoral countryside that George Washington would recognize. Much of the credit for this bucolic atmosphere is due to the efforts of the owners of the private property surrounding the park. They have done their best to avoid developing the property adjacent to the park. But, as these landowners gradually decide they wish to sell their property, I believe the Park Service should acquire the surrounding property to preserve this historic setting for future generations. The alternative is to risk development that could forever scar this beautiful national landmark.

Today, I am introducing legislation to expand the boundary of the George Washington Birthplace National Monument by allowing the U.S. Park Service to acquire portions of the surrounding property from willing sellers. As a nation, it is our duty to preserve America's heritage for future generations. I urge my colleagues to support the preservation of George Washington's birthplace.

By Mr. BAUCUS (for himself and Mr. BURNS):

S. 3133. A bill to provide compensation to producers for underestimation of wheat protein content; to the Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry.

WHEAT PROTEIN MISMEASUREMENT COMPENSATION ACT

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce the bill which will provide long-overdue compensation to agricultural producers in my state and across the country. The ''Wheat Protein Mismeasurement Compensation Act'' provides a legislative remedy for producers who suffered a loss due to the U.S. Department of Agriculture's erroneous underestimation of their wheat protein content for wheat sold between May 2, 1993 and January 24, 1994.

In May 1993, the Secretary of Agriculture, acting through the Federal Grain Inspection Service, required the use of new technology for determining the protein content of wheat. However, the calibrations provided by the Secretary for the new protein measurement instruments were erroneous and resulted in protein determinations that were lower than those produced by the technology in use before use of the new technology was required.

As a result of this miscalibration and the USDA's failure to provide adequate notice and opportunity for comment, hundreds of wheat producers in my state were forced to adjust their protein measurement and pricing system in order to protect themselves on resale. The result was a significant loss of revenue from the sale of high-protein wheat.

Mr. President, I have worked on this issue for several years—first as a case for my injured Montana producers. In a perfect this world, this problem would have been resolved by the USDA at an administrative level immediately after the miscalibration was identified and readjusted. Instead, it has lagged on and on and on. Unfortunately this matter for technical sovereign immunity reasons cannot be resolved in the courts. That is why we in Congress are their last chance at getting this resolved once and for all.

It is clearly, however, that these wheat producers by no fault of their own were injured by the USDA's implementation of a flawed system. But for that error, they would have received a fair price for their wheat. At a time when the agricultural community continues to suffer from record low prices and disastrous weather conditions, this continued injustice is simply unacceptable. We must do all in our power to correct this problem and justly compensate our producers for their losses.

I urge my colleagues to assist us in the expeditious passage of this legislation.

Mr. BURNS. Mr. President I rise today to join my colleague from Montana in introducing the Wheat Protein Mismeasurement Compensation Act. In 1993 the Federal Grain Inspection Service changed the technology used to determine the protein content of wheat. As a result a number of producers were harmed.

The issue has had our attention for a number of years, and has cumulated in a recent exercise over the past few months to find a resolution. The simple fact is that the USDA has failed to work with the farmers harmed so we can determine the actual financial impact to all producers. However, I am very confident we can address the losses shouldered by Montana's producers with the $465 million cap in this legislation.

My number one priority is to ensure that those producers who were harmed by the Federal Government's miscalculation are fully reimbursed for their losses. As we work this bill through the legislative process I believe we may need to readdress the section on the amount of compensation for the attorneys, but only time will tell. I believe this bill is a good step forward, and I welcome a process that will make USDA sit down face to face with these producers and compensate those that were harmed by the mismeasurements.

By Mr. BAUCUS:

S. 3134. A bill to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to provide an income tax credit for certain charitable conservation contributions of land by small farmers and ranchers, and for other purposes; to the Committee on Finance.

RURAL HERITAGE CONSERVATION ACT

Mr. BAUCUS. Mr. President, our nation's agricultural heritage is a rich tradition, which encompasses much of what we are about as a people; hard work, common sense, and a deep respect for the land.

In Montana, and in too many communities across America, our agricultural heritage is at risk. Productive farms and ranches that have been in the same family for generations are being forced to turn their back on the land they love in order to make ends meet.

I applaud our current conservation easement system and the many fine non-profit organizations that have worked with landowners across America to protect millions of acres of land. The successes have been great, but so too have the lessons.

What we have learned is that the current system does not work particularly well for working farmers and ranchers. That's why I've introduced the Rural Heritage Conservation Act, a creative approach that provides farmers and ranchers with a real incentive to preserve their, and our, agricultural heritage.

Over the past twenty-five years, over 3 million acres of agricultural land have been lost to development in Montana alone. Many of these acres were lost when family farms, hit hard by tough times, chose to give up their generations of old farming operations and sell to developers in order to pay their outstanding debts.

The measure proposed in this legislation will expand the current conservation easement tax incentive program with an eye toward making the system work better for the bulk of real, working farmers and ranchers who would like to preserve their land for future generations but for whom the current system does not provide any meaningful incentive.

Let me give you a real-life example that was presented by my good friend Jerry Townsend of Highwood Montana before the Senate Finance Committee's subcommittee on Tax and IRS oversight.

Mr. Townsend testified that when he gave a conservation easement to the Montana Land Reliance, the value of his deduction was $524,000. However, under current law, over the last five years he has only been able to save $1,858 in federal taxes. Not much of an incentive, particularly when you factor in the $2,500 he paid for the appraisal required to complete the conservation easement process.

The Rural Heritage Conservation Act will do three things.

First, it will create a targeted, limited tax credit for farm and ranch filers who donate a conservation easement to a qualified land trust. Mr. Townsend's example is all too familiar a story to farmers and ranchers throughout America. The relatively small deduction they can obtain under current law does not in any way equate to either the potential income they have forfeited or the value the public has gained from the donation. As a result, fewer and fewer farmers and ranchers are donating conservation easements and protecting their land for future generations.

To protect against abuse, the bill calls for a cap on the total tax credit available under the program and requires that a majority of the income for the qualifying filer be from farm and ranch operations.

Second, this legislation will level the playing field for all types of agricultural filers. Current law allows C-Corps to deduct up to 10 percent of their income compared to the 30% allowed for other business types including Limited Liability Companies, Sole Proprietorships and Limited Liability Partnerships.

According to figures presented by the Montana Land Reliance, there are some 40,000 acres of land in Montana alone owned by C-Corporations, in most cases family held, that have identified the 10 percent limit as a barrier to their contributing an easement.

Third, the bill would eliminate the current provision that limits additional estate tax relief to landowners only within a 25 mile radius of a metropolitan area.

As we have discussed at some length in this very chamber, estate tax is a significant issue for many Americans, including those who live in farm and ranch households. The current radius restriction works to the financial disadvantage of people who live in states with sparse populations.

Elimination of the radius will be a significant improvement to current law and will enable many rural families to pass along to future generations family farms and ranches that are so much a part of the very heart of America.

Protecting our agricultural heritage and the land that makes it possible is good public policy. I believe that the Agricultural Heritage Preservation Act is a creative, common sense approach to improving the current conservation easement program and making it work better to meet this important goal. I'm not claiming that this approach is the ''perfect'' approach, or the only way to accomplish our goals. But it's clear that the current system does not work effectively for small farmers and ranchers and we must do more. I hope that the introduction of this bill will initiate an informed, intelligent discussion of this important matter. We must find the best way to solve this problem that threatens the conservation of our agricultural lands and rural way of life.

I hope that as we consider other land conservation initiatives and other measures to make significant changes to the estate tax system, that the changes I'm proposing in the Rural Heritage Conservation Act will be a key part of the discussion.

By Mr. GRAMS:

S. 3138. A bill to amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to increase the amount and availability of the child tax credit and make the credit refundable; to the Committee on Finance.

HELPING AMERICAN FAMILIES

Mr. GRAMS. Mr. President, I will talk for a couple of minutes about one of the issues about which I am most passionate, and that is taxes, or the overtaxation of the American people in a time of surpluses, and the refusal of this Congress, this President, to even make an attempt to have meaningful tax cuts or meaningful tax relief before the end of this Congress.

In 1997, the Congress passed and the President signed into law my $500-per-child tax credit legislation. As a result, today about 40 million children in this country receive this tax credit every year, and it returns a total of about $20 billion a year in tax savings to families. That is money that families can use for savings for their children's education, for day care, for tutors, for braces, a new washer, dryer—anything—a family vacation. But it is what the family decides to spend their hard-earned money on, rather than waiting for a handout from Washington.

In fact, for the first time since the 1980s, this tax credit and other Republican-initiated tax cuts have reduced the tax burden for low- and middle-income families. I have heard many of my colleagues on the other side of the aisle bragging about how some people in the United States are paying less taxes today—and that is true—but it is mainly true because of the $500-per-child tax credit, nothing else that this administration or this Congress has done.

Despite this tax credit, the total tax burden is still way too high for working Americans. Today, let's look at an average two-income family. The median two-income family pays $26,759 in Federal, State, and local taxes. Let's compare this with back in 1992. Those taxes were $21,320 a year—a 26-percent increase in the tax burden for average families in just the last 8 years of the Clinton administration. That is according to the Nonpartisan Tax Foundation. To date, $26,759; 8 years ago, $21,320.

That shows the increase in taxes to the median-income family—not the rich of this country. They are paying more in taxes, as well. But it is the average working family that is paying the brunt of the tax increases imposed by this administration. Again, that is according to the Nonpartisan Tax Foundation. Total taxes nationwide claim 39 percent of hard-earned income, and that is more than the typical family in this country pays for food, clothing, shelter, and transportation combined.

In the past few years, over 20 million Americans earning between $30,000 and $50,000 have been pushed from the 15-percent tax bracket into the 28-percent tax bracket due to our unfair tax system. They are paying almost twice as much for those incomes, pushed from the 15-percent to the 28-percent tax bracket. As low-income and minimum wage workers work harder and pay more, their payroll taxes also increase, taking a huge bite out of their hard-earned dollars—dollars that I believe are desperately needed to keep those families above the poverty line.

Taxes collected by the Federal Government have reached 20.6 percent of all national income. That is the highest level since World War II. The government takes one-fifth of every dollar produced in this country every year. In the next 10 years, working Americans will pay taxes that will contribute to an over $2.2 trillion non-Social Security surplus. This non-Social Security surplus will be $2.2 trillion and that is even after assuming government spending is increasing along with the level and rate of inflation. This non-Social Security surplus comes from increased personal taxes and the realization of our capital gains taxes.

I believe this money should be returned to working Americans in the form of some tax relief, debt reduction, and also Social Security reform. Yes, overtaxed American families still need tax relief today. I believe using some of the non-Social Security surplus to expand the $500-per-child tax credit is one of the right things to do because Washington, again, is taking more taxes from American families at a time when it doesn't need the money as bad as families do.

I have repeatedly argued in this Chamber that the family has been and will continue to be the bedrock of our society. Strong families make strong communities, strong communities make for a strong America, and our tax policies should strengthen families and should be there to reestablish the value of families.

Between 1960 and 1985, Federal taxes on American families increased significantly. For families with 4 children, the Federal income tax rate increased 223 percent; for families with two children the rate increased 43 percent. The inflation-adjusted median income for families with children also decreased between 1973 and 1994. So its income was going down and taxes were still going up.

While the 1997 Taxpayer Relief Act, which included my $500-per-child tax credit, has helped to change this situation, there is still room for improvement, a lot of room for a lot of improvement. For example, combined with the dependent exemption, the tax benefits for families raising children still falls well below both the inflation-adjusted value of the original dependent exemption, and also the actual cost of raising children according to Minnesota's Children Defense Fund.

In addition, this child tax credit and the income threshold for families qualifying for credit are not indexed for inflation. As a result, the value of this child tax credit would also shrink in the future and fewer families would qualify for the credit.

That is why I am introducing tonight legislation aimed at expanding the tax credit. My legislation would increase the tax credit from $500 per child to $1,000, and it would be adjusted for inflation every year. It would also index the income threshold for families qualifying for this tax credit.

While I strongly support this increase as well as the marriage penalty repeal and getting rid of the death tax, the only way we will achieve meaningful tax relief is to reform our entire tax system completely. Even my legislation today, I look at as just an interim step toward this very essential goal of having a tax system that is simple, fair, and easy to understand.

With these proposed improvements we would allow overtaxed working families with children to keep a little bit more of their own money—give them the opportunity to spend it on their own priorities, not looking for a handout from Washington, not saying they need another program from Washington, not that they want another big government approach—but allowing them to keep some of their dollars so they can make the determination on how they want to spend their money, a little bit more of their own money, to spend on their own priorities. I urge my colleagues to support this legislation.

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. President, I say to Senator GRAMS, I think this is another insightful bit of tax relief policy you are promoting. I look forward to studying it. People think sometimes this is not possible. I don't think we stop to celebrate enough the wonderful thing that happened when, under your leadership and that of a lot of others who worked on it, we were able to provide a $500-per-child tax credit to working families in America. A mother with two children will now have, today, $1,000 more a year—nearly $80 a month with which they can buy shoes or fix the muffler on the car, take the kids on a trip or to a movie or out for a meal. It is the kind of thing that was really great. People said it could not be done and it was done.

I think these other proposals the Senator makes are realistic and also can be done.

We need to continue to work at this. The question is whether the American people are going to be able to keep this money or are we going to allow more and more to come to Washington as it grows more and more powerful and the power and wealth and independence of American citizens grows weaker and weaker.

Mr. GRAMS. The Senator from Alabama is right. If we look at it, at a time of overtaxation, when American workers are getting up every morning, working hard, and sending this money to Washington, and then it is overtaxed—we are not talking about cutting taxes at all. We are talking right now about returning some of the surplus to make sure those people who worked hard and produced this windfall get it back.

We tell our children: If you find a wallet on the street with $1,000 dollars in it, the first thing you should do is try to return it to the owner. Make sure you give the money back. Washington has found a wallet with $2.2 trillion in it, and they won't give it back. They are trying to find a way to spend it. I think our hard-working families deserve some tax credit along with debt reduction and securing Social Security, rather than leaving it for the big spenders in Washington to decide how they want to divvy up and dole out their money.

Mr. SESSIONS. I think my colleague also makes an excellent point about this percentage of the total gross domestic product. People say we cannot afford a tax cut, but we have reached record levels of a total gross domestic product that is being taken by the Government. These suggestions the Senator makes are worthwhile. We need to be working on that and the marriage penalty and the estate tax and a lot of other things around here which we can afford. I thank my colleague.

Mr. GRAMS. I thank the Senator from Alabama for his support.

Mr. MCCONNELL (for himself and Mr. BUNNING):

S. 3140. A bill to transfer administrative jurisdiction over land of the Tennessee Valley Authority within the Daniel Boone National Forest to the Secretary of Agriculture and compensate the Authority for the transfer; to the Committee on Environment and Public Works.

KENTUCKY NATIONAL FOREST LAND TRANSFER ACT OF 2000

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I rise today to introduce the Kentucky National Forest Land Transfer Act of 2000. The purpose of this legislation is to provide an equitable solution to a problem that exists in Kentucky—specifically, to allow the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) to donate mineral rights, which it owns, to the Forest Service in exchange for compensation through the sale of other mineral rights in the Federal land inventory.

Mr. President, I would like to take a moment to give my colleagues some background on this issue and why this is necessary. During the 1960's, TVA purchased coal mineral rights on land that was later designated as the Daniel Boone National Forest. Today, TVA owns 40,000 acres of mineral rights under the forest.

This past July, TVA announced that it no longer had a need for these extensive mineral rights, and announced that after a 15-day comment period, it intended to auction the rights to a coal operator to mine the land. In TVA's view, this was a way to get much needed funds to pay down the $26 billion debt which they have amassed over the years. Since TVA originally had purchased the land with ratepayer funds, they were unwilling simply to donate the land, and consequently defended their proposal to auction off their rights to a coal operator by arguing that they currently have the ability to mine the land since they owned the mineral rights before the forest was created.

As you can imagine, Mr. President, this proposal hit a nerve with Kentuckians, who were quick to express their outrage at the proposition that TVA could allow mining in the Daniel Boone National Forest. The Courier-Journal, in an editorial published on August 7, 2000, wrote that TVA's proposal was a ''rush to judgment'' that failed to take the public interest into consideration. The editorial went on to say that ''the best outcome, obviously, would be for the U.S. Forest Service to control the mineral rights under the acreage that it manages. And if there are legal problems to overcome in arranging that, the auction should be held up until Congress can remove them.'' Mr. President, that is essentially what my legislation will achieve. I would like to submit the editorial for the RECORD.

Well, Mr. President, both Congress and TVA responded to the public outcry. First, Senator BUNNING offered an amendment to the Energy and Water Appropriations bill requiring TVA to conduct an Environmental Impact Study (EIS) before it could move forward on its proposal to auction off mineral rights. In response to that, a week later, TVA withdrew its auction plan, citing its concern that the proposal had sent the wrong signals. Despite these developments, the interested parties continued to press their case for transferring the mineral rights to the Forest Service, and again, I say, Mr. President, that is exactly what my bill will do.

My bill is a compromise solution that will protect the forest and protect TVA's ratepayers, by compensating TVA. This legislation is narrowly crafted to require TVA to donate the mineral rights under the Daniel Boone to the Forest Service in exchange for the right to sell other mineral rights owned by the Interior Department. Under this agreement, TVA will receive fair market value from the sale, which it can then use to reduce its burgeoning debt.

My bill has the support of TVA and the Forest Service, and is necessary in order to implement the compromise which we have worked to achieve. This solution is based on the Mt. St. Helens National Volcanic Monument Completion Act (P.L. 105–279), which allowed for the acquisition of private mineral rights within the Monument through a swap. That legislation passed the Senate by unanimous consent. It is my hope that my colleagues will recognize the merits of my legislation and pass it with similar support.

Mr. President, we are in the waning days of the 106th Congress and time is running out to implement this carefully crafted solution, which is in the best interest of Kentucky's citizens and TVA's ratepayers. This is a win-win proposition and I urge the Senate to expeditiously consider and pass this important legislation. Mr. President, I yield the floor.

I ask unanimous consent that a copy of the bill and an editorial be printed in the RECORD.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

TVA'S PROPOSAL TO AUCTION BOONE FOREST MINERAL RIGHTS STINKS

The period for comment on the Tennessee Valley Authority's auction of more than 40,000 acres in mineral rights under Eastern Kentucky's Daniel Boone National Forest has just closed. But for what it's worth, we'll comment anyway: It stinks.

Talk about a rush to judgment. Comment was shut off just 15 days after TVA revealed its plan to sell.

Given that it's at least a quasi-public entity, TVA certainly ought to keep the broad public interest in mind when it makes major business decisions. TVA should be able to say what public good will result from selling these mineral rights to the highest bidder, as if they were some tax evader's living room furniture being auctioned on the courthouse steps.

TVA environmental engineer Steve Hillenbrand defends the sellout (and we do mean to invoke the word ''sellout'' in both its meanings, the ordinary and the pejorative) by saying the agency needs money. But on that basis just about any outrage could be rationalized. Obviously there needs to be some better justification.

Hillenbrand also said TVA wants out because these mineral deposits are not in the Tennessee Valley.

Odd. The distance between Eastern Kentucky's coalfields and the utility's service area never discouraged TVA's interest, or its coal buyers, before. Indeed, for decades the Kentucky River coalfield was stripped and augered, its watersheds compromised, its resources depleted, its people victimized, for coal to feed the power plants of TVA.

The story of coal barons and their work in Appalachia, on behalf of TVA, would make a great book, if Upton Sinclair or Ida Tarbell were still around to write it.

How can TVA simply turn its back on that history and depart, with the proceeds of its auction?

One newspaper story about the auction said TVA wants at least $3.5 million, and will sell only to those who agree not to strip mine. But the legalities are unclear, and protection for all the national forest land against stripping is not a sure thing. Nor would such a restriction address the potential impact of deep mining or oil-and-gas exploration, which could be devastating.

The best outcome, obviously, would be for the U.S. Forest Service to control the mineral rights under the acreage that it manages. And if there are legal problems to overcome in arranging that, the auction should be held up until Congress can remove them.

