SEC. 310. DESIGNATION OF DANIEL PATRICK MOYNIHAN PLACE.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that—

(1) during the second half of the twentieth century, Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan promoted the importance of architecture and urban planning in the Nation's Capital, particularly with respect to the portion of Pennsylvania Avenue between the White House and the United States Capitol (referred to in this subsection as the “Avenue”);

(2) Senator Moynihan has stressed the unique significance of the Avenue as conceived by

Pierre Charles L'Enfant to be the “grand axis” of the Nation's Capital as well as a symbolic representation of the separate yet unified branches of the United States Government;

(3) through his service to the Ad Hoc Committee on Federal Office Space (1961–1962), as a member of the President's Council on Pennsylvania Avenue (1962–1964), and as vice-chairman of the President's Temporary Commission on Pennsylvania Avenue (1965–1969), and in his various capacities in the executive and legislative branches, Senator Moynihan has consistently and creatively sought to fulfill President Kennedy's recommendation of June 1, 1962, that the Avenue not become a “solid phalanx of public and private office buildings which close down completely at night and on weekends,” but that it be “lively, friendly, and inviting, as well as dignified and impressive”;

(4)(A) Senator Moynihan helped draft a Federal architectural policy, known as the “Guiding Principles for Federal Architecture,” that recommends a choice of designs that are “efficient and economical” and that provide “visual testimony to the dignity, enterprise, vigor, and stability” of the United States Government; and

(B) the Guiding Principles for Federal Architecture further state that the “development of an official style must be avoided. Design must flow from the architectural profession to the Government, and not vice versa.”;

(5) Senator Moynihan has encouraged—

(A) the construction of new buildings along the Avenue, such as the Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center; and

(B) the establishment of an academic institution along the Avenue, namely the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, a living memorial to President Wilson; and

(6) as Senator Moynihan's service in the Senate concludes, it is appropriate to commemorate his legacy of public service and his commitment to thoughtful urban design in the Nation's Capital.

(b) DESIGNATION.—The parcel of land located in the northwest quadrant of Washington, District of Columbia, and described in subsection (c) shall be known and designated as “Daniel Patrick Moynihan Place”.

(3) submit a report to Congress, including the Committee on Government Reform and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives, and the Committee on the Judiciary and the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate, describing all such records, the disposition of such records, and the activities of the Interagency Group and agencies under this section.

(d) FUNDING.—There is authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this title.

(a) RELEASE OF RECORDS.—Subject to subsections (b), (c), and (d), the Japanese Imperial Government Records Interagency Working Group shall release in their entirety Japanese Imperial Government records.

(b) EXEMPTIONS.—An agency head may exempt from release under subsection (a) specific information, that would—

(1) constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

(2) reveal the identity of a confidential human source, or reveal information about an intelligence source or method when the unauthorized disclosure of that source or method would damage the national security interests of the United States;

(3) reveal information that would assist in the development or use of weapons of mass destruction;

(c) APPLICATIONS OF EXEMPTIONS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—In applying the exemptions provided in paragraphs (2) through (10) of subsection (b), there shall be a presumption that the public interest will be served by disclosure and release of the records of the Japanese Imperial Government. The exemption may be asserted only when the head of the agency that maintains the records determines that disclosure and release would be harmful to a specific interest identified in the exemption. An agency head who makes such a determination shall promptly report it to the committees of Congress with appropriate jurisdiction, including the Committee on the Judiciary and the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate and the Committee on Government Reform and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives.

(2) APPLICATION OF TITLE 5.—A determination by an agency head to apply an exemption provided in paragraphs (2) through (9) of subsection (b) shall be subject to the same standard of review that applies in the case of records withheld under section 552(b)(1) of title 5, United States Code.

(d) RECORDS RELATED TO INVESTIGATIONS OR PROSECUTIONS.—This section shall not apply to records—

(1) related to or supporting any active or inactive investigation, inquiry, or prosecution by the Office of Special Investigations of the Department of Justice; or

(2) solely in the possession, custody, or control of the Office of Special Investigations.

