

107TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 163

Recognizing the historical significance of Juneteenth Independence Day and expressing the sense of Congress that history be regarded as a means of understanding the past and solving the challenges of the future.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 14, 2001

Mr. WATTS of Oklahoma (for himself and Mr. DAVIS of Illinois) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Government Reform

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Recognizing the historical significance of Juneteenth Independence Day and expressing the sense of Congress that history be regarded as a means of understanding the past and solving the challenges of the future.

Whereas news of the end of slavery did not reach frontier areas of the country until long after the conclusion of the Civil War, especially in the Southwestern United States;

Whereas the African Americans who had been slaves in the Southwest thereafter celebrated June 19, known as Juneteenth Independence Day, as the anniversary of their emancipation;

Whereas these African Americans handed down that tradition from generation to generation as an inspiration and encouragement for future generations;

Whereas Juneteenth Independence Day celebrations have thus been held for 136 years to honor the memory of all those who endured slavery and especially those who moved from slavery to freedom; and

Whereas the faith and strength of character shown by these former slaves remains an example for all people of the United States, regardless of background, region, or race: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That—

3 (1) Congress recognizes the historical signifi-
4 cance of Juneteenth Independence Day, an impor-
5 tant date in the Nation’s history, and encourages
6 the continued celebration of this day to provide an
7 opportunity for all people of the United States to
8 learn more about the past and to better understand
9 the experiences that have shaped the Nation; and

10 (2) it is the sense of Congress that—

11 (A) history be regarded as a means for un-
12 derstanding the past and solving the challenges
13 of the future;

14 (B) the celebration of the end of slavery is 15 an important and enriching part of the history
16 and heritage of the United States; and

1 (C) a copy of this joint resolution should
2 be transmitted to the National Association of
3 Juneteenth Lineage as an expression of appre-
4 ciation for its role in promoting the observance
5 of the end of slavery.