Selling mineral rights to the highest bidder is not a responsible policy. The National Citizens' Coal Law Project is right to oppose it, right to call for a full Environmental Impact Statement on the plan instead of some half-baked assessment, and right to urge that, if all else fails, only those with exemplary mining and reclamation records be allowed to bid.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION 140—EXPRESSING THE SENSE OF CONGRESS REGARDING HIGH-LEVEL VISITS BY TAIWANESE OFFICIALS TO THE UNITED STATES

Mr. LOTT (for himself, Mr. HELMS, Mr. MURKOWSKI, Mr. KYL, Mrs. HUTCHISON, Mr. SMITH of New Hampshire, Mr. BENNETT, and Mr. HUTCHINSON); submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs:

S. CON. RES. 140

Whereas Taiwan is the seventh largest trading partner of the United States and plays an important role in the economy of the Asia-Pacific region;

Whereas Taiwan routinely holds free and fair elections in a multiparty system, as evidenced most recently by Taiwan's second democratic presidential election of March 18, 2000, in which Mr. Chen Shui-bian was elected as president of the 23,000,000 people of Taiwan;

Whereas Members of Congress, unlike executive branch officials, have long had the freedom to meet with leaders of governments with which the United States does not have formal relations—meetings which provide a vital opportunity to discuss issues of mutual concern that directly affect United States national interests;

Whereas several Members of Congress expressed interest in meeting with President Chen Shui-bian during his 16-hour layover in Los Angeles, California, en route to Latin America and Africa on August 13, 2000;

Whereas the meeting with President Chen did not take place because of pressure from Washington and Beijing;

Whereas Congress thereby lost the opportunity to communicate directly with President Chen about developments in the Asia-Pacific region and key elements of the relationship between the United States and Taiwan when he visited Los Angeles;

Whereas there could not be a more important time to find opportunities to talk to Taiwan's new leaders given the enormous economic, security, and political interests we share with both Taiwan and the People's Republic of China, as well as the results of the recent election in Taiwan which provided for the first party leadership change in Taiwan's history;

Whereas Congress must continue to play an independent oversight role on United States policy toward Taiwan, and try to find ways to reduce the threat of war between Taiwan and the People's Republic of China, and in particular, to counteract China's buildup of missiles pointed at Taiwan;

Whereas the United States continues to cling to its policy of more than 20 years, which prohibits high-ranking Taiwan leaders from making official visits to the United States, forcing Members of Congress to choose whether to rely solely upon indirect assessments provided by the administration or to travel to Taiwan to obtain this information firsthand, and denying Taiwan's democratically elected officials the respect they deserve;

Whereas by bestowing upon President Chen the respect his office deserves, the United States would have demonstrated to the people of both Taiwan and the People's Republic of China United States support for democracy; and

Whereas the Immigration and Nationality Technical Corrections Act of 1994 (Public Law 103–416) provides that the President of Taiwan shall be welcome in the United States at any time to discuss a host of important issues: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That it is the sense of Congress that—

(1) it is in the interest of Congress and the executive branch of the United States to communicate directly with elected and appointed top officials of Taiwan, including its democratically elected president; and

(2) the United States should end restrictions on high-level visits by officials of Taiwan to the United States.

SENATE RESOLUTION 362—RECOGNIZING AND HONORING ROBERTO CLEMENTE AS A GREAT HUMANITARIAN AND AN ATHLETE OF UNFANTHOMABLE SKILL

Mr. SANTORUM (for himself and Mr. SPECTER) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary:

S. RES. 362

Whereas Roberto Clemente's athletic legacy has been honored by the City of Pittsburgh with a 14 foot bronze statue and the naming of a bridge over the Allegheny River located just outside the centerfield gate of the new baseball stadium in Pittsburgh;

Whereas Roberto Clemente led the Pittsburgh Pirates to World Championship titles in 1960 and 1971, winning the Series Most Valuable Player Award in 1971 when he batted .414 with two home runs against Baltimore;

Whereas during his 18 year career with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Roberto Clemente won four National League batting crowns, the 1966 National League Most Valuable Player award, and ended his career with a .317 lifetime average, 240 homers, and 1,305 runs batted in;

Whereas on September 30, 1972, Roberto Clemente became the 11th Major League Baseball player to record 3,000 hits with a 4th inning double off of New York Mets left hander Jon Matlack;

Whereas Roberto Clemente was one of the first Latin American baseball players in the Major Leagues, and as such he faced language barriers and racial segregation throughout his career;

Whereas Roberto Clemente worked tirelessly to improve professional baseball's understanding of the unique challenges faced by young Latin American baseball players thrust into a new culture and language;

Whereas in August of 1973, Roberto Clemente became just the second player to have the mandatory five-year waiting period waived as he was inducted posthumously into the National Baseball Hall of Fame;

Whereas in 1984, Roberto Clemente became the second baseball player to be honored for his athletic and philanthropic achievements with an appearance on a United States postage stamp;

Whereas Roberto Clemente devoted himself to improving the lives of inner city youth in Puerto Rico and throughout the United States, putting into action his belief that sport could be a stepping stone to a better life for underprivileged youth;

Whereas Roberto Clemente tragically died in an airplane crash on December 31, 1972 as he accompanied relief supplies to Nicaragua to aid the victims of the devastating 1972 Managua earthquake;

Whereas Roberto Clement's humanitarian legacy continues to this day, embodied by the Roberto Clemente Sports City in Puerto Rico, which creates an environment for the development of the human spirit though sport, and promotes community, education, and awareness of human rights: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) Roberto Clemente was a great humanitarian and an athlete of unfathomable skill;

(2) Roberto Clemente should be honored for his contributions to the betterment of society; and,

(3) all Americans should honor Roberto Clemente's legacy every day through humanitarian and philanthropic efforts toward their fellow man.

Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, as the last baseball games are about to be played in Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium, a stadium referred to as the ''House that Clemente Build,'' I am reminded of Roberto Clemente, one of the greatest athletes and humanitarians of all time. Every baseball fan can recite Roberto's achievements during his professional career as a Pittsburgh Pirate—from hitting a remarkable .317 over 18 seasons and collecting 3,000 hits, to his 12 Gold Glove awards and 12 National League All Star Game appearances. However, it was his philanthropic gestures which truly represent Roberto Clemente's invaluable legacy.

As many people know, Roberto Clemente died tragically on December 31, 1972, after he and four others boarded a small DC–7 to deliver food, clothing and medicine to Nicaragua, to aid victims of a devastating earthquake. The four-engine plane, with a questionable past and an overload of cargo, crashed into the Atlantic Ocean, killing all aboard. What is not well known is that, upon hearing rumors that Nicaraguan government officials were delaying the delivery of relief supplies, Roberto Clemente left his New Year's celebration with family and friends to travel to Nicaragua in order to personally oversee the delivery of the Puerto Rican relief supplies to the individuals devastated by the Managua earthquake. On that fateful New Year's Eve night in 1972, the world lost not just a great athlete, arguably the greatest in the history of the Pittsburgh Pirates, but a humanitarian, a cultural icon, and a hero.

Mr. President, over the years, Roberto Clemente's dedication to his fellow man became legendary. As one of the first Latin America baseball players in the Major Leagues, Roberto Clemente faced language barriers and racial segregation throughout his career. He worked tirelessly to improve professional baseball's understanding of the unique challenges faced by young Latin American ballplayers thrust into a new culture and language as they start their baseball careers.

However, his concern for is fellow man did not stop at the foul lines. throughout his career, Roberto Clemente expressed his concern for the troubled lives faced by urban youth both in the United States and Puerto Rico. In a 1966 interview with Myron Cope for ''Sports Illustrated,'' Roberto Clemente discussed his desire to help youth by stoking their interest in sports. Roberto Clemente believed that sports could bring families together in an athletic setting while providing a stage for youngsters to excel. In what would be the final months of his life, Roberto Clemente conducted a series of baseball clinics for Puerto Rican youth in addition to fundraising efforts for a large sports facility dedicated to the youth of the world.

Mr. President, Robert Clemente's humanitarian legacy continues to this day with the Roberto Clemente Sports City in Puerto Rico. Established March 18, 1973, when the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico's government granted 304 acres of land for development, the Roberto Clemente Sports City commemorates Roberto Clemente's commitment of a better life for children through sports, education and community service by creating an environment for the development of the human spirit through sports, involving community, education and human rights. This sports facility provides high quality recreational and sports facilities for children, youth and the general public such as: baseball, volleyball, basketball, tennis, swimming, track and field, batting cages, a golf range, tae kwondo, camping and social and cultural activities. The Roberto Clemente Sports City provides Puerto Rico with learning and training facilities, to include tutoring, mentoring and professional development programs in sports and life.

As eloquently stated by Bowie Kuhn in his 1973 eulogy to Clemente, ''he made the world 'superstar' seem inadequate. He had about him the touch of royalty.'' With all of this in mind, Mr. President, I ask my colleagues to support the resolution I am offering with Senator SPECTER which urges our fellow Americans to honor Roberto Clemente's legacy every day through humanitarian and philanthropic efforts towards their fellow man.

Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be printed in the RECORD, immediately following my statement.

''(A) for which depreciation is allowable under section 167,

''(B) which is located in the United States, and

''(C) the construction or erection of which is completed by the taxpayer.

Such property includes all residential rental property, including low-rise multifamily structures and single family housing property which is not within the scope of Standard 90.1–1999 (described in paragraph (3)). Such term includes expenditures for labor costs properly allocable to the onsite preparation, assembly, or original installation of the property.

''(3) ENERGY EFFICIENT COMMERCIAL BUILDING PROPERTY.—For purposes of paragraph (2)—

''(A) IN GENERAL.—The term 'energy efficient commercial building property' means any property which reduces total annual energy and power costs with respect to the lighting, heating, cooling, ventilation, and hot water supply systems of the building by 50 percent or more in comparison to a reference building which meets the requirements of Standard 90.1–1999 of the American Society of Heating, Refrigerating, and Air Conditioning Engineers and the Illuminating Engineering Society of North America using methods of calculation under subparagraph (B) and certified by qualified professionals as provided under paragraph (6).

''(B) METHODS OF CALCULATION.—The Secretary, in consultation with the Secretary of Energy, shall promulgate regulations which describe in detail methods for calculating and verifying energy and power consumption and cost, taking into consideration the provisions of the 1998 California Nonresidential ACM Manual. These procedures shall meet the following requirements:

''(i) In calculating tradeoffs and energy performance, the regulations shall prescribe the costs per unit of energy and power, such as kilowatt hour, kilowatt, gallon of fuel oil, and cubic foot or Btu of natural gas, which may be dependent on time of usage.

''(ii) The calculational methodology shall require that compliance be demonstrated for a whole building. If some systems of the building, such as lighting, are designed later than other systems of the building, the method shall provide that either—

''(I) the expenses taken into account under paragraph (1) shall not occur until the date designs for all energy-using systems of the building are completed,

''(II) the energy performance of all systems and components not yet designed shall be assumed to comply minimally with the requirements of such Standard 90.1–1999, or

''(III) the expenses taken into account under paragraph (1) shall be a fraction of such expenses based on the performance of less than all energy-using systems in accordance with clause (iii)

''(iv) The calculational methods under this subparagraph need not comply fully with section 11 of such Standard 90.1–1999.

''(v) The calculational methods shall be fuel neutral, such that the same energy efficiency features shall qualify a building for the deduction under this subsection regardless of whether the hearing source is a gas or oil furnace or an electric heat pump.

''(III) which provides a notice form which summarizes the energy efficiency features of the building and its projected annual energy costs.

''(4) ALLOCATION OF DEDUCTION FOR PUBLIC PROPERTY.—In the case of energy efficiency commercial building property installed on or in public property, the Secretary shall promulgate a regulation to allow the allocation of the deduction to the person primarily responsible for designing the property in lieu of the public entity which is the owner of such property. Such person shall be treated as the tax payer for purposes of this subsection.

''(5) NOTICE TO OWNER.—The qualified individual shall provide an explanation to the owner of the building regarding the energy efficiency features of the building and its projected annual energy costs as provided in the notice under paragraph (3)(C)(ii)(III).

''(1) purchase, contract for, lease, or otherwise acquire, in whole or in part, storage and related facilities, and storage services'

''(2) use, lease, maintain, sell, or otherwise dispose of storage and related facilities acquired under this part;

''(3) acquire by purchase, exchange (including exchange of petroleum product from the Strategic Petroleum Reserve or received as royalty from Federal lands), lease, or otherwise, petroleum distillate for storage in the Northeast Home Heating Oil Reserve;

''(4) store petroleum distillate in facilities not owned by the United States; and

''(5) sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of petroleum distillate from the Reserve established under this part, including to maintain the quality or quantity of the petroleum distillate in the Reserve or to maintain the operational capability of the Reserve.

''CONDITIONS FOR RELEASE; PLAN

''SEC. 183. (a) FINDING.—The Secretary may sell product from the Reserve only upon a finding by the President that there is a severe energy supply interruption. Such a finding may be made only if he determines that—

''(1) a dislocation in the heating oil market has resulted from such interruption; or

''(2) a circumstance, other than that described in paragraph (1), exists that constitutes a regional supply shortage of significant scope and duration and that action taken under this section would assist directly and significantly in reducing the adverse impact of such shortage.

''(b) DEFINITION.—For purposes of this section a 'dislocation in the heating oil market' shall be deemed to occur only when—

''(1) The price differential between crude oil, as reflected in an industry daily publication such as 'Platt's Oilgram Price Report' or 'Oil Daily' and No. 2 heating oil, as reported in the Energy Information Administration's retail price data for the Northeast, increases by more than 60% over its five year rolling average for the months of mid-October through March, and continues for 7 consecutive days; and

''(1) The Secretary may—

''(A) sell petroleum distillate from the Reserve through a competitive process, or

''(B) enter into exchange agreements for the petroleum distillate that results in the Secretary receiving a greater volume of petroleum distillate as repayment than the volume provided to the acquirer;

''(2) In all such sales or exchanges, the Secretary shall receive revenue or its equivalent in petroleum distillate that provides the Department with fair market value. At no time may the oil be sold or exchanged resulting in a loss of revenue or value to the United States; and

''(3) The Secretary shall only sell or dispose of the oil in the Reserve to entities customarily engaged in the sale and distribution of petroleum distillate.

''(e) Within 45 days of the date of the enactment of this section, the Secretary shall transmit to the President and, if the President approves, to the Congress a plan describing—

''(1) the acquisition of storage and related facilities or storage services for the Reserve, including the potential use of storage facilities not currently in use;

''(2) the acquisition of petroleum distillate for storage in the Reserve;

''(3) the anticipated methods of disposition of petroleum distillate from the Reserve;

''(4) the estimated costs of establishment, maintenance, and operation of the Reserve;

''(6) actions to ensure quality of the petroleum distillate in the Reserve.

''NORTHEAST HOME HEATING OIL RESERVE ACCOUNT

''SEC. 184. (a) Upon a decision of the Secretary of Energy to establish a Reserve under this part, the Secretary of the Treasury shall establish in the Treasury of the United States an account known as the 'Northeast Home Heating Oil Reserve Account' (referred to in this section as the 'Account').

CLELAND AMENDMENTS NOS. 4260–4261

(Ordered to lie on the table.)

Mr. CLELAND submitted two amendments intended to be proposed by him to the bill, S. 2045, supra; as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 4260

At the end, add the following:

SEC. ___. IMMIGRANTS TO NEW AMERICANS MODEL PROGRAMS.

(a) SHORT TITLE.—This section may be cited as the ''Immigrants to New Americans Act''.

(b) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) In 1997, there were an estimated 25,800,000 foreign-born individuals residing in the United States. That number is the largest number of such foreign-born individuals ever in United States history and represents a 6,000,000, or 30 percent, increase over the 1990 census figure of 19,800,000 of such foreign-born individuals. The Bureau of the Census estimates that the recently arrived immigrant population (including the refugee population) currently residing in the Nation will account for 75 percent of the population growth in the United States over the next 50 years.

(2) For millions of immigrants settling into the Nation's hamlets, towns, and cities, the dream of ''life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness'' has become a reality. The wave of immigrants, from various nationalities, who have chosen the United States as their home, has positively influenced the Nation's image and relationship with other nations. The diverse cultural heritage of the Nation's immigrants has helped define the Nation's culture, customs, economy, and communities. By better understanding the people who have immigrated to the Nation, individuals in the United States better understand what it means to be an American.

(3) There is a critical shortage of teachers with the skills needed to educate immigrant students and their families in nonconcentrated, nontraditional, immigrant communities as well as communities with large immigrant populations. The large influx of immigrant families over the last decade presents a national dilemma: The number of such families with school-age children, requiring assistance to successfully participate in elementary schools, secondary schools, and communities in the United States, is increasing without a corresponding increase in the number of teachers with skills to accommodate their needs.

(4) Immigrants arriving in communities across the Nation generally settle into high-poverty areas, where funding for programs to provide immigrant students and their families with the services the students and families need to successfully participate in elementary schools, secondary schools, and communities in the United States is inadequate.

(5) The influx of immigrant families settling into many United States communities is often the result of concerted efforts by local employers who value immigrant labor. Those employers realize that helping immigrants to become productive, prosperous members of a community is beneficial for the local businesses involved, the immigrants, and the community. Further, local businesses benefit from the presence of the immigrant families because the families present businesses with a committed and effective workforce and help to open up new market opportunities. However, many of the communities into which the immigrants have settled need assistance in order to give immigrant students and their families the services the students and families need to successfully participate in elementary schools, secondary schools, and communities, in the United States.

(c) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this section is to establish a grant program, within the Department of Education, that provides funding to partnerships of local educational agencies and community-based organizations for the development of model programs to provide to immigrant students and their families the services the students and families need to successfully participate in elementary schools, secondary schools, and communities, in the United States.

AMENDMENT NO. 4261

At the end, add the following:

SEC. ___. IMMIGRANTS TO NEW AMERICANS MODEL PROGRAMS.

(a) SHORT TITLE.—This section may be cited as the ''Immigrants to New Americans Act''.

(b) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

(1) In 1997, there were an estimated 25,800,000 foreign-born individuals residing in the United States. That number is the largest number of such foreign-born individuals ever in United States history and represents a 6,000,000, or 30 percent, increase over the 1990 census figure of 19,800,000 of such foreign-born individuals. The Bureau of the Census estimates that the recently arrived immigrant population (including the refugee population) currently residing in the Nation will account for 75 percent of the population growth in the United States over the next 50 years.

(2) For millions of immigrants settling into the Nation's hamlets, towns, and cities, the dream of ''life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness'' has become a reality. The wave of immigrants, from various nationalities, who have chosen the United States as their home, has positively influenced the Nation's image and relationship with other nations. The diverse cultural heritage of the Nation's immigrants has helped define the Nation's culture, customs, economy, and communities. By better understanding the people who have immigrated to the Nation, individuals in the United States better understand what it means to be an American.

(3) There is a critical shortage of teachers with the skills needed to educate immigrant students and their families in nonconcentrated, nontraditional, immigrant communities as well as communities with large immigrant populations. The large influx of immigrant families over the last decade presents a national dilemma: The number of such families with school-age children, requiring assistance to successfully participate in elementary schools, secondary schools, and communities in the United States, is increasing without a corresponding increase in the number of teachers with skills to accommodate their needs.

(4) Immigrants arriving in communities across the Nation generally settle into high-poverty areas, where funding for programs to provide immigrant students and their families with the services the students and families need to successfully participate in elementary schools, secondary schools, and communities in the United States is inadequate.

(5) The influx of immigrant families settling into many United States communities is often the result of concerted efforts by local employers who value immigrant labor. Those employers realize that helping immigrants to become productive, prosperous members of a community is beneficial for the local businesses involved, the immigrants, and the community. Further, local businesses benefit from the presence of the immigrant families because the families present businesses with a committed and effective workforce and help to open up new market opportunities. However, many of the communities into which the immigrants have settled need assistance in order to give immigrant students and their families the services the students and families need to successfully participate in elementary schools, secondary schools, and communities, in the United States.