SEC. 804. EXPEDITED PROCESSING OF REQUESTS FOR JAPANESE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT RECORDS.

For purposes of expedited processing under section 552(a)(6)(E) of title 5, United States Code, any person who was persecuted in the manner described in section 802(a)(3) and who requests a Japanese Imperial Government record shall be deemed to have a compelling need for such record.

JOINT EXPLANATORY STATEMENT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

The managers on the part of the House and the Senate at the conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendment of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 4392) to authorize appropriations for fiscal year 2001 for intelligence and the intelligence-related activities of the United States government, the Community Management Account, and the Central Intelligence Agency Retirement and Disability System, and for other purposes, submit the following joint statement to the House and the Senate in explanation of the effect of the action agreed upon by the managers and recommended in the accompanying conference report:

The managers agree that the congressionally directed actions described in the House bill, the Senate amendment, the respective committee reports, and classified annexes accompanying H.R. 4392 and S. 2507, should be undertaken to the extent that such congressionally directed actions are not amended, altered, or otherwise specifically addressed in either this Joint Explanatory Statement or in the classified annex to the conference report on the bill H.R. 4392.

REPORT OF THE NATIONAL COMMISSION ON TERRORISM

Pursuant to Public Law 105-277, the National Commission on Terrorism, chaired by former Ambassador L. Paul Bremer III, submitted its report to Congress in June 2000. The managers commend the Commission for its effort and contribution on this critical issue.

Many of the Commission's findings strongly support positions Congress has taken. The Commission report reinforces the assessment by Congress of the scope and evolving nature of the international terrorist threat. The Commission further highlights the managers' view that good intelligence is one of the best tools against international terrorism, and that there is an urgent need to rebuild the NSA.

The Commission determined that some policies and other restrictions are hindering efforts to counter terrorism. For example, the Commission highlighted—with concern—the complex manner in which the Justice Department implements the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA). It noted, however, that the Attorney General managed to streamline the Department's processes for considering FISA warrants—still in a manner fully consistent with the law—in order to address the myriad terrorist threats during the millennium period. The Commission noted that the United States government was much more effective in pursuing terrorists during that period. The managers appreciate the Commission's support for the efforts of all involved in countering the millennium threats.

The Commission recommended the elimination of the 1995 DCI guidelines requiring approvals from CIA headquarters before terrorist informants who have human rights violations in their background can be recruited. The rationale stated by the Commissioners was that it should be understood by all in the Intelligence Community that aggressive recruitment of human intelligence sources is one of the highest priorities. The managers share this priority, and will continue to examine the implementation of these important guidelines. The managers are concerned, however, that there may be intangible impediments to recruitment of such terrorist informants. For instance, there may be some in CIA headquarters who believe that Congress and the American public will not support a CIA relationship with a "terrorist organization insider," or close associates of terrorists, even though such persons may often be in the best or only position to provide valuable counterterrorism intelligence. The managers applaud the determined effort of the CIA to ensure that all case officers understand the commitment of the Agency to the recruitment of persons with access to information on terrorist organizations or access to the organizations themselves. The managers also insist that appropriate recruitment of such sources receives the continued and necessary support from CIA management at all levels.

Unquestionably, a robust and effective intelligence effort will, from time to time, require U.S. interaction with extremely dangerous and truly unsavory characters. After all, it is an unfortunate matter of fact that individuals with reputable backgrounds rarely yield the key intelligence leads that are critical to the counterterrorist efforts of the United States.

The managers strongly support an aggressive counterterrorism program, and urge all intelligence officers to continue their heroic efforts to deter terrorist activities against U.S. citizens and interests at home and around the world.

TITLE I—INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

SEC. 101. AUTHORIZATION FOR APPROPRIATIONS

Section 101 of the conference report lists the departments, agencies, and other elements of the United States government for whose intelligence and intelligence-related activities the Act authorizes appropriations for fiscal year 2001. Section 101 is identical to section 101 of the House bill and section 101 of the Senate amendment.

