

107TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. CON. RES. 250

Honoring the United States Capitol Police for their commitment to security at the Capitol.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 16, 2001

Ms. LEE submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on House Administration

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Honoring the United States Capitol Police for their commitment to security at the Capitol.

Whereas the Capitol is an important symbol of freedom and democracy across the United States and throughout the world, and those who safeguard the Capitol safeguard that freedom and democracy;

Whereas millions of people visit the Capitol each year to observe and learn the workings of the democratic process;

Whereas the United States Capitol Police force was created by Congress in 1828 to provide security for the Capitol;

Whereas today the United States Capitol Police provide protection and support services throughout an array of congressional buildings, parks, and thoroughfares;

Whereas the United States Capitol Police provide security for Members of Congress, their staffs, other government employees, and many others who live near, work on, and visit Capitol Hill;

Whereas the United States Capitol Police have successfully managed and coordinated major demonstrations, joint sessions of Congress, State of the Union Addresses, State funerals, and inaugurations;

Whereas the United States Capitol Police have bravely faced numerous emergencies, including three bombings and two shootings, one of which, in 1998, tragically took the lives of Private First Class Jacob “J.J.” Chestnut and Detective John Michael Gibson;

Whereas the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001, have created a uniquely difficult environment for the United States Capitol Police, requiring heightened security, prompting extra alertness, and causing some strain among police, staff, and visitors;

Whereas the United States Capitol Police responded to this challenge quickly and courageously, including by facilitating the evacuation of all of the buildings under their purview, as well as the perimeter thereof; and

Whereas the United States Capitol Police have instituted 12-hour shifts, 6 days per week, requiring that officers work 30 hours of overtime each week to ensure the continued protection of the Capitol: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That the Congress honors and thanks the 3 United States Capitol Police for their outstanding work

1 and dedication during a period of heightened security that 2 began on September 11, 2001.