(c) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this section is to establish a grant program, within the Department of Education, that provides funding to partnerships of local educational agencies and community-based organizations for the development of model programs to provide to immigrant students and their families the services the students and families need to successfully participate in elementary schools, secondary schools, and communities, in the United States.

(d) DEFINITIONS.—

(1) IMMIGRANT.—In this section, the term ''immigrant'' has the meaning given the term in section 101 of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

FEINSTEIN AMENDMENTS NOS. 4265–4266

(Ordered to lie on the table.)

Mr. DASCHLE (for Mrs. FEINSTEIN) submitted two amendments intended to be proposed by her to the bill, S. 2045, supra; as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 4265

At the appropriate place, insert the following:

TITLE II—IMMIGRATION SERVICES AND INFRASTRUCTURE IMPROVEMENTS

SEC. 201. SHORT TITLE.

This title may be cited as the ''Immigration Services and Infrastructure Improvements Act of 2000''.

SEC. 202. CONGRESSIONAL FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following findings:

(1) Applications for naturalization have increased dramatically in recent years, outpacing the Immigration and Naturalization Service's ability to process them.

(2) The dramatic increase in applications for naturalization and the inability of the Immigration and Naturalization Service to deal with them adequately has resulted in an unacceptably large backlog in naturalization adjudications.

(3) The processing times in the Immigration and Naturalization Service's other immigration benefits have been unacceptably long. Applicants for family- and employment-based visas are waiting as long as 3 to 4 years to obtain a visa or an adjustment to lawful permanent resident status.

(4) In California, the delays in processing adjustment of status applications have averaged 52 months. In Texas, the delays have averaged 69 months. Residents of New York have had to wait up to 28 months; in Florida, 26 months; in Illinois, 37 months; in Oregon, 31 months; and in Arizona, 49 months. Most other States have experienced unacceptably long processing and adjudication delays.

(5) Applicants pay fees to have their applications adjudicated in a timely manner. These fees have increased dramatically in recent years without a commensurate increase in the capability of that Immigration and Naturalization Service to process and adjudicate these cases in an efficient manner.

(6) Processing these applications in a timely fashion is critical. Each 12-month delay in adjudicating an adjustment of status application requires the alien to file applications to extend employment authorization to work and advance parole documents to travel.

(7) The enormous delays in processing applications for families and businesses have had a negative impact on the reunification of spouses and minor children and the ability of law-abiding and contributing members of our communities to participate fully in the civic life of the United States.

(8) United States employers have also experienced debilitating delays in hiring employees who contribute to the economic growth of the United States. These delays have forced employers to send highly skilled and valued employees out of the United States because their immigrant petitions were not approved in a timely fashion. Such disruptions seriously threaten the competitive edge of the United States in the global marketplace.

(b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this title are to—

(1) provide the Immigration and Naturalization Service with the mechanisms it needs to eliminate the current backlog in the processing of immigration benefit applications within 1 year after enactment of this Act and to maintain the elimination of the backlog in future years; and

(2) provide for regular congressional oversight of the performance of the Immigration and Naturalization Service in eliminating the backlog and processing delays in immigration benefits adjudications.

(c) POLICY.—It is the sense of Congress that the processing of an immigration benefit application should be completed not later than 180 days after the initial filing of the application, except that a petition for a nonimmigrant visa under section 214(c) of the Immigration and Nationality Act should be processed not later than 30 days after the filing of the petition.

SEC. 203. DEFINITIONS.

In this title:

(1) BACKLOG.—The term ''backlog'' means, with respect to an immigration benefit application, the period of time in excess of 180 days that such application has been pending before the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

(2) IMMIGRATION BENEFIT APPLICATION.—The term ''immigration benefit application'' means any application or petition to confer, certify, change, adjust, or extend any status granted under the Immigration and Nationality Act.

SEC. 204. IMMIGRATION SERVICES AND INFRASTRUCTURE IMPROVEMENT ACCOUNT.

(a) AUTHORITY OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.—The Attorney General shall take such measures as may be necessary to—

(1) reduce the backlog in the processing of immigration benefit applications, with the objective of the total elimination of the backlog not later than one year after the date of enactment of this Act;

(2) make such other improvements in the processing of immigration benefit applications as may be necessary to ensure that a backlog does not develop after such date; and

(3) make such improvements in infrastructure as may be necessary to effectively provide immigration services.

(b) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—There is authorized to be appropriated to the Department of Justice from time to time such sums as may be necessary for the Attorney General to carry out subsection (a).

(2) DESIGNATION OF ACCOUNT IN TREASURY.—Amounts appropriated pursuant to paragraph (1) may be referred to as the ''Immigration Services and Infrastructure Improvements Account''.

(3) AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS.—Amounts appropriated pursuant to paragraph (1) are authorized to remain available until expended.

(4) LIMITATION ON EXPENDITURES.—None of the funds appropriated pursuant to paragraph (1) may be expended until the report described in section 205(a) has been submitted to Congress.

SEC. 205. REPORTS TO CONGRESS.

(1) REPORT REQUIRED.—Not later than 90 days after the date of enactment of this Act, the Attorney General shall submit a report to the Committees on the Judiciary and Appropriations of the Senate and the House of Representatives concerning—

(B) the Attorney General's plan for eliminating such backlogs.

(2) REPORT ELEMENTS.—The report shall include—

(i) a description of the adequacy of existing computer hardware, computer software, and other mechanisms to comply with the adjudications and reporting requirements of this title; and

AMENDMENT NO. 4266

At the appropriate place, insert the following:

TITLE II—IMMIGRATION SERVICES AND INFRASTRUCTURE IMPROVEMENTS

SEC. 201. SHORT TITLE.

This title may be cited as the ''Immigration Services and Infrastructure Improvements Act of 2000''.

SEC. 202. CONGRESSIONAL FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following findings:

(1) Applications for naturalization have increased dramatically in recent years, outpacing the Immigration and Naturalization Service's ability to process them.

(2) The dramatic increase in applications for naturalization and the inability of the Immigration and Naturalization Service to deal with them adequately has resulted in an unacceptably large backlog in naturalization adjudications.

(3) The processing times in the Immigration and Naturalization Service's other immigration benefits have been unacceptably long. Applicants for family- and employment-based visas are waiting as long as 3 to 4 years to obtain a visa or an adjustment to lawful permanent resident status.

(4) In California, the delays in processing adjustment of status applications have averaged 52 months. In Texas, the delays have averaged 69 months. Residents of New York have had to wait up to 28 months; in Florida, 26 months; in Illinois, 37 months; in Oregon, 31 months; and in Arizona, 49 months. Most other States have experienced unacceptably long processing and adjudication delays.

(5) Applicants pay fees to have their applications adjudicated in a timely manner. These fees have increased dramatically in recent years without a commensurate increase in the capability of that Immigration and Naturalization Service to process and adjudicate these cases in an efficient manner.

(6) Processing these applications in a timely fashion is critical. Each 12-month delay in adjudicating an adjustment of status application requires the alien to file applications to extend employment authorization to work and advance parole documents to travel.

(7) The enormous delays in processing applications for families and businesses have had a negative impact on the reunification of spouses and minor children and the ability of law-abiding and contributing members of our communities to participate fully in the civic life of the United States.

(8) United States employers have also experienced debilitating delays in hiring employees who contribute to the economic growth of the United States. These delays have forced employers to send highly skilled and valued employees out of the United States because their immigrant petitions were not approved in a timely fashion. Such disruptions seriously threaten the competitive edge of the United States in the global marketplace.

(b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this title are to—

(1) provide the Immigration and Naturalization Service with the mechanisms it needs to eliminate the current backlog in the processing of immigration benefit applications within 1 year after enactment of this Act and to maintain the elimination of the backlog in future years; and

(2) provide for regular congressional oversight of the performance of the Immigration and Naturalization Service in eliminating the backlog and processing delays in immigration benefits adjudications.

(c) POLICY.—It is the sense of Congress that the processing of an immigration benefit application should be completed not later than 180 days after the initial filing of the application, except that a petition for a nonimmigrant visa under section 214(c) of the Immigration and Nationality Act should be processed not later than 30 days after the filing of the petition.

SEC. 203. DEFINITIONS.

In this title:

(1) BACKLOG.—The term ''backlog'' means, with respect to an immigration benefit application, the period of time in excess of 180 days that such application has been pending before the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

(3) make such improvements in infrastructure as may be necessary to effectively provide immigration services.

(3) AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS.—Amounts appropriated pursuant to paragraph (1) are authorized to remain available until expended.

Mr. MCCAIN. Mr. President, I rise in support of S. 1534, the Coastal Zone Management Act of 2000. Originally passed in 1972, the Coastal Zone Management Act, CZMA, was intended to address increased population and development in coastal communities. The programs established under this law were designed to balance responsible development with the preservation of the coastal environment. With over half of the U.S. population living in coastal areas, such balance is more important than ever.

This bill reauthorizes the law through fiscal year 2004 and improves the framework of the CZMA—voluntary federal-state matching grant programs. S. 1534 also enhances the ability of coastal zone managers to meet the ever increasing demands of tourism, commercial growth, pollution and environmental protection. In fact, one of the most serious problems facing our coastal environment is the damage caused by polluted runoff, or nonpoint source pollution. Polluted runoff has contributed to human health problems, permanent environmental damage, and beach closures.

The legislation before us today will improve the ability of managers to address polluted runoff in a manner specifically tailored to each state's individual needs. The bill clarifies and confirms that matching federal grants may be used to address nonpoint source pollution under the CZMA. In addition, S. 1534 reauthorizes the coastal zone enhancement grant program and provides dedicated funding for the continued implementation of state coastal nonpoint source pollution plans. Previous provisions had limited the program to projects such as wetlands protection and restoration, protection from coastal hazards, and reduction of marine debris along the coast.

I urge my colleagues to support S. 1534. It is a strong, pro-environment bill, which will provide a series of improvements to the Coastal Zone Management Act. Most importantly, the bill allows local and state environmental problems to be addressed on a community-by-community basis. This bipartisan bill enjoys the strong support of the Coastal States Organization, which represents the governors of more than 30 states, and a coalition of environmental organizations.

I would like to thank Senator SNOWE, the sponsor of the legislation, and Senators KERRY and HOLLINGS for their bipartisan support of and hard work on this bill. I would also like to express my gratitude and that of the Commerce Committee to the staff who worked on this bill, including Sloan Rappoport, Stephanie Bailenson, Brooke Sikora, Rick Kenin and Margaret Spring. In particular I would like to thank Emily Lindow, a Sea Grant fellow, whose background and experience in coastal management issues helped produce a strong and reasonable CZMA bill. In addition, the Committee appreciates the efforts of Jena Carter, a former Sea Grant fellow, and Catherine Wannamaker, two former Committee staff who helped develop the legislation.

Again I urge the Senate to pass S. 1534, the Coastal Zone Management Act of 2000.

Mr. HOLLINGS. Mr. President, I rise to voice my support in passing S. 1534, a bill to reauthorize the Coastal Zone Management Act for fiscal years 2000 through 2004, which the Commerce Committee reported out favorably this session. First, I would like to commend Senators SNOWE and KERRY for their leadership on this very important reauthorization.

In 1969, the Commission on Marine Science, Engineering and Resources (the Stratton Commission) recommended that: ''. . . a Coastal Zone Management Act be enacted which will provide policy objectives for the coastal zone and authorize federal grants-in-aid to facilitate the establishment of State Coastal Zone Authorities empowered to manage the coastal waters and adjacent land.''

In response to this recommendation, Congress, in 1972, enacted coastal zone management legislation to balance coastal development and preservation needs. To encourage state participation, the CZMA established a voluntary, two-stage, state assistance program. The first stage, awarded ''section 305'' grants to coastal states for development of coastal management programs meeting certain federal requirements. State programs which were judged by the Secretary of Commerce to meet those requirements received Federal approval and became eligible for the second stage of grants. This second stage, under section 306, provides ongoing assistance for states to implement their federally-approved coastal programs. All grants require equal matching funds from the state. Since passage of the CZMA, all 34 eligible states and territories have participated in the program to some degree. Currently, 34 of the 35 eligible coastal states and territories have Federally approved plans. The approved plans include more than 100,000 miles of coastline, which represents nearly all of the national total covered by the Act. The Ohio, Georgia, and Texas, and Minnesota state CZMA programs all received federal approval within the past three years. Of the eligible states, only Illinois is not participating.

Let me note that the nature and structure of CZM programs vary widely from state to state. This diversity was intended by Congress. Some states, like North Carolina, passed comprehensive legislation as a framework for coastal management. Other states, like Oregon, used existing land use legislation as the foundation for their federally-approved programs. Finally, states like Florida and Massachusetts networked existing, single-purpose laws into a comprehensive umbrella for coastal management. The national program, therefore, is founded in the authorities and powers of the coastal states and local governments. Through the CZMA, these collective authorities are orchestrated to serve the ''national interest in effective management, beneficial use, protection, and development of the coastal zone.'' This 28 year program is a success story of how the local, state and federal government can work together for the benefit of all who enjoy and rely on our coastal resources.

I am pleased to report that S. 1534 reauthorizes and strengthens a program that works well. It provides total authorizations of over $136 million, and adds a new Coastal Community Grant Program under section 309A for states that want to focus on coastal community-based initiatives. This provision is aimed at addressing the need for Federal and state support of community-based planning, strategies, and solutions for local sprawl and development issues in the coastal zone. In addition, it strengthens and provides increased authorizations for the National Estuarine Research Reserve System, natural labs operated by the states that support management-oriented research needed by coastal resource managers, as well as educational and interpretive programs to improve public awareness and understanding of the coastal environment.

While the CZMA has proven greatly successful, the world has changed since 1972. Today, over half of the U.S. population lives within 50 miles of our shores—and more than 3,000 people move to the coast every day. In addition, more than 30 percent of the Gross Domestic Product is generated in the coastal zone. In my state of South Carolina, our beaches now attract millions of visitors every year, all year long, placing greater demands on our coastal resources than every before. And more and more people are choosing to move to the coast—making the coastal counties the fastest growing ones in the state. With population growth comes the demand for highways, shopping centers, schools, and sewers that permanently alter the landscape. If people are to continue to live and work on the coast, we must allow our states to do a better job of planning how we impact the very regions in which we all want to live.

Strengthening the CZMA is one important step in addressing these problems. These changes also call for another look at our overall ocean and coastal policy, which is why Congress this year enacted the Oceans Act of 2000, with the strong bipartisan support, including that of Senators SNOWE, KERRY, STEVENS and BREAUX. Through reauthorization and strengthening of the CZMA and creation of a new Ocean Policy Commission called for in the Oceans Act, we are on track in the year 2000 to continue and improve upon the good work started by the Stratton Commission in 1969.

Ms. SNOWE. Mr. President, I rise in support of S. 1534, the Coastal Zone Management Act of 2000. This bill reauthorizes and makes a number of important improvements to the Coastal Zone Management Act. Under the authorities in this Act, coastal states can choose to participate in the voluntary federal Coastal Zone Management Program. States design individual coastal zone management programs, taking their specific needs and problems into account, and then receive federal matching funds to help carry out their program plans. State coastal zone programs manage issues ranging from public access to beaches, protecting habitat, to coordinating permits for coastal development.

The Coastal Zone Management Act was originally enacted by Congress in 1972, in response to concerns over the increasing demands being placed on our nation's coastal regions and resources. These pressures have increased greatly since the Act was originally authorized. Although the coastal zone only comprises 10 percent of the contiguous U.S. land area, it is home to more than 53 percent of the U.S. population, and more than 3,600 people are relocating there annually. It is also an extremely important region economically, supporting commercial and recreational fishing, a booming coastal tourism industry, major commercial shipping, and a variety of other coastal industries.

The coastal zone is comprised of a number of delicate and extremely important ecosystems. Its health is of vital importance not only to the multitude of plants and animals that inhabit this area, but also the people and communities that are dependent on it for their livelihood. For example, coastal estuaries provide habitat for more than 75 percent of the U.S. commercial and 85 percent of the U.S. recreational fisheries. In turn, the commercial fishing industry, with value-added services included, contributes $40 billion to the U.S. economy each year. Recreational fishing added another $25 billion to the economy. Unfortunately, these major economic contributions are being threatened by environmental problems such as non-point source pollution.

Non-point source pollution is degrading the condition of our coastal rivers, wetlands, and marine environments. Although the states are currently taking action to address this problem under existing authority, the Coastal Zone Management Act of 2000 encourages them to take additional steps to combat the problem through the Coastal Community Program. This initiative provides states with the funding and flexibility needed to deal with their specific non-point source pollution problems. The states will have the ability to implement local solutions to local problems.

The Coastal Community Program in this bill also aides states in developing and implementing creative initiatives to deal with problems other than non-point solution. It increases federal and state support of local community-based programs that address coastal environmental issues, such as the impact of development and sprawl on coastal uses and resources. This type of bottom-up management approach is critical. It allows communities to design their own solutions to their unique coastal environmental problems. The program also allows communities to be proactive in protecting their coastal resources, preventing them from reaching a point where drastic action may become necessary.

The Coastal Zone Management Act of 2000 significantly increases authorization levels for the Coastal Zone Management Program, allowing states to better address their coastal management plan goals. The bill authorizes $135.5 million for fiscal year 2001 and increases the authorization levels by $5.5 million each year through fiscal year 2004.

To provide further flexibility, the bill allows state matching funds to accrue in aggregate, as opposed to requiring the states to match each section individually. In my own state of Maine, our Coastal Zone Management Program raises an average of seven dollars in state matching funds for every single federal dollar appropriated. Unfortunately, not all states have been as successful. The new aggregate match provision will give coastal states more leeway to address important state and community projects.

Additionally, the Coastal Zone Management Act of 2000 increases authorization for the National Estuarine Research Reserve System (NERRS) to $12 million in fiscal year 2001 with an additional $1 million increase each year through fiscal year 2004. The NERRS is a network of reserves across the country that are operated as a cooperative federal-state partnership. Currently, there are 25 reserves in 22 states. They provide an important opportunity for long-term research and education in estuarine ecosystems. Additional funds will help strengthen this nationwide program which has not received increased funding commensurate with the addition of new reserves.

I would like to address a very serious problem facing the Coastal Zone Management Program that we have tried to rectify in this bill. The Administrative Grant section, section 306, serves as the base funding mechanism for the states' coastal zone management programs. The amount of funding each state receives is determined by a formula that takes into account both the length of coastline and the population of each state. However, since 1992, the Appropriations Committee has imposed a two million dollar cap per state on Administrative Grants. This was an attempt to ensure equitable allocation to all the participating states. However, over the past eight years, appropriations for Administrative Grants have increased by $19 million, yet the $2 million cap has remained. The result has been an inequitable distribution of these new funds. In fiscal year 2000, 13 states had reached this arbitrary $2 million cap. These 13 states account for 83 percent of our Nation's coastline and 76 percent of our coastal population.

It is not equitable to have the 13 states with the largest coastlines and populations stuck at a two million dollar cap, despite major overall funding increases. While smaller states have enjoyed additional programmatic success due to an influx of funding, some of the larger states have stagnated. In an attempt to reassure members of the Appropriations Committee that a fair distribution of funds can occur without this hard cap in place, I have worked with Senator HOLLINGS to develop language that has been included in this bill that directs the Secretary of Commerce to ensure equitable increases or decreases between funding years for each state. It further requires that states should not experience a decrease in base program funds in any year when the overall appropriations increase. I would like to thank Senator HOLLINGS for his assistance in resolving this matter and his commitment over the years to ensuring that the states be treated fairly.

The Coastal Zone Management Act enjoys wide support among all of the coastal states due to its history of success. This support has been clearly demonstrated by the many members of the Commerce Committee who have worked with me to strengthen this program. I would like to thank Senator KERRY, the ranking member of the Oceans and Fisheries Subcommittee for his hard work and support of this bill. I would also like to express my appreciation to Senator MCCAIN, a cosponsor of the bill and the Chairman of the Commerce Committee, and Senator HOLLINGS, the ranking member of the Committee, for their bipartisan support of this measure. I urge the Senate to pass S. 1534, as amended.