SEC. 102. CLASSIFIED SCHEDULE OF AUTHORIZATIONS

Section 102 of the conference report makes clear that the details of the amounts authorized to be appropriated for intelligence and intelligence-related activities and applicable personnel ceilings covered under this title for fiscal year 2001 are contained in a classified Schedule of Authorizations. The classified Schedule of Authorizations is incorporated into the Act by this section. The Schedule of Authorizations shall be made available to the Committees on Appropriations of the Senate and House of Representatives and to the President. The classified annex provides the details of the Schedule. Section 102 is identical to section 102 of the House bill and section 102 of the Senate amendment.

SEC. 103. PERSONNEL CEILING ADJUSTMENTS

Section 103 of the conference report authorizes the Director of Central Intelligence, with the approval of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, in fiscal year 2001 to authorize employment of civilian personnel in excess of the personnel ceilings applicable to the components of the Intelligence Community under section 102 by an amount not to exceed two percent of the total of the ceilings applicable under section 102. The Director of Central Intelligence may exercise this authority only if necessary to the performance of important intelligence functions. Any exercise of this authority must be reported to the intelligence committees of the Congress.

The managers emphasize that the authority conferred by section 103 is not intended to permit wholesale increases in personnel strength in any intelligence component. Rather, the section provides the Director of Central Intelligence with flexibility to adjust personnel levels temporarily for contingencies and for overages caused by an imbalance between hiring of new employees and attrition of current employees. The managers do not expect the Director of Central Intelligence to allow heads of intelligence components to plan to exceed levels set in the Schedule of Authorizations except for the satisfaction of clearly identified hiring needs that are consistent with the authorization of personnel strengths in this bill. In no case is this authority to be used to provide for positions denied by this bill. Section 103 is identical to section 103 of the House bill and section 103 of the Senate amendment.

SEC. 104. COMMUNITY MANAGEMENT ACCOUNT

Section 104 of the conference report authorizes appropriations for the Community Management Account (CMA) of the Director of Central Intelligence (DCI) and sets the personnel end-strength for the Intelligence Community management staff for fiscal year 2001.

Subsection (a) authorizes appropriations of $163, 231,000 for fiscal year 2001 for the activities of the CMA of the DCI. This amount includes funds identified for the Advanced Research and Development Committee and the Advanced Technology Group, which shall remain available until September 30, 2002.

Subsection (b) authorizes 313 full-time personnel for the Community Management Staff for fiscal year 2001 and provides that such personnel may be permanent employees of the Staff or detailed from various elements of the United States government.

Subsection (c) authorizes additional appropriations and personnel for the CMA as specified in the classified Schedule of Authorizations and permits these additional amounts to remain available through September 30, 2002.

Subsection (d) requires that, except as provided in Section 113 of the National Security Act of 1947, or for temporary situations of less than one year, personnel from another element of the United States government be detailed to an element of the CMA on a reimbursable basis.

Subsection (e) authorizes $34,100,000 of the amount authorized in subsection (a) to be made available for the National Drug Intelligence Center (NDIC). Subsection (e) requires the DCI to transfer these funds to the Department of Justice to be used for NDIC activities under the authority of the Attorney General and subject to section 103(d)(1) of the National Security Act. Subsection (e) is similar to subsection (e) of the House bill and subsection (e) of the Senate amendment.

The managers note that since Fiscal Year 1997 the Community Management Account has included authorization for appropriations for the National Drug Intelligence Center (NDIC). Over that time, the funding level for the NDIC has remained unchanged. The committees periodically have expressed concern about the effectiveness of NDIC and its ability to fulfill the role for which it was created. The managers are encouraged, however, by the NDIC's recent improved performance and by the refocused role for the organization, which was outlined in the Administration's General Counterdrug Intelligence Plan earlier this year. The managers agree to provide $7.1 million over the requested amount for the NDIC and instruct the Director of the NDIC to provide a spending plan to the intelligence committees and to the appropriations committees within 90 days of enactment of this Act.

SEC. 105. TRANSFER AUTHORITY OF THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Section 105 is identical to Section 105 of the House bill. The Senate amendment had no similar provision. The Senate recedes.

TITLE II—CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
RETIREMENT AND DISABILITY SYSTEM

SEC. 201. AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

Section 201 is identical to Section 201 of the Senate amendment and section 201 of the House bill.

TITLE III—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Subtitle A—Intelligence Community

SEC. 301. INCREASE IN EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION
AND BENEFITS AUTHORIZED BY LAW

Section 301 is identical to section 301 of the Senate amendment and section 301 of the House bill.

SEC. 302. RESTRICTION ON CONDUCT OF INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

Section 302 is identical to section 302 of the Senate amendment and section 302 of the House bill.

SEC. 303. SENSE OF THE CONGRESS ON INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY CONTRACTING

Section 303 is identical to section 303 of the House bill. The Senate amendment had no similar provision. The Senate recedes to the House provision.

SEC. 304. PROHIBITION ON UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF CLASSIFIED INFORMATION

Section 304 is identical to section 303 of the Senate amendment. The House bill had no similar provision. The House recedes.

Unauthorized disclosures of sensitive intelligence information are of great concern. Such disclosures, regardless of whether they involve an intelligence "success" or "failure," can compromise irreplaceable sources and methods, and in some cases, can directly endanger lives.

The managers note that the current Executive Order governing classified national security information (E.O. 12958) requires that, in order to classify information, the original classifying authority must determine that unauthorized disclosure of the information reasonably could be expected to result in damage to the national security and the original classification authority must be able to identify or describe the damage. The managers further note that the current Executive Order specifically prohibits the classification of information in order to conceal violations of law, inefficiency, or administrative error or to prevent embarrassment to the government.

It is the intent of the managers that the government may meet its burden of proof under this statute by proving that the information was classified under the applicable statute or Executive Order. The government should not be required to prove that damage to the national security actually has or will result from the unauthorized disclosure. Subsection (c)(2) is not intended by the managers to create a defense based on a technical error in the classification markings, or the lack thereof, or to create a right of the defendant to dispute the propriety of the President's classification decision. The managers believe that requiring the government to prove that the classified information is or has been properly classified under an applicable statute or Executive Order strikes the appropriate balance between protecting only that information that would damage the national security if disclosed and not creating a burden of proof that is so great that the government could never meet its burden without having to disclose unnecessarily additional classified information.

SEC. 305. AUTHORIZATION FOR TRAVEL ON ANY COMMON CARRIER

Section 305 is similar to Section 304 of the House bill. The Senate amendment had no similar provision. The Senate recedes, with amendment.

Section 4(b)(3) of the CIA Act of 1949, as amended, provides the DCI with authority to promulgate regulations governing travel requirements for CIA officers and other federal government employees or members of the Armed Services detailed to the CIA.

Subject to regulation, CIA employees and detailees to the CIA may be permitted to use non-American-flag airlines when it is determined to be essential to satisfy mission requirements. The managers believe that this type of flexibility is necessary for other personnel of the Intelligence Community carrying out intelligence community mission requirements, given the nature of the work of the Intelligence Community. This provision is not intended to supersede the CIA's current regulation relating to this matter. Rather, it is a complementary provision meant to ensure an appropriate level of latitude to the Intelligence Community to carry out the critically important activities in pursuit and defense of the national security.

SEC. 306. UPDATE OF REPORT ON EFFECTS OF FOREIGN ESPIONAGE ON U.S.

Section 306 is similar to Section 306 of the House bill. The Senate amendment had no similar provision. The Senate recedes, with technical amendment.

SEC. 307. POW/MIA ANALYTIC CAPABILITY IN THE INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY

Section 307 is similar to Section 304 of the Senate amendment. The House bill had no similar provision. The House recedes, with technical modifications.

SEC. 308. APPLICABILITY TO LAWFUL UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES OF FEDERAL LAWS IMPLEMENTING INTERNATIONAL TREATIES AND AGREEMENTS

Section 308 is identical to Sec. 305 of the Senate amendment. The House had no similar provision. The House recedes.