VESSEL WORKER TAX FAIRNESS ACT

Mr. GRAMS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate now proceed to the consideration of Calendar No. 830, S. 893.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the bill by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (S. 893) to amend title 46, United States Code, to provide equitable treatment with respect to State and local income taxes for certain individuals who perform duties on vessels.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the bill.

Mr. MCCAIN. Mr. President, today the Senate is considering S. 893, the Vessel Worker Tax Fairness Act. The bill will provide men and women working our nation's inland waterways the same treatment with respect to State and local income taxes as other men and women employed in interstate transportation of commerce receive. This measure was passed unanimously out of the Senate Commerce Committee on June 15 of this year.

S. 893 declares individuals engaged on a vessel to perform assigned duties in more than one State to be exempt from income taxation laws of States or political subdivisions of which that individual is not a resident.

While the Interstate Commerce Act exempts truck drivers, airline pilots, and railroad employees from being taxed by state and local jurisdictions in which they do not reside, it does not recognize merchant mariners who operate vessels in more than one state. It is time we correct this oversight and afford merchant mariners the same tax treatment similar transport operators are provided due to the interstate nature of their business.

By passing this measure today, we will be providing much needed relief to merchant mariners. Under existing law, water transportation workers, including marine pilots, tow and tugboat workers and others who work aboard vessels are often subjected to filing and tax requirements by states other than their state of residence leading to possible double taxation. I do not believe that double taxation is what Congress intended for any transportation worker when it crafted the Interstate Commerce Act. By passing S. 893 today, we can make that intent reality.

I thank Senator GORTON for his efforts in bringing this bill forward. I hope my colleagues will join us in supporting passage of this legislation so we can move it on to the President for his signature.

Mr. GORTON. Mr. President, I am glad that the U.S. Senate is finally passing the Transportation Worker Tax Fairness Act. This bi-partisan legislation, which I introduced with Senator MURRAY, will ensure that transportation workers who toil away on our nation's waterways receive the same tax treatment afforded their peers who work on the nation's highways, railroads, or navigate the skies.

Truck drivers, railroad personnel, and airline personnel are currently covered by the Interstate Commerce Act, which exempts their income from double taxation. Water carriers, who work on tugboats or ships, were not included in the original legislation. This treatment is patently unfair. The Transportation Worker Tax Fairness Act will rectify this situation by extending the same tax treatment to personnel who work on the navigable waters of more than one state.

Mr. President, this legislation will have no impact on the federal treasury. This measure simply allows those who work our navigable waterways protection from double taxation.

This matter came to my attention through a series of constituent letters from Columbia River tug boat operators who are currently facing taxation from Oregon as well as Washington state. I am committed to securing this relief for my constituents, as well as hard working tug boat operators across the nation, before the end of the 106th Congress.

Mr. GRAMS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent the bill be read the third time and passed, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, and that any statements relating to the bill be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The bill (S. 893) was read the third time and passed, as follows:

S. 893

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. AMENDMENT OF CHAPTER 111 OF TITLE 46, UNITED STATES CODE.

Section 11108 of title 46, United States Code, is amended—

(2) by adding at the end the following:

''(b) LIABILITY.—

''(2) APPLICATION.—This subsection applies to an individual—

''(A) engaged on a vessel to perform assigned duties in more than one State as a pilot licensed under section 7101 of this title or licensed or authorized under the laws of a State; or

''(B) who performs regularly-assigned duties while engaged as a master, officer, or crewman on a vessel operating on the navigable waters of more than one State.''.

Mr. GRAMS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate agree to the amendment of the House.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

FEDERAL JUDICIARY PROTECTION ACT OF 1999

Mr. GRAMS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate now proceed to the consideration of Calendar No. 731, S. 113.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the bill by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A bill (S. 113) to increase the criminal penalties for assaulting or threatening Federal judges, their family members, and other public servants, and for other purposes.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the bill.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, I am pleased to see the Federal Judiciary Protection Act finally being acted on by the Senate today. In the last Congress, I was pleased to cosponsor nearly identical legislation introduced by Senator Gordon SMITH, which unanimously passed the Senate Judiciary Committee and the Senate but was not acted upon by the House of Representatives. I commend the Senator from Oregon for his continued leadership in protecting our Federal judiciary.

Our bipartisan legislation would provide greater protection to Federal judges, law enforcement officers and their families. Specifically, our legislation would: increase the maximum prison term for forcible assaults, resistance, opposition, intimidation or interference with a Federal judge or law enforcement officer from 3 years imprisonment to 8 years; increase the maximum prison term for use of a deadly weapon or infliction of bodily injury against a Federal judge or law enforcement officer from 10 years imprisonment to 20 years; and increase the maximum prison term for threatening murder or kidnaping of a member of the immediate family of a Federal judge or law enforcement officer from 5 years imprisonment to 10 years. It has the support of the Department of Justice, the United States Judicial Conference, the United States Sentencing Commission and the United States Marshal Service.

It is most troubling that the greatest democracy in the world needs this legislation to protect the hard working men and women who serve in our Federal judiciary and other law enforcement agencies. But, unfortunately, we are seeing more violence and threats of violence against officials of our Federal government.

For example, a courtroom in Urbana, Illinois was firebombed last year, apparently by a disgruntled litigant. This follows the horrible tragedy of the bombing of the federal office building in Oklahoma City in 1995. In my home state during the summer of 1997, a Vermont border patrol officer, John Pfeiffer, was seriously wounded by Carl Drega, during a shootout with Vermont and New Hampshire law enforcement officers in which Drega lost his life. Earlier that day, Drega shot and killed two state troopers and a local judge in New Hampshire. Apparently, Drega was bent on settling a grudge against the judge who had ruled against him in a land dispute.

I had a chance to visit John Pfeiffer in the hospital and met his wife and young daughter. Thankfully, Agent Pfeiffer has returned to work along the Vermont border. As a federal law enforcement officer, Agent Pfeiffer and his family will receive greater protection under our bill.

There is, of course, no excuse or justification for someone taking the law into their own hands and attacking or threatening a judge or law enforcement officer. Still, the U.S. Marshal Service is concerned with more and more threats of harm to our judges and law enforcement officers.

The extreme rhetoric that some have used in the past to attack the judiciary only feeds into this hysteria. For example, one of the Republican leaders in the House of Representatives has been quoted as saying: ''The judges need to be intimidated,'' and if they do not behave, ''we're going to go after them in a big way.'' I know that this official did not intend to encourage violence against any Federal official, but this extreme rhetoric only serves to degrade Federal judges in the eyes of the public.

Let none of us in the Congress contribute to the atmosphere of hate and violence. Let us treat the judicial branch and those who serve within it with the respect that is essential to preserving its public standing.

We have the greatest judicial system in the world, the envy of people around the globe who are struggling for freedom. It is the independence of our third, co-equal branch of government that gives it the ability to act fairly and impartially. It is our judiciary that has for so long protected our fundamental rights and freedoms and served as a necessary check on overreaching by the other two branches, those more susceptible to the gusts of the political winds of the moment.

We are fortunate to have dedicated women and men throughout the Federal Judiciary and law enforcement in this country who do a tremendous job under difficult circumstances. They are examples of the hard-working public servants that make up the federal government, who are too often maligned and unfairly disparaged. It is unfortunate that it takes acts or threats of violence to put a human face on the Federal Judiciary and other law enforcement officials, to remind everyone that these are people with children and parents and cousins and friends. They deserve our respect and our protection.

I urge the House of Representatives to pass the Federal Judiciary Protection Act and look forward to its swift enactment into law.

Mr. GRAMS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the bill be read the third time, and passed, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, and that any statements relating to the bill be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The bill (S. 113) was read the third time and passed, as follows:

S. 113

SEC. 5. AMENDMENT OF THE SENTENCING GUIDELINES FOR ASSAULTS AND THREATS AGAINST FEDERAL JUDGES AND CERTAIN OTHER FEDERAL OFFICIALS AND EMPLOYEES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Pursuant to its authority under section 994 of title 28, United States Code, the United States Sentencing Commission shall review and amend the Federal sentencing guidelines and the policy statements of the commission, if appropriate, to provide an appropriate sentencing enhancement for offenses involving influencing, assaulting, resisting, impeding, retaliating against, or threatening a Federal judge, magistrate judge, or any other official described in section 111 or 115 of title 18, United States Code.

(b) FACTORS FOR CONSIDERATION.—In carrying out this section, the United States Sentencing Commission shall consider, with respect to each offense described in subsection (a)—

(1) any expression of congressional intent regarding the appropriate penalties for the offense;

(2) the range of conduct covered by the offense;

(3) the existing sentences for the offense;

(4) the extent to which sentencing enhancements within the Federal sentencing guidelines and the court's authority to impose a sentence in excess of the applicable guideline range are adequate to ensure punishment at or near the maximum penalty for the most egregious conduct covered by the offense;

(5) the extent to which Federal sentencing guideline sentences for the offense have been constrained by statutory maximum penalties;

(6) the extent to which Federal sentencing guidelines for the offense adequately achieve the purposes of sentencing as set forth in section 3553(a)(2) of title 18, United States Code;

(7) the relationship of Federal sentencing guidelines for the offense to the Federal sentencing guidelines for other offenses of comparable seriousness; and

(8) any other factors that the Commission considers to be appropriate.

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

(f) FAILURE TO CONSTRUCT.—If the Memorial Fund fails to begin construction on the Museum by the date that is 10 years after the date of enactment of this Act, the authority to construct the Museum shall terminate on that date.

Mr. CAMPBELL. Mr. President, I am pleased that the Senate is about to consider and pass S. 1438, the National Law Enforcement Museum Act of 1999. This legislation will authorize the construction of a National Law Enforcement Museum to be built here in our Nation's Capital.

As a former deputy sheriff, I know first-hand the risks peace officers face in enforcing our laws. Throughout our nation's history, nearly 15,000 federal, state, and local law enforcement officers have lost their lives in the line of duty. Based on FBI statistics, nearly 63,000 officers are assaulted each year in this country, resulting in more than 21,000 injuries. On average, one police officer is killed somewhere in America every 54 hours. Approximately 740,000 law enforcement professionals are continuing to put their lives on the line for the safety and protection of others.

We owe all of those officers a huge debt of gratitude, and it is only fitting that we properly commemorate this outstanding record of service and sacrifice.

My legislation seeks to achieve this important goal by authorizing the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund, a nonprofit organization, to establish a comprehensive law enforcement museum and research repository on federal land in the District of Columbia. The Fund is the same group that so ably carried out the congressional mandate of 1984 to establish the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial, which was dedicated in 1991 just a few blocks from the Capitol. Clearly, their record of achievement speaks volumes about their ability to meet this important challenge.

Since 1993, the Fund has efficiently operated a small-scale version of the National Law Enforcement Museum at a site located about two blocks from the Memorial. The time has come to broaden the scope of this museum and move it in closer proximity to the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial.

This museum would serve as a repository of information for researchers, practitioners, and the general public. The museum will become the premiere source of information on issues related to law enforcement history and safety, and obviously a popular tourist attraction in Washington, DC, as well.

The ideal location for this museum is directly across from the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial on a parcel of federal-owned property that now functions as a parking lot.

I introduced this legislation on July 27, 1999, and after committee hearings and extensive testimony, the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources reported the bill in July of this year. Although the bill was pending on the Senate calendar awaiting final action by the Senate, I was pleased to work with my colleagues, Senator THOMPSON, Chairman of the Government Affairs Committee, and Senator DURBIN, the Ranking Member of the Subcommittee on Oversight of Government Management, Restructuring and the District of Columbia, on a compromise amendment.

After over two months of negotiations, the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund and the District of Columbia Courts reached an agreement to clarify that the building of this museum will in no way conflict with court expansion and renovation plans. As a result of this agreement, Senators THOMPSON and DURBIN have offered an amendment with my support to reflect this agreement with the courts.

Under my legislation, no federal dollars are being proposed to build this museum. Rather, the Fund would raise all of the money necessary to construct the museum through private donations. The legislation places the responsibility of operating the museum in the hands of the Fund.

Finally, let me add that this legislation is supported by 15 national law enforcement organizations: the Concerns of Police Survivors; the Federal Law Enforcement Officers Association; the Fraternal Order of Police; the Fraternal Order of Police Auxiliary; the International Association of Chiefs of Police; the International Brotherhood of Police Officers; the International Union of Police Associations/AFL–CIO; the National Association of Police Organizations; the National Black Police Association; the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives; the National Sheriffs Association; the National Troopers Coalition; the Police Executive Research Forum; the Police Foundation; the United Federation of Police; and the National Law Enforcement Council. Together, these organizations represent virtually every law enforcement officer, family member and police survivor in the United States.

As we remember the sacrifices made by our brave officers, I strongly urge my colleagues to support passage of this legislation. I also call on our colleagues in the House to pass this important bill before the Congress adjourns for the year.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

CONGRATULATING MONTGOMERY JUNIOR COLLEGE ON ITS 50TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. CONSTANCE A. MORELLA

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mrs. MORELLA. Mr. Speaker, I would like to extend my sincere congratulations to Montgomery Junior College as you celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Takoma Park Campus. Since the summer of 1950, MC has continued to uphold its original purpose of providing a quality education to anyone with a desire to learn. MC has maintained this commitment to both its students and faculty for 50 years. For this, I applaud your institution.

The success of the Takoma Park campus is evident in the constantly expanding curricula. Some of the more notable programs include the one-year Bliss program designed for electricians, a medical technician curriculum, and the nursing program. Each of these allow the students of MC to be competitive and skilled in the workforce.

MC is a source of pride not only in Montgomery County but also in the surrounding community. Through projects such as the Spitz Company Planetarium and the currently developing community health clinic, MC provides unique experiences and services to all. The planetarium has introduced hundreds of school children and residents to the basics of astronomy, allowing imaginations to soar. The community health clinic, as part of a new Health Sciences Building, will give hands-on experience to students while providing a comfortable environment for residents in need of medical attention.

MC's commitment and vision are the backbone of your reputation. With more than 4,000 students of all ages and backgrounds and a dedicated faculty, there is no doubt that the next 50 years will be equally rewarding. Again, congratulations to everyone at Montgomery Junior College for your educational excellence. I wish you the best as you continue to expand and serve.

PROTECTION OF THE AMERICAN DREAM ACT

HON. JAMES V. HANSEN

OF UTAH

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. HANSEN. Mr. Speaker, for far too long, the Federal Government has required FHA loan holders to pay millions in mortgage insurance even after the risk of loss to the the government had passed. The reason I introduced the Protection of the American Dream act is that insuring people for a risk they do not have is just wrong.''

Since the passage of the Home Owners Protection Act two years ago, which provided for the cancellation of private mortgage insurance once a conventional loan reached an 80% loan to value, many FHA borrowers began to ask why this law did not apply to their loans. After looking into the matter, I came to agree with these Americans, that like private lenders, there is no reason for FHA to charge mortgage insurance for the entire life of that loan. One of the reasons for this is that according to a Price Waterhouse Actuarial Review, less than one percent of consumers who reach an 80% loan to value default on their loan. Moreover, when a consumer with an 80% loan to value does default, in most cases no loss is incurred by the FHA or any other home loan lender.

The Protection of the American Dream Act is a pretty basic bill. I merely amends the Homeowners Protection Act to include loans made by HUD for single family homes. By doing this, FHA borrowers would not only be able to cancel their Mutual Mortgage Insurance once they reach an 80% loan to value, but HUD would also be required to disclose what mutual mortgage insurance was and whom it insures.

Mr. Speaker, insurance should only be required when the risk warrants its purchase. in the case of the FHA's Mutual Mortgage Insurance Program, FHA is forcing the people who can least afford it, to pay for insurance when there is almost no risk. The only thing we are risking is keeping people from grasping the American dream of home ownership.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. BOBBY L. RUSH

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. RUSH. Mr. Speaker, on September 27, I was unavoidably detained in a Commerce Committee hearing. However, had I been present I would have voted ''yes'' on rollcall No. 496 (H.R. 4365) the Children's Health Act of 2000.

TRIBUTE TO STEVEN P. AUSTIN AND EILEEN DOYLE FOR THEIR SERVICE TO THE CITIZENS OF DELAWARE

HON. MICHAEL N. CASTLE

OF DELAWARE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. CASTLE. Mr. Speaker, during my service as a Member of the House of Representatives, it has been my honor and privilege to rise and pay tribute to organizations and people who really make a difference in the Delaware community. Today, I rise to recognize Steve Austin, president of the Delaware Volunteer Firemen's Association (DVFA) and Eileen Doyle, president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the DVFA.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of my fellow Delawareans I would like to honor these two outstanding individuals, not only for their tireless efforts on behalf of the citizens of the First State, but for their tremendous contributions to the DVFA and the Ladies Auxiliary of the DVFA.

Volunteer fire departments are the cornerstone of our Nation's emergency response capability. Each year, fire kills over 6,000 people, injures about 28,000 more, and destroys more than $7 billion in property. Volunteer firefighters are among the most dedicated public servants. They are willing to put the safety and property of their neighbors ahead of their own on a daily basis. All too often, these brave men and women do not receive the recognition they deserve. Without the services of institutions, such as the DVFA and the Ladies Auxiliary, the number of fatalities would be even greater and the threat of fire and destruction to our communities could be even more devastating. In addition to battling fires, Delaware volunteer firefighters are involved in fire protection and safety as well as providing first aid and emergency resources in the event of major disasters. This type of dedication is rare.

Steve Austin is a life member of the Aetna Hose and Ladder Company in Newark, DE. As a fire service advisor of the Congressional Fire Services Institute, Steve has worked tirelessly in these very halls on legislative issues that would improve training and emergency medical services for volunteer fire organizations throughout our country. Through his leadership, fire and emergency medical services have remained a vital and integral part of our community. For all of these national and local accomplishments, I was not at all surprised that the Congressional Fire Service Institute chose him as the Fire Service Person of the Year in 1996.

Eileen Doyle has also played a critical role in keeping our communities safe. Whether it is as a member of the Brandywine Fire Company working on innovative and creative fundraising ventures or providing much needed assistance and comfort to those individuals devastated by the effects of Hurricane Floyd, Eileen Doyle's dedication to the fire service and our community shines as a bright beacon every day. The Ladies Auxiliary has a long and rich history and their dedication to the community is to be commended. I salute Steve Austin and Eileen Doyle for their efforts to keep the Volunteer Fire Association and Ladies Auxiliary a strong and vital part of Delaware.

This week, the DVFA and the Ladies Auxiliary of the DVFA will gather at their 2000 Annual Conference to celebrate the anniversaries of safety and first aid to the people of Delaware. As a former Governor, I know first hand the important role that these dedicated and vital organizations play in recruiting and retaining young men and women in the public service arena. Mr. Speaker, I am proud to have this privilege to extend my warmest wishes for a successful conference. I salute and thank them for their unwavering commitment to excellence and the example they set for all of us. Their efforts are deeply appreciated.

A TRIBUTE TO REVEREND VERTANES KALAYJIAN

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I am honored today to recognize the achievements and spiritual leadership of the Rev. Fr. Archpriest Vertanes Kalayjian, pastor of St. Mary's Armenian Church in Washington, DC. On October 1, the Washington-Baltimore Armenian community will be honoring this most outstanding religious and community leader among Armenian-Americans in the United States. On this date, parishioners and many others will recognize the 40th anniversary of Rev. Kalayjian's ordination into the priesthood.

Those who gather from across the country and the world on October 1 will also recognize the 25th anniversary of the service to St. Mary's of Rev. Kalayjian and Yeretzgin Anahid Kalayjian, his wife of 31 years.