The managers note that section 308 applies only to intelligence activities of the United States. By its clear terms, this provision deals solely with the application of U.S. law to U.S. intelligence activities. Unquestionably, it does not address the issue of the lawfulness of such activities under the laws of foreign countries. It is also not meant to suggest that a person violating the laws of the United States may claim any authorization from a foreign government as justification for a violation of a U.S. law, or as a defense in a prosecution for such violation.

SEC. 309. LIMITS ON HANDLING, RETENTION, AND STORAGE OF CERTAIN CLASSIFIED MATERIALS BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Section 309 is identical to Section 306 of the Senate amendment. The House addressed this issue in the classified annex to the report accompanying the bill H.R. 4392, but had no similar statutory proposal. The House recedes.

SEC. 310. DESIGNATION OF DANIEL PATRICK MOYNIHAN PLACE

Section 310 is nearly identical to Section 309 of the Senate amendment. The House had no similar provision. The House recedes, with technical amendments. The managers agreed to technical modifications pertaining to the exact description and location of the parcel of land in Washington, D.C., to be designated in honor of the retiring senior Senator from the State of New York.

SEC. 311. NATIONAL SECURITY AGENCY VOLUNTARY SEPARATION PAY ACT

Neither the House bill nor the Senate amendment contained similar provisions.

Section 311 establishes the "National Security Agency Voluntary Separation Act." This provision grants to the Director of the National Security Agency (NSA) the authority to establish a program for early retirement and voluntary separation pay for NSA employees. The provision allows the Director to either offer early retirement for employees who are at least 50 years of age and have 20 years of service, or who have at least 25 years of service, regardless of age. The Director is also permitted to offer $25,000 in separation pay to eligible applicants. The Director is empowered to deny an employee's application for benefit under this section.

The NSA is in a unique period of transition, the success of which will affect the overall capabilities of the Intelligence Community for the next several decades. The Director of Central Intelligence has claimed that the modernization of NSA is his number one priority. There are several aspects to the NSA modernization effort that range from overhauling technical collection, to restructuring acquisition, to new personnel programs, including major outsourcing initiatives. The Director needs the flexibility to institute whatever personnel changes he deems necessary if NSA modernization is to be successful. This provision will give him that needed flexibility. This section is modeled after the CIA Voluntary Separation Pay Act (Public Law 103-36).

The managers understand that such authority could be seen as setting a precedent, and that other agencies may wish to have such authorities as well. In the managers' view, the situation at NSA is unique, not only in the enormity of the task of modernization, but also in the direct impact on national security should NSA modernization fail. Therefore, the managers believe that this is a necessary step to take for the specific circumstance confronting the NSA.

Subtitle B—Diplomatic Telecommunications Service Program Office (DTS-PO)

SEC. 321. REORGANIZATION OF DIPLOMATIC TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICE PROGRAM OFFICE

Section 321 reorganizes the Diplomatic Telecommunications Service Program Office (DTS-PO). The managers agree that the current DTS-PO management and Diplomatic Telecommunication Service (DTS) operations structure is fundamentally flawed and believe that a new construct for managing the DTS is necessary. They further agree that retaining the current DTS-PO organization, but with a new management approach, is the best means for improving DTS support to all U.S. government users. Funding has been authorized in this legislation for the purposes of overhauling the DTS-PO management and correcting communications and security deficiencies within the DTS.

The current organizational structure requires that both the DTS-PO Director and Deputy Director concur on technical, funding, and operational issues before actions can be taken. This management-by-consensus approach abrogates the authority of the Director to make final decisions. It is clear to the managers that this management approach is not working, and that the parent organizations inherently lack the ability, and the will, to work together to resolve their mutual DTS issues of concern. Further, it is clear to the managers that the Office of Management and Budget has been frustrated in its obligations to ensure that executive branch organizations work together. Of significant concern is that, as currently operated, DTS-PO has exhibited substantial interruptions in service and presents serious security concerns for the protection of sensitive government communications. Because of these concerns, the managers, and the Chairmen and Ranking Minority Members of the other committees of jurisdiction, believe that a new management structure for DTS-PO is required and decidedly overdue. Similarly, they are of the view that a transition to a more modern and effective telecommunications system, based on commercial best-business practices, is warranted.