Mr. Speaker, as the cochairman of the Congressional Caucus on Armenian Issues, I am acutely aware of the many extraordinary contributions Father Kalayjian and Mrs. Kalayjian have made to the Armenian community in the United States. Over the years, his outstanding missionary and humanitarian efforts have also been of immeasurable help to the struggling families and youth of Armenia, as well as Armenian families spread throughout Eastern Europe and the world.

In his important assignment as the head of the pastorate in Washington, DC, he has played a crucial role representing the diocese in the Congress, the State and Justice Departments and the Brookings Institute. Every year, Father Kalayjian briefs the Appeal of Conscience Conferences, the State Department's Foreign Service Institute, on the status of the Armenian communities in Eastern Europe and in the former Soviet Union republics.

Father Kalayjian was born in Aleppo, Syria, and was ordained on February 7, 1960, at the St. James Seminary of Jerusalem Armenian Patriarchate. He came to the United States in December 1964 and was assigned to the St. George Parish in Waukegan, IL. In addition to his pastoral work, he did Christian Education; Biblical Studies and Public Administration at Lake Forest, Carthage College and Southeastern University.

In subsequent years, he served the parishes of Holy Cross, Union City, NJ; and St. Mary's Church in Elberon, NJ (now St. Stephanos and in my congressional district.)

In 1976, he assumed the pastorate here in Washington, where he serves the St. Mary's community, including nearby Baltimore city and the neighboring towns.

During most of this career as a servant of God, Mrs. Kalayjian has been a partner, colleague and spiritual supporter to her husband's ministry. She has contributed invaluably to the growth and spiritual well-being of St. Mary's Parish. She has been surrogate mother, nurse, chaplain, Armenian Cultural Program director and advisor to successive camp directors and committees at the Armenian General Benevolent Union's Camp Nubar in the Catskills in New York. The AGBU promotes philanthropy, human rights land education throughout the world.

Her services to the Armenian people have included numerous other missionary and humanitarian initiatives in Armenia, including missionary outreach in the aftermath of the earthquake. Her early training and work as a pediatric nurse and nursing supervisor only added to the invaluable contributions she has made to families in need here and in Armenia.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to call these tireless and devoted humanitarians my friends. I wish them both a most deserved and joyous celebration on October 1.

DRUG PROFITS DISTORTING HOW DOCTORS PRESCRIBE?

HON. FORTNEY PETE STARK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, in the September 19th CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, I provided some documentation of how profits from prescribing drugs may be causing some doctors to over-prescribe or change their prescribing patters, not on the basis of medical need, but simply for the sake of money.

The enormous profits available to many doctors on the ''spread'' between what Medicare and other payers reimburse for a drug (the average wholesale price), and what that drug is really available for 'on the street' may be one of the most serious ethical issues in American medicine today.

I submit into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD a letter I've sent to the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality on why this is a problem which must be investigated as soon as possible and a memo in reference to physician prescribing practices in Japan.

The Justice Department and the HHS Inspector General have, I believe, documents which show how drug companies have manipulated the AWP to move doctors to prescribe various drugs. These documents raise the most serious questions about the integrity of health care delivery.

The letters follow:

COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS,
SUBCOMMITTEE ON HEALTH,
Washington, DC, August 18, 2000.

Dr. JOHN EISENBERG,
Administrator, Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality, Washington, DC.

DEAR JOHN: Nice Norman Rockwell exhibit at the National Gallery—and nice paintings of doctors the way we want them to be: grandfatherly figures we can totally trust our lives with.

But the data in various areas of health care show that physicians are just like the rest of us mortals: they are economic animals; they respond to financial incentives. We see this economic influence in the fact that for-profit hospitals do more Caesarian sections than not-for-profit hospitals, because the fees and profits are higher for a C-section. We see this in the extensive literature that physicians who own or invest in a downstream service (such as a lab or MRI) tend to order many more tests (and more expensive tests) than doctors who do not invest in such facilities. We see this in foreign countries where physician income is much lower than it is in the United States on average, but physicians are allowed to make money on each prescription that they write. As a result in Japan (and in the past Italy) the patients get many more pills than Americans do. Doctors in those countries make money by pushing medicines on their unsuspecting patients.

I fear the same thing may be happening here in the United States on certain drugs, and I would like to request AHRQ's help in determining whether Medicare's Average Wholesale Price system of paying doctors for certain medicines may have caused some distortions in prescribing practice.

As you know, after years of work, the Justice Department and the HHS OIG have finally persuaded Medicare and Medicaid to use a more realistic set of data for purposes of paying doctors 95% of the AWP. The use of the more accurate AWP data will save taxpayers and patients hundreds of millions of dollars a year. Of course, the physicians the savings are coming from are lobbying furiously to block the cuts, saying that they have used the profits from the difference between 95% of the AWP and the real purchase price to run their offices. HCFA is investigating whether the practice expense (PE) payment to doctors needs to be adjusted to pay more accurately for the cost of administering the drugs. If the PE payment is inadequate, we certainly should adjust it.

But we should not, I believe, pay more for the drug than the cost to the doctor of purchasing the drug. Otherwise, if these other domestic and foreign examples apply, we will see a misuse of the drug.

To determine whether there has been misuse, would it be possible for AHRQ to examine the use of chemotherapy drugs in settings where there is no financial incentive to either over use or not use (e.g., Kaiser, VA, DoD, etc.) versus chemotherapy drug use in private, for profit, physician-run oncology practices? Adjusting for severity of illness, are the outcomes (remission, deaths, etc.) similar in these settings? Is more or less chemotherapy medicine used? for patients who die, is chemotherapy administered longer in one setting versus another? is chemotherapy administered beyond a point where the patient might be considered terminal?

Thank you for your help in understanding whether there are different patterns of chemotherapy drug use, depending on whether one profits from the drugs' use, and if so, whether there is any better outcome and quality as a result of additional chemotherapy usage.

Sincerely,

PETE STARK,
Ranking Member.

In Japan, where physicians and hospitals are allowed to make money on each prescription they write, there are high levels of drug utilization and incentives for drug overperscribing. For example—

Health Affairs (Healthcare Reform in Japan), found that pharmaceutical dispensing is more profitable for doctors since physicians dispense drugs directly and profit by buying from wholesalers at a discount and selling at the fee-schedule price. Japan has the highest per capita drug consumption in the world.

According to Asahi News Service, the cost of prescription drugs represents 30% of all medical expenses in Japan. And according to Financial Times, this is the highest proportion in the EOCD and far higher than the 11% in the US and 16% in the UK.

Like physicians, hospitals in Japan also can make a profit on the sale of medicines to their patients. The Asahi News Service found that ''medications of dubious value are used carelessly because information about their effects is not made public . . . and that the more prescriptions hospitals issue, the greater their profits will be, because of the huge gap between the government-designated base prices and the market price.''

The Nikkei Weekly reported that in April of 1997, the Japanese government proposed revision of the ''. . . drug-payment system, which has been criticized for enabling doctors to line their pockets and causing overprescription.''

Based on these facts, it is highly likely that Medicare's Average Wholesale Price (AWP) system of paying doctors for certain medicines causes distortions in prescribing practices.

European countries, in contrast, have, in the last ten years, instituted practices to curb overutilization by eliminating some financial incentives. Italy, Germany, Sweden, Denmark and the Netherlands have introduced ''reference pricing'' as a financial disincentive for patients to accept and doctors to prescribe non-reference drugs. These countries are probably not the best examples of countries with overutilization. Japan is the best in this regard (we are still trying to find another clear cut case, like Japan).

It's interesting to note that, on the flip side, reimbursements for surgery are low in Japan and, as a consequence, one third as much surgery is done in Japan as the U.S.

COMMEMORATING THE THIRTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF AIR STATION CAPE COD

HON. WILLIAM D. DELAHUNT

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. DELAHUNT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the thirtieth anniversary of U.S. Coast Guard Air Station Cape Cod. For all of us who go to the sea, for pleasure or by profession, the Air Station has been an enormously reassuring presence all these years.

Since its commissioning in 1970, Air Station Cape Cod has performed more than 10,000 search-and-rescue missions, saved 3,500 lives and saved more than $450 million in property—all this while safeguarding our natural resources and seizing shipments of illegal drugs bound for our shores. It's all in a long day's work—and often a long night's work as well—for the personnel of the U.S. Coast Guard.

While the breathtaking heroics of the men and women of the Air Station have recently been made famous by recent feature films, perhaps the most fitting tribute comes from the grateful communities served by the men and women of the Air Station. I am pleased to enter in today's CONGRESSIONAL RECORD the following words of appreciation from a recent edition of the Cape Cod Times newspaper.

[From the Cape Cod Times, Aug. 30, 2000]

AIR STATION CAPE COD TURNS 30

(By Kevin Dennehy)

AIR STATION CAPE COD—Ed Greiner won't soon forget the week last summer he moved his family to Cape Cod to assume his duty as executive officer at the local Coast Guard installation.

That same weekend, John F. Kennedy Jr.'s airplane dove into the Atlantic Ocean. And within hours, the tragedy sparked one of the largest Coast Guard searches ever undertaken off Cape shores, and a media swarm that enveloped the Upper Cape air station for several days.

But then, it was not that much different than what the Coast Guard does on a regular basis, Greiner says.

''Sure, it was hectic,'' he said yesterday. ''But it was a large version of what we're trained to do, and do everyday.''

They've been doing what they do at Air Station Cape Cod since August 1970. Yesterday, the Coast Guard marked its 30th anniversary with a quiet ceremony at one of the station's hangars.

It's been a busy three decades. Since 1970, pilots and crews have responded to more than 9,500 calls—nearly one search-and-rescue mission per day during that time. As of yesterday, they'd saved 3,312 lives and prevented the loss of $455 million worth of property.

''For recreational boaters and those who use the water to make a living, it adds a measure of safety,'' Greiner said. ''If folks get into trouble, we're always standing ready to assist.''

One of the busiest of America's 24 air stations, Air Station Cape Cod started operating when Air Station Salem and Air Detachment Quonset Point, R.I., were consolidated in 1970.

About 400 employees work at the station, including 250 active-duty members.

And with more than 2,000 people—including those from other military branches—living in the nearly 700 units of Coast Guard housing, it's the largest continuous presence on the base.

These days, the Coast Guard uses four Jayhawks and four HU–25 Falcon jets to conduct nearly 300 rescue missions each year.

The Coast Guard also assists in law enforcement and fishing zone enforcement; is involved in drug interdiction; and repairs navigational aids throughout the northern Atlantic.

''It's a great job,'' said Lt. Bill Bellatty, who flies a HH–60 Jayhawk helicopter at the station. ''It's always great when you save lives. It's when it's nasty out that it's terrible. That's when we earn our money.''

HONORING CHRIST LUTHERAN CHURCH FOR ITS 200TH YEAR OF SERVICE

HON. WILLIAM F. GOODLING

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. GOODLING. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Christ Lutheran Church, Filey's Parish, for its 200th year of service to the Gospel in their community.

Christ Lutheran Church is a small country church in a growing area of Dillsburg, Pennsylvania. It was founded in 1800 by the New German community, and in 1811 a building was erected for worship and it also served as a school. In 1938 Jacob Filey donated the land on which the church is presently located. Today, the congregation is made up of 90 people that attend weekly services. The church houses a daycare, with a nursery school located nearby, named Filey's Nursery School.

I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing the congregation of the Christ Lutheran Church for their 200th year of outstanding service to the community. I wish them continued strength and unity as their parish continues to grow and thrive.

IN HONOR OF MICHAEL ZONE, MARY ZONE, AND THE ZONE FAMILY

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to acknowledge the Neighborhood Social Club and Archives' posthumous recognition of former City of Cleveland Councilman Michael Zone and his surviving wife, former City Councilwoman Mary Zone for their contributions to the Italian American neighborhood that is part of the Mount Carmel West neighborhood. The organization will present the Giuseppe T. Focca Award to the Zone family on October 1.

Michael Zone, whose family immigrated from the region of Campania near the City of Caserta, was among the early Italian families to settle in this westside neighborhood. Michael was instrumental in the early development of the current Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church and School and the development of Villa Mercedes, a senior citizen assisted highrise.

As a councilman, Michael Zone worked hard for the Italian American residents he represented. He helped many gain meaningful employment and assisted them with immigration and government services. He put his constituents first, and demonstrated that public service is a higher calling.

The Neighborhood Social Club and Archives was founded by Rose A. Zitiello in 1993 to preserve the Italian American history of the neighborhood. Mr. Speaker, I ask my fellow colleagues in the U.S. House of Representatives to join me in honoring Michael Zone, Mary Zone, and the Zone family who have contributed so much to Cleveland's Mount Carmel West neighborhood and the city as a whole. Please also join me in acknowledging the contribution that the Neighborhood Social Club and Archives is making toward preserving the great heritage that the Zones and the Italian American community of Cleveland has made and continues to make.

DRUG COMPANY ABUSE OF AVERAGE WHOLESALE PRICE SYSTEM: PUBLIC DESERVES RETURN OF BILLIONS OF DOLLARS

HON. FORTNEY PETE STARK

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. STARK. Mr. Speaker, I have today sent the following letter to the Pharmaceutical Research Manufacturers of America (PhRMA), the chief trade association representing U.S. pharmaceutical companies.

The letter details what I believe to be the bilking of the Medicare system by a number of large, powerful drug companies. The evidence I have been provided shows that certain drug companies are making enormous profits available to many doctors on the ''spread'' between what Medicare and other payers reimburse for a drug (the average wholesale price), and what that drug is really available for.

These companies have increased their sales by abusing the public trust and exploiting America's seniors and disabled. It is my firm belief that these practices must stop and that these companies must return the money to the public that is owed because of their abusive practices.

The letter follows:

COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS,
SUBCOMMITTEE ON HEALTH,
Washington, DC, September 28, 2000.

ALAN F. HOLMER,
President, Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America, Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. HOLMER. I am writing to share with you evidence and concerns I have, that certain PhRMA members, are employing false and fraudulent marketing schemes and other deceptive business practices in order to manipulate and inflate the prices of their drugs. Drug company deception costs federal and state governments, private insurers and others billions of dollars per year in excessive drug costs. This corruptive scheme is perverting the financial integrity of the Medicare program and harming beneficiaries who are required to pay 20% of Medicare's current limited drug benefit. Furthermore, these deceptive, unlawful practices have a devastating financial impact upon the states' Medicaid Program.

As you may be aware, some state Medicaid administrators have been placed in the unenviable position of having to ration needed health care services to the poor due to a lack of funds. For example, major newspapers such as the Washington Post reported that the Administration abandoned its effort to extend Medicaid coverage for AIDS therapies due to the high cost of drugs needed to treat HIV patients (December 5, 1997).

The national media continues to report on the staggering cost of prescription drugs in the United States. By way of example, the shared Federal/State cost of providing a California Medicaid prescription drug benefit alone is now approximately $2.4 billion dollars a year and that cost has risen by approximately 100% in the past four years. Through a Congressional subpoena, I have recently obtained internal drug company documents, together with documents from an industry insider, that explicitly expose the deliberate fraud that some of your PhRMA members are perpetrating on our nation's health care delivery system.

The evidence I have obtained indicates that at least some of your members have knowingly and deliberately falsely inflated their representations of the average wholesale price (''AWP''), wholesaler acquisition cost (''WAC'') and direct price (''DP'') which are utilized by the Medicare and Medicaid programs in establishing drug reimbursements to providers. The evidence clearly establishes and exposes the drug manufacturers themselves that were the direct and sometimes indirect sources of the fraudulent misrepresentation of prices. Moreover, this unscrupulous ''cartel'' of companies has gone to extreme lengths to ''mask'' their drugs' true prices and their fraudulent conduct from federal and state authorities. I have learned that the difference between the falsely inflated representations of AWP and WAC verses the true prices providers are paying is regularly referred to in your industry as ''the spread''. The fraudulently manipulated discrepancies are staggering—for example in 1997 Pharmacia & Upjohn reported an AWP for its chemotherapy drug Vincasar of $741.50, when in truth, its list price was $593.20 (Exhibit #1 PHARMACIA 000867).

Exhibit #2 is a chart provided by an industry insider that lists a number of Medicare covered drugs where the Medicare beneficiaries' 20% co-payment exceeds the entire costs of the drug. These rogue drug companies then market their drugs to physicians and pharmacies based on this windfall profit which in reality is nothing more than a government funded kick-back to the provider.

The evidence is overwhelming that this ''spread'' did not occur accidentally but is the product of conscious and fully informed business decisions by certain PhRMA members. The following examples excerpted from the subpoenaed documents clearly indicate the companies' fraudulent efforts to manipulate Medicare and Medicaid reimbursements as contained in Composite Exhibit #3.

Pharmacia: ''Some of the drugs on the multi-source list offer you savings of over 75% below list price of the drug. For a drug like Adriamycin, the reduced pricing offers AOR a reimbursement of over $8,000,000 profit when reimbursed at AWP. The spread from acquisition cost to reimbursement on the multisource products offered on the contract give AOR a wide margin for profit.'' (000025)

Bayer: ''Chris, if Baxter has increased their AWP then we must do the same. Many of the Homecare companies are paid based on a discount from AWP. If we are lowed [sic] than Baxter then the return will be lower to the HHC. It is a very simple process to increase our AWP, and can be done overnight''. (BAY003101)

Alpha: ''Pharmacy billing and management services can bill for product based on the published AWP and thereby net incremental margin with Venoglobulin S usage. Margin for the pharmacy is the difference between AWP and acquisition cost. ($76.15/g-$30.00/g=$46.15/g margin).'' (AA000529)

Fujisawa: ''Many thanks to Rick and Bruce for adjusting the AWP on the five gram Vanco. This should lead to more business . . . I would have liked to see us match Abbott's AWP for our complete Vanco, and Cefazolin line. I will settle for the five gram at $1 below Abbott but that means that we will still have to compete at the other end of the equation. For example, if Abbott's AWP is $163 and their contract is $30 and if our AWP is 162 we will have to be at least $29 to have the same spread. Follow?'' (F13206 & F13207)

Baxter: ''Increasing AWP's was a large part of our negotiations with the large homecare companies'' (0003153)

And the implications of the fraudulent manipulation of prices were clearly recognized by your member manufacturers who participated in this false pricing scheme. A series of memos from a pricing committee concerned with Glaxo's antiemetic, Zofran, show the committee's development of an enhanced spread for Zofran through increases in AWP and decreases in net purchase price (Exhibit #4).

Glaxo: ''If Glaxo chooses to increase the NWP and AWP for Zofran in order to increase the amount of Medicaid reimbursement for clinical oncology practices, we must prepare for the potential of a negative reaction from a number of quarters . . . If we choose to explain the price increase by explaining the pricing strategy, which we have not done before, then we risk further charges that we are cost shifting to government in an attempt to retain market share. Congress has paid a good deal of attention to pharmaceutical industry pricing practices and is likely to continue doing so in the next session. How do we explain to Congress an 8% increase in the NWP between January and November of 1994, if this policy is implemented this year? How do we explain a single 9% increase in the AWP? What arguments can we make to explain to congressional watchdogs that we are cost-shifting at the expense of government? How will this new pricing structure compare with costs in other countries? Is the [pharmaceutical] industry helping to moderate healthcare costs when it implements policies that increase the cost of pharmaceuticals to government?'' (GWIG/7:00014 & 00015)

Internal documents from a contractor of SmithKline, (Glaxo's competitor) likewise reveal its recognition of the inflationary effect on government reimbursement of these pricing practices and the potential for an adverse counter-offensive (Exhibit #5):

''. . . highlighting the difference between the actual acquisition cost and the published AWP may not only increase attention to Glaxo's pricing practices, but may provide the impetus for HCFA to implement a system that could impact not only reimbursement of anti-emetics, but all pharmaceutical and biological products. The ramifications could extend well past Medicare to include Medicaid programs . . .'' (SB01915)

Perhaps the most striking example of the manufacturers' recognition of the spread and the companies' fraudulent abuse it represents is found in a revealing exchange of correspondence between corporate counsel from Glaxo and SmithKline Beecham in which each accuse the other's company of Medicaid fraud and abuse (Exhibit #6).

Glaxo: ''. . . In addition, a significant number of these pieces (see Exhibits F–J) contain direct statements or make references as to how institutions can increase their ''profits'' from Medicare through the use of Kytril. Some even go so far as to recommend that the medical professional use one vial of Kytril for two patients (see Exhibit F) but charge Medicaid for three vials. This raises significant fraud and abuse issues which I am sure you will want to investigate.'' (SB04075)

And SmithKline's response was (Exhibit #7):

SmithKline: ''In an apparent effort to increase reimbursement to physicians and clinics, effective 1/10/95, Glaxo increased AWP for Zofran by 8.5%, while simultaneously fully discounting this increase to physicians. The latter was accomplished by a 14% rebate . . . The net effect of these adjustments is to increase the amount of reimbursement available to physicians from Medicare and other third party payors whose reimbursement is based on AWP. Since the net price paid to Glaxo for the non-hospital sales of the Zofran multi-dose vial is actually lower, it does not appear that the increase in AWP was designed to increase revenue per unit to Glaxo. Absent any other tenable explanation, this adjustment appears to reflect an intent to induce physicians to purchase Zofran based on the opportunity to receive increased reimbursement from Medicare and other third party payors.'' (SB044277) (In fact, we have had numerous verbal reports from the field concerning Glaxo representatives who are now selling Zofran based on the opportunity for physicians to receive a higher reimbursement from Medicare and other third-party payors while the cost to the physician of Zofran has not changed.)

Some drug companies have also utilized a large array of other impermissible inducements to stimulate sales of their drugs. These inducements, including bogus ''educational grants'', volume discounts, rebates or free goods, were designed to result in a lower net cost to the purchaser while concealing the actual cost price beneath a high invoice price. A product invoiced at $100 for ten units of a drug item might really only cost the purchaser half that amount. Given, for instance, a subsequent shipment of an additional ten units at no charge, or a ''grant'', ''rebate'' or ''credit memo'' in the amount of $50, the transaction would truly cost a net of only $5.00 per unit. Through all these ''off-invoice'' means, drug purchasers were provided the substantial discounts that induced their patronage while maintaining the fiction of a higher invoice price—the price that corresponded to reported AWP's and inflated reimbursement from the government composite Exhibit #8.

Bayer: ''I have been told that our present Kogennate price, $.66, is the highest price that Quantum is paying for recombinant factor VIII. In order to sell the additional 12mm/u we will need a lower price. I suggest a price of $.60 to $.62 to secure this volume. From Quantum's stand point, a price off invoice, is the most desirable. We could calculate our offer in the form of a marketing grant, a special educational grant, payment for specific data gathering regarding Hemophilia treatment, or anything else that will produce the same dollar benefit to Quantum Health Resources.'' (BAY005241)

Baxter: ''The attached notice from Quantum Headquarters was sent on April 10th to all their centers regarding the reduction of Recombinate pricing. Please note that they want to continue to be invoiced at the $.81 price. They have requested that we send them free product every quarter calculated by looking at the number of units purchased in that quarter and the $.13 reduction in price . . . free product given to achieve overall price reduction.'' (0003632)

Gensia: ''Hospital—Concentrate field reps on the top 40 AIDS hospitals using a $54.00 price in conjunction with a 10% free goods program to mask the final price. Provides the account with an effective price of $48.60 per vial.'' (G00888)

Gensia: ''FSS—Establish a price of $52.00/vial for Q1 and Q2.''

The above document is particularly disturbing as it indicates that at least one purpose of ''masking'' the final price with free goods is so that it falsely appears that the Federal Supply Schedule (''FSS'') is less than that of the Hospital Price.

This insidious behavior by some PhRMA members has a profound and dangerous additional effect by influencing some medical practitioners' judgements. This is acknowledged by Bristol-Myers Squibb (''BMS'') who developed a second generation etoposide, namely, Etopophos (Composite Exhibit #9).

BMS. ''The Etopohos product profile is significantly superior to that of etoposide for injection . . .'' (BMS: 3: 000013)

''Currently, physician practices can take advantage of the growing disparity between VePesid's list price (and, subsequently, the Average Wholesale Price [AWP]) and the actual acquisition cost when obtaining reimbursement for etoposide purchase. If the acquisition price of Etopophos is close to the list price, the physicians' financial incentive for selecting the brand is largely diminished.'' (BMS: 3: 000014)

This influence is further demonstrated by SmithKline Beecham and TAP:

SmithKline: ''In the clinic setting however, since Medicare reimbursement is based on AWP, product selection is largely based upon the spread between acquisition cost and AWP. . . . Therefore, the spread between the AWP and clinic cost represents a profit to the clinic of $50.27 for the medication alone. . . . From this analysis, there seems to be no other reason, other than profitability, to explain uptake differentials between the hospital and clinic settings, therefore explaining why physicians are willing to use more expensive drug regimens.'' (SB00878)

TAP: ''As we have also discussed, Northwest Iowa Urology is very upset about the allowable not going up. I personally met with the doctors to discuss the issue 4/17. The physicians have started using Zoladex but would stop if the allowable issue was taken care of. NWI Urology has 180 patients on Lupron''. (TAP–BLI0036469)

The documents further expose the fact that certain of your members deliberately concealed and misrepresented the source of AWP's:

In a 1996 Barron's article entitled ''Hooked On Drugs'', the following quote from Immunex appeared (Composite Exhibit #11):

Immunex: ''But Immunex, with a thriving generic cancer-drug business, says its average wholesale prices aren't its own'' ''The drug manufacturers have no control over the AWPs published . . . '' says spokeswoman, Valerie Dowell. (IMNX003079)

However, Immunex's own internal documents indisputably establish the knowledge of the origin of their AWPs and their active concealment:

Letter from Red Book to Immunex:

''Kathleen Stamm, Immunex Corporation . . .

''Dear Kathleen: This letter is a confirmation letter that we have received and entered your latest AWP price changes in our system. The price changes that were effective January 3, 1996 were posted in our system on January 5, 1996. I have enclosed an updated copy of your Red Book listing for your files. If there is anything else I could help you with do not hesitate to call.

''Sincerely, Lisa Brandt, Red Book Data Analyst.'' (IMNX 002262)

These examples of deception appear to be ''only the tip of the iceberg'' as demonstrated by the evidence contained in Composite Exhibit #12. Exhibit #12 contains the following:

1. Copy of advertisement sent to the insider from Oncology Therapeutics Network (''OTN'') representing the true wholesale prices to the industry insider for Anzemet.

2. A copy of a fax sent to a Florida Medicaid pharmacy official by Hoechst containing Hoechst representations of its prices.

The following chart represents a comparison of Hoechst's fraudulent price representations for its injectable form of the drug versus the truthful prices paid by the industry insider. It is also compares Hoescht's price representations for the tablet form of Anzemet and the insider's true prices. It is extremely interesting that Hoescht did not create a spread for its tablet form of Anzemet but only the injectable form. This is because Medicare reimburses Doctors for the injectable form of this drug and by giving them a profit, can influence prescribing. The tablet form is dispensed by pharmacists, who accept the Doctor's order. And this underscores the frustration that federal and state regulators have experienced in their attempts to estimate the truthful prices being paid by providers in the marketplace for prescription drugs and underscores the fact that, if we cannot rely upon the drug companies to make honest and truthful representations of their prices, Congress will be left with no alternative other than to legislate price controls.

	NDC NO.	Unit size/type	Quantity	Net price as represented to Florida Medicaid	True wholesale price	Variance
Price Representations for:
Anzemet injection	0088-1206-32	100 mg/5ml injectable	1	$124.90	$70.00	Represented price 78% higher than true wholesale price.
Anzemet tablets	0088-1203-05	100 mg tablets	5	275.00	289.75	Represented price 5% less than true wholesale price.

Hoescht thus falsely inflated the reported price of its Anzemet to create an improper financial incentive and thus capture market share. The following excerpt from an internal Glaxo document reveals that Hoescht directly benefitted from this diversion of tax dollars:

(Exhibit #13) Glaxo: ''There is a decline in Zofran usage at Louisiana Oncology in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Kevin Turner (H1JCO2) has seen a drastic decline in Zofran usage at this clinic over the last few months. The reason for this decline is strictly a reimbursement issue. This clinic has started using Anzemet because it is more profitable. Kevin has learned that this clinic is buying Anzemet for $58.00 for a 100mg vial, which gives them a $84.29 profit from Medicare. They are buying a 40mg vial of Zofran for $145.28. If they use 32 mg of Zofran, which is $3.63 per mg. this will net this clinic $69.60 from Medicare reimbursement. Clearly Anzemet has a reimbursement advantage over Zofran. . . .'' (GWZ 085003)

The above evidence leads to some shocking conclusions.

First—Certain drug manufacturers have abused their position of privilege in the United States by reporting falsely inflated drug prices in order to create a de facto improper kick-back for their customers.

Second—Certain drug manufacturers have routinely acted with impunity in arranging improper financial inducements for their physician and other healthcare provider customers.

Third—Certain drug manufacturers engage in fraudulent price manipulation for the express purpose of causing federally funded healthcare programs to expend scarce tax dollars in order to arrange de facto kick-backs for the drug manufacturers' customers at a cost of billions of dollars.

Fourth—Certain drug manufacturers arrange kick-backs to improperly influence physicians' medical decisions and judgments notwithstanding the severely destructive affect upon the physician/patient relationship and the exercise of independent medical judgement.

Fifth—Certain drug manufacturers engage in illegal price manipulation in order to increase the utilization of their drugs beyond that which is necessary and appropriate based on the exercise of independent medical judgment not affected by improper financial incentives.

As the principal association representing the pharmaceutical manufacturing industry, I believe you owe it to the citizens of the United States to advise Congress as to whether the above evidence reflects the standards of the pharmaceutical industry in this country. If it does, then explicit price regulation will clearly be necessary to counter your industry's inability to report prices will integrity and its propensity to engage in price manipulation. If, on the other hand, the above evidence does not reflect the standards in the pharmaceutical industry, then your association owes it to the American people to support and assist with the efforts of the federal and state enforcement authorities, including the U.S. Department of Justice, to correct the actions of the drug manufacturers engaging in this conduct and to require them to compensate Medicare, Medicaid and other federally funded programs for the damages they have caused.

Sincerely,

PETE STARK,
Ranking Member,
Subcommittee on Health.

HONORING A DEDICATED HUSBAND, FATHER, GRANDFATHER, VETERAN AND PHYSICIAN—JOHN CHARLES LUNGREN, M.D. (APRIL 27, 1916–FEBRUARY 28, 2000)

HON. JAMES E. ROGAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. ROGAN. Mr. Speaker, today, it is my distinct honor to pay tribute to an American who gave of himself during his 83 years of life—John Charles Lungren, M.D.

Dr. Lungren was born in Sioux City, Iowa on April 27, 1916. He attended the University of Notre Dame, graduating with a Bachelor's Degree in Science in 1938. Dr. Lungren subsequently received his Medical Degree in 1942 from the University of Pennsylvania.

During World War II, Dr. Lungren served with the United States as a Battalion Surgeon and Captain, 30th Infantry Division receiving four Battle Stars and a Purple Heart. This included participating in the pivotal battles of St. Lo and Mortain and in the Normandy Invasion in June of 1944.

After World War II, Dr. Lungren returned to his wife, Lorain Kathleen Lungren and, at that time, their first child. He settled in Long Beach, California specializing in internal medicine and cardiology which included various positions in the medical profession, including chief of staff for Long Beach Memorial Medical Center, member of the California State Board of Medical Quality Assurance and an emeritus associate clinical professor of medicine, UCLA School of Medicine, 1960–1977.

Dr. Lungren's dedication with and contributions to the University of Notre Dame were many. From 1966–1973, Dr. Lungren served as a member of the National Alumni Association's Board of Directors and President of the Alumni Association. In 1971, he was honored as ''Man of the Year.''

In 1969, President Nixon appointed Dr. Lungren as the medical consultant to the President of the United States; a member of the National Advisory Committee, Selective Service System and the National Health Resources Advisory Committee.

After President Nixon's resignation over Watergate in August of 1974, Dr. Lungren is credited with saving Nixon's life. Nixon had developed phlebitis, a swelling of the leg that threatened the former President's life with blood clots. After surgery to prevent a blood clot from traveling to his lung and brain. Nixon suffered post-traumatic shock and nearly died. During the last few years of his life, Dr. Lungren completed a manuscript on his more than 40-year relationship with President Nixon, titled Anguish and Redemption: The Final Peace of Richard Nixon.

Dr. Lungren is survived by his wife, Lorain Kathleen Lungren, their seven children, John, Jr., Daniel, Christine, Loretta, Brian, Patricia and Elizabeth and 16 grandchildren.

Mr. Speaker, as his eldest son, John, Jr. offered during his eulogy for his father, Dad is blessed for moral honor, spiritual dignity and purity of heart which leads us on the royal road that El Camino Real of a life committed in Christ, I ask my colleagues here today to join me in honoring an American who gave of himself to his country, family, medicine and community at large. Dr. Lungren spoke little of his heroic acts, albeit during World War II, raising his children or consoling a patient, hence, Dr. Lungren was a humble man. It seems that unknown to Dr. Lungren, as one his physicians who cared for him expressed to John, Jr., Your dad is in a special class, his reputation precedes him.

Lastly, my fellow colleagues, as we gather together today, allow me to paraphrase Dr. Lungren's personal physician, colleague and dear friend, Dr. Winnie Waider, who whispered, as Dr. Lungren drew his last breath, How often do you see a complete life completed, a consummate life consummated?

How poignant and thought provoking as we pay our deepest respects to an honorable man, Dr. John Charles Lungren.

HONORING THE SURVIVORS OF THE BATTLE OF MALMADY

HON. GEORGE W. GEKAS

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. GEKAS. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to honor a group of men that survived a massacre over 50 years ago. It was a cold December day when the gentlemen we honor today were caught up in the confusion that would eventually be called the Battle of the Bulge. They were members of Battery B, 285th Field Artillery Observation Battalion, a unit with many Central Pennsylvanians in its ranks.

Attacked by an SS Panzer Division, nearly half the battery was compelled to surrender. Although dazed and depressed about the prospect of spending Christmas as prisoners of war, few expected the nightmare about to be unleashed by their Nazi captors.

Completely unprovoked, the guards fired systematically into the group of defenseless prisoners, killing or wounding most of them. Many of those still living, suffering from exposure and wounds, were murdered by prowling SS guards.

A handful of soldiers escaped by either playing dead or hiding in buildings close by. They lived to tell the tale of one of the most brutal crimes inflicted on U.S. troops during the war in Europe. Some were given aid by friendly Belgians, others were rescued by Colonel Pegrin, commander of the 291st Engineer Battalion. Some were lucky enough to limp back to American lines.

The story of these men is a story of valor and sacrifice. Each of them gave selflessly of themselves to liberate a continent from Nazi tyranny. When their nation called, they went, regardless of danger and personal loss. They saw their friends die at the hands of SS thugs and wondered helplessly whether they were next. By escaping that bloody field, these men gave their comrades and their families at home a rallying cry which helped carry America to final victory over Hitler's Nazi empire.

I know that the entire United States House of Representatives joins me in saluting the survivors and the fallen for their courage and perseverance that overcame the greatest menace to freedom the world has ever known. Their sacrifice remains an inspiration to our entire nation.

ON PRESIDENT CLINTON'S CHINA LEGACY

HON. FRANK R. WOLF

OF VIRGINIA

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. WOLF. Mr. Speaker, in reference to President Clinton's foreign policy towards China, last Wednesday's front page of the Washington Post Business section had the headline: ''Score One for the Legacy'' because of passage in the Senate of Permanent Normal Trade Relations (PNTR) with China.

While it lies in the future to determine the success or failure of PNTR upon improving China's horrible human rights record or in bringing about effective change in China's communist regime, we do know certain facts that have to be calculated into the picture that will be President Clinton's legacy on China.

We know that on this Administration's watch, more people are in prison because of their faith than at any time in recent memory.

There are thousands of Muslim Uighurs in prison because of their faith.

The Chinese government is pillaging Tibet, while the Clinton Administration remains silent and obsequious. Thousands of Tibetan Buddhist monks, nuns, and believers are in Chinese prisons because of their faith. The Chinese government has repressed, oppressed, and persecuted the Tibetans with impunity. There is no doubt, things have gotten worse in Tibet during the Clinton years. With certainty, President Clinton's actions and lack of action have to be figured into a formulation of his legacy on China.

The 1999 State Department Human Rights Report on China states numerous aspects of how the situation in China has deteriorated during President Clinton's tenure and ought to be included in determining his legacy on China:

Government interference in daily personal and family life continues to decline for the average person;

The Government increased monitoring of the Internet during the year, and placed restrictions on information available on the Internet;

The Government continued to implement comprehensive and often intrusive family planning policies;

The [Communist] Party and Government continue to control many—and, on occasion, all—print and broadcast media tightly and use them to propagate the current ideological line; and

The Government intensified efforts to suppress dissent, particularly organized dissent. By years end, almost all of the key leaders of the China Democracy Party were serving long prison terms or were in custody without formal charges, and only a handful of dissidents nationwide dared to remain active publicly.

We know that the State Department's 2000 Report on International Religious Freedom says that the Chinese ''. . . Government's respect for religious freedom deteriorated markedly . . .''

We know from this report that ''. . . unregistered groups, including Protestant and Catholic groups, continued to experience varying degrees of official interference, harassment, and repression.'' We know from this report that ''The Government's efforts to maintain a strong degree of control over religion, and its crackdown on groups that it perceived to pose a threat, continued.''

We know that the Chinese regime continues to persecute, arrest, and imprison 80 year-old Roman Catholic bishops and priests. According to an article in the September 18, 2000 New York Times, while the Senate was preparing to vote on passage of PNTR, the Chinese government was busy sending back to prison 81 year-old Roman Catholic Bishop Zeng Jingmu. Bishop Zeng had already spent close to 30 years in Chinese prisons and prison labor camps, just because of his faith.

There are some 13 Roman Catholic Bishops suffering in Chinese prisons and prison through labor camps because of their faith. Their languishing in prison is part of President Clinton's China legacy. That President Clinton was silent, that he bent over backwards to placate a regime that persecutes old and frail people of faith—this has to be factored into compiling President Clinton's China legacy.

That there are hundreds of Protestant House Church leaders in prison or prison through labor camps because of their faith has to be included in assessing President Clinton's legacy.

President Clinton used tough words about China to help get himself elected in 1992, criticizing President Bush's policy of engagement with China. It is too bad that President Clinton did not live up to his campaign rhetoric and campaign promises about China. Now with the passing of PNTR, with all of this talk about Clinton's China legacy being shaped by the passage of PNTR, it is imperative to focus on the truth and history.

History will show, that Clinton's China legacy is that the U.S. government kowtowed to a Chinese regime that worsened in its persecution and oppression of its own people. Clinton's China legacy will be that more people of faith and lovers of freedom in China languish in forced labor camps and bear the scars of torture and imprisonment because of their beliefs.

TRIBUTE TO MR. DONALD HAMILTON

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Mr. Speaker, it gives me great pleasure to pay tribute to an outstanding resident of Indiana's First Congressional District, Mr. Donald Hamilton. On September 29, 2000, Mr. Hamilton, along with his friends and family, will be honored for his 32 years of dedicated service to the Laborer's International Union Local #41, at a dinner to be held at the International Union of Operating Engineers Local #150, in Merrillville, Indiana. Mr. Hamilton's distinguished career in the labor movement has contributed to the safety and security of workers in his community and improved the quality of life for laborers throughout Northwest Indiana.

Mr. Hamilton has devoted his entire working career toward the expansion of labor ideals and fair standards for all working people. For more than 30 years, Mr. Hamilton has been a member of Local #41, and has held several positions throughout his tenure. His peers were sorry to see him retire from perhaps his most important role at Local #41, that of Business Agent, on August 1, 2000. Don served admirably as Business Agent for Local #41 since his election 18 years ago. While this was his longest held position, and the one for which his co-workers at Local #41 will always remember him, he never limited his dedication to that one position. Mr. Hamilton served as vice-president of the Indiana State District Council of Laborers and HOD Carriers for eight years, sat on the executive board for six years, and served as auditor for three years. For five years, Don served as president of the Northwest Indiana Building and Construction Trades Council, two years as its vice president and three years as its secretary-treasurer.