SEC. 322. CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER AND OTHER DTS-PO PERSONNEL

Section 322 establishes the position of Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and a DTS board of directors. The CEO is to be ultimately responsible for the management of the DTS-PO and operation of the DTS. The managers direct the OMB to recruit and hire a communications professional from outside the DTS-PO and the U.S. government for appointment as the CEO. This appointment is to be made no later than May 1, 2001. The CEO is granted the authorities necessary for managing, ensuring funding for, and operating the DTS, the DTS-PO, and their personnel. It is the managers' intent that the CEO will be the final decision authority for implementing necessary changes to the DTS, and for managing all communications, technology, and security upgrades to satisfy DTS United States user requirements. The managers further direct the CEO to certify that the operational and security requirements and practices of DTS conform to the highest security requirements and practices required by any U.S. government agency utilizing the DTS.

Consistent with Section 305 of the "Admiral James W. Nance and Meg Donovan Foreign Relations Authorization Act, Fiscal Years 2000 and 2001" (section 305 of appendix G of Public Law 106-113), the CEO shall: (1) ensure that those enhancements of, and the provision of service for, telecommunications capabilities that involve the national security interests of the United States receive the highest prioritization; (2) confirm the termination of all leases for satellite systems located at posts in criteria countries, unless all maintenance and servicing of the satellite system is undertaken by United States citizens who have received appropriate security clearances; and (3) implement a system of charges for utilization of bandwidth by all participating agencies, and institute a comprehensive charge-back system to recover all, or substantially all, of the other costs of telecommunications services provided through the DTS to each agency.

Beginning August 1, 2001, and every six months thereafter, the CEO shall submit a report to the oversight committees regarding the activities of DTS-PO during the preceding six months, the current capabilities of DTS-PO, and the priorities of DTS-PO for the subsequent six month period. The semi-annual report shall include a discussion of any administrative, budgetary, legislative, or management issues that hinder the ability of DTS-PO to fulfill its mandate.

Upon the appointment of a CEO on May 1, 2001, the current positions of Director and Deputy Director of DTS-PO shall be eliminated. To assist the CEO, and to perform such duties as the CEO may require, there shall be two Deputy Executive Officers. The DTS-PO management staff will consist of not more than four other employees. The Director of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) shall prescribe the rates of basic pay for the CEO, the two Deputy Executive Officers, and any other DTS-PO employees.

SEC. 323. DIPLOMATIC TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICE OVERSIGHT BOARD

Section 323 establishes a Diplomatic Telecommunications Service Oversight Board ("the Board"). The Board shall perform an oversight function with respect to DTS, DTS-PO, and the CEO. Specifically, the Board shall be empowered to review and approve: overall strategies, policies and goals established by DTS-PO; financial plans, budgets and periodic financing requests developed by DTS-PO; overall performance relative to approved budget plans; any DTS-PO reports, documents, and records; and audits of DTS-PO. The CEO will be responsible to this three-member board, which will be chaired by the Deputy Director of OMB. The two other board members shall be appointed by the President, as indicated in the classified annex to this bill. Decisions and directives of the Board shall require a majority vote of the Board. Although the Board will exercise oversight of, and provide management direction to, the CEO, the managers have authorized the CEO to control the day-to-day management and operations of DTS-PO and the DTS.

SEC. 324. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 324 requires that the Director of the OMB submit a report to the oversight committees not later than March 1, 2001. This report shall provide details on steps taken by the executive branch to restructure DTS-PO's management, to enhance the security practices of agencies participating in the DTS, and to develop a spending plan for the additional funds provided for the operation and improvement of DTS for fiscal year 2001.

The managers have determined that the most flexible procurement authority available to DTS-PO users shall be available to the DTS-PO. The notification requirements of sections 502, 504, and 505 of the National Security Act of 1947, as amended (50 U.S.C. 413a, 414, and 415, respectively) shall apply to DTS-PO, the CEO, and the Board.