Don's contributions are not limited to labor causes. He regularly finds time to serve his community as well. He is the past president of the Lake County Planning Commission and was a board member for eight years. He has also spent two years as a board member of the Lake County Association for Retarded of Northwest Indiana. Don Hamilton has dedicated much of his life to efforts that benefit his fellow union members and advance the prosperity and strength of his community of Northwest Indiana and the entire state.

On this special day, I offer my heartfelt congratulations to Don Hamilton. His large circle of family and friends can be proud of the contributions this prominent individual has made. His work in the labor movement provided union workers in Northwest Indiana with opportunities they certainly would not have otherwise enjoyed. Mr. Hamilton's leadership kept the region's labor force strong and helped keep Americans working. Those who have worked with him in the labor movement and in his community will surely miss Mr. Hamilton's dedication and sincerity. I hope my distinguished colleagues will join me in wishing Don Hamilton a long, happy, and productive retirement.

HONORING GRANDMASTER DAE WOONG CHUNG

HON. GARY G. MILLER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. GARY MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I honor Grandmaster Dae Woong Chung, who has been teaching the traditions of Taekwondo to the citizens of Pomona and the surrounding area for over 35 years. Grandmaster Chung has a 9th degree black belt.

Eighteen years ago, Grandmaster Chung started a program of teaching high school students at Pomona Unified School District at no cost to them. He also has instructors teaching at many local churches and service organizations, such as Boys' and Girls' Clubs and YMCA's.

Grandmaster Chung is currently the Director of the Saehan Bank, which has four locations in the counties of Los Angeles and Orange. In fact, the newest location opens today, in the my district, in the city of Rowland Heights.

Grandmaster Chung was the first Taekwondo master to teach Taekwondo in California, starting back in 1965, and has since dedicated his life to teaching the martial art of his mother country to the citizens in the Pomona Valley.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that this House please join me in recognizing, honoring and commending Grandmaster Chung for his 35 years of commitment and outstanding service to our community.

HONORING OLYMPIAN GARRETT LOWNEY

HON. MARK GREEN

OF WISCONSIN

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. GREEN of Wisconsin. Mr. Speaker, today I offer a brief tribute to a young man from my district, Garrett Lowney, who this week was awarded the Bronze Medal at the Summer Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia.

Garrett, a U.S. Olympian competing in Greco-Roman wrestling, overcame injury and adversity to bring the Bronze Medal home to the United States in a sport typically dominated by other nations. I know all of us back in northeastern Wisconsin are very proud of his achievements, and folks across America should share that pride. For Garrett's medal is as much an achievement for our nation as it is for Garrett himself.

To win his victory, Garrett defeated a two-time champion Silver Medal winner, a five-time world champion, and another two-time world champion, among others. Despite a neck injury and being forced to battle through overtime in four of his matches, Garrett managed to win every match except one—and became the youngest American ever to win a wrestling medal in the Olympic games.

So today, I say thank you, Garrett Lowney. Thank you for making us proud. Thank you for devoting so much of yourself, your time, and your talents to excellence and to our Nation.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

CONGRATULATING PURDUE UNIVERSITY CALUMET

HON. PETER J. VISCLOSKY

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. VISCLOSKY. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise before you to congratulate Purdue University Calumet as it holds its Chancellor's Gala and Hall of Fame Reception tonight, September 28, 2000, at the Center for Visual and Performing Arts in Munster, Indiana.

Part of the internationally renowned Purdue University system, Purdue University Calumet, located in Hammond, Indiana, is a comprehensive regional university with some 9,300 students and 80 academic programs focused on the educational needs of the people in Northwest Indiana. Tonight's dinner will be in recognition of the people who helped make Purdue Calumet what it is today. As part of the gala event, Purdue Calumet Chancellor James Yackel and new Purdue University President Martin Jischke have the honor and privilege to induct this year's honorees into Purdue Calumet's Hall of Fame. The Purdue University Calumet Hall of Fame was founded in 1996 in honor of Purdue Calumet's 50th Anniversary. It is awarded to alumni and friends of Purdue Calumet who have made significant accomplishments and have displayed a lifelong dedication to the university, the community, and the world. This year's honorees include Steven C. Beering, the recently retired Purdue University President, Adam Benjamin, Jr., the late Northwest Indiana Congressman, and the Northern Indiana Public Service Company.

Steven C. Beering, Purdue University President Emeritus, will receive the Chancellor's Award for Dedication to Higher Education and Extraordinary Public Service, and will be inducted into the Purdue University Calumet Hall of Fame for his long-time support of the Purdue Calumet campus. He served as president of Purdue University for 17 years before his retirement last month. During his tenure, the Purdue system experienced significant growth in both enrollment and facilities. Clear examples of his commitment to expanding facilities and services at Purdue Calumet can be seen in the development of the Donald S. Powers Computer Education Building, the Classroom Office Building, the Charlotte R. Riley Child Center, the Challenger Learning Center of Northwest Indiana, and Purdue Calumet's newest facility, the Center at Purdue University Calumet, a conference and special events facility. His colleagues at Purdue Calumet will sincerely miss President Beering and his commitment to educational and administrative excellence.

The Chancellor's Award for Extraordinary Public Service will be presented posthumously to Congressman Adam Benjamin, Jr. Congressman Benjamin represented Indiana's First Congressional District from 1976 until his death in 1982. Prior to his election to Congress, Benjamin served as the zoning administrator and the executive secretary to the mayor in Gary, Indiana. He was elected to the Indiana State House in 1966 and to the Indiana State Senate in 1970. The late Congressman Benjamin tirelessly devoted himself to advancing the interests of his constituents in Northwest Indiana. He was characterized by many as a dedicated and effective public servant, sharing the hopes and dreams of the people he served and the community he represented.

Northern Indiana Public Service Company (NIPSCO) will receive the Carl H. Elliott Award for exceptional Philanthropy for its extensive support of non-profit organizations in Northwest Indiana. Notably, NIPSCO has established an endowed scholarship at Purdue Calumet, and has provided start-up funding for the University's Resource Center and Entrepreneurship Center. The company's investment in the educational opportunities of those in its community has earned it the acclaim of students, educators, and administrators at Purdue Calumet.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you and my other distinguished colleagues to join me in congratulating Purdue University Calumet and this year's Hall of Fame inductees for their lifetime dedication not only to the university, but to all of Northwest Indiana.

A TRIBUTE TO COMMANDER TEMPLE L. ALLEN

HON. DUNCAN HUNTER

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. HUNTER. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to recognize the outstanding service and dedication of my friend from San Diego, Lieutenant Commander Temple L. Allen. His career in the United States Navy spans three decades and has earned many awards and recognitions, including Navy Commendation Medal presented to him by the Secretary of the Navy. I would like to take a moment a commend Temple's exceptional service to our country.

Temple began half a century ago in Ontario, California where he enlisted, and upon finishing submarine school was assigned to the U.S.S. Catfish. Since then, Temple went on to provide expert organizational guidance and leadership that was required to effectively repair many submarines at the NEREUS facility. He was recognized by his peers for his outstanding responsiveness in the NEREUS repair department and the high quality of work that was directly attributed to him. Throughout his tenure in the Navy, Temple inspired leadership, professionalism, and devotion to duty to those he served with and has continually conducted himself with the highest traditions of the United States Navy.

Mr. Speaker, in an era when the U.S. military is often not given sufficient recognition, outstanding leaders, such as Temple, exemplify the commitment our armed forces has to superior performance. As a veteran and Chairman of the House Subcommittee on Military Procurement, I would like to commend Commander Temple L. Allen for all of his efforts and years of service and to the United States Navy and our country.

TRIBUTE TO ''ANGELS IN ADOPTION'' KEVIN AND EILEEN GILLIGAN

HON. JAMES T. WALSH

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. WALSH. Mr. Speaker, each year in an effort to improve adoption policy and practice, the Congressional Coalition on Adoption holds a national award ceremony honoring ''Angels in Adoption.'' The purpose of the ''Angels in Adoption'' campaign is to help raise public awareness of the many different ways committed individuals in our country can help children and families through adoption. This crusade is an opportunity to recognize these unsung heroes who make a difference for needy children all across the world.

Today, I would like to recognize two of this year's ''Angels in Adoption'' from my congressional district, Kevin and Eileen Gilligan of LaFayette, New York. As a couple, the Gilligans epitomize the loving, caring commitment found in all adoptive parents. In June of 1999, Kevin Gilligan wrote a journal for his new and youngest son, Louis, chronicling their trip to the Russia Republic to adopt him, which became front-page stories in the Syracuse Newspapers. Previously, the Gilligans adopted their daughter, Addie, who is now 13 years old, and their son, Min, who is 11 years old, from Korea.

I want to commend the Gilligans for the warmth and compassion they have extended to children in need. When Kevin and Eileen met Louis for the first time, he did not even know how to express the most simple of affections, a kiss. As a family, they welcomed him and their two other children into their home and showed them how to love and be loved.

I use this opportunity to recognize Central New York's ''Angels in Adoption,'' Kevin and Eileen Gilligan, and salute all adopted families in our nation.

IN RECOGNITION OF STATE SENATOR M. ADELA ''DELL'' EADS' OUTSTANDING SERVICE TO THE PEOPLE OF CONNECTICUT

HON. NANCY L. JOHNSON

OF CONNECTICUT

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mrs. JOHNSON of Connecticut. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to mark the end of an era in the government of my home state of Connecticut. With the retirement of State Senator M. Adela ''Dell'' Eads, the Connecticut Legislature is losing more than just a valued and respected member, it is losing a woman who represents the best that Connecticut has to offer, the epitome of the finest tradition of public service.

With over 24 years of service in the Connecticut State Legislature, Dell has left her mark on countless pieces of landmark legislation. From her work to establish the Connecticut Office of the Child Advocate to her leadership on welfare reform, Dell always championed the cause of Connecticut's children and families and acted to protect their interests.

But while Dell's legislative accomplishments are too numerous to mention, the one quality she will be remembered for is clear: leadership. Whether it was as leader of the Republican caucus or as President Pro Tem of the Senate, Dell commanded the respect of adversaries and allies alike. Her career in the legislature is a testament to the fact that civility, intelligence, integrity and strength are qualities that can be found in one individual. Such a public servant is a gift to be treasured in a democracy.

Connecticut and our country are the beneficiaries of the outstanding service provided by M. Adela Eads. I have been privileged to serve with her and to enjoy her friendship as well. I wish her all the best for a happy, healthy and productive retirement.

TRIBUTE TO THE HISPANIC PARADE COMMITTEE, INC.

HON. JOSE E. SERRANO

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. SERRANO. Mr. Speaker, it is with great joy that I today pay tribute to the Hispanic Parade Committee, Inc. on its 36th Grand Parade. The parade will be held on October 8, 2000, in New York City.

In 1965 the Hispanic Societies met in New York for the purpose of celebrating the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus on October 12, 1492. This was to be accomplished through a parade, which would celebrate the heritage and spirit of the children of the Hispanic American union with a message from Spain and the Latin American nations, representing each country's culture, traditions and folklore.

Mr. Speaker, this project came to fruition in August of 1965 when the Hispanic Societies agreed to celebrate with a true Fiesta in the Latin American spirit that every year in the city of New York on the Sunday closest to the 12th of October. From that year on, the Hispanic Parade Committee has organized the memorable annual event now known as ''Desfile de la Hispanidad'' with the participation of Spain and all Hispanic American nations, to commemorate and celebrate Hispanic culture, races, language, religion, and traditions through colorful presentations of each country's costumes, folklore, and music, marching up Fifth Avenue from 44th Street to 72nd Street.

The Hispanic Parade Committee is made up of 50 organizations and a board of 27 representatives who spend a whole year preparing and organizing this complex multinational public event, with numerous cultural and entertainment activities. Among the many activities are the Spring Dance in honor of the reigning Queen of the Parade and her Court of Honor; the Salute to the Americas, which are series of conferences and lectures given by important authorities of the Hispanic world; the Art Exhibits where Latin American artists are invited to exhibit their art; the Sports Championships, which include soccer and softball competitions; the election of the Queen of the Hispanic Parade; a Catholic Mass of the Hispanic Parade, which is celebrated in St. Patrick's Cathedral and dedicated to a Patron Saint of a participating country; and the Great Gala Banquet to celebrate and recognize outstanding individuals of the Hispanic world.

The Hispanic Parade Committee has been growing every year. Fifty organizations belonging to the twenty-one Hispanic-American countries are now affiliated in the Parade, there will be a band, 40 allegorical carriages, and 30 folkloric groups representing these organizations.

Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride that I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing the Hispanic Parade Committee, Inc. and in wishing them continued success on October 8 and in the future.

HONORING THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE RAVENNA CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

HON. ERNIE FLETCHER

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. FLETCHER. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor to recognize the Ravenna Church of the Nazarene during its 50th Anniversary celebration. This quaint church, nestled in Central Kentucky, has served the community and its members in many different ways over the past 50 years—now they come together to reflect on the many memories and years of fellowship.

Located on Main Street in Ravenna, Kentucky, the Church of the Nazarene holds services in the same building that was dedicated in November of 1956. Now, 50 years later, the Church still stands on a strong foundation, rich with faith and a strong desire to serve its congregation and the surrounding community. It's an active congregation, with weekly services and children's groups. Each year, the congregation comes together for the annual homecoming, where stories are shared and many past years are revisited with joy.

It is a pleasure to recognize the Ravenna Church of the Nazarene on the House floor today, during its 50th Anniversary celebration. I wish this church and its members the very best for many, many years to come.

THE COLORADO COALITION FOR NEW ENERGY TECHNOLOGIES

HON. MATT SALMON

OF ARIZONA

HON. MARK UDALL

OF COLORADO

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. SALMON. Mr. Speaker, though my colleague, Mr. UDALL of Colorado, and I are from different states and opposite political parties, we join together today in saluting the Colorado Coalition for New Energy Technologies. This coalition, established early this year, brings together Colorado businesses and non-profit groups in support of environmentally responsible economic growth through the efficient use of Colorado's abundant and clean sources of energy.

This new coalition has already accomplished several successes in its short tenure, but perhaps one of the most notable was to help key members of the Colorado state legislature establish the Colorado Renewables and Energy Efficiency Caucus. Modeled on the U.S. House Renewables and Energy Efficiency Caucus, of which we are co-chairs, this state caucus was founded in March 2000 by seven state Senators and Representatives of both parties. Within two months of its founding, this caucus more than doubled in size to 17 state legislators before the 2000 Colorado General Assembly adjourned. Like the U.S. House Caucus, the primary goal of the Colorado caucus is to educate legislators about cutting-edge advances in renewable energy and efficiency technologies, many of which are developed in Colorado at the National Renewable Energy Laboratory in Golden.

Throughout its activities, the Colorado Coalition for New Energy Technologies seeks to emphasize how investment in new energy technologies helps sustain the economic prosperity of Colorado and of the United States. In its short existence, it has proven to be a resource for its members, as well as to Colorado state legislators seeking timely and accurate information on new energy technologies.

We salute the Colorado Coalition for New Energy Technologies, its members and its leadership for the valuable contribution it is making to the formation of energy policy in Colorado.

ANNUAL BANKING FEE SURVEY EXTENSION ACT

HON. JOHN J. LaFALCE

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. LAFALCE. Mr. Speaker, I am today introducing legislation to extend and expand provisions in current law that require the Federal Reserve Board to report annually to Congress on the cost and availability of retail banking services. These annual bank fee studies have been an invaluable source of information about banking costs and trends that have benefitted consumers and assisted the Banking Committee's oversight of financial activities. The Federal Reserve Board acted last year, under existing law, to terminate all future bank fee reporting. My legislation would amend current law to continue these reports and expand them to reflect broader market activity. The House has passed broader legislation reauthorizing a number of important consumer reports, including the bank fee report in its current form, but that bill is currently awaiting Senate action.

In 1989, Congress directed the Federal Reserve Board, as part of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act (FIRREA), to study and report annually on discernible changes in the cost and availability of certain retail banking services. The purpose was to determine whether banks would pass on the expense of higher deposit insurance costs resulting from the savings and loan crisis to consumers. These annual studies were expanded, under the Riegle-Neal Interstate Banking and Branching Efficiency Act of 1994, to include more detailed state-by-state reporting on discernible changes in the cost and availability of retail banking services resulting from the lifting of bank interstate branching restrictions.

Last year, the Federal Reserve Board determined that its annual banking fee surveys and reports were no longer needed. Responding to provisions of the 1995 Federal Reports Elimination and Sunset Act that permit federal agencies to eliminate outdated or unnecessary reports, the Board included the annual bank fees surveys among a number of Congressionally mandated reports that it proposed to eliminate. The Board's rationale was that the original intent of the reports, determining whether the added costs of deposit insurance were being passed on to consumers, was no longer relevant since banks are now paying minimal premiums for FDIC deposit insurance, and consumers now have broader access to bank fee information over the Internet.

While concerns with higher banking costs arising from the S&L crisis have certainly subsided, the annual service fee reports have taken on increased importance in recent years with the passage of interstate branching and increased consolidation within the banking industry. Passage of the landmark Financial Service Modernization Act last year also creates a continuing imperative to understand how increased integration and cross marketing of services among banks, investment firms and insurance companies will affect the cost and availability of basic financial services. Consumer groups have raised very credible arguments that the annual bank fee reports are more necessary now than at any time in the past to determine what effect more rapid consolidation among financial services providers is having on consumers—whether the costs of mergers and acquisition are being passed on to consumers and whether consumers realize any of the promised cost benefits of financial modernization.

I have also found the Federal Reserve's annual fee reports to be the only official source of information documenting several extremely important changes within the retail banking sector. In recent years, non-interest income from fees and services has replaced interest income as the major contributor to the record levels of bank profits. In the past three years alone, bank non-interest income has increased on average by 18 percent, with interest income growing by roughly 4 percent annually. Non-interest income has quickly replaced traditional interest charges as the major contributor to bank earnings. As a result, banks of all sizes have sought out new sources of fee income to maintain earnings as greater competition among lenders has shrunk bank lending margins.

These changes have prompted banks and thrift institutions to institute a pay-for-service approach to basic banking and a ''penalty pricing'' approach to credit cards and ATMs that have generated significant new revenue for banks while antagonizing increasing numbers of consumers. The Federal Reserve Board's annual reports have documented these changes, showing significant and steady growth in over 20 categories of banking service fees. The report has also shown substantially higher average growth in fees among larger multi-state banks and thrifts than among smaller local institutions. This has provided important comparison shopping information for consumers and may help explain why many of the nation's largest banking institutions support the Board's decision to eliminate these reports.

Given the changing financial marketplace and the marked changes in retail banking services, the information provided in the bank fee reports is more important now than at any time in the past decade. It should be Congress, not the Federal Reserve Board, that determines when the information provided in these annual reports is no longer needed by Congress or relevant to consumers.

My legislation, the ''Annual Banking Fee Survey Extension Act,'' proposes two changes in current law to assure that the Federal Reserve Board continues reporting annually to Congress on the cost and availability of retail banking services until such time that Congress determines it is no longer relevant or necessary. First, it amends the Federal Reports Elimination and Sunset Act of 19956 to exempt the annual bank fee reports from the discretionary authority provided the Federal Reserve Board to discontinue outdated or unnecessary reporting requirements. Second, it amends the 1994 Riegle-Neal Interstate Branching Act to repeal a provision that would sunset aspects of the fee study requirement in late 2001.

In addition, the bill expands the mandate for annual fee reporting to include the fees for retail services charged by credit unions. Past surveys and reports have included only the fees charged by bank and thrift institutions. A large and growing segment of our population currently obtains checking and other financial services from credit unions. Inclusion of credit union fees would make the annual reports more broadly representative of the broader consumer marketplace. It would also document differences in costs between banks, thrifts and credit unions that will enhance competition and benefit consumers.