It is the intent of Congress that the CEO shall have total and immediate insight into the complete operations of current and future DTS-PO and DTS operations. The managers expect the Secretary of State and the head of the other agency users to ensure this access. Likewise, Congress intends that the CEO can request the assistance of the Inspectors General of any agency user of the DTS and DTS-PO. The CEO should receive all reports from the IGs that relate to security of applicable overseas facilities and the DTS.

It is the intent of Congress that the Secretary of State, and the head of any other agency user of DTS, shall support the decisions and recommendations of the CEO in keeping with the current operation and transition of the DTS system. The CEO is expected to report any difficulties or obstacles presented by the agency users of the DTS in the implementation of these provisions.

TITLE IV—CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

SEC. 401. MODIFICATIONS TO CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY'S CENTRAL SERVICE PROGRAM

Section 401 is similar to Section 401 of the House bill and Section 403 of the Senate Amendment. The Senate recedes, with a technical modification.

There is concern among the managers relating to the costs levied by the Central Services Program upon the Langley Children's Center. These costs, for various and miscellaneous items or services provided by the Central Services Program to the non-profit Center, seem overly burdensome. The Center is of great utility to the dedicated and hard-working parents employed by the CIA. It is the expectation of the managers that the Central Services Program, in an effort to recoup costs, would not impose costs that would have an adverse impact on the continuity of the services provided by the Langley Children's Center.

SEC. 402. TECHNICAL CORRECTIONS

The House bill and the Senate amendment contained similar provisions. The Senate recedes to the House, with technical modifications.

SEC. 403. EXPANSION OF INSPECTOR GENERAL ACTIONS REQUIRING A REPORT TO CONGRESS

Section 403 is similar to Section 401 of the Senate amendment. The House had no similar provision. The House recedes, with technical modifications.

The conferees intend that this additional reporting requirement identified in the new Section 17(d)(3)(B) will arise when an investigation, inspection, or audit carried out by the Inspector General focuses upon the official identified in (i) or (ii), specifically, as opposed to an investigation, inspection, or audit of the office that the official heads, with only incidental references to the official.

SEC. 404. DETAIL OF EMPLOYEES TO THE NATIONAL RECONNAISSANCE OFFICE

Section 404 is identical to Section 404 of the Senate amendment. The House had no similar provision. The House recedes. The managers request that the DCI supply the intelligence committees with a report to be submitted annually, beginning October 1, 2001, that includes the number of detailees assigned pursuant to this provision and a description of the positions filled by the detailees.

SEC. 405. TRANSFERS OF FUNDS TO OTHER AGENCIES FOR ACQUISITION OF LAND

Section 405 is similar to Section 405 of the Senate amendment. The House had no similar provision. The House recedes, with a technical amendment.

SEC. 406. ELIGIBILITY OF ADDITIONAL EMPLOYEES FOR REIMBURSEMENT FOR PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY INSURANCE

Section 406 is identical to Section 406 of the Senate amendment. The House had no similar provision. The House recedes.

TITLE V—DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

SEC. 501. CONTRACTING AUTHORITY FOR THE NATIONAL RECONNAISSANCE OFFICE

Section 501 is similar to Section 502 of the House bill. The Senate amendment had no similar provision. The Senate recedes, with a technical amendment.

SEC. 502. ROLE OF DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE IN EXPERIMENTAL PERSONNEL PROGRAM FOR CERTAIN SCIENTIFIC AND TECHNICAL PERSONNEL

Section 502 is identical to Section 502 of the Senate amendment. The House had no similar provision. The House recedes.

SEC. 503. MEASUREMENT AND SIGNATURE INTELLIGENCE

Section 503 is identical to Section 506 of the Senate amendment. The House had no similar provision. The House recedes.

TITLE VI—COUNTERINTELLIGENCE MATTERS THE "COUNTERINTELLIGENCE REFORM ACT OF 2000"

Title VI includes Title VI of the Senate amendment. This language is similar to S. 2089, introduced on February 24, 2000. The bill was reported by the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence on July 20, 2000 (S. Report No. 106-352). The Senate Judiciary Committee had previously acted favorably upon the bill. The House had no similar provision. The House recedes, with minor modifications.