My legislation also expands the focus of the annual fee studies to include various fees and charges associated with credit cards. Past fee reports have included data only on basic checking and savings account services and only those additional fees specifically requested by statute, such as fees associated with ATM transactions. Institutions that offer credit cards now impose a large and growing array of charges and penalties, such as late payment fees, annual fees, over-the-limit fees, cash advance fees, convenience check fees, foreign currency conversion fees, and many more. I have received more complaints from my constituents about credit card fees than all other banking fees combined. Credit cards, in general, are one of the foremost concerns among consumers in my district and, I believe, among consumers in all parts of the country. The fees and penalties charged in connection with credit cards clearly should be incorporated in any future study of retail banking costs.

Mr. Speaker, the financial marketplace has changed dramatically over the past half decade and will continue to change in response to the landmark financial modernization legislation we enacted last year. It is imperative that Congress have all the information necessary to assess whether these changes will enhance the services available to consumers or only benefits financial institutions at the expense of consumers. My legislation merely extends Congress' prior request for annual reporting on banking fees and costs. This is reasonable and responsible legislation that Congress should enact before adjournment this year.

HONG KONG TRANSITION TASK FORCE

HON. DOUG BEREUTER

OF NEBRASKA

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. BEREUTER. Mr. Speaker, following his visit to Hong Kong in April 1997, Speaker Gingrich tasked this Member with the responsibility of creating the Speaker's Task Force on the Hong Kong Transition and of observing and reporting on Hong Kong's status following its return to the People's Republic of China. The Task Force is bipartisan in nature and all members of it have been drawn from the Subcommittee on Asia and the Pacific, of which this Member is the Chairman.

On behalf of the Task Force, this Member would like to inform his colleagues that the eighth report of the Speaker's Task Force on the Hong Kong Transition has been filed. In summary, the Task Force continues to believe that the transition has progressed satisfactorily, although concerns remain in areas such as press self-censorship and controls, export controls and most notably, rule of law. The recent controversial remarks by Chinese officials warning against press coverage of issues regarding Taiwan and of business support for Taiwan independence have been a concern, as has the issue of judicial independence and the rule of law as a result of the ''right of abode'' case. These issues will need to be watched closely.

Hong Kong's political system continues to evolve, although progress towards further democratization has not been as rapid as many would like. The Hong Kong press remains free and continues to comment critically on the People's Republic of China (PRC), although threatening remarks by PRC officials in reference to press coverage related to Taiwan is worrisome. Public demonstrations continue to be held. Indeed, there is a vigorous public debate on the issues of democracy and law. The legislature and free press have used their roles to increase government accountability and transparency.

Mr. Speaker, a copy of the Task Force's eighth report is available on the internet website of the Subcommittee on Asia and the Pacific: www.house.gov/international relations/ap/ap.htm. It is also available in hard-copy from the Subcommittee office.

REPUBLIC OF CHINA'S NATIONAL DAY

HON. PETER T. KING

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. KING. Mr. Speaker, as President Chen Shui-bian, Vice President Annette Lu and the people of the Republic of China prepare to celebrate their National Day on October 10, 2000, I wish to extend to them my congratulations.

The Republic of China on Taiwan has a lot to be proud of. Taiwan's economy is very strong. For instance, export orders reached US $74 billion from January to June, up 21 percent from the same period last year. In June of this year, exports and imports enjoyed almost 25 percent growth from the year-earlier period. It is the government's policy to continue to develop Taiwan's new economy based on information and high technologies. Furthermore, Taiwan's citizens enjoy one of the highest living standards in the world. Politically, Taiwan is a true democracy with free island-wide elections, press independence and political pluralism.

Mr. Speaker, Taiwan is a model of success for many countries in the world, and we need to give Taiwan our approbation and support.

ADDRESSING ALCOHOL AND THE COLLEGE CAMPUS

HON. DEBORAH PRYCE

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Ms. PRYCE of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to discuss a serious problem facing our society today—the misuse of beverage alcohol on our nation's college and university campuses. This problem negatively impacts students, universities and industry as well as our communities. Therefore, it is essential that these entities work together to solve this national problem. Mr. Speaker I would like to draw the attention of my colleagues to the creative solutions being pursued by community-based partnerships across America.

On October 23rd to 25th in Washington, D.C., a number of colleges and universities, along with the Distilled Spirits Council of the United States, will convene a national conference to discuss best practices, create new partnerships and share information on solutions to this complex problem. During this weekend, students, retailers, community leaders, manufacturers, university administrators, law enforcement officials and parents will come together in partnership to discuss solutions to this challenge.

I commend these institutions of higher education and the distilled spirits industry for their leadership on this issue. As is the case with many societal problems, solutions are most effective when everyone works together.

Mr. Speaker, I know I speak for many of my colleagues in saying we eagerly await the action-oriented plans this conference will produce. I wish all the participants, supporters and planning partners the best as they work together toward a common goal.

92ND DIVISION REUNION

HON. WILLIAM J. COYNE

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. COYNE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to call the House's attention to a reunion that will take place in my congressional district on October 6th through 8th. The U.S. Army's 92nd Infantry Division, the ''Buffalo Division,'' will be holding a reunion at the Wyndham Garden Hotel in Pittsburgh.

The 92nd Infantry Division was an Army division composed of African American soldiers which saw action in both World War I and World War II. The 92nd Infantry Division served in the Meuse-Argonne region and Lorraine in World War I, and it participated in the hard fighting up the Italian peninsula during World War II. The Division saw action in World War II in the North Apennines and the Po Valley. It participated in the crossing of the Arno River, the occupation of Lucca, and the penetration of the Gothic Line, as well as an advance north along the Ligurian coast. The 92nd Division's actions demonstrated the bravery and dedication of African Americans to their country.

Until this year, the 92nd Infantry Division's annual reunions had always been held in Washington, D.C., but thanks to the initiative of the Reverend James Tillman, a veteran of the 92nd Infantry Division, the unit's 58th reunion will be held in Pittsburgh. Reverend Tillman and retired Army Lieutenant Colonel Patricia Tucker are co-chairing this reunion. The decision to hold this reunion in Pittsburgh reflects the fact that Alleghany County is home to roughly 100 of these ''Buffalo Soldiers,'' but it also provides an excellent opportunity for raising the awareness of the region's residents about the combat service of patriotic African Americans in the U.S. Army at a time when it was operating under the shadow of racism, segregation, and discrimination. Mr. Speaker, I am proud that the veterans of the 92nd Infantry Division have chosen Pittsburgh for their annual reunion. I want to thank them for their herioc service to their country, and I want to extend a warm welcome to all of the reunion participants on behalf of the people of Pennsylvania's 14th Congressional District.

VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

HON. BARBARA LEE

OF CALIFORNIA

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Ms. LEE. Mr. Speaker, I am pleased that the House passed H.R. 1248, the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) of 1999 by a vote of 415–3. H.R. 1248 will reauthorize the act for 5 years and expand preventive measures against violence against women.

This measure will maintain and expand battered women's shelter programs, rape prevention programs as well as provide assistance to the growing number of victims.

While I was a state senator in California, I introduced similar legislation because I believed then, as I do now, that this issue is extremely important to the lives of women and their children. It has been ignored for too long.

In the past, domestic violence was not considered a crime. Today, however, police officers are getting trained to understand these crimes as well improve their ability to enforce the law.

VAWA has provided critical services to thousands of battered women. Since VAWA passed, the Department of Justice and Health and Human Services have awarded over $1.6 billion in grants nationwide to support the work of prosecutors, law enforcement officials, the courts, victims' advocates, health care and social service professionals, and intervention and prevention programs.

In addition, VAWA established a domestic violence hotline, which has received over half a million calls.

Unfortunately, domestic violence still devastates the lives of many women and children. Nearly 900,000 women experience violence at the hands of an intimate partner every year. Close to one-third of women murdered each year are killed by their husbands or significant other; and domestic violence accounts for over 20% of all violent crimes against women.

Children should not have to watch their mothers get beaten. Unfortunately, some of these children grow up to continue the cycle of abuse. And, they end up in prison.

Again, I am pleased with the passage of the VAWA because it has helped to save numerous lives of women and their children. This law has provided battered women and their children, a safe haven, and the support necessary for their physical and emotional security.

VAWA has given a second chance to these women as well as saved many of their lives.

Violence against women should not be tolerated. This legislation provides greater protections to all the women who have been victimized and abused.

AMERICAN INTERESTS IN THE MIDDLE EAST PEACE PROCESS

SPEECH OF

HON. JOHN D. DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, September 26, 2000

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, yesterday, the House passed H.R. 5272, the inappropriately named ''Peace Through Negotiations Act of 2000.'' This legislation is unnecessary, ill timed and not in the best interest of our country or the Middle East peace process. I believe, like the Administration, that the Palestinian Authority should not unilaterally declare statehood outside the framework of a negotiated peace settlement. Unilateral actions by either the Palestinians or Israelis can erode, disrupt, and possibly derail a peace process that we all support and want to see to conclusion in order for future generations to be able to live a normal and stable life.

For starters, this legislation was wholly unnecessary given President Arafat's recent decision not to unilaterally declare a state because it would jeopardize the peace process. Instead of acknowledging the fact that the Palestinian Authority acted with considerable restraint in making this decision, which I will note was not popular among the Palestinian people, we have unfairly and unnecessarily condemned the Palestinian Authority at the very time discussion between Arafat and Prime Minister Barak were underway.

I ask my colleagues, have you read this legislation known as the ''Peace Through Negotiations Act?'' I have and that is why I am concerned, because while the message sent by H.R. 5272 was bad, its substance is worse.

In particular, I am concerned that Section 4a(1) of the legislation supercedes a portion of the Middle East Peace Facilitation Act and reverses a presidential determination on the national security of the United States. Reversing a standing law that has successfully guided our policy in the Middle East peace process should only be done after serious deliberations. Reversing a Presidential action that he determines is in the national security of the United States is even more serious. Both these actions are done by this legislation without a single hearing or public request for the President's views. Members of the International Relations Committee were given less than twenty-four hours notice of the mark-up of this legislation. The bill passed the Committee on Tuesday with barely half the Members present and voting. The full House passed it on Wednesday under restrictive procedures denying anyone the opportunity to amend it. This legislation is too important to be acted upon in such a rushed fashion. To have done so does not speak highly of the Republican leadership of the House of Representatives.

Moreover, the legislation is flawed because it does not address unilateral actions of all parties. In my view, the unwillingness of the legislation to address unilateral actions of both sides puts our Middle East peace process negotiators in a terrible position. We in Congress should not take actions that make the efforts of American peacemakers more difficult.

My hope is that our colleagues in the Senate do not follow the House's sad example and rush to action without sufficient consideration of all of the ramifications of this legislation.

INTRODUCTION OF THE HOME HEALTH CARE PROTECTION ACT OF 2000

HON. EDWARD J. MARKEY

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. MARKEY. Mr. Speaker, this week I introduced the Home Health Care Protection Act of 2000, H.R. 5303, the companion bill to the Senate version introduced by Senator JEFFORDS. This bill will clarify the definition of ''homebound'' and improve the lives of millions of Americans who are confined to the home as well as their caregivers.

In my own family, my mother who was afflicted with Alzheimer's Disease was confined to the home for over eight years. My father was her caregiver. I was awed by his utter devotion and dedication to her care, day in and day out. Taking care of an Alzheimer's patient is grueling. It's a 24 hour a day job, 7 days a week. For many caregivers the only break in attending to the needs of the Alzheimer's patient is through adult day care services. Adult day care not only provides therapy for the Alzheimer's patient but a desperately needed break for the caregiver.

But, Mr. Speaker, the unfortunate truth is that Medicare beneficiaries are unable to attend adult day care without losing their home health benefits because of a narrow interpretation of the Medicare law. Alzheimer's patients may not attend adult day care without losing their home health benefits even though we know that adult day care services are a complement to home health benefits, relieve caregiver burdens and delay nursing home placement—all at zero cost to the Medicare program.

However, yesterday in the Commerce Committee we took a step toward correcting this situation—a victory was won for Alzheimer's patients and their caregivers. The BBA giveback package which was passed out of Committee unanimously by voice vote included language clarifying the ''homebound'' definition in the law allowing for Medicare beneficiaries with Alzheimer's disease who are confined to the home to attend adult day care services without losing their home health benefits.

While we took a step in addressing this important issue with respect to Alzheimer's patient's broader language to encompass ALL beneficiaries who are confined to the home was not included by the Chairman's mark. Furthermore, this language will not allow any beneficiaries who are confined to the home to attend religious services, or to take a slow, arduous walk around the block, or to attend once in a lifetime events like a granddaughter's graduation, or a grandson's wedding.

Mr. Speaker, this isn't right.

However, H.R. 5303, The Home Health Care Protection Act of 2000, is designed to correct this flaw. H.R. 5303, is the companion bill to the Senate version introduced by Senator JEFFORDS. It further clarifies the ''homebound'' definition to allow for those who have had the misfortune of an illness which confines them to the home, to attend a graduation, to go to their place of worship and to attend adult day care services.

It's time we clarify the definition of ''homebound'' in the Medicare law. Homebound beneficiaries should be free to leave the home under special circumstances without fear of losing their home health benefits. It's only right, Mr. Speaker. Americans who are confined to their homes deserve better. We can and should do more for them. Making the Home Health Care Protection Act of 2000 the law of the land will do just that.

COLLEAGUES PRAISE CHAIRMAN SHUSTER'S LEADERSHIP AT TRANSPORTATION COMMITTEE HELM

HON. JOHN J. DUNCAN, JR.

OF TENNESSEE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 28, 2000

Mr. DUNCAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to one of the greatest committee chairmen we have seen during the past few years in the House. He has served in the House of Representatives for 28 years, 6 of those as Chairman of the Transportation and Infrastructure Committee, the largest and most productive committee in the Congress.

Following the committee's final full committee meeting Wednesday of this week, my colleagues and I surprised Chairman SHUSTER with the presentation of a plaque to him commemorating his achievements as Chairman.

During that presentation and speaking on behalf of Committee Democrats, Ranking Member JIM OBERSTAR (D–MN) said:

Mr. Chairman, a few short moments ago we passed a bill designating a courthouse for President Theodore Roosevelt.

I quote Roosevelt's ''The Man in the Arena'' speech:

''It is not the critic who counts, not the man who points out how other strong men stumbled or how the doer of deeds could have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood, who strives valiantly, who errs and comes up short again, and again, because there is no effort without some error or shortcoming, but who knows the great enthusiasm, the great devotion, who, spends himself for a worthy cause; who at best, knows in the end the triumph of the high achievement, and who, at the worst, if he fails, at least he fails while daring greatly so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat.''

Mr. Chairman, you are a man in the arena—and your achievements as Chairman speak for themselves. Everyone in this room knows the enormous accomplishments of TEA 21, AIR 21, and trust fund firewalls. Some may not know the ''smaller'' accomplishments that do not get the headlines—such as reauthorization of the Economic Development Administration and the Appalachian Regional Commission—''little'' programs that make a real difference in the lives of our people. We all serve on this Committee because we believe that its transportation, infrastructure, and environmental programs make a real difference in our constituents', and all American's lives.

Mr. Chairman, part of the joy of serving on this Committee is the way in which we work together to develop bipartisan bills. In this Congress, the Committee has: Held 114 hearings; reported 98 bills, 30 percent of bills reported by all Committees in the House (325); passed 92 bills, 22 percent of all bills passed by the House (427); and 30 Transportation Committee bills have become law, 11 percent of all public laws enacted in the 106th Congress (269).

And that is the record only so far—I can say with confidence that many more Transportation Committee bills will become law before the 106th Congress adjourns.

Mr. Chairman, we, as a Committee, have worked extraordinarily well over the last 6 years under your leadership. We do not know what the elections hold this November and I am not here to predict. However, under current House Rules, you will be unable to chair the Committee in the 107th Congress. I did not want this opportunity to pass without recognizing your effective bipartisan leadership of this Committee.

On behalf of our Committee's Democrats and particularly myself, I present you with a plaque to commemorate your chairmanship. For the 104th and 105th Congresses, it lists the number of hearings held, Committee bills passed by the House of Representatives, and bills that have become law. It has a spot for the 106th Congress; we will fill that in when we have completed our work.

It also has a gavel—a gavel that you have wielded so well for these 6 years. Congratulations, Mr. Chairman.

In addition to Mr. OBERSTAR, Mr. THOMAS PETRI (R-WI), Chairman of the Ground Transportation Subcommittee, said, ''Chairman SHUSTER's historic leadership deservedly has been recognized by the prestigious Congressional Quarterly which named him one of the five top 'Legislative Drivers' in the Congress, (the other four being U.S. Senators), and the National Journal recently reported that 'SHUSTER has chalked up a remarkable record. Not surprisingly, his colleagues regard him as one of the last great chairmen on Capitol Hill.' We all salute Chairman SHUSTER for his extraordinary accomplishments. This has been the 6 most productive years in the Committee's history.''

I have said many times that if a young Member of Congress wanted to see how to get things accomplished in the Congress, he should follow Chairman BUD SHUSTER for awhile.

Chairman SHUSTER is respected by everyone, on both sides of the aisle, and staff as well as Members.

Chairman SHUSTER has spent his career building America. The fruits of his work can be seen all over this Nation, and improvements that he started will be going on for many years.

Our economy is much stronger, and, more importantly, lives are being saved because of projects which owe their genesis in major part to BUD SHUSTER.

I personally appreciate the kindness shown to me by Chairman SHUSTER. I could not have been the Chairman of the Aviation Subcommittee, the highlight of my service in the Congress, if it had not been for BUD SHUSTER.

I owe him a great personal debt, but I believe our country does as well. I believe that this Nation is a much better place today because of Chairman BUD SHUSTER, and I am very proud to call him my friend and my leader.

Congressional Record The public proceedings of each House of Congress, as reported by the Official Reporters thereof, are printed pursuant to directions of the Joint Committee on Printing as authorized by appropriate provisions of Title 44, United States Code, and published for each day that one or both Houses are in session, excepting very infrequent instances when two or more unusually small consecutive issues are printed at one time. ¶Public access to the Congressional Record is available online through GPO Access, a service of the Government Printing Office, free of charge to the user. The online database is updated each day the Congressional Record is published. The database includes both text and graphics from the beginning of the 103d Congress, 2d session (January 1994) forward. It is available on the Wide Area Information Server (WAIS) through the Internet and via asynchronous dial-in. Internet users can access the database by using the World Wide Web; the Superintendent of Documents home page address is http://www.access.gpo.gov/su_docs, by using local WAIS client software or by telnet to swais.access.gpo.gov, then login as guest (no password required). Dial-in users should use communications software and modem to call (202) 512–1661; type swais, then login as guest (no password required). For general information about GPO Access, contact the GPO Access User Support Team by sending Internet e-mail to gpoaccess@gpo.gov, or a fax to (202) 512–1262; or by calling Toll Free 1–888–293–6498 or (202) 512–1530 between 7 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Eastern time, Monday through Friday, except for Federal holidays. ¶The Congressional Record paper and 24x microfiche will be furnished by mail to subscribers, free of postage, at the following prices: paper edition, $179.00 for six months, $357.00 per year, or purchased for $3.00 per issue, payable in advance; microfiche edition, $141.00 per year, or purchased for $1.50 per issue payable in advance. The semimonthly Congressional Record Index may be purchased for the same per issue prices. Mail orders to: Superintendent of Documents, P.O. Box 371954, Pittsburgh, PA 15250–7954, or phone orders to (202) 512–1800, or fax to (202) 512–2250. Remit check or money order, made payable to the Superintendent of Documents, or use VISA, MasterCard, Discover, or GPO Deposit Account. ¶Following each session of Congress, the daily Congressional Record is revised, printed, permanently bound and sold by the Superintendent of Documents in individual parts or by sets. ¶With the exception of copyrighted articles, there are no restrictions on the republication of material from the Congressional Record.