Title VI, as passed by the Senate on October 2, 2000, included a limitation on the obligation and expenditure of funds authorized to be appropriated for fiscal year 2001 for the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review (OIPR) within the Department of Justice until two reports were submitted to the appropriate committees. These reports were to describe the use to which the funds would be put in order to improve the efficiency of the FBI and the OIPR in the application and implementation process under the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act. In anticipation of passage of the Senate amendment, the Department of Justice submitted a draft version of the required reports to the congressional committees. Given the prompt response, the limitation for the obligation and expenditure of fiscal year 2001 funds is removed. The managers have left in place, however, the similar limitation on funds for fiscal years 2002 and 2003, pending the receipt of the recurring annual report required by section 606(b)(2).

TITLE VII—DECLASSIFICATION OF INFORMATION

"THE PUBLIC INTEREST DECLASSIFICATION ACT"

Title VII includes Title VIII of the Senate amendment. This title was based on the bills H.R. 3152 and S. 1801, introduced in the House and Senate in the 106th Congress, respectively. The House had no similar provision. The House recedes, with technical amendments.

Section 701 states that the title may be cited as the "Public Interest Declassification Act of 2000." Section 702 makes findings concerning the importance of public access to information that does not require continued protection to maintain the national security interests of the United States. Section 703 establishes a nine-person board to advise the President and other senior executive branch officials on classification and declassification policies, particularly on policies concerning the systematic, thorough, coordinated, and comprehensive review for declassification of records and materials that are of archival value, including records and materials of extraordinary public interest. The Board is also charged with promoting the fullest possible public access to a thorough, accurate, and reliable documentary record of significant US national security decisions and significant US national security activities.

Section 704 sets forth the requirement that heads of agencies with the authority to classify information must brief the Board on an annual basis, at the request of the Board or the intelligence oversight committees, on such agency's declassification policies and practices. The Board is to provide the agency with its recommendations on how the agency's declassification program could be improved. The Board is also responsible for making recommendations to the President on initiatives to identify, collect, and review for declassification classified records and materials of extraordinary public interest. The section also requires the Director of the Office of Management and Budget to publish a description of the President's declassification program and priorities, together with a listing of funds requested to implement that program, concurrent with the submission to Congress of the President's budget each fiscal year.

Sections 705, 706, and 707 set forth the standards governing access to and protection of national security information and other information covered under this title. Section 708 provides an authorization of appropriations for the Board. Section 709 sets forth definitions of the terms used in Title VII. The effective date of Title VII is 120 days after the date of enactment of the Act. The provisions of the title expire four years after the date of enactment of the Act.

TITLE VIII—DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION ON JAPANESE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT

THE "NAZI WAR CRIMES AND JAPANESE IMPERIAL GOVERNMENT DISCLOSURE ACT OF 2000"

Title VIII is similar to title VII of the Senate amendment, which was identical to the language of H.R. 3561 and S. 1902. The House had no similar provision. The House recedes, with modifications.

The modifications require that the inter-agency working group established pursuant to the Nazi War Crimes Disclosure Act of 1999 (P.L. 105-246) be expanded and assigned the responsibility of also carrying out the requirements of this title. The managers decided this was the most cost-effective approach, rather than establishing a new inter-agency working group.

JOINT EXPLANATORY STATEMENT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

The managers on the part of the House and the Senate at the conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendment of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 2415) an Act to enhance security of United States missions and personnel overseas, to authorize appropriations for the Department of State for fiscal year 2000, and for other purposes, submit the following joint statement to the House and the Senate in explanation of the effect of the action agreed upon by the managers and recommended in the accompanying conference report:

The Senate amendment struck out all of the House bill after the enacting clause and inserted a substitute text.

The House recedes from its disagreement to the amendment of the Senate with an amendment which is a substitute for the House bill and the Senate amendment.

The conference agreement would enact the provision of S. 3186 of the 106th Congress, as introduced on October 11, 2000. The text of that bill follows:
